Department's No Help In Landscaping

Apparently it was in the thought of the city council that the Ontario Department of Lands and Forests might have on their staff one or more landscapers. Their thinking looked in that direction after receiving a memorandum from Board of Governors of Civic Hospital about beginning to plan the layout of the spacious ground around the institution.

And as Hon. H. R. Scott, head of the department, was a Peterborough man, it was presumably the idea that he might have a man who could take charge of the local work.

Mr. A. E. K. Bunnell of the Department of Planning, who used to live here, referred to the letter to Mr. Scott, and wrote that none of the departments was equipped to undertake landscaping service.

"If the Board of Governors and the city council are interested in engaging professional assistance, I would be glad to suggest the names of two or three capable persons."

Disturber Fined

Grant Howard, 144 London St., who pleaded guilty at city police court today to causing a disturbance at Brock St. Summer Gardens on April 9, was fined $10 with $2.50 costs on that charge and $25 and $2.50 costs for escaping from police custody. Crown Attorney John Bradshaw said Howard was on suspended sentence for a previous offence.

Strikers At Studio Plan To Come Back

LONDON, April 19 (CP)—The 150 electricians at the Denham and Pinewood Film Studios, whose 11-day strike caused dismissal of 2,000 other workers, return to the job tomorrow, it was announced today by Rank organization which owns the studios.

It was announced earlier today that the labor ministry was attempting to call a meeting between the employers and the union.

The ministry of labor discussed the dispute with the National Association of Theatrical and Kine Employees and later with the British Film Producers Association.

The walkout began last week in protest against the transfer of a local union chief.

Find Wife's Body

FAYETTEVILLE, NC, April 19 (AP).—The nude, battered body of a former soldier's wife was found Monday tied hand and foot in a pine thicket near a lovers' lane. Relatives identified her as Mrs. Martha Kennedy Hicks, 41, of the Bonnie Doone community, where she lived with her husband, Joe Hicks, who repored her missing April 9.

Professor Jailed

SEATTLE, April 19—(AP) — Ralph Gundlach, who recently was dismissed from his post as professor at the University of Washington, yesterday was sentenced to 30 days in jail and fined $250 on a charge of contempt of the state legislative committee on un-American activities. He had refused to tell the committee whether he was, or ever had been, a Communist.

Perth 133 Years Old

PERTH, April 19—(CP)—This Eastern Ontario town of 4,458 persons Monday observed its 133rd birthday. The town was founded in 1816 as part of the military settlement of the Rideau district. The first group of settlers consisted of about 700 persons from Scotland. Many were soldiers disbanded from the British forces after the war of 1812.

Minister Admits Slaying Wife

NEW YORK, April 19 — (AP) —A young Baptist minister today said he had beaten his wife fatally after finding her in bed with another man, police reported.

Brookly police said Rev. James F Brown, 26, made the statement after he had at first reported his wife was beaten by two other men. Detectives found the wife, Anna, 24, in a pool of blood in her home.

Detective James Cahill told this story.

Brown, a negro, came to the police station at 3 a.m. and reported he had found his wife dead a few minutes earlier.

He said Delores, 4, oldest of his four children, had told him he was awakened by her mother's screams and saw two men beating her mother. Dolores later said she was telling a version her father had instructed her to give.

After questioning, Brown said he had come home at midnight and found his wife and the man. Brown said he snatched up a wooden table leg, ran the man from the house, and then beat his wife until she was unconscious.

The minister said he washed the blood from his hands and prayed over his wife but she died in a few minutes.

New Hymnaries Given To Church

HAVELOCK, April 19 (ENS) —Five dozen new hymnaries were dedicated at the Easter Sunday morning service in Havelock United Church. Three dozen being presented by the Young People's Union and two dozen by the congregation. The latter donation included a dozen with music for choir use.

Finds Air Base Thriving Little Village

By DAVE McINTOSH

GREENWOOD, N.S., April 19 (CP).—You don't find the same urgency now that pervaded this Annapolis valley RCAF base throughout the war. But its inhabitants are as alert and keen as ever.

Greenwood resembles any Canadian village more than it does the bustling airfield it is. The buildings are painted white, a sharp contrast to their old wartime camouflage of grey or dull green. There is a theatre, store and school. One hundred homes have been built on the station and another 100 are about to go up.

You would hardly know that this is the home of 130 Search and Rescue Squadron, one of the few operational air force units in Canada. Almost daily, the big Lancaster aircraft take off to look for a missing boat, to carry food to an isolated island or drop a doctor off an an errand of mercy.

An Ordinary Job

The men do not figure that they are much different from civilians or that their jobs vary greatly from the "outside" jobs. Most of them work from nine to five and go home to their wives and families.

A clothes line is strung outside the block next to the officers' mess and dozens of kids can be seen scrambling around the guardhouse at almost any hour of the day.

Rent for a new, five-room house comes to about $66 for an officer, $44 for an airman.

Most of the 400 men on the base are married. Of this number, about 40 are aircrew.

Chief search and rescue pilots here are Flt. Lts. Grant Nelson of St. Thomas, Ont.; John Moss of London, England, an RAF exchange officer, and Errol Shaw of Toronto.

A crew stands ready to take off at any time. It can be briefed and in the air under half an hour during the day, less than an hour at night.

Blast At Tomb

BRILLIANT, BC, April 19 — (CP).—A shrine of orthodox Doukhobors, the oft-disturbed tomb of Peter Berigin, suffered heavy damage in a dynamite blast Easter Sunday. However, a 100-pound charge did not penetrate the big marble-and-concrete slab placed over the tomb after it was wrecked in a bombing in July, 1944. The Sons of Freedom, the radical Doukhobor sect blamed for many acts of violence in the Kootenays, have regarded the shine as a "false effigy."

Milk Truck Crash Fatal To Almonte Man

TRENT RIVER, April 18 (ENS)—Word has been received here of a tragic accident in Almonte, 20 miles from Ottawa, on April 11 which took the life of Asa Van Camp Gawley, 41-year-old farmer of that district, who was well-known in this area. Mr. Gawley was killed when the milk truck he was driving struck a hydrant, overturned and crashed into a stone wall on the outskirts of Almonte. Funeral service for the late Mr. Gawley was held from his residence on Wednesday, with interment in New Boyne Cemetery, Leeds County.

Robert Kean, Mr. Gawley's recently adopted 10-year-old son, who was also in the truck, escaped with minor injuries. He is in the hospital at Almonte under observation.

Dr. A. A. Metcalfe, district coroner, started a preliminary inquiry and said an inquest would be held this week.

Born In Quebec

Mr. Gawley was born in Campbell's Bay, Que., son of Royal Gawley of Marmora and the late Katharine Hamilton, also of Marmora. He was educated at Carleton Place and was a member of the Anglican Church, coming to Almonte seven years ago.

He is survived by his wife, Adella Hannah, Almonte, and two adopted sons, Robert, 10, and Jimmie, 14, also three sisters and three brothers, namely: Mrs. Albert Nickle (Freda) of Malone, Mrs. Borden Hilliard (Opal) of Almonte, Mrs. Thos. Wight (Pauline) of Trent River, Gardner Gawley of Norwood, Murison Gawley of Madoc and Elwin Gawley of Almonte. Mrs. John H. Scott of Trent River is an aunt.

Reds Annual Expenditure Exceeds US-Britain's Total

CHICAGO (NEA).—The Soviet Union spent as much money on armaments last year as the United States and Great Britain combined.

This revelation is made in an article on "Armies of the World," written by Brig. Gen. Edwin L. Sibert in the forthcoming 1949 Britannica Book of the Year. Sibert was commanding general of the U.S. Army forces in the Antilles, and is a veteran of governmental intelligence work.

The Soviet Union professed to spend only 17 per cent of its budget on its military forces, the article points out. However, an analysis of allocation, "including the expense of assisting the military forces of other eastern European powers," placed the outlay in the neighborhood of 20 billion dollars, at the existing rate of exchange.

Thus, Gen. Sibert's article declares, the Soviet expenditure on military preparations was "approximately the combined total of the U.S. and British outlays."

The Soviet Union maintained last year about 4,000,000 men under arms, of whom about 40 per cent were believed to be in Russia, 30 per cent in Germany and Eastern Europe, 20 per cent in the Far East, and the remaining forces in the Caucasus, Gen. Sibert reports.

"The Russians maintained 100 divisions mobilized and in close to combat condition. Of these 26 were in Germany. More than half of the divisions in eastern Germany were armored, with a large proportion of the balance mechanized. Another nine Soviet divisions were in Poland.

"In addition to the Soviet divisions, reports continued to flow from the east concerning German units under Soviet command. A large proportion of the 246,000 police in the Soviet Zone of Germany were believed to come from those German units captured at Stalingrad."

The Red army held large-scale training exercises in Germany almost continually during good campaign weather of last year. "These exercises, conducted on corps and army bases, were undoubtedly directed as much toward the 'cold war' effect as toward actual training," the article comments.

Easter Program At WMS Meeting

COTTESLOE, April 19 (ENS)—The April meeting of Cottesloe United Church WMS was held at the home of Mrs. Howard Patterson. Seventeen ladies answered the roll call with a verse with "Risen" in it. Prayer was offered by Miss Helen Tedford and Mrs. Wm. Forsythe. Mrs. Howard Harnden gave the reading "Happy Easter." Mrs. Forsythe read a temperance item "Where Men are Educated to Sell Liquor." Helen Tedford read "Drinking Mothers." The Easter service program from the Missionary Monthly was followed. The scripture readings were read by Mrs. John Gallaher and Mrs. Charles McMillan. Mrs. Fred Toms gave the prayers. Mrs. Thomas Webster sang "Living for Jesus."

Chapter Read

The chapter in the Study Book "The Christian Church," was given by Mrs. Merd. Clysdale. It told of the many difficulties and hardships the people had when the war was on to keep up the teaching of Christianity. The people in China repaired their churches with small assistance from Canadians. There is no longer a stigma to being a Christian in West China and missionaries are needed now more than ever before.

The next meeting will be held at the church on May 11.

Mrs. Patterson served a salad lunch assisted by her daughter Marjory of Peterborough.

Armande Webster of Lakefield has begun work on his new home at Cotesloe. Mr. Webster purposes building a service station, store and house. Mr. Webster was born here and attended Cottesloe school.

CAVAN, April 19—(ENS)—Relatives and friends of Mr. and Mrs. Ira Gillis met on Thursday evening at their home to join with them in celebrating their 30th wedding anniversary. Mr. and Mrs. Gillis were assisted in receiving their guests by their daughters Mrs. Austin Worr of Peterborough and Mrs. R. Ollin, Millbrook.

Ralph Preston of Bethany was chairman for a program consisting of community singing, vocal solos, and stunts. At the conclusion Mr. and Mrs. Gillis were escorted to prominent seats, and Miss Audrey Keene of Toronto read an address of good wishes and congratulations from the assembled guests.

Receive Gift

Presentation of a chesterfield suite was made by L. Sutton, H. Preston, Bethany, Austin Worr Peterborough, and Howard and Ross Gillis.

Mr. Gillis made a humorous reply and thanked everyone for their kindness. After the singing of "For they are jolly good fellows," lunch was served, and the remainder of the evening spent in dancing. Harry Preston and Lloyd Sutton were the conveners.

Thirty Pupils Take Part In Elocution Contests

LAKEFIELD, April 19—(ENS)—The first W.C.T.U. elocution contest to be held in the Emily district was presented recently in the Bethel United Church when nearly thirty children took part.

The contest was organized by John Lewis, teacher of Orange Corners school, Emily, and sponsored by the Smith W. C. T. U.

Harry Jackson was chairman and spoke of the fine work which was being done for the cause of temperance. Eight girls from Orange Corners school sang a chorus "Home on the Range."

Mrs. Gordon Mann, W. C. T. U. president gave an address, explaining the work of the W. C. T. U.

Russians Tighten Blockade Amid Many Rumors Ready To Call Off "War"

Communist Police Close Off More Streets On Borders Of Allied Sections, To Make Their Squeeze More Effective

BERLIN, April 20—(AP).—Amid all the rumors that the Russians may be planning to lift their Berlin blockade, they tightened it today. Communist police in the Soviet sector closed off more streets on the borders of the western allied sections to make their squeeze even a little more effective.

United States Air Force officials, discounting all rumors that an early end to the blockade may be in sight, said the allied air lift will be continued even if the blockade is removed.

The United States Army newspaper Stars and Stripes quoted Gen. Lucius D. Clay, American miltary governor, as saying he knew of no new Russian overtures, direct or indirect, to lift the blockade.

Neues Deutschland, official organ of the Socialist Unity (Communist) Party in the Russian zone of Germany, derided speculation by westerners concerning the likelihood that the blockade would be lifted.

Heinrich Rau, Communist chairman of the German Economic Commission, was quoted by a British-licensed newspaper today as predicting the Russians will lift the Berlin blockade soon. The commission is the de facto German government in the Soviet occupation zone. The newspaper, Der Sozialdemokrat, said Rau made his prediction at a conference of Socialist Unity (Communist) Party officials at Potsdam, near Berlin in the Russian zone.

Der Sozialdemokrat quoted Rau as saying that despite all efforts to keep Eastern Germany's economy going, it has been strangled by the Allies' counter-blockade which has cut off vital supplies that used to come from western Germany.

"This stagnation can only be overcome by resumption of transport and trade with western Germany," Rau was quoted as saying.

The Communist Russian zone leader was reported to have admitted his zone cannot stand on its own feet economically, even with the "generous help" of the Soviet Union.

Not Involved

OTTAWA, April 20—(CP).—The Canadian destroyer Crescent, standing by at Hong Kong, is not expected to become involved in the hostilities involving the Royal Navy sloop Amethyst, a naval headquarters official said today. The official said the main purpose of the Crescent in Hong Kong was to protect Canadian nationals in the area. So far as was known, no Canadian nationals are involved in the fighting at Shanghai.

Oshawa Man Slugged By Two Thugs

Bandits Escape With Diamonds; Jeweller In Hospital

OSHAWA, April 20 (CP) — Two young thugs escaped with an undetermined quantity of diamonds and jewelry today after slugging F. A. Von Gunten, Oshawa jeweler, over the head with a blunt instrument. The jeweler is in hospital with a three-inch gash in his head.

The bandits escaped after binding Von Gunten's hands in front of him and placing a gag in his mouth. After asking to be shown some merchandise the men slugged the aged jeweler over the head as he straightened up.

Von Gunten, who was unable to give police a clear and accurate account of the robbery, said he heard the thieves ransack showcases and when he heard footsteps die away, he struggled to his feet. He staggered through a rear door into a restaurant, still bound and gagged.

Running Fight On Yangtze For Destroyer Consort Makes Port, 25 Wounded

Communist Gunners Cripple British Sloop With Heavy Casualties; Other Boats Rushing To Assist Ship

By FRED HAMPSON

SHANGHAI, April 20—(AP).—Communist shore artillery today crippled the British sloop Amethyst in the Yangtze River and drove off the destroyer Consort before she could help the smaller vessel. The helpless Amethyst, with at least 20 wounded or dead among her crew of 148, was aground on Rose Island, 60 miles northeast of Nanking, tonight. Not far away swirled the first attacks of the resurging Chinese civil war.

The Consort, fighting shore batteries for almost 50 miles, reached Kiangyin tonight with 27 of her crew wounded. She was joined by the frigate Black Swan which had doctors and medical supplies aboard.

The British cruiser London was expected to reach Kiangyin at 9 p.m. (8 a.m. EST). Vice-Admiral A. C. C. Madden, second in command of the Fast East station, is aboard the London. British authorities here said they were unable to contact responsible Communist quarters and Admiral Madden would determine his course later.

Fliers out of Nanking witnessed the running duel between the Consort and Red shore batteries.

A British naval source in Shanghai said: "I do not know what Madden can do except use force."

Neither Lord Fraser, First Sea Lord, nor an earlier statement by the Admiralty identified the batteries.

Fraser said the Consort expected to be alongside the cruiser London by nightfall. The 10,000-ton London was moving upstream from Shanghai.

Carrying Supplies

"In the meantime," Fraser added, "our Ambassador has got in touch with both Nationalists and Communists explaining that the Amethyst was going up to relieve the Consort and was carrying supplies for the Ambassador and his staff at Nanking."

Lord Fraser, meeting reporters at his headquarters at the Royal Naval College in suburban Greenwich, said:

"Our principle is to leave it to the man on the spot, except where you can give him assistance. So all the Admiralty had to do was to inform the Foreign Office to get in touch with our Ambassador, to inform the Prime Minister and the Minister of Defence.

Sink Or Swim Together Churchill Says

LONDON, April 20—(Reuters)—Winston Churchill, renewing his call for a united Europe, today declared that "the people of Europe will have to sink or swim together."

"We have full faith that the time has come when they will decide to swim," he told the 20-country economic conference of the European movement at its opening session.

Attacking the "crazy system" of the old Europe with its 20 or more separate state—"each an economic unit fortified by tariff walls"—Churchill said there was no hope of recovery if Europe simply strove to rebuild itself on old national lines.

Referring to Britain's dependence to supplies from the great dominions of the Commonwealth, Churchill said:

"I am sure it is not impossible for Britain to draw far closer to Europe and to enter more forcefully into European life without abandoning these ties with our dominions which, to us, are paramount and sacred and comprise for us the idea of the British Commonwealth of Nations."

The three "circles" of the British Commonwealth, of the English-speaking world, and of the United Europe "form a common front and bulwark against totalitarianism in all its forms."

16 Homeless In $50,000 Fire At Baden

BADEN, Ont., April 20—(CP)—Sixteen persons, six of them children, were forced into the streets in night attire today as fire destroyed the major portion of the Peshnyk business block in this centre nine miles west of Kitchener.

Three of four families affected by the mystery blaze lost all their possessions. It was estimated unofficially that the loss may reach $50,000.

Two families were left almost penniless by the fire as clothing and furniture, some of it newly purchased, burned in the flames which sent heavy smoke billowing for hundreds of feet.

Rendered homeless by the fire are Mr. and Mrs. Stephen Peshnyk, proprietors of the building; Mr. and Mrs. George Schnarr, and five children; Mr. and Fred Beemer and one child; and Mr. and Mrs. Edward Roth and two adult sons.

Baden firemen were assisted by volunteer departments from nearby Wellesley and New Hamburg. Four main hoses were laid to the village pond which maintained a good water supply for the two-hour struggle.

Four business concerns were victims of the outbreak. The Peshnyk general store with an inventoried stock of $11,000 only a few weeks ago, was destroyed. The store is operated by Mrs. Peshynk and a barber shop operated by her husband also was destroyed.

Dr. Stephen Wise Jewish Leader Dies In Hospital

NEW YORK, April 20 (AP)—Dr. Stephen S. Wise, world-renowned Jewish leader who fought for half a century to make the world a better place to live for Jew and Gentile alike, died Tuesday. He celebrated his 75th birthday last March 17.

The end came at Lenox Hill Hospital, with his family grouped about his bedside.

He entered the hospital early this month for an operation for what the hospital called a "malignant stomach ailment." He had been gravely ill since last Saturday.

He died without realizing his last wish. He keenly wanted to visit the new nation of Israel. He had spent a lifetime working for its establishment.

Dr. Wise, an ardent Zionist, was president of the American Jewish Congress and the World Jewish Congress.

His many titles meant less to the tall, rugged Rabbi than did his ideals—which were many and covered a broad field of social progress.

The late President Roosevelt called him outstanding in the world for his fight for "the oppressed and underprivileged."

He turned down an offer to become Rabbi of Temple Emanu-El, New York's richest Jewish congregation. He said he was afraid his pulpit would be "under the control" of his trustees.

Instead he founded the Free Synagogue here. It became a monument to his life. Through its portals came Jew and Gentile to listen to Dr. Wise.

Chinese War Explodes Anew

NANKING, April 20 —(AP)—The Chinese civil war exploded all along the Yangtze River front tonight.

Communist attacks were started at several points. Gunfire could be heard and for the first time of the war seen from the capital.

Pukow, across the river was under attack. Serious fighting was reported by government sources opposite Wuhu, 60 miles southwest of here. Hsiaokan, 35 miles north of Hankow, was the focal point of the Red 43rd Army.

The general feeling at the moment is that Wuhu is the government's weak point. The river front there provides a good landing area.

Observers said they saw a number of fires about two miles west of Pukow.

There was intense troop activity throughout Nanking. Soldiers were marching up to the river front.

Along the river troops were digging trenches and other earthworks.

The military news agency reported that simultaneously the Communists launched their heaviest attack so far against Taiyuan, besieged capital of Shansi Province 600 miles to the northwest.

The agency said high casualties were reported inside the walled city from Communist shelling. Neutral observers believe that citadel may not stand much longer.

A high ranking minister of national defence source said the Red attacks seemed to be directed at all Nationalist positions on the north bank of the river.

Earlier Premier Ho Ying-chin told the Chinese parliament the government had rejected Red peace proposals in their present form.

Severe 'Quake Rocks Chile Report 36 Killed, 60 Hurt

SANTIAGO, Chile, April 20—(AP).—A severe earthquake hit south central Chile Tuesday night. First reports said 36 were killed and more than 60 injured. Heavy damage was reported in the cities of Traiguen and Angol. At Traiguen, believed to be the centre of the 'quake, about 30 persons were reported killed in the collapse of a jail. It was reported many others were injured at Traiguen in collapsing buildings and at least five persons were killed at Angol.

Concepcion, Talca and Temuco also felt the shock.

The government rushed aid to the region, where hundreds were reported homeless.

City officials said half the houses in Angol had crumbled or were badly damaged. A hospital was so badly wrecked that many of the injured had to spend the night in the streets.

At Traiguen, 50 or more houses were destroyed.

Continued slight tremors all through the night kept the inhabitants in a constant state of alarm.

Troops were patrolling some areas to prevent looting.

Peace Parley Opened By Reds

PARIS, April 20 — (AP)—A Communist - sponsored world peace conference opened here today with a plea for the formation of peace committees throughout the world to carry out the congress' plans.

The French Communist atomic scientist, Frederic Joliot-Curie, told the 1,800 delegations from 52 countries:

"We will show the war-mongers that they have to reckon with us. We fight this fight with the certainty of victory."

Unlike a world peace congress held in New York last month, this one opened with no anti-Communist pickets outside the meeting place and no evidence of any special police precautions. The anti-Communist press gave the meeting scant attention.

Although the press was barred from the floor of the congress, a simultaneous translations service, like that used at Untied Nations sessions, was to give the speeches to delegates and reporters in five languages through headphones at each seat.

Army Wants Practice Farmers Get Bridges

OTTAWA, April 20—(CP)—Nova Scotia can have its Canso bridge. Farmers around Saint John, N.B., are going to get individual bridges of their own—and for free.

The army is ready to build them over creeks and ravines on farms "just for practice," so long as the farmer lives within 25 miles of Saint John and has a few trees the troops can chop into timbers.

The 1st (Brighton) Field Squadron is anxious to try out its equipment.

Hepburn's Condition Reported Satisfactory

LONDON, Ont., April 20 (CP)—Mitchell F. Hepburn was said to be in satisfactory condition early to-day following a serious abdominal operation.

The nature of the ailment of the former Ontario Liberal Premier was not disclosed. But sources clase to the case said Mr. Hepburn, now 53, underwent similar abdominal surgery while he was head of the Provincial Government.

The operation was performed late on Tuesday. There was no official statement on its result, but it was learned on good authority that Mr. Hepburn came through the operation "satisfactorily."

Baby In Culvert, Near-Drowning

BOBCAYGEON, April 20 — Vigilance of a young neighbour saved a young baby from drowning in a culvert at Bobcaygeon.

The baby, "Du" Graham, was playing in a baby carriage when its movements started the carriage rolling. It rolled about six feet and toppled over. Getting speed down a six foot slope it plunged into the culvert and, turning over, threw the baby face down, into the water. Pillows and blankets were hurled on top of it.

Miss Roberta Stinson, 21-year-old daughter of Mrs. Harry Stinson, saw the carriage turn over and rushed to the baby's aid. Luckily the eight-month-old baby was unhurt.

It is understood that other children had been with the baby but had gone off and left it.

Ceiling Collapses On Movie-goers

HOUMA, La., April 20 (AP) — Thirty-nine persons were hurt when a movie theatre's plaster ceiling fell Tuesday night.

Manager Everett Talbot of the Park Theatre said the acoustic ceiling collapsed in one great sheet.

The early-evening audience of about 100 persons had only scant warning.

A National Guard (militia) unit raced to the scene and held back hundreds of spectators as rescuers searched through the plaster-splattered debris.

Most severely injured was Mrs. Amo Lapeyrouse, wife of one of the theatre owners, who received a compound fracture of the leg.

Six others were in hospital with minor injuries and 32 more were treated for cuts and bruises and released.

Judge Plans Inquiry Into Hospital, Monday

WINDSOR, April 20 (CP) — Judge Eric Cross today announced in Woodstock, that he would open his probe into the administration of Windsor's Metropolitan General Hospital next Monday morning at city hall.

The Oxford County Judge was appointed a one-man Royal Commission to probe the hospital's affairs by the Ontario Government.

City Council requested the probe following rumors of wild parties in Detroit attended by civic officials and hospital nurses. Judge Cross, who has the power to summon witnesses, will report his findings to the Minister of Health, city council and the Board of Governors at the hospital.

Canada Urges Religious Inquiry

LAKE SUCCESS, NY, April 20 (CP)—Canada today urged the United Nations to give full approval to the British-United States action on the trials of religious leaders in Hungary and Bulgaria.

Hugues Lapointe, parliamentary assistant to Canada's External Affairs Minister and Liberal member for Lotbiniere, stated the Dominion's position before the general assembly's 58-member special political committee.

In a 2,000-word statement Lapointe warned that events in eastern Europe are a pattern of "the attempted subjugation of the Church to the State."

All Returning Officers Ordered To Stand By

TORONTO, April 20 (CP) — All Federal returning officers in the Toronto, Hamilton and Niagara Falls districts have been instructed by Ottawa officials to be ready to begin enumeration on 24 hours notice, a Toronto paper reported today.

One returning officer interpreted this to mean an early summer national election was scheduled. He said he had asked Chief Election Officer Jules Castonguay for a conference to discuss changes in certain expense items. He was refused and told there was "a distinct possibility election writs might be issued before the coming week is out."

Sent 2 Months Ago

OTTAWA, April 20 (CP) — Jules Castonguay, chief electoral officer, said today enumeration instructions were sent to Federal returning officers two months ago.

"The returning officers were told to be ready to begin enumeration on receipt of telegraphic advice from this office," said Mr. Castonguay.

Spend Double On Liquor Amount Used For Education

TORONTO, April 20 —(CP)—Excessive spending on liquor in comparison with money spent on education may cause Canada's society to "collapse from dropsy," Charlotte Whitton said today.

The prominent Canadian welfare worker spoke before the closing meeting of the trustees and ratepayers department, Ontario Education Association.

For every dollar Canada was spending on operating all its educational institutions, she was spending $2.25 on beer, wine and liquor, Miss Whitton said in a speech prepared for delivery.

"Even more indicative of the slow but certain doom and disintegration of our democracy from within is the same disproportionate outlay of $3.10 on beer, wine and spirits for every dollar spent on salaries for our teachers."

She called for special guardianship of the child — "the unit of a continuing society." The home was the first pillar of a continuing society, the church the second and ordered government, evolved from home and church, the third.

To further the cause of education in Canada, Miss Whitton believed "federal aid" was not enough. There must ba a re-assessing of the potential income of the country, and the formation of three dominion budgets instead of one.

One of these budgets would be for "ordinary civil government of the dominion;" the second would "dominion - provincial-municipal be for defence and the third for needs in health, welfare and education."

The latter budget would be financed by a general "internal defences levy"—either a percentage of the income tax or "one visible federal sales tax, pro rated back to the provinces and local authorities."

Give Coloring With Margarine

TORONTO, April 20 (CP) — Manufacturers of margarine in Ontario will be permitted to give away artificial coloring with their product once the restrictions on coloring go into effect, an official at Queen's Park said yesterday.

Premier Kennedy announied following a conference with the manufacturers that there was no possibility that Ontario's margarine act will be proclaimed before the middle of May.

The bill limits margarine to 1.6 degrees of yellow or yellow-andred coloring. The Queen's Park official said that any extra coloring given away must not be packaged with the margarine.

The law provides that a pound of margarine must be of a different shape than a pound of butter.

Mr. Kennedy meets today with representatives of the farm groups whose butter sales are affected by margarine.

Throw Man 62 Over Cliff After Attack and Robbery

HAMILTON, April 20—(AP).—Brutally attacked and robbed by two unidentified men with whom he had spent part of the afternoon and evening, Walter OKeefe, 62, was thrown over the Mountain brow at a point near the Mountain Sanatorium late Tuesday night. He is in general hospital today, badly injured.

After lying in the open all night, he was found in a ravine some 40 feet from the Mountain top early today by three men—Leo Roach, Cecil McDonough and William Moser — working on a sewer job in the vicinity.

Police had to carry the badly-injured man for a mile through the ravine and heavy bush to reach an ambulanve. He was sitting up and conscious when police reached him, despite severe laceration of the forehead, other cuts, and possible internal injury.

He had met the two strangers in a beverage room, he told police, about 10 p.m. They asked him to go for a drive. When they reached a lonely point opposite one of the Sanatorium buildings he was ordered out of the car and was immediately attacked and robbed of $35, then tossed over the brow.

Boy Robbed Bank Spends $2, Surrenders

VANCOUVER, April 20 (CP)—A pug-nosed boy who robbed his bank employers of $1,650 at gunpoint yesterday spent less than $2 before he gave himself up to a policeman on a downtown street corner.

The youthful bandit had $1,648 in his pocket when he surrendered.

Since his bold escape into noontime traffic after he pulled a gun on a fellow-employee of the Granville Street branch of the Bank of Nova Scotia, the boy bandit had been to a movie and a shooting gallery.

The boy, a junior clerk at the bank the last five months, astounded teller Bill Slater, 22, by knocking on his cage at lunchtime, flashing the gun and warning: "Don't sound an alarm."

Aiken Raps Gov't Promoting Liquor Sale

TORONTO, April 20 (CP) — The Rev. M. J Aiken, of Peterborough, president of the Ontario Temperance Federation, charged today the Ontario Government is promoting the sale of liquor "to the limit of its abilities" and has permitted liquor outlets "even where their legality is open to grave question."

Despite "debauching" of Ontario youth by liquor "there is little apparent action taken by the authorities to correct this widespread scandal," Mr. Aiken told the opening meeting of the Federation's 58th annual convention.

"We are sowing the wind of temptation to the youth of Ontario. We shall reap the whirlwind of crime and sorrow."

Court Order Obeyed, Crew Leaves

Ship's Owners Win Another Round Serving Injunction

By The Canadian Press

A court injunction obtained by the Montreal Shipping Company cleared the decks of the freighter Mont Gaspe of Communist-dominated Canadian Seamen's Union (TLC) crew members Tuesday night as ship operators won another round in the deep-sea shipping strike called by the CSU 21 days ago.

The ship's owners acted fast to gain control of their vessel, serving the injunction only a few hours after the Mont Gaspe berthed on a voyage from Lisbon, Portugal.

Meanwhile at Quebec, CSU crew members of the Saguenay Terminals freighter Sunrell anxiously awaited a court decision on whether the ship's owners would be granted an injunction.

The crew are staging a sit-in strike while awaiting the decision. Earlier a Seafarers' International Union (AFL) crew was scheduled to replace the CSU men, but decided to await the court decision when informed the CSU crew were not leaving the ship.

Leave Peacefully

The 38 crew members of the Mont Gaspe peacefully left the ship when court officials served the injunction.

The CSU crew announced earlier, shortly after the Mont Gaspe docked, that "we are 100 per cent CSU and awaiting orders."

When the court officials boarded the vessel, the men quietly received severance pay and then paraded to the union's headquarters on downtown St. Francois Xaxier Street.

The first ship to leave Montreal manned by members of the SIU sailed yesterday. She was the Montreal City, a Furness Withy vessel. SIU crew members took over the ship quietly early yesterday and left shortly afterward with a cargo of grain for London.

A few hours later the Canadian National Steamships Canadian Cruiser arrived from Bermuda and a spokesman for the company said close to 65 per cent of the crew voted to quit the CSU and sign on again under SIU contracts.

Grassland Plans Discussed By Committee

Easter Monday was a holiday in the government offices, but for Frank C. Paterson, agricultural representative, it was a day spent in helping advance the Grassland plans for June 29.

Ten members of the local committee motored to the Oneario Agricultural College last week to enlist experienced and expert assistance for this end of June event.

"We were assured of all the practical help they can give us," Mr. Paterson said today, "and the first evidence of it was the presence here Monday of Prof. James Scott and Norman J. Thomas. We also had Ken Fallis of the Ontario Department of Agriculture. About 15 of us, mostly committee members, spent the morning at the Cathcart farm below Springville, and the afternoon in the office. We had members of the grounds and machinery committees."

Mr. G. A. Gillespie, is the general manager of the first Grassland Day to be held in the Central Ontario district. His experience with plowing matches and the Peterborough Exhibition equips him for the supervisory position. All the committees are becoming active, Mr. Paterson said, "down to advertising and catering."

Plan Year Ahead

"For the best results from Grassland Day we should be planning now for next year," Mr. Paterson said. "Every farmer knows that grassland is not something you can turn out in a few months. The ideal preparation is to have a year or more to produce the grass you wish to demonstrate. However, the committee has set about to do the best we can, and everybody feels happy in securing the Harold Cathcart farm."

Grassland Day committee is hoping for an attendance of at least 5,000 from the counties of which Peterborough is the centre. Three of these days have been authorized by the Department for this year west, centre and eastern sections of the province Peterborough put in a bid for the central zone event, and its promoters recognize it as an opportunity to give new impetus to what might be called ruminant agriculture, various phases of the seeding and growing and use of hay and long term pastures.

Obituary

HUGH DRAIN

After a short illness Hugh Drain of Norwood died on Monday night in St. Joseph's Hospital. He was in his 93rd year.

Mr. Drain was born in Ashville township, son of the late Hugh Drain and Mary Anne Noble. He moved to Norwood 20 years ago after he retired from farming in Asphodel.

He leaves a daughter, Mrs. W. J. Green (Mary) of Toronto. His wife, the former Janet Ann Beckett, died 13 years ago. Mr. Drain was a member of St. Andrew's Presbyterian Church, Norwood.

The funeral will be from the Tedford Funeral Home, Norwood, on Thursday, at 2 p.m. Burial will be in Norwood Cemetery.

MRS. ARCHIE CAMPBELL

After a short illess Mrs. Archie Campbell died Wednesday in hospital. She was the former Edith Watson, daughter of the late William Watson and Elizabeth Rowe.

Mrs. Campbell was born in Lakefield, 70 years ago, later coming to Peterborough where she has resided for 50 years. She was a member of George St. United Church.

Surviving are her husband, two sons, Kenneth and Jack, and one daughter, Mrs. Fred Herbison (Alice), all of Peterborough.

Funeral will be held Friday at 3 p.m. from the family residence, 107 McDonnel St. The Rev. Dr. J. R. Cooper, George St. Church, will officiate. Burial will be at the Lakefield Cemetery.

MRS. JOHN SLOAN

MILLBROOK, April 20 (ENS)—The death occurred in Peterborough Civic Hospital on Tuesday of Mrs. John Sloan after an illness of some months. She was in her 86th year.

Mrs. Sloan was formerly Mary Ann Hogan, daughter of the late Edward and Nora Hogan, natives of Ireland, who were pioneer settlers in the Millbrook district. She spent her whole life in Millbrook, where she was a member of the W.A. of St. Thomas Anglican Church and of the Red Cross.

Her husband predeceased her in 1930.

Mrs. Sloan had twelve children, eight daughters and four sons. Surviving are two sons, Allen and Stanford, of Millbrook, and five daughters, Mrs. Howard Wiley (Esther), Toronto; Mrs. J. Izzard (Laura), Cobourg; Mrs. Eugene Mitchell (Nellie), Toronto; Mrs. J. Griffith (Myrtle); and Mrs. M. Roberts (Marjorie), Fairport, N.Y.

Funeral service will be held Thursday at 2.00 p.m. from the G. T. MacPherson Funeral Home, Millbrook. Rev. C. M. MacLean, rector of St. Thomas Church, will officiate, and burial will be in the Presbyterian Church Cemetery.

All Able-Bodied Men Fight To Save Village From Fire

WARREN, April 20—(CP).—A $5,000 fire Tuesday razed a hardware store and was prevented from spreading to nearby houses and stores by a volunteer bucket brigade in this village 40 miles west of North Bay.

All available men fought to save the two-storey building as adjacent gasoline tanks exploded and bullets from ammunition in the store whistled through the air. The village has no fire department.

H. H. Roy, owner of the hardware and two apartments above, was burned out for the fourth time since he came to Warren in 1901.

The elderly man fought his way through the smoke-filled store to carry out his 15-year-old granddaughter, Aurelia Daoust, encased in a plaster cast. She suffered a spinal injury two weeks ago.

Rescue Twins

Twin two-year-old grandsons, Terry and Bryan Roy, were rescued from an upstairs apartment by Rita Giroux, a neighbor.

Residents said that had there been a high wind, the village of more than 500 may have been wiped out.

Two booster pumps and additional hose were rushed from Sturgeon Falls to aid local volunteers led by Lionel Roy. The volunteers manned 1,000 feet of hose which they dropped into cisterns and a nearby creek. There is no fire department in this village, 40 miles west of North Bay.

A. A. Roy, son of the owner of the block, who lived with his wife and twin sons Brian and Terry, aged 2 years, on the second floor discovered the fire.

"I had just serviced a car from our gasoline pump, and turned into the store to see fire eating through the floor," he related. "My brother had gone to the bank with the money, so I raced upstairs to my wife. I got her and the children back down the stairs all right."

FISHING FOR PICKEREL

Jack Burns, 712 Romaine St., who was found by Police fishing for pickerel at the Lower Locks at 2 a.m. April 9, was today ordered to pay fines and costs totalling $12.50 by Magistrate W. R. Philp, K.C., at city police court.

TO JOIN STAFF

Miss Ethel Patterson will join the staff of Peterborough Children's Aid Society in June after graduating from Queen's University. Miss R. Young, Superintendent, told the executive Tuesday that she will join the staff as an untrained social worker.

ELECT NEW TREASURER

Robert Harvey, Local 1320 AASER and MC of America, on Tuesday night was elected treasurer of the Allied Labor Council. The vacancy was created when D. (Dunc) Drummond, president of Local 527 UE-CIO, resigned due to the press of business. As Mr. Harvey was a member of the Executive this leaves a vacancy on that three-man board and the election of a new executive member will take place at the next meeting of the Council.

HORTICULTURAL MEETING

John F. Clarke of the horticultural branch of the Ontario Department of Agriculture will be the speaker at the meeting of the Horticultural Society Monday, April 25 at the YWCA. His subject will be "Spring Trails." Mr. Clarke is bringing a display of handcraft products that should be of special interest to those attending.

DISPLAY BIRD HOUSES

About 50 birdhouses slated for entry in the Peterborough Fish and Game Protective Association bird-building contest are now displayed in the window of the H. T. Millard Sporting Goods shop, Charlotte St. Also shown are the prizes to be awarded the various winners and the trophy for the best bird house. The public is invited, free of charge, to attend the judging of the contest to be held in the Market Hall at 8 p.m. on Friday.

PLAN ANNUAL MEETING

Peterborough Children's Aid Society annual meeting is planned for April 27 at the YMCA. A meeting will be followed by dinner and Dr. J. D. M. Griffin, M.D., an industrial, social and community psychiatrist, will be the guest speaker. Dr. Griffen was 1948 chairman of the Committee on Public Education of the American Psychiatric Association and has lectured at the University of Toronto, where he graduated in 1932. He has studied in the U.S.A. and England and has held a number of appointments in Canada.

Gold Stocks Continue In Demand In Toronto

TORONTO, April 20 (CP) — Gold stocks continued in demand for the second successive session here today as the group moved at the highest price level since February 1948. Base metals backed down slightly and industrials and western oils were steady in the moderately active dealings.

The Exchange's 1 p.m. index showed volume for the first three hours was 776,000 shares, about 270,000 shares more than yesterday's similar period.

Producing issues led the golds in steady upturn that accelerated when volume increased. Seniors were well ahead with several issues touching new highs and a wide list of junior golds showed gains ranging up to 15 cents.

Industrials moved narrowly, mixing gains and losses fractionally. The group opened on a stronger not but soon tended to sag. A few refining oils and steels were brighter while papers slipped with Brown pfd., selling down $1 at a new low at $9.

Running Fight

and then we waited to receive reports from the senior officers out there."

The brief Admiralty statement said: "The Consort has come under heavy fire from field artillery to which she has replied effectively."

Fired On

The Amethyst, with a complement of 192 and mounting four-inch guns, was fired on early today as she steamed to Nanking from Shanghai to relieve the Consort in protecting Britons threatened by the intensified civil war.

She has large Union Jacks painted on her sides and was flying the white ensign and a Union Jack.

Naval sources here doubted a report by Chinese government offices that the sloop hoisted a white flag when she was caught in the first Communist barrage between Kowan and Sankiangyin, Yangtze north bank stronghold recently captured by the Communists. One report said her white ensign was shot off during the shelling and she hoisted another.

Chinese government officers who watched the attack from the south bank said the sloop got under way again after the first attack. Communist artillery immediately opened fire again. After that they could not see what happened.

Chinese naval sources, which reported 20 casualties aboard the Amethyst to British quarters in Nanking, denied any shots had been fired by Nationalist gunners along the south shore of the river.

To Pull Sloop Off

The destroyer Black Swan planned to try to pull the Amethyst off Rose Island.

British warships have been plying the Yangtze regularly to Nanking for several months. United States warships have stayed off the river since the civil war reached the Yangtze banks.

During the afternoon Vice-Admiral Oscar C. Badger, United States Western Pacific commander in Shanghai, called a conference with Rear Admiral George Crawford, commander of the United States naval forces in the Shanghai area, and consul-general John Cabot.

Cabot told reporters he did not know why the conference had been called but he presumed the plight of the Amethyst would be discussed.

Reject Terms

NANKING, April 20—(AP)—Premier Ho Ying-chin told the Chinese parliament today the government had rejected the Communist proposed peace agreement in its present form.

Find Buried Dynamite

PORT COLBORNE, April 20—(CP)—Ten sticks of dynamite twice as large as those now in general use were unearthed Tuesday by contractors excavating for a hospital foundation. Authorities said they believed the dynamite, destroyed on police orders, was buried at the time the Port Colborne breakwater was built more than 25 years ago.

Princess Plans Quiet Day On 23rd Birthday

LONDON, April 20 (CP) — Princess Elizabeth, heiress-presumptive to the throne, will be 23 tomorrow.

Even on her birthday, training of the young mother for her future role of Queen will continue. She will have a place of honor at the King's luncheon for British Commonwealth statesmen, who will be entertained at Buckingham Palace tomorrow. Canada's representative will be L. B. Pearson, minister for external affairs.

The King and Queen will return from Windsor especially to greet the Commonwealth leaders. Princess Elizabeth's husband, Prince Philip, also will attend.

Attendance at Affairs of State, with their pomp and protocol, is as much a part of Princess Elizabeth's schooling as the study of economics, and the multiple other things a Queen must learn.

A fun-loving young woman who likes to dance and sparkle in her pretty clothes, proud of her infant son, Prince Charles, who may succeed her to the throne, the Princess is keenly aware of what her position demands of her.

Two years ago, when she was 21, Elizabeth broadcast a pledge to the Commonwealth:

"My whole life, whether it be long or short, shall be devoted to your service and our great Imperial family, to which we all belong."

In another speech she told them "The strength of our country—lies in the home and the family." She is meeting that responsibility, too.

Can't Confirm Rates

MONTREAL, April 20—(CP)—G. F. Smith, official of the Canadian Freight Association, said Tuesday he "cannot deny or confirm" reports from Regina that special freight rates for livestock transported for exhibition purposes would remain in effect until the end of this year. There were earlier reports the special rates would be rescinded May 15.

Four Injured As Cars Crash

COBOURG, April 20—(ENS)—Four people were taken to Cobourg hospital Tuesday morning after an accident occurring one mile west of here, when a car driven by Herbert Keown of Barriefield was involved in a collision with one driven by William Woodcox of Cobourg.

Dinner Entertainment At Sales And Ad Club

An enjoyable program of local amateur talent and professional entertainers from Toronto was a leading feature of Tuesday night's first Inter-Club Night of the Peterborough Sales and Advertising Club held in the Kawartha Room of the Empress Hotel. Arrangements for the program were in the hands of a committee headed by Eddie O'Toole, Andy Rutter was master of ceremonies, with Homer Ouellette of Millbrook as accompanist.

The first item was presented by Pat, Nicky, and Pam Humphries, talented young Peterborough sisters, who sang three numbers, "Begin The Beguine," "Careless Hands" and For Ever and Ever."

Next appeared Herb Mullins and Gus DeLair in a vaudeville act, which included singing and violin and guitar playing. Both are of Peterborough.

Mildred Moray, well-known Toronto radio artist, made a big hit with the club members and guests with her spirited renditions of 'MacNamara's Band" and "I'm the Lonesomest Gal in Town."

The final number was group of songs by Sully Mason, also of Toronto.

Four Shaken Up When Car Ditched

One man suffered a possible fractured arm and three other persons received a bad shaking up when the car in which they were riding from Peterborough to Kingston left No. 28 Highway at Centreville at midnight Tuesday and ended up in a deep ditch. Sustaining the arm injury was Stewart Lloyst, who was admitted to Peterborough Civic Hsopital, where he is slated to be X-rayed Wednesday to determine the full extent of the injury.

All the passengers were residents of Kingston and were returning home after attending Tuesday night's first Inter-Club Night of the Peterborough Sales and Advertising Club. Lloyst's fellow passengers were Mr. and Mrs. Ralph Beatty and James Sutcliff, who received a badly cut lip.

Drew Addresses Newfoundlanders

ST. JOHN'S, April 20—(CP)—National leader George Drew of the Progressive Conservative party today headed west, leaving this capital to mull over his call to Newfoundlanders to "protect" their "provincial rights."

He will visit nearby Conception Bay villages and the birthplace of his grandmother at Port de Grave. Tomorrow, he returns to Sydney, N.S.

Tuesday night, Mr. Drew gave St. John's its first campaign speech in 17 years. He laid his provincial rights plea before an audience of 3,000 in an unheated hall and said their rights could be protected "by safeguarding the constitution from centralization at Ottawa."

H. G. R. (Harry) Mews, Newfoundland party leader introduced his chief who arrived at nearby Torbay airport earlier yesterday for a two-day visit.

Obituary

FREDERICK BALDWIN

LINDSAY, April 20 — The death of Frederick Baldwin, 145 Russell Street, following an illness of a few days, removed one of the pioneer tradesmen of Lindsay.

During his 76 years as a resident of Lindsay he was engaged as a bricklayer on some of the town's biggest structures. His last work was in connection with the erection of the new curling club. On March 29 Mr. and Mrs. Baldwin celebrated their 50th wedding anniversary and on the following day he was at work at 7 a.m., following an all-night session of dancing and card playing with his guests.

Surviving is his widow, four daughters, Mrs. Black of Toronto, Mrs. Herbert Hennessy of Lindsay, Mrs. Grant Mosley of Lindsay, and Mrs. William Jackett of Lindsay, and two brothers Jack and Thomas Baldwin of Lindsay. One daughter, Mrs. J. McCabe, predeceased him.

Recreation Centre Site Chosen After Long Search

COBOURG, April 20—(ENS)—Council Tuesday was advised that the recreational centre committee had selected the Denton property site at a cost of $4,200. Council accordingly gave the necessary approval. Selection of the site concludes about two years' efforts to find a suitable location for the recreational centre.

"If everybody does his job we should have it up by next fall," commented Mayor Joe Smith.

The recreational set-up with Bob Cooper as recreational director, was established by council passing the required bylaw.

Want Board Changes

A request from the Collegiate Board that the council dissolve the present high school Cobourg district in order to pave the way for the high school area plan, was deferred until council could go into it more thoroughly. It was too big a subject to be settled in a hurry, the mayor said

A letter from J. C. M. German, chairman of the parks board, said that negotiations with the orphanage for use of part of the grounds as west end playgrounds had fallen through. He suggested that part of Stewart Street be used as a playground in the section that had been filled in as a dump. Council decided to grant the request.

Request of King Street West residents to pave the street was referred to the clerk to check the signatures.

Four Injured As Cars Crash

COBOURG, April 20—(ENS)—Four people were taken to Cobourg hospital Tuesday morning after an accident occurring one mile west of here, when a car driven by Herbert Keown of Barrie field was involved in a collision with one driven by William Woodcox of Cobourg.

Dinner Entertainment At Sales And Ad Club

An enjoyable program of local amateur talent and professional entertainers from Toronto was a leading feature of Tuesday night's first Inter-Club Night of the Peterborough Sales and Advertising Club held in the Kawartha Room of the Empress Hotel. Arrangements for the program were in the hands of a committee headed by Eddie O'Toole, Andy Rutter was master of ceremonies, with Homer Ouellette of Millbrook as accompanist.

The first item was presented by Pat, Nicky, and Pam Humphries, talented young Peterborough sisters, who sang three numbers, "Begin The Beguine," "Careless Hands" and For Ever and Ever."

Next appeared Herb Mullins and Gus DeLair in a vaudeville act, which included singing and violin and guitar playing. Both are of Peterborough.

Mildred Moray, well-known Toronto radio artist, made a big hit with the club members and guests with her spirited renditions of 'MacNamara's Band" and "I'm the Lonesomest Gal in Town."

The final number was group of songs by Sully Mason, also of Toronto.

Four Shaken Up When Car Ditched

One man suffered a possible fractured arm and three other persons received a bad shaking up when the car in which they were riding from Peterborough to Kingston left No. 28 Highway at Centreville at midnight Tuesday and ended up in a deep ditch. Sustaining the arm injury was Stewart Lloyst, who was admitted to Peterborough Civic Hsopital, where he is slated to be X-rayed Wednesday to determine the full extent of the injury.

All the passengers were residents of Kingston and were returning home after attending Tuesday night's first Inter-Club Night of the Peterborough Sales and Advertising Club. Lloyst's fellow passengers were Mr. and Mrs. Ralph Beatty and James Sutcliff, who received a badly cut lip.

Drew Addresses Newfoundlanders

ST. JOHN'S, April 20—(CP)—National leader George Drew of the Progressive Conservative party today headed west, leaving this capital to mull over his call to Newfoundlanders to "protect" their "provincial rights."

He will visit nearby Conception Bay villages and the birthplace of his grandmother at Port de Grave. Tomorrow, he returns to Sydney, N.S.

Tuesday night, Mr. Drew gave St. John's its first campaign speech in 17 years. He laid his provincial rights plea before an audience of 3,000 in an unheated hall and said their rights could be protected "by safeguarding the constitution from centralization at Ottawa."

H. G. R. (Harry) Mews, Newfoundland party leader introduced his chief who arrived at nearby Torbay airport earlier yesterday for a two-day visit.

Obituary

FREDERICK BALDWIN

LINDSAY, April 20 — The death of Frederick Baldwin, 145 Russell Street, following an illness of a few days, removed one of the pioneer tradesmen of Lindsay.

During his 76 years as a resident of Lindsay he was engaged as a bricklayer on some of the town's biggest structures. His last work was in connection with the erection of the new curling club. On March 29 Mr. and Mrs. Baldwin celebrated their 50th wedding anniversary and on the following day he was at work at 7 a.m., following an all-night session of dancing and card playing with his guests.

Surviving is his widow, four daughters, Mrs. Black of Toronto, Mrs. Herbert Hennessy of Lindsay, Mrs. Grant Mosley of Lindsay, and Mrs. William Jackett of Lindsay, and two brothers Jack and Thomas Baldwin of Lindsay. One daughter, Mrs. J. McCabe, predeceased him.

ENVOYS FROM WINNIPEG—Backed by statistics proving they have the oldest "pure Winnipeg" ancestry, Donna and Herbert Bannatyne are on a coast-to-coast air tour as goodwill ambassadors from Winnipeg, promoting that city's 75th birthday party in June. Crowned Mr. and Miss Winnipeg, the freckled-face teen-age brother and sister are shown in this Trans-Canada Airlines photo being fitted with bright Balmoral tam-o'-shanters, official headgear of the celebration, by Stewardess Marie Charbonneau. They will visit every large city from the Atlantic to the Pacific with invitations to attend the anniversary.

Recreation Centre Site Chosen After Long Search

COBOURG, April 20—(ENS)—Council Tuesday was advised that the recreational centre committee had selected the Denton property site at a cost of $4,200. Council accordingly gave the necessary approval. Selection of the site concludes about two years' efforts to find a suitable location for the recreational centre.

"If everybody does his job we should have it up by next fall," commented Mayor Joe Smith.

The recreational set-up with Bob Cooper as recreational director, was established by council passing the required bylaw.

Want Board Changes

A request from the Collegiate Board that the council dissolve the present high school Cobourg district in order to pave the way for the high school area plan, was deferred until council could go into it more thoroughly. It was too big a subject to be settled in a hurry, the mayor said.

A letter from J. C. M. German, chairman of the parks board, said that negotiations with the orphanage for use of part of the grounds as west end playgrounds had fallen through. He suggested that part of Stewart Street be used as a playground in the section that had been filled in as a dump. Council decided to grant the request.

Request of King Street West residents to pave the street was referred to the clerk to check the signatures.

Is Canada Being Frozen Out?

Some very frank complaints in Parliament and statements from the Foreign Exchange Control Board suggest that Canada is being frozen out of the trade which she was led to expect with Britain and countries within the sterling trading area. With the best will in the world, we cannot understand why the quantity of Canadian goods accepted by the British market is being reduced by what looks like a British policy of discrimination and restriction. Everyone understands, we are sure, that Britain was forced from 1945 onward to conserve her supply of dollars in every way possible, and this country has co-operated by accepting as much British merchandise as possible. But it is beginning to look as though this policy of exporting to Canada, while accepting as little as possible in the way of Canadian goods, were becoming a permanent policy with Britain. It is a policy which Canada, as a great exporting nation, must consider with alarm, annoyance and a sense of having been ill-used.

* * *

In his recent Budget Speech the British Chancellor, Sir Stafford Cripps, said: "I am convinced that we can, and must, do more to establish ourselves in those markets (Canada and the U.S.A.) as a permanent factor in achieving once again the position in which multilateral trade in the full sense and free convertibility of currencies will be able to operate". Britain has pledged herself to this policy of multilateral trade again and again, in the Atlantic Charter, in the Lease Lend agreements, in the U.S. loan agreements and other documents. But "multilateral trade" means two-way trade, and there is fear in Canada that Britain is developing a habit of one-way trade which will be hard on this country.

* * *

Canada feels this before the U.S.A., for we are more dependent on foreign trade than our southern neighbour, and also because the Marshall Plan distributes great quantities of American goods in Europe at the expense of the American taxpayer. But when the Marshall Plan ends in 1952 American manufacturers will receive a severe shock unless Britain changes her ways in the meantime

* * *

Not only is this one-sidedness in British trade policy important economically; it is also of great importance politically. The Atlantic Pact is rooted in commerce as well as in mutual protection. If Britain does not show more inclination to play the game in matters of trade, and tries to keep the sterling bloc as her own province, while at the same time sending great quantities of British goods to this continent, the Atlantic Pact will be seriously weakened.

* * *

The difficulties of the British position are easy to see. No one expects that all her controls and restrictions can be dropped for several years. But when these controls and restrictions are strengthened in such a way that they bear hardly upon Canada, and when this strengthening looks like deliberate, if unacknowledged, policy it is understandable that this country should suffer those feelings of disillusion and apprehension which have, in the past few months, found some public expression.

C.S.U. Violence

The Canadian Seamen's Union has been rowing with ship owners, ship captains, and even seamen for a year. Its antics are like those of a shark which has been hooked, and the more it thrashes around the more surely it is lost to this world, unless it succeeds in overturning the boat. But the Ministry of Labour, the economy of this country and the seamen themselves are not going to be overturned by the C.S.U.; this cannot be allowed, and will not.

Even organized labour has turned against the C.S.U. Its tactics are deplorable and the smell of Communism in its leadership is too strong. The Montreal Star points out that:

In two strikes within a year the C.S.U. has promoted violence. What it could not win by the sacred process of collective bargaining it has tried to win with baseball bats, dornicks, brass knuckles and intimidation. Up to now weak-kneed authority has shut its eyes to much of the violence, but the public is getting more than a little sick of continuous reports of invasion of ships and the beating of men who don't happen to have any confidence in C.S.U. leadership and have moved out from under the Communists who dominate the union.

Any public sympathy which the C.S.U. may have had a year ago has been destroyed by the C.S.U. itself. That is to say, the C.S.U. leadership is responsible for what now seems the dying moments of the union. As one former member put it, who last week-end suffered a beating at the hands of thugs who invaded his hotel room: "There is no way to break the Communists (he was referring to union officers) without breaking the union. Most of the men realize this and are leaving the union". And they are joining the S.I.U. (Seafarers' International Union), which, if the C.S.U continues to behave as badly as it is now doing, will be the dominant seamen's union in Canadian harbours and ships. This seems desirable, and the sooner the C.S.U. is a dead shark the better.

Commonwealth Conference On Commonwealth Status

Tomorrow Prime or other Ministers of the seven British Dominions assemble in London and begin talks on what it means to be a member-nation of the British Commonwealth. Our Minister of External Affairs, Lester Pearson, is representing Canada, although at a later stage in the conference Prime Minister St. Laurent may himself attend.

The problem facing the Prime Ministerial conference is acute. Dominions within the Commonwealth are sovereign and independent nations, completely self-governing. Their only complete link with each other and Britain is the King, and King George is King of England, King of Canada, King of Australia, and so on. Can a country retain membership in the Commonwealth if it becomes a Republic (as Ireland has done, as India proposes to do), and ceases to recognize the Britannic King as titular head of its Government? The new Republic of Eire is of course elaborately and loudly disdainful of any link with Britain, though its Premier, Mr. Costello, seems most anxious to have all the commercial and trading benefits which Commonwealth membership bestows. The Government of India has no such wild-eyed antagonism, although it will not accept a royalist form for the country's political frame.

Two questions face the Prime Ministers. It is desirable that republican nations be included in the Commonwealth? If so, is any formula of state possible under which they could be included? We may ask, regarding the first, what advantage has Commonwealth membership which an alliance by treaty cannot give, if the tenuous, family connection represented in the person of the King is not maintained? If there is none, then the second question is easily answered. Republics could be included in the Commonwealth by formal, written decrees, in the way that formulas can be found to create any alliance. Such a formula for the British Commonwealth would change its nature, reorient its purposes, and ultimately make the Commonwealth a piece of paper rather than a living organism.

Thus it seems to us that the Prime Ministers have a third question to answer, if the first two receive affirmations. If the republics are allowed membership, if the Commonwealth becomes a thing with a constitution, will the Commonwealth be destroyed thereby?

NOTE AND COMMENT

"Gromyko Does Not Shy At U.S. News Photographers", says a headline. Where there's a Russian diplomat, there'll be a negative.

A thief recently gave his victim a receipt after taking his wallet. Our guess is that this was no thief, but merely an Income Tax official of unusually ferocious aspect.

A camouflage expert says that is is impossible for a man to dress in such a way as to be completely invisible. Has he ever tried to pick out the groom's father at a wedding?

A chemist asserts that the first alcohol was made by monkeys from fermented coconut milk. Shortly afterward the first prohibition society was founded by a congress of camels.

A judge in St. Louis says that "single men know more about women than married men do". Yes, like those brilliant armchair generals who, all through the war, were so far ahead of Alexander and Montgomery.

CANADIAN CAUSERIE

Plenty?

By GEOFFREY VIVIEN

AT the moment I am watching a cow sitting in a field. There is pale spring sunlight behind it, which gives its brown ears a trimming of yellow down, like a pair of particularly cosy and fanciful bedroom slippers. Occasionally it flicks one ear as if with a vague premonition of the mosquitoes that are to come. Except for this movement the scene is still—six miles of stillness reaching to the Gatineau Hills. Could anything be more peaceful and reassuring?

✧ ✧ ✧

AND yet under both our noses—I mean the cow's and my own—is matter for much disquiet. Under the cow's nose is a piece of pasture. Under mine, an article by Wilfred Eggleston entitled "Food for World Survival". He is commenting on the speech of Dr. G. S. H. Barton, Deputy Minister of Agriculture, dealing with the question "Can the World feed itself?", and he lays before his Saturday Night readers the arguments for and against the view that soil exhaustion is a greater threat to humanity than the atom bomb and soap opera combined. The trouble—just in case you haven't got enough little ones of your own already—is rougnly this: the world's population is now somewhat over 2 billion and is increasing, possibly as fast as 50,000 a day, 18 million a year. The amount of land available for feeding these multitudes is somewhere round 3 billion acres; that is, about an acre and a half per person. As we have an average of seven acres here in Canada and don't feel that this is any too much, this makes the prospect look distinctly dark. And it is made much darker by the wasteful way man handles the soil he's got, which has been much the same way as a millionaire handles a police parking ticket.

✧ ✧ ✧

THERE are of course the experts on the other side, amongst them Dr. Robert M. Salter, chief of the U.S. Agricultural Research Administration, who opines that 52 per cent. of the land area of the world is possible for cultivation and that only 7 per cent. is now cultivated. There is also the chance that man may reform in his treatment of the land and that science, forgetting for a moment to plague him, may greatly assist the reformation.

✧ ✧ ✧

WILFRED EGGLESTON does not pretend to decide who is right in this debate. Nor will I. But one thing should be said before we accept a too gloomy view; that is, that Jeremiah's have always had to overstate their case to get a hearing. Apathy encircles the human spirit like a sea; preventing too great extremes. As disasters multiply it increases; the first hundred buzz-bombs over London sent Boards of Directors scurrying under their polished tables; the second hundred put a comma into the remarks of the Chairman.

IT is particularly hard for a North American to believe in the earth-exhaustion story, since History tells us of limitless abundance. Thus Mackenzie on the 16th day of his journey up the Peace River, at the point where it joins the Pine River:

....this spot would be an excellent situation for a fort or a factory....the country abounds in beaver, elk and buffalo, it is so crowded with animals as to have the appearance in some places of a stall-yard.

And here we have the soldier Thomas Hughes writing of the Lake Superior shore in 1778:

The ducks are so numerous that without exaggeration I am certain I have seen above a thousand of a morn....The people make use of a decoy in winter, by painting their boats white, hiding themselves and then floating like a lump of ice. By this finesse they will get amongst flocks and kill thirty of a shot.

Writing over a hundred years later, John Kerr has the same story to tell of the Fort Frances district of Rainy River. There—

....the snipe are so plentiful and tame that you can knock three or four over with a stick at any time.

✧ ✧ ✧

FURTHER south, the famous American explorers Lewis and Clark see "vast herds of buffalo, at least ten thousand at one view." And in the waters "Very large catfish, in great plenty along the sides of the river and verry fat; a quart of oile came out of the surpolous fat of one of these fish." Mrs. Trollope, mother of the famous novelist, sums it all up nicely in the diary of her journey through America: "All console themselves together....by taking more tea, coffee, hot cake and custard, hoe cake, Johnny cake, waffle cake, and dodger cake; pickled peaches, and preserved cucumbers, ham, turkey, hung beef, apple sauce, and pickled oysters, than ever were prepared in any other country of the known world."

✧ ✧ ✧

THAT was in 1827. Today it is much more certain than it was then that North Americans eat better than the inhabitants of "any other country of the known world." But with an important difference: whatever views we have about the reserves of food that the Earth has for the future, we are uncomfortably aware that the spectre of famine stands behind our banquet-chairs even now, silent and hollow-eyed.

Unconsidered Trifles

A county school teacher received the following missive from a parent: "Dere Teacher, I am sorry Bill will not be at skool today, but he is in horspital.—Yours truly, etc.

"P.S.—He tickled a horse's stummick with a straw."

The missionary smiled benevolently on the native tribe around him. "I will cure them all of cannibalism," he said, hopefully, as he retired to his hut.

There he was shortly afterwards joined by a native.

"The King has sent me to dress you for dinner," said the man.

"Ah," smiled the missionary. "How thoughtful of him! You are the royal valet, I suppose?"

"No," replied the native, "I'm the royal cook!"

Letters To The Editor

FAVOURS USE OF MILITARY TITLES

Sir: A Doctor is invariably referred to by that title whether he be a Doctor of Medicine, Denistry, Philosophy, or Divinity, in some cases it is even contracted to "doc". On the other hand few of those who have earned military titles enjoy the use of them. Surely those who have been prominent in saving us from a condition of slavery should be accorded recognition as readily as those who have saved us from a toothache.

Why should people from countries of elan, passion and tradition proceed to ignore the finest of their sons?

Yours truly,
C. W. HOLMAN.

HISTORICAL SOCIETY GREATLY NEEDED

Sir: I have been a resident of the County of Peterborough for more than fifty years, forty-two of which have been spent in this growing and progressive city, in which all of us take so much pride. Well we may, for it lies in a district not only remarkable for its wonderful beauty but also for the many brilliant facets of history which adorn the shores of its glorious lakes and rivers. One could dilate with ease and pleasure on the splendid factories, houses of business, churches and educational establishments it possesses but the object of this letter is to bring once more to the attention of the public the very great need of a strong, properly managed Historical Society in our midst. We possess several Service Clubs which are doing brilliant and laudable work in ministering to the many needs of the poorer sections of society. We have Church Clubs and reading clubs catering to every class of life, and various organizations also that labour with the greatest enthusiasm for the sporting fraternity, old and young, to provide them with sufficient playing grounds for their varied games. But with all this array of Service there is a very perceptible lack of the appreciation most other cities of the same size and mental calibre of Peterborough possess of clubs with a distinct literary and social object in view. Many clubs have been formed at odd times but almost everyone has been of short livelihood, mainly because those who formed them were old and did not have much more than the initiative strength and energy to set them going. The formation of a really serviceable Historical Society needs ardour of youth and determination and a sound love for delving for information. If it could only be impressed on the people of this city that now is the exact time to start such a Society, while the city is growing into the stature of stalwart manhood and information can be procured from the sons and daughters of the oldest residents. Great progress can be made in such a task by the banding together of a society of young people drawn from Nature lovers, fishermen, hunters, and others who are thoroughly aware of the value of history. It is really one of the most vital of all the sciences, for how can any enthusiasm be engendered for working for the future with no knowledge of the past to help us?

One of the fundamental truths of our civilization lies in the fact that we are every one of us, building for posterity from the time of our birth. And what we learn we are bound to dispense to the best of our ability to those who follow after us. As an old man, I write this plea, knowing well the value of what I write and feeling in my inmost mind the true significance and value of a great Historical Society. Yours,

F. M. DELAFOSSE.

HOW TO LOOK AT MODERN ART

Sir: The discussion regarding modern Canadian painting and the works of Paul Peel, Homer Watson and other European-taught Canadians of an earlier day, drew two visitors, at least, from out of town, to see the exhibition in your galleries above the Library.

May we express our enjoyment of the pictures, and also congratulate the hanging committee on its good work?

One sympathizes with the Gordon Baileys of picture appreciation. They attend an exhibition fortified with a good working knowledge of perspective and composition and colour harmony, but what they see appears to upset all they have learned. What they have yet to learn is that each artist whose work has been selected by our art autnorities, has built on a foundation of sound academic training in these same rules, but has advanced as far beyond their obvious use as a writer has the study of the alphabet.

Our ears have been better trained than our eyes. We have long ceased to want a meaning, or a story, to the music we hear. We accept it as an orderly arrangement expressing the mood of the composer, and appreciate it according to its effect on us. Pictures, especially non-objective works, should be received in like manner. We must look for the theme, see where the artist brings it out again and again in a variety of ways. We must see how well he has used his modern knowledge of the effect of colour on the emotions, to work on us; notice the texture he employs. Soon we will begin to revel in the expressive skill of each individual. This enjoyment can be acquired by savouring modern pictures again and again, with senses cleared of old prejudices, and of the attitude "this doesn't look like a cow."

Many art-loving Canadians feel that Tom Thomson, sparked perhaps by the inspiration of Morrice, was the beginning of the Canadian Tradition, brought to a zenith by the fourth-dimensional work of Emily Carr, and well maintained at a high level by such artists who are represented by the pictures in the gallery at Peterborough. Sincerely,

MABEL R. BURRIDGE.

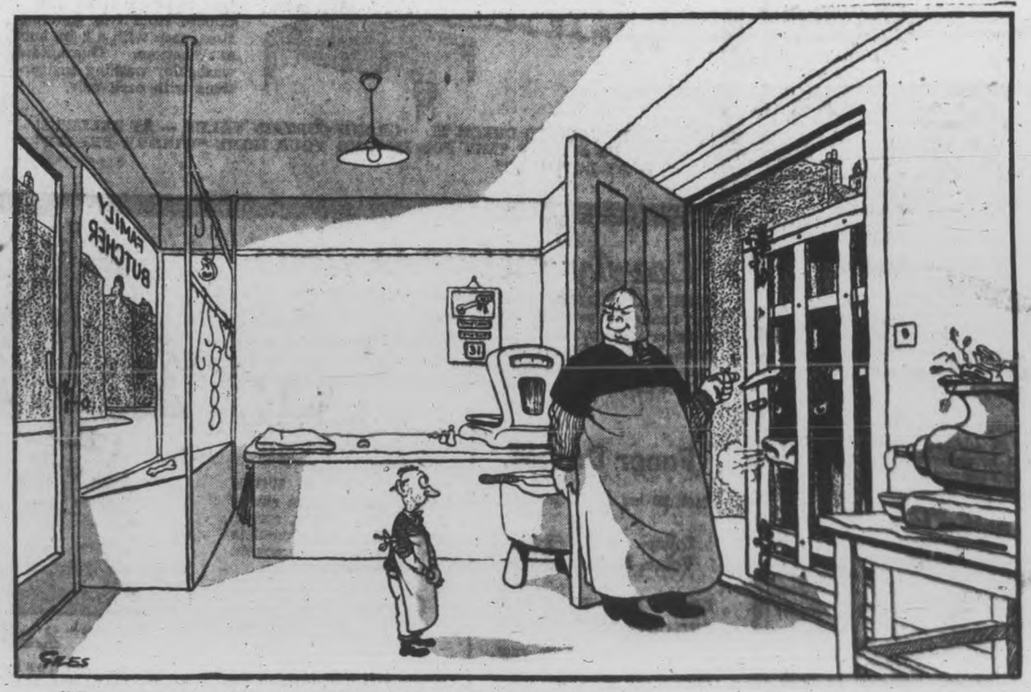
Bible Message

(From the Authorized Version)

There was a certain rich man, which was clothed in purple and fine linen, and fared sumptuously every day: and there was a certain beggar named Lazarus, which was laid at his gate, full of sores, and desiring to be fed with the crumbs which fell from the rich man's table....

And it came to pass, that the beggar died, and was carried by the angels into Abraham's bosom: the rich man also died, and was buried; and in hell he lift up his eyes, being in torments, and seeth Abraham afar off, and Lazarus in his bosom. And he cried and said, Father Abraham, have mercy on me, and send Lazarus, that he may dip the tip of his finger in water, and cool my tongue; for I am tormented in this flame.



But Abraham said, Son, remember that thou in thy lifetime receivest thy good things, and likewise Lazarus evil things: but now he is comforted, and thou art tormented. And beside all this, between us and you there is a great gulf fixed: so that they which would pass from hence to you cannot; neither can they pass to us, that would come from thence.

Then he said, I pray thee therefore, father, that thou wouldest send him to my father's house: for I have five brethren; that he may testify unto them, lest they also come into this place of torment.

Abraham saith unto him, They have Moses and the prophets; let them hear them. And he said, Nay, father Abraham: but if one went unto them from the dead, they will repent.

And he said unto him, If they hear not Moses and the prophets, neither will they be persuaded, though one rose from the dead. (Luke 16: 19-21, 22-31.)

Col. H. Osborne Drama Supporter Dies In Ottawa

OTTAWA, April 20 (CP)—Col. Henry Campbell Osborne, 74, one of the founders of the Dominion Drama Festival and a tireless worker on behalf of amateur theatre in Canada, died in hospital Tuesday night.

The Toronto-born Colonel served in Canada's permanent force as a member of the 10th Royal Grenadiers. During recent years he held the appointment of Secretary-General of the Imperial War Graves Commission, Canadian Agency.

He was appointed as honorary director of the Dominion Drama Festival at its 1932 organization meeting in Government House, called by Lord Bessborough, then Governor-General.

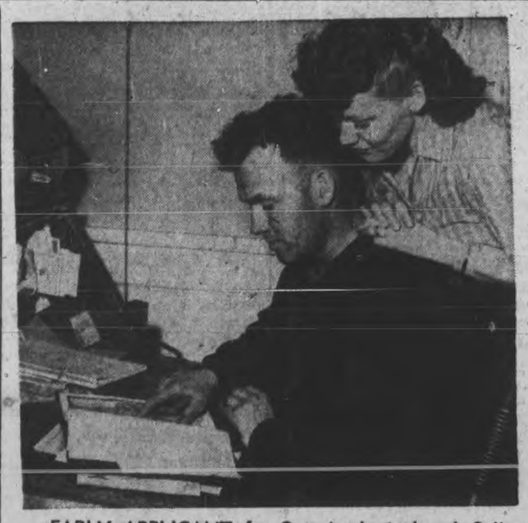
Colonel Osborne directed the first festival in April, 1933, and each succeeding festival until its discontinuance at the outbreak of war in 1939.

In 1939 he became chairman of the festival and when it was reorganized for its first postwar production in 1947, he was named vice-president. He held this position until his death.

Although his work for Canadian amateur theatre took up much of his time, he also found time to assist the Ottawa Drama League and served as a director and vice-president.

He was honored by being named a Companion of the St. Michael and St. George in 1918 and a Commander of British Empire in 1935.

Service Of Witness Held In Madoc Church



MARMORA, April 20 (ENS)—The annual Service of Witness sponsored by Centre Hastings Ministerial Association was held on Monday evening at Trinity United Church, Madoc. Tweed United Church choir led in the singing of the hymns and rendered three Eastertide anthems, the third being taken alone by the ladies of the choir without organ accompaniment. The service commenced with invocation by the pastor, Rev. A. Poulter, who then asked Rev. M. W. Heslip of St. Peter's Presbyterian Church, Madoc, president of the Association, to assume charge. Prayer was offered by Rev. L. C. Ball of Marmora, District Superintendent of the Free Methodist Church. The reading of the scripture lesson was allotted to Rev. A. W. Smith, rector of Madoc.

Transfiguration is Theme

Introduction of the guest preacher, Rev. H. Servage of Queen Street United Church, Kingston, was made by Rev. A. L. Sisco of Tweed United Church. The preacher took the story of Christ's transfiguration as his theme.

It is our business to carry the Easter song beyond the walls of our denominations, said the preacher. The business of the church is to confront the despair of the world with the everlasting throne of God which can never be shaken, for the Lord God omnipotent reigneth. We need the resurgence of a sustaining loyalty.

The benediction was pronounced by Rev. A. Poulter after which there was a period of fellowship for ministers and laity.

Press Club Gives $400 Prizes

TORONTO, April 20 — Establishment of annual prizes for outstanding newspaper work in Canada was announced yesterday by the Toronto Men's Press Club.

The prizes, to be known as the National Newspaper Awards, will be first awarded early in 1950 for work done during 1949. Six awards of $400 each will be available this year. They will be given for outstanding examples of spot reporting, feature writing, editorial writing, work by Staff correspondents, news photography, and cartooning.

Except for news photography, competition will be limited to men and women regularly working on the staffs of Canadian daily newspapers and news agencies. In the newsphoto section, any picture taken by a Canadian and appearing in a Canadian daily will be eligible.

Prize-winners will be chosen by judges representing all parts of Canada.

Warkworth Members Guests Dartford WMS

DARTFORD, April 20 (ENS)—On Good Friday evening the Dartford W.M.S. held their Easter thankoffering in the church with a good attendance. This meeting was open to the community and the ladies of the Warkworth W.M.S. were their guests.

The president, Mrs. Archie McCracken, was in the chair. Mrs. Percy Honey read the scripture. Mrs. Wilfred Sykes and Miss Muriel Darling received the offering.

The guest speaker, Mrs. Roberts, of Campbellford, was introduced by Mrs. McCracken and thanked by Mrs. Alec Lochart.

Mrs. Charles Honey, program convener, directed the following program: Solo, Mrs. Fred Ward; reading, Mrs. Oscar Laver, and a selection by the Dartford male quartet. Benediction was pronounced by Rev. H. G. Lester.

Mrs. David Evans, on behalf of the Warkworth ladies, moved a vote of appreciation to the Dartford ladies.

GOING TO THE U.S.A.?

To avoid possible delay and embarrassment at border crossing points, be sure you have met the foreign exchange requirements before you set out. The travel ration of $150 per person for the period November 16th, 1948, to November 15th, 1949 is to ensure the fairest distribution of the U.S. funds available. For children under 11 years of age, the amount is $100 U.S.

If you are taking a trip to the United States, you need to secure a Form H permit to take out of Canada any amount exceeding $10 U.S. or more than a total of $25 in U.S. and Canadian Funds.

Form H can be secured quickly and easily from branches of any Canadian Bank.

Storm Blocks Mercy Journey

TORONTO, April 20 (CP)—Unseasonal snow and bad roads in northern Ontario blocked the attempt of Mr. and Mrs. I. J. Bayette to reach their daughter in a Toronto hospital before she died Monday night.

One hour before the couple reached Sunnybrook Veterans' Hospital here 27-year-old Kathleen Bayette died of colitis contracted during her four years service with the Women's Division of the RCAF.

The parents were phoned Monday night at Dillon, 21 miles north of Parry Sound, and the Red Cross in Toronto made arrangements for an emergency taxi trip. For four hours the driver fought against rutted roads and a haze of fine snow. Ordinarily he could have made the trip in three hours.

Tuesday night Mr. and Mrs. Bayette returned in the same taxi. On the next train Kathleen's body left for Parry Sound.

Babies, Deaths Drop In January

OTTAWA, April 20 — (CP) — January this year was a month of marked decline in Canada as far as births, deaths and marriages were concerned.

The Bureau of Statistics reported Tuesday that 9.5 per cent fewer babies were born in comparison with January, 1948, while deaths dropped 19 per cent and marriages decreased 13.5 per cent.

Births totalled 23,637 compared with 26,125 with lower figures recorded for six of the nine provinces, exceptions being Prince Edward Island, New Brunswick and Alberta where small increases occurred.

There were 8,870 deaths as again 10,912 with small increases in PEI and New Brunswick.

PEI again was among the exceptions in the marriage figures, reporting increases along with Nova Scotia and Manitoba. The other six provinces had declines and the totals for Canada were 4,935 compared with 5,669 in January a year ago.

...for making aluminum!

RAIN! It may sound strange, but it's a fact: Every thing you see made of aluminum was made with raindrops—even the bus for which you scurry to escape the rain!

It's like this: Rain falls on high land in our north country. It runs down as rivulets and creeks. It becomes tumbling rivers. By trapping it behind dams, and guiding it through powerhouses, Alcan develops electricity—and uses it to make aluminum.

Smelting aluminum eats up vast quantities of electricity. Enough goes into making a single ton to light your house for fifteen years!

Today Alcan is prospecting for still more waterpower because Canada needs more aluminum for use at home and to sell abroad.

RAIN MEANS DOLLARS FOR CANADIANS:

- Alcan jobs for 15,000 Canadians
- Alcan pay envelopes holding $35,000,000 a year
- Alcan aluminum for more than 1,000 independent Canadian manufacturers—some 50,000 more jobs.

CEC. PERDUE, Sports Editor

Dit Clapper is prepared to take an active interest in hockey here next winter, but especially among the minors. He has been talking with Hugh Campbell and others who aided the Peterborough Minor Hockey Association in the past and they feel that further organization of capable coaches for the PMHA teams, and the longer time on ice which should be in effect next winter with artificial ice in Civic Arena, should result in considerable benefit for the young puckists. Dit does not intend to interfere with PMHA officers at all, but hopes to help out, perhaps working out a system somewhat similar to that used by the pros of bringing the players along step by step. It sounds like a move in the right direction.

"I'm staying right here in Peterborough from now on," the former coach of Boston Bruins told us, "and I'll help the young hockey players in any way I can. Even with natural ice here, they've shown they can hold their own with many artificial-ice centres, but there is no reason why we can't develop plenty of good players within a few years for our senior 'B' teams by the time the Memorial Centre is built—and also point a number of promising boys toward professional hockey." With PMHA officers, he hopes to enlist the support of other good hockey men here through the summer and early autumn to get the boys off to an early and well-organized start for next season.

Feathers Are Flying

Birds fly in the Market Hall this week as the Badminton Club matches run down to the finals. Close semi-finals were seen earlier this week, especially when Bud LaBranche—club singles champ—put out Vince O'Donoghue in three games. Last game went to points and, with Vince leading 17-15, Bud put on the pressure to edge him out 18-17. Williard Elmsley had a hard time with Ed Johnston before getting the verdict to meet Ralph Charlton in semi-finals. The match went to three games and, like the LaBranche-O'Donoghue duel, saw some swell play served up all the way.

* * * * * *

In ladies' singles, Audrey O'Donoghue defeated Ruth McKee in the top bracket to meet Marg Baker (who ousted Joy Elmsley) in finals. The ladies' doubles semi-finals were to be finished by Wednesday, the last night of the season for open play. In men's doubles, Vince O'Donoghue and Bob Baker turned back Bill Brown and V. Taylor to meet the winner of LaBranche-Elmsley and Johnston-Charlton. Mr. and Mrs. V. O'Donoghue won from Mr. and Mrs. Ralph Charlton in mixed to take on Mr. and Mrs. Bob Baker, victors over Joy Elmsley and R. MacDonald. Club championships and consolations will be Saturday eve at eight. Afterward, the annual meeting and election of officers. Grant Henry, one of the top 10 badminton stars in Canada, will referee these matches. Folks are invited to drop in and see the playoffs.

Half A Dozen Enter

Six clubs made application for entry last night to the Girls' Softball League at a "Y" meeting: Lindsay, Westclox, Marines, CGE, Ashby's and Woollens. While the circuit will settle for six, closing date for entries was left over till next Wednesday when a meeting will be held at 7.30 in the YMCA. They hope to stage double-headers again at the Bowl on Monday, Wednesday and Friday nights, with a charge made at the gate this semester. Teams may sign 15 players instead of 18 as previously. Prospective umpires should make application shortly to the loop prexy, Bill Bennett, at 237 Princess St. Play will probably open the week of May 22. By having fewer teams aboard this summer, the calibre of play should be considerably higher.

* * * * * *

Open drills for senior "A" lacrosse prospects continue nightly at six in Miller Bowl. Haven't heard yet how they're turning out but should get something shortly. We note where Hamilton Tigers, the senior "A" Dominion champs last season, will have most of the 1948 team back under Coach Joe Cheevers—except for Tank Teather and Bill Isaacs—and will add several more stars, so they'll be tough enough. The Tigers favor the suggestion to be brought up at Saturday's OLA meeting in Toronto of having games in three 20-minute periods (as in hockey) instead of the present system of four 15-minute quarters. They say it makes for faster games and suits fans better.

Swedish Star Wins Marathon

BOSTON, April 20 (AP)—For the fourth straight year, a foreign star has won the famed Boston AA Marathon—smiling Karl Gosta Leandersson, the 31-year-old Swedish champion.

The smooth-operating Swede ran 142 strong rivals ragged Tuesday while completing the 26-mile, 385-yard course from Hopkinton to Boston in 2 hours, 31 minutes, 50.8 seconds.

Taking command from Victor Dyrgall of New York at the halfway mark, Leandersson gradually pulled away and finished about half a mile ahead of Dyrgall. Dyrgall covered the course in 2.34:42.

Louis White, Boston Negro distance star, was third in 2.36:42. Two-time winner Johnny Kelley of Boston was fourth in 2.38:07 and Joe Smith of Medford, Mass., who led the pack in 1942, fifth in 2.38:30.

Gerard Cote of St. Hyacinthe, Que., striving for his fifth victory since 1940, had to be content with sixth place. He explained that he had neglected to "train on hills" for this race.

Don Metz, hard-working right-winger with five Toronto Maple Leafs Stanley Cup teams, announced Tuesday his retirement from hockey. Metz told Manager Conn Smythe he would return to his Wilcox, Sask., farm and join his brother Nick, who retired from the Leafs lineup last year.

The Toronto management also announced that Ted Kennedy, Leafs captain, had signed a contract for next season. The 23-year-old centre star, was an important factor in the triumph over Detroit Red Wings in the Stanley Cup finals last week.

At Toronto, T. H. Alison, president of Toronto Argonauts Football Club, said yesterday he had "nothing to say" on reports that Argos had completed arrangements with the Cleveland Rams for exchange of players. The reports said Argos, who traditionally have refused to use American players, would be able to get players from the professional Rams if needed.

The Senate Foreign Relations Committee voted yesterday at Washington to invite the 1956 winter Olympic games to Lake Placid, N. Y. The group approved a bill by Senator Irving Ives (Rep. N. Y.) extending invitation to the International Olympic Committee.

Demand Unjust Hockey Recruiting Stopped In New Feud By OEA

By JACK SULLIVAN

TORONTO, April 20—(CP)—A feud, smouldering since January between organized hockey and Ontario education authorities, was in full bloom today. Repercussions may become Canada-wide. Both sides had their say Tuesday, touched off by Dr. G. E. Hall, president of the University of Western Ontario, who declared young hockey hopefuls are the "Nicholas Nicklebys of today" through the "insidious and unjust" methods of professional and amateur hockey.

He said they are being exploited "with the viciousness of the mill-owners of the early 1800's" and asked that provincial legislation should be introduced barring pro clubs from "tying up a player until he has either finished four years' high school or reached the age of 18."

He declared that boys of 12 and 14 years are listed by pro clubs without their knowledge and are thus prevented from playing with any other teams.

Stung by the educationist's remarks, made at the Ontario Educational Association convention here, hockey brought its big guns to bear.

"It is a shocking thing that a president of a university would make an unethical approach to any problem or that he would, either negligently or deliberately, make claims that are absolute falsehoods," declared President Clarence Campbell of the National Hockey League.

Officials of the Canadian Amateur Hockey Association followed suit by saying the charges were "ridiculous and absurd."

Dr. Hall, in a brief interview early to-day, stressed he was "not opposed to professional hockey."

Opposes Contracts

"But I am opposed to the type of contract minors have to sign. They are signing away their hockey careers."

In his address to the OEA, Dr. Hall said:

The young prospect "is transported from his home, his parents, his friends and his school to take up residence in an unfamiliar city, living in rooming houses, attending a school not necessarily of his own choice, and whirled into a competitive system which undermines his health, jeopardizes his future, renders secondary the church and the home, shatters faith and hope, encroaches upon human right and liberty and sells the boy into bondage, a system organized and operated by men animated by profit and the desire for arbitrary power."

Campbell replied that "no player can turn professional under any agreement without his (the player's) consent or the consent of his amateur club, nor can he be moved from place to place without his consent."

He said also that no boy under 16 years of age may be put on any professional list. "As a matter of fact, no boy under 16 may even have a try-out with a pro club."

The opening shot in the feud was fired by J. L. Murray, principal of Kingston Collegiate Institute, at the January meeting of the Dominion's sports-governing bodies called by the National Council on Physical Fitness. The session was aimed to determine the country's sports ills.

Calls For Action

Murray told a survey of 50 Ontario schools taken since 1947, showing the 119 boys of 16, 17 and 18 years of age had gone from schools to play hockey. He termed it "an evil which has grown without the governing bodies realizing the result" and called for "drastic and immediate action."

Campbell, who attended the session, said he would discuss the "whole problem if sound statistical information is available" and Tuesday night said he still had not met the collegiate principal.

Dr. Hall said in his address to the OEA that a questionnaire among High School principals in Ontario showed that of 79 young players covered by the survey, 65 were transferred from their home town and school for tryouts or in order to play hockey with organized Junior A or B teams.

Of the 65, 30 did not attend school at all in their new locality. The majority of the 79 boys, he said, were 17 and 18 years of age, but 12 were 16 years old and two were 15.

The NHL's controversial C form was widely-publicized early this month over the case of Danny Lewicki, 17-year-old Fort William player who signed the form with Toronto Maple Leafs of the NHL when he was 16. Managing Director Conny Smythe of the Leafs said Lewicki would play with the Leaf organization next year or "he won't play at all."

Smythe's ultimatum was backed up by the NHL and CAHA, but Harold Wyatt, president of the Stratford club on which Lewicki played, said if Toronto claimed the player he would fight it—"even if recourse to law is necessary."

The NHL said it would back Smythe because Lewicki would be 18 next year—the league's "age of consent."

The C form, one of the most hotly-debated issues in hockey, works like this:

When an amateur signs it, he agrees that the contracting club within one year may call upon him to sign a standard contract and perform professionally for a specified time at terms agreed upon. He is paid a minimum of $50, usually more, for signing the option which is renewable each year on payment of the agreed-upon sum.

One clause in Option C says:

"During the currency of this agreement or extension thereof, the player covenants and agrees that he will play hockey only for such hockey team as may be designated by the club."

Browns Thump Indians 5-1, Feller Flops

By JACK HAND
Associated Press Sports Writer

Bob Feller's failure is the most disturbing note of the opening of the major-league baseball season, which otherwise reads like a carbon copy of 1948.

A year ago Bobby pitched a two-hit shutout opening day, but Tuesday Feller was yanked after two innings because of wildness and a sore arm. He yielded one run as the Indians lost to the upstart St. Louis Browns, 5-1. Ned Garver scattered seven hits to beat the champs before 12,817, the Browns' largest opening crowd in 15 years.

Otherwise things were normal.

Rip Sewell, 41-year-old Pittsburgh hurler, resumed his favorite job—beating Chicago 1-0. Lou Brissie, Philadelphia Athletics' brilliant second-year man, repeated his 1948 rookie job of spoiling the opener for Boston Red Sox, 3-2. Brooklyn whipped New York Giants 10-3 under a deluge of homers by Jackie Robinson, Roy Campanella and Carl Fudillo.

Brissie, the boy with the war-shattered leg, was hard pressed in the late innings to win against Boston but a great catch by Sam Chapman on Bobby Doerr's long drive in the eighth got him out of trouble.

Hits Homer

Eddie Joust hit a game-winning homer off Joe Dobson in the seventh inning to square the A's at 1-1 for the season before 19,897 at Shibe Park.

Cleveland's pitching staff, tabbed the "best in baseball," used Feller, Early Wynn, Mike Garcia and Satchel Paige against the Brownies.

The largest crowd Tuesday was 53,435, a Briggs Stadium opening record, to see the Detroit Tigers thump Chicago White Sox, 5-1. Rookie Johnny Groth, the Buffalo sensation, broke in the right way with a pair of home runs on successive times at bat. Hal Newhouser handcuffed the Sox with three hits.

With Joe DiMaggio sitting on the bench in his street clothes and 40,075 in the Yankee Stadium stands, New York Yankees needed a ninth-inning home run by Tommy Heinrich to shade Washington, 3-2. Ed Lopat, usually a slow starter, scraped through with an eight-hitter to decision Sid Hudson.

Joe Hatten gave up 10 hits as the Dodgers rocked Larry Jansen, the Giants' ace before an Ebbets Field crowd of 34,530.

Boston Braves whipped Philadelphia Phillies twice, 4-3 and 11-2 in Boston before 30,337 fans. Alvin Dark continued his sensational hitting with five hits, three in the second game.

Errors cost Harry Brecheen his opener as St. Louis Cardinals dropped a 3-1 decision to Cincinnati Reds. The customary sell-out Cincinnati crowd of 32,118 saw Ken Raffensberger continue his mastery over the Cards with a five-hitter.

Deny Danny Gardella Chance To Play Ball

NEW YORK, April 20—(AP)—Danny Gardella, a wartime outfielder with New York Giants, lost his bid yesterday for immediate return to baseball, from which he was suspended in 1946.

Judge Edwerd A. Conger denied Gardella a temporary injunction pending trial of his suit against organized baseball for $300,000 damages and a permanent order lifting the suspension.

In denying the motion that baseball be restrained from enforcing the suspension Judge Conger said he invoked all the reasons employed April 1 when he denied similar applications filed by Max Lanier and Fred Martin, former St. Louis Cardinal pitchers.

Senators Rock Marlies 8-2 To Take Lead In Series

By MEL SUFRIN

OTTAWA, April 20 (CP) — A rapid-fire scoring potential that explodes like a dynamite charge seems to be Ottawa Senators' secret weapon.

The high-scoring capital clan demonstrated a knack of getting goals in a hurry Tuesday night while drubbing Toronto Marlboros 8-2 to take a 2-1 lead in the best-of-seven Allan Cup semi-final series.

While a crowd of 7,689 Ottawan fans were trying to catch their breath, the Senators came suddenly to life in the second period and rapped in four goals in the short space of two minutes and 35 seconds. When the pressure finally let up, what had been a 1-0 first period lead for Marlboros turned into a 4-1 margin for Ottawa. The Senators stretched it to 6-1 in the final period before Toronto got its second and final goal.

Buddy Hellyer and Stu Smith contributed two goals each to the spree with Lude Check, Jack Irvine, Emile Dagenais and Bill Robinson netting the others. Hellyer made it a big night, assisting on two counters. Check, Dagenais and George Greene also had a pair of assists each.

Johnny McLellan got Toronto's first-period goal with Scotty Mair and Flash Hollett helping. Ray Hannigan scored the other, George Armstrong and Al Buchanan assisting.

Starts Outburst

Irvine started the second-period scoring outburst when he took a pass from Ed Dartnell and beat Howie Harvey at 2.05. A minute and 15 seconds later Check, Dagenais and Hellyer roared in for the second tally. The third goal was virtually from the centre-ice faceoff as Dagenais scored with Irvine and Hellyer helping at 3.53. The barrage subsided at 4.40 when Smith scored with Greene and Copp assisting.

The fact that while Marlboros were able to hold their own, territorially, throughout a large part of the game, they just couldn't match the older and more experienced Senators for finesse around the nets.

Led by the Dagenais-Hellyer-Check line, Ottawa made life miserable for Howie Harvey, rifling the puck at him from close in and in quick succession throughout the last two periods. Harvey handled 25 shots, four more than Bill (Legs) Fraser in the Ottawa nets.

Rearguard Irvine, besides netting a goal and assist in the winning cause, played a good defensive game, and with Bobby Copp and Ray Trainor working like Trojans. The Senators' defence managed to keep Marlboros' attack disorganized much of the time.

Swamp Gananoque

FORT ERIE, April 19 (CP) — Port Colborne Merchants put on a whirlwind finish to swamp Gananoque Legionnaires 13-4 and capture the Ontario Hockey Association intermediate A championship before 1,700 fans here Tuesday night. They won the best-of-five game series 3-1.

Believe Hope Richer Than Crosby

By BOB THOMAS

HOLLYWOOD, April 20 (AP)—Midweek medley: highlights and sidelights on the Hollywood News.

Bob Hope bounced out of town this week for another of his entertainment tours of the country. This time he and his radio troupe are playing 25 shows in 15 days in 15 States.

The proceeds to go into the Hope Enterprises, which not only produces some of his pictures, but indulges in other commercial ventures.

Which brings up a question often knocked around in Hollywood bull sessions—who is richer, Hope or Bing Crosby? Most amateur observers hand the laurel to Hope, even though Crosby has earned more moola over the years.

Buyer's Market

Competition is getting hotter every day in the movie industry. The movie minds have found that the different kind of pictures are the ones that make the biggest money these days.

So when two or more studios get a similar type of picture on a "different" theme, there's a rush to get the films to the theatres first. That's happening now with two pictures showing the sordid side of the fight racket. Next it will be a race for movies on the negro issue.

The buyer's market has returned the film industry, like many others, to competitive ways.

Regina Edges Ft. Frances 6-3

REGINA, April 20 — (CP) — Regina Capitals, a team of veterans way past their peak, today have only to notch one more win to take the Western Canada senior hockey title and enter the Allan Cup finals against either Ottawa Senators or Toronto Marlboros.

The Capitals Tuesday night downed Fort Frances 6-3 to take the lead at two games to one in their best-of-five western final.

The Caps clicked in brilliant fashion for five goals in the middle session. They were enough to sink Fort Frances hopes.

Canadians won the opening game 5-4 and Caps came back to capture the second 7-2.

402 Cases Of Family Troubles Under Children's Aid Supervision

Children's Aid Society had 402 cases of family troubles under its supervision during March, Miss R. Young reported to the executive at City Buildings Tuesday. Of these 35 were new cases brought to the notice of the Society and 367 were carried over from previous months. A total of 520 visits were made during the month and there were 193 office interviews.

Most of the matters dealt with by the Society concerned family situations arising from physical and mental illness, imprisonment of the breadwinner, drinking, child delinquency, poor housekeeping, desertion and custody of child.

Two children were placed privately for adoption, a temporary foster home was found for a child pending establishment of a home by the parents and a child was admitted to the shelter pending wardship.

Four unmarried mothers were given assistance in planning for their babies and another consulted the Society to secure maintenance from the father of her child.

There are 176 children under the care of the Society. Two adoptions were completed.

During March eight payments were made under the Children of Unmarried Parents Act and 22 payments totalling $283.60 were made under Family Court order or agreement.

Most Complex Problem

The task of assisting parents in mental and emotional troubles is far more complex than physical problems, Miss Young reported. Some of the problems which come to the attention of the Society are parents giving permission for children to marry at the age of 15 when they are unready to assume adult responsibilities; insecurities and bitterness experienced by a child in his own home later expressed in his marriage relationship and marriage of mentally disturbed people.

Mrs. L. L. Maguire reported there were seven children in the Shelter at the beginning of April. Two boys who were in the champion Church League Hockey team were entertained at a banquet and St. Paul's Married Couples Group entertained the children to a performance of "Tom Jones."

Three children received medical examinations. One was fitted with glasses. One had been in hospital for treatment and another for observation.

Gifts of candy, fruit and other foods were received from Mesdames L. Yeotes, Keith Lech, J. H. Wharry, E. Lee, Connell, Mr. Stanley Easton and the Junior Welfare League, St. James' Church, the Figure Skating Club, Queen Mary Home and School Association, Salvation Army Bank, YWCA, Friday Night Supper Club, Knox Church, Group Three of George St. Church, Game Wardens Windsor and Trotter.

One hundred and fifty garments were mended during March Mrs. Charles Pilon reported, two pairs of pants and a quilt were made and two pairs of pants and a dress had been renovated.

Sewers were: Mesdames H. McGinnis, acting convener, G. White, W. Wiltshire, F. Horton, E. Lee, W. Price, A. Greystock, C. Reinhardt, J. Miller, C. Hughes, R. White, R. Harper, M. Krant, W. King, L. Lipsett, G. Maniece, G. R. Langley, D. Todd, D. Miller and Miss M. Curtis.

Donations to the sewing committee were from Mesdames W. King, P. Kitchen, Wilson, A. Martin, O. Laderach, Butcher (Prince St.), Hugh Waddell, W. A. Graham, S. A. Grills, Wilson, J. P. Roberts, J. Stuart, M. B. Carr, Ken Wellman, Norman Stockdale, Echo Club, George Douglas, S. Hayman, A. W. Tait, C. Bricklebank, L. M. Davis, Eva Allen, the Misses Mildred Rowan and Sabin, Peterborough Soccer Club and the Echo Club.

DOBBIN'S EASTER BONNET—By far the best dressed horse in Hamilton's Easter Parade was this dappled milk wagon equine. Anthony Guagliano, the driver, claimed it was a bonnet belonging to his mother-in-law that won Dobbin the title.

One Of Twins Dies

VANCOUVER, April 20 (CP)—Death Tuesday night ended a tiny 17½ ounce Vancouver baby's struggle for existence. Dubbed "little peanut" by her nurses, the daughter of Mrs. Alice Fordham succumbed after living about 60 hours following her birth with a three-pound, four-ounce twin sister Sunday.

Dies Of Gas Poisoning

OSHAWA, April 20 — (CP) — Mrs. Ira Travell, 68, died in hospital today as a result of heating-gas poisoning. Her husband, sleeping upstairs, found the woman in the kitchen of the family home here at 7.30 this morning. She was rushed to hospital. Three burners on the kitchen stove had been turned on.

Robert Garland Dies

ELIZABETHTOWN, Pa., April 20 (AP)—Robert Garland, who gained widespread recognition as the "father of daylight saving time," died here yesterday at the age of 86. During the First World War he gained national prominence for his fight to set the clocks ahead one hour, despite opposition by farm groups.

Actress Feeling Better

HOLLYWOOD, April 20 (AP)—Actress Olivia Dehavilland, confined to bed for more than two months, "is doing well and has shown much improvement," her doctor said yesterday. The 32-year-old actress, wife of novelist Marcus Goodrich, became seriously ill during pregnancy. Her baby is expected in August.

Survey made of motorists who bought B.F. Goodrich Tires in the past year

FREEDOM FROM PUNCTURES — "I switched to B.F.G. to get the perfect tire-tube combination — long-wearing, dependable B.F. Goodrich tires and puncture-sealing B.F.G. Seal-o-matic Safety tubes." — S. E. Bilton, Toronto, Ont.

EXTRA BLOWOUT PROTECTION — "I drive 1,000 miles a week over the rough back roads of Quebec. Since I switched to B.F. Goodrich I've enjoyed complete freedom from all tire troubles." Jack E. Duvall, Ottawa, Ont.

LONGER MILEAGE — "I wanted more mileage for my money, so I switched to B.F. Goodrich. I've driven 20,000 miles and my B.F.G. tires look good for as many more." —Fred H. Landen, Fort Rouge, Man.

SMOOTHER RIDING—"My car rides smoother on B.F. Goodrich tires. They absorb more road shock yet maintain correct air pressure and need very little attention."—R. Knox Ferguson, London, Ont.

DEPENDABLE PERFORMANCE—"Seal-o-matics bought in 1939 are still in dependable service in my B.F. Goodrich tires, giving me greater safety, greater real economy, plus freedom from punctures."—H. Godley, Courtenay, B.C.

BETTER PERFORMANCE... BETTER PROTECTION SUMS UP REASONS WHY

3 out of 5 SWITCHED TO B.F.Goodrich FROM SOME OTHER BRAND

All across Canada, an independent research organization interviewed motorists who bought B.F. Goodrich tires in the past year. Three out of five had switched to B.F. Goodrich from some other brand!

The reasons? Only B.F. Goodrich can give you longer mileage . . . smoother riding . . . extra blowout protection . . . PLUS FREEDOM FROM PUNCTURES!

RESEARCH KEEPS B.F. GOODRICH FIRST IN RUBBER

B.F. Goodrich maintains a multi-million-dollar rubber research centre. Research produced the B.F. Goodrich Seal-o-matic safety tube that seals punctures instantly . . . permanently . . . as you ride! Research developed the cooler-running, wear-resisting rubber compounds . . . the tougher cords . . . the improved body and tread design . . . the new tire-building methods that make B.F. Goodrich Silvertown tires give you better performance . . . better protection.

Enjoy all the money-saving, trouble-saving results of B.F. Goodrich research. Switch to B.F. Goodrich and ride safer . . . at lower long-range cost. See your B.F. Goodrich dealer today! (Consult yellow pages of your phone book.)

Convicted Of Rape

OPELOUSAS, La., April 20 — (AP)—Edward Honeycutt, young negro who several weeks ago escaped from a lynching mob while the men flipped a coin to decide who would kill him, yesterday was convicted of aggravated rape. The verdict carries a mandatory death sentence. He returned to the jail from which he was abducted after his escape.

Up To Parents, Not Teachers To Give Facts Of Life–Doctor

TORONTO, April 20 (CP) — Parents, and not teachers, have the duty of giving sex education to children, thinks Dr. A. T. Church of Hamilton, who spoke yesterday to delegates at the 89th annual convention of the Ontario Educational Association.

Today the more than 7,000 teachers and educationists head into the last half of their crowded four-day program.

Dr. Church, Director of Hamilton's Mental Health Clinic, urged parents to give gradual instruction in sex matters "from the child's tenderest years" instead of waiting until adolescence to give them the information "all of a sudden."

If the parents failed in their duty the teacher could only try and patch up the damage.

"Children of three and four years begin to notice sex differences," he said. "Parents should tell them the truth . . simply explain things naturally . . to young children the subject causes no embarrassment."

Assumes Presidency

S. R. Ross of Windsor assumed the presidency of the OEA Tuesday night, succeeding Blanche Flumerfelt of Toronto.

Dr. H. Bowers of Stratford was elected first vice-president and C. W. Seace of Brockville was named second vice-president.

L. S. Beattie, Director of Vocation Education for Ontario, said that failure of young people to realize the aspects of freedom and responsibility have brought complaints from employers that modern youth lacked initiative.

Dr. Karl S. Bernhardt of the University of Toronto Psychology Department urged parents of kindergarten pupils to learn "what is going on in the kindergarten and the kind of experience their children are having there."

Dr. Ira Dilworth of Montreal, head of CBC's international service, said over-specialization in education had clouded "a clear concept of general purpose" in student's lives.

C. W. Scace of Brockville urged that young people who do not intend to enter university should be directed into a trade. Canada needs young people skilled in trades, he said.

Dr. R. C. Wallace, principal of Queens University, warned of a danger to education in improper use of film and radio.

Suggests Bonus

An annual bonus to Ontario teachers to travel or buy books was proposed by Professor E. C. McLean of the Ontario Agricultural College at Guelph.

J. G. Demeza, public school superintendent at Kirkland Lake, told a meeting of trustees and ratepayers that they had a responsibility to create conditions that will attract young persons to the teaching profession. "No profession offers a greater challenge . . . to be an influence for the good of future society than teaching," he said.

One speaker announced the good news that little boys could grow up in good health without ever washing their necks or behind their ears.

Dr. Jay B. Nash of New York University said that attempts to make children health conscious only put fears in their minds. Administrators should attack instead the causes of ill-health in the school and community.

"The average boy can grow up quite well without ever washing his neck or ears," he concluded.

Stage Sit-Down Strike

LANSFORD, Pa., April 20 — (AP)—Thirteen miners protesting pay dockings today staged a sit-down strike on the fourth level of the Lehigh Navigation Coal Company's No. 6 ... tified with a large breakfast, the miners prepared to stay down until the company "adheres to the verbal agreement on quitting time in the west side of the mine, and until those pay dockages are restored."

Family Of Four Dead

BOSTON, April 20 —(AP)—A family of four was found dead yesterday in what police described as a triple murder and suicide. The dead were Edgarton McFarline, 28, his wife, Mamie, and their two infant children. Police said the father apparently killed the other three, then shot himself for unknown reasons.

Ask Tamblyn's

DETERGENTS: "Do you know whether or not any of the soap companies put out a giant size package of detergent? We should have a large economy size package of the family wash type of detergent."
Giant packages of Dreft and Vel are already on the market, with a giant Tide on its way in.
$100 APPLE PIE: "Where do I write for a C.N.E. prize list? I understand that there is a hundred dollar apple pie in this year's prize list."
You're perfectly right. There is a hundred dollar prize for the best apple pie turned in on September 7th. Prize lists may be obtained from the Canadian National Exhibition Headquarters, Exhibition Park, Toronto.
ORANGE JUICE, FRESH AND CANNED: "What is the comparative price of canned orange juice and fresh oranges? What is the food value? Our children prefer the canned juice to the fresh juice. I don't see any reason, if the food value is there, why they shouldn't have canned juice."
Canned orange juice costs about 4 cents for a 6-ounce glass. A similar glass of fresh orange juice costs about 5 cents. The Vitamin values of fresh and canned orange juice are the same for Vitamins A and B—540 International Units of A and 59 International Units of B in a 6-ounce glass. A glass of the canned juice contains 72 milligrams of Vitamin C, of fresh juice 98 milligrams.
PRINTING ON BAGS: "How can we remove letters from sugar bags and flour bags? The cotton is too good to waste."
Soak the letters overnight in a solution, half waterglass and half water. Wash well in mild soapy water in the morning. Printing should disappear. . .
WEDDING BREAKFAST: "I have a wedding reception to cater for in April. There will be 75 guests. How much chicken will be needed for chicken salad?"
At least eight five-pound boiling fowl. Recipe includes diced chicken, celery, mayonnaise and seasoning. Don't load it up with substitutes.

Truckers Hold Banquet, Dance At Omemee

OMEMEE, April 20—(ENS)—The Kawartha Truckers' Association held their annual banquet and dance in Cameron Town Hall recently. The guest speaker was Leroy Brown, Agricultural Representative of Victoria county.

President Bill Weir of Omemee, master of ceremonies, proposed the toast to the King, a toast to the Truckers' wives was proposed by Michael Harrington of Downeyville and replied to by Mrs. Ernie Wright of Lindsay

Reeve Lauds Work

In a speech of welcome Wilbur Worsley, Reeve of Fenelon Township, paid tribute to the service given by the truckers to the public, especially to the farmers. The township, he stated, is striving to make the roads suitable for trucking and also to keep winter roads passable.

Mr. Worsley informed the truckers that Fenelon Township is now a restricted area for wa.ble fly control and that any cattle coming into the township must either be treated before entering or with 24 hours after entry, and solicited the co-operation of the Truckers in this matter.

The President invited P. C. V. operators who were not members to join the Association.

Honorary President Ernie Wright, who was instrumental in organizing the K. J. A., spoke briefly on the aims of the association after which he introduced the guest speaker, Mr. Brown.

Mr. Brown emphasized the definite relationship between the Trucker and the farmer. He spoke highly of the trucking industry.

Other items on the program were two solos by Miss Ann Westaway of Cameron and community singing directed by Bill Weir. Mrs. Royce Naylor of Cameron was at the piano.

Ross Golden of Lindsay, on behalf of the K. J. A., thanked the Cameron ladies for the splendid banquet.

Win Dance Prizes

The dance following was under the direction of Robert McInnis. A door prize was won by E. Wright. Mrs. Ken Heaslop of Janetville received a prize for the woman whose birthday was closest to the banquet, Mr. and Mrs. Bill Thompson of Grasshill a prize for the couple whose wedding anniversary was closest and Mrs. and Mrs. Clayton Kerr of Bobcaygeon for the couple with largest family. Others receiving prizes were: Wilbur Worsley, Mrs. Bill Thompson, Michael Harrington, Ken Naylor of Cameron, Mrs. Carl Hill of Cambray, Mrs. Ross Golden, Mrs. Gordon McIlvary, Mrs. Robert McInnis of Little Britain, Murray Squires, Oakwood, Bill Hayes of Cambray, R. McInnis, Mrs. E. Hanna, Cameron, C. McElroy, Lindsay, and Jim Fitzpateric, Lindsay.

The Committee in charge of the banquet was Ev. Truax, Lindsay, Royce Naylor, Cameron, Morley Suggett, Oakwood and Willi[illegible] Weir Om[illegible]

The officers of the K. J. A. are: Honorary President, E. Wright; President, W. Weir, Secretary-Treasurer, Morley Suggett; Directors, Micheal Harrington; and Robert McInnis.

VOL. XCVIII, No. 92 — WEDNESDAY, APRIL 20, 1949 — PRICE FIVE CENTS

Firemen To Be Refurbished, 4-Piece Suits

Contracts for firemen's clothing were let by the council Monday as recommended by the fire and light committee report presented by the chairman, Ald. Doug Miller.

Tip Top Tailors: 42 four-piece uniforms as $59.15 each.

Howard's Men's Wear: 168 shirts—dress shirts being at $3.90 each, dark navy blue shirts at $3.50 each; and blue-gray shirts at $3.30 each.

Howard's Men's Wear: Six summer jackets at $24.25 each, the cloth of these jackets to match the color of the cloth of the summer jackets bought last year.

The rest of the Miller report follows: "That the tender of Electro-Vox Incorporated of $405 for installing intercommunication service in the fire hall be accepted; this price to include the complete installation of all equipment and wiring and a one-year guarantee with free service.

That business telephone calls to the fire department be made direct to the fire hall and not through the city hall switchboard, and that the new telephone number be advertised for the information of the public.

Increase for Top Men

That the Assistant Chief and Deputy Fire Chief carry on their duties with the Department in the same manner as in the past, and that their salaries be increased to the recommended figures, viz., First Assistant Chief $3,200 a year; Second Assistant Chief $3,000; and that the Fire Chief's salary be increased by $50 to $3,600."

Ald. Miller amended the report relating to key salaries with the condition "The above (salaries) to apply if no serious objection is raised by the Firemen's Union."

The final clause in the report was: "The Chief be authorized to build a two-wheel trailer for the use of the Department at a cost not to exceed $25."

The first Assistant Chief is S. A. Foster and the second Assistant is Virgil Carr.

The salary increases mentioned in the chairman's report were $50 each to Chief Smith and his two deputies, Foster and Carr.

If No Union Objection

Ald. Miller's reference to the assent of the Fire Fighters' Union was evidently recognition that in their bargaining for satisfactory terms they take into their consideration and control the hours of work of all the members of the department excepting the Chief.

The chairman of the committee said that the Chief's assistants were engaged for those positions, and nothing was said about their hours of work.

"I'm afraid they are under the jurisdiction of the Union," Mayor Swanston said.

"But, they were not hired on an hourly basis at all," Ald. D. Miller argued. "If their positions and work require them to put in some hours overtime they are willing to do so, and if the Department is operating efficiently under this set up I am for it."

City Solicitor Huycke said the council could pay the assistants to the Chief some extra money, but there was nothing to prevent the Union from bargaining for everybody but the Chief in the following year.

Ald. H. Dodds: "Are we assured the Union will not take objection later on to the hours of work of the assistants." (The work week is 56 hours.)

Mayor Swanston: "I don't think so."

Ald. Miller said he realized that under the statute the only member of the staff excluded from the hours clause was the Chief. But, there was a real question as to whether in the absence of the Chief, the first deputy, with the Chief's responsibility, was not to considered as Chief.

"If the Chief goes out of town, the first Assistant Chief becomes the Fire Chief," Ald. Miller contended.

On that point, City Solicitor Huycke said: "It is true the assistant chief is the acting Chief in the absence of the Chief, but the fact that the Chief is out of town does not make his assistant the Chief under the meaning of the Act."

Council divided on the adoption of the report, but the majority was for it.

SPEEDY PETERBOROUGH LIONS CLUB lost no time in getting busy on their Riverside Park pools project. At Monday evening's city council meeting a bylaw of approval was passed giving the Lion's Club the green light. On Tuesday noon a transport with 12 tons of reinforcing steel for cement construction arrived at the site. It had been ordered four months previously and arrived at the crucial time by coincidence. In the left photo, (left to right) President Simpson Gledhill, Fred Jenkins and George Hildenbrand receive the bill of lading from driver Vincent Garvey as Tom Doughty watches from the rear. Civilized World Challenges All Freedom-Loving People

The civilized world is at the most critical stage in all its history at the present hour, A major effort embodying the utmost co-operation of all freedom-loving peoples must be put forth in order that "law and order may be established among the nations of the earth." This was the challenge thrown out to the members of the Peterborough Sales and Advertising Club at their first inter-club night held on Tuesday in the Empress Hotel by the guest speaker of the evening, Hon. Orlo M. Brees, member of the New York State Legislature.

ORLO M. BREES

Men of a "triumphant faith" are needed in these testing times, said Mr. Brees, not the Pollyanna type. "We should go forth in the spirit of 'what ought to be, can be' and our problems can be solved if we tackle them in the right spirit," declared the speaker, whose topic was "The Secret of Happiness."

Introduced by Ted Weir, Hon. Mr. Brees enunciated his philosophy of life in a way that won his hearers' undivided attention, sprinkling his talk with many humorous sallies.

The speaker listed the following as necessary ingredients in a workable philosophy of life: A good disposition, sense of humor, congenial work, and the spirit of co-operation.

Must Meet Life

What happens to a person along the path of life is secondary in importance to the manner in which he or she meets life's difficulties and problems as they are bound to arise at one stage or another, stressed the speaker.

Mr. Brees, in emphasizing the importance of a man getting himself established in work that he "loves," said that "you must see your place in the scheme of things and regard the job as a service to humanity." He deplored the fact that there is an increasing number of people to-day afflicted with "the gimmies," many of whom were seeking to trade with men in public life with this idea in their minds.

A vote of thanks to the speaker was moved by Percy Dallin.

The meeting, which was presided over by President Paige Rowell, saw the election of four new directors, Russ Baer, H. B. Cowan, Jr., Jack Jobe, and Don Loucks, the last-named being re-elected.

Guests Introduced

The following guests were introduced by President Rowell from Peterborough, Toronto, Hamilton, Belleville, Kingston, and Montreal: Bob Arnold, William Easton, Jack Keene, C. M. Elliott (past president of the Hamilton club), Neil O'Donnell, Kenneth Young, Les Graham, Jack Welsh, Mike Sadler, Eric Nickson, Jack Hogan, Peter Calhoun, Lloyd Moffatt, Earl O'Toole, Bob Roach, Harvey Pyle, Eddie O'Brien, Ken Rodgers, Everette Harrison, of the Montreal Junior Sales and Ad Club, Len Reilly, Ralph Grant, Roy Hofstetter, D. G. Deans, and Stewart Lloyst, James Sutcliff, and Reg. Walton, all of Kingston.

The following were welcomed as new members: E. A. Adams, Ed. Bickell, Ernest A. Brailsford, William R. Godson, P. M. Irwin, Thomas J. Lawlor, Bob Maybee, Richard R. Miller, Lynne A. Wilson.

Russ Baer, chairman of the Ladies' Night committee, outlined the program for this annual event, which takes place on April 29.

C. M. Elliott of Hamilton gave a resume of the program for the 48th annual convention of the International Affiliation of Sales and Advertising Clubs, to be held in his home city on May 19, 20, and 21.

The evening concluded with a program of entertainment arranged by a committee headed by Eddie O'Toole, and with Andy Rutter as master of ceremonies, many talented young Peterborough artists appearing before the club members and their guests.

Mayor Praises Champions

Mayor Max Swanston congratulated Peterborough's sons and daughters who by their efforts and abilities have been earning an expensive place for her in the forum of performance. He repeated his Monday statement that nine championships have come to this city in the months since last summer.

The Peterborough lacrosse senior B title of the Ontario Lacrosse Association.

Collegiate Institute and Vocational School, coached by Bev Goulding and Alex Landry, won the senior and junior rugby football championships; also the COSSA senior basketball championship and the Dominion juvenile basketball crown.

Canadian Legion won the senior B championship of the OHA. "For a city without a rink for many years their record is really something to be proud of," Mayor Swanston said. The Peterborough Cricket Club, winners against county competitors, was also congratulated.

His Worship mentioned in his group the Ashburnham Bantams as having taken a baseball title. They were managed by Ray Pammett. Cec Perdue says the youngsters over in the Swanston-Dodds-D. Miller bailiwick were put out in the finals. However, that was a strong bid for the Ashburnham kids.

"Peterborough has versatility of talent," His Worship continued in his weekly municipal commentary in the time provided by CHEX. In dramatic presentations, the Little Theatre Group carried off awards during the recent winter and are booked for Toronto at the end of this month.

ACCEPT RESIGNATION

The Utilities Commission has accepted the resignation of Miss Frieda B. Meadows of its Simcoe St. office staff, effective May 12.

3-Foot Setback On George St. Passes Council

The proposed three-foot setback for all new buildings erected on George St., both sides, from King St. to Lansdowne St., was fully authorized by a bylaw of the council Monday. It was recommended in the report of the finance committee read by Ald. Hugh Waddell, chairman, and the previous bylaw, offending property owners by including alterations to existing buildings, was repealed.

Ald. Doug Miller told the council of complaints he had received from some residents of Ashburnham about a "smoke nuisance" from Sunshine Dairy, Hunter St. east. His motion, seconded by Ald. H. Dodds, requesting City Engineer Chalmers to bring in a report on the Sunshine smoke, was adopted.

City Solicitor Huycke recalled that previous councils had discussed a smoke control bylaw, but nothing had ever been done about it.

"This is rather a contentious issue," Mr. Huycke said. "It affects nearly the whole city, particularly in areas where there are various chimneys."

Need Private Bill

City Clerk Outram said Toronto had obtained smoke control authority by a private bill passed by the Ontario Legislature. Other cities had tried to follow the example of Toronto, but they found that there was no general statute.

"I think if Sunshine Dairy would increase the height of their smoke stack, that would relieve the situation," Ald. D. Miller said. "Their chimney is not high, and from what I saw recently the smoke rolls around at a low level and even crosses the street."

Ald. Dick Raine, "Campbell's Dairy at Park and Sherbrooke Streets, raised their stack, and I don't think there has been any trouble in that neighborhood since then."

Austin Cars Reduced In Price $140 to $250

Reductions of from $140 to $250 in the prices of their cars in Canada were announced today by Austin Motors (Canada), Ltd. reductions, similar to those announced earlier in the United States, are effective Friday.

Reason for the cut in prices, the company announced, was the large number of cars sold in Canada last year, 9,000 in all, and assistance from the British Government in line with their policy of encouraging sales in Canada.

BEGIN REFORESTATION

Members of the Peterborough Fish and Game Protective Association and a large group of Boy Scouts are making the trip to Buckley's Lake on Saturday afternoon to start the season's reforestation work. If all goes smoothly about 5,000 trees should be panted — 2,000 white cedar, 2,000 white spruce, and 1,000 white ash and other deciduous kinds.

TB Survey Canvassers Told 98% X-Rayed Negative, Survey Urged On Oldsters

The importance of the mass TB Survey being held in the city was stressed by two Department of Health officials of the Tuberculosis Prevention Division who spoke to Survey canvassers at the Collegiate auditorium Tuesday night. It was revealed that in other surveys as high as 98 per cent. of the people X-rayed showed no signs of having the disease, and children are particularly free of it. Older people, even those over 60, were urged to go to the clinics for the X-rays when their district is surveyed, for the incidence of the disease is high among older adults. The first neighborhood X-rays are being taken May 9.

Dr. S. A. Holling spoke of the methods of detecting the disease, and treatment of patients in sanitoria. The other speaker, Dr. J. D. McLennan, also of the Tuberculosis Prevention Division of the Department of Health, told about canvassing methods and gave practical advice to the canvassers.

People over 60 should be X-rayed for Tuberculosis warned Dr. J. D. McLennan. He added that in all the active cases found seven per cent of them were over 60 years old.

Dr. McLennan told the canvassers that when an area is canvassed as in the Peterborough case, 65 per cent of the people turnout. Of the 35 per cent that do not come, he explained, 20 per cent are children who are purposely not examined. The reason for this is that 80,000 school children X-rayed without a case of TB being discovered. The remaining 15 per cent are people who do not co-operate.

He asked that the women be requested not to wear jewellery to obstruct the rays of the camera when being X-rayed. The men, he advised, would have to take off their suit coats and vests.

98 p.c. Free of T.B.

'Of all the films sent to Toronto from an X-ray survey about 98 per cent of them are negative. They are viewed there by physicians, experts in the work. If the people do not hear about any results for three weeks after the survey, they can be assured that their film is clear."

Mr. McLennan then instructed the canvassers in the filling out of the canvas cards, explaining the difficulties they might run into.

Methods of Detection

In telling how cases of TB are discovered, Dr. Holling, the other speaker, said there are four main ways. The first method si to X-ray people who show signs of having the disease, as, for instance, loss of weight without any apparent reason. Examination of the people around a patient when patient is discovered is the second method. Mass Chest X-rays, similar to the Peterborough survey, in hope of finding people who are unaware they have TB and the X-raying of all people admitted into hospitals are the two other methods.

Special X-ray equipment is being bought by hospitals to help with the fight against TB, he said. By the end of this year, he explained, there will be 80 hospitals with the equipment installed. St. Joseph's hospital has the equipment insalled, which it received through the Ontario Department of Health, and is about to begin using it. The Civic Hospital is getting this equipment soon.

Treacherous Disease

Dr. Holling warned the canvassers that TB is a treacherous disease. He said people must be continually on the lookout for it and when found it should be quickly brought under control. Dr. Holling said in the 14 sanitoria in Ontario, 6,000 patients were treated last year. Nearly 1,000 died of TB.

"TB is the cause of more deaths than all the other infectious diseases combined. Smallpox and others can be brought under good control. But with TB the fact that it does no give any warning makes it had to control."

One hundred and seven TB groups are in the province, Dr. Holling said. Last year $630,000 was raised by the groups to expand the facilities.

"'Success of the X-ray survey depends upon the good salesmanship of the canvassers."

Question Period

A question period was held where the canvassers could ask questions regarding TB and X-ray. One of the canvassers asked who paid the expenses when a patient was in the sanitorium. Dr. Holling answered saying that less than five per cent of the patients paid anything and less than one per cent paid the whole cost.

Dr. Holling told the canvassers that in a recent X-ray survey in Windsor 76,000 people out of a population of 81000 were X-rayed. Only 42 active cases were found. Of the 5,000 not done 13 new cases have been discovered.

Dr. Kelly stressed the problem of getting the older people out to be X-rayed. He asked that the canvassers make every effort to accomplish this.

Drs. Holling and McLennan were introduced by Dr. Kelly and thanked by Doug Vaisey of the Junior Chamber of Commerce, which is taking an active part in organizing the mass survey.

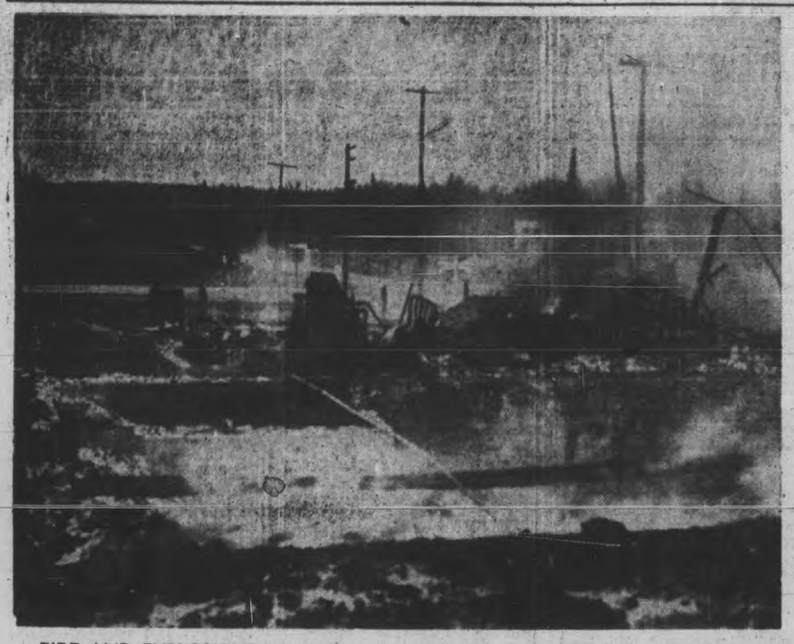
DAYLIGHT SAVING TIME

The City of Peterborough, in accordance with By-law 4766, passed by the City Council February 7th, 1949, will operate on Daylight Saving Time from 12:01 a.m., April 24th, 1949, until 2:00 a.m., September 25th, 1949.

Daylight Saving Time goes into effect in Peterborough at midnight Saturday, April 23rd, and all clocks should be advanced one hour.



MAX J. SWANSTON,
Mayor.

VETERANS RENTAL HOUSING

VETERANS of World War II who are employed in the City of Peterborough and who have not suitable housing accommodation are requested to register their names immediately with the Central Mortgage and Housing Corporation on Hunter Street, Peterborough.

THE REASON for this request to veterans is in order that housing authorities may establish now the need for rental housing and plan the size of program for new housing construction required this summer in the City of Peterborough.

E. A. OUTRAM,
City Clerk.

FIRE AND EXPLOSIONS in the A. A. Roy hardware store at Warren, a village 40 miles west of North Bay, Tuesday threatened the entire village. A volunteer bucket brigade managed to prevent the blaze spreading to nearby buildings. Gasoline and ammunition in the store threatened the firefighters.

When Candy Is Plentiful Grab-Bags Will Come Back

"Grab-Bags" are back for the children of Ottawa, but it looks like the kiddies of Peterborough may have to wait a while yet for this pre-war treat. Young people in their early twenties can recall those glorious days when they could go into the neighborhood grocery store and take advantage of these candy "bargain" sales.

Of course, "grab-bags" have been out of style so long due to war and post-war conditions that many younsters of today, like the English children who never saw a banana until age 8 or 9, don't even know what they are.

Maybe it is a sign that business is getting tighter, or perhaps Mr. Abbott's recent action in reducing the candy tax caught storekeepers with a lot of stock that had to be unloaded in a hurry, but anyway the "grab-bags" are back in Canada's capital.

The Examiner understands that grab-bags have been on sale at odd times in some of the smaller stores of Peterborough during the past two years, but a check of several of the larger retail candy outlets failed to reveal any large-scale use at present of this device for clearing shelves of loose ends of stocks that are not moving quickly.

Thus sale of grab-bags benefits both the youthful customer and the merchant—the little ones, instead of just one stick of candy not only get more than one piece but also enjoy the thrill of expectancy of finding out just what is in inside.

In England, appropriately enough, they are called "lucky bags."

Grab-bags also originate from the manufacturers' and, as it is possible for a shopkeeper to order them already made up in large size lots. Sales in Ottawa shops are reported to have been very brisk since the budget was brought down, so the children are learning again just what a grab bag is.

Retail sales of candy to children are considerably higher now than they were before budget day in most Canadian cities.

Royal Family's Fan Mail Found Heaviest In World

By NORMAN CRIBBENS.

LONDON, April 20—(CI)—Six times a day a large red mail van drives up to the side entrance of Buckingham Palace to deposit parcels, packages and bulging sacks.

It is estimated that the King alone has received 1,500,000 letters in the course of his reign. Nearly as many again have been addressed to the Queen and Princess Elizabeth.

Today's fan mail addressed to the Royal family is the heaviest in the world—and it often produces results.

For instance: young Mr. and Mrs. Ernest Frampton sat at the bedside of their sick baby in a cold and draughty Nissen hut at Weymouth and wrote to Princess Elizabeth.

Ostensibly the letter was just to thank her for a food parcel sent to their baby, Elizabeth, born on the same day as Prince Charles (Nov. 14). They did not know exactly how the Princess's staff knew of the coincidence, but receipt of the parcel made them feel they had a friend at court.

They wrote of draughts, of a leaky ceiling, of the rat they'd found in Elizabeth's cot. . . and before long the Weymouth housing authority received a letter from Buckingham Palace. It was tactful, even fosmal in tone, but there was no mistaking its meaning. The Framptons were quickly moved to a better and warmer hut, and on the council's waiting list for houses their name now is underlined with red ink.

Makes A Visit

A man living at Clapham Common, South-west London, wrote to the Queen telling of the great courage under suffering of a woman who had lain on her face for 12 months with severe burns. This latter passed all secretarial barriers. The Queen answered the letter personally. Then she went to see the woman in hospital.

One of the miracles of Buckingham Palace is that every one of the avalanche of letters received — excepting anonymous letters — is acknowledged. On significant occasions, like the birth of Prince Charles, the flood rises as high as 10,000. Every letter is entered in a register and it is a quiet day when court postmaster Edward Burt books less than 400.

The Royal Family obviously cannot read all the letters addressed to them, but salient points have a way of percolating through the maze.

UAW Approves Strike

DETROIT, April 20 (AP) — Members of the United Automobile Workers (CIO) at the Ford Motor Company's plant approved a strike Tuesday. The announced vote was 484 to 15. Art Valenti, President of Local 900, said he would seek the required approval from the UAW International Executive Board Monday. A similar vote among 65,000 UAW men at Ford's Rouge plant is scheduled for completion Friday. Approval by the executive board also would be required for a Rouge strike.

Young People Present Drama On Missions

SPRINGVILLE, April 20 (ENS) —The Young People's Union of Springville United Church held their last meeting of this season on Sunday evening at the home of Mrs. R. C. Hanbidge.

The meeting was in charge of Myrna Seymour, missionary convener. The scripture was read by Hazel McIntosh; Dianne Cullen read a poem and Dr. C. S. Reddick in prayer. A drama on Chinese missions was presented by George Lord, Roger Hanbidge, Jean Hanbidge, Marie Hooten, Margaret Earle and Myrna Seymour. Mrs. C. S. Reddick led in a service of song. Raymond Kelk, president, presided over the business period.

Limit Kindergartens

HAMILTON, April 20—(CP)—The Ontario Public School Men's Teachers Federation Tuesday approved a resolution that the maximum enrolment for a kindergarten class should be 25 and for other elementary classes 30. It also passed a resolution that all school board members be elected.

Third Mercy Mission

GOOSE BAY, Labrador, April 20 (CP)—Flt. Lt. Barney Hartman flew his third mercy mission in a week Tuesday. He piloted an RC AF Norseman from Goose Bay to Cartwright, north of here on the Labrador coast, to carry drugs to an Eskimo girl. The Grenfell Mission doctor at Cartwright said the drugs "undoubtedly" saved the girl's life. Nature of her illness was not known here.

Criticize Discrimination

DRESDEN, Ont., April 20 (CP) —A Toronto branch of the Canadian Legion Tuesday criticized three restaurants here for allegedly barring negroes. In a letter to the town council, the Legion's General Wingate branch asked for legislation to outlaw racial discrimination. Anti-discrimination forces had persuaded the council to hold a plebiscite on discrimination by restaurants but a technicality in publicizing the vote indefinitely postponed it. It is to be brought up again at the next council meeting.

Snow Delays Liner

QUEBEC, April 20 (CP) — A snowstorm which reduced visibility to zero forced the 20,000-tons Canadian Pacific liner Empress of France to anchor in the St. Lawrence River about 60 miles east of here, delaying the vessel's arrival until 10.00 p.m. The ship's arrival marked the opening of the St. Lawrence navigation season for big passenger liners. Among the passengers on board are the Sudbury Wolves hockey team which represented Canada in the World Amateur Hockey Championships last winter.

Two Hurt In Crash

ST. CATHARINES, April 20 — (CP)—Two persons were injured Tuesday night when a runaway freight car, its brakes failing to hold, crashed into the rear of a standing passenger train at the railroad yards here. A railway cook named McCarter and Mrs. Winn, both of Toronto, suffered minor injuries, and were treated at the scene.

RCAF ADDITION—This F-86 single-engine jet now used by the United States will be added to the aircraft used by the RCAF. The plane currently is the world's fastest, holding a record of 670.981 miles an hour with combat load. Canada will purchase a number of these from the US and plans are being made to manufacture a modified version in Canada. This US Army photo shows the F-86 in flight at a US base.

Old-Line Parties To Fight Out Next Election

SASKATOON, April 20—(CP)—Prime Minister St. Laurent has made it clear to the west that the government expects the federal election to be another traditional struggle between the two old-line parties whose great strength now is rooted in the east.

The Progressive Conservatives, he told 900 men and women in the Canadian Legion hall here yesterday, offer the "only serious challenge" to a renewal of the Liberal mandate.

In previous utterances, both in Social Credit Alberta and CCF Saskatchewan, he had appealed for support to allow the Liberals to form a majority government which would be beyond the power of any other group.

His prediction of a renewal of old-party rivalry at the polls came in the heart of the four western provinces where the Liberals now hold 17 and the Progressive Conservatives 10 of the West's 71 Federal seats.

Gives Two Speeches

Still appearing fresh after 1½ weeks of the 16-day trek, the 67-year-old Prime Minister made two speeches, held another press conference, placed a wreath on the Cenotaph while 500 people watched, and visited veterans in hospital.

He told the press conference he hopes it will be possible to devise some new concept which will prevent a complete break between the Commonwealth and the two Indian dominions which are slated to become republics.

He also indicated that for the time being the government intends to continue to regard the Irish as British subjects for purposes of Canadian citizenship, despite the change which made Ireland a republic a few days ago.

He told an American reporter he didn't anticipate any official kick from Washington about British use of United States dollars to buy wheat under the Anglo-Canadian contract.

Two Cars Damaged In Midnight Collision

Extensive damage to two cars was the result of a collision today shortly after midnight when cars of Emmett Leahy, RR 4, Lakefield and Mrs. Birdie Rosborough, 309 Parkhmill Rd. collided at the Aylmer and McDonnel Sts. intersection.

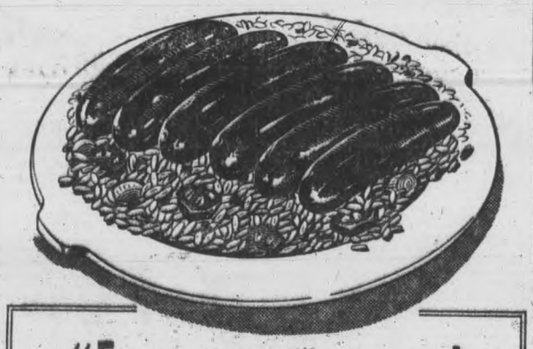
The front bumper of Mrs. Rosborough's car came off, the radiator was damaged, there was a broken headlamp and damaged fender.

A door panel, rear panel, running board and rear fender of Mr. Leahy's car were damaged and a tire was blown out.

Constable Clare McGillen investigated the accident.

Given Six Months For Stealing Iron

LINDSAY, April 20— George Heage, of West Hill, was sentenced to six months' definite and six months' indeterminate by Judge J. A. McGibbon Tuesday afternoon when he was found guilty on two charges of theft from the Canada Lime Co. and the Toronto Brick Co. at Coboconk.



Evidence showed Heage entered the plants and kilns of the companies, closed for years, and removed five truck loads of iron which he disposed of to a Lindsay second-hand dealer.

New Liaison Officer

OTTAWA, April 20 (CP) — Captain Owen C. Robertson, burly 42-year-old native of Victoria, BC, has been appointed senior Canadian Naval Liaison officer in London, it was announced Tuesday. Along with the appointment goes the post of commanding officer of HMCS Niobe, depot ship for Canadian Navy personnel in the United Kingdom. Capt. Robertson takes over the job left vacant by the death in London last March 22 of Commodore R. I. Agnew.

Springville WMS Meets

Easter meeting of Springville WMS was held at the home of Mrs. B. Visee who was in charge of the program. She contributed the solo, "Open the Gates of the Temple," and also presented the study book chapter, closing with an appeal for funds for Christian literature for the Chinese. Pictures of China were also shown. Scripture was read by Mrs. Murray and thoughts on Easter by Mrs. Staples. A memorial service conducted by Mrs. Dunford expressed the sense of loss felt in the passing of Mrs. H. Cathcart. An Easter thankoffering service is to be held in Springville United Church next Sunday evening, when the Rev. B. Haywood will speak on Newfoundland. Mrs. Dunford and Mrs. C. Johnston were appointed to take charge of the Red Cross work. Mrs. Staples reported $40 sent to the Presbyterial treasurer, and asked each member to contribute one dollar more this year. A social hour was enjoyed at the close.

Kemp-Mitchell Nuptials Held In Campbellford

Glad Tidings Tabernacle, at Campbellford, decorated with Easter lilies, cineraria and fern was the scene of a double-ring wedding ceremony Easter Saturday when Ethel Grace, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Charles Mitchell, Norham, became the bride of Albert Ross Kemp, son of Mr. and Mrs. William Kemp, Campbellford. The Rev. J. E. Latimer officiated and Miss Eunice Kemp sang "O Perfect Love" and "I'll Walk Beside You."

The bride, given in marriage by her father, wore a blush pink satin gown with long train, matching headdress with train-length veil, and carried an orchid on a white Bible with hyacinth florets. Miss Winnifred Mitchell, gowned in yellow taffeta with matching headdress and gloves was her sister's maid of honor.

Miss Ethel Gillespie, wearing green taffeta and Miss Margaret Fry, dressed in mauve taffeta with matching headdress and gloves, were bridesmaids. The attendants carried yellow, mauve and rose tulips. The flower girl was Miss Joan Harnden who wore pink brocaded organdy over pink taffeta and carried a basket of yellow daffodils, snapdragon and fern.

Mrs. Carl Fry assisted the groom and ushers were Walter Duncan and Robert Russell.

After the ceremony, a reception was held at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Earle Gillespie. The bride's mother was in a grey, two-piece dress with black accessories and the groom's mother wore a grey suit with black accessories.

Mr. and Mrs. Kemp left later on a wedding trip to Ottawa, Montreal, and Verdun. For travelling the bride wore a navy suit with navy and pink accessories. They will reside in Campbellford.

Home and School Study Living Together

Two panels, Education for Happy Homes and Living Together in Racial Harmony, were highlights of Tuesday's sessions of the 30th annual meeting of the Ontario Federation of Home and School Association in Toronto which drew a record attendance. Members of the oldest and the newest groups of Canadians—the Indians and the recently arrived Europeans—joined with a Canadian Negro in the panel, Living Together.

The case for the Canadian Indian was put by a former member of the Moraviantown Delaware Indian reserve, now associate editor of The Native Voice, Vancouver, only Indian paper published in America, who writes under the name of Big White Owl. "Foremost desire of every North American Indian is to retain his dignity, his identity, and his treaty rights," he said.

Plea to give up using the term DP was made by Miss Irma Kelmet, graduate of the University of Estonia and teacher of modern languages, who is at present on the teaching staff of a Toronto private school. "The name, 'Displaced Persons' was appropriate only in the transition period. We are new Canadians now, for we have set root again and are no longer a floating element." She also asked judgment on individual merits, not lumped as a group, because of the various educational backgrounds of these people who may for a time be doing menial work.

Discrimination against the Negro race in Canada was charged by Aubrey Forbes of Toronto, a board member of the Home Service Association. "No race should live apart," he said. "We must live together, for living as a race apart provides a breeding ground for fear and hatred which results in destructive warfare."

"Parent education" was given as the keynote of Home and School work and five addresses on this subject were contributed in the panel on Education for Happy Homes. A great increase of interest in home education was reported with more than half of the 650 Ontario associations having courses and addresses on the subject during the year.

Thelma Jordison Weds Wesley Heath

A pretty spring wedding was solemnized at Bethany United Church parsonage by the Rev. W. Crandall on Saturday afternoon of Thelma Elizabeth, second daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Herbert Jordison, Lake St. Peter, Ontario, and Wesley Charles, son of Mr Charles Heath, Burleigh Falls.

The bride was given in marriage by her father, and was gowned in heavy white faille taffeta, styled with a deep peplum coming to a fishtail at the back, the skirt forming a slight train. The bodice was fashioned with high neckline, covered buttons to the waist and long sleeves. Her finger-tip veil of embroidered net was caught to a headdress of Easter lilies and net and she carried a cascade of American Beauty roses tied with white taffeta ribbon.

Miss Vivian Jordison of Timmins was bridesmaid for her sister, wearing a replica of her dress in pale blue with cap sleeves, and she had cerise gloves and a braided halo headdress of cerise and pale blue. She carried a cascade of deep pink carnations. The groomsman was Mr. Walter Clysdale.

A reception was held at the Club Aragon for some 30 guests. The bride's mother received in a gown of grey flowered crepe, grey straw hat with flower trim, and a corsage of white carnations.

For going-away, the bride chose a suit of pearl-grey gabardine, grey straw hat and fuchsia coat, and carried a set of brown squirrel furs. On return from the wedding trip to Quebec Province and Vermont State, Mr. and Mrs. Heath will reside at RR 7, Peterborough.

Davis-Renwick

The marriage was solemnized in the manse of St. Paul's Presbyterian Church Saturday of Audrey Jean, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Hugh Renwick of Keene, and Donald E. Davis, son of Mr. and Mrs. Elmor Davis, also of Keene. The Rev. C. G. Boyd performed the ceremony.

The bride was attired in a navy suit with matching accessories and wore a corsage of pink roses and sweet peas. She was attended by Miss Mae Renwick who was also in navy ensemble and wore a corsage of white roses with sweet peas. The groomsman was Richard Davis.

After a reception at the home of the bride's parents, the couple left on a wedding trip to western points and on return will reside on the groom's farm.

National Health "Finest Scheme" British Nurse Says

OTTAWA, April 20 — (CP) — Development of Britain's national health service marks a social trend, and no one should think it has come suddenly "out of a socialist government's hat" Gladys Carter, a British Nurse, Tuesday night told delegates to the Ontario Registered Nurses Association convention.

Miss Carter, now lecturing at the University of Toronto School of Nursing, spoke to nearly 350 nurses and student nurses attending the annual dinner of the organization, established 23 years ago.

The national health service had come because the people wanted it. And it was preceded by years of "careful thought and planning, political pamphleteering and progressive legislation in which every political party has had a hand," she said.

She described the health service as "one of the most imaginative and finest" schemes any country has developed.

The dinner meeting was the main social function in the nurses' three-day convention which has been given over primarily to the study of reports and discussion of problems facing the nursing profession.

At an earlier session Dr. E. M. Robertson of Queen's University Kingston, expressed to delegates his views on the inter-dependability of the nurse and the physican.

Nursing and doctoring are complementary and depend absolutely upon one and other," said Dr. Robertson.

Reports heard during another session included one from the committee on health insurance and nursing service. The convener, Madalene Baker of London, Ont., noted that from a health program estimated to cost the Dominion of Canada $30,000,000 "only $50,000" was earmarked for professional training to include nurses.

"While this is a step in the right direction, it is a pitifully small sum if we are to prepare to meet demands which health insurance will make on the nursing profession," said Miss Baker.

Rev. Geo. Kelly Addresses Trinity WMS Aux.

Afternoon Auxiliary of Trinity Women's Missionary Society on Tuesday had as their speaker the Rev. George Kelly of Lakefield United church. Mr. Kelly's inspiring missionary address was based on the three "M's" of Missionary enterprise, Messenger, Method and Message."

Mrs. D. B. Gordon introduced the speaker and Mrs. H. Martin expressed appreciation of the group.

Bobby Rickey sang "Angels Ever Bright and Fair." He was accompanied by his mother, Mrs. R. Rickey. Mrs. A. Legon, president, led in the worship service, with Miss T. Mather and Miss H. Hodgen taking the Easter scripture readings. Mrs. S. Taylor and Mrs. W. Edmondson led in prayer.

For the Christian Stewardship report Mrs. H. Rehill, Mrs. H. Martin and Mrs. A. B. Gates gave an interesting short skit on systematic giving.

Splendid response to the appeal for good used clothing was received, and the bale is to be packed for shipment on Friday.

Miss T. Mather read an interesting letter from Dr. Bryce, missionary in Indore, India.

Twenty-seven house calls and two hospital calls during the month were reported from Community Friendship secretary Mrs. W. Edmondston.

A picnic at Mrs. H. Martin's cottage at Chemong is being planned for June 14 and also a tea in the fall.

A social half hour was enjoyed at close of the meeting.

"Shared Nursing" Offers Care At Lower Cost

OTTAWA, April 20 — (CP) — Shared nursing, a new service with which several offices of the Ontario Registered Nurses Association are experimenting, may provide more patients with needed nursing care at a lower price.

Madalene Baker of London, Ont., explained to the association's annual meeting that this service is nursing care shared by two patients and provided by a private duty nurse.

In 1948 nine of Ontario's 25 registries serviced "a few" shared nursing cases.

Patients did not necessarily need to be in one room. Shared nursing could be done under present conditions of hospital accommodation. New hospital construc-

Of Interest to Women

DOROTHY DIX

Man and Wife Require Some Outside Influences

DEAR DOROTHY DIX: We are a happily married couple and find our greatest pleasure in each other's society. We have two wonderful children to whom we are devoted, and we are inclined to let our home life absorb us.

Dorothy Dix

My husband desires nothing more than to stay at home and play with the children. He doesn't like to visit or to be visited. But I feel that it is not wise to isolate ourselves and to narrow our world down to the four walls of our home. I think we should have a few friends and go out occasionally. What is your idea on the subject?

A WIFE

ANSWER: There are about a million good reasons why a young couple should not withdraw from society and drop all of their old friends and acquaintances as soon as they get married. The main one is that if they do they have taken the surest way to bore each other, and boredom will slay love quicker than anything else.

No two human beings, no matter how congenial they are, no matter, how fond they are of each other, can stand each other's exclusive companionship for long. They talk out. Each has heard every one of the other's stories and jokes and reminiscences a thousand times and knows what the other is going to say before he or she opens his or her mouth. They have to have some outside stimulus, new people, fresh faces, fresh topics to keep the conversational mill going.

Woman Suffers More

Of course, a man gets his outside association with his fellow creatures and his variety in life every day in his business, so the effect upon him of withdrawing from the world is not so devastating as it is upon the woman who does so. Her, it sinks. No women are so dull, no women so tiresome, no woman so naggy, so neurotic and peevish as those who boast that they gave up all of their social connections when they were married, and that they have no interests outside of their homes.

The husband and wife who let their home life absorb them should bear in mind that their children will inevitably grow up and leave them, and then they will be desolate, indeed, if they are without friends or outside interests.

DEAR DOROTHY DIX: I have been married for many years and my husband has never been able to make a very good living. As we have no children I would like to get a job to help out, but I am 50 years old. Do you think I am too old to hold a position in an office? I am in perfect health.

MRS. J. H.

ANSWER: Certainly not. A woman of 50 is just in her prime and can do anything she really wants to do. In these progressive times no intelligent, ablebodied, industrious woman need sit with idle hands vainly wishing for the good things of life. She can hustle out and get them for herself.

The main thing for you to decide is in just what your talents consist, and what you are best fitted to do. Take stock of your abilities very carefully, then cash in on your strongest attribut. Make yourself an expert in whatever you are going to do, so that you will be able to command a good salary. It is only first-class work that get first-class pay. And remember that a woman of 50 will not have the same chance to get employment as a young girl would, unless she can show that she is highly qualified for the job.

There are many men who are good and kind husbands, but who lack the talent for money-making, and when a woman is married to one of these she is very wise to take up some gainful occupation.

DEAR DOROTHY DIX: I am an old maid and stay at home and take care of my mother, who is well-to-do, could afford to get a nurse. Now this is my problem: I would like to go in training to be a nurse, but my sisters, who are married and don't want to be bothered with Mother, object strenuously to my leaving home. I would like to make a life for myself What is your advice?

An Old Maid of 34.

ANSWER: You have just as much right to your life as your sisters have, and if you don't strike out for yourself now you are sunk. I do not believe that it is the duty of a daughter to sacrifice her whole life in staying at home taking care of her parents, just because they like to have her wait on them instead of a nurse.

So my advice to you is to go on and train to be a nurse before it is to late.

Labor Council Makes Protest

The Allied Labor Council on Tuesday night passed a strongly-worded resolution protesting the actions of the Federal Government in the current CSU strike. A telegram to this effect will be sent to the government immediately.

C. R. Sullivan, UE representative, who introduced the resolution, referred to "the disgraceful action of the Federal Government in their attempts to smash a trade union...Unless all of us step into line we will quite probably be next."

"Policemen of the government of this country are being used to break a strike," he said.

"This is nothing but an attempt to break the trade union movement," said John Beggs, president of Local 293 UPWA, as he seconded the resolution.

William Triggs, Local 293 UPWA, asked if it was the concern of the Allied Labor Council as, he contended, both unions belonged to the TLC.

This was promptly denied by Phil Knibbs, UE representative, who pointed out that the rival Seafarers' International Union was AFL but not a TLC affiliate.

'They belong to Frank Hall, not Bengough," said one unidentified delegate from the floor.

Sullivan's Child

"The SIU is the child of Pat Sullivan's fink outfit that called themselves the Canadian Lake Seamen's Union," said Knibbs. "They transferred when Pat left."

Knibbs said that the CSU had held bargaining rights for 10 or 12 years and he deplored "the breaking of the picket line by railway police in Halifax."

"It is a simple issue and one which we as trade unionists cannot dodge," he said.

He then moved that "a token donation of $10" be sent to the CSU. The motion then had an amendment and sub-amendment added to include similar sums to the striking asbestos workers in Quebec and the ITU (printers who have been on strike for the past three years in Canada). The amended motion passed unanimously.

Hunting in the Moose River Woods

Great Times AT MOOSONEE

The Canadian Goose of all game birds is probably the one most North American sportsmen covet. And James Bay in Northern Ontario, besides duck, deer, moose and bear, offers fine sport with geese. The season is late September and October. At Moosonee or Moose Factory you'll find outfitters and experienced Indian guides.

More information from The Public Relations Officer of the Northern Ontario Railway, North Bay, Ontario. Trains leave Cochrane twice a week for Moosonee. Cochrane is 482 miles (15 hours) north of Toronto. It's 5 hours flying time —airline and chartered plane connections at Porquis Junction.

"Shared Nursing"

tion which tended toward semi-private accommodation would facilitate the new srvice.

Other points to be considered in studying shared care: Many patients requiring special nurses were being denied necessary care which could be made available if two patients were assigned to one nurse.

The economic aspect of private nursing as it was today made it impossible for many patients to have the care they needed.

The cost of shared nursing care was less to the patient.

Complete Reconversion

ZURICH, Switzerland, April 20 —(AP)—Britain has completed her reconversion from war to peace, Harold Wilson, president of the Board of Trade, told a meeting of Swiss economists here today. Despite achieving an overall trading balance in the closing months of 1948, Wilson told the Zurich political economy association, British still is faced with "the great dollar problem."

PRINCESS JOSEPHINE CHARLOTTE, 21-year-old daughter of exiled King Leopold of the Belgians seen with her grandmother Queen Elizabeth at the Brussels Palais des Beaux Arts, where they recently attended a concert. In Belgium on her first postwar visit to her native land, the Princess was greeted all along the way from Luxembourg to Brussels by enthusiastic pro-Leopoldists, who turned her visit into a demonstration favoring the King's return to Belgium. The Princess will shortly marry the Grand Duke Jean, heir to the throne of Luxembourg.

Buckhorn WI Return Officers

BUCKHORN, April 20 — The annual business meeting of the Buckhorn W.I. was held in the True Blue Hall, Buckhorn. After the usual opening, the conveners of all the standing committees gave their reports, also the treasurer and all showed a very satisfactory year in achievement and finance.

During the year the branch sponsored a weaving class and also a young girls' club, "The Club Girl Entertains."

The last year's officers were returned: Mrs. J. Hill taking Miss L. Harris' office of second vice-president.

Plans for the annual banquet were made and the meeting closed with the W.I. prayer and the National Anthem.

I WANT 2000 PEOPLE TO TRY SYNTONA FOR ONLY 25 CENTS

SUFFERERS FROM STOMACH TROUBLE, WEAK KIDNEYS, LAZY LIVER, NERVOUSNESS AND GENERAL RUNDOWN CONDITION

EVERY PERSON who suffers can have a special introductory bottle of SYNTONA to try for ONLY 25 CENTS.

Simply read the offer below. Do this in your own interest.

This new and scientific medicine, known as SYNTONA, has helped so many people whom the readers of this page know personally. Therefore, we offer the first trial bottle at 25 cents, because we believe the people who are benefited will keep on using it. The offer is good for Friday and Saturday of this week only.

What It Is!

This is no salts or pill, nor is it a powder, capsule or tablet.

SYNTONA is an advanced medical compound of 12 of the finest medicinal herbs, and not one a habit-forming drug. It is taken before meals and mixes with the food in one's stomach, thus throwing off the poisons that foster stomach troubles. It acts within ten minutes to stop gas and pains, sourness, bloating and belching. At the same time SYNTONA drives the poisons from the kidneys and relieves headaches, bladder irritation and weakness.

NOW, whether SYNTONA will help you as it has thousands of others—whether it will end your suffering in a day or a week—remains to be seen. But in the light of what it has done for others, it is surely a mistake not to try it for 25 cents, only a fraction of its worth. This introductory offer is good Thursday, Friday, and Saturday ONLY, so read the rest of this advertisement and act at once. Do this in fairness to yourself and your family.

What It Will Do!

SYNTONA will cleanse your bowels (gradually—not drastic or severe), and tone them into daily action.

It will bring out awful gases and impurities (frequently from the first dose) which may have been inside of you a long time, causing you many days of misery with headaches, dizzy spells, skin eruptions and lazy, drowsy, tired feeling.

SYNTONA will relieve acid conditions and make the digestive organs sweet and clean, and give grand relief from acid indigestion, bloating, sour stomach, shortness of breath and dyspepsia.

IT WILL improve your appetite and promote proper assimilation of food for ENERGY and RESISTANCE.

SYNTONA will act as a diuretic to sluggish kidneys and flush out quantities of impurities that may have become dammed up inside, causing BACKACHE, SHARP PAINS and RISING AT NIGHT.

Science brings us methods which enable us to bring this famous medicine within reach of all sufferers. Permits hundreds to get away from the habitual use of nerve-deadening pills and harsh drugs.

It will make your liver more active, thus relieving spells of billiousness and sick headache.

Relieves those with rheumatic and neuritic pains, by ridding the system of excess acidity and irritating waste matter.

IT WILL clear up skin eruptions caused by the impurities in the organs, will overcome the sallowness or "muddiness" that is due to sluggish liver.

SYNTONA will make your stomach, liver, kidneys and bowels more active, build you up in general and make you FEEL like a DIFFERENT MAN or WOMAN, younger than you may have felt in YEARS.

$200,000 FIRE AT PETAWAWA CAMP

Says Red Gunners Couldn't Mistake Ship

Destroyer Knocks Out Eight Gun Emplacements Before Limping Back To Shanghai

By DON CARLSON

SHANGHAI, April 21 (AP). —Communist shore batteries which fired on the British destroyer Consort could not have mistaken her identity, one of the ship's officers said today.

Lieut. J. F. Birk, of Torquay, Devon, England, said the Consort, which was shelled for two hours yesterday in the Yangtze northeast of Nanking, displayed seven large flags fore and aft.

The destroyer flew so many flags "there was no more space to raise another," Birk said.

The Consort arrived in Shanghai at 8.30 p.m. Wednesday night, EST, and 10 dead and 16 wounded were taken ashore.

Birk said the Consort fired 230 rounds of 4½-inch shells plus some smaller guns at the Red positions. He said the Communists were hurling heavy anti-tank projectiles from 105-millimetre artillery.

"We definitely knocked out eight gun emplacements,' Birk said. He estimated that the Consort's fire inflicted more than 60 casualties.

The officer said the Consort was unable to get within 1,000 yards of the Amethyst because the "fire was too heavy."

Lieut. Jack Consadine of Lowestoft, Suffolk, England, said that when the Consort neared the Amethyst, the sloop was aground and "obviously out of action."

Bridge Damaged

"There appeared to be only a skeleton crew aboard with a few crew men on the "B" gun deck," he said. The bridge appeared to be out of action, and the after gun crews appeared dead or wounded.

The Consort was damaged mostly on the port side, where the superstructure was riddled. One of the first shots, Consadone said, hit just forward of the wheel house, killing the coxswain and putting the main steering wheel out of commission. The steering control was switched to the after wheel.

After the Consort started pounding the Red positions, she made three sweeps along the shore, firing all the time, the officer related.

A number of Communist hits on the vessel centred in the wireless room and put the radio out of action besides killing two and injuring two of the five on duty in the radio office.

Two others were killed on the deck just forward of the radio office, three in the gun-control room, two in the wheelhouse and one on the "B" gun deck.

The Consort's surgeon, Lieut. Mark Bentley of Pontefract, Yorkshire, England, said that one small shell crashed through the wall and exploded in the wardroom where he was operating on a wounded man.

Drill Hall Destroyed By Flames

All Camp Soldiers Help Fight Blaze; Store Materials There

PETAWAWA, April 21 (AP) — Fire of undetermined origin today roared through the largest drill hall at this army training centre a few miles north of Pembroke, causing damage estimated in the neighborhood of $200,000.

The blaze, which broke out at about 5 a.m. EST, raged unchecked for about an hour and for a time threatened a number of barrack quarters and army huts nearby. It destroyed an estimated $80,000 worth of building materials stored in the hall including equipment owned by the J. L. E. Price Construction Company, which is engaged in building barracks at the camp.

Loss involved in the destruction of the drill hall itself was not immediately known but army officials said it would run into "thousands" of dollars.

Unofficial estimates of the building loss placed it at about $130,000. However, since the building was on loan to the Construction Company, no loss to the Defence Department was involved.

Lt.-Col. G. J. H. Wattsford, camp commandant, called for an immediate court of inquiry to determine the cause of the blaze and also called in RCMP officials.

There were no injuries.

All military personnel in the camp turned out to fight the flames, and the Pembroke fire department responded to a call within 25 minutes, officials said.

It was not immediately known to what extent the fire would set back the army's program of construction of new barrack quarters.

The building, formerly known as No. 3 Drill Hall, was being used as a carpenter's workshop by the Construction Company — a Montreal firm engaged in building some 225 houses in the camp as married quarters for military personnel stationed here.

The houses were being built to accommodate families of members of the Royal Canadian Dragoons and the Royal Canadian Regiment.

Charged With Spying

MANCHESTER, Eng., April 21—(AP). — A 40-year-old Pole was charged in magistrate's court here today with spying on Britain for an unnamed foreign power. The Pole gave his name as Marien Maczmarek. Detective John Mark said he and three officers arrested Maczmarek at a Manchester boarding house Wednesday night. "I found in Maczmarek's possession secret military information and later I found other documents concealed in one of his shoes in the room where he was living," Mark told the magistrate.

42 Dead On 4 U.K. Warships As Communists Rake Ships With Heavy Gunfire

Secretary From Embassy Crosses Yangtze To Red Lines To Seek Cease-Fire To Evacuate Wounded

SHANGHAI, April 21 — (AP). — The known dead from Chinese Communist attacks on four British warships reached 42 tonight. British naval authorities said the cruiser London had 15 dead and 20 wounded and the sloop Black Swan had five wounded. These two latest vessels to be hit by Communist artillery on the Yangtze River near Nanking arrived back in Shanghai late tonight.

Behind them they left the crippled sloop Amethyst, first British ship shelled by the Reds about 60 miles east of Nanking Wednesday morning.

Neither the London nor the Black Swan was able to reach the Amethyst, which was driven around on an island but later was refloated.

The known dead included 17 of the Amethyst crew, 10 from the destroyer Consort, which was shelled when it vainly sought to aid the Amethyst, and 15 aboard the London.

The number of wounded added up to about 100 in reports from the four ships.

An official British statement said a Royal Air Force flying boat managed to make contact with the Amethyst during Thursday and put aboard one medical officer with supplies. The plane then returned to Shanghai.

A British spokesman said the Amethyst still was being fired on occasionally.

Trying To Aid Wounded

A British Embassy spokesman in Nanking said a United States navy doctor, Lt. Cmdr. James W. Packard; the British Assistant Naval Attache, Lt. Cmdr. J. S. Kerans, and the British Assistant Military Attache, K. V. Dewar-Durie (rank unavailable), were attempting to reach the Amethyst wounded.

The spokesman said the three officers were leaving with a jeepload of medical supplies for wounded believed to have been put ashore near Rose Island.

60,000 Soldiers Cross River In Red Attack

NANKING, April 21 (AP) — China's No 1 Communist, Mao Tze-tung, today ordered his legions forward to "liberate all China" after Red troops crossed the Yangtze in two places.

Crossing of the river that separates Communist territory from Nationalist China were reported officially at Tikang, 80 miles to the southwest, and at Wuhu, 60 miles inland from the capital.

Top level ministry of national defence sources said the Communists were believed to have landed three armies at the Tikang bridgehead. This would be a total of about 60,000 troops. Communist reinforcements were said to be pouring across the river under the cover of darkness.

Nanking garrison headquarters said contact with Kiangpu, seven miles southwest of Nanking on the north bank of the river, had been lost. A spokesman said the Reds hurled attacks against Kiangpu last night and again this morning. Nationalist reinforcements were being rushed toward Kiangpu.

The Communist smash across the Yangtze came as British naval units sought to rescue the sloop Amethyst, damaged by Communist guns 60 miles northeast of here. A quick crossing by pontoons below the spot where the Amethyst has stopped might trap

Ex-Archbishop Of Ruperts' Land Dies In Toronto

TORONTO, April 21 —(CP)— Most Rev. Malcolm Taylor MacAdam Harding, 86, former Anglican Archbishop of Rupert's Land, died today.

Archbishop Harding retired in 1943 and had lived in Victoria. He was visiting his daughter, Mrs. Paul Davoud of Toronto, when he died.

Born in England in 1863, he entered the Church of England ministry in 1888 and served at Mattawa, Brockville and Kingston before moving west in 1893.

He became fourth bishop of Qu'appelle in 1911 and was made Archbishop of Rupert's Land—largest province of the Church of England in Canada—in 1935.

His province stretched from the Great Lakes to the Rocky Mountains and north to the shores of the Arctic.

Britain Promises To Keep Buying Canadian Grain

WASHINGTON, April 21 (CP) —The United Kingdom may soon use her own supply of dollars, rather than Marshall plan funds, to buy Canadian wheat, a British source said Wednesday night.

Thus Britain would be able to live up to the terms of the Anglo-Canadian wheat contract and she would no longer have to ask the Economic Co-operation Administration for permission to buy Canadian wheat, as long as that commodity continues in surplus in the United States.

"We definitely will carry out our part of the agreement with Canada; you can count on that," the source said.

ECA, which administers the Marshall plan, said there has been no change in its policy concerning the purchases of Canadian wheat for Britain.

Still uncertain, however, was whether ECA will finance future wheat buying in Canada as long as the United States has more than it needs for its own use. During the first year of Marshall plan operations, about $300,000,000 was ear-marked for British purchases of Canadian grain, mostly wheat.

The British source described the situation as "potentially embarrassing."

"Since March 1," he said, "Britain has not asked ECA for money to buy Canadian wheat because she knows it might put ECA in the position of having to refuse us."

Blockade Stays Russians Assert

BERLIN, April 21 (AP)—The official Russian army newspaper Taegliche Rundschau denied today there was a Russian plan to end the Berlin blockade.

It was said such were spread by "the Western imperial reactionaries and their German agents, who are trying to create a tense atmosphere in Berlin."

Heinrich Rau, chairman of the Russian zone's economic commission, denied in a newspaper interview that the Communists had made overtures leading to the lifting of the blockade.

Rau denied a report published in the anti-Communist Sozial Demokrat which quoted him as having said the Russians planned to lift the blockade soon.

Falls Under Train Boy Won't Lose Foot

TORONTO, April 21 (CP) — An emergency operation yesterday saved the left foot of Robert Hunter, seven, after he slipped under a moving freight train north of Toronto. His foot was crushed but doctors at the Hospital for Sick Children said they believe amputation will be unnecessary.

Three playmates saved the boy from serious loss of blood by applying a tourniquet to his mangled foot.

The three—Carl Foster, five, Gordon Scott, 11, and a 14-year-old unidentified youth — heard Bobby's screams as he fell from the train near his suburban York Township home. They ran and got towels and applied them as a tournaquet to stop the blood flow from the foot.

Nab Trio In Oshawa Robbery

BRADFORD, April 21—(CP).—Provincial police arrested a young married woman and two men early today and charged them with the $4,000 robbery and beating of an elderly Oshawa jeweller. Arrested were Vernon Topping, 23, John Hance, 24, and Hance's 18-year-old wife, Doreen. Diamond rings and watches were found crammed into the pockets of the two men, police said.

They were picked up after Topping was found intoxicated on the streets of this town 30 miles north of Toronto. Jewellery was found in his pockets and police chased after a couple who had been seen drinking with Topping earlier Wednesday night.

Hance and his wife were caught five miles south of here in a taxi.

The Hances told police they were going to North Bay and had stopped in Bradford for a few beers. When they learned Topping had been arrested they fled in a cab.

The three are accused of beating and robbing 71-year-old Fritz Von Gunten in Oshawa yesterday. The jeweller was slugged and tied up by two men who came into his store just as he was about to close for the Wednesday half holiday.

The proprietor's son, Sam, left the store just after the pair entered and they had escaped with their haul before he returned five minutes later.

Von Gunten said he was just straightening up from the showcase when he was dazed by a blow on the head and dragged to the rear of the store where the pair bound his hands with one necktie and gagged him with another.

Ransack Showcases

The elderly man said he heard them ransacking the showcases before they left. They also obtained $2.50 from the till. He finally managed to struggle to his feet and make his way through a rear door to an adjoining restaurant.

"He came in our place still bound and gagged, with blood all over his face," stated Mrs. E. Karpovich, restaurant proprietor, who immediately summoned police.

The thugs are described as being about five feet six inches in height. One was of medium build, clean shaven and wearing a sand-colored overcoat and brown fedora. The other is said to have been of fair complexion and

25 Canadian CSU Strikers Surrender To Cuban Navy

CAIRBARIEN, Cuba, April 21—(CP).—Twenty-five striking Canadian seamen aboard the freighter Canadian Victor surrendered to Cuban Navy forces last night. The Navy forces had fired into the air when the striking crew tried to keep them from boarding. The Navy troops approached the Canadian Victor in three tugs.

A replacement crew was to be flown here from Canada.

The crew had struck in sympathy with the Canadian Seamen's Union, now in the fourth week of a walkout.

The ship had been anchored at Cayo Frances, a loading station 16 miles from here.

The ship's master, Captain Phil Scott, had asked port authorities for aid because the crew was on strike and was showing a "hostile attitude." He said they were not permitting anyone to approach the ship.

Second 'Quake Rocking Chile

SANTIAGO, Chile, April 21—(AP)—Another earthquake shook south central Chile today.

The new 'quake was said to be one of "great violence." It hit the town at 9:54 a.m. EST.

Earlier the Interior Ministry said Tuesday's 'quake killed 57 persons and injured 150. However later reports estimated the dead at 41 persons.

A spokesman for President Gabriel Gonzalez Videla said he intended to pardon about 100 prisoners of Traiguen Jail, reported "completely destroyed" by the 'quake.

It had been announced previously that 15 prisoners were killed at Angol.

The towns of Traiguen and Angol, about 350 miles south of Santiago, where centres of the quake.

Three Murdered In Row At Farm

WAKAW, Sask., April 21 (CP) —A young farmer was under police guard in hospital here today after a nightmarish affair at a district farm house that resulted in the death of three persons.

Police said that Andrew Balatsky, about 35, had been given an "even chance" to recover from a slashed throat. The tragedy in which he was involved cost the lives of Mrs. Katherina Balatsky, 29, her six-year-old son, Bohda, and Theodore Adamovic, 48.

A police officer remained on duty in the hospital here to which Balatsky was taken. Police said Wednesday night that no charges had been laid up to that point. Details of the triple tragedy were lacking.

Wakaw is about 40 miles south of Prince Albert.

Police said three weapons—a rifle, an axe and knife—had been used in the slayings. An autopsy was scheduled for today.

Earl Of Lucan Dies Lady Alexander's Dad

EASTBOURNE, Sussex, England, April 21 (CP)—The Earl of Lucan, father of Lady Alexander, wife of Canada's Governor-General, died yesterday after a short illness, it was announced today. He was 88.

His death reduces the number of Irish representative peers in the House of Lords to seven. The government has stated that with the new constitution position of Eire, no further Irish representative peers will be named.

Attlee Holds Conferences With Visiting Premiers

LONDON, April 21 (CP) — Princess Elizabeth, who celebrated her 23rd birthday today, was to shake hands with Canada's L. B. Pearson and other delegates to the Commonwealth conference at a luncheon at Buckingham Palace —but the real business of the Commonwealth talks won't start until tomorrow.

The Princess, heiress-presumptive to the throne, and her husband, Prince Philip, were guests along with Prime Minister Attlee and his seven colleagues at the function the King and Queen held to welcome the Commonwealth leaders.

Before the first plenary session of the conference met in Downing Street, Attlee expected to see Prime Ministers Peter Frazer of New Zealand and Liaquat Ali Khan of Pakistan early today. He also planned to confer with Prime Minister Jawaharal Nehru of India who arrived late Wednesday night.

Attlee yesterday met successively Prime Minister Daniel Malan of South Africa; Pearson, Canada's Minister of External Affairs; Prime Minister Don Sananayake of Ceylon; and Prime Minister Joseph Chifley of Australia.

He consulted with them on the major problem facing the conferences—how can India's intended republicanism be reconciled with a desire to remain within the framework of the British Commonwealth?

"Supposing no compromise can be found," said the Daily Telegraph in an editorial, "the dominions who are anxious to remain with existing status might well have to reconsider their position; and this applies particularly to Pakistan and Ceylon."

Delegates have expressed optimism at the outcome of the talks—but some London newspapers thought the way would be thorny.

Princess Margaret Plans Visit To Italy

LONDON, April 21 (CP) — Princess Margaret will go to Italy next month for a four-week visit. This was disclosed by Buckingham Palace, which said the 18-year-old princess will see main centers of historic and artistic interest.

It will be the first visit by a member of the royal family to former enemy territory since the end of the war.

The visit is a private one and is not official. The Princess, who will be 19 in August, will stay at hotels or with friends. She will travel with a small party including a lady in waiting. No definite itinerary is planned by stops will include Rome, Florence, Venice, Milan and Pisa.

This is Princess Margaret's third overseas visit. Her first was in 1947 when she went with the King and Queen and Princess Elizabeth on the royal tour of South Africa.

Her first visit to the continent was last September when she went to The Netherlands to attend the accession ceremony of Queen Juliana.

Pledges Britons Not To Fight

PARIS, April 21 (AP)—Konni Zilliacus, leftwing British legislator, Labor member of the British parliament, told the Communist-sponsored "World Peace Congress" today the "Workers of Britain will not fight or be dragged into fighting against the Soviet Union."

Zilliacus called upon the delegates to produce a reasonably detailed set of proposals "for settling issues between the East and West."

The audience followed the speaker only listlessly during his attack on the North Atlantic Defence Alliance and American foreign policy, attacks which echoed yesterday's opening barrages.

The keynote speeches bristled with attacks on "Imperialists" and "warmongers."

OTTAWA, April 21 (CP) — RCMP officials are investigating the theft of a 300-pound safe, containing $1,300 in cash and bonds, from a second-storey office in the Dominion Bureau of Statistics Building.

The thieves are believed to have broken into the Sussex Street DBS office early Tuesday morning through a forced fire-escape door. The safe, containing between $200 and $300 in cash and about $1,000 in Canadian Government bonds, apparently was "dragged" by hand to the fire escape entrance, lowered down and then loaded on an awaiting truck

WASHINGTON, April 21.—(AP).—President Truman was reported today to have accepted the resignation of Kenneth Royall as Secretary of the Army.

MYSTERY WOMAN—Freda Linton, the last of 20 persons sought as links in Canada's Russian espionage case, is shown leaving a Montreal court room after appearing on charges of conspiring to violate the Official Secrets Act. She surrendered to RCMP at Montreal two weeks ago after being sought for three years. She told police that she was married and expecting a baby in June

Puzzling Malady Killing Geese

OTTAWA, April 21 (CP) — Government wildlife officers are mystified by a puzzling malady that is striking again this year, taking the lives of scores of wild ducks in the Shirley's Bay area, about 12 miles north of Ottawa.

Dr. H. F. Lewis, chief of the government's wildlife division, says a group of officers from his division, accompanied by district game overseers, are inspecting the area.

The malady which takes the lives of about 200 wild geese of a total of 1,000 that stop over at the lake each spring has baffled the wildlife experts for the last 10 years.

Reports of the geese dying of the malady first were made at the beginning of the Second World War when the nearby Connaught firing range became widely used.

J. Young, Connaught resident engineer, believed the geese were dying of potassium poisoning, since the waters of Shirley's Bay were used as bomb testing areas during the war.

But so far there has been no evidence of potassium poisoning in the bodies of the ducks recovered by government biologists.

Greek Newspaperman Gets Life Sentence

SALONIKA, Greece, April 21—(AP)—Gregory Staktopoulos, a Greek newspaper man and former Communist, was sentenced to life imprisonment today for complicity in the murder last May of American correspondent George Polk, a reporter for the Columbia Broadcasting System.

Staktopoulos' 68-year-old mother, Anna, was acquitted on the same charge, as requested by the prosecution. The prosecution had asked a sentence of only 10 to 12 years for Staktopoulos, who admitted in court that he was with Polk on the night of his death. He contended he was an innocent dupe of the Communists.

Adam Mouzenides, the man the prosecution said fired the gun which killed Polk, got a death sentence, as did his accused helper, Evangelos Vasvanas. Neither Mouzenides nor Vasvanas, who are Communists, have been apprehended and both were tried in absentia.

Poland Demands Canada Hand Treasures Back

OTTAWA, April 21 (CP) — Communist-dominated Poland has made a fresh demand of Canada for the immediate return of its priceless art treasures and this time it minced no words.

It appealed strongly to the Canadian government to hand over the treasures and added that if this wasn't done, Poland would reserve the right to take "all further steps" to obtain "a complete moral and material satisfaction."

New Polish demands for the treasures and charges against the Canadian government were summed up in a 3,000-word note handed to the external affairs department yesterday.

The fabulous treasures, containing the sword and coronation robes of Polish kings, historical tapestries woven in gold, Chopin's manuscripts, suits of armor and historical banners, are for the most part housed in the Quebec Provincial Museum.

Premier Maurice Duplessis has declared time and again that the works of art—contained in 24 blue trunks—will remain in the hands of the Provincial Government until "competent tribunals" decided who should have them.

Poland, which turned Communist in 1946, said the treasures originating in the 16th century in the royal castle of Krakow, rightfully belonged to the state. Mr. Duplessis believes they are the rightful property of the Roman Catholic Bishop of Krakow.

No mention of the attacks on the British ships was made by the Reds. The British Ambassador had radioed the Communist capital at Peiping asking that artillery units be instructed to cease firing on the British ships.

Seize War Criminals

Mao's order of the day instructed troopers to seize all war criminals, particularly retired President Chiang Kai-shek.

The announcement by the Communist chieftain stipulated that if any local region is willing to make peace on Communist terms it will be accepted. The broadcast said also that if the government is still in Nanking when Mao's forces surround the capital. Nationalist leaders will be given another opportunity to sign a peace agreement. Such an agreement would amount to outright surrender.

The Communist communique said that the order to fire was issued because the Nanking government had rejected the peace proposal formulated in Peiping.

The announcement charged the Nanking government still "obeys American Imperialists and Kuomintang (government party) chieftain Chian Kai-shek in their effort to prevent the liberation of the Chinese people and a settlement of domestic problems by peaceful means."

The government stated that even if it had signed, the peace proposals' "narrow-minded attitude and oppressive spirit" would have been unacceptable to both the national army and the people. The reply charged that the entire proposed agreement "smacks of Communist military control of the entire nation."

Envoy In Nanking

OTTAWA, April 21 (CP) — The External Affairs Department reported today that T. C. Davis, Canadian Ambassador to China, still is in the war-threatened Chinese capital of Nanking. "We are in constant communication with Mr. Davis," a departmental spokesman said.

Report Trading Slump On Toronto Exchange

TORONTO, April 21 (CP) — Price slid downwards as trading slowed to a crawl on the Toronto Stock Exchange today. Golds were forced lower for the first time in three days as profit-taking on previous advances appeared. Base metals stepped up the pace of their recent declines and industrials showed a wide list of fractional losses. Western oils were quietly easier.

Volume for the first three hours was 479,000 shares, about 297,000 shares less than yesterday's similar period.

Selling pressure appeared in the golds late in yesterday's session and continued today at an increased rate. Volume shrunk as senior producers led the downward turn from the highest price levels in 15 months. Losses ranged up to $1 in seniors and were held to about five cents in junior producers.

Further cuts in base metals continued to depress the stocks.

Losses were held to fractions on the industrial board in bull activity

British Explorer Seeks Noah's Ark

By NORMAN CRIBBENS

LONDON, April 21—(CP)—An expedition led by 54-year-old Egerton Sykes, explorer and scientist, will leave London this summer in search of Noah's Ark.

For Sykes finding the Ark is the dream of a lifetime.

"I'm convinced that traces of it still exist," he said, "apart from the Old Testament story, tales have persisted throughout the ages of a monster boat stranded on Mount Ararat in Armenia. The last report was received only last January.

Sykes said the expedition, costing between £3,000 ($12,000) and £5,000, would be of a "purely literary and scientific character." He will be accompanied by his wife—also an explorer — an archaeologist, a geologist and a cameraman.

"I do not believe that the Ark was stranded right at the top of Mount Ararat," he added. "The Bible says that Noah looked out and saw the tops of the mountains.

"Ararat is really two mountains, and my theory is that the Ark was lifted up and desposited in the groove between the two probably about 12,000 feet up."

Sykes' answer to scoffers is that a wood preserved with bitumen is amost everlasting — "and the Ark was pitched within and without."

The expedition will travel overland by car from Istanbul to Trebizond where a base unit will be set up as close to Mount Ararat as possible.

While in Persia, where he was once an embassy attache, Sykes said he made several attempts to reach Ararat but was prevented by the presence of troops.

20 Key Club Members To Attend Conference

Twenty delegates from the two Key Clubs of Peterborough will attend the 2nd annual Ontario-Quebec-Maritimes Key Club conference in London this week-end. Sixteen of the delegates will go from the St. Peter's High School club, the first club in the city, and four from the PCVS club, formed this year. Four or five Kiwanians will accompany the boys. The Kiwanis Club is sponsors of the two clubs.

Election of new officers for the district will be held. Bill Duignan, Peterborough, president of the St. Peter's Key Club, was secretary-treasurer of the district this past year.

An oratory contest will again highlight the conference. Bill Duignan was winner last year.

James Leith, Toronto, governor of the District, will report on the Key Club conference held in Washington, DC. At the opening luncheon Friday Bill Duignan will address the delegates. His topic will be "Fun to Live in Canada." This is the same speech which he gave when he represented Canada at the Washington conference.

1949 Closed Season For Hunting Of Moose

TORONTO, April 21. (CP) — There will be no open season on moose in Ontario in 1949, Lands Minister Harold Scott announced Wednesday. He said his department is acting on a recommendation of the Fish and Game committee of the Ontario Legislature.

The announcement said the Department plans a close study of the moose population during the closed season.

There has been no open season on moose in Kenora and Rainy River districts for more than 10 years. Last year north of the Transcontinental Railway the season was open Oct. 1 to Nov. 25; east of the Canadian National Railways line from Port Arthur to Sioux Lookout, Oct. 15-Nov. 25; in the Sault Ste. Marie, Sudbury and North Bay areas, Nov. 1-25.

Peddle Treasure For U.S. Dollars

KINGSTON, April 21 (CP) — Canadians are making spectacle of themselves in their frantic effort to peddle Canada for the American dollar, Gregory Clark, sportsman and writer, told the Kingston Rod and Gun Club Wednesday night.

"In my opinion the United States hasn't enough money to pay for what they are taking out of the country," he said. U. S. residents were "begging to come over here to partake of those treasures which in their own country they have consumed and destroyed."

The first thing we have to do—not as sportsmen but as Canadians—is to take the policy-making of the tourist question out of the hands of those who profit from the tourist industry.

There was an element among U. S. visitors wha had been discredited in their own country and "head for Canada as the only place they can enjoy themselves in their own fashion."

25 Air Cadets Leave For Britain Aug. 4

LONDON, April 21 (CP) — Twenty-five Canadian air cadets will leave Dorval Airport, Montreal, Aug. 4 for a two-week tour of Britain, it was announced today.

A similar number of British cadets will leave here Aug. 6 for a Canadian tour. Both parties will be flown in an RCAF North Star.

Cadet exchanges also are being arranged between Canada and the United States and Britain and the United States.

In Canada the British youths will visit the Northern Ontario mining area, take a two-day sail on the Great Lakes and visit Niagara Falls, Ottawa and Montreal.

The Canadians will visit British points of interest and meet British youths of similar age.

where the ship was grounded.

He said the Amethyst might try to reach Nanking because Communist shore guns were blocking the route downstream to Shanghai.

Wheel House Hit

Chief Petty Officer David Heath said the Amethyst went aground when a Communist shell hit the wheel house and jammed her controls.

The sloop's guns, trained on Communist positions, were quickly put out of commission by Communist fire, he said.

Heath said at this point a white flag was raised but the Communists kept on firing. The British sailors were ordered to abandon ship and the men swam 200 yards to the south shore of the river.

The chief petty officer said the swimmers were machine-gunned and some casualties were suffered.

Edward Youde, 25-year-old first secretary of the British Embassy in Nanking, crossed the river to Communist lines opposite the capital tonight to seek a local cease fire so that wounded sailors from the sloop Amethyst could be brought to safety.

Sir Ralph Stevenson, British Ambassador to China, has instructed consular representatives in Peiping to inform highest Communist authorities "by whatever means possible" of the firing upon the Amethyst and the destroyer Consort.

More British ships, the Belfast and Constance, are en route to the Yangtze, a London Admiralty statement said.

Frigate Up the River

LONDON, April 21. —(Reuters).—The Admiralty announced today that the sloop Amethyst, which was fired on by Chinese Communist shore batteries on the Yangtze river yesterday with the loss of 16 lives, has reported herself "anchored in a satisfactory position, and believes herself capable of 17 knots."

The Admiralty added that the frigate "is up-river of the hostile artillery and her charts are destroyed."

"It would be clearly undesirable for her to attempt to run the gauntlet of concentrated fire at the present moment," the statemen said.

The Royal Navy ships London and Black Swan, it stated, "attempted earlier today to pass through the danger area in order to reach Amethyst, but met strong hostile fire and the Admiral decided that continued advance could only be undertaken at the expense of considerable casualties."

Kelley Much Better

TORONTO, April 21 (CP) — Health Minister Kelley of Ontario, confined to hospital since he suffered a heart attack April 5, shows considerable improvement, Premier Kennedy said Wednesday. The Premier visited him Wednesday and said while he was making good progress Mr. Kelley would not be leaving hospital for another week or 10 days.

'48 British Sales Increase Not Likely To Be Repeated

By STUART UNDERHILL

MANCHESTER, England, April 21 (CP)—The tremendous increase in British sales in Canada which took place in 1948 is not likely to be repeated this year.

Most business men and manufacturers interviewed during a survey by the Canadian Press expect a falling-off from last year's record totals.

This is bad news for the treasury and the board of trade, which never cease to hammer home the need of expanding exports to the Dominion.

Business men have several explanations for taking a pessimistic view of the Canadian market. Some say that Canadian buying power is contracting. Others say that they can't compete with the United States in he Canadian market. Some are discouraged by Canadian tariffs.

Even the more optimistic—like pottery manufacturers whose order books are full to the end of 1951—do not foresee any important expansion in their shipments because of production difficulties.

Britain's exports to Canada in 1948 climbed to a total value of £69,600,000 ($278,000,000), roughly five times what they were in 1938 and an increase of £26,400,000 over 1947.

Woollens Lead

Leading the trade drive was the woollen industry, which nearly doubled its 1947 exports with sales of £18,300,000.

Next was the motor vehicle industry at £8,500,000 and cotton at £6,600,000. Silk, rayon and other textiles at £5,200,000 ran neck-and-neck with machinery, for which the Board of Trade has high hopes in 1949.

Pottery at £4,700,000 and miscellaneous items completed the list.

Here are comments from some representative exporters:

Woollens: "We'll have our work cut out to keep 1949 exports up to the level of 1948. They're getting stocked up in Canada now, and there's not the same demand."

Automobiles: Some manufacturers take a gloomy view of American competition, although a spokesman for the industry as a whole said: "I'm optimistic that sales can be maintained. Some companies are just getting sarted in the Canadian field."

Cotton: Cotton shipments to Canada will probably fall off in a month or two in anticipation of duties which will be reimposed July 1.

Silk and rayon: "Rayon exports jumped in 1948 when Canadian duties were removed. A drop is bound to occur when the duties are restored in July.

350 Statues In Oslo Park

By WILLIAM BOSS
Canadian Press Staff Writer

OSLO, April 21.—(CP)—Outside Norway sculptor Gustav Vigeland is just a name so far. In Oslo, although he died only five years ago, he is legend and a controversial one at that.

At Oslo's expense—$4,000,000 with the end not yet in sight—he has endowed the city with the world's largest monument, a garden of statuary in which he has expressed himself prodigiously.

Frogner Park, where there are more than 350 Vigeland figures in bronze and granite, is a mile square. So far it has three main groups of statues finally it will have five. The paths are laid out as a Greek cross, lined by trees.

Vigeland was convinced of his genius. So was Oslo. The city was not surprised when, in 1919, he proposed that it provide a studio and a park in return for all his work. The city agreed, lodged and fed him and left him undisturbed.

Periodically, Vigeland opened his studio to visitors. Oslo citizens queued for blocks to go through them. Otherwise he worked in solitude, saw none except his closet friends and his artisans.

In the museum where his chalk and clay models now are preserved there are more than 800 works. Everythng Vigeland ever did is in Oslo, for the devotees to see.

Cradle-To-Grave Story

The park, for which he designed even the gates and devised a new technique of working in steel, tells the story of life from the cradle to the grave.

The first group of statues on the parapets of a bridge across an artificial lagoon, is the work of his mature old age.

The second is a fountain group of six titans supporting a cauldron of water which spills over in a filmy cloak. A waterfall in the base uses water enough for half of Oslo's 400,000 population.

The third major group is assembled around a 57-foot monolith. There are 36 groups on the same theme, executed by Vigeland in his prime. The monolith took two years to design, 10 months to model in chalk and more than 15 years to cut from a 400-ton block of granite.

The fountain group really tarted the park. For a mere $75,000, Oslo bought it in 1911. Vigeland never was satisfied with the successive sites agreed upon for it, asking greater and greater scope. The fountain has poured marble ever since and drained the taxpayers' pockets. The city fathers hope that tourist dollars will make the expense worthwhile.

$3,000 Bail Set In Rape Case First Hearing

Leo Webb, Smith Township, who has been held in custody since April 4 on a charge of attempted rape, was committed Tuesday for trial at the fall assizes after the priliminary hearing at city police court before Magistrate W. R. Philp, K.C.

A woman described how she had let Webb into her house in Otonabee when he had called at her back door asking to use the telephone. She had shown him the telephone, which was near the front door and then sat on the chesterfield in the same room. After Webb had asked her to read the telephone book for him because his sight was not good, he grabbed her by the throat, the woman said and carried her into the bedroom. She said he was in the house two hours.

The only other person in the house at the time of the alleged incident was the woman's two year old son.

Constable Searched Countryside

Constable Claire McGillen described how he searched the countryside after being called to the house and later the same afternoon, arrested Webb. He said the woman identified Webb immediately as the man who had assaulted her, when she attended an identification parade at city police station the same day.

J. C. N. Currelly, defence counsel said there seemed to be no doubt that the incidents related by the witness had occurred, but identification of the man was the vitally important factor.

After Mr. Currelly had asked for the $5,000 bail to be reduced to $2,500, the figure was set at $3,000.

Webb also faces a charge of indecent assault. He will appear at city police court on this count next week.

James McKague Elected Head Young Liberals

CAMPBELLFORD, April 21 — (ENS) — James McKague of Castleton was chosen president of the Northumberland Young Liberal Association at an enthusiastic organization meeting in the Council Chambers, Warkworth, on Wednesday night. Hugh Grant of Colborne was elected organizer; Bill Sullivan, Orland, secretary, and William Bateson of Myersburg, treasurer.

Vernon Singer of Toronto, president of the Ontario Young Liberal Association, spoke on the policies of the Liberal party. He said that under three able Liberal leaders Canada had received efficient and advanced government and security, unity and freedom had been secured. The history of Canada, he commented, was largely the history of the Liberal party.

"Liberalism has an advanced philosophy," he said, "and attracts younger people to its fold. The party must be refreshed from time to time by introducing younger blood to formulate policy. Younger people have a job to do in politics as equally great as the job they did in defending our country."

He said thta the Liberal government had a definite scheme for the welfare of the country. Old age and blind pensions, family allowances, unemployment insurance and the health program were the natural results of overall government policy. Family allowances, he stated, amounting to $54,000, had been paid to the families of Northumberland county in December 1948.

Candidate Speaks

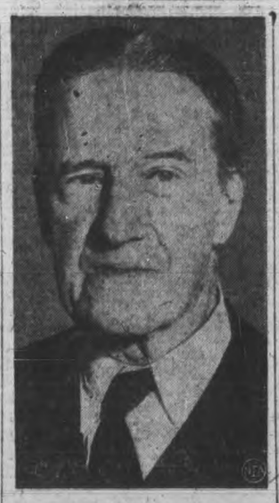
Dr. Fred Robertson of Cobourg, Federal candidate for Northumberland county, said that he was impressed by the fine type of young men in the association. He said that he was proud of the Liberal leader and his lieutenants in the Cabinet. The Liberal party was neither associated with socialism nor monopolies of any kind, he remarked. "I look forward," he said, "to the future of the Liberal cause with great confidence and with your help and co-operation we can bring Northumberland back into the Liberal fold."

Hugh Grant presented the constitution of the organization which consists of ten articles and it was accepted and passed on to the new executives. Gerald Grant gave a report on the annual provincial meeting of the young Liberal convention held in Toronto. Don Massey, Morganston, summarized the deliberations of the recent convention in Kingston. Edmond Quinn of Castleton reported on the activities of the Central Northumberland Young Liberal Association; Stewart Herriot, Plainville, on the Hamilton Township Association, and John Weatherson, on the Warkworth and District Association.

Brief speeches were given by George Scheutt, Kingston, president of Central Ontario Young Liberal Association, and William Henderson, Federal candidate for Kingston. Leonard Gordon of Colborne, introduced Vernon Singer and Edgar Buttars, Plainville, Dr. Fred Robertson. Hugh Grant moved a vote of thanks to the speakers and James McKague occupied the chair.

Division Owner Names Streets

exact place of Bell Avenue on the municipal map— and there appears to be no discrimination between streets and avenue— it is the first one west of Monaghan Road, and south from Lansdowne St.



By the way, Mr. Ernest Thompson doesn't live there any more. He has transferred his place of business to the east side of Erskine Ave., but is still in that area adjacent to May's school.

The Examiner enquired of City Clerk Outram about the procedure of enlarging the nomenclature of municipal streets. He said that street names are in nearly all instances nominated by the owners of the property through which they are projected and built.

"If you have a block of property and you wish to convert it into a housing subdivision with a street through it, you have the first right to select he name of that street," Mr. Outram said "Then you have the subdivision plan prepared and submitted to the council for its approval. The street name is usually accepted by the council, providing that it does not duplicate any already authorized. But, the naming usually begins with the owners of property on which a street is laid."

Registration of subdivision plans is essentially required by law, Ralph O. Standish said. It provides a complete and convenient identification of all properties, and is an exact description of ownership.

"For instance," Mr. Standish said. "the Brookdale subdivision of Sands and Bateman is one of the most recent. Off hand I'm not certain of the number of their plan, but it is given a registered number, and then each lot in the subdivision is numbered. Any purchases and transfers of those lots is done by number and the description of each lot is according to its number. So, there is a completeness of identification, together with convenience. That is the general idea and practice.

Miss Plant Hostess To Hastings WA

HASTINGS, April 21 (ENS). — The April meeting of St. George's Anglican Church WA was held on Wednesday afternoon at the home of the treasurer, Miss D. Plant, with the president Mrs. C. Baker presiding. The Litany and members' prayer were read by Miss D. Plant, the Scripture taken by Mrs. C. Baker. Miss Plant read a letter from Miss Kingston of Toronto, thanking the members for the $60 sent to the pledge fund. The sum exceeded the allocation by $12.

Mrs. C. Baker read a letter from Mrs. E. Smullin, the vice president who has been ill in Civic Hospital, Peterborough.

A letter of thanks from Canon C. R. Spencer, thanking the members for their kindness to him during his recent illness was read by Mrs. J. Dainard.

Mrs. J. Johnson invited the ladies to hold their next meeting at her home on May 12.

The last chapter of the study book was read by Mrs. C. Baker, Miss D. Plant, Mrs. J. Johnson, Mrs.Horewell, Mrs. C. Spencer and Mrs. B. Gillespie.

The meeting closed with prayer by Canon Spencer and a note of thanks was passed to the hostess for the dainty lunch served.

McCloy Likely Choice

WASHINGTON, April 21 (AP) —John J. McCloy, president of the World Bank, was reported authoritatively today to be President Truman's likely choice as the first American High Commissioner for Germany. The High Commissioner will take over as top American representative in Germany when military rule is changed to civilian control with the proposed merger of the American, British and French zones.

No Law For Jump

SAN FRANCISCO, April 21 — (AP).—Bob Niles, who made a parachute jump off the 250-foot Golden Gate Bridge a week ago, was released yesterday when he appeared on a charge of disturbing the peace. Judge William Sweigert said, "I don't know of any law to cover the situation."

Collision Accidental

COVENTRY, England, April 21 (AP).—Coroner's jury yesterday described as "accidental" the death of 14 persons in a collision between a British airliner and an RAF trainer near here Feb. 19.

Break Up Gypsy Gang

WEISBRUECKEN, Germany, April 21 — (Reuters). — A 32-member gypsy gang's four-year reign of terror in this district ended yesterday when a German court found the gang guilty under 126 charges ranging from theft and armed robbery to murder. Three were sentenced to death, the rest jailed for between two and 15 years.

Mrs. E. Thompson President Bowling League

Mrs. E. Thompson was elected president of the Girls' City Bowling League after the annual banquet, which was held in the Kawartha Room of the Empress Hotel. Nona Whetung was returned as secretary, and Mrs. H. Menzies named treasurer for the coming season.

The league enjoyed a most successful season, having many of the best girl bowlers in the city, and generally rolling good scores Betty Castle, the retiring president, presided at the concluding banquet when the various trophies were presented the winners for the past season.

Towne Togs took the league championship trophy with 68 points, with Outboard Marines finishing second, and Arcos third. High average went to Aggie Anderson of Togs with 224, as her teammate, Marg Hawthorne, had high single for the season with a mark of 382. Marg Sanderson of Brintons had top three of 950.

Easter Message Aids Hospital

CAMPBELLFORD, April 21 — (ENS)—The drive, sponsored by the Rotary Club, to raise funds for the completion of the Memorial Hospital is well organized with strong committees canvassing the town and adjacent municipalities. A. J. Meyers, chairman of the building committee, released an Easter message to the citizens of Campbellford and surrounding district on the meaning of charity and sacrifice.

The message says that this is the time when the Christian world honors the memory of the Crucifixion and Resurrection of Christ. "Christ taught men how to live, serve and be helpful the one to the other. His teachings were lessons of brotherhood and the forgiveness of sin. He dedicated His life to humanitarian acts of mercy and kindness and in the end paid the supreme sacrifice.

"Our hospital, likewise, is dedicated to those who served and died. In their service and in their death they saved the Christian world. It is also dedicated to deeds of mercy, to the service of mankind. Those who are devoting their time and effort to the accomplishment of this great work and who are giving freely of their means toward this end are putting into action the teaching of mercy, service and brotherhood."

Mr. Meyers' message says that recently an old lady gave one dollar to the hospital fund, and when making the donation, she said: "I am very poor, I have nothing, but I want to give this money to the hospital." "This dollar with its story," the message continues, "should be framed and placed over the entrance to the hospital as an example to all of us. We do not know what religion the old lady professes, what creed she serves, but we do know she emulated the work of the Great Healer."

ANA PAUKER, 56, already Foreign Minister, moved up another notch in the Communist-dominated Romanian government to become second vice-premier. Her elevation to the third highest post in Romania consolidates her position as one of the most important Communists in Balkans.

Mr., Mrs. Sanderson Honored By Neighbors

FAIRMOUNT, April 21—(ENS) A large gathering of friends and neighbors met at the home of Mr. and Mrs. J. H. Sanderson, Tuesday evening, to pay tribute to them on the eve of their leaving the neighborhood to reside in Port Perry.

A short program was given with Dr. Reddick as chairman as follows: Piano solos by Clark Armstrong and Marilyn Pomeroy of Peterborough; vocal solos by Margaret Baxter of Peterborough; readings by Mrs. Reddick and Lila Seymour.

An address was read to Mr. and Mrs. Sanderson by Lloyd Hooton and an upholstered lounging chair was presented on behalf of the community by Harold Ball and Harry McBain. Mr. Sanderson replied on behalf of himself and Mrs. Sanderson. Prayer offered by Dr. Reddick brought a pleasant evening to a close. Refreshments were served and a social hour enjoyed.

Defective Brooder Blamed For Fire

CAMPBELLFORD, April 21 — (ENS)—A barn belonging to Arthur Donald, Wallace St., was gutted by fire at 11.30 Wednesday night. Approximately 200 chickens and 60 hens were destroyed. The blaze was caused by a defective brooder.

A MODERN HOME NEEDS ATTRACTIVE GROUNDS

The final touch necessary to turn your house into a home is the Landscaping of your grounds.

The joy which you will derive from a planting, defends upon making a picture of each little spot in the landscape. This is accomplished more satisfactorily by men who have a thorough knowledge of the work, as well as the plants used in landscape work. Landscaping is a profession acquired through years of hard study and experience.

Whether it be city lot or acreage, we are capable of doing the work to give the utmost satisfaction.

Our projects throughout the district, over the last few years, are monuments of our capabilities.

No Time For A War Of Religion

Everyone who has sensed its possible political significance has been keenly interested in the case of Father Leonard Feeney, of the Society of Jesus, of Boston College, who has been severely disciplined by Archbishop Richard Cushing. Very briefly, the facts are these: four instructors (not priests) at Boston College and Boston College High School made charges of heresy against those famous Catholic institutions, saying that it was taught there that salvation was possible for those outside the Church of Rome and for those who made no personal submission to the Pope; these four men were deprived of their teaching posts; Father Feeney has given them vigorous support and has affirmed his own belief in the points at issue. The matter was referred to the Pope, who referred it to Archbishop Cushing for his attention; Archbishop Cushing points out that in the Catholic Catechism it is plainly stated that all good men who belong to "the soul of the Church", whether Roman Catholics or not, may expect to be saved. Because Father Feeney has disputed this judgement, Archbishop Cushing has denied the right to perform any priestly functions — in short, he has been unfrocked.

* * *

Now what has this to do with politics? As we see it, this is the root of the matter. The Church of Rome is engaged at present in a most vigorous campaign against Communism which it describes, we think with complete accuracy, as the greatest menace to the soul of man now abroad in the world; the Church takes this stand because Communism sets at naught the dignity and sacredness of the individual man, and has declared that man's foremost duty is not to God but to a man-made state; in short, the Church opposes totalitarian materialism, and seeks to enlist the support of Protestant churches and men of goodwill in its fight against it. What would the Protestant churches and men of goodwill think if the Church of Rome were to take the intransigent and totalitarian attitude which is outlined by Father Feeney and the dissidents of Boston College? To tell the Protestant world that salvation is possible only to Roman Catholics would be like waving a red rag at a bull. Nothing would split Christian feeling on this continent into two camps so quickly. And, as the Moderator of the Presbyterian Church in Canada recently pointed out in an open letter to Prime Minister St. Laurent, the strength of the anti-Communist part of the world lies in the hands of Protestant nations; the Catholic nations are themselves riddled with it.

* * *

In using his punitive power to its fullest extent upon Father Feeney, Archbishop Cushing is doing his utmost to prevent a violent altercation between Protestants and Catholics on this continent—a row of unpredictable dimensions which would delight the Communists. Nothing would give them greater pleasure than to see Catholics and Protestants at each others throats with Protestants calling Catholics totalitarians, and Catholics calling Protestants damned souls. If Christianity is not to be hopelessly discredited in its struggle against Communism it must keep the peace in its own camp.

Vivas As A Cure For Semi-Literacy

Speaking to the Ontario Educational Association in Toronto on Monday Dr. J. M. Paton complained of "the appalling state of semi-literacy among pupils awarded high school leaving and matriculation certificates". Upon the whole, we think that we agree with this gentleman; it is extraordinary how little our high school boys and girls appear to know about their language and its literature. We do not blame the teachers for this condition; they do what they can with classes which are too big and with a system which demands too much intensive study, and not enough wholesale goobling of books. Dr. Paton thinks that our examination system is at fault, and we can think of at least one way in which it could be greatly improved.

A written examination is not in itself a completely satisfactory test of a pupil's knowledge of either literature or the English language. It should always be supplemented with an oral examination—a viva voce investigation by a panel of expert examiners. The viva, which is usual in scholarship examinations in Britain and on the continent, is a very searching test. An experienced examiner can, in five minutes of personal questioning, find out far more about what a student knows and does not know, than he can discover in a long written examination. And in the viva all sorts of subtle intuitions come into play which are incommunicable by written examinations.

There is, of course, a great danger in introducing the viva system in Ontario without first doing some long-needed housecleaning at the Ontario College of Education, and among the bureaucracy in the Department. There are too many men and women there who love systems, too many who delight in statistics and averages, too many who are themselves too lazy to undertake the strain which a proper viva puts upon an examiner. But a thorough airing of our educational system is overdue, and the advent of a more personal system of teaching and conducting examinations would be welcomed by many teachers who are at present stifled by regulations.

Facing The Facts Of Life

We have been much impressed with the judgement which Judge Curtis Bok delivered recently in the Quarter Sessions Court in Philadelphia; five booksellers were charged with selling obscene books, and nine of these books were read by Judge Bok. He acquitted the defendants, for he said that the books did no more than present everyday facts of life as these occur in the lives of thousands of men and women in the U.S.A. who are compelled, for one reason or another, to live squalidly. Here is part of his summing up:

"I should prefer that my own three daughters meet the facts of life and the literature of the world in my library than behind a neighbour's barn, for I can face the adversary there directly.

"If the young ladies are appalled by what they read, they can close the books at the bottom of Page 1. If they read further, they will learn what is in the world and in its people. And no parents who have been discerning with their children need fear the outcome".

This appears to us to be an opinion with which most well-balanced people will agree. The world contains much that is sordid and disagreeable, and it is desirable that boys and girls should know that poverty is ugly, that ignorance begets fear and crime, that sexual passion can sink into lust, and that every human emotion, abused, creates some corresponding enormity. If they do not know these things they are not fit for life, and the chances are that their knowledge will come to them in some cruel and perhaps ruinous form. They can learn about these things by reading, and by going to plays and movies; surely it is wise to let them gather their protective information thus?

Too many amateur reformers who know nothing whatever about literature work themselves up into unseemly fusses about the supposed lewdness or pornography of books which they do not understand. The touchstone which distinguishes pornography is one of taste, rather than one of morals. A lewd book is one which is written to excite the senses, and which does so coarsely, vulgarly and cheaply. Many an interested child has pored over the pages of the Song of Solomon in its Bible, or Shakespeare's Venus and Adonis, seeking sexual knowledge and sexual pleasure. And do they come to any harm thereby? No, they do not. They are learning what they must learn from the best masters. And the novels of Erskine Caldwell and other authors who have chosen to write of the seamy side of life will do them no harm, either. Better that they should meet the shocks of life vicariously, through books, than that they should discover the dark secrets of human nature by bitter personal experience. We agree with Judge Bok that a good home atmosphere and the free run of a library are the best protections for youthful virtue.

NOTE AND COMMENT

"Old City Hall Becomes A Gas Station" says a headline in a contemporary. Remains a gas station, they mean.

A rumour is going around that Christopher Columbus was the first socialist; this is based upon the facts that he embarked on a journey without knowing where he was going; when he arrived he didn't know where he was, and when he went home he didn't know where he had been; furthermore, he did it all on borrowed money.

From The Critic's Notebook

SIXTEEN SELF SKETCHES, by Bernard Shaw (Constable). There is no subject upon which the greatest prose master of our day writes more entertainingly than himself. In this short book (132 pages) he gives us some odds and ends of information about his life, explaining more explicitly than before the curious emotional climate of his home and the atmosphere of Dublin during his first twenty years. But he says, frankly and truly, that the life of a literary man is soon told; he writes and he is read or acted; he has no adventures. Of his love affairs, Shaw says that he is too much a Victorian to kiss and tell, and he dismisses all his romances in a page or so of general observations. Of his marriage he says that it was not like most marriages, because he and his wife were both affluent, and too old to have children when they wedded; it was, therefore, a companionship on a very high level rather than a marriage in the customary sense. The facts about Shaw, he tells us, are soon told and of limited interest; all else that is important about him is to be found in his works—in the shop window, as he puts it.

✧ ✧ ✧

ONE likes Shaw or one does not; it is impossible to read him and remain indifferent to him. He arouses violent partisanship in some and the most embittered resentment in others. Personally, I like him, although I disagree pretty thoroughly with almost every important idea that he has ever expressed. The apparent lack of any strain of poetry in his nature, and the appalling sanitary and hygienic quality of his mind and the operating-room technique of his thinking would make it impossible for me to be a disciple of his. But surely one can admire, and gasp at the scope of his genius without therefore subscribing to all his ideas? Shaw is one of history's great reformers; he has given the world several remarkable positive ideas, and he has seriously wounded several hundred ancient and silly prejudices. He is a great prophet, and his advice to the world, when sifted, is strikingly like that of the Old Testament prophets; if one fails to realize this, and attaches equal importance to all his observations, great and small, one may easily come to hate him, and launch embittered and rather silly attacks upon him as Winston Churchill has done; it is odd that Mr. Churchill, as a combined Joshua and Moses, does not recognize a compound of Isaiah, Jeremiah and Ezekiel when he sees one.

Though slight, this is an important book, for it throws new light on many of Shaw's most famous pages. R.D.

THE SCARLET LETTER AND OTHER PROSE by Nathaniel Hawthorne, with an Introduction by Gordon Roper (Gage). This new edition of Hawthorne's most famous novel, together with selections from his other prose writings is plainly got up, carefully edited, and prefaced by a long, informative and critical introduction from the pen of Dr. Gordon Roper, a Canadian now teaching at Trinity College, Toronto, whose special study is American writers of the mid-nineteenth century.

It is an excellent reasonably-priced one-volume Hawthorne compendium for students as well as general readers. For the former it contains as much of Hawthorne as they may be required to read for a general course on American literature and the critical apparatus complete to an extensive bibliography. For the latter it has Hawthorne's best stories and sketches, and they still read well. For both students and general readers, Dr. Roper's introduction will be helpful. Canadians tend to exhibit a pretentious or pawky ignorance of American letters other than twentieth century ones. A Hawthorne pill is a salutary corrective.

The Scarlet Letter (it is, incidentally the letter A which the convicted adulteress Hester Prynne is condemned to wear on her bodice by the New England Puritan court, and which her pastor who has been her illicit lover carries in his heart), is a pathetic story. Therein is its present value — it is a good story. The moralizing is rather tiresome, and if the novel depended on its moral and allegorical flavour, and were only the "idealistic romance" which Hawthorne labels it, no one but a student of American literature, or, more narrowly, of what is perhaps called Hawthorniana, would read it. However, it is a story of human nature with enough sentiment to bleed the heart. So it lives. So "Pamela" and Dickens live, though with greater virility for they have more to give than Hawthorne's mild inquiry into aching hearts idealistically romanticized. T.J.A.

THE PORTABLE CHARLES LAMB, edited by John Mason Brown (Macmillan). This volume maintains the high standard set by the best of the "Portable" books, and gives a good selection of Lamb's essays, as well as 164 pages of his letters, which are not so well known to the general readers. Not to know something of Lamb is to be ignorant of one of the most delightful minor talents in English literature; he is of the very first rank in his class. His class is that of Essayist, and at its very best that class cannot always escape the charges of being a little arch, a little milk-and-watery, a little genteel; the essayist must roar like Johnson (in which case the essay becomes a lay sermon) or prattle like Lamb. But Lamb's prattling contains some of the sharpest wit in English, and some of the most graceful writing. And—some Lamb-lovers ignore this—there is both tragedy and a horrible, ferocious mockery discernible in some of it; Elia was not always so gentle as he seemed. R.D.

VAIN SHADOW by Hartzell Spence (Embassy). This book is described as a romantic biography of the discoverer of the Amazon River. Only fifty years after Columbus discovered America, a Spanish conquistador, Don Francisco Orellana, discovered and penetrated the Amazon. Travelling more than six thousand miles without medicine, maps or scientific equipment of any kind, he traversed the continent of South America with a small company, in eighteen months. When we realize that even recently a scientific expedition completely equipped with every known aid was forced to quit the upper Amazon, we have some idea of what an achievement this was, four hundred years ago.

The facts of Orellana's life and leadership as revealed by research, though little known generally, are a great tribute to the strength of the human spirit and rich material for such an historical biography. In the face of unbelievable hardships, rowing cumbersome boats through the territories commanded by hostile natives, starving at times, and always battling death, mutiny, heat, rain, insects and jungle fever, (the last mentioned obstacle is still the chief enemy of the white man in this part of the world) the story from the records alone would have been a fascinating one.

BY his own admission however, the author has chosen to colour the account, and not being a Zweig or a Maurois, the contrived incidents tend to weaken the story. While undoubtedly Orellana was an unusually enlightened and progressive man, as the writer's investigations have led him to believe, he and his company of tough Rennaissance adventures could scarcely have had such a twentieth century viewpoint as the dialogue usually expresses.

There is a good deal of incidental history of the Spanish in South America and in Europe. The description of the river is based upon the observation of the part of Orellana's route the author was able to retrace personally, for inland the Amazon has changed very little.

Mr. Spence, the author of "One Foot in Heaven", and "Get Thee Behind Me" which were both very popular, apparently wished to make his history popular too. He has succeeded in writing a very absorbing story which will appeal to those who like to read about the great age of geographical exploration, if they are not too particular about absolute accuracy. H.T.K.

GETTING PAST THE RECEPTIONISTS IS THE PROBLEM

Letter To The Editor

COMPLAINS OF PROVINCIAL POLICE SERVICE

Sir: Some people are getting disgusted with so much boosting and boasting of what the police force of this county has been doing, and not one line about that which they are not doing. I know no such group of workers is perfect and too much puffing them up to a high pedestal does not do as much good as to point out defects.

Where is there an organization that is so flushed with employees and with so little work to do and so little accomplished as in the present setup in the Provincial Police. Is Peterborough County so filled with crime, drunkards, careless drivers etc. as to necessitate such a number of policemen? When I came to Peterborough from the U.S. 15 years ago, I went to the city 3 times without seeing a policeman and was disappointed for I thought those funny looking hats they used to wear (and do now in some places,) were such a novelty, that I wanted to see them and then I failed to see even one. We had only one Provincial policeman, Mr. David Sylvester and he really was a good one for the job. Now you go to the city, you see a Provincial car too often cruising along the city streets which I thought was the work of a city staff. But when a farmer calls to have services from the Provincial, the answer most often is, "Sorry, cars all out; we'll send a man out when we can." And the farmer sees nothing of the cop and suffers the loss or destruction without an investigation or perhaps as so often happens one comes a week later. Don't tell me this does not happen for I have so much proof for that which I state that no cop could face me and tell me it is not true. Country homes (one I can prove) has been broken into so many times during 15 years, broken locks regardless of cost, materials taken from premises and many dollars spent calling for protection and not once have they received aid from this same Provincial department. What have they to say about that? Is a man's home supposed to be open for entrance of anyone who may choose to enter, even a policeman for inspection without a warrant? The last time aid was sought that same party was told by a high official on this Provincial force, "If you have police protection out there, you will have to hire one yourself." The party was shocked and stated all taxpayers helped to pay to police for protection, so if the Provincial does not go and investigate house breaking in the country, what are they being paid for?

A farmer lost 25 turkeys one night and chickens the next night and on the next day in the afternoon, my husband was coming from the city and got out of his car and went off the road a distance. A Provincial arrived, looked at the car and was told by the owner, "Here I am, is there something you want?" The cop gave the answer, "Are you all right?" When told that he was all right, the cop went on. My husband drove on about 2 or 3 miles and that same cop came alongside the car and had him drive to the side of the road. My husband thought something was queer and said, "What is all this about?" The cop searched the car, but had not asked the name, taken the licence or done anything excepting search the car. My husband demanded to know why it was done. The cop related, "There was a bunch of turkeys stolen up North of here and I thought it might be foolish, if I did not search your car." Neither stop was made near where the turkeys were taken and two days after it was done. That man knew who my husband was. To think that a home is broken into or entered hundreds of times during 15 years and no police protection but a cop has the .... to stop a car and expect to find stolen turkeys. Thousands of dollars worth of poultry, cattle, household goods and motors have been stolen from Dummer township this past year but what have the police done for the innocent ones who lost? We have underage youth driving cars without driver's permits, and those same underage youth carrying guns shooting on Sundays and other days on other people's property or along the public highway and even though they are reported, the same continues along Stony Lake but at other lakes one was fined high for shooting on Sunday. No policeman makes weekly tours inspecting Stony Lake cottages as they are reported doing elsewhere. Why?

I think the police force is being flushed with personnel, on high salaries and entirely too much credit given when more criticism is needed. Leslie Blackwell reported greater police forces are being put in for safety but they bring no safety to hundreds of farmers, cottagers and still they boost their salaries and accommodations otherwise.

(MRS.) JOSEPH HAMILTON.
Stony Lake.

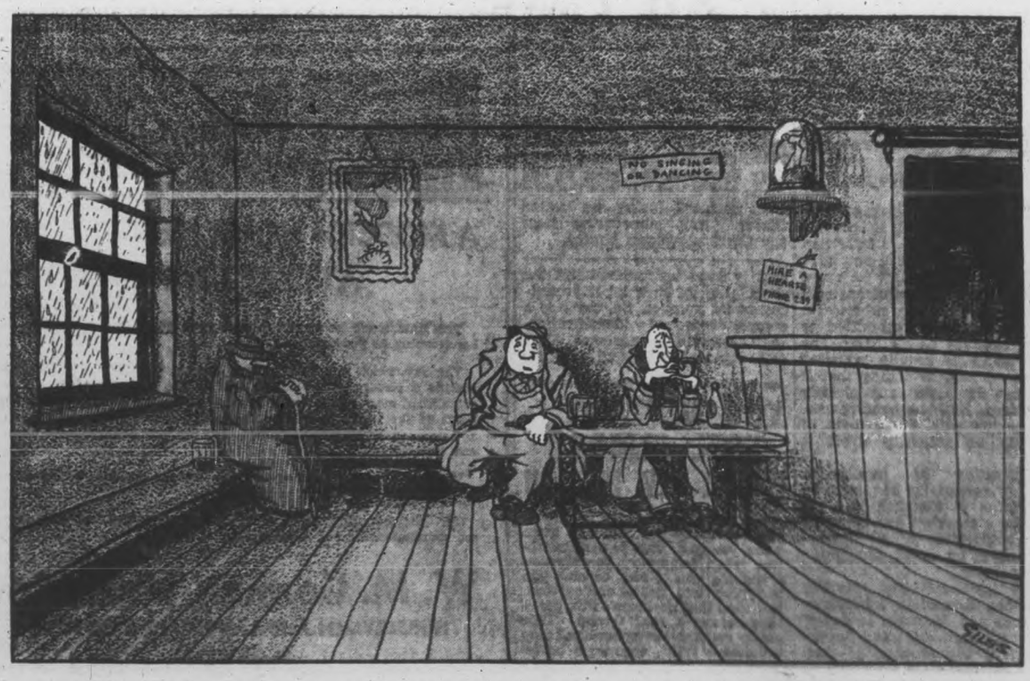
Bible Message



(From the Authorized Version)

The former treatise have I made, O Theophilus, of all that Jesus began both to do and teach, until the day in which he was taken up, after that he through the Holy Ghost had given commandments unto the apostles whom he had chosen: to whom also he shewed himself alive after his passion by many infallible proofs, being seen of them forty days, and speaking of the things pertaining to the kingdom of God: and, being assembled together with them, commanded them that they should not depart from Jerusalem, but wait for the promise of the Father, which, saith he, ye have heard of me. For John truly baptized with water; but ye shall be baptized with the Holy Ghost not many days hence.

When they therefore were come together, they asked of him, saying, Lord wilt thou at this time restore again the kingdom to Israel? And he said unto them, It is not for you to know the times or the seasons, which the Father hath put in his own power.

But ye shall receive power, after that the Holy Ghost is come upon you: and ye shall be witnesses unto me both in Jerusalem, and in all Judaea, and in Samaria and unto the uttermost part of the earth. And when he had spoken these things, while they beheld, he was taken up; and a cloud received him out of their sight. (Acts 1:1-9.)

Business Boost Said Overdue

WASHINGTON, April 21 (AP) —The spring season's expected boost for the economy of the United States is overdue.

That became clear today from a new batch of government reports.

They showed fresh declines in non-farm employment, in factory workers' earnings and working hours, in business loans and in estimated farm receipts.

Commissioner Ewan Clague of the bureau of labor statistics said that ordinarily these figures should have showed an up-trend at this time of the year.

Treasury Secretary Snyder sounded an optimistic note to a New York audience Wednesday night. He said latest United States employment figures actually are higher than a year ago and purchasing power still is high. He said the present economic picture lacks the elements that 'brought on depression and depression crises in the past."

A third government expert, Louis H. Bean, said business men can cause a depression by curtailing investment for industrial expansion. He said recent surveys indicative they plan to reduce it in the next five years to 40 per cent of the 1948 level.

Badminton Club Playoffs Start Saturday

After a most successful season, the Peterborough Badminton Club will wind up its season Saturday night when the club championships will be played. After the matches, the annual meeting and election of officers for next year will take place.

The club was quite active this past year, having return matches with Port Hope, Bowmanville, Oshawa, Belleville, Toronto Strathgowan clubs, as well as taking part in Central Ontario matches in Belleville. There, the club won the ladies' doubles title through Marg Baker and Audrey O'Donoghue, with a men's team going to the finals.

Good Showing

In inter-club matches, the local club defeated Port Hope and Oshawa, breaking even with Toronto, Belleville and Bowmanville. The juniors made a good showing in the junior COBA, with Dave McNaught taking the men's singles in straight sets in all matches, and paired with Ron Beale to win the men's doubles. Nan Pitchford and Dave also won the mixed doubles. McNaught is in Toronto this weekend in the junior Ontario tournament.

In men's singles semi-finals last night, after three rousing games, Ralph Charlton triumphed over Willard Elmsley. The latter took the first game 17-16, losing the second 15-13, the last game seesawed back and forth for 30 minutes and finally went to 13-all and was set at five. After a tough struggle for every point, Charlton won out 18-16.

The Playoffs

The games will get under way Saturday evening at eight with Grant Henry as chief referee. The following matches are listed: ladies' singles, Audrey O'Donoghue vs. Marg Baker; men's singles, Ralph Charlton vs. Bud LaBranche; ladies' doubles, Ruth McKee and Helen Mathias vs. Marg Baker and Audrey O'Donoghue; men's doubles, B. LaBranch and W. Elmsley vs. Bob Baker and Vince O'Donoghue; mixed, Mr. and Mrs. R. Baker vs. Mr. and Mrs. V. O'Donoghue.

In the consolation: ladies' singles, E. McDonald vs. J. Vass; men's singles, Roy Johnston vs. H. Collingwood; ladies' doubles, R. Brindle and A. Koster vs. M. Elson and H. Watson; men's doubles, J. Downie and A. Conlin vs. D. McNaught and R. Johnston; mixed, H. Mathias and H. Collingwood vs. the winner of J. Vass-R. Beals and E. McDonald-R. Johnston. At the conclusion of play and the meeting, a lunch will be served and friends of the club are invited to stay and participate.

SPORTS SHOW WINDOW

CEC. PERDUE, Sports Editor

Aiming to get hockey out of our receding hair for this spring, we hustled along and compiled the scoring averages of Legion puckists as a final season chore. As expected, Bob Greenlaw led all the rest handily, counting 41 goals and 15 assists in 22 games for a grand total of 56 points, some two and a half a game. We didn't include their exhibition games, just the schedule, group playoffs and provincial playdowns, 22 in all. Quite a few of the team played every game, the lineup remaining unchanged week after week. Joe Rochetta (leader last year) and Bill Crowley were tied in the next slot with 47 points apiece to show what a potent line this trio formed on the attack.

* * * * * *

Bob Parnell and Bert Hill tied next with 32 each, having a good season and being in on all games. Toodie Greenlaw continues to improve and was right up there with 22, one ahead of Sixty Coombs, with Reg Stewart next. Johnny Godfrey led defencemen, with Ned Vitarelli right on his heels. Whole club did well, including young Chum Fryia, a rookie, and Dootch Vitarelli, out the last part of the season with an injury. We'd like to mitt Bob Greenlaw, a likeable chap, for taking top honors. The speedy right-winger once played in junior hockey for Stratford on a line with Klukay and Meeker—now of Toronto Leafs—but war service beat him, as it did other Legionnaires, out of a pro career.

Oshawa Ball Setup

A little early to do much work at Riverside Park yet, but we see where Oshawa's Kinsmen Civic Memorial Stadium will officially open on May 21. While there is still quite a bit of work to be done there, the officials feel that the grounds and stands will be ready for the start of the ball season. The club then turns the deed of the place over to the city council and a committee will be named to run the park. Meantime, the Kinsmen Club is proceeding with plans to raise money to finance a modern floodlighting system to make the layout comparable to any for a city its size in the province. That's one thing badly needed in Riverside, a set of floodlights for night baseball—now that our softball and lacrosse teams can play under the arcs.

Clean and clever grappling is appreciated by some but a lot of mat fans prefer the rough stuff. The good-sized crowd at the Brock Arena last p.m. rather liked the main bout but didn't lift the roof vocally, when Hanson and Villmer went to a draw, as they often do in rougher jousts. Yet it was really smart wrestling and quite legitimate all the way, both playing it cleanly and serving up a lot of fast, scientific stuff. Two classy grapplers and quite well-matched. Folks liked the semi-final better when the Cardiff Giant finally subdued rough John Katan. And the prelim was okay, also, though Tuffy Truesdale had a bit too much weight and mat experience for Nick Vicchiarelli. Either Hanson or Villmer matched with a really rough scrapper might suit the fans better.

Where Birdsies Fly

Badminton finals commence at eight p.m. Saturday in the Market Hall, and spectators are welcome. The finalists and consolation events are listed elsewhere, and Grant Henry will be chief referee. Following play, the annual meeting will be held and then a luncheon. Men's singles semi-final struggle last eve was a hot one with Ralph Charlton just edging Willard Elmsley 18-16 in the third game. The club is winding up a most successful season, with a large entry, and plenty of keen competition both in the club and in outside matches. Some good young talent coming up, too, to assure them of capable material in the future.

YM lasses' bowling loop finished its season with a whirl in the Knife and Fork League last gloaming, an enjoyable affair. Prizes and trophies were presented the victors, Lucky Strikes being the triumphant team to take the Y's Men's Trophy. Dot Martin captured Vic Sedgewick's trophy for high average to break the three-year reign of Marion Timm. Ethel Stanbury won high single and Joyce Jeffries high threesome. Officers elected for next season were: President, Betty Pogue; secretary, Janet Morrow; treasurer, Helen Reid. The circuit had a good trundling semester through the cold months.

Bob Greenlaw Top Sniper With 56 Points

Bob Greenlaw, speedy and classy right-winger for the champion Legionnaires' hockey team, led them handily in scoring this season. In 22 games, group and provincial, he scored 41 goals and had 15 assists for a grand total of 56 points or approximately two and a half points a game. He was 11 points ahead of his line-mates, Joe Rochetta (who led last year) and Bill Crowley, these smart forwards tying with 47 points apiece.

Next to Bob Greenlaw, Crowley scored most goals with 26, while Rochetta, the play-maker on the first front line, was away ahead on assists, having 36. All three played all Legion games, as did four others on the squad. Legion's exhibition game scoring summaries were not included in the official figures.

A Fine Season

Following the first line marks came Bob Parnell and Bert Hill, centres respectively on the second and third lines, both these hustling hockeyists having a fine season and tying with 32 points each. Toodie Greenlaw was next just ahead of Sixty Coombs and then Reg Stewart. Johnny Godfrey led defencemen scoring with 17, one point in front of Ned Vitarelli. A rookie late in the season, Chum Fryia, was another who made a good showing. Following are the marks:

Old Favorites Sell Best In Music Stores

LONDON, April 21 — (CP).—Revivals of old songs make up at least 50 per cent of Britain's sheet music sales at the present time, say leading London song publishers.

Most popular song of all at present is: "When You Were Sixteen," which first appeared in 1898. Last year 200,000 copies of it were sold.

Other current successes are "I Wonder Who's Kissing Her Now" the 1909 hit tune which sold 250,000 copies last year; "When Day Is Done," published in 1924, "Teddy Bear's Picnic" (1932) and "Who Stole My Heart Away?" (1926).

"I can't think of a single catchy song written since the war that will live," said John Firman, former band leader, now a song publisher.

Another publisher said there seemed to be a "dearth" of good tunes apart from the compositions of famous song writers like Irving Berlin and Ivor Novello.

Remember When—

By The Canadian Press

Max Schmeling, regarded then as boxing's next victim of the slashing fists of Joe Louis, arrived in New York 13 years ago today to prepare for his June 18 heavyweight bout with the Detroit Negro. The German beat Louis to cross the critics and became a temporary challenger for Champion Jimmy Braddock's crown.

Hanson and Villmer Draw In Clever Main Mat Bout

Sliding Billy Hanson and Ray Villmer went to a time limit draw in the main pro mat bout at the Brock Arena last night. After a fall apiece, they really opened it up and Referee Ernie Powers was scuttling about the ring at the finish trying to keep out of the way of the flying bodies. They were out of the ring twice each after showing some nifty bridging early, followed by mule kicks, tackles, blocks and wristlocks, scrapping on pretty even terms and quite cleanly throughout with the crowd divided as to their popularity. It was a fast, scientific bout.

Hanson, at 226 pounds, won the second round to even it up in just six and a half minutes with bulldog headlocks and a slam after softening the Missouri buzz-saw, scaling 224, with elbow smashes. It looked rough but was quite legitimate and Villmer complained but briefly afterward. Quite a few fans applauded the fall after both had dished up some clever matwork with Ray tossed through the hemp once. They were fast and clever in their moves to serve up plenty of action and Referee Powers didn't have too much to do, though they were slower breaking than in the first lengthy round.

Took Opener

Villmer took the opening fall after 31 minutes of hard and clever work on the floor. He won it with drop kick after an exchange of kicks. It started slow enough as they each in turn used hard hammerlocks, with Ray generally a bit faster applying grips and quicker on counters to hold a slight edge. A wide variety of grips were shown by these experienced grapplers and the fans seemed to appreciate smart, instead of rough, wrestling, though they couldn't make up their minds which matman to cheer for. The referee wasn't at all busy as they broke cleanly when told.

A Rough One

It was considerably different in the lively semi-final when the Cardiff Giant, bumping the beam—whiskers and all—at 330 pounds—won in 21 minutes from rough John Katan, scaling 245 with a powerful bear hug. Surly John pulled his usual batch of illegal tricks to bother his big opponent, pulling hair, rasping eyes and generally acting as if the Giant was a Singer Midget. But the big fellow kept plugging away, as the referee kept warning Katan, and he finally caught up with John to apply his favorite grip, the bear hug. Katan kept fighting to free himself but was finally subdued and he later feared he had a cracked rib. It was a rough, crowd-pleasing go, and the fall was a popular one with the fans.

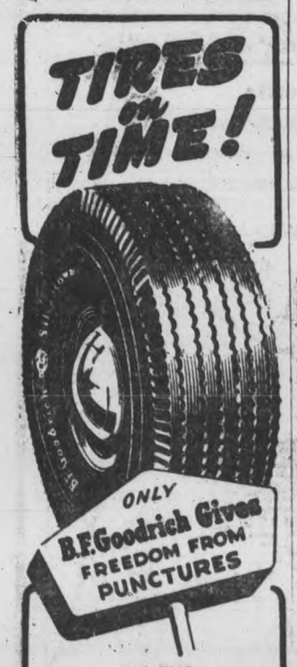
Tuffy Tough

Tuffy Truesdale, minus his alligator, took the prelim in 11 minutes over Nick Vicchiarelli, local light-heavy, when the latter had to concede. He weighed 170 and spotted Tuffy 19 pounds. This and the other's experience were too much for Nick, though he made a good go of it for a time and held his own in the early part. Truesdale showed the fans a barrel of stuff later as he opened up, moving fast around the ring in his pink trunks, and he banged up Nick's shoulder toward the finish as he threw him out of the ring. Referee Powers stepped in to stop it as Tuffy was proving too rough for the injured Vicchiarelli.

FAITHFUL MOTH

On the scent of a female, the male promethea moth has been known to fly seven miles through the night.

Lasses' League Concludes Bowling Season



The Ladies' Senior Bowling League of the YWCA concluded a successful season last night with the annual banquet and presentation of prizes. The president, Betty Castle, presided at the enjoyable gathering. The tables were nicely decorated and, following dinner, a sing-song was held with Mrs. Hepburn leading and Mrs. Arnold at the piano.

Secertary Barbara Lee gave a report of the season's activity, with Marjory Wood presenting the treasurer's report, showing a small balance on hand.

William Moorhead of the Y's Men's Club presented the Y's Men's Trophy to the league winners, Lucky Strikes, the team receiving individual prizes, also. The high average trophy was handed over by its donor, Vic Sedgewick, to Dorothy Martin with an average of 198. High single was taken by Ethel Stanbury with 364 while Joyce Jeffries took high three with 862. The following won draw prizes: Mary Johnson, Janet Morrow, Min Arnold, Marj Wood, Barbara Lee, Leta Bell, Agnes Barrett and Eileen Penrose.

A hearty vote of thanks was extended by the bowlers to M. Dinsdale, Janet Morrow and Ada Merrett for their work in preparing the tables, to the officers and scorers and to The Examiner. Presentations were made to the president, secretary, treasurer and scorers by Joyce Jeffries. The following officers were elected for next season: President, Betty Pogue; secretary, Janet Morrow; treasurer, Helen Reid.

Detroit's Johnny Groth Hottest-Hitting Rookie

By JACK HAND
Associated Press Sports Writer

Johnny Groth appears to be the hottest rookie to hit the majors since Joe DiMaggio, Ted Williams and Stan Musial.

Sure, it's too early to tell. Two days don't make a season or a career. But what a two days this 22-year-old Detroit freshman had.

Three home runs, five hits and seven runs batted in.

The $35,000 the Tigers shelled out as a bonus to Johnny may have been their best investment.

A .340 season at Buffalo at a .471 batting average at Detroit in the final six games of the last season cemented Groth's claim to a regular job in centre field.

Groth exploded a chorus of hurrahs Tuesday with two homers off Chicago's Al Gettel. That overshadowed Hal Newhouser's fine three-hitter.

Wednesday he almost blotted out Virgil Trucks' four-hitter with a grand-slam homer off Randy Gumpert that gave Detroit a 5-2 edge over the White Sox.

Does Honors For Yanks

A veteran did the honors for New York Yankees in their 3-0 victory over Washington. Tommy Henrich snapped a scoreless duel between Vic Raschi and Montreal-born Paul Calvert with a fourth-inning homer. It was his second of the year, his first accounting for the Yankees' opening-day success.

Everybody said Boston Red Sox couldn't possibly get away as slowly as last season but they're giving it a good try. Joe McCarthy's Sox were beaten by Philadelphia Athletics for the second straight day, 3-2 in 10 innings.

Sam Chapman came through with four hits driving in Elmer Valo, who also had four hits, with the winning run off Ellis Kinder. Joe Coleman was helped out of trouble by three double plays to win a 10-hitter.

Cleveland knocked out three pitchers in thumping St. Louis Browns 7-3. Bob Lemon, a 20-game winner in '48, went all the way despite homers by Dick Kokos and rookie Jack Graham. Karl Drews was the loser.

Ties Record

Puddin' Head Jones, Philadelphia Phillies rookie hot shot, from Toronto Leafs, tied a modern major-league record with four doubles but couldn't help the Phils from losing to Boston Braves 6-5. Bill Nicholson of the Phils and Earl Torgeson of the Braves homered in a free-hitting contest that saw reliefer Nels Potter take his second victory of the season.

Brooklyn Dodgers walked to victory against New York Giants, 6-2. Loser Sheldon Jones gave only one hit before he was replaced in the fourth but he walked seven and wild-pitched twice. Despite a home-run to Sid Gordon, Ralph Branca was in charge all the way, scattering four Giant hits.

The top National League pitching effort came from Chicago's Bob Rush, who shut out Pittsburgh, 4-0, on three hits. Murry Dickson was nicked for all the runs in his six-inning stay.

St. Louis and Cincinnati were not scheduled.

struck out seven Pirates in three-hit, 4-0 victory.

Argonauts Plan 5 U.S. Players

TORONTO, April 21 (CP) — Toronto Argonauts, last All-Canadian club in senior football, will import its full quota of five United States players next season, Tommy Allison, president of the Interprovincial Union club, announced yesterday.

"We will import two big ends, a triple-threat quarterback and two middles," Allison said. "We hope to get them from Cleveland Browns, champions of the All-America professional league."

The Argonaut president denied reports that his club had signed a working agreement with the Browns. Any dealings with the professional team would be "on a friendly basis only."

Argonauts slipped to third place in the Eastern Big Four last season after winning the Grey Cup two years in a row with an All-Canadian lineup.

Allison said Joe Krol and Royal Coepland, backfield stars of the two title-winning clubs, would be back next season. Running back Doug Pyzer, who left Argos for Toronto Beaches Indians of the Ontario Rugby Football Union would also return to the Argos.

Consider Skelton Durante As Film Team

By BOB THOMAS.

HOLLYWOOD, April 21 (AP) — There is a sure-fire laugh team —Red Skelton and Jimmy Durante.

Schnozzola is being considered as Skelton's partner in "Yellow Cab Man." It would be the first film work in over a year for Durante, whose great talents have not been fully exploited in recent films.

The picture is one of the three follow-ups to Skelton's hit of last year, "Fuller Brush Man." Also nearing production are "Good Humor Man" with Jack Carson and "Fuller Brush Girl" with Lucille Ball.

Charlie Out

Edgar Bergen gets his second dramatic try in "Captain China." The ventriloquist, who scored a success in "I Remember Mama," will play a Dutchman in the new film. He will get a chance to do some comedy, but Charlie McCarthy will stay home.

Nancy Olson will probably be the next Cinderella to play opposite Bing Crosby. She is being named for "Mr. Music" after her stint in "Sunset Boulevard." Nancy's only other film was "Canadian Pacific."

Zachary Scott is getting close to the record number of suspensions at Warners. His latest was for turning down a minor role in "Octopus and Miss Smith." He said his part was so small he figured up the cost by the word. "Do you want to pay me $308 a word?" he asked. They were willing, and he took the suspension. He is now off it and working in "Death in the Doll House" on loan-out.

Walter Huston is limiting himself to one film a year, despite the many new offers since his Academy Award. He has given up the stage because of the dilemma: "If you get a hit play, you have to stay in it too long; if you don't get a hit, it's no fun."

Here And There In Sports . . .

By The Canadian Press

Joe Klukay of Sault Ste. Marie, ace penalty-killer of the Stanley Cup champion Toronto Maple Leafs, Wednesday signed his contract for next year with the National Hockey League club.

He's the sixth member of the Leafs to sign up again since they beat Detroit in the Stanley Cup finals Saturday night. The others are Captain Ted Kennedy, forwards Max Bentley, Howie Meeker and Vic Lynn, and defenceman Garth Boesch of Winnipeg.

At Sackville, NB, Sault Ste. Marie Algos jumped into a 15-point lead in the Canadian Intermediate basketball semi-finals Wednesday ngiht, by defeating Mount Allison University 59-44. Second game in the two-game, total-point series will be played here tonight. The winner meets St. Francis Xavier University of Antigonish, NS, for the Canadian title.

At Montreal, General Manager Frank Selke of Montreal Forum said Wednesday night the management, as a "special inducement," has offered to divide its monetary share with the competing clubs if the Canadian Amateur Hockey Association will divert any of the Memorial Cup final games to Montreal. He said that "for the present" the CAHA has refused to sanction a transfer but the Forum "will press its request for a few games."

ENGEL MAN came off the pace to win an allowance race at a mile-and-a-sixteenth at Jamaica, and keep the Kentucky Derby hopes of Owner David Shear alive. It was the chestnut colt's first victory in seven starts this year. That's not much of a record but it was definitely an improvement, and they can come rapidly.

Head injuries incurred when he was knocked out in a prize fight at Honolulu Tuesday night caused the death of Frederick Bungat. Bungat, a 32-year-old lightweight has been fighting under the ring name of Freddie Sylvano. He was knocked out in the fifth round of his fight with Juan Efhan.

The Ontario Jockey Association will distribute $154,950 in purse money during the 12-day spring meetings of the OJC and the Greenwood Racing Club in Toronto. The OJC meeting will be from May 21-28 while the Greenwood event from May 28 to June 3.

At Cincinnati, Gus Lesnevich, Cliffside NY, and Joey Maxim, Cleveland O, Wednesday signed a new contract to box 15 rounds in Cincinnati May 23 for the light heavyweight championship of the United States. Several days ago they signed at Paterson, NJ, for a bout over the same route for the world's title. The National Boxing Association, headed by chairman Abe Greene, however, declared Freddie Mills of London still to be the 175-pound title king, and demanded the change.

Princess To Visit Rome

ROME, April 21 (Reuters) — Princess Margaret will almost certainly be received by the Pope during her four-week visit to Italy, it was learned in usually well-informed circles here Wednesday. Arrangements for her reception by Pope Pius are in the hands of the British Legation to the Vatican, it was understood.

COMMUTERS

Barn swallows, robins and phoebes have been known to raise broods on moving ferries.

Condition Improving

LONDON, Ont., April 21 (CP) —Condition of Mitchell F. Hepburn, former-premier of Ontario who underwent an operation in Victoria Hospital Tuesday, was termed "improved" Tuesday night. Relatives said that Mr. Hepburn was "resting comfortably," and that although still quite ill he is "doing as well as can be expected."

Province Prepared To Pay Share Of Park

TORONTO, April 21 (CP) — Premier Kennedy said Wednesda that the Ontario Government is prepared to pay its share, 37½ per cent, of the cost of the proposed $100,000 conservation park in 1,100 acres of wasteland in the Humber Valley northwest of Toronto. But he said the province couldn't undertake to guarantee the Federal Government's 37½ per cent.

The remaining 25 per cent is to be made up by the municipalities covered by the Humber Valley Conservation authority.

Officials of the authority said earlier they had been given to understand the province would pay 75 per cent of the cost in the event the Federal government didn't contribute.

The Federal government told the authority last week it had decided that a Federal grant at this time would be inopportune.

International Baseball League Opens 1949 Season

NEW YORK, April 21 (AP)— The International Baseball League will open its 66th straight season today with an expected paid attendance of 92,000 or more.

Three afternoon games and one night session—Montreal at Baltimore—will make up the opening program.

Jersey City, as usual, is a cinch to walk off with attendance honors. Some 55,000 tickets will be sold for the game between the Little Giants and Rochester.

Half of these won't be able to squeeze into the park, however. The park seats only 26,000.

Other games and expected attendance are: Toronto at Newark, 15,000; Montreal at Baltimore, 12,000; Buffalo at Syracuse, 10,000.

Pitching assignments were fairly definite.

Jersey City is slated to go with Ford Bailey, Negro right-hander, whose mound opponent will be Eddie Blake, promising Rochester right-hander.

Pitches at Montreal

Another Negro star, Don Newcombe, will pitch for Montreal at Baltimore, opposing the Orioles' Bryan Stephens.

Either Luman Harris or Aaron Silverman will go for Buffalo against Syracuse. The Chiefs' nominee is John Hetki.

Duane Pillette, formerly with Portland of the Pacific Coast League, is to be on the hill for Newark against Oscar Judd, veteran Toronto Leafs' left-hander from Ingersoll, Ont.

League President Frank Shaughnessy says the league race should be much tighter than last year, when Montreal Royals made a runaway of it. He thinks every club has been strengthened, especially Baltimore, Buffalo and Jersey City.

Jersey City has added a couple of hard hitters in Negro outfielders Sam Thompson and Monte Irvin. Newark also has a couple of Negro newcomers in outfielder Louis Marquez and shortstop Frank Austin.

Vote To Remain Dry

OWEN SOUND, April 21 (CP) —Keppel Township, six miles northwest of here, Wednesday voted to remain dry. The vote was 667-78 against beer sale in a public house to which women would be admitted, 669-77 against beer sale on a men-only public house basis and 663-79 against sale of beer and wine with meals under dining room licence.

Describe Drinking Before Accident

LONDON, Ont., April 21 (CP) —Crown evidence of a night of drinking by two couples that ended in the highway death of one of the youths featured the opening of the Assize Court manslaughter trial of Thomas Van Sickle, 22, of Sarnia.

He is alleged to have been driving a borrowed auto when it crashed into Melrose bridge in Middlesex County, killing Edward Thompson.

Also in the car were Mrs. Gloria Smith and Ruth Bedard who had met the two youths in a Sarnia beverage room.

Mrs. Smith said they drank beer first in a Sarnia hotel beverage room, then drove to Point Edward where they had more beer in another hotel. After that they went to a bootlegger's in the country where, Mrs. Smith estimated, Van Sickle drank "two or three bottles".

They took with them several bottles of beer from the bootlegger's and the next stop was a hotel in Watford where they had more beer. Mrs. Smith said she did not know until later that Miss Bedard was under 21.

Mrs. Smith said she did not know how the crash occurred but testified that Van Sickle was driving "pretty fast".

Dog Foils Burglary

BETHANY, April 21 (ENS) —Ryley and Sons general store was broken into early Tuesday morning, but so far as Mr. Ryley can ascertain, nothing was stolen. The excited barking of his dog, which always remains in the store at night, no doubt frightened the intruders away. Entrance was made through the stock room and the inner door was pried off its hinges.

LOGS AND KILOWATTS—To prevent logs from getting into hydro-electric power plants is.. the problem at Ottawa of these two National Research Council engineers, Dollard Marion (left) and E. S. Turner. They are trying to find a simple economical way of keeping timber from entering power-house intake canals on rivers used for log operation.

PC Convention Has Buttons, Badges For All

TORONTO, April 21 (CP) — Buttons and badges—dark blue, and light blue, green and white—will be pinned on everybody who has anything to do with the Ontario Progressive Conservative leadership convention.

Party officials said today the buttons are all ready for the convention to be held here April 25-27 to choose a new leader of the Progressive Conservative party in Ontario. There are deep blue badges with gold lettering for the 1,681 official delegates. The 1,260 alternate delegates will have to be content with lighter blue badges—also with gold lettering. There are badges also for their wives and sweethearts — green ones. Members of the Young Progressive Conservatives will wear blue ribbons.

There are blue and white buttons for the stenographers, secretaries and lesser party officials and for members of the press. There are big round four-inch buttons for the senior party officials with plastic windows in them to display their names printed in large letters.

At least two of the announced candidates for the leadership have ordered thousands of big blue-and-white buttons with the candidate's photograph to be worn by their supporters, urging all and sundry to climb on the band wagon.

Take Over Hotel

Canadian Pacific Railway officials said the Ontario Progressive Conservative Association had virtually "taken over" the Royal York Hotel, scene of the convention, and had booked rooms in "every other hotel of any standing."

The Association has booked large suites to be used as campaign headquarters by each of the four candidates who has declared himself — Provincial Treasurer Frost, Attorney-general Blackwell, Education Minister Porter, and Kelso Roberts, a Toronto mining lawyer and former member of the legislature. Other members of the legislature have had blocks of rooms reserved for several weeks for their riding delegates. Other rooms have been set aside for the press with extra telephones, telegraph facilities, and 20 typewriters.

Don't Want Controls

REGINA, April 21 (CP)—In every province the cost of education is a heavy strain on municipal and provincial revenues but federal subsidies now asked in several provinces should not be accompanied by federal control of education, Dr. J. G. Althouse, chief education director for Ontario, said Wednesday night. Speaking to a meeting of Saskatchewan educationists, Dr. Althouse said the responsibility of provinces for their own schools "is an advantage rather than a handicap."

May Drop Restrictions

OTTAWA, April 21 (CP)—W. T. Wilson, Deputy Chairman of Emergency Import Control in the Finance Department, intimated Wednesday night that an end to United States import restrictions may not be far off. Speaking before a meeting of the Ottawa Board of Trade, he contrasted Canada's current reserves of $1,100,000,000 in American dollars with the meagre $500,000,000 it had at the end of 1947 and said "Canada is a lot closer today to the end of the import restrictions than we were 17 months ago."

Alberta Has Invited 1950 Drama Festival

EDMONTON, April 21—(CP)—The Dominion Drama Festival may be held in Alberta next year.

Richard MacDonald, provincial director of cultural activities, is carrying a formal invitation from the Alberta Government to the Dominion Drama Board at this year's festival, opening in Toronto April 25.

He said Wednesday the provincial government would extend financial assistance to the Calgary group of amateur actors who won the provincial festival award last fall.

VON Want Mental Health Clinic

Peterborough branch of the Victorian Order of Nurses has decided to make representations to the Ontario Department of Health for the establishment of a mental health clinic in the city. At a meeting of the Board Wednesday in City Building plans were made to canvass a number of local organizations for support to a resolution drawing attention to the city's need of a clinic.

R. Chandler, spokesman for a committee set up by the Board to consider mental health problems in Peterborough, proposed on behalf of the committee, making recommendations to the Department.

Several members of the Board stated that there had been a pressing need for a mental health centre in the city for many years.

A list of organisations to be approached included the Home and School Associations, Local Council of Women, Health League, Welfare Department, Peterborough Department of Health, Children's Aid Society, the Board of Education, Ministerial Association, Catholic clergy and other persons and organisations which the Board considers may be concerned with the matter.

The special committee set up by the Board had also considered a communication from the Health League dealing with arthritis and on its recommendation, the Board decided to notify the League that it would support any reasonable measures suggested by the League.

64 New Patients

Miss Marry Ross, V. O. N. supervisor, reported 193 cases dealt with by the Order during March, 64 of which were new patients. The nurses made a total of 540 visits, 246 were prenatal or to mothers and babies; 293 medical and surgical including 36 visits to cancer patients and 140 to the chronically ill.

Out of a total of 304 patients visited this year, eight were cancer cases, Miss Ross reported.

Miss Ross announced that Miss Hazel Miller, National Supervisor would make her annual visit to the city from April 25-29

Ambassador To Russia

WASHINGTON, April 21 (AP) —Vice-Admiral Alan G. Kirk, poker-faced sailor-diplomat, was named ambassador to Russia Wednesday as the United States held the door open for any real peace move by Moscow. Kirk, 60-year-old retired naval officer, has been serving as Ambassador to Belgium and Minister to Luxembourg. He succeeds Lt.-Gen. Walter Bedell Smith, who now commands the first army in New York.

To Approve Signals

OTTAWA, April 21 (CP)—Future plans for railway track signal installations must be inspected and approved by the Board of Transport Commissioners prior to installation, the Board ordered Wednesday night. The order was contained in the first regulations ever issued by the Board giving it control over the installation of automatic block signals systems for Canadian railways.

YOU'D NEVER BELIEVE SHE IS 48....

She's one of the peppiest, happiest-spirited women you ever saw. At the time when most women think life is passing them by—she's right in the midst of things—always ready to go places and do things . . . as popular with the men as girls half her age. To look at her you would never believe she was a day over 35.

How does she do it? She gives the credit to Dr. Williams Pink Pills . . . for well she knows how important it is to have plenty of rich, red blood during those years when so many women are "pulled down" in health by bodily changes.

If you feel "always tired", if you look pale and dragged out, if you are suffering from a feeling of nervous exhaustion, are jittery and irritable, you may be paying the price of poor blood make-up. Don't wait—start Dr. Williams Pink Pills today. They contain an easily assimilable form of iron—fortified with a generous amount of Vitamin B_1—and are wonderfully effective in helping to build the rich, red blood so necessary to vigor and energy. Labor Queries Fire Measures In South End

Concern over whether citizens residing south of Lansdowne St. are receiving adequate fire protection was voiced on Tuesday night at the bi-monthly meeting of the Allied Labor Council.

After some discussion a motion was passed that the corresponding secretary write to the city council and determine what plans the city has for protecting the lives and property of citizens south of Lansdowne St.

The subject was broached by President Alfred Barber, also president of Local 210 UPWA. "Some of the workers are asking why the city is spending money on renovations at the main Fire Hall which cannot be enlarged anyway, when that money could be used to build a sub-station in the south end," he said.

A supplementary motion was also passed which stated that a representative from the Fire Fighters' Union be requested to attend the next meeting of the Council to speak on fire protection in the south end.

Suggest Sub-Stations

Robert Harvey, Local 1320 AASER and MC of America, said: "The present chief and the ex-chief have both tried to get sub-stations in the south end. "It is not only a matter of the distance that the fire trucks have to cover, but the trucks have to cross railway tracks on the way down, and they could be stopped twice, once at the CPR crossing and again at the CNR."

Several delegates indicated they thought it took too long for fire trucks to reach the south end in the event of an emergency. They stated this criticism was no reflection on the Peterborough Fire Department was but a matter of policy for the city council to decide.

William Triggs, Local 293 UPWA, stated that the grants proposed by the provincial government for the upkeep of fire departments, providing these departments were maintained at an efficient level, was sufficient guarantee that the matter would be taken care of.

Sure Toronto Doctors Obey Sterilization Law

TORONTO, April 21 (CP) — Several gynaecologists said Wednesday night they were certain that no ethical doctors in the Toronto area perform sterilization operations at a mere request of healthy persons.

The gynaecologists who declined use of their names, commented on an Ontario Medical Review report that Canada doctors are adopting "a casual attitude" toward sterilization of patients.

Said an east-end gynaecologist: "To my knowledge, surgeons certainly stick to the letter of the law. There are lots of sterilization requests from medically minor cases and they are disregarded. Sterilization operations are done only when there are good medical grounds and when a doctor has at least three opinions on it."

Short-Wave Radio Privately Owned

CHATHAM, April 21 (CP)—A privately-owned short-wave radio system, one of the largest industrial networks in Canada, will be officially opened here tonight.

The system, installed by the Union Gas Company, provides a continuous emergency service for the 5,000-square-mile area served by the company in southwest Ontario.

Provincial Treasurer Frost will speak at a banquet marking the system's opening and reeves and mayors of 68 municipalities in four counties—Kent, Essex, Lambton and Middlesex—will be present.

Asks Extra Jail Term Judge Turns Him Down

LINDSAY, April 21 — (CP).— Magistrate E. A. Gee in Lindsay Police Court Wednesday turned down the request for additional jail sentences by 19-year-old Fred Ernest of Hamilton, who was convicted on charges of theft.

Ernest, who was sentenced to 21 days, requested that he be jailed the same as Robert Cooper 18, who was sentenced to 60 days. Said Ernest in his earnest plea: "Bob is a friend of mine; I went along with him, did the same, and I think I should get the same sentence."

Magistrate Gee suggested that he work during the period and aid Cooper's wife.

"Yes, sir, but it gets pretty lonely in jail alone," replied Ernest, who along with Cooper and William Lockwood, 22, of Mount Hamilton, were convicted on two charges of breaking and entering and theft from farm dwellings and properties in the Norland district 40 miles north of Lindsay.

Guard, Prisoner Given Sentence

SUDBURY, April 21 (CP) — In the sequel to what was described as a foiled prison break attempt March 15 at nearby Burwash Prison Farm, a former guard and a prisoner Wednesday were given prison terms.

The prisoner, Lewis J. Jones, was sentenced to two years in penitentiary on a charge of conspiring to escape from custody. The term will start upon expiration of a 19-month sentence he still has to serve on a Toronto forgery charge and on a charge of escaping from Burwash a year ago.

The former guard, Joseph Lapierre, 25, formerly of Cornwall, was sentenced to 12 months definite and six months indefinite for conspiring to permit a prisoner to escape.

Both men pleaded guilty.

The charges arose from the discovery March 15 of a partly-made jail key, a file, and an imprint in a bar of soap of a key Lapierre carried as a guard.

Mrs. Stuart Clysdale Heads WI Of Warsaw

NORWOOD, April 21 (ENS)— Mrs. J. J. Stewart was hostess for the Easter meeting of the Evening Auxiliary of Norwood United Church.

The president opened the meeting with a poem 'Thoughts on Easter."

Mrs. John McConnell was in charge of the program. Mrs. Fred Patterson described the scene of the Crucifixion on Calvary. Mrs. Kenneth Pakenham told of the gloom that settled over the disciples when the body of Christ was laid in the tomb—a gloom transformed to glory when the risen Christ revealed himself in the garden, and again at frequent intervals during his remaining 40 days on earth.

Mrs. Flett read an appropriate parable "A Story Comes Alive." Miss Ina McConnell sang "King of my Life."

Lunch was served and a social time followed.

Nail Production Up

OTTAWA, April 21 (CP)—Tied in with housing construction in Canada, production of iron and steel wire nails was up during February in comparison with the same month last year. The Bureau of Statistics reported Wednesday that output was 6,540 tons compared with 5,760 tons in February, 1948. The amount was down from the 7,193 tons produced in January this year.

R. Bolton Appointed To Governors' Board

HAMILTON, April 21 (CP)— Too many topics in the course of study cause insufficient drill in fundamental subjects in the elementary school, it was decided Wednesday by the Ontario Public School Men Teachers' Federation.

The Federation also deplored the low entrance requirements for normal schools. It favored a teachers' degree requiring three or more years study for all entering the profession.

Officers elected include President, A. McAdam, Toronto; First Vice-President, M. MacEachern, Waterloo; member of the Board of Governors of the Federation include R. Bolton, Peterborough; E. Peterson, Welland, and G. Vogan, St. Thomas.

Dunton, CBC chairman, said the corporation will follow the same policy with respect to provincial political conventions as it followed during the national Liberal and Progressive Conservative conventions here last summer.

WINDSOR SALT DEPOSITS

The Windsor, Ont., area is estimated to have enough salt deposits to last the world for close to 100,000 years.

Make Survey Of Site For Memorial Centre

Property committee recommendations approved by the council Monday included:

"That the Sanitary Inspector be authorized to buy a spray machine to control odors and insects in city buildings at a cost of $69.50 and a year's supply of deodorizing concentrate at $32.50, and that when the equipment is used in properties not owned by the city, a fee be charged by the Sanitary Inspector.

That the tender of Trent Valley Roofing Co. for repairs and reshingling part of the roof of the fire hall at $164 be accepted.

That the City Clerk be authorized to advertise for sale by tender for removal from their present location, houses Nos. 997 and 1001 Water St., and that the tenants be advised of this action in order that they may make arrangements for other accommodation."

The report was presented by Ald. Grant Miller, chairman of the committee.

The following clause was in the report of the finance committee, as adopted: "That Ald. H. Dodds, chairman of the board of works, be authorized to have the City Engineer submit a report as to the suitability of the property owned by the city on the west side of George St., opposite Little Lake, as a site for the Memorial Centre building, particularly as to additional cost in securing proper footing, etc."

Summer Theatre To Profit City Hospitals

The Peterborough Summer Theatre has just completed arrangements to donate the first year profits to the Civic and St. Joseph Hospitals of Peterborough. This move was made by Michael Sadlier, managing director of the company, who is now in residence in Peterborough.

This enterprise of a professional theatre season in Peterborough has occasioned much interest throughout the province and country, and press comment in Montreal and Toronto.

Experienced actors have been engaged, some of them Canadians from the New York stage and the company will have able direction, of technical staff and full equipment necessary for an extended season of repertory.

Plays which have been selected for presentation include New York hits and some that are now running in that centre of the North American theatrical world.

Downtown Box Office

The Peterborough Junior Chamber of Commerce are assisting in the promotional work of the theatre, and are establishing a downtown box office to facilitate the purchase of theatre tickets.

The opening date of the season is June 27th and the company will perform at eight-thirty, Monday, Tuesday, Wednesday, Thursday, and at six and nine p.m. Friday and Saturday evenings. The programme will be changed each week, and among the plays scheduled for production are, The Winslow Boy, Fortune My Foe, Present Laughter, Angel Street, George and Margaret, Petticoat Fever, Our Town, Tonight at 8.30, and On Stage, a new original intimate musical. One other play will be added to this list.

Drama Course Planned

In association with the summer theatre an extensive course in Drama will be given for eight weeks this summer under the direction of John Primm. Among the actors lecturing in the course will be Bramwell Fletcher, Gerald Savory, George Carden, William Needles, Michael Sadlier, and John Primm.

Details of this school of drama are not yet available but a prospectus is being prepared and is expected to be ready within a few weeks.

Ice Out of Many Lakes Flooding Believed Past

Flooding of land around Little Lake is out of the question for this year unless the rainfall increases, officials of the Trent Canal said. Most of the ice is out of the lakes in the Kawartha and Haliburton areas.

Tuesday morning the level of Little Lake was only one foot above the normal summer level. The river has yet to reach the height when it was at its peak last year. Then it was up to the shelters on the George Street Wharf.

Just above the lower lock the water is one foot below the normal summer level. A large number of the logs at the dam have been taken out, letting the water pour through. The pier below the lock was covered with a foot of water Sunday morning. But Tuesday afternoon it was clear of water.

Trent Canal officials said the water at the present time is flowing at about 7,000 cubic feet per second. The flow for the same period last year was 9,000 cubic feet per second. These figures were obtained at the Nassau dam.

Habitual Criminal

HAMILTON, April 21—(CP)—George W. Orams, 54, Tuesday was sentenced to an "indeterminate" term in Kingston penitentiary after his conviction as a habitual criminal. Police records showed he had three previous sentences at Kingston and one in the United States. Orams is the second Canadian to be convicted under a new criminal code amendment, permitting indefinite imprisonment of habitual criminals.

Trade Fair Will Acquaint 65,000 People As What Is Made In City

Residents of Peterborough are well aware of the fact that their city is one of the leading industrial centres in Canada, the tenth largest in fact, but probably only a few of them realize the great diversity of products that are produced in this trading area. Next week every citizen of the city and county will have a golden opportunity to complete their education in this respect, as the Kiwanis Club of Peterborough will sponsor during that period the first Trade Fair ever held in this district. The whole idea of the fair is to acquaint the 65,000 people of the area with just what is being manufactured right in their midst.

Here are some of the things patrons of the fair will see displayed in the various booths which will be erected in the Armouries from April 26 to 30:—spring mattresses, chair cushions, paints and varnishes, travelling trailer homes, rugs and carpets, woollens, steel springs, beds, pillows, etc.

In addition to booths containing exhibits of local manufactures there will be other booths taken by various non-manufacturing establishments. For instance, there will be on view some of the new British-made automobiles that are becoming so popular in Canada.

Trans-Canada Airlines will have a booth with a stewardess in it to give information on travel by air.

Prospective June brides are not being overlooked, either, as the C.G.E. cooking school, which will be a leading feature of the fair, is just made to order for them. There will be a baking exhibit and a lovely wedding cake will be raffled.

To top everything off, a real taste thrill awaits visitors to the pancake booth, where an expert at flipping the flapjacks will demonstrate how it really should be done in the great out-of-doors.

Plumbing Tariff In Effect By First Of May

Plumbing inspection tariff goes into effect May 1, as decided by the welfare committee of the council Wednesday.

These charges were included in the amendments to the plumbing bylaw recently approved by the council. They are briefly as follows:

No person shall do any plumbing job or work until a permit has been obtained.

Inspection fees: no charge for the two first inspections; for all subsequent inspections one dollar each inspection lasting 30 minutes or less; if such inspection exceeds 30 minutes there shall be a further charge of one dollar for each additional 30 minutes or part thereof.

All equipment, water, power and labor necessary for the purpose of inspection and test made by the plumbing inspector shall be furnished by the plumber in charge of the work being inspected.

Deposit Cheque

No person shall instal plumbing work of any kind in his own dwelling or in any other premises owned by him until he has deposited a certified cheque for $50 with the City Clerk. The cheque shall be returned to him when the work has been completed to the satisfaction of the plumbing inspector.

Installation of a main trap and breather pipes in either new buildings or alterations to existing structures may be made at the discretion of the owner of the building.

The following is an amendment to the building bylaw as adopted by council bylaw Monday: "In new construction or alterations to existing structures, any cutting of floor joists, beams, stringers or other timbers carrying loads, shall be done by a competent carpenter in such a manner that the structure will not be weakened.

Clothes-Line Cads

Clothes-line thieves are at work in the northwest of the city where a number of residents have been missing clothes which have been hung out to dry. Stormont and Glengarry Sts. are the centre of attack. Bed linen and clothes have been taken from clothes-lines at night and residents are combining their efforts to catch the thief or thieves.

Request Aid Of Dit Clapper

Dit Clapper has expressed a willingness to join the Memorial Centre committee, J. A. Jebson, chairman, told The Examiner Wednesday.

The last 20 years or more of Mr. Clapper's full life in the NHL spotlight has been spent around the biggest arenas on both sides of the border. Now that he has retired from the management of the Boston team and is settling down as a citizen of Peterborough, it occurred to Mr. Jebson to try to enlist the Clapper experience in the cause of the centre, still in its preliminary stage.

Discussion with some of the members of the committee indicated that the idea was meeting with unanimous approval, and when it was put forth by the chairman, Mr. Clapper fell in with it at once.

Incidentally, there are little stirrings of activity along the centre front. The Council recently authorized the local Realty Board to get option on Burnham St. property that has been proposed for the centre site. Presumably that is now being done, and there is fair promise of quick purchasing action if the property owners keep their values at reasonable levels.

In the meantime, the Board of Works is asking City Engineer Chalmers for information as to the probable cost of soundings in the George St. lot opposite the wharf. The city owns that block, and members of the Council feel that the sub-surface conditions there should be definitely known before any decision is made to buy a location elsewhere. At least one other examination made of the footing conditions, and it was so unfavorable in respect to additional cost of construction that official thumbs have been turned down on that property since then.

It is understood that if City Engineer Chalmers can see the prospect of soundings at a moderate expense the Council may order them to be made, but may balk at the expenditure if the estimated cost of borings looks too high.

65 Plumbing Jobs Finished During March

Sixty-five plumbing jobs were completed during March, A. G. Metheral, plumbing inspector, reported at the meeting of the welfare committee Wednesday. At the beginning of April 442 jobs were unfinished. The number of inspections in March was 177—water tests 71; smoke tests 76; layouts 10; miscellaneous 20.

Thirty-one permits were issued during the month. Connections to the city sewer were: 5 new houses; 4 old houses; one new store and offices and one old house, discarding a septic tank.

Young Moochers Filching Cash At Milk Bottles

A wave of petty thefts from milk bottles and parcels left at the doors of houses has hit the south part of the city in the past two weeks. On Saturday Thomas Goudy, 741 Jane St. chased three boys who took 20 cents from a milk bottle which had been put out in front of his house. He caught two of the youngsters but the third escaped.

A resident of Lundy's Lane heard someone outside his house one day recently and upon investigation, found that $1.10 worth of steak had been taken from the milk box at the side of the house.

Another person living at the corner of Monaghan Rd. and Romaine St. lost a parcel of groceries for which he had paid $5.50 when they were stolen from the back of his house during the interval between delivery and the time he arrived home at the end of the afternoon.

One day this month a total sum of $1.65 was taken from milk bottle outside four houses on Bolivar Street.

Police say all these thefts are by young boys aged around 11 and 12.

Welfare Bill $3,221 In March

Peterborough's welfare bill for March was $3,221 as compared with $3,267.75 in March last year. The per capita allowance was $14.44 and a year ago $15.05. Number of recipients was 223 of whom 46 were heads of families, 117 their dependents; nine single men and 51 single women.

Assisted heads of families in March last year were 46, dependents 118; 8 single men and 45 single women; total 217.

Relief cost $10,375.37 for the first three months of this year plus $1,818.64 administration; total $12,194; payable by the province $4,347.97, and by the city $7,846.04.

City's welfare appropriation for this year $34,217.35, expenditure for first quarter $7,846.04, leaving $26,371.31 for the remaining nine months.

Recreation Projects In City Described

Using Peterborough as an example Jack Dane, Recreational Director, spoke to representatives of the Canadian Welfare Council, Recreational Division, in Toronto Wednesday on "Service Club's Relationship to Community Recreation."

Mr. Dane told of the types of projects being sponsored by the eight service clubs in the city. He explained how the service clubs study the needs of the community and then the facilities are developed to meet those needs.

Playgrounds and crippled children are two types of projects most successful from the point of view of the community, he said. Other types are music festivals, summer camps, Boys' Town and old people's recreation. He added that a service club generally feels that the work of a service club is to develop a short-term program. The danger of the project not being successful is lessened if the program is short, he said.

Types of projects least successful, he said, were projects started by one club and taken over by another.

Professor Alan Klein, School of Social Work, in his summary of the speeches said a survey should be made in each community to discover the needs. The survey would determine the material on hand, the need, and who can do the project best. He suggested that some service club do this.

SS No. 12, DOURO AND DUMMER

Douro-Dummer School Built By Volunteer Labor

One of the most recent additions to the Peterborough county educational system is the new schoolhouse, SS No. 12, Douro and Dummer, situated on the boundary road between the two townships. It replaces the public school on the same lot that was destroyed by fire March, 1945.

Residents of the school section have regarded the erection of the new school building as a community task, and volunteer labor has cut construction costs by an estimated $5,000.

The school, opened last September, is equipped with modern furniture and illuminated by the modern cross-lighting system. Hydro power is not yet available but the school has been wired in anticipation of the arrival of a power line in the not too distant future.

Since the school burned down classes have been held in the farm home of Mr. Carlow; at the time of the fire Miss Regina Killen was teacher.

Built on the same lot but shifted from the exact former location the school is of wooden frame construction and is insulated. The heating unit is hot air system produced by a coal-burning furnace in the basement. This is a departure from the old-fashioned box stove which was a fixture at one time in all rural schoolhouses.

Volunteer Labor

One of the unusual features of the new building is that it was designed and erected according to specifications decided on by School Inspector K. O. Birkin, and the local trustees. The men of the community volunteered their labor so the work could be completed as quickly and economically as possible.

So successful was the design that the Department of Education is using similar specifications for the new public school at Burleigh Falls.

The excavation for the foundation was done partly by hand and partly by using teams and scrapers. One carpenter helped with forms for the foundation and one other man who had a cement mixer was hired to help with the cement work. With those exceptions the work was done by residents. Often they worked until dusk to speed the construction of the modern schoolhouse.

Work commenced at about Christmas, 1947, and the new building was completed last September.

Trustees at the time the school was erected were Fred Bolton, Max Tedford and Rae Carlow.

The school is being used as a community centre for dances, box socials and other activities. Next year the Board of Trustees hopes to be able to build an outdoor rink.

Easter Mails In City Showed Big Increase

Eighty-one hundred more cards and letters passed through the hands of the local Post Office workers this Easter than last. In the four days before Easter this year the going in and going out mail totalled 68,900. Charles Lacheur, postmaster, said the number of Easter parcels sent this year greatly outnumbered last year's.

Mr. Lacheur disclosed today that the peak of the Easter mail was reached Thursday, April 14, with 19,000 cards and letters being handled by the local office. The peak last year was also reached on the Thursday before Good Friday. Sixteen thousand and seven hundred Easter greetings were sent to their destinations that day.

The figures for the first four days before Easter are: Monday, 15,500; Tuesday, 16,800; Wednesday, 17,600; Thursday, 19,000.

Obituaries

MRS. CHRISTOPHER LEWIS

BELLEVILLE, April 21—Mrs. Mary Jane Lewis, wife of Mr. Christopher Lewis, 236 Dundas Street east, died in the Belleville General Hospital on Tuesday after an illness of three months' duration.

The late Mrs. Lewis, who was in her 66th year, was born in England and was a daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Moore. Her father died some years ago. For 40 years she resided in this city and was highly esteemed by many friends to whom her death has brought much regret. In religion Mrs. Lewis was a member of the Church of England and was a parishioner of Christ Church. Fraternally she was a Past Worthy Matron of the Order of the Eastern Star No. 55.

Surviving her are her husband, her mother, Mrs. Jane Moore; one daughter, Mrs. Robert (Violet) Slavin, Belleville; two sons, Thomas C. Lewis and John J. Lewis, both of Belleville; three sisters, Mrs. Robert Buckingham, Toronto; Mrs. Mary McIntosh and Mrs. Elsie Norton, both in England; two brothers, Mr. Percy E. Moore, Peterborough, and Mr. Frank Moore, in England.

MARY ELIZABETH SPEARS

Funeral services for the late Mary Elizabeth (May) Spears, 56, was held on Saturday. Rev. Geo. Murray of Keene United Church officiated. Burial was at Little Lake Cemetery.

Miss Spears was born in Otonabee, going to Toronto about 17 years ago, where she died very suddenly on Wednesday following a heart attack. She was the daughter of David Spears and the late Martha Ann Huston and is survived also by one brother Roy Spears and a nephew Max Spears both of Otonabee. A sister, Audrey, and a brother Thomas predeceased her some years ago.

The pallbearers were: R. R. Stewart, Sidney Belfry, and Alex Huston of Otonabee, Floyd Curtis and Darrell Rose of Peterborough and Archie Ackinson of Smith.

4 More Families Move Into Veterans' Homes

Four more families moved today into brand new houses built by Central Mortgage and Housing Corporation. These are the latest completed of the 226 that are being erected here for rental by war veterans.

The total number now in occupation is 42. City council is considering the question of whether any further arrangement should be made with Central Mortgage for additional houses that are planned in the Corporation's 1949 building program. Application by the city must be made by May 15.

As a preliminary of decision, the council is trying to determine the prospect of continuing need of housing accommodation. To that end an advertisement has been published in the Examiner over the signature of City Clerk Outram asking war veterans who are still without suitable housing to register at Central Mortgage office on Hunter St.

It may be that families moving into the houses now in contruction, and gradually being made ready for tenancy, may leave vacancies which might be acceptable to others wishing to move. At any rate it is hoped that an early response will be made to the council's notice to veterans.

Reported Accidents But Failed To Wait

John E. Loucks, 301 Townsend St., was found guilty in city police court today of leaving the scene of an accident in which he was involved on Water St. April 1 and was fined $25 and ordered to pay $14 costs.

The accused described how his car hit the rear of a car parked on Water St. near the Bank of Montreal in which Thomas Ephgrave was sitting. He said he continued north on Water St. and telephoned the police on reaching Brock St. He also said he visited Mr. Ephgrave the same day and offered to pay for damages when the cost had been ascertained.

Mr. Ephgrave had asked for immediate payment, Mr. Loucks said, and he had refused to make payment until the damage had been assessed. The accused was represented by W. J. A. Fair, K.C.

Constable Harold Mesley had investigated the incident and Constable Donald McKay gave evidence of having received the telephone call at the police station.

Mr. Ephgrave said he felt a jolt as he was sitting in the car and saw Mr. Loucks' car continue along Water St. without stopping.

Child Knocked Down

On her way to meet her father as he finished work Wednesday at the Card and Paper Company, five-year-old Dianne McIlmoyle, 291½ Louis St. did not see a truck backing into the road. She ran into the back of the vehicle and was knocked down. Her face was badly cut and one leg was bruised.

The truck driver, Clifton Saunders, 594 Douglas Ave. took the girl to the clinic and she returned home after treatment.

DEFEAT EXAMINER

Sergeants' Mess cribbage players downed the Examiner team Wednesday night at the Armouries by a score of 4810 to 4654. Top honors were taken by the Sergeants with Sergeants W. Rankin and W. Gracie, first, with 838 and Sergeants F. Gant and S. Carpenter, second, with 825.

WIN BY POINT

In a recent cribbage night Legionnaires defeated the Bankers' Cribbage players, 5385 to 5384 on the night's play for six tables. First place honors were taken by Bankers Brown and Louden with a score of 937. Second and third places were won by Davies and Smelt of the Legion with 933 and Gray and Crellin of Legion with a score of 931.

LEAVE FOR IRELAND

Mr. John Allen, Reid Street, retired Peterborough merchant, left today for Montreal where he will board the Empress of France Friday morning for a two-months' stay in Britain and Ireland. It will be his first visit to his native Ireland since he left it 45 years ago. His brother, T. M. Allen of Calgary who has been visiting in Peterboorugh, is accompanying him overseas.

MOTOR SEIZES UP

A short circuit in a basement air conditioner at Cherney's furniture store, Hunter St., early on Wednesday afternoon, caused the electric motor to seize up. Smoke began to appear and a call was put in to the fire department. Less than an hour later firemen put out a grass fire at the rear of 166 Prince St., the residence of E. Found. Shortly after midnight a run was made by the fire truck to King Edward Park where a small blaze had started in a refuse can. It was quickly doused by firemen using a hand pump.

NURSING REGISTRY

Methods of drawing the attention of the public to the Community Nursing Registry which deals with nurses' requests during out of office hours, when the office of the Victorian Order of Nurses is closed, were discussed by the Peterborough branch of the Order Wednesday. Despite directions in the telephone book to call 20479 when there is no reply from the V. O. N. office, many people in need of nurse fail to see the instructions, it was stated.

Board Rejects Shortening Exhibitor Time

A proposal to reduce the number of days for the housing of cattle at Peterborough Exhibition has been rejected by the directors. Both beef and dairy cattle exhibits will be required to arrive Tuesday evening of fair week and remain until late Saturday afternoon.

Mr. Bert McLean, managing director of Lindsay Exhibition, had suggested a time concession to cattle exhibition in his talk at the annual meeting of Peterborough Exhibition in January. His experience during the last year or two, he said, was that some of the exhibitors wished to shorten their stay at Lindsay fair to two or even one day. He regarded that drastic change as a sort of fly-by-night display, a suggestion that would deprive thousands of visitors of seeing the cattle exhibits, one of main features of the Exhibition.

From the remarks of Mr. McLean it was understood that there was a growing disposition of exhibitors to shorten their absences from home and get their livestock back on pasture. Some of the Peterborough directors were inclined to agree with Mr. McLean in the general direction of the convenience of breeders. However, at the meeting of the local Board Wednesday night it was decided to carry on as in the past, and retain the livestock show for the full period of the Exhibition.

Hugh Stewart presided with almost full attendance of directors. Details of the prize list are just about completed and ready for printing.

Dr. Wm. Blackburn Heads Dental Society

Dr. R. J. Godfrey, professor in the department of prosthetic dentistry, University of Toronto, was guest speaker Wednesday at the annual meeting of the Peterborough Dental Society. His topic was, "Diagnosis and Mouth Preparation for Removable Partial Dentures." Dr. Godfrey's talk was illustrated with colored slides.

Dr. William X. Blackburn was elected president; vice-president, Dr. B. R. Smyth, and Dr. A. H. Ball is the secretary-treasurer.

A committee within the society, the public dental health committee, is headed by Dr. J. J. Craig. Others on the committee are Dr. Blackburn, Dr. Ralph Honey, Dr. E. M. Crough and Dr. Smyth.

Press Standing Guard Against Curbs

WASHINGTON, April 1—(AP)—The American Society of Newspaper Editors today was urged to stand vigil against press restrictions arising from "a growing tendency of some officials . . to forget they are the stewards of the people."

Basil L. Walters, executive editor of the Knight newspapers, told the ASNE convention in a prepared address at its opening here that this tendency is world-wide.

"Our duty as newspaper men is to act always as the eyes of the American public and to keep the eternal spotlight of publicity on all servants of the people—including the military," Walters said.

His report as chairman of ASNE's committee on freedom of information was a running account of the group's efforts here and abroad to break down "anything resembling intrusion on freedom of information."

Testing Rule

The ASNE, Walter reported, is testing a rule of the Baltimore bench which restricts the reporting of news on a court case between the arrest and the trial of the accused.

ASNE's president, Erwin D. Canham, has instructed William L. Marbury, a Baltimore lawyer, to represent the society in filing a statement concurring in the test of constitutionality brought about by four radio stations and the Baltimore News-Post. The Baltimore Sun papers also have intervened.

Walters indicated that the committee still is dissatisfied with the information policy of the United States veterans administration. After an inquiry by ASNE, the committee indicated that it feels access to information spokesmen is not enough.

"The basic right of access to public officials of any rank should not be denied on any matter of importance," the group said.

Harry Flinders Buried

Funeral service for the late Harry Flinders, 74, of 211½ Hunter St. W., was held on Tuesday at the Belleghem funeral home. The Ven. Archdeacon C. W. Balfour of St. John's Anglican Church officiated and pallbearers were William Fredenburg, Edward Thibeau, Harry Summers, Robert McFarland, Robert Arnott and Allen Gordon. Burial was at Little Lake Cemetery.

Mr. Flinders died on Sunday at his residence following an illness of several months' duration. He was born in Manchester, England. He had lived in Peterborough for the past 62 years.

Find Boy's Body On Ash Heap

DETROIT, April 1—(AP)—The naked and bruised body of a six-year-old boy was found on an ash heap behind a furnace in a hotel garage early today.

Police, identified the victim as George Counter, son of John Counter, factory employee, and said they were checking the whereabouts of known sex perverts.

A strip of cloth was twisted around the boy's neck. His head and shoulders were charred, and the face and neck were slashed.

Near the body lay a broken bottle. Police said this might have been used by a slasher-killer.

Police found the body after hours of search for George, who had been reported missing by his parents at 8 p.m. yesterday.

Detective Inspector George Kimball said his men were seeking in particular a 19-year-old youth whose companionship had been forbidden to George.

Give Demonstration Of Music In Schools

TORONTO, April 21—(CP)—A demonstration of school music was presented Wednesday night by young musicians from Hamilotn, Niagara Falls, Listowel and Toronto as part of the 89th annual convention of the Ontario Educational Association.

Though the concert numbers varied from chamber music to popular music, the audience's warmest applause went to the Hamilton Public School Festival Choir under the direction of Cyril Hampshire.

Listowel high school sent a boys' chorus of 30 voices while Niagara Falls Collegiate sent its senior choir of mixed voices.

Find Stolen Car In Collision

BRANTFORD, April 21 (CP)—A car stolen in Sarnia late Wednesday night was involved in a collision with two transports at Suicide Corners, west of Paris, early today and its driver is in custody.

With the driver, Frank Ottaway, 26, of Port Huron, Mich., were two Wallaceburg youths who were hitch-hiking. Ottaway was arrested by Paris Constable Charles Seedon three hours later on the western limits of the town.

The hitchhikers, Joseph Bennett and James Miller, both in their early twenties, were asked by Sarnia police to wait in Paris until they arrived this afternoon.

None of the occupants were injured and damage to the car was estimated at $600.

The two transport drivers, Robert Rutherford, and Ralph Young, both of Toronto, said that the driver of the car left the scene immediately and ran across a field.

Police have not yet learned the name of the owner of the wrecked auto stolen from the Sarnia parking lot.

Objects To Ministers Teaching In Schools

TORONTO, April 21—(CP)—The practice of ministers giving religious instructions in schools should be stopped, Dr. G. H. Thomas, United Church minister at Markham, said yesterday at the annual meeting of the Ontario Educational Association.

In an address to the urban section of the trustees and ratepayers Mr. Thomas said "resentment and ill-will are often stirred up by ministers who attempt to teach religion in schools, because of their bias in favor of their own religion."

Furthermore, "I object to ministers doing something for which somebody else—the teachers—are being paid," he added.

Ban On Political Parades Hits Labor Party Hardest

By ALAN HARVEY

LONDON, April 20—(CP).—The long arm of political coincidence tossed a boomerang at the Labor Party. In announcing a three-month ban on political parades in London, Home-Secretary Chuter Ede applied a check which will probably affect his own party more than any other.

The order means that there will be no formal marching this year to Hyde Park, home of soap-box oratory and scene of British Socialism's annual May-day demonstrations.

Instead of the traditional rally, Labor this year may be forced to content itself with a quiet meeting in a London theatre.

Parades outside London will be allowed and there will be no move to stop the old Queen-of-the-May ceremony at village carnivals. The ban on peaceful processions in London — one of the city's ancient liberties—came as a sequel to a noisy clash between Communists and supporters of Sir Oswald Mosley, pre-war Fascist leader.

The Communists stormed four buses in an effort to break up a Mosley parade. Fireworks crackled under the hooves of horses, and 10 mounties were injured.

Sorrowful Decision

Next day Ede told the Commons of the decision to ban parades.

J. E. Glanville, Labor member for Consett, asked why Mosley supporters were allowed to parade in the first place. "In view of the fact that we spent six years in fighting Fascism, why not kill it at once?" he asked.

Ede's reply was that the disturbance was caused by "the people opposed to the holding of the procession." He reiterated that a major difficulty is defining Fascism in a way that does not include other schools of political thought.

Some London newspapers pointed a moral The Evening News, Conservative, said that if "British citizens insist on giving support to alien creeds.....then we shall be compelled to watch our civil liberties being placed in danger in order to preserve the peace."

EXPENSIVE BEVERAGE

When first discovered and used as a beverage, tea cost from $30 to $50 a pound.

MERCY TRIP COMPLETED—The Government icebreaker Saurel, under the command of Capt. Louis Chouinard (inset), sailed from St. John's Tuesday night for Halifax after completing a mercy mission to isolated outposts on the east coast of Labrador. The Saurel was dispatched to carry $25,000 worth of food and supplies to these outposts when word was received settlers, including babies and children, were starving due to lack of supplies. The ice was so heavy the vessel took two days to complete the last eight miles of her trip to Labrador.

Drew Pays Visit To Grave In Newfoundland

ST. JOHN'S, April 21 (CP) — George Drew, National leader of the Progressive Conservative party, formally observed ties of kinship with Newfoundlanders Wednesday when he visited his great-grandfather's grave at an ancient fishing village.

Mr. Drew, ending a strenuous two-day campaign visit to Canada's new province, received a gala welcome at Port De Grave, settled in 1695 on the shore of Concept on Bay, from which his grandmother emigrated to Canada as a girl. It is the oldest continuous settlement in Newfoundland.

With a band of supporters and newspaper men, Mr. Drew drove some 150 miles Wednesday. He stopped at Carbonear and Harbor Grace as well as Port De Grave. Flags and bunting fluttered in his honor at many villages and roadside homes.

He addressed meeting at Carbonear and Port De Grave, and on some occasions left his car to chat with fishermen, farmers, storekeepers, housewives and children on the street.

In his speeches the national leader reiterated statements made at meetings in St. John's Tuesday. He called on Newfoundlanders to stand fast for provincial rights.

H. G. R. Mews, provincial leader of the party, said that at one time he and his supporters had considered the possibility of a Newfoundland Nationalist party but had discarded it in favor of greater co-operation with the Canadian mainland.

Says Teachers More Successful If They Mind Their Manners

TORONTO, April 21—(CP).—Teachers would be more successful if they minded their manners, thinks Dr. D. H. Russell of the University of California. Speaking yesterday at the 89th convention of the Ontario Educational Association, Ottawa-born Dr. Russell provided teacher-delegates with a list of mistakes teachers make in dealing with children.

He warned against the dictatorial teacher who could turn her class against her. Other teachers used "devices" for controlling the class, and ostracized children who didn't conform.

Among devices Dr. Russell listed were honor rolls, shaming the pupils, and the "throwing to the wolves" technique. This last device, he said, is effected by asking "What do you suggest we should do with Tommy for disturbing the class?"

The busy four-day sessions of the OEA convention end to-day, and most of the 7,000 delegates have left to prepare for the re-opening of schools on Monday following the Easter recess.

Other Speakers

Other speakers yesterday included Dr. L. Joslyn Rogers, Ontario medico-legal expert; Dr. Charlotte Whitton; Dr. T. W. Martin, Toronto Public Schools Inspector; L. S. Beattie, Ontario director of vocational education; Dr. W. R. Reek, president of the Ontario Agricultural College, Guelph; Dr. Sidney Smith, president of the University of Toronto; and Dorothy Wilkins, Oshawa Collegiate teacher.

Dr. Rogers said he believed many criminal acts are caused by some mental disorder — "some malfunction of the unknown areas of the brain." He added: "Certainly social behavior follows good health."

Dr. Whitton urged an "internal defence tax" to strengthen Canada's educational system, which was the "most essential pillar" of society.

Dr. Martin said over-talkative teachers do not give students a chance to express themselves. "How do you expect pupils to talk if you don't give them the opportunity," he said.

Machines and division of labor "have barred children from first-hand contacts with the processing of materials," Mr. Beattie said. They were being barred from a knowledge of their environment.

Farming Deteriorating

Dr. Reek declared that less than 30 per cent of Ontario farmers can be classed as "very good" at their work. Farming was better 50 years ago when it was done as an art, he said.

Criticism of Ontario's Royal Commission "smacks of ingratitude," Dr. Smith said. The Commission's work since April, 1945, was equivalent to 11 full months of work while a similar investigation by 10 committees in England took an aggregate time of 25 years.

Miss Wilkins, recently returned from an exchange position in an English school said Canadian exchange teachers would have to measure up to the high standard of work in English grammar schools.

Delegates yesterday learned of a Brazilian Government scholarship for post-graduate study at a Brazilian university. Valued at $1,200, it is open to members of the teaching profession with a university degree and applications are to be made to the External Affairs Department at Ottawa.

Dutch Fly To Canada

AMSTERDAM, April 21 (Reuters)—The first Netherlands emigrants to fly to Canada, a party of 49 adults, seven children and three babies, left for Montreal Wednesday. If this "experimental" trip is successful, it will mark the start of a long series of emigration flights.

Mayors Meet April 28

HAMILTON, April 21 (CP) — The Ontario Mayors' and Reeves' Association holds its annual conference here April 28-30. A report by Toronto's Mayor Hiram E. McCallum on Federal-Provincial-Municipal Relations will provide the basis for discussion.

College Founder Dies

TORONTO, April 21 (CP) — Brother Alfred, 74-year-old founder of De La Salle College here, died in hospital Wednesday. He suffered a heart attack last January.

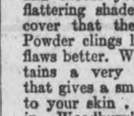
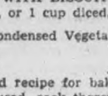
A WEEKLY INFORMATION SERVICE



MONTREAL, April 21st—Here's an opportunity you can't afford to miss! Such a wonderful chance to give your hair the "magic" flattery of the new KREML SHAMPOO! For just 10c, a 25c bottle of the new Kreml Shampoo is yours . . . and I'll wager that once you've used Kreml, you'll never again put up with drying shampoos that make your hair brittle and lack-lustre! The new Kreml has a natural oil base that leaves your hair "kitten-soft" and oh-so-easy to manage. And Kreml contains a truly marvelous ingredient called "Folisan" ® that makes rinsing "wink-quick", yet thorough—even in the hardest of water! Send one dime in a letter to me —Barbara Brent, 1411 Crescent St., Montreal, P.Q. I'll send your 25c bottle of Kreml Shampoo to you—post-haste—and you can discover for yourself how soft, sleek and shiny your hair can be . . . the lovely Kreml way!



Send For This Booklet and begin a hobby that will give you pleasure for many and many a moon! Everyone's talking about "A New Hobby From An Old Craft—How to Hook a Rug"! This booklet not only gives the fascinating history of hooked rugs in our country . . . but tells you exactly how to go about this pleasurable business of hooking them! It's fun! . . . inexpensive and easy . . . and such rewarding results! All you need . . . a set of wooden frames—burlap—bits of cloth or worsteds—a steel rug hook — colorful, All-fabric TINTEX Dyes and, of course — the booklet! Simply write to me—Barbara Brent, 1411 Crescent St., Montreal, P.Q.—enclosing 10c . . . and I'll mail your booklet to you "post-haste"!

Breakfast . . . A DULL Meal? Not if you serve delicious 5 Minute "CREAM OF WHEAT"! It's a dish that makes a "banquet" of breakfast . . . and for extra appetite appeal . . . you might like to add raisins, figs, dates, apricots or prunes to "Cream of Wheat" while it's cooking. Then serve with brown sugar and milk. M-mmm! . . . it's good! . . . and so good for you! For 5 Minute "Cream of Wheat" contains blood-enriching Iron . . . and it provides Calcium and Phosphorus for diets deficient in these elements. What's more—it cooks to delicious digestibility in just five minutes of boiling! Brighten up breakfast to-morrow with 5 Minute "Cream of Wheat"!

I'm Pleased As Punch to be able to tell you about this free offer! Yours for the asking are these standard-size recipe cards featuring 12 delicious ways to use LIBBY'S EVAPORATED MILK in your cooking! A real cooking "find" . . . for Libby's Evaporated Milk is so rich—it whips! It's pure, country-fresh milk with all the original cream left in and half the water removed. It contains all the top quality nutrients which you expect from whole milk—plus added Vitamin D—the "sunshine vitamin". So almost every dish you serve can be richer, tastier, more nourishing—when you use Libby's. Write to me—Barbara Brent, 1411 Crescent St., Montreal, P.Q.—for your Libby recipe cards that will bring you compliments galore on your cooking!

Free! . . . 75 wonderful recipes in a booklet written for you by the makers of SWIFT'NING! All you do to get your Swift'ning Recipe Book . . . print your name, address and send with one Swift'ning carton top to me: Barbara Brent, 1411 Crescent St., Montreal, P.Q. It's a recipe book that's a treasure trove of wonderful, easy recipes. Makes me hungry just to think about such luscious-sounding things as Creole Meat Shortcakes and Pecan Pie! The recipes call for Swift'ning—that new kind of shortening that makes everything you cook with it so extra-delicious! Martha Logan, Swift's Home Economist, tells me Swift'ning makes the lightest cakes—the flakiest pies imaginable and that it's digestible and nutritious too. Send for your Swift'ning booklet to-day . . . for recipes that will win you many a compliment on your cooking!

They Had YOU In Mind when they created these seven wonderful powder-shades! Yes, the Woodbury experts colour-keyed their NEW WOODBURY POWDER to your personality — whether you're blonde—brunette—red-head — or someplace-in-between! Be sure to see this famous powder and choose your favourite, most flattering shade. And you'll discover that the New Woodbury Powder clings longer—covers skin flaws better. What's more, it contains a very special ingredient that gives a smooth-as-satin finish to your skin . . . and it's mixed in Woodbury's new "super-blender" that whirls colour into powder and powder into colour at terrific speed. The result is fineness of texture and richness of shade that have made the New Woodbury Powder the 4 to 1 favourite of American women from Coast to Coast!

Here's A Recipe For A Happy Home, taken from the "BANK OF MONTREAL Cook Book"! . . . FAMILY-SIZE RECIPE FOR SAVING FOR HOLIDAYS, FOR EMERGENCIES OR OPPORTUNITIES!

1 Household Savings Account for Father and Mother
1 "Sunshine" Account for Sister's Holiday
1 Savings Account for Junior's paper-run money . . . preparing for college expenses.
1 Packet of Canada Savings Bonds held by the B of M.

Do not allow to cool or dry up, but pour in ingredients regularly. The recipe may be adapted to any size of family.

And, remember, all ingredients in this recipe may be obtained with the assistance of the friendly, helpful people on the counter at your nearest branch of the B of M!

P'haps The Sight Of The First Spring Crocus will inspire you to create such a dream as this! For it's hard to equal the downright deliciousness of an Angel Food Cake! My favourite recipe for this is found on the SWANS DOWN CAKE FLOUR package. Befitting the season frost it with a fluffy boiled frosting, tinted a delicate yellow, and dust it lightly over with shreds of snowy coconut. Remember, for feather lightness . . . exquisite tenderness be sure to use Swans Down Cake Flour, the cake flour that's sifted and resifted until 27 times as fine as ordinary flour.

Here's Soup To Please A Man—served with lots of appetite-appeal. Just try this recipe, made with HEINZ CONDENSED VEGETABLE SOUP—

MEAT PIE WITH BISCUIT TOPPING

½ lb. raw beef, diced, or 1 cup diced, left-over meat
2 tbspns. fat
1 10-oz. can Heinz Condensed Vegetable Soup
1 cup water
½ tspn. salt
Dash cayenne pepper
Dough for ½ standard recipe for baking powder biscuits

Brown meat in fat. If raw meat is used, cook thoroughly. Combine meat, soup, water and seasonings and pour into a well-greased casserole (5" x 8½" x 3"). Pat biscuit dough to ¼" thickness and cut with a 2" biscuit cutter. Arrange 8 biscuits on top of meat mixture. Bake in a hot oven (400 deg. F.) for 20 minutes or until biscuits are golden brown. Serves 2 to 3.

Yes, Heinz Condensed Soups are versatile . . . and popular! Four taste-tests, two among dieticians, showed an overwhelming preference for Heinz Soups over other popular brands!

Your Dinner Table will be wearing "Spring Green" when you add the crisp crunchiness of a green salad to your menu. M-mmm—luscious lettuce with just a sprinkling of baby onion slices and parsley! A salad like this deserves a MAZOLA salad dressing . . . like this:

FRENCH DRESSING

1 cup Mazola
½ cup cider vinegar
1 tspn. sugar
1 tspn. salt
1 tspn. dry mustard
½ tspn. paprika
Dash cayenne
Few drops Worcestershire Sauce

Place all ingredients in a tightly covered jar and shake well. Shake also each time before serving.

Have You Ever Noticed how accidents seem to happen to a brand new dress? Best way I know to be prepared for accidents of this kind is to have ENERGINE CLEANING FLUID handy! It's death to grease stains on fabrics of all kinds . . . yet absolutely harmless! Just follow the easy directions and watch grease spots disappear in a jiffy from dresses—hats—handbags—upholstery! Don't just take my word for it that Energine works like magic . . . get a tin at your drug or department store for as little as 25c, then try it for yourself.

Good News! . . . Shirriff's Gingerbread Mix is back again on your grocer's shelves! SHIRRIFF'S GINGERBREAD MIX combines in one package all the ingredients that made Grandma's gingerbread a "work of art"! Sugar, shortening, molasses, flour, eggs, baking powder, ginger and spices are prepared in a mix and packed in moisture-proof bags. Ready for you to add water—beat and pop into the oven! That's all there is to it—no fussing with ingredients—no bake day kitchen to clean up! And the RESULT: best gingerbread I've ever tasted!

If There Are Any Questions in your mind about certain aspects of feminine hygiene, here's a booklet that will help you! Simply write to me—Barbara Brent, 1411 Crescent St., Montreal, P.Q.—for your free copy of this booklet giving frank facts on this subject. I'll send it to you in a plain wrapper. Meanwhile, here's one fact I'm sure will be of help to you. Thousands of women have discovered a wonderfully safe, effective method of feminine hygiene . . . called ZONITORS. Dainty and convenient, these greaseless, stainless, snow-white vaginal suppositories are powerfully germicidal—yet absolutely safe to delicate tissues. Ask your druggist for Zonitors to-morrow . . . and send for your free booklet now, while the offer holds!

TROOPS BATTLE FLOOD—Repairs on an Assiniboine River dike near Poplar Point, 45 miles west of Winnipeg, are rushed by the Canadian Army. Assistance of the soldiers was asked to help close the break which inundated a wide area of farmland. This army photo shows the men as they worked through the Easter week-end to complete their first flood assignment this year.

Plan Improved Street Lights

NORWOOD, April 21 — (ENS) —At a special meeting of the Norwood village council and Norwood Hydro Commission Monday evening, it was decided that the clerk, Richard Dean, should contact the Hydro Electric Power Company regarding the rating on the changeover to new and better lighting fixtures for the village. A meeting of the council followed.

The clerk was also instructed to insert a notice in the local paper regarding daylight saving time, to commence Sunday, April 24.

A letter was read from the Marmora municipal council, asking that Norwood join with them to petition the Department of Highways regarding the completion of that part of No. 7 Highway between Norwood and Madoc.

The budget was presented and after recommendation that one or two changes be made, it will be presented for final approval at the regular meeting of the council in May.

Honored By Choir

After the evening service in Norwood United Church on Sunday the choir and the board of the church gathered in the basement where light refreshments were served. Rev. E. E. Pugsley was master of ceremonies. Mr. and Mrs. Walter Webb were presented with a tri-lite lamp by Earl Bongard and Wm. Stares read an address. Mr. Webb, president of the choir, made suitable reply. Mr. and Mrs. Webb and family are leaving Norwood to live in Haliburton.

Mrs. James R. Baskin was hostess at her home recently at an afternoon tea in honor of Mrs. A. Goheen, who will be leaving the village some time in May. During the afternoon Mrs. A. A. MacRoberts presented Mrs. Goheen with a lace tablecloth.

Hold Enjoyable Dance

About 60 members of Norwood Teen Town had an enjoyable evening of modern dancing in the Town Hall on Thursday. Miss Betty Baker was pianist for some of the dances. Mr. and Mrs. Johnnie Hamblin and Mr. and Mrs. Frost were chaperones. Prizes were awarded various dances. Winners were Jack Lynden and Jean Webb, Marvyn Scott and Hazel Kelly, Hartley Morrison and Vera Mathews.

Little Donna Webb, Sunday School pupil in Miss Lila Kirk's class at Norwood United Church, was pleasantly surprised to receive a going away gift of a book. Miss Roxie Andrews read the address and Miss Gail Baker made the presentation.

Snow And Rain Cause Delay In Seeding

DOWNEYVILLE, April 21 — (ENS)—The recent rains and snow have held up the farmers in their spring seeding. A number had ground all ready to sow, but now it will be some time until the ground will be dry enough to get ready again.

The trapping season is over and the catch was small along Pigeon Lake. There was no rain when the "rats" were running. The cold nights also made the trapping not as good as usual. The prices are not as high as last year and the trappers will not make much this year.

Jean Johnston Marries Formerly of This City

In the Chapel of Deer Park United Church, Toronto, on Wednesday evening, Catherine Jean Johnston, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Frederick E. Johnston of Chatham and formerly of Peterborough, became the bride of Mr. John Fernsley Gravely, son of Mr. and Mrs. Thomas G. Gravely of Cooksville.

Standards of pink and white snapdragon flanked candelebra for the ceremony performed in candlelight by the Rev. Dr. C. V McLean of Emmanuel College, Toronto. During the signing of the register Mr. G. Douglas Carlisle of Peterborough, sang "Where'ere ye walk." The wedding music was played by Mr. A. Gowan.

The bride wore an original gown of gardenia white faille fashioned with fitted basque, Peter Pan collar embroidered in pears, and long tight sleeves, also decorated with pearl embroidery. Faille cording molded the bodice, forming a central panel to the hemline. The graceful skirt featured unpressed pleats on either side of the panel, giving a redingote effect and fell into a short train. A beaded coronet headdress held her finger tip veil of tulle illusion and she carried a cascade bouquet of sweat peas, gardenias, forget-me-nots and bouvardia. Mr. Johnston gave his daughter in marriage.

Matron of honor was Mrs. William Hamilton of Hamilton, formerly of Peterborough. She was frocked in waltz blue faille styled with bracelet length sleeves with narrow cuff on a fitted basque, buttoned to the waist, with Peter Pan collar, and the skirt enhanced by soft box pleats. She wore matching blue gloves and a headdress of fresh flowers in contrasting shades. She carried a cascade of pink roses with forget-me-nots and bouvardial.

Mr. William Gravely was his brother's attendant Ushers were Kenneth M. Brown and Ralph H Johnston, Toronto, and Thomas Crane of Owen Sound.

For her daughter's wedding Mrs. Johnston wore a gown of French blue crepe with small floral hat and corsage of pink roses with lily-of-the-valley The groom's mother was in grey suede lace with small hat of purple violets and had a corsage of purple sweet peas.

After the reception held at the Prince Arthur House, St. George St., the bride and groom left on a motor trip to New York, Washington and Virginia. For going-away the bride wore a navy fitted coat and skirt ensemble with hat of white straw and a corsage of red roses.

Mr. and Mrs. Gravely will reside in Mayfair Mansions. Toronto.

Pussy Willow Ball Held By IODE Military Chapter

The Pussy Willow Ball given by 57th Regiment Chapter, IODE, was one of the loveliest dances of the year. About 300 guests enjoyed the dance Wednesday evening in the Club Aragon. Large bunches of willow branches with soft grey "pussies" on them had been gathered to decorate the ballroom for this occasion, and [illegible] and bunnies in bigger-than-life size were on the back-drop of the bandstand.

Suggest Asking Grandmother To Baby-Sit

TORONTO, April 21.—(CP).—Grandmother may be the answer to the problem of what to do with children in farm homes when mother wants to attend the Home and School meeting down the road.

The problem came up Wednesday at the rural conference of the Ontario Federtaion of Home and School Associations.

Mrs. J. E. Richards of London suggested getting grandmothers and people whose children are out of school to do the baby-sitting.

Mrs. J. O. Arrowsmith of Toronto, was elected president of the Ontario Federation with Mrs. W. J. Wade of Toronto as secretary. Vice-presidents include Mrs. U. Jones, Oshawa, and Mrs. J. G. Thompson, Sault Ste. Marie.

District chairmen include Mrs. G. C. Irvine, Niagara Falls; Mrs. A. H. Mulford, Stratford; Mrs. Frank Waugh, Jr., Owen Sound; Mrs. E. Chambers, Peterborough; Mrs. W. H. Finkle, Belleville, Mrs. J. D McIntosh, Kingston; W. A. Hill, North Bay; Mrs. W. R Keth, Sudbury; Mrs. R. J. Desjardins, Port Arthur, and Mrs. Norman Howe, Dryden.

Recital of Song Well Received

Iris Whalon and Frances Clyke sang to a small group of friends Wednesday at the Public Library at a recital sponsored by their teacher, Thursa Williamson. Such opportunities for singing students to test not only their musical skill but also their confidence when entertaining an audience larger than the family circle are all too rare. The recital was a happy experience for the audience and also for the two vocalists who presented a program of solo soprano and contralto songs.

Handel's Art Thou Troubled was the first of a group of three songs with which Miss Whalon opened the recital.

Miss Whalon has a rich soprano voice which she controls with an ease acquired only by accomplished vocalists. At no time were there any traces of strain. Her interpretations of Haydn's Mermaid's Song and Schubert's Thou Art Repose, were followed by the Flower Song, the aria from Faust and Robin Adair.

Miss Clyke's contralto voice is less forceful but highly suitable for singing in a small concert room. She was equally happy singing negro spirituals, the gay Handel songs, Come Trip It, and Shakespeare's Sigh No More, Ladies. Miss Clyke is an accomplished soloist and she has an engaging personality.

Mrs. Elsie Flett was piano accompanist.

Kathleen Hales Is Bride Of Truman Morton

Mark St. United Church was the setting for a quiet wedding ceremony Wednesday afternoon when Kathleen Mary, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. W. N. Hales, became the bride of Truman Charles Morton, son of Mr. Stephen H. Morton and hte late Mrs. Morton, all of Peterborough.

The ceremony was performed by the Rev. E. W. Rowland and Mrs. Rowland played the wedding music. The church was decorated with bouquets of snapdragon and fern.

The bride was attired in a suit of teal blue tropical worsted with accessories in navy and wore a corsage of pink and white carnations. She was attended by her sister-in-law, Mrs. Theresa Hales who wore a gown [illegible] with navy accessories and corsage of sweet peas.

Mr. Orville Martin was groomsman for his brother.

After a reception at the bride's home, the couple left on a wedding trip to Georgian Bay. For travelling the bride donned a grey topcoat with her wedding ensemble.

Mr. and Mrs. Morton will live at 484 Driscoll Terrace.

Cradle Roll Enjoys Party

Sixty children were entertained in the primary room of George St. United Church at a Cradle Roll party Wednesday afternoon. They were mostly accompanied by the mothers who enjoyed their program of singing and readings, led by Mrs. W. Woodward. Nancy Chenoweth presented Mrs. A. Clarke, superintendent of the cradle roll, with a bouquet of tulips. Teachers served a delicious supper to the children and tea was served to the mothers. The tea table was lovely with yellow daffodils and candles. The tea was poured by Mrs. M. A. Fitzgerald and Mrs. A. Ingram. Table assistants were Mrs. S. Hayman, Mrs. G. Gatfield, Mrs. R. Smyth and Mrs. J. Tinney. Teachers assisting were Mrs. A. Clarke, Mrs. W. Woodward, Mrs. C. Sargent, Mrs. L. Brown and Mrs. A. Dainard. Three children's movies were shown by Mr. E. Ingoll, "Stanley takes a trip," "Along came a duck" and "Pup's Christmas."

Mark St. Girls Entertain At Lovely Tea

The annual spring tea and sale of home cooking and candy by Mark St. CGIT was a pleasingly successful event of Wednesday afternoon.

The tea table was set in the church parlors with a Madeira cutwork cloth, centred with a silver basket of yellow daffodils and snapdragon and flanked with yellow tapers in silver holders. Mrs. A. M. Partridge and Mrs. Harry Rome, mother of the group president, filled the tea cups.

Hostesses were Eleanor White, Alice Munroe, Connie Hildenbrand, Dorothy Huggins, Ruth Hendren and Margaret Rome. The plates were replenished by Hazel and Helen Lewis and Autumn Dubay, under convenership of Mrs. C. Logan, Mrs. A. Townsend and Mrs. L. Pepper.

Mrs. G. Eason, group leader, was general convener of the tea. The sandwiches were made by the girls.

Display tables were decorated in yellow and green for the Easter season and white lilies and fern were placed around the room. The candy baskets had been made by the girls and each was decorated with a yellow duck. Girls in charge of the sales were Claire Munroe, Ruth Brown, Marilyn Logan.

Miss Murial Rome, president, and Carolee Ferguson received the guests at the door. Gwen Pomeroy was at the treasurer's table.

Nurses Will Ask For Ruling On Therapy Giving

OTTAWA, April 21 (CP) — The Ontario College of Physicians and Surgeons will be asked for a ruling on whether nurses may give intravenous therapy.

Decision for the college ruling was taken at the final session yesterday of a three-day annual [illegible] of the Ontario Registered Nurses Association.

The nurses expressed dissatisfaction with present Ontario legislation which prevents them from handling their own affairs and talked over means of overcoming a serious shortage of nurses in the province. On the intravenous therapy question, the nurses decided to turn down a resolution which would have taken away from a nurse the organization's backing if she gave the intravenous therapy treatment and her patient died or suffered ill effects.

While the therapy, which involves giving treatment to the vein and bloodstream, has always been the work of a physician, there were cases where the physician was absent and the patient's life hung on the nurse's decision.

The delegates approved an amendment that the organization seek a ruling on procedure from the Ontario College.

Hastings Society Sponsors At Home

HASTINGS, April 21 (ENS)— The annual At Home sponsored by the Holy Name Society of Our Lady of Mount Carmel Church, Hastings, was held on Easter Monday in the Town Hall. The hall was gaily decorated for the event with Easter colours.

Dancing was enjoyed to the music of Art Jones and his Melody Boys of Norwood.

Spot-light dances were won by Miss Helen Shaw, Mr. Iden Bonds Jr., Mrs. Bill Quinlan and Mr. L. Humphries.

Patronesses were: Mrs. L. Keegan, Mrs. J. Powers, Mrs. M. Kerr, Mrs. J. Collins, Mrs. B. Lynch, Mrs. T. McMillan and Mrs. S. McKenty.

Grenfell Mission To Pack Bale

Annual meeting of the local branch of Grenfell Labrador Medical Mission was held Wednesday. Officers for the ensuing year were elected as follows: Honorary president, Mrs. W. R. Morris; president, Gordon Rutherford; first vice-president, Mrs. B. D. Hall; 2nd vice-president, Miss A. Robinson; treasurer, Mrs. F. M. Somerville secretary, Mrs. F.C. Anderson; conveners: industrial work, Miss Linden Hall; packing bale, Miss M. Rose; Christmas cards and stationery, Mrs. Anderson and Mrs. G. Reinhardt.

Work of the past year was reviewed, and plans made for a spring tea which will be held in the YWCA an May 18. The bale for Harrington Hospital, in Quebec Labrador, will be packed early in June. Hope was expressed that friends of the Grenfell Mission may contribute generously to this important work. In view of the alarming shortage of food supplies at St. Mary's River, upon which attention has been centred cecently, it was decided to include in the bale a box of tinned goods, such as milk, meat, and fruit juices, which could be held in readiness for a similar emergency, should such occur next winter.

Ice Cream 'Easter Eggs' Treat for Youngsters

During these Easter school holidays, give a little party for the youngsters. Colorful ice cream "Easter eggs" will be an edible sensation when served in a basket.

It's all a bit of effortless magic. From the corner store comes the ice cream in bulk (a happy way, too, of supplying those good dairy proteins, vitamins and minerals to your family's diet); out of a tin comes the moist coconut; and for the sauce, simply allow a box of frozen sweet ripe strawberries to defrost. Here's the way to put it all together:

Ice Cream Basket
(6-8 servings)

One pint each strawberry, chocolate, vanilla and pistachio ice cream (bulk), ½ pound small colored candy Easter eggs, 1 tin shredded coconut, 1 package frozen strawberries.

Store ice cream until needed in freezing unit of refrigerator with the control set at freezing. You can make the "eggs" in advance, or at serving time. Shape them from hard ice cream with a small ice cream scoop, a deep tablespoon or a round soup spoon.

Unless served at once, place them in freezing trays lined with wax paper and set control at freezing. Allow strawberries to defrost.

To serve: Line a typical woven Easter basket (8 inches in diameter) with cellophone, or with a deep glass pie plate or shallow baking dish. Fill the basket with the ice cream and garnish with colored candy eggs. Put coconut in individual dishes to form "nests" for the ice cream "eggs"; serve strawberries for topping.

For extra Easter atmosphere, serve the ice cream eggs with butter cookies made from your favorite recipe and cut out with a small bunny cutter. The bunnies may be frosted with a pastel-colored frosting or with white frosting and pink-colored frosting for the ears. For the eyes, use a small piece of raisin or cherry.

ELEGANTLY COOL—Two-in-one linen frock (left) has tricky removable white gilet revealing uncluttered afternoon frock with side-front pockets on skirt. Right, saucy black and white check gingham dressy cotton has new fan-tail back peplum flare. Designed by Jacques Fath for Joseph Halpert.

Norwood Chapter Honors Member

NORWOOD, April 21, (ENS)—Mrs. A. Goheen was the guest of honor at a special meeting of the 40th Northumberland Chapter of the I.O.D.E. in the Legion Hall.

During the afternoon, Mrs. Goheen was presented with a life membership of the Order. Mrs. C. A. Copp read the address and Mrs. Walter Bitten made the presentation. Mrs. Goheen very graciously thanked the members for the honor bestowed upon her.

Rev. E. E. Pugsley in a simple ceremony, dedicated the flag, a recent gift of Mrs. A. Wilden of [illegible] Walter and Mrs. George Bitten. Mrs. Wilden returned to England last fall after a short time spent in this community.

Mrs. R. K. Tedford sang a delightful solo, "Dear Land of Home" accompanied by Mrs. P. T. Rork at the piano.

For the tea that followed, the table was centred with pink and white tulips and white tapers. Mrs. W. H. Giffen poured tea. Hostesses were Mrs. C. A. Copp and Mrs. de C. B. Cutcliffe.

Millbrook News

Other Millbrook patients now in the Civic Hospital include Mrs. E. Weatherup, Miss Bella McCorry, Mrs. John Sloan . Walter Challice, who has been under treatment, came home recently, but is not yet back to normal health.

Ban on ... ... B copy .....

Parades outside London will be allowed and there will be no move to stop the old Queen-of-the-May ceremony at village carnivals. The ban on peaceful processions in London — one of the city's ancient liberties—came as a sequel to a noisy clash between Communists and supporters of Sir Oswald Mosley, prewar Fascist leader.

The Communists stormed four buses in an effort to break up a Mosley parade. Fireworks crackled under the hooves of horses, and 10 mounties were injured.

Sorrowful Decision

Next day Ede told the Commons of the decision to ban parades.

J. E. Glanville, Labor member for Consett, asked why Mosley supporters were allowed to parade in the first place. "In view of the fact that we spent six years in fighting Fascism, why not kill it at once?" he asked.

Ede's reply was that the disturbance was caused by "the people opposed to the holding of the procession." He reiterated that a major difficulty is defining Fascism in a way that does not include other schools of political thought.

Some London newspapers pointed a moral. The Evening News, Conservative, said that if "British citizens insist on giving support to alien creeds.....then we shall be compelled to watch our civil liberties being placed in danger in order to preserve the peace."

DOROTHY DIX

Avoid Loveless Marriage By Breaking Engagement

DEAR DOROTHY DIX: I am a girl 25 years old and have been engaged to a boy for a year. I love him dearly. We had our wedding day set and all arrangements made, when, two weeks before the day for the marriage I caught him out with another girl. He said he wanted to date some other girls so he would be sure how he felt towards me. He claims he still loves me and he comes to see me three or four nights a week.

Dorothy Dix

He means everything in the world to me and I have worried so much over the way he treats me that I have to take nerve medicine all the time and pills to put me to sleep at night. This has been going on for a month and he is still not sure how much he cares for me.

What shall Ido?

BROKENHEARTED GIRL

ANSWER: The only sensible thing you can do is to break your engagement with your fiance, for it is perfectly obvious that he has fallen out of love with you and that he is trying to sneak out of marrying you. As an old friend of mine used to say, "You can't help where your love falls," and it is to the young man's credit that he is offering you the opportunity to break the engagement, instead of being put in the mortifying role of being a jilted maiden.

Your play is to take the initiative and beat him to it. You be the first to change your mind, which is always woman's prerogative. Nail on your face the smile that won't come off, instead of doing the crybaby act. Thank God nobody knows how many tears we shed behind locked doors.

Be Honest With Self

The one person in the world with whom we should deal honestly is ourself, so face the bitter fact that this man over whom you are breaking your heart doesn't love you, doesn't want you, is tired to death of you. No man has to experiment with his emotions to know how he feels towards a girl. If he is really in love, it breaks out on him like the measles and he can't hide it.

Be wise and brave enough to break with your fiance who has ceased to desire you. It will hurt, but it will not be the heartache that being an unwanted wife is.

DEAR DOROTHY DIX: I am a girl of 15, very much in love with a boy of 18. Everything would be fine if he would only work, but all he does is to ride around on an old bicycle and dead-beat his food. He has had several good jobs, but he never stoke to them, and if he worked in a pie factory, he would stay there until he got his stomach full. Then he would lay off until he got hungry again.

I can't wait all my life for him to straighten up and make something of himself. What would you advise me to do?

SALLY ANNE.

ANSYER: Well, Sally Anne, being a practical - minded person myself, I would strongly advise you not to waste any more time on your deadbeat sweetie. Love is, of course, a beautiful and romantic thing, but, unfortunately, we cannot exist on romance alone. We get hungry and crave beefsteaks more than we do sentiment.

A husband who is allergic to work is a mighty poor bet. At the age of 15 you need not be in any hurry about getting married, and let me urged you to pick out a good provider when you select your mate.

✧ ✧ ✧

DEAR MISS DIX: I have gone with the same man for more than 20 years. I love him and I think he loves me. He needs me and I need him. Don't you think he should marry me so we could love and cherish each other? He is a sweet, devoted lover, but he has never asked me to marry him. He comes to see me all the time and is jealous if I go out with anyone else.

How can I force him to propose? I am sick of his stalling.

LONESOME AND PANICKY.

ANSWER: I don't wonder that you are lonesome and panicky, and assuredly you are also lacking in good, hard, common sense if you have wasted 20 good years on a man who not only has not popped the question, but who is also serving notice on you right now that he is never going to do it.

There is no use in asking WHY he doesn't do it, because the answer to that is obvious. He is utterly and entirely selfish. He wants your companionship, but he doesn't want to pay for it by supporting you, or curtailing his freedom. Have some sense and drop him.

Evening Dresses Highlights British Spring Fashion Show

By MURIEL NARRAWAY
Canadian Press Staff Writer

LONDON, April 19 —(CP)— Evening dresses are tops in British spring fashion shows—for they're coming down in price soon.

By the end of the year, the moderately priced creations should sell at £2 10s ($10) — even full-length, sequined effects —because of cuts in the administrative costs due to the end of rationing.

Dress manufacturers say the one thing delaying even quicker reduction in prices of all clothing is the "inadequate supplies of utility dress materials." But government spokesmen have promised greater production.

A favorite with all designers is the full-skirted ball gown with princess lines or bouffant skirt. It comes in slipper satin, brocade, grosgrain and moire with jewelled embroidery, an off-the-shoulder neckline or deep fichu.

Bianca Masca uses released fullness. A bolero-topped dress, cut slimly to the hips, has a very full overskirt tied round a low hipline with enormous front bow and definite "back interest."

Hartnell gives the mermaid line with intricate neckline and tremendous frilling from knee length repeated in a frilled shoulder cape. He offers attractive ceremonial gowns in slipper satin, grosgrain and tulle—tulle, especially for the young debutante.

Shipboard Model

For shipboard, he gives a grey-white polka dot with tremendous skirt, tiny belted waist; shirt-blouse top with tiny white collar and cuffs and matching bolero with white reveres.

A pre-1914 "hour-glass" dress moulds the figure, from a stapless shoulderline to the knee, where it cascades into a one-sided chou of contrasting frills.

There is much back-interest in loosely-flowing skirts, bustle effects, jutting fantail treatment below the knees and floating panel pleating.

There are beautifully draped chiffons and silks—with definite "early '20s" styling—by Worth and Stiebel.

Tulle is popular—especially with sequins. An example by Ravis, called blue heaven, has tremendous double tiered skirt with tight bodice covered by minute sequin patterning which is repeated on the shoulderless ¾ sleeves and reversed halter neckline.

The Wool Secretariat gives a lovely example in super lightweight pearl grey wool—cut in panels from bust to hem, it hugs the figure to the hips then flows softly into a full hemline.

For the younger set is the lightweight worsted pencil check or ballet length with round, off-the-shoulder neckline and tiny puff sleeves. It has belted cummerbund and very full skirt.

If your family doesn't agree you bake the lightest cakes with SWIFTNING® the New kind of shortening!

PINK SWIRL CAKE
Mixing time: 4 minutes

MARTHA LOGAN'S "HELPING HAND" RECIPE POINTS THE WAY TO SUCCESS

So, you've never made a cake? Don't worry—with Swift'ning and this beginner-tested recipe, you'll make a light, tender, beautiful cake! Just watch for the little hands—they warn where there's a chance of error.

Preparation: ☛ Have all ingredients at room temperature. Pre-heat oven at 375°F. Line bottoms of two 9-inch, or three 8-inch round layer pans with heavy waxed paper.

Ingredients: (Use standard, level measure)

2 squares chocolate
½ cup Swift'ning
2¼ cups sifted cake flour
☛ Be sure to sift flour before measuring. Spoon lightly into cup.
1¾ cups sugar
1½ teaspoons soda
1 teaspoon salt
1 teaspoon vanilla
1½ cups sour milk (or 1½ c. sweet milk + 1½ tbsp. vinegar)
2 eggs

Step 1: Melt chocolate over hot, not boiling water. Place Swift'ning in bowl. Sift together flour, sugar, soda and salt into bowl. Add vanilla and 1 cup of the sour milk. Beat 2 minutes—by hand, using about 150 strokes per minute; or at medium speed of electric mixer. ☛ Keep scraping batter off sides and bottom of mixer bowl with rubber scraper. After 2 minutes, scrape beaters or spoon and bowl thoroughly.

Step 2: Add the unbeaten eggs, melted chocolate and remaining milk (½ cup). Beat 1 minute. Scrape beaters and bowl thoroughly. Continue beating 1 minute. Pour equal amounts of batter into prepared cake pans. Bake about 30 minutes.

☛ When done, cake will spring back quickly when pressed with finger. Cool on cake rack 5 minutes; loosen sides carefully with spatula, invert on rack; remove pans. Cool thoroughly before frosting.

Pink Mint Frosting: In top of double boiler, mix thoroughly 2 unbeaten egg whites, 1½ cups sugar, 5 tbsps. water, and 1½ tsp. white corn syrup. Beat constantly over rapidly boiling water with hand or electric beater until frosting stands in a peak (about 5 to 7 min.). Remove from water, add ½ tsp. mint flavouring and small amount of red colouring. Beat until thick enough to spread. Tint 3 tbsps. of frosting a deeper pink. Fill and frost cake, making swirls with back of spoon. Fill center of swirls with deeper shade.

You'll wonder how you ever got along without Swiftning You'll be delighted to find how much easier and quicker it is to bake light, fine-flavoured, fresh-keeping cakes with new Swift'ning, and you just won't believe you can make such tender fluffy crusts till you try this new kind of shortening. Swift'ning keeps without refrigeration. Get Swift'ning today! It's digestible and nutritious too!

6—In Memoriams

ARMSTRONG—In loving memory of my dear brother Jimmy, who died two years ago to-day, April 21, 1947.
Oft, we think of you dear brother
And our hearts are filled with pain
Oh, this earth would be a heaven
Could we hear your voice again.
Two years have swiftly passed away
But still we don't forget,
For in our hearts that loved you
Your memory lingers yet
—Always remembered and sadly missed by sister Kay and brother in-law Justen.

ARMSTRONG— In loving memory of our dear little son, Jimmy, who passed away suddenly April 21, 1947.
We who loved you sadly miss you.
As it dawns another year.
In our lonely hours of thinking
Thoughts of you are ever near.
—Ever remembered by Mum, Dad and sister Gwyneth.

ARMSTRONG—In loving memory of our dear little friend, Jimmy, who passed away suddenly April 21, 1947.
O happy hours we once enjoyed
How sweet their memory still.
—Ever remembered by Mr and Mrs Weir and Phil.

ARMSTRONG—In loving memory of my dear brother Jimmy who passed away 2 years ago April 21, 1947.
You're not forgotten dear brother
Nor ever shall you be
As long as life and memory last
We shall remember thee
—Ever remembered by sister Frances, Ronald and family.

BROMELL—In loving memory of Ella Lavine Bromell, who passed away one year ago today.
Sleep on beloved, sleep and take thy rest;
Lay down thy head upon the Saviour's breast;
I loved thee well, but Jesus loved thee best,
Good-night! good-night! Good-night!
We say "Good-night" here, but "Good-morning" up There.
—Remembered always by her loving husband, Walter.

BURNHAM—In loving memory of Sargent Jake Burnham who died at Prince George six years ago today.
Six years have past, since that sad day,
When one we loved was called away,
God took him home, it was his will
Within our hearts, he liveth still.
—Sadly missed by Mom, Dad, and family.

McILMOYL — In loving memory of our dear father and grandfather, Wm. Edger McIlmoyl, who passed away April 21, 1947.
Nothing can even take away
The love a heart holds dear.
Fond memories linger every day
Remembrance keeps him near.
—Ever remembered by Willis and family.

McILMOYLE — William Edger who passed away April 21st 1947.
The rolling stream of life goes on,
But still the vacant chair
Recalls the time, the voice, the smile
Of him who once sat there.
—Sadly missed by a friend

PETITION ASKING COUNCIL TO REPEAL
BY-LAW RE
CLOSING HOURS FOR RETAIL GASOLINE SERVICE STATIONS

On file at my Office in the City Buildings is a Petition asking the Council to REPEAL BY-LAW 4701, entitled "A By-law to Require the Closing of Retail Gasoline Service Stations, Gasoline Pumps and Outlets in the Retail Gasoline Service Industry During Certain Hours," which was passed on the 12th Day of July, 1948.

This By-law provides that all Retail Gasoline Service Stations, Gasoline Pumps and Outlets in the Retail Gasoline Service Industry within the City of Peterborough shall be Closed and Remain Closed:

(1) On each Monday, Tuesday, Wednesday, Thursday, and Friday, during the whole year between the hours of Seven o'clock in the Afternoon of each such Day and Seven o'clock in the Forenoon of the next following Day.

(2) On each Saturday during the whole of the year between Seven o'clock in the Afternoon and Seven o'clock in the Forenoon of the next following Monday;

That the Council may issue Permits authorizing 15% of the Shops to remain Open notwithstanding the By-law, during the Hours of 10 a.m. and 5 p.m. on Sundays and between 7 p.m. and 10 pm Monday to Saturday inclusive, immediately following the said Sundays;

And that any such Shops which have been Open and have maintained complete twenty-four hours Emergency Road Service for 365 consecutive days prior to the 1st Day of April, 1948, shall be entitled to obtain a Permit to Remain Open twenty-four hours a day of every day of the year so long as such Shop continues to maintain a complete Emergency Road Service.

This Petition asking that By-law 4701 be repealed is signed by the Proprietors of a number of Retail Gasoline Service Stations. Also on file at my Office is a List prepared by the Police Department of all Retail Gasoline Service Station Operators in the Municipality.

Both Lists will Remain Open for Inspection until 5 o'clock, April 28, 1949. Any objections to the Application or the List, or the names appearing thereon must be filed with me within One Week from this date.

E. A. OUTRAM,
City Clerk.

Union Begins Wage Talks

TORONTO, April 21 — (CP)— Steelworkers' wage negotiations resume to-day at the Ontario Parliament Buildings with Chief Conciliation Officer Louis Fine presiding. The wage and contract talks involve the Steel Company of Canada and the United Steelworkers of America (CIO).

Sources close to the negotiations said there are prospects of a company wage offer being placed before the union, which seeks a 27½-cents-an-hour wage boost for 5,000 production workers. So far, no company offer has been made.

The increase proposed by the union would bring the basic rate to $48.50 for a 40-hour week in place of the present minimum of $45.12 for 48 hours.

At Sault Ste. Marie, Ont., negotiations between the Algoma Steel Corporation and the union start to-morrow. For the 4,500 workers at the Sault, the union is asking a $48.60 weekly minimum—an increase of $3.48—plus a 40-hour week instead of the present 48 hours and a pension

U.S. Consul-General Stresses Friendship

COBOURG, April 21 (ENS) — H. Earl Russell, American Consul-General at Toronto, was the speaker at Kiwanis International Goodwill Night held in the Baltimore Hotel. The speaker commented on the strong spirit of friendship and goodwill existing between Canada and the United States, a relationship which was unique and an object lesson to troubled countries abroad.

"Each nation, Canada and the United States, has strong national pride and a keen sense of independence, yet at the same time each respects the rights of the other country. May this condition always prevail," Mr. Russell declared.

P.C. Executive Council Plans Parley May 9

OTTAWA, April 21 (CP)—The national executive council of the Young Progressive Conservative Association, representing ten provinces across Canada, will meet in Ottawa May 9 to discuss organization plans for the forthcoming election.

The nine-man council will meet with the nine provincial Y.P.C. presidents, a representative from Newfoundland, and national organizers, during the two-day conference.

The group will also meet with Opposition Leader George Drew and J. M. MacDonnell, president of the national party.

Dozen Officers Board Freighter

HALIFAX, April 21 (CP) — A dozen officers boarded the strike-bound freighter Mont Sandra under police escort today and indications were that the vessel would be moved away from her berth later today.

Members of the striking Canadian Seamen's Union (TLC) on picket duty on the pier made no attempt to stop the officers.

The Mont Sandra is one of two strike-bound ships remaining in Halifax. The other is the freighter Dufferin Bell. The Seafarers' International Union (AFL) said yesterday SIU crews would man the two vessels. SIU crews have already sailed four formerly strike-bound ships out of Halifax.

Constable Arrested As Robbery Suspect

MONTREAL, April 21 (CP) — Provincial Police today said they have taken into custody Constable Rosario Therrien, 33, for six years a member of the St. Jerome police force, as a suspect in the robbery of four banks during the last two years.

Total amount involved was said to be about $7,000.

Police said they suspect Therrien of being the man who robbed a bank at Oka, Que., of $2,000 a few days ago.

High Income Group Small In Australia

SYDNEY, Australia, April 21— (CP)—Only three per cent of wage-earners in Australia earned more than $3,200 during the financial year 1945-46.

Figures just released show that these 63,313 higher income earners were paid 16 per cent of all incomes paid during the year. On top of that they paid 37.5 per cent of all income tax.

Biggest number of taxpayers were in the low income group who earned between $640 and $1,600 a year. This group numbered 1,286,121 or 62.65 per cent of Australia's 2,052, 926 taxpayers. There were 484,365 persons earning less than $640 a year.

Safety Pin Idea Netted Inventor Trifling $100

By GEORGE LUCKES

NEW YORK, April 21—(AP)— One hundred years ago—April 10—a Brooklyn inventor got a patent for a remarkable household gadget. Nobody today remembered him, but everybody uses his product.

The man was Walter Hunt; the gadget was the safety pin.

Hunt never knew his invention may have antedated him at least 4,000 years (some say since the Bronze Age, more than 2,000 years B. C.) but nobody had ever tried to patent it, and he was given patent No. 6,281.

That should have put him on Easy Street—but Hunt needed money and within the short space of three hours he had conceived the idea, made a model and sold his rights for $100.

"Hunt had a good mind, but very little practical sense," said Joseph Nathan Kane, a writer who digs up historical characters and brings them back to life.

"He gave inventions away to pay debts, and he always owed money."

According to Kane, one day in 1948 Hunt wanted $15 to pay a debt. He rummaged around in his shop until he found a piece of brass wire about eight inches long. He pointed one end. Then he bent the wire and made a loop so that the two sides acted as a spring. He bent the other end and brought the point through it. It was a shielded safety pin.

Then he went to see a manufacturer named Richardson, who looked the gadget over carefully.

"I'll give you one hundred dollars cash," he said finally.

"All right," said Hunt.

"And [illegible] you'll apply for a patent and assign the rights to me," Richardson added.

A few months later, on April 10, 1949, the patent was issued.

This was the legal beginning of a contrivance that has served a thousand and one purposes. Safety pins, says the National Geographic Society, have been in use since the cave men era. The primitive lake dwellers of Switzerland and Northern Italy used them. Museums have numerous relics, made with typical spring catch. They disappeared from recorded history during the middle ages, but came back after the renaissance.

His most important invention was a lock-stitch sewing machine. Twelve years later a man named Elias Howe developed a similar device and Hunt lost the glory because he had neglected to obtain a patent.

St. Laurent Says Unity Needs Statesmanship

WINNIPEG, April 21 (CP). — Prime Minister St. Laurent told a gathering of 5,500 Wednesday night that Canada's unity did not come spontaneously but from conscious planning and patient building and he warned that it must always be "a great work of continuing statesmanship."

The Prime Minister declared: "We remain united only by conscious and deliberate policy..... We have built a united Canada, but we must strive constantly and consciously to maintain in the structure we have built."

Heading eastward, he moved into Winnipeg to climax his busiest day since he left Ottawa 12 days ago. He visited Rivers, Man., to have a brief look at probably the most important military training base in the country, and Brandon, Man., where he told an audience of 700 that Canada does not have to defeat its Liberal Government after 14 years of rule merely to get change.

There have been plenty of changes since 1935, he maintained, both in the Cabinet itself and in the country it governs.

Main Strength

At the joint Air Training Centre in Rivers, the Prime Minister saw the paratroops and airmen being trained for airborne brigade which will represent the main standing land strength Canada will have to back her commitments under the Atlantic Pact.

His evening address was mainly devoted to the subject of national unity and the role of the teachers in building it.

Primarily addressing the Manitoba Education Association, the former Laval University lecturer and son of a school teacher said it is the teachers "who have been the real builders of our nation." Further, they were the "master builders" who must continue to construct a Canada "which is a long way yet from the summit of its greatness."

Adjudged Insane

RAVENNA, O., April 21 (AP) —Three judges decided Wednesday that Mrs. Barbara McVeigh, 31, drowned her two small sons while insane. They acquitted her of first-degree murder. The verdict recommitted the attractive former Sunday school teacher to a hospital for the criminal insane for further treatment.

Killed In Jet Crash

WASHINGTON, April 21 (AP) —Representative Robert Lewis Coffey, Jr., Democrat from Johnstown, Pa., was killed Wednesday night when his jet fighter plane crashed at Albuquerque, N. Must Set Example

Peace and goodwill on earth, she said, will ultimately be realized only if we serve as living examples of the doctrine of Christianity. No "ism" can withstand it. No system based on purely natural concepts can offer to man the peace of mind, a pattern for living and promise of eternal life that is offered in the Christian faith.

Mrs. S. A. Grylls gave as a review of "The Big Fisherman," Lloyd Douglas' new book.

Mrs. Emerson Kemp and Mrs. Rath contributed a duet.

Suspended Sentence For Theft Of Hat

When Harold Shortt, 95 Aylmer St., went to reach for his hat after having a meal in a George St. restaurant on April 11, he found it had been taken from the peg. In city police court today Magistrate W. R. Philp, KC, placed Frank Murphy, Toronto, on two year's suspended sentence when he found Murphy guilty of stealing the hat. The accused, who admitted two previous convictions of theft, one of vagrancy and another of drunkenness, pleaded not guilty to the charge.

Lorne Northey, 199 Murray St., told the court that Murphy had sold him the hat in a beverage room. He said Murphy had told him he wanted some money in order to pay for a room for the night. He offered the hat for $1 and Northey accepted it.

7 Missing On RCAF Plane In New Brunswick; Searchers Scouring Area

Ottawa Aircraft On Routine Flight Unreported In Maritimes; Believe Plane May Have Been Forced Down

HALIFAX, April 22—(CP).—Planes took to the air today to start a dawn-to-dusk search for a missing RCAF aircraft with seven aboard. The plane was reported overdue yesterday on a flight from Ottawa's Rockcliffe Airport to Chatham, NB. The medium-sized plane, a Beechcraft Expediter, took off at 8.40 a.m. EST on a routine communications flight to Chatham. It last was reported over Presque Isle, Me., at 10.42 a.m., and was due at Chatham less than an hour later.

RCAF headquarters today released the names of three of the seven men missing.

They were: Wing Cmdr. B. H. Beck of Aylmer, Que., senior radio engineering staff officer; Wing Cmdr. J. H. Drury, Ottawa, construction and engineering staff officer; and Sqdn. Ldr. F. W. Darnell, Ottawa.

Names of the three crew members and one civilian passenger with the plane are still withheld pending notification of next-of-kin.

Scour Area

Searchers planned to scour an area extending across central New Brunswick on a line from Presque Isle to Chatham, a distance of 130 miles. This area includes the densely-wooded Miramichi and St. John River valleys. The district is sparsely settled and hilly.

Operations may be hampered by bad weather. The Halifax Weather Office said skies over the area would be cloudy with scattered showers.

Air Force officials in Ottawa said the craft may have been forced down somewhere in central New Brunswick and there wee no reports of a crash.

The plane carried emergency supplies. The Expediter is a single-wing, twin-engined aircraft used mainly for training and on shuttle services

Join Search

Six planes from Greenwood, NS, operating centre for No. 10 Group RCAF, search and rescue, and one from Rockcliffe were the first to join the search this morning. Two of the planes were Dakotas flown from Rockcliffe to Greenwood Thursday night.

By noon 12 planes had joined the search.

Four more aircraft came from Summerside, PEI, an another from nearby Dartmouth. Another Rockcliffe plane also joined the search armada.

Plans were made to bring at least five other craft into the hunt. Two American planes from Harmon Field, Nfld., and Westover, Mass., two more RCAF planes from Ottawa, and another from Trenton were called into the search.

Each plane was assigned area of about 500 square miles for intensive searching. Altogether, search and rescue headquarters here said, about 80 per cent of New Brunswick would be covered.

Charge 3 Men With Shakedown Over Bar Permit

TORONTO, April 22 —(CP)— Three men are to face charges in Niagara Falls, as a result of allegations into an attempted shakedown of a Niagara Falls club which sought a liquor licence.

Attorney-General Leslie Blackwell announced Thursday night that the charges had been laid against Leslie F. Gallway, 35-year-old St. Catharines taxi driver, and William J. Horrigan and Michael P. O'Connor, both of Toronto.

In Niagara Falls, Magistrate John B. Hopkins said he had not been advised of the date of the men's trials.

Gallway is accused of obtaining money by false pretences. Horrigan and O'Connor are charged with conspiracy and obtaining money by false pretences.

The Attorney - General said Gallway represented himself as an official of the Niagara Peninsula branch of the "Young Men's Conservative Movement of Canada" when he allegedly offered—for a price — to help a Niagara Falls club obtain a liquor licence.

No Such Organization

Mr. Blackwell said there was no organization known as the Young Men's Conservative Movement of Canada in Ontario. But investigation indicated that name was used by certain persons to

Kitchener Plans New Auditorium

KITCHENER, April 22 (CP)— a five man building committee was named Thursday night to sit with architects on plans for the Memorial Auditorium. It is expected the building will seat 6,000 and cost about $750,000.

Ratepayers voted $450,000 for the project in 1945. The additional money necessary due to rising building costs will be partially met by public subscription, it is expected. The K-W Junior Chamber of Commerce will conduct the campaign.

Jenkins and Wright, Kitchener architects, will draw the exploratory plans.

The sub building committee named Thursday night includes contractors Harold Ball and Albert Dunker, Mayor Washburn, and Aldermen Henry Sturm and Harry Ainlay.

Fence Guarding Shanghai

Passenger Ships Leave Port Booked To Limit

SHANGHAI, April 22 (AP) — Passenger ships leaving Shanghai today were booked to the limit as Communist troops crossed the Yangtze river less than 100 miles from Shanghai.

The American and British Consulates, however, have not sent any further notice to their nationals to evacuate the city. Long ago they were advised to get out.

The Whangpoo river's famed battleship row contained only two ships tonight—Vice-Admiral Oscar C. Badger's flagship, the United States command ship Eldorado, and a British sloop. Across the river on the Pootung side was a small French destroyer.

Shanghai itself reacted dully to the news of the crossings of the Yangtze. This once-great treaty port has been so mauled by depression, inflation, misery and want that it seems to lack spirit.

Garrison troops, meanwhile, have erected a new defence—a 35-mile wooden fence around Shanghai.

The fence is made of poles driven into the ground by hand. It is punctuated by pillboxes, mostly made of mud. But at least the fence could not hold up Communist troops more than a few minutes, if at all.

In fuel-short Shanghai, where even wisps of straw are used to cook rice, it is amazing the wooden fence has not been torn down by coolies for firewood.

15 Eskimos Die Sound SOS In Epidemic

OTTAWA, April 22—(CP). — Health Department officials today rushed aid to the tiny Arctic Circle community of Cambridge Bay to combat a fatal influenza epidemic which has swept through the native population, killing 15 Eskimos in the last week. Officials fear the disease, which struck suddenly about a week ago, may be dangerous to the white population as well.

Dr. F. P. Negler, an outstanding virologist who recently joined the Department's hygiene laboratories, was scheduled to take the next available RCAF plane to the stricken area, about 175 miles inside the Arctic Circle, 1,100 miles northeast of Edmonton.

Disclosure of the epidemic was made by Dr. P. E. Moore, head of the Health Department's Indian services, yesterday at a meeting of the Northwest Territories Council, which administers affairs of the territories.

Dr. Moore reported that the department doctor from Aklavik, Dr. J. C. Callaghan, who has been making an X-ray survey of a wide area, had been sent to Cambridge Bay. He had set up an emergency hospital at which 10 Eskimos were being treated.

Appeals for Nurses

Dr. Callaghan made an urgent appeal for more help, particularly drugs and nurses.

Scheduled to leave Edmonton to-day was Dr. J. P. Harvey, who previously served at Aklavik, two nurses and a supply of antibiotics and sulfa drugs. Dr. Negler will follow as soon as possible.

So far, no white persons have been reported afflicted. The RCAF station comprises about 30 personnel.

However, Dr Moore described the disease as "a rapidly-fatal type similar to that which swept the country after the First World War, there was cause for "much alarm."

Jury Reduces Charge Now Manslaughter

TORONTO, April 22 —(CP)— Mrs. Grace McDonald, 25, will be sentenced April 27 for manslaughter in the paring-knife stabbing of her 27-year-old husband.

A jury reduced the charge against her from murder to manslaughter and convicted her late yesterday. It recommended mercy for the mother of a two-year-old boy.

During the three-day trial, evidence was introduced that Mrs. McDonald was an epileptic and had been repeatedly beaten and maltreated by her husband, even while she was pregnant.

Goes To Guillotine

PARIS, April 22 (Reuters) — Germaine Leloy refused the traditional glass of rum and a cigarette when she went to the guillotine at Angers, western France, yesterday for murdering her sleeping husband with an axe. Her execution was the first recorded guillotining of a woman in the town.

Reds Span River Near Nanking

NANKING, April 22—(AP).—South Yangtze Valley ports, cities and towns fell like clay pigeons today before a mounting Communist onslaught. So weak was government opposition that wholesale desertions to the Communists were feared. Foreign military observers said a general troop withdrawal may have been ordered. Nanking was fast emptying of officialdom. High-level Chinese, wearing white helmets for the tropics and many swinging tennis raquets, bolted for departing planes.

Acting President Li Tsung-jen, Premier To Ying-chin and Gen. Pai Chung-hsi, commander of the central front, flew to Hangchow for an important meeting with retired President Chiang Kai-shek. Chiang may be asked to take over the government again.

Most important cities below the Yangtze in Communist hands were Kiangyin, 85 miles east of here, Kweichih, 130 miles southwest, and dozens of lesser places between Wutu, 60 miles southwest of here, and Anking, 150 miles south-west.

March to Sea

From Kweichih the Communists could march straight to the sea at Hangchow, less than 200 miles away. Such a move would isolate Shanghai and Nanking to the north.

The Communist radio said 300,000 troops had swarmed over the river in small wooden boats between Wuhu and Anking alone. This figure probably was exaggerated.

Fires from Communist shells burned in Pukow, across the river from Nanking. The capital's populace was not excited as most people had become resigned to the capture of the capital.

The Foreign Office urged the foreign embassies to follow it to Shanghai or Canton

The government forces, stretched thinly over 600 miles of river front, seemed powerless to check the Communist tide.

Merchant Fined $100,000 For Trying Tax Evasion

MONTREAL, April 22—(CP).—Albert Sansoucy, wealthy textile merchant, today was sentenced to $100,000 in fines or 2½ years in prison on five charges involving $1,000,000 in tax evasion by himself and his company. Ten other charges of income-tax evasion brought by the Department of National Revenue after more than two years of investigation were withdrawn by the prosecution.

Through counsel a month ago Sansoucy pleaded guilty to the five charges.

Two of the five charges were against Albert Sansoucy, Ltd., and the others against Sansoucy personally.

Sansoucy, married and father of three children, was fined $60,000 on one income-tax evasion, with an alternative of 18 months in jail.

On two other similar charges he was fined $15,000 each, or six months in jail on each count.

Against Company

The remaining two charges, involving violation of the excess-profits tax act, were against the company. On these Judge Fontaine assessed a fine of $5,000 each.

Sansoucy has 60 days to pay the fines on the personal convictions and the company was allowed 15 days to pay the total of $10,000 it was fined.

It was believed in Montreal that the fines constitutes a record in Canada for tax evasions.

Sansoucy's affairs came into the news following accidental discovery in December, 1947, of a safety box cache.

Toronto Mayor May Be Candidate

TORONTO, April 22 (CP) — Mayor Hiram E. McCallum of Toronto said today "I will let my name stand" if nominated for the provincial leadership of the Ontario Progressive Conservative party at is convention here next week.

If Mayor McCallum enters the race, it will bring the number of candidates to five.

Already in the leadership race are Provincial Treasurer Leslie Frost, Attorney General Leslie Blackwell, Education Minister Dana Porter, and Kelso Roberts, a Toronto lawyer.

DISMISS CHARGES

LONDON, April 22—(CP).—A London magistrate's court today dismissed charges of neglect of duty brought against 80 striking members of the crew of the Canadian Pacific steamer Beaverbrae, tied up in London by the Canadian Seamen's Union strike.

Opera Singer John Garris Murdered On Atlanta Tour

ATLANTA, April 22.—(AP).—There were neither encores nor applause today for the deepest role of tragedy ever portrayed by the Metropolitan opera singer John Garris.

If there had been, the 35-year-old native of Germany, would not have heard them. He lay slain, in Atlanta's morgue, while police sought to provide the supporting cast for his fatal last role.

Garris was shot to death Wednesday night. His body was found lying in a dank alley early yesterday.

The police, hardened to hoodlum killings, saw a touch of artistry in the death of the foreign-born opera tenor. His protagonist aimed at his heart. It was not a gangster's crude or random shot.

A steel-jacketed bullet had pierced the heart.

Nor was it a crime for momentary gain. Garris' purse with $20 in it was near the body. A costly wrist watch was on his arm.

Instead, there were fantastic and theatrical touches. Garris was hatless and coatless when a negro porter, Love Thomas, on his way to work, found him dead. The singer's coat, unpierced by a bullet, and his hat were found stop a garbage can three blocks away.

The rest of the Metropolitan Opera Company, after three nights in Atlanta, were en route by train for Memphis Tenn., when the tragedy broke. Police questioned the members briefly, then released them for their one-night Memphis appearance, in "Lucia Di Lammermoor."

Detectives said the singer was apparently shot to death in an automobile in the gloomy, stone-walled warehouse district and the body later laid out in the alley.

Arrest 23 Of Crew On Canadian Ship

WELLINGTON, N.Z., April 22 (CP)—Police today arrested 23 crew members of the strike-bound Canadian freighter Tridale. The men were charged with disobeying a lawful command of the captain. All were remanded to April 27.

Police boarded the vessel to arrest some of the seamen while others were picked up ashore.

The Tridale crew went on strike last week as instructed by the Canadian Seamen's Union (T.L.C.). The C.S.U. called the strike on Canadian-flag ships operating out of east-coast Canadian ports when the ship owners signed a contract with the rival Seafarer's International Union (A.F.L.).

British Sloop Still Trapped By Red Artillery

SHANGHAI, April 22.—(CP) —The Royal Navy sloop Amethyst, crippled by Chinese-Communist gunfire, was fired on again today as she tried to sail up the Yangtze river.

The Amethyst has been trapped by the Communist force's guns for the last three days. Three other Royal Navy ships have been blasted by the Communist guns.

There was no immediate word of casualties from the shelling of the Amethyst late today.

The vessel was reported out of Communist gun range but unable to proceed down the river because of threatening shore batteries on the 150-mile course to Shanghai. Earlier there had been some indication the sloop might try for a night escape.

Three other British men-of-war who tried to go to the Amethyst's relief lay at Shanghai wharves, crippled by Communist shellfire. All four had fired back on their attackers.

It was reported reliably that the Constance now was en route from Hong Kong, and that the British cruiser Belfast also may be brought up

British naval authorities tonight counted 44 dead as a result of the Communist artillery attacks. Two of the wounded, including the captain of the Amethyst, were said to have died of their wounds. An estimated 82 were injured but that toll may be higher. It was not known how many Communist casualties resulted from British naval fire.

UEW Man Won't Talk, Gets 30 Days In Jail

CLEVELAND, April 22—(AP) —An official of the United Electrical Workers Union (CIO) yesterday was fined $1,500 and sentenced to 30 days in jail for refusing to say whether he was a Communist. Judges James C. Connell ruled Joseph Kres, 41, in contempt of court when he refused to say whether he was a Communist, or had attended Communist conventions. He had been charged with creating a disturbance on a picket line.

UK Admiralty Says Attacks Unprovoked

Foreign Office Admits Reds Not Told Amethyst Making Trip

LONDON, April 22.—(AP).—The First Lord of the Admiralty today denounced the Chinese Communist shelling of British warships in the Yangtze river as "an unprovoked attack deliberately carried out for what purpose we have yet to learn."

Viscount Hall addressed an audience at Cardiff, Wales. He said Britain has kept a naval vessel in the Yangtze at Nanking for some time "for the purpose of giving security to British people and for the purpose of communication."

The Conservative Evening Standard denounced the attack and said heavy reparations should be demanded from the Communists. The Conservative Daily Mail suggested British involvement in the Chinese war might be "inevitable" because of the attacks. The British public seemed unworried.

The foreign office acknowledged it had not told the Chinese Communists about the trip of the sloop Amethyst up the Yangtze before the ship was fired on by shore batteries.

The Foreign Office repeated, however, that the Communists should have been "well aware" that the warship was on a peaceful mission to provision the British Embassy at Nanking.

Face Criticism

Some diplomats suggested that the Admiralty and Foreign Secretary Bevin might have a difficult time satisfying their critics that they were wholly right in having a warship proceed between the two belligerent forces on the event of the Communist offensive. Communist firing on four British ships has cost the lives of about 42 seamen.

The Air Ministry and the RAF both in London and Singapore denied published reports that RAF planes in Malaya have been readied for possible use in China.

Diplomatic observers saw significance in the fact that Britain chose to seek a Communist cease-fire against the Amethyst instead of dispatching a stiff diplomatic protest, which she could have done without implying any recognition of the Communist regime in North China.

Asked if Britain would request the Chinese Nationalist Government also for a cease-fire, the Foreign-Office spokesman said he was certain "if those reports are borne out, a similar request will be made to the Kuomintang Government.

Boiler Explodes Blast Rocks City

INGLEWOOD, Calif., April 22 —(AP)—When a terrific explosion rocked this suburban Los Angeles city early when a boiler blew up at the Basin Oil Company's storage tanks.

There were no known casualties.

A series of smaller blasts followed, believed to be power transformers. The blasts fired a gas main, shooting huge flames sky-ward. None of the oil tanks caught fire.

The force of the blast hurtled the huge industrial-type boiler off the five-acre plant to a nearby street, an estimated 100 yards.

Labor Won't Fight—Pledge

US Labor Leader Rejects War With Reds

PARIS, April 22 (AP)—A labor leader from the United States today told the Communist-inspired world peace congress that American workers "will refuse to lay down their lives for Wall Street, Washington and the dollar."

Donald Henderson, International President of the Tobacco, Agricultural and Allied Workers Union of America (CIO), was given an ovation by the delegates when he said:

"The American working people will not be driven into a war against the Soviet Union."

Henderson called for a fight against "headquarters of world imperialism" which he said is located in Washington."

Henderson declared that the "common people" in the United States had withstood a "filthy torrent of anti-Soviet propaganda."

"They have not forgotten," he continued, "that their homes are inviolate because the valiant, great Red army withstood the monster of Nazism."

The patriarch Alexei, head of the Russian Orthodox Church, sent blessings to the Congress.

CSU Claims Win As West Coast Signs Agreement

By the Canadian Press.

The Canadian Seamen's Union (TLC) claimed its first major victory of the deep-sea shipping strike today following an agreement reached Thursday between the allegedly Communist-led union and ship operators on the Canadian west coast.

In Montreal Harry Davis, Union President termed the development "the beginning of the end for shipowners' attempts to smash the CSU." Terms of the agreement were not disclosed, but it [illegible] stalled a threatened strike that would have tied up 19 Vancouver owned freighters employing 600 crew workers.

David claimed the contract contained identical working conditions and the hiring hall clause rejected by operators on the east coast where the CSU called the strike 23 days ago when shipowners signed an agreement with the rival Seafarers International Union (AFL).

Box With Guns

In Halifax, RCMP produced in court a box stamped "Canadian National Railways" containing sawed-off shotguns, an automatic pistol and ammunition taken from a train at Moncton, N. B., where Pilgrim and several other ISU men were arrested.

Pilgrim is alleged to have fired at Hugh Felix of Halifax from the deck of a ship during a riot in the harbor April 8. The hearing was adjourned to April 28.

Expect UN To Approve Persecution Charges

LAKE SUCCESS, N.Y., April 22 (CP)—The United Nations today was expected to approve British-United States charges against Hungary and Bulgaria of violating the "human rights" guarantees under the peace treaties.

Strong support was lined up behind a Bolivian proposal to keep the question of the trials of church leaders in those countries before the general assembly.

The plan would defer direct U.N. action while Britain and the United States seek remedies through procedures provided under the peace treaties.

Hungary and Bulgaria have rejected British and United States protests that the human-rights clauses of the treaties were violated in the trials of Joseph Cardinal Mindszenty, primate of Hungary, and 15 Protestant church leaders in Bulgaria.

Canada, Australia and New Zealand have associated themselves with the protests. Those three countries will be consulted along with Britain by the state department as the next step in negotiations.

Fails To Remember

"I don't remember anything," Henry Greeniss, 959 Ford St., told Magistrate W. R. Philp, KC, today at city police court when he pleaded guilty to being drunk Thursday. A fine of $10 with $2.50 costs was imposed. Steven Sweeney, Belleville, also pleaded guilty to drunkenness and was also fined $10 and costs.

Hastings Council Approves Daylight Saving Bylaw

HASTINGS, April 22.—(ENS).—This community will change to Daylight Saving Time, effective at 12-01 a.m. Sunday, April 24, it was decided at a special session of the Village Council held on Wednesday evening, with Reeve A Orr in the chair. The village will go back on Standard Time again on September 24. Councillor Warrington's motion to adopt "new" time was seconded by Councillor Calbery. A new Daylight Saving Time bylaw, No. 880, was also passed and signed by the reeve and clerk.

On motion of Councillors Mulholland and Calbery, L. W. Humphries was granted permission to lay a drain under a sidewalk from the cellar of his home to the sewer at the corner of Bridge and Water Sts., Mr. Humphries to assume full responsibility in case of accidents, and the ground to be left in a condition satisfactory to the street committee.

To Collect Taxes

Councillors Mulholland and Warrington moved that J. W. Buck be appointed collector for 1949 taxes at a salary of $125, plus an allowance of $5.00 for postal expenses.

On motion of Councillors Calbery and Mulholland, Alf Trip was engaged to construct a sidewalk from Bridge street to the east side of Baker's roadway at a cost of $1.25 per square yard. The old sidewalk is to be broken up by the contractor and the new one is to have a 2-inch surface.

Gallway is said to have approached the directors of the Niagara City Club, which had an application before the Ontario Liquor Licence Board, Mr. Blackwell said. The taxi driver is alleged to have told W. S. Martin, a club director, that for a price he could obtain the licence. Mr. Martin called in George Hughes, deputy police chief of Niagara Falls, and investigation led to Gallway's arrest.

The Ontario Liquor Licence Board then held an in-camera inquiry. Mr. Blackwell said that, as a result of that investigation, Horrigan and O'Connor were brought into the case.

O'Connor was one of the witnesses called during an Ontario Legislature committee investigation recently into irregularities which arose when ballots were tabulated in Toronto St. George's riding last June. He was not mentioned in the committee's report to the House.

from the American base at Tsingtao and its facilities were turned over to the Royal Navy.

An attempt to take off additional casualties from the Amethyst may be made by an RAF flying boat.

The flying boat managed to land near the Amethyst late Wednesday, put a doctor and medical supplies aboard, and flew back to Shanghai with one of the sloop's officers.

(A report from Singapore said a Sunderland was fired on by Communist forces when it tried to land today to transfer supplies to the Amethyst.)

A British Embassy source in Nanking gave this account of what happened:

The London flew a white flag 16 feet square as it sailed cautiously up the Yangtze. The cruiser still was two miles from the Amethyst when Red artillery opened fire without warning.

After a second round of shells struck her, the London replied with all guns that could be brought to bear. The cruiser then retreated down the Yangtze with 12 large holes in her hull. The Black Swan also was hit by artillery fire but was not damaged extensively.

Industrials Slump On Toronto Exchange

TORONTO, April 23—(CP).—Industrials slipped steadily lower in dull trading here today. Base metals also continued yesterday's easier trend while profit-taking appeared to have run out in golds as the group tightened. Western oils were down on small losses.

Volume for the first three hours was 329,000 shares, about 150,000 shares less than yesterday's similar period.

A wide list of industrial stocks dipped fractions as action slowed from yesterday. Utilities and steels led the downward trend while papers tended to hold at yesterday's declines.

Golds opened slowly under slight pressure but resumed their interrupted advance towards midsession.

The decline in base metals yesterday that carried the group to the lowest price level in a year, appeared to have run out. Stocks tended to hold in mixed activity although Labrador and Sherrit Gordon touched new lows.

Will Rule On Protest

TORONTO, April 22—(CP).—A Gananoque protest against the use of Don Gallinger, expelled from the National Hockey League, as coach of Port Colborne in the Ontario Intermediate "A" hockey finalh will be ruled on at an OHA meeting tonight, officials said. Port Colborne defeated Gananoque in the provincial finals but have not been declared champions pending the result of the protest.

Premiers Hopeful Solution Found For India

LONDON, April 22 (CP)—Hope mounted today that India, the problem child of the Commonwealth, would be able to assume republican status and still remain within the Commonwealth family of Nations.

Canadian delegates were understood to be definitely optimistic about the outcome of the eight-country conference which formally opened today.

Prime Ministers Attlee and [illegible] with the object of "putting something in writing" as a basis for resumption of full-dress talks Monday. It is expected they will prepare a paper which other delegates can study during the week-end. The paper will contain a broad outline of points discussed earlier today at 10 Downing Street.

Outlines Problem

Attlee opened the meeting today by outlining the problem raised by India's announced intention to declare herself a sovereign republic, Nehru then stated India's position in general terms.

Leaders of all the other countries then added their voices to the round-table discussion. It was from these opening remarks that Attlee and Nehru will work out the paper to be circulated among the delegates.

During the week-end the delegates will meet individually.

L. B. Pearson, Canada's representative, met Prime Minister Joseph Chifley of Australia today and will talk with Pakistan's Prime Minister, Liaquat Ali Khan, tomorrow.

The conference is widely regarded as of great importance to the Commonwealth. One London morning newspaper called the talks "the most decisive in British history."

Stelco, Union Officials Have Come To Terms

TORONTO, April 22 —(CP)—Labor Minister Daley of Ontario Thursday announced that the Steel Company of Canada at Hamilton and the United Steelworkers of America (C.I.O.) have reached tentative agreement on a bargaining agreement to replace one which expired April 1. Mr. Daley's announcement gave no details of the agreement which followed three weeks of negotiations between company and union with Louis Fine, chief conciliator of the Department of Labor, assisting.

Terms of the agreement were withheld until they are submitted to the union membership at Hamilton, possibly on Wednesday. Acceptance of the proposals, which are a compromise on the union's demands, will likely set a pattern for the 14,000 workers employed in the basic steel industry in Canada.

All-Star Tryout Game

TORONTO, April 22.—(CP).—Two strong soccer teams chosen from Windsor, Hamilton and Toronto clubs will meet in Toronto's Oakwood Stadium April 30 in a preliminary tryout of players for an Ontario all-star team. The all-stars will meet Newcastle United, famed English league club, at the new Exhibition Park on May 24. The Canadian-born players will comprise one of the teams in the April 30 game, while the other team will contain players most of whom have recently settled in Canada.

Propaganda Leaflets Forbidden At Schools

TORONTO, April 22.—(CP).—From now on, distribution of propaganda leaflets on Toronto school grounds is forbidden.

Board of Education Thursday night added "literature and printed matter" to the list of articles which may not be handed out on school property.

The move was intended to prevent a recurrence of an incident at Central Technical School two weeks ago when pamplets denouncing the Atlantic pact were handed out. Two Communist trustees voted against the board action.

Falls 15 Feet In Tag Game

PICTON, April 22—A spirited tag game ended in a near-tragedy Thursday when 5-year-old Sandra Dempsey toppled from a ladder 15 feet to the cement floor of her father's barn. She received a fractured skull.

Daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Dempsey of Ameliasburg Twp., the child was playing in the barn with her 6-year-old brother, Allan, and her small sister Dianne, 3.

While both parents were engaged with the evening chores, Sandra and Allan clambered up the ladder to the hay mow. Just as she reached a beam, her footing slipped and she plunged to the floor.

Returned To Owner

LOS ANGELES, April 22 (AP)—Lazarus, the headless rooster, was returned Thursday to his original owner, Mrs. Martha Green, as a court dismissed cruelty charges. Justice Stanley Moffatt ruled Mrs. Green and a veterinarian, Dr. Alan Ross, had not violated the State code by keeping a mutilated bird, as the American Society for the Prevention of Cruelty to Animals contended.

Discover Official

VANCOUVER, April 22 (CP)—C. Ralph White, former National Health Association official who disappeared while on bail, was arrested Thursday and lodged in Oakalla prison. White, who owes $58,000 to liquidator D. Mather of the defunct association, was sentenced in Feb. to 18 months in jail. His appeal was dismissed March 15 and he then disappeared.

Ex-Police Chief Not Guilty Of Theft of $12.50—Judge

COBOURG, April 22—(ENS).—Ex-Chief of Police George E. Purdy of Port Hope was found not guilty of theft of $12.50 from the Corporation of Port Hope by Judge M. A. Miller. The case was heard in County Court before a jury. The court decided to proceed separately on the two other charges read against Purdy Thursday, and when they were read again today, Purdy elected trial by judge and jury and the cases were sent on to the next court.

Judge M. A. Miller is presiding, with Harry Deyman acting for the Crown and Malcolm Robb of Belleville for the defendant.

Town Clerk Arthur Mark of Port Hope said that Purdy was hired as a police sergeant on October 1, 1944, and was appointed chief constable on Jan. 1, 1947. He resigned on August 16, 1948. Witness said that in his capacity as a justice of the peace, he took informations from members of the police force, the chief laying most of the charges. To defense counsel he said that he never considered Purdy dishonest. There seemed nothing wrong "until all this came up," witness declared. Sergeant Albert Warren was on the force while Purdy was chief. Warren resigned on November 2, 1948, and in December he was convicted of stealing gas, witness recalled.

Magistrate R. B. Baxter testified that all charges proceeded through his office, but in connection with liquor offenses where a man had to get back to work, or lived out of town, he was allowed to plead guilty and pay his fine out of court. Several times Purdy called him up to ascertain what fine should be imposed, but in time he looked after that himself. The money taken as a fine and costs would be brought by the chief to the magistrate's office

"Very Conscientious"

"I thought he was a very conscientious officer in phoning me to find out what fine should be imposed," commented the magistrate. The fines and costs were recorded by the clerk, Mrs. Ola Devereaux.

To Mr. Robb witness said that when the money thus received in fines and costs came to his office it was recorded in the books, but if it were not turned in to the office, along with the information, there was no way of checking back. Mr. Baxter said that he had had no occasion to suspect Purdy.

Mrs. Devereaux, next witness, said that it was the custom in the police office to place the fines and information in an envelope and bring it to the office, the chief usually bringing it. Referring to her records, she said that there was an entry showing that a Charles Leonard had entered a plea of guilty to a drunk charge on Jan. 31, 1948, and the amount of fine and costs was $12.50. On March 3, 1948, there was a second charge against the same man and the fine was $50.00 and $2.50 costs. From her cash book, the entry showed that this was paid by a cheque for $46.00, which had been signed over by Leonard on March 3, and cash for $6.50. From January 1, 1948, to November 1, 1948, there was no further record of charges against Leonard.

To Mr. Robb, witness said that if Purdy had sent the money up with somebody else, there was no way of her office knowing that the money had not been delivered.

Charles Leonard testified that he was picked up on February 28, last year, while under the influence of liquor and with a pact bottle of wine in his pocket. He arranged to settle a total fine and costs of $65 by turning over his pension cheque for $46 and a further cheque for $19.00. Mrs. Leonard corroborated his evidence as to the amounts and how they were sent.

No Entries Falsified

Police Chief C. W. Graham of Port Hope, who took over after Purdy on September 1, 1948, told of how the records of convictions were recorded in a book in the police office. To Mr. Robb, witness said that he found no evidence of any attempts to change or falsify the entries in this book.

"When I was appointed chief," related Chief Graham, "Purdy told me to be careful of Warren, Smith, Coughlin and Terbenche. He said, 'If I were you I'd get rid of them all, as they will only cause you trouble.' He told me to watch Warren."

Chief Graham told the court that the inner office was easily accessible to anyone. Warren, he said, was convicted last December of theft of gas. The chief told Mr. Robb that some tools, socks, a new tire and fishing tackle were found in Warren's home on November 11, 1948, but they were not identified as having been stolen and no charge was laid in that regard, the chief said.

Didn't Like Chief

Constable Lloyd Coughlin testified that on February 28, he and Purdy went to a cafe where Leonard was picked up and charged with being drunk and with having liquor in his possession illegally. The fines and costs on these two charges totalled $65. When fines were paid on cases settled out of court, the money and information were put in an envelope and left on the chief's desk, in the desk or in the safe. The chief usually took the money up later. Witness said that he never took the money up to the court clerk. Constable Coughlin said that neither he, Smith or Terbenche liked Chief Purdy.

Ex-Sergeant Warren told the court the procedure in putting fines into an envelope and later taking them to the magistrate's clerk. Constable R. Smith described the same procedure, but added that he never took any money up to the magistrate's office.

Refuses Dismissal Motion

At the conclusion of the Crown's case, Mr. Robb moved for dismissal as, he argued, the evidence was purely circumstantial. However, Judge Miller refused to grant his motion and the defence proceeded.

Harry Hancock, manager of the Bank of Nova Scotia in Port Hope, said that in July, 1948, at the request of Purdy, he changed the combination of the safe in the police office.

Chief Harold Nash of Guelph and Sergeant H. Stevens of the Toronto Police Dept., who knew the accused, said that they had never known anything against his character. A number of merchants and businessmen of Bowmanville gave similar evidence in regard to Purdy's character.

Purdy testified that Warren was police sergeant while he was there. Warren had been an applicant for the post of chief constable. Moneys collected on cases settled out of court were taken up by himself and sometimes by Warren. He said he couldn't recall the details of the Leonard fine, but did remember that the money for the fine came in the form of a cheque for $46, plus another cheque for the balance. He said that he would not take part of the fine up and the rest later.

Purdy testified that in the latter part of June and the early part of July he noticed that "things had been moved around in the safe." Nobody else was supposed to be there. Witness said he didn't know who was responsible for the disturbance of the safe's contents, but went and had Mr. Hancock change the combination. Purdy said that he had had complaints about Warren. A service station proprietor made a complaint about things being taken from his service station. Gas, oil and cigarettes were being taken so he told Councillor W. Austin, chairman of the police committee, but heard nothing more about it. After the combination was changed, on occasions he found that somebody had been moving the dial.

Can't Recall Details

To Mr. Deyman he said that he was not in a position to contradict Mrs Devereaux' evidence. He testified that it was difficult to remember the details of the Leonard liquor case. Shown the $19 cheque by Mr. Deyman, witness said that he had endorsed it.

"Why didn't you hand Mrs. Devereaux the $19.00?" asked Mr. Deyman.

"I don't know. I imagine it was placed in an envelope the same as the others. I don't know what happened to it. All I know is that I didn't take it," declared Purdy.

Arena Will Show Profit $3,200 Kiwanians Told

Although the accounts for this year's operation of the Civic Arena have not yet been audited, a profit of between $3,200—$3,400 was made, according to Dick Ouimet, manager of the arena. He made this statement on Thursday while addressing the weekly meeting of the Kiwanis Club.

He said that it was the worst winter for ice in the past 38 years, and some of the difficulties had been "heartbreaking." Despite the general opinion that the rink was operating at a loss, it had actually made a substantial profit, he contended.

Moreover all the equipment in the rink has been paid for, Mr. Ouimet said.

"The difficulties we went through this year were tremendous," he told the Kiwanians. "We had only 43 operating days; and out of these 43 days we had to accommodate 110-120 hockey teams in Peterborough.

In order to work in the many teams in the curtailed playing time "some members of the Industrial League were playing between one and two o'clock in the morning."

With artificial ice, play could start by the middle of October or the beginning of November and continue into April, he said. The Civic Arena manager then praised the Legion hockey team for winning the Sr. "B" OHA championship, despite the fact the team did not have artificial ice at home to practise on.

He quoted Ned Viteralli as saying that it was practices held between 11 and 12 o'clock at night that got the team in shape for the playoffs.

$14,000 Profit at Sarnia

The Sarnia Arena where the Legion team won the championship had showed a $14,000 profit in less than three months of operation, Mr. Ouimet said. Profits from other centres that have artificial ice plants were, Belleville $11,000; Lindsay $9,000, and Oshawa more than $10,000.

"You can rest assured if we put in artificial ice at the Arena it won't be a burden on the taxpayers of Peterborough," he assured the Kiwanians. "It will pay for itself."

It was not only hockey players who had the inconvenience of playing on natural ice, he said. A figure skating official had informed him that the organization could enlist 200-300 members if the ice could be relied on.

Before the figure skating show this winter the weather turned mild and water formed on top of the ice, he said. To sop this moisture up a ton of old newspapers was obtained from the Examiner. But no sooner had the newspapers been put down, then the weather changed again, and it began to freeze.

All the newspapers had to be scraped from the ice before the show could go on.

"This city has spent between $10,000-$17,000 a year on open air rinks for the past seven years—and what have we to show for it? We have nothing at all."

Two years ago, he said, a plan had been proposed to members of Council for a series of four small-size enclosed rinks to be built—one a year. The total cost of these would have been between $16,000-$18,000, and they would have been put in widely-separated sections of the city Mr. Ouimet contended.

According to plans, the ice surface would have been 170 ft. by 70 ft. with a seating capacity of 200 people and standing room for 500. When the Memorial Centre was completed they could still have been used, said Mr. Ouimet; and would have been particularly useful for the neighborhood associations.

Mr. Ouimet was introduced by Alderman R. Raine and thanked by Bob Bastable. President Vince McCabe was in the chair.

The New Premier

The Progressive Conservatives of Ontario will choose a new leader next week, and that leader will become, in the course of a few hours, the Premier of Ontario, for Mr. Kennedy has said that he will retire immediately his successor is chosen. There are five men who might possibly be chosen for this important post, and we shall review their records and qualifications briefly.

* * *

The Hon. Leslie Blackwell is a strong contender, for he is in some ways the ablest man in the provincial Progressive Conservative party. He is well known in this district, for he is a Lindsay man, who has practised law in Toronto for several years. He has been Attorney-General since 1943 and has served the Province well in that office. Mr. Blackwell represents Toronto-Eglinton.

* * *

The Hon. George Doucett has also been in the Cabinet since 1943, as Minister of Highways and Public Works. He is an insurance man and a farmer, and he has done an excellent job in both his departments. He represents Lanark, and his home is in Carleton Place.

* * *

The Hon. Leslie Frost is another man with a strong claim to be Premier, and like Messrs. Blackwell and Doucett, he has been in the Cabinet since 1943 as Provincial Treasurer. Though born in Orillia he is now a resident of Lindsay, where he practises law. He has represented Victoria in the Legislature since 1937. He is an able administrator and, with Mr. Blackwell, the backbone of his party's debating strength in the Legislature.

* * *

The Hon. Dana Porter is also mentioned as a likely choice for the leadership. He is a Toronto man and represents Toronto-St. George. He too is a lawyer, and since 1944 has been Minister of Planning and Development, and has done some excellent work in that position. Since Col. Drew went to Ottawa he has served as Minister of Education.

* * *

Mr. Kelso Roberts of Belleville is also mentioned as a possible choice for leader. He is not at present in the Legislature, but he was elected in 1943 and again in 1945. He is a lawyer resident in Toronto.

* * *

Of the five, all of whom are able men, Mr. Blackwell and Mr. Frost are the strongest claimants to the leadership and premiership. Both have shown their strength during the past month by the persistence with which they drove the Charitable Gifts Act through the Legislature in spite of strong protests. Both are friends and lieutenants of Col. Drew, and have the support of powerful elements within the Progressive Conservative Party. That party is lucky to have five men, all capable of leading it, all young as politicians go, and all apparently eager for the position.

"Operational Fatigue" Among Statesmen

Mr. James Forrestal, who has been serving the U.S.A. in several important capacities connected with defence for the past eight years, is now a patient in a naval hospital, suffering from what his physician calls "operational fatigue". The name is aptly chosen, for Mr. Forrestal's work at his desk and at conferences has all been for the defence of his country, and in the aggregate has been the equivalent of a long spell in battle. He is tired out, just as fighters, sailors and fliers in active service during the war became tired out.

Operational fatigue is quite a common ailment among statesmen and government officials in our day. They drive themselves until they can go no further, and then the cure is a long rest, and perhaps a strictly limited routine for the rest of their lives. The demands upon men in national service today are greater, both in degree and in length of endurance, than they have ever been before.

Yet there are some men who bear the heaviest burdens, but who seem to have the knack of throwing off their cares for at least a part of every day, and regaining the energy which they have expended in their work. Three who come to mind are Winston Churchill, Mackenzie King, and Jan Smuts. Mr. Churchill is a painter, a playgoer, and a gourmet; during the most intense periods of the war he could take time for an evening at the theatre; Mr. King's principal hobby seems to be a literary one; he is a keen student of the work of Matthew Arnold (a writer whose temperament would appear to be congenial to his own) and when he was busiest he could always find time for half an hour with his favourite author. Field Marshal Smuts' pastime may seem a taxing one to many people, for he is a philosopher, and reading philosophy or writing it—"holism" is the name of the trend of thought which he particularly espouses—is his relaxation. These three men, assisted by the pursuits which give them relief, if not positive rest, have piled up in their lifetimes an impressive number of hours of the most onerous and demanding work.

Every man has a breaking point; with some it is quickly reached, and with others it is reached only after years of strain; but it exists for all. The wise man, particularly in public life, cushions himself so cunningly with pleasant pursuits and favourite relaxations that for him the breaking-point is never reached.

Easter School Holidays

This week teachers and pupils have been on holiday. Many of the teachers are busy marking papers, preparing the next term's work, or attending meetings of the Ontario Educational Association in Toronto—a sort of busman's holiday. But the pupils are free as the air—getting into their mothers' skirts (and hair), rampaging in the streets, or going to movies.

This is the worst season of the year for children to be on holiday. The weather is too uncertain. At Christmas there are outdoor amusements and the snow and air are invigorating. In the summer, playgrounds are dry, lakes inviting and the weather agreeable. But at Easter, varying as it does from year to year, there is slush, mud or rain, and the children are perforce indoors much of the time.

This is may be an argument for holding Easter holidays before Easter, say in late February, when conditions outside may be tolerable, and when there may even be skating and skiing to occupy the children's time. Another argument in favour of an early week of holiday is that if Easter is as late as it was this year, the winter term is unconscionably long for both pupils and teachers. Both become fretful and exhausted. Further, the summer term is then so short that before a good session of study has got underway, final examinations and summer holidays are at hand.

One solution of the matter is to have no Easter holiday. That would be the worst one. Pupils need it, and much more do teachers need it. Another is to ignore Eastertime as a holiday week, to have only Good Friday (and Saturday of course), and to fix the holiday week, no matter when Easter comes, as the end of February or the first week of March. It is a point worth considering, and some private schools are already toying with the idea.

Peace At The Point Of A Spear

The Chinese Communists do not want peace. They want all China; they want to get across the Yangtze River. If they can get across by the semblance of negotiating a peace with the Nationalists, then such peace terms will suit their convenience. If they think force is necessary, they will use force. They seem to be playing it both ways—conducting peace talks in Peiping and waging war along the Yangtze. If this double play is evidence that there is no co-ordinated control and plan among the Chinese Communists, it is also evidence that the Chinese Communists are not capable of setting up any kind of Government which would keep the peace which the Peiping negotiators are pretending to want.

The firing on a British sloop in the Yangtze this week, with loss of life and injury to the British crew is an abomination. It may be a good time for sending a few British war vessels into the area to give the Chinese Communists a lesson.

The situation in China is so noxious, from whatever side it is surveyed, that Occidentals may be excused for believing that the best thing to do is to withdraw interest, money, supplies and anything else Occidental from China and leave the warring Chinese to cook their own goose and stew in the mess. The trouble is that that sort of stew is likely to overflow into other parts of Asia which the western world could ignore only at its own peril.

Notes And Queries

By ALPHA

Questions are solicited for this column particularly those relating to local lore and tradition.

QUESTION: Why is the Auburn, north end of Peterborough along the east bank of the Otonabee (area of the Golf Club) called by that name?

ANSWER: Because of the home built there by the Honourable Thomas Alexander Stewart, or so I have been informed. This was called Auburn after the village in South Meath county, Ireland. The property is now and has long been in the hands of the Hamiltons, one of Peterborough's first families. A riding school is now located in the barns.

Thomas Alex. Stewart, who became a life member of the Legislative Council of Upper Canada, was one of the two first settlers in Douro (the other being Robert Reid, Esq.). He came to Douro in 1822, three years before the first Peter Robinson Irish immigration.

Mr. Robert Reid and the Hon. T. A. Stewart both came from Ireland. The former received a grant of 2000 acres, the latter 1200, on condition that they would settle and open up the land. They also received permission to hold the entire township of Douro for five years, to parcel it out to friends and others who might be lured into the district.

Many local people have the impression that the original of Auburn is in Scotland. It is, as I have said, in Ireland, in South Meath, which is the county directly south of Cavan county.

ALPHA: Why is the finding of a four-leaf clover supposed to mean or bring good luck?

ANSWER: Partly because its rarity makes it seem noteworthy or remarkable; chiefly because the leaves are arranged in the form of a cross. Most symbols of Christian religion were deemed beneficient. That is why many people, when they express a hope as a positive statement, condition it by saying "touch wood", and they do touch wood. The wood is symbolic of the wood of the Cross, which Christ carried and on which he was crucified.

SIR: A recent and, as usual, amusing Giles cartoon in the Examiner showed Berlin air lift American men's children getting out of an army truck at an English school gate. A schoolmaster is saying to another, "We must decide whether the boys shall wear trilbys or caps". I presume a trilby is a fedora. Why is it called that?

ANSWER: I could be mean and ask "Well, why is a fedora called a fedora?" A trilby is named from the novel "Trilby" by George du Maurier, published in 1894. It is the tragic story of Trilby O'Ferrall, an amiable artist's model in Paris, with whom various young English art-students fall in love. She loses her voice, languishes, and dies.

"Trilby hat" became a popular name for a soft felt hat with indented crown; that is the kind of hat we call a "fedora". It is interesting to compare the British and American names of hats. For instance, the "topper" (tall silk hat) used to be called, colloquially, a stove-pipe hat. An opera hat is, by the way, an ordinary topper, except that it is made to fold flat. Bowlers in England are called Derbies, on this side of the Atlantic. The Derby seems to have been named after one of the Earls of Derby. Perhaps your natter can tell you which one. "Boater" (also called bashers) worn in summer and by English school-boys, are called "sailors" here. They were last popular in Peterborough in the twenties, when Buster Keaton was a comic basher of them. I suspect that they may now be coming back into fashion and therefore use. Some half-dozen men in Peterborough have continued to wear them, fashion or no fashion, and our City Treasurer is walking summer proof that they can be natty and becoming head gear.

Now will somebody please tell me why a fedora is called a fedora? I have consulted four dictionaries, two encyclopedias and two atlases—since the word seems Italian and it may be a place-name as Cremona (the violin) is named after a town, and the paper "Fabriano" is named after an Italian Adratic village. The only dust the Encyclopedia Britannica raises, and that in the gazetteer and index, is that North Dakota has a town called Fedora, and strangely enough, a creek called Hat.

SIR: Has Canada a dime?

ANSWER: Canada has dime stores (now up to $1.59), dime novels and some of our things are not worth a dime; nevertheless we have no dime. The phrases come from the U.S.A., which has in verity a dime. Their ten-cent piece is called a dime, and on the coin itself is the word "One Dime". Our ten-cent piece is a ten-cent piece, or ten cents. It is not a dime.

The American use of the word is legitimate for two reasons. First the word is in common and good currency there. Secondly, its roots are honest. It comes from Middle English "dime", which is from the French "dime" which is from the Old French "disme", which means "a tenth part", a tithe. It is of course related to the word decimal.

THE mystery of the date of Dr. Poole's death is solved. He died in 1905, according to Mrs. Helen Marryat of Hastings, who has frequently written articles on Peterborough history for this newspaper. Mrs. Marryat has kindly sent in a long and informative letter on Dr. Thomas Wesley Poole, the M.D. and author of the 1867 history of the town and county of Peterborough; and on his elder brother, the Reverend William Henry Poole, ("Anglo-Israel Poole) who was at one time minister of George Street Methodist Church.

Various papers and authorities are cited, and even they disagree, some perpetuating the error that Dr. Poole died in 1915. Conclusive proof seems to be a heading in the Peterborough Review of September 1st, 1905, which Mrs. Marryat has copied down for me: "Dr. Poole Expires. Funeral will take place on Wednesday, August 30th, 1905."

Some of the information which Mrs. Marryat gives was noted in this column several months ago. Her quotation from the Review does, however, explain why he was a Roman Catholic, although his second name was Wesley and his brother was a Methodist preacher. He was for many years a member of the Methodist church but, as the Review of the time says in its obituary notice, he "became a convert to the Roman Catholic faith and was an earnest and devoted member of that church".

The Dictionary of Canadian Biography edited by W. Stewart Wallace states that Poole was born about 1831, received his medical degree (M.D.) at Victoria University in 1856, practised medicine in Norwood, Canada West, and in 1864 removed to Peterborough and became editor of the Review. It records that he died in Lindsay, where he had gone to resume the practice of medicine, on August 27th, 1915. Here, be it noted, is the discrepancy in dates, and although it may be only a slip of somebody's pen, that the editor of the Dictionary of Canadian Biography should repeat it leaves me unwilling to accept all his other facts and dates, even about Dr. Poole.

Mrs. Marryat concludes her letter with interesting new information, which I shall relay next Friday.

FOR THE RECORD: Toronto has been sprouting cocktail bars, particularly along Yonge Street, since the Drew Government introduced legislation permitting them. Peterborough has none, and is presently allowed none. It has eight licensed hotels which have "beverage rooms"—Oh, unlovely phrase—the same eight and no more than were licensed when beer was authorized for sale by the glass in 1934 by the Hepburn Government. This is notwithstanding the large increase in population. In addition there are five private establishments licensed for members' consumption of beer: The Peterborough Club, the Peterborough Golf Club, the Legion Hall, the Officers' Mess and Sergeants' Mess in the Armouries. There is no beverage room in Ashburnham.

CONDEMNS GRAFT IN MILK AND BUTTER BUSINESS

Sir: Just read another "say" about margarine. Why such a fuss over margarine? What about shortening of different brands, isn't that a substitute for lard?

Having heard many praising margarine, I tried it, and will say it's good, and as long as butter is kept at such an unreasonable price, I don't blame anyone for buying it. Poor people with families cannot afford butter. Margarine is a blessing. There is no sense in butter and milk being kept at such prices. God supplies the feed for cattle now as ever. It's not for the benefit of farmers these prices are allowed, it's those who want to and do run the farmers' business; we farmers would be far better off without them.

When milk was allowed to be sold by the quantity brought to city in cans, children could have all they needed, but now there is so much unnecessary cost to it they cannot.

I am so tired and sick of hearing of TB and crippled children's needs. If they were not deprived of nature's food, milk instead of pop to drink, there would be no need for all this begging funds from people who cannot afford to help through high-cost of living. No sense to it. The whole thing is just a "graft" for others than farmers.

God knows there is plenty of oppression in this Canada of ours, without so much talk of it in other countries, and constantly bleeding our people to death when so many need help right here. (Them's my sentiments.)

FARMER'S WIFE.

SUGGESTS "AIR-LIFT" FUNERALS

Sir: It is with a sad countenance I sit and write, and in fact it's all I can do to restrain the tears from flowing at Mr. Tuggey's alarm about the Council's suggestion or order to bar funerals from busy George St. Did Mr. Tuggey never consider the possibility of the busy housewife's "taters" aburning on the stove and in her hurry to get across busy George St. she might get knocked down or some kid take chances in excessive traffic and become a victim? Or some one being rushed to hospital only to be tied up by needless traffic—or are the dead in his opinion more important than the living? I am in favour of the "blockade" for the sake of the living, and the dead, if ascending to greater heights, could go by "air lift" which would be quite an innovation in these days of marvel and fast travel especially for people who are so concerned about seeing all the people on George St. when their time is up. After all they could see all the streets at the same time, that is if their destination was "up". But who can tell, in a few years time they may have an underground railway at George St. for the convenience of those going "down". Should Mr. Tuggey oppose the Council's wise move too vehemently in future it is well to advise him that should he be going via "air lift" he may find a "no admittance" sign at the "other end" and he could be assessed double for getting the wrong ticket. Therefore let us all be forewarned to plan for the living, for I'm sure the dead will not worry which street they take.

Well, Mr. Tuggey we'll be a-seeing you at one place or the other, it's up to you!

"DON'T FENCE ME IN".

REASONS FOR GEORGE ST. FUNERALS

Sir: There are two reasons why funerals go down George St. One is that the mourners enjoy being the central figures in a pageant. The other is that it is good free advertising for the undertakers. And it must be admitted that you have to cross George St. at some point to get to Little Lake.

But in big places they don't drag their dead down the main stem and Peterborough is getting to be a big place. The Council knows what it's doing. Yours,

R.I.P.

Bible Message

(From the Authorized Version)

Grace be unto you, and peace, from God our Father, and from the Lord Jesus Christ.

And this I pray, that your love may abound yet more and more in knowledge and in all judgement; that ye may approve things that are excellent; that ye may be sincere and without offence till the day of Christ; being filled with the fruits of righteousness, which are by Jesus Christ, unto the glory and praise of God. (Phil. 1: 2, 9-11.)

Brethen, I count not myself to have apprehended: but this one thing I do, forgetting those things which are behind, and reaching forth unto those things which are before, I press toward the mark for the prize of the high calling of God in Christ Jesus. (Phil. 3: 13, 14.)

Must Keep Order

Prime Minister St. Laurent reported to Parliament just before the Easter adjournment last week that the Labour and Transport Departments were doing "everything they considered reasonable" in connection with the shipping strike. City, C.N.R. and R.C.M.P. police officers have been brought into action to a limited extent in an effort to maintain order and to protect personal safety and private and public property. But the disorders have continued.

The general public, having in mind their own future safety and security, should protest loudly against prolongation of such disorders. Canadians should insist on the most rigid enforcement of the law in all such disgraceful and alarming outbreaks of violence.

Motor League Expects 75,000 Members

TORONTO, April 22—(CP)—The Ontario Motor League expects its members to number more than 75,000 this year and to reach 100,000 by 1951, its president, A. W. Sandrock of Toronto, said today.

In an address prepared for delivery to the league's 42nd annual meeting, he said there was "a record increase" in membership during 1948, with 26,441 members added to the rolls. Enrollment of new members to date in 1949 approximates 10,000.

"This membership increase bespeaks the value which motorists attach to the league's services," Mr. Sandrock said.

These service, as listed in the report of general manager W. G. Robertson of Toronto, now include emergency road service to take care of repairs or breakdowns, travel advice and road books, placing of black-and-yellow directional signs on secondary roads, legal advice and defence, automobile personnel accident insurance and a monthly magazine.

Mr. Sandrock said the Toronto branch of the Ontario Motor League and the league's affiliated clubs in other cities are continuing to support safe driving efforts, especially those aimed at establishment of driver training courses in high schools.

Michigan's experiences in teaching driving to high school students were related by Richard Harfst of Detroit, general manager of the Automobile Club of Michigan.

"Formal education, if it is to meet the needs of this generation and of coming generations, must give traffic safety a far more important place in the curriculum than has been the case in the past," said Mr. Harfst.

Drive Against Cocktail Bars

TORONTO, April 22 (CP). — The Ontario Temperance Federation gave notice Thursday it is going gunning for cocktail bars this summer.

At closing sessions of the Federation's 58th annual meeting, 171 delegates Thursday demanded a close-the-cocktail-bars campaign in the province's five biggest cities—Toronto, Hamilton, Windsor, London, and Ottawa—where bars are permitted.

Delegates said the legislation introducing them specified that votes on the cocktail-bar question could be taken after a two-year trial period.

A storm of protest greeted a resolution commending the Ontario Government for establishing a clinic for alcoholic research and treatment. The resolution was refered to the Board of Directors for action after a delegate said: "I am not sure I would like to commend the government for spending money to save the people they have already sent to death."

Rev. M. J. Aiken of Peterborough was re-elected president of the Federation.

Drew Urges New Facilities

SYDNEY, NS, April 22 (CP)—Construction of "completely new lines" to match the Canso Bridge project connecting industrial Cape Breton with the mainland of Canada was advocated here Thursday night by George Drew, National Leader of the Progressive Conservative Party, speaking at a party rally as he continued his brief Maritime tour.

He listed two recommendations of a 1944 Parliamentary Committee on Maritime transportation developments:

1—Improvements designed to make communications between Prince Edward Island and the mainland constant, reliable and adequate.

2—Realigning and double-tracking of the Canadian National Railways from Sydney to points in Nova Scotia and New Brunswick.

"On behalf of the Progressive Conservative Party," Mr. Drew declared amid applause from the audience of 1,000, "I undertake to act upon these recommendations when we are called upon to form a government."

He also spoke of the need or Federal aid in providing power and industrial expansion. He said he intended extending the plan he had successfully used in Ontario in encouraging British industries and workers to establish in that province to broader national fields now that he had assumed wider responsibilities.

Leafs, Stanley Cup Winners Fail To Place On All-Stars

By VIC MORRIS, JR.

MONTREAL, April 22 (CP).—Three players from the National Hockey League champion Detroit Red Wings won berths on the mythical all-star team, but Toronto Maple Leafs, Stanley Cup winners, failed to place a man on either the first or second teams.

Here are the first and second choices of six NHL coaches as announced by the league to-day:

First Team	Position	Second Team
	Goal
Durnan, Mont		Rayner, N. York
	Defence
Quackenbush, Detroit		Harmon, Montreal
Stewart, Det.		Reardon, Mont.
	Centre
Abel, Detroit		D. Bentley, Chi.
	Right Wing
Richard, Mont.		Howe, Detroit
	Left Wing
R. Conacher, Chi.		Lindsay, Det.

Maurice Richard's selection at right wing marks his fifth consecutive year on the all-star squad. Another Montrealer, Bill Durnan, also is a fifth year man although he failed to make the grade last year, giving way to Toronto's Turk Broda.

Cash awards of $1,000 go to each player making the first team and $500 to those making the second.

Canadiens and Wings stole the show, giving away only one place on the first team to Chicago's Roy Conacher, a first-timer, as an all-star.

Only Holdovers

Quackenbush, Stewart and Richard are the only holdovers from last year's all-star roster. Stewart made the first all-star squad in 1942-1943 with Detroit and came through again last year to bing his total up to three years on the team that coaches dream about. Quackenbush is on his second team, having won the award last season.

Another newcomer is veteran Sid Abel who took the centre spot away from Montreal's Elmer Lach who missed most of the season with injuries.

Points Awarded

The points were awarded on the basis of five points for a first choice, three for a second, and one for a third. Coaches were not allowed to vote for players on their own team.

Richard polled 23 points, Abel 21, Conacher 19, and Stewart 17. Harmon and Reardon both had 15.

The left wing selection was close with Conacher gaining the nod over Ted Lindsay by only two points. This is how the other second team members came out in the vantage voting: Rayner 10, Bentley 17, and Howe 11.

Coaches voting in the annual poll were: Dit Clapper, Boston Bruins; Dick Irvin, Montreal Canadiens; Charlie Conacher, Chicago Black Hawks; Tommy Ivan, Detroit Red Wings; Lynn Patrick, New York Rangers; and Happy Day, Toronto Maple Leafs.

Bowling Club Holds Banquet

St. Andrew's Bowling Club brought to a close a very successful season of bowling with their annual banquet on Tuesday eve. Members and friends gathered in the recreation room at tables decorated with lovely yellow daffodils. Dinner was served by the social committee convened by Mrs. M. Edwards and assisted by Mrs. Skinner, Mrs. H. Davis and Mrs. Dyer. The President, Mrs. D. R. Morrow presided at the head table and welcomed the guests. The treasurer Miss Hazel Batten reported a very substantial bank balance. It was decided not to make any decision now as to how this money would be used, also that the present officers would act until next October when the election will be held.

The following teams won prizes and these were presented by Mrs. Skinner;—

1st prize—Mr. A. Murray, skip.

2nd prize — Mr. Ray Morrow (skip).

3rd prize—Mrs. D. R. Morrow (skip).

Consolation prize — Mr. Bruce Fowler (skip).

Attendance prizes were won by —Miss Batten, Miss Whimsett, Mr. Stan. Cummings, Mrs. B. Fowler, Mrs. Metcalfe and Mr. Ray Morrow.

A gift was also presented to Mrs. George Tremaine, the oldest member in the club who was celebrating a birthday.

Mr. A. Murray moved a hearty vote of thanks to the ladies who looked after the dinner.

Mr. Alex. Kay the guest speaker and a member of the Department of Lands and Forests, was introduced by Mrs. Stan. Cummings and gave a very interesting talk on "Bird Life in Ontario. Mrs. Charles Gardner moved a vote of thanks to Mr. Kay.

COMMANDING LEAD

Montreal YMHA Blues took a commanding 14 point lead here Thursday night in the first game of the Eastern Canada two-game, total-point senior basketball semi-final by trouncing Saint John Saints 58-44. Second game will be played here Saturday.

SPORTS SHOW WINDOW

CEC. PERDUE, Sports Editor

As mentioned the other day, the Girls' Softball League expects to open play the week of May 22 at the Bowl east of the bridge on Hunter St. They plan to play double-headers Monday, Wednesday and Friday nights under the arcs, and six clubs have entered so far. Marines, CGE, Westclox, Lindsay, Woollens and Ashby's have declared themselves. Bill Bennett and his executive feel that a six-club circuit would be okay, making for faster softball than if 10 or 12 teams came in. However, they've left the closing date for entries over till next Wednesday night when a meeting will be held at 7.30 in the YMCA. Umps should apply soon to the loop prexy.

* * * * * *

Little is known yet on the player setup in the men's City Softball League. All we know is there are four teams in: Knights of Columbus, Cosmopolitans, Outlaws and Uniteds, latter made up of East City Motors and Babe's Place. Wimp O'Toole entered that team, Howie Dalton is rumored as playing manager of Cosmos, Stew Richardson pilots the Outlaws, and Johnny Russelle is back with Knights after skippering the B-A bunch last season. We hear he is after Johnny Godfrey to play first for his squad. Outlaws are drilling this week, but nothing has been heard so far on practises for the other entries. Umpires should apply to the league secretary, Bert Bailey.

Senior Petes Starting

Senior Petes' diamondeers start workout tomorrow aft at two in Morrow Park, sometimes known as the Exhibition Grounds. Manager Eddie Murphy emphasizes the fact that these first drills are wide-open and he wants all prospective players to take a crack at the various positions. He rather favors the suggestion of a large COBL, one of eight teams, playing in two sections. Meantime, he is on the prowl for material, expecting strong opposition throughout the loop this summer. If the various clubs bolster as they've said they would, the calibre of play should be higher than in recent years, more like that of the 30s when Knotty Lee was in flower here.

* * * * * *

From Secretary A. H. Radford of the Peterborough Whitaker Cricket Club comes word that the opening practice of the season will be held at the Oval tomorrow afternoon at two o'clock. All cricketers are asked to be on hand. The club's first game will be against Trinity College School a week from this Saturday in Port Hope, so little time remains for conditioning. The local cricketers are in a regular league up Toronto way this season, which should result in keen competition. The club was bolstered last year with the addition of some good players from the Old Country, who had moved here. And the team made an excellent showing to defeat the best in the provincial playoffs.

PCVS Cagers Winning

With 250 high school basketeers taking part in the big cage tourney at Queen's University, the gym must be as busy as the five-and-ten in Christmas week. PCVS seniors, pre-tourney favorites in "A" section, took Niagara Falls 29-21 in their first round, and followed this up later yesterday with a convincing 30-19 victory over Ottawa Glebe to remain the only undefeated club in "A" section on Thursday. Glebe had earlier edged out Belleville 27-26 in the best game of opening day. H. Dibben and Northcott paced the PCI-ers in the win over Glebe. Coach Bev Goulding's crew will see further action as the tournament winds up this evening.

* * * * * *

Girls' City Bowling League finished up a successful season with a dinner and presentation of prizes. Towne Togs led the loop with 68 points as Marines ran second and Arcos third. Togs were generally strong throughout, though they had plenty of opposition at times from various other squads. Aggie Anderson of this team had high average of 224, Marg Hawthorne of Togs led in singles with a cozy 382 thump, and Marg Sanderson of Brintons topped them all in triples with a nifty 950 roll. Some fine bowling was seen all season. In fact there was plenty of bowling around town throughout the winter, and they're all finished up now but for the odd post-season roll or whirl at the Knift and Fork League.

Fort Frances Humbles Caps

REGINA, April 22.— (CP).—Few of the 4,500 spectators who saw Fort Frances Canadians humble Regina Capitals 11-6 Thursday night will doubt that the amazing, back-to-the-wall outfit has a chance to snatch the Western Canada senior hockey title.

Their victory tied the best-of-five Allan Cup semi-final at two games apiece. The sudden-death decider is here Saturday night.

Willie Toninato, playing with two stitches after a high stick caught him in the face in the first period, picked up three goals to pace Canadians. He notched two in the first period on close-in shots and then scored on a long drive in the third session which Caps' goalie, Bev Bentley, made no effort to stop.

Caps had difficulty clearing the puck from their defence zone. In the third period defenceman Vic Myles diverted one of Canadians' shots into his own goal.

They outscored Regina 4-2 in the first period, went ahead 7-4 in the second and added four more to the Caps' brace in the final session.

S. Stevenson Heads Hastings Softball

HASTINGS, April 22 (ENS) — There was a good turnout at the first meeting of the season of the Hastings Softball Club held in the Town Hall on Wednesday evening, with the vice-president, Jack Brinklow, in the chair.

Minutes of the last meeting were read by M. A. O'Shea and adopted. The financial statement was given by John Veals.

The following were elected to office: president, Stan Stevenson; vice-president, Jack Brinklow; Secretary, M. A. O'Shea; treasurer, John Veals.

The league will start about May 16, and entries for the forthcoming season are open till the next meeting on May 2, when the teams will be decided upon and the schedule made up.

Newcombe Gives Royals 5-0 Win Over Baltimore

By The Associated Press

Don Newcombe, negro right-hander of Montreal Royals, is off to a grand start in his bid to prove that Brooklyn made a mistake in not retaining his services

Newcombe, who at first balked on returning to Montreal, pitched the Royals to a three-hit 5-0 conquest of Baltimore Orioles Thursday night as the International League began its 66th consecutive season.

The Royals, with a crowd of 14,960 on hand, combed Bryan Stephens and Johnny Wittig for 11 hits including home runs by rookie Lamar Bridges and Sam Jethroe.

Veterans Oscar Judd of Ingersoll, Ont., and Johnny Hetki also turned in fine pitching jobs. Judd pitched Toroto Maple Leafs to a four-hit 5-0 triumph over Newark Bears and Hetki of Syracuse blanked Buffalo Bisons, 3-0.

Outslug Wings

Jersey City Giants outslugged Rochester Red Wings 9-6 in the remaining game.

Judd, who along with Newcombe, hurled a no-hitter last year, walked only two Bears and fanned three.

Ed Sanicki and rookie first baseman Bill Glynn led Toronto's nine-hit attack against Duane Pillette and Frank Lamanna with home runs. The game was played before 11,703 fans.

Hetki held the Bisons to four hits in outpitching the veteran Luman Harris before approximately 13,000 fans, largest crowd in Syracuse history. Frankie Drews socked a home run with one on in the fifth to clinch the decision.

Home runs keynoted the Giant-Red Wing game. Rookie Steve Bilko hit one with the bases loaded for Rochester in the first inning and the Giants came back with three in the third to highlight and eight-run uprising.

Len Schulte, Joe Bracchitta and Wes Westrum homered in the third with Westrum's blow coming with the sacks jammed.

Marlies Blank Senators 7-0 In Surprise Victory

TORONTO, April 22 (CP) — The surprising Toronto Marlboros were back in the fight for the Eastern Canada Senior Hockey Championship today on the heels of a startling reversal of form that saw the Ontario titleholders shut out Ottawa Senators 7-0.

Cheered by a hometown crowd of 12,646 Marlboros went onto the ice driving Thursday night and never let up for a second and they trounced the injury-riddled Quebec champions and deadlocked the best-of-seven series at two wins apiece.

Fifth game is scheduled for Toronto Saturday night with the sixth in Ottawa Monday and a seventh, if necessary, back in Toronto Wednesday.

Stocky Howie Harvey, heir-apparent to Turk Broda of Toronto Maple Leafs, was outstanding in the Marlboro nets. It was his second straight shutout on home ice against the Senators, who downed Marlboros in two straight games in Ottawa after Toronto won the opener 5-0 here last week.

Chuck Blair, young right winger, and Johnny McLelland, rangy forward, spearheaded the Toronto attack. Each got two goals and an assist. Other Toronto scorers were Johnny McCormack, Hugh Bolton and Scotty Mair.

Many Injured

Senators, playing without Butch Stahan and Conny Tubin, also had two injured players in uniform. Eddie Emberg played with a broken left hand and Bobby Copp had a broken thumb.

The listless Senators played loosely and all three Toronto goals in the first period were the result of poor Senator checking in front of their own net.

Marlboros added another in the second period and three more in the final 20 minutes.

The hard driving and close checking by the rugged Toronto term saw two brief fist fights, both in the second period. Flash Hollett and Bill Robinson tangled in one and a few minutes later, Al Buchanan and Emile Dagenais traded punches. The only damage was major penalties to all four.

The eastern winner meets either Regina Capitals or Fort Frances Canadians for the Allan Cup in the senior finals, opening in the east April 28.

Vander Meer Blanks Cards 5-0 As Yanks Edge Washington 2-1

By JACK HAND,
Associated Press Sports Writer.

Somebody is tampering with the big league standings.

Cincinnati, doomed by the experts to finish in the cellar, is the only unbeaten team in the National League.

The poor, old beat-up New York Yankees, supposedly hobbled by the loss of Joe DiMaggio and others, are out front in the American League.

Eddie Dyer's St. Louis Cardinals still haven't won a game and the powerhouse Boston Red Sox had to resort to bases on balls to break into the victory column.

Bucky Walters, starting his first full year as Cincinnati manager, followed the old custom of pitching lefthanders against the Cardinals. At usual, it worked.

Following up Kenny Raffensberger's opening day performance, Walters called on another lefty, John Vander Meer, Tuesday. The 33-year-old veteran responded with a five-hit 5-0 shutout. Hank Sauer and Jimmy Bloodworth hit homers, each with a man on base.

Replacements Come Through

The Yankees' replacements came through to give manager Casey Stengel a third straight victory over Washington 2-1. Johnny Lindell, playing in DiMaggio's old spot in centre field, started the winning rally against Forrest Thompson with a single in the last of the ninth. After an error, Hank Bauer, Charley Keller's sub in left field, came through with a game-ending double.

Tommy Byrne, a regular starting pitcher for the first time, went the route. He allowed five hits, including a homer by Buddy Lewis.

Cleveland thumped St. Louis 8-2 with the help of homers by Larry Doby and Joe Gordon. Steve Gromek pitched a two-hitter. Home runs by Jack Graham and Dick Kokos in the fifth ruined his shutout bid.

Boston Red Sox untracked themselves to salvage the finale of their series with Philadelphia A's. It was a scoreless battle between Phil Marchildon of Penetanguishene, Ont., and Mel Parnell until the ninth. Two walks with the bases loaded and a single by Parnell gave the Sox their final 4-0 margin.

Stop Home Runs

Chicago finally stopped Johnny Groth's home-run splurge, trimming Detroit 5-2. Three White Sox pitchers held Groth to one single in two official at bats. He also walked once and was hit by Howie Judson, the winning pitcher, before he was knocked out in the seventh.

In the National, Brooklyn lost to New York Giants, 4-1. Homers by Sid Gordon and Mickey Livingston, each with a man on, account for all the runs with Clint Hartung turning in a neat four-hit job.

Bob Scheffing hit a two-run homer in the eighth for Chicago's 4-3 edge over Pittsburgh.

Boston Braves and Phillies were not scheduled.

Remember When—

By The Canadian Press

Hamilton Tigers of Big Four rugby fame, signed Pep Leadley, Canada' oustanding dropkicker of his day, 24 years ago today. In the following season Leadley proved as big a cog in the Tiger machine as he was in the famous Queen's University team that won the Canadian championship in 1922, 1923, and 1924.

Marmora Boys Honored At Big Dinner

MARMORA, April 22.—(ENS).—Marmora's three hockey teams, the Trent Valley intermediates and the junior and midget teams, were guests of Marmora Chamber of Commerce at the monthly dinner meeting held in the Royal Hotel on Thursday evening. The chamber was fortunate in acquiring the services of Dit Clapper of Boston Bruins' affiliation as guest speaker for this second annual "sports night."

President Alex Fraser was toastmaster. After "The King," Fred Wells took over the duties of song leader, with Rev. J. M. Brownlie as accompanist. In introductory remarks, President Fraser said: "It is by the same co-operative spirit that was shown by the three teams we are honoring tonight that we have our rink today. Not only have we a rink, but a recreation centre too upon which a lot more work has to be accomplished. He then referred to projects that may be put on to wipe out the deficit of $5,000. All should strive towards that end as they had for the rink's erection. There is levelling of grounds which could be largely done by voluntary effort and other work to be accomplished to complete the venture.

Praises Teams

He then extended congratulations to the teams. He concluded by expressing the hope that next sports night not only would hockey teams be cepresented but also members of rugby and baseball teams. Called upon by the president, captains of the three teams introduced players, as follows:

Trent valley intermediates, Gus Leonards; juveniles, Michael Forestell; midgets, Ray Darrah.

The toast to the teams was then proposed by Bernard Hughes, who reviewed their accomplishments. Responses were made by the three captains.

Complimentary addresses followed, W. R. Hamilton, secretary-treasurer of the Trent Valley League team, testified to the good harmony prevailing in each team and recited Frank Carlton Nelson's poem, "If I Had a Boy."

Percy Gray, manager of the juvenile and midget teams, read a letter from Jack Christie, OMHA secretary, congratulating the midgets on becoming finalists. He also made interesting remarks pertaining to the finances and general welfare of the team. Reeve Vincent Lynch, who is chairman of the Marmora District Recreation Centre Commission, extended congratulations to the three teams and paid a tribute to the caretaker, Manley Lavender, for his good work in this initial season. He urged the citizens to get behind the commission morally and financially. In a brief business session, Bernard Hughes reported for the waterworks ad sewage disposal committee.

Dit Spoke

Dit Clapper was introduced by Joseph O'Neill, manager of the Trent Valley League team, in a speech in which highlights of Dit's hockey career were touched upon. The noted hockeyist touched briefly on his hockey background, saying that possibilities were greater now for boys than when he was a boy. Speaking to the boys, he traced his own progress from the time he played for his school at Aurora until he entered upon his professional career. He drew smiles as he referred to his days in the old Trent Valley League which he dubbed "the Blood and Thunder League." He reminded the youngsters in his audience that hockey is typical of all life in that you graduate from one class into another. He urged them to be good sportsmen off the ice as well as on and to learn like he himself had, to be a good loser. "Good sportsmen make good citizens," said Dit. "Among the men who are supporting you today as good citizens are doubtless many who were good sports in past days."

He then invited questions, as a result of which some interesting sidelights were forthcoming.

On behalf of the Chamber of Commerce he was cordially thanked by William Shannon for "his fine heart to heart talk."

In closing the president announced the next meeting for May 12 whe J. M. Smith of the field service department of the Chamber of Commerce will be the special speaker.

Dit Clapper was subjected to a little lionizing as the meeting closed as the players on the juvenile and midget teams edged towards him for his autograph.

Volleyball Playoffs To Start Saturday

Playoffs for the Lillico Volleyball Trophy will start Saturday afternoon in the YMCA gym. At 2:15 Stan Payne's team will meet Bill Young's. At 3 p.m. Cliff Cadd meets Don Crawford's squad and at 3:45 Ken Kingston's men play off with Steve Csumrik's. The matches will be two games out of three.

Wednesday night the tie for the sixth playoff was settled when Steve Csumrik's team defeated the Batley team in two games out of three.

Winners of the Saturday afternoon play will meet in round-robin series Wednesday night, April 27. Winner of the play that night will be the possessor of the Lillico Trophy.

Drowned On Cruise

PHILADELPHIA, April 22—(AP)—Mrs. Virginia Pitcairn, 25, was drowned in a stormy sea during a cruise from New York to Bermuda, her mother-in-law disclosed yesterday. Mrs. Harold F. Pitcairn said the young Mrs. Pitcairn slipped on the deck of a 70-foot rented schooner April 12 and fell overboard, four days out of New York.

PCVS Seniors Take Two In Tournament

KINGSTON, April 22 (CP) — Queen's University's basbetball tournament continued on its hectic way Thursday with games being played every hour. With 250 high school players from all Eastern Ontario participating, the huge Queen's gymnasium was a beehive of activity.

In one of the better games of the day, Ottawa Glebe edged out a surprisingly-strong Belleville squad 27-26 with a last-minute rally. White and Proctor with eight and six points respectively led for Glebe while Starry Ray Galbraith scored 14 for the losers.

Picton eliminated Morrisburg when they defeated them 25-16. Cornelius paced the winners 11, and they now will meet Renfrew.

Napanee's strong cagers pushed by Kemptville 39-18, with captain Jim Elliott scoring 16 points. Napanee thus qualified for the semi-final round against Prescott.

Peterborough, pre-tournament favorites in the "A" section, defeated Niagara Falls 29-21. Niagara seemed to have lost their scoring power in the morning game when they breezed to a tournament record in defeating Cornwall, 61-8.

Regiopolis pushed Perth into the discard with a 38-23 win.

Champs Out

Brockville's hustling players knocked off last year's champs, Ottawa Tech, by 39-28. Paul and Murray with 14 and 13 paced the winners. Tech's Miller was high with eight.

Almonte eliminated Trenton when they sneaked out a 24-21 win. Prescott won the right to meet Napanee in the semi-finals as they nosed out the Renfrew Red Raiders 22-21.

Nepean from Ottawa trounced their intra-city rivals, Commerce, by 37-17. Nepean now meets Albert College in the semi-finals.

Belleville eliminated Cornwall by a 47-22 count, with McClay netting 12. They now will meet last year's "B" section champions, Brockville, with the loser being eliminated.

Napanee team continued its winning ways with a 33-15 victory over Prescott in another "C" section game.

Albert College battled its way into the semi-final round of "B" section with a 40-25 triumph over Pembroke.

Ottawa Glebe downed Brockville by a 34-25 count in Section "A," for schools with a registration over 400.

Albert College stepped into the final round of Section "B" with a 25-16 win over Ottawa Nepean.

Peterborough remained the only undefeated team in Section "A" by vjrtue of their 30-19 victory over Ottawa Glebe in the final game of the day. Wilkins, Fallis and Dover were the pick of the losers, while H. Dibben and Northcott paced the fast-breaking Peterborough team.

Predicts Showdown

TORONTO, April 22 (CP) — E. B. Jolliffe, leader of the CCF Opposition in the Ontario Legislature, predicted Thursday night that the next general election will see a showdown battle between CCF and Progressive Conservative forces in the Toronto area. Speaking on the same platform as M. J. Coldwell, CCF National Leader, at a party gathering, he said he wrote off the Liberal party's chances in this area as nil.

Paul Robeson Booed

STOCKHOLM, April 22 (AP)—Paul Robeson's concert Thursday night turned into a political row. The trouble started when the noted American Negro baritone sang a new Russian anthem. The first verse, sung in Russian, was greeted quietly. However, when Robeson sang the second verse in English, which most of the audience understood, the crowd started a demonstration which for a time drowned out the singer.

Bakers Re-organize

HASTINGS, April 22 (ENS) — Bakers softball team, winners of the league softball championship last year, held their first meeting of the season on Wednesday.

It was decided to keep Harry Chennell as the team's manager for the 1949 season with Alton Thompson as coach.

There will be few changes in the players from last year, but any who wish to try out for the team are asked to contact either the manager or coach before May 1 when the team plans to start practicing.

Brandon Kings Whip Buffaloes

BRANDON, Man., April 22 — (CP)—Brandon Wheat Kings today are within one game of making a 17-year-old dream come true—gaining a Western Canada Junior hockey title for the wheat city.

Thursday night the Wheaties walloped Calgary Buffaloes 5-2 to take a commanding 3-1 lead in games in their best-of-seven series for the Abbott Cup and the right to meet Montreal Royals in the Canadian final.

No. since 1932-33, when Turk Broda, now goaltender of the Stanley Cup champion Toronto Maple Leafs, played junior hockey for Brandon, has the Wheat City used such a strong aggregation. That year, Brandon was beaten in the western final by Regina.

Now odds-on favorites to wind up the series here Saturday night the Wheat Kings again displayed a powerful defence aggregation and brilliant goal keeping. It was through the terrific work of goalie Ray Frederick and his defencemen that Brandon came back to win the second and third games at Calgary 4-1 and 5-3 after dropping the opener 3-1.

Here and There In Sport

By The Canadian Press

A parade of vehicles stretching for more than a mile formed an escort Thursday at Kirkland Lake for Ted Lindsay and Nels Podolsky as they returned to their homes here after a strenuous National Hockey League campaign.

The two Detroit Red Wing stars were met at the city limits and escorted to the Teck township hall where they were greeted by Councillor Larry Desgroseillers and other representatives of the municipality.

Later Reeve Anne Shipley made a presentation to the two athletes.

At Sackville, NB, Mount Allison University edged Sault Ste. Marie Algos 43-42 Thursday night but lost the Canadian Intermediate basketball semi-finals to the Ontario squad. Algos won the opening game Wednesday night 59-44 to take the two-game, total-point series 101-87. The Algos now will open a two-game Canadian final at Antogonish, NS, Saturday against St. Francis Xavier University.

At Montreal, a fast-moving Toronto Central YMCA quintet scored a 43-38 victory over Montreal YMHA Blues here Thursday night to take a five-point lead in the opening game of a two-game, total-point series in the Eastern Canada Junior basketball semi-final playoffs.

At Kirkland Lake, Thurso Lumber Kings moved two games up in the Eastern Canada Intermediate A semi-finals by downing Rouyn Flashes 6-4. Thurso now leads the best-of-five series 2-0 in games. The teams now move to Ottawa for the remaining games, with the third game Saturday night.

Sittings Open May 2

OTAWA, April 22 — (CP). — Sittings of the Royal Commission on Transportation will open here May 2, the Commission announced Thursday. The opening sessions are expected to take two or three days and will be followed by regional hearings in the provinces, the announcement said.

Has No Peace Feelers

WASHINGTON, April 22 (AP) —President Truman said Thursday no peace feelers from Soviet Russia have come his way. That was his comment at a press conference when asked about rumors abroad that Russia is trying to get a resumption of four-power talks on German occupation.

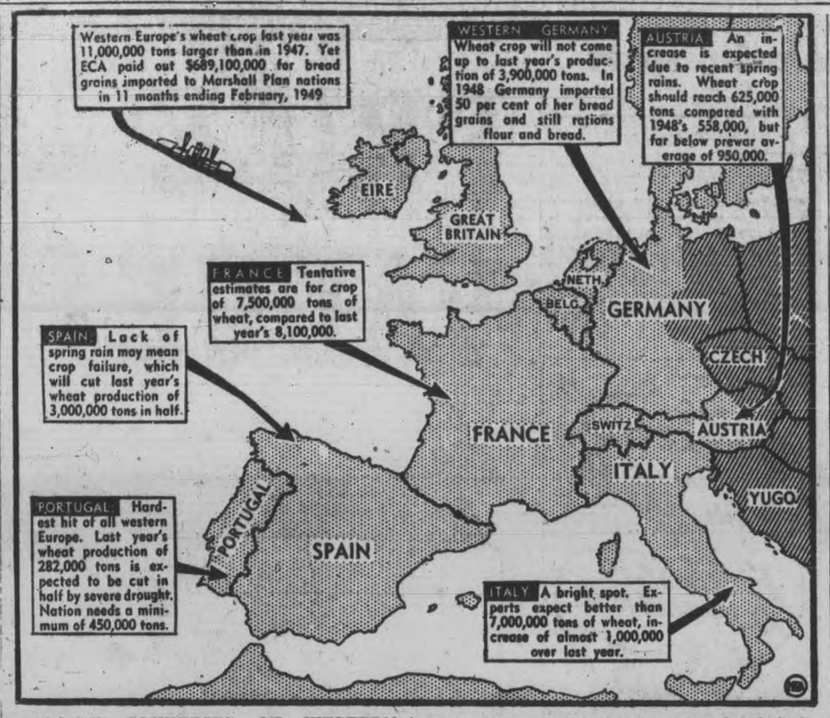
Primate Lauds Harding's Work



HALIFAX, April 22 (CP) — Most Reverend George Frederick Kingston, Archbishop of Nova Scotia and Primate of all Canada, Thursday night paid the following tribute to Most Rev. M. T. M. Harding, former Anglican Bishop of Rupert's Land who died Thursday at Toronto.

"The Church of England in Canada from coast to coast highly honors the name of the late Malcolm Taylor McAdam Harding, former Archbishop of Rupert's Land who retired from active service in 1943.

"He was a priest of the church for 60 years and a Bishop for 40 years. During that long period he gave outstanding service both in eastern Canada and in the west...

"His wise counsel as an Archbishop and Metropolitan gave him a high place in determining the policy of the church, not only in his own ecclesiastical province but throughout the whole of Canada

"The House of Bishops and the General Synod have profited greatly by his creative mind and soul."

MOST COUNTRIES OF WESTERN EUROPE will need larger imports of wheat from the U. S. and Argentina this year because drought, due to lack of winter snow and rain, will cut crops considerably below last year's bumper harvest. The 1948 grain crop was nearly at prewar level, but still does not solve Europe's food problems because meat and dairy production is down and the population up eight per cent since 1938. The map gives the country-by-country situation.

Driver Acquitted

LONDON, Ont., April 22 (CP) An Assize Court jury late Thursday acquitted Thomas Van Sickle 22, of Sarnia, on a charge of manslaughter arising from the highway death of a friend which, the Crown had alleged, culminated several hours of drinking by two young couples.

Edward Thompson, 22, also of Sarnia, was killed in January when Van Sickle's borrowed auto smashed into a bridge on No. 22 highway near Melrose.

The jury was out 2½ hours. It returned once to ask Mr. Justice G. A. Gale instructions on alternate verdicts. It was told there were three—manslaughter, dangerous driving, or acquittal.

Coldwell Charges Big Monopoly Prevents Newspaper Development

TORONTO, April 22 (CP)—M. J. Coldwell, CCF leader charged Thursday night that "monopoly" prevents the development of new daily newspapers in Canada.

In a speech prepared for delivery at a political rally here, Mr. Coldwell said that "this year, in four short months, Canada's only Labor daily and Canada's only co-operatively-owned daily have suspended publication."

He said the Labor-owned Glace Bay, NS, Gazette and the co-operatively-owned Winnipeg Citizen now are history.

"So is the Halifax Chronicle which disappeared in a merger on New Year's Day, 1949."

Continuing, he said:

"There are 11 cities in Ontario with over 30,000 people according to the 1941 census. Of these, nine have a monopoly in the daily newspaper field, and a 10th, Toronto, has seen two of its dailies come under single ownership this year.

Press Freedom Mockery

"To see great cities like Windsor, Hamilton and London, subject to a monopoly in the newspaper field is to see freedom of the press only a mockery in Canada. The attempt of the founders of the Winnipeg Citizen to break into the newspaper field has shown up two other aspects of monopoly's grip on the press of Canada.

"No newspaper can be successful without a national news service. There are two of these in Canada—the British United Press and Canadian Press. The Winnipeg Citizen was able to secure neither, and I believe the reason may be found in the vested interest of the two other Winnipeg dailies in those two news services.

"Another source of the difficulties of the Citizen was the priority system kept in effect by newsprint companies. This system allocates all the available newsprint to existing users and makes no allowance for new papers. Monopoly prevents the development of new dailies in Canada and the evolution of capitalism steadily promotes amalgamations, suspensions and so on.

"Add to these the power of the advertiser. Advertising is such an important source of newspaper revenue that editors who want to stay with a financially successful newspaper often feel it is discreet not to disagree with the viewpoint of their advertisers . . ."

Not Refused

Gillis Purcel, general manager of The Canadian Press, Thursday night made the following comment on M. J. Coldwell's references to suspension of publication by the Winnipeg Citize:

The Winipeg Citizen, which started publication March 1, 1948, made two applications for the news service of the Canadian Press. Neither was refused.

The first application was withdrawn by the Citizen before it could be acted upon by the CP board at its meeting Oct. 5 last.

The second would have been considered by the board May 2 next had the Citizen not ceased publication April 12.

The other Winnipeg papers (Free Press and Tribune) raised no objection to either application.

Report Calves Down $2-$3 During Week

TORONTO, April 22 (CP). — Cattle prices closed 50 to 75 cents a hundredweight higher with the spots $1 higher on an active Livestock Market here this week. Calves dropped $2-$3. Hogs, sheep and lambs were unchanged.

The cattle run of 5,030 head sold well and only some 90 head were held over. Medium to good weighty steers sold at $20-$22.50 with choice at $23. Good light steers were $21-$22 and good heifers $20.50-$21 a hundredweight. Plain light steers and heifers sold at $18-$19.50. Medium to good cows closed at $16-$18 a hundredweight. Canners and cutters were $10-$13.50.

Good bulls sold at $18-$18.75, with plain lights downward to $16.50. Fed yearlings were mostly $20-$23 a hundredweight. Stockers were steady at $18.50-$20 for picked lots with plain downwards to $15. Ordinary quality milkers and springers sold at $1560-$200 each.

Exports of slaughter cattle from the Toronto yards were light.

Calves totalled 1,715 head. Good to choice vealers dropped $2 a hundredweight to a range of $25-$27 a hundredweight. Lower grades lost $2 a hundredweight, with plain to medium lightweight from $14-$24. Grassers for slaughter were also down $2 a hundredweight at $10-$15.

Hogs were only 2,621 head. Opening bids were 75 cents a hundredweight lower but the final market settlement was steady at $30.25 for Grade-A and $29.85 for Grade-B1. Sows were unchanged at $23 dressed.

Sheep and lamb receipts were 354 head. A few feed lot lambs of medium to good quality sold at $25-$26.50 a hundredweight. Half a dozen spring lambs brought $30-$35 with weights around 65 to 75 pounds. Sheep were from $6 to $12 according to quality.

Saunders Asks Better Use Power Supply

OTTAWA, April 22 (CP) — More efficient use of the power resources of the St. Lawrence and Niagara Rivers was urged Thursday by Robert Saunders of Toronto, Chairman of the Ontario Hydro Commission.

"Every minute, every day potential power is being wasted by improper use of these great natural resources," said Mr. Saunders. He spoke at a joint meeting of the Engineering Institute of Canada and the Canadian Insti-

By making full use of the power of the Niagara will be discussed with the Niagara-Hudson Company in Buffalo, N. Y., very soon. The waste, he added, should be stopped as quickly as possible.

The Canadian and United States governments will be asked to allow the Hydro Commission to go ahead with power developments on the St. Lawrence if they decide not to proceed with the joint seaways and power projects.

"I have no desire to be drawn into any arguments on the merits or demerits of the joint plan," he said, "but, as Chairman of Hydro, I am anxious for the right to go ahead with the power portion of that project."

Mr. Saunders told of the Commission's efforts to meet new demands for power. Every new home, factory or office meant another consumer of power. Hydro was supplying 868,593 consumers today compared with 759,112 in 1945.

Buckhorn Club Gives Play At Lakefield

LAKEFIELD, April 22 (ENS)— The play "An Old-Fashioned Mother" presented by the Buckhorn Community Club in Memorial Hall on Wednesday evening was well received.

Sponsored by the Lakefield Women's Institute, the play netted $50.

Mrs. Bruce Hall had the leading part as the old fashioned Mother. Mrs. Neil Windover played the Village Widow; Mrs. R. Montgomery, the choir leader; Mrs. T. Mason, the village belle; Neil Windover, county sheriff; Bob Dixon, Jerry Goselin, the chore boy; Bruce Hall, the outcast John Windover, the prodigal son, and four choir girls completed the cast.

The candy committee made a profit of $11, with Mrs. W. Irwin as convener.

Mr. J. McKercher was at the door.

Lunch was served to the visitors by Mrs. Roy Bullock and her committee.

Inquiries Invited On City Zoning

After considerable study by the City Planning Board, the City has been fully zoned as to permissible land uses. Zoning is one of the first principles of City Planning and is established to protect property values and to provide for the orderly and best development of the City in all its aspects.

Prospective purchasers of property, particularly for commercial use, are advised that before buying properties they should learn at the City Hall the uses permitted for the property in which they are interested. This information is readily available to all inquiries made at the City Hall.

Train Schedules Altered With Fast Time

The railways switch to summer time Sunday. This change is effective at 12.01 a.m. April 24.

The CPR schedule, on daylight saving time, until the end of September is announced as follows:

Westbound passenger trains: Early morning train from the east leaves Peterborough at 5.35 a.m. daily; arriving in Toronto at 7.45 a.m.

The morning local leaves at 7.10 a.m., arriving Toronto at 9.15, daily except Sunday.

The afternoon express leaves Peterborough at 5.55 p.m., daily except Sunday, arriving in Toronto 8.15 p.m.

The "Bobcaygeon Mixed" leaves Peterborough at 11.10 a.m., daily except Sunday, arriving Bobcaygeon at 2.15 p.m.

Traffic Going East

Eastbound traffic (also on daylight saving time)—The noon express leaves Toronto at 10.30 a.m., leaves Peterborough at 12.40 noon arrives Montreal 8.30 p.m.; connection at Smiths Falls arrives Ottawa at 6.35 p.m., daily except Sunday.

The evening local leaves Toronto at 6.40 p.m., arrives Peterborough 9 p.m., daily except Saturday and Sunday. On Saturdays only this train leaves Toronto at 1.30 p.m., arriving here at 3.45 p.m.

The midnight express leaves Toronto at 12 midnight; leaves Peterborough at 2.05 a.m.; arrives Ottawa 7.45 a.m. daily.

The Sunday morning train leaves Toronto at 10 a.m., arrives Peterborough at 12.20 noon, and arrives at Havelock at 1.05 p.m., Sundays only.

The "Bobcaygeon mixed" leaves Bobcaygeon at 3 p.m., arrives here 5.30 p.m., leaves Peterborough at 6.30 p.m., daily except Sunday.

To avoid any confusion about change of time, present schedule and so on, T. G. M. Jamieson emphasizes for clarity that the times set out above are all daylight saving. For instance the noon train from Toronto arrives here at 12.40 p.m. Monday, April 25, that is at the noon hour.

TRAILER WRECKED

The chassis of a trailer loaded with furniture was completely severed from the rest of the trailer when it was in collision with a truck at Rubidge and Sherbrooke streets Thursday. George Herington was driving a truck which was pulling the trailer north on Rubidge St. and the other truck was driven by S. M. Scott, Belleville. Constable Eldon McDonald investigated.

Blind Institute Requests Stand

The Canadian National Institute for the Blind has asked the Board of Governors of Peterborough Civic Hospital for permission to operate a news or concession stand in the lobby of the new hospital. When the matter was discussed Thursday at a Board meting at the city buildings, it was decided to approach the Hospital Women's Auxiliary, which at present operates a bedside service, before arriving at a decision.

The Board was unanimous in its appreciation of the service given by the Auxiliary and was anxious not to enter into any agreement which would interfere with its work.

The letter from the Institute explained that it had stands in a number of hospitals throughout Canada which are attended by fully-trained men.

Give Leave Of Absence To Hospital Secretary

Miss A. Davidson, secretary of Peterborough Civic Hospital, who has been ill for some time, was granted a further month's leave of absence Thursday by the Board of Governors. John Hornal, hospital superintendent, said Miss Davidson had served the hospital for 42 years.

The Board decided to accept Rodger Slute, a student at the School of Hospital Administration of the University of Toronto as an interne for one year, with a living allowance of $1,800. Dr. Harvey Agnew, head of the school had made the suggestion to Mr. Hornal, who had since interviewed the student and recommended that Mr. Slute be accepted to do purchasing work.

Mr. Hornal said that Mr. Slute had an arts degree and had taken a post graduate course in economics, psychology and other subjects. Aged 24, he had served with the RCAF during the war.

'Lena Rivers' Presented By All Saints Drama Club

By P. McCOMBE

A stage adaptation of Mary G. Holmes' popular novel of some years ago, "Lena Rivers," was presented on Thursday evening by the dramatic club of All Saints' Church in the parish hall. The curtain rose promptly at eight. This club is fortunate in possessing a fairly good built stage, and the setting was pleasant, although rather crowded. Bright lamps shining directly on the back wall tended to throw faces and figures into silhouette and some of the facial expressions of the actors were lost through this. The dialogue of the play is rather stilted, reminiscent of an earlier period.

The plot is the familiar one of the rich society family of snobs who have to offer a home to poor relatives (Granny and Granddaughter) and who are thereby changed into fairly nice people, granddaughter meantime having found herself a father and a sweetheart (both rich).

The actors, worked hard with their material, and succeeded in making this rather unlikely situation into an excellent evening's entertainment. The part of Lena Rivers was taken by Doreen Gilders with Grace Webb as Granny Nichols. John Livingstone, Lena's uncle was played by Joe Gatfield, while Phyllis Weir as his ambitious and snobbish wife gave a convincing performance. Florence Townsend is to be commended for her vigorous handling of the part of Caroline Livingstone while Anna, her sister, played by Elsie Bromley had a warmth and sincerity which provided excellent contrast. Junior, her brother, played by Don Ketchabaw should have been more boisterous. Frank Graham (the long-lost father) was played by Gord Lupton who was effective in the early scenes, but must resist a tendency to rush through the rather awkward final scenes. Eleanor Carroll as Mrs. Graham, was a convincing character but rather young in appearance. Don Boulter was Dunward Belmont and Perry Perrault played Malcolm Everett. Much laughter was created by Edith Abraham and Doug Weir as the coloured servants. Dresses were smart and appropriate.

Between acts Miss Nicolette Humphrey sang acceptably, accompanied by Jim Abraham at the piano.

Homer Lundy directed the play with Florence Townsend as stage manager, stage make-up was by Miss Selina Buck. The show is to be repeated tonight.

Two Youths Held For Theft Of Car

Two Peterborough youths, Elgie Dunford and Kenneth Robinson, who were arrested Thursday evening by Provincial Costables Archie Grayling and E. J. Crough, today pleaded not guilty to charges of theft of a car and gasoline. They appeared at city police court before Magistrate W. R. Philp, KC, and were remanded on $1,000 bail each until Tuesday.

The police were searching for the boys after receiving a complaint from Ansel Woodcock that gasoline had been taken from his car in Otonabee. The constables made the arrest at Brookside Pavilion where they saw the boys in possession of a car which they allege had been taken while Percy Harrison, said to be the owner, was at the Armouries.

NOTIFY MEMBERS

Members of the Peterborough Fish and Game Protective Association, Boy Scouts, and interested members of the public, should inform Norman Bradley or George Houghton if they wish to go on the tree-planting expedition to Buckley's Lake. The party will assemble across from the CNR freight sheds, by the residence of Mr. Bradley, 302 Aylmer St. at 1 p.m. on Saturday.

Muskrat Catch Below Normal

The harvest of muskrat pelts in the season ending Thursday was 25 per cent. less than average, Charlton McBride of Lech's said this morning.

Traps were being lifted today terminating the 1949 trapping season, and trappers have ten days' grace, affording them time to sell their pelts.

"Trappers say they believe the muskrats were around," Mr. McBride said, "but their spring run was over before trapping got started. That appears to have been a result of the mild winter, especially in March."

That is the only explanation the trappers offer. The trade price to them was $2 to $2.25, about 75 cents a pelt less than last year.

"That was hard to understand, a light run of rats and a drop in price," Mr. McBride remarked.

There has probably been a carry-over from last year, and some supply of this season's pelts from other parts of the country. It has been reported from some quarters of the fur business that dealers have had to look around for supplies to meet their expected needs in the coming year, although there has been no scramble for hides.

Present Final Plans For Nurses' Residence

Final plans for the nurses' residence which is to be built at the new Civic Hospital were placed before the Board of Governors at city hall, Thursday. At the request of Ald. Dick Raine, the building committee of the Board gave them a final perusal before the special committee of the council today considered advertising for tenders.

Ald. Raine asked whether any indication could be given as to when the two wings of the hospital at present under construction would be completed. Chairman John R. Marshall thought it impossible to make a forecast at this time.

Discuss Sending 100 Extra Pupils To PCVS

Interested ratepayers from North Cavan, South Monaghan and Millbrook attended a special meeting of the Peterborough High School District Board on Thursday night, to discuss possible amalgamation.

They plied the newly-formed board members with questions, particularly regarding the problem of transportation. The total number of students involved is about 133—40 from North Cavan; 16 from South Monaghan, and 77 from Millbrook. However, 35 of these students—20 from North Cavan and 15 from South Monaghan, are already attending PCVS.

There are already slightly more than 200 students attending PCVS from the Peterborough High School District and this addition would boost the number to the 300 mark.

Chief inquisitor was W. H. Carlton, Cobourg, Inspector of Schools for East Durham and West Northumberland.

The visiting delegates were interested in what provision might be made at PCVS for an agricultural course. Before they arrived Mr. Kitney had told the members of the High School District Board that the Board of Education was considering the request for such a course.

Space Biggest Problem

He said he had spoken to K. S. Wightman, Superintendent of Schools, on the subject, and was of the opinion that Mr. Wightman favored the idea. Chief stumbling block in the way of its realization was the shortage of space at the Collegiate, he said.

At the moment the Board of Education is examining the possibility, he stated, and is making a survey to determine if there is sufficient space.

As the Board members did not know how such a course would be conducted they decided to write to the Department of Education asking for details on the teaching of agriculture in secondary schools.

But when the delegates from South Monaghan, North Cavan and Millbrook arrived, the discussion occurred again.

"The rural child does not want a different education than an urban child," said Dr. M. E. Hobbs of Millbrook. "But there should be an opportunity for rural pupils to have an agricultural bias to their studies if they so desire it."

When Inspector W. H. Carlton suggested he use the term "agricultural option," Dr. Hobbs replied: "No. I think they should all have it."

City Boys Also

Robert Dawson, chairman of the South Monaghan School Board, suggested it would be a good idea for urban students to have the opportunity to learn

STANLEY D. JOHNSTON

Stan Johnston Governor Of County Jail

Stanley David Johnston, Chief Turnkey at the Peterborough County Jail since 1935, has been appointed Governor of the County Jail by the Department of Reform Institutions. He succeeds the late Col. T. Dalton Johnston, a cousin, who died recently.

Mr. Johnston has served as acting Jailer since December 8, during the late Governor fatal illness, and his appointment to the vacant post was made retroactive to February 1, 1949.

He comes from a soldiering line, and is the descendant of one of Peterborough County's well-known, pioneer families. His forefathers settled in Otonabee in 1831 and all have taken a prominent part in municipal affairs.

His father, the late Col. T. J. Johnston, served in the militia for 22 years and was Colonel of the 93rd Battalion in The First World War.

T. J. Johnston was also very active in municipal politics. He served on the Otonabee Council for about 20 years, and was also a County Councillor for many years. He was Warden in 1906.

He farmed in Otonabee and after the First World War when many farmers found they could not meet their mortgages he became Receiver General of the district under the Farmers' Creditors Agreement Act.

The new Governor was born in Otonabee, and after his father Col. Johnston, returned from overseas, he joined the Cobourg Heavy Battery in 1917. Along with a draft of other gunners he went overseas early in 1918 and went to France with the 53rd Battery (18 pounders).

In March 1919 he was discharged, and he joined the jail staff on January 1, 1930. Apart from a four-year leave of absence during the present war, he has been employed there since.

During the Second World War he served with the Veterans' Guard in Canada. He was discharged in May 1944 and returned to his former post as Chief Turnkey in the County Jail.

Child, 5, Bitten By Dog, Need 22 Stitches

Bitten by a dog Thursday while playing at St. John's Separate School, Braidwood Ave., five-year-old Patsy Douglas, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Douglas, 748 Young St., is now in Civic Hospital with 22 stitches in her head.

Humane Society Inspector Gerald Dunford says the dog was tied up at the time of the incident.

The child was attended by Dr Robert Bell, who earlier this month attended six-year-old Maxine Hurley, 555 McKellar St. when she was bitten by the same dog.

Another youngster bitten by a different dog Thursday is Bobby Marshall, 684 Stormont St. When Inspector Dunford saw the boy today, he advised the mother to take him to a doctor.

The inspector told The Examiner that the Society will not hesitate to prosecute if dogs are found running loose in the city. Throughout the summer, until October, dogs must not be allowed to run loose, he declared.

VETERANS RENTAL HOUSING

VETERANS of World War II who are employed in the City of Peterborough and who have not suitable housing accommodation are requested to register their names immediately with the Central Mortgage and Housing Corporation on Hunter Street, Peterborough.

THE REASON for this request to veterans is in order that housing authorities may establish now the need for rental housing and plan the size of program for new housing construction required this summer in the City of Peterborough.

City Clerk.

Manitoba Plans To Set Up Hydro Board

By DOUGLAS GREEN

WINNIPEG, April 22 (CP)—If a bill now before the legislature is passed, the Manitoba government will set up a hydro-electric board vested with sweeping authority over the provision of power in all its aspects.

Early last year, Dr. T. H. Hogg, power consultant to the province, recommended as the soundest long-term program the establishment of a provincial generating agency responsible exclusively for developing the power requirements of Manitoba's main industrial and agricultural areas.

The bill before the house would implement this recommendation. The province already is venturing into the production of its own hydro-electric energy through the development of a plant at Pine Falls, on the Winnipeg river.

Approve Expenditure

The legislature has approved capital expenditure of $7,000,000, on the Pine Falls project during the 1949-50 fiscal year, its total cost is expected to be between $18,000,000 and $20,000,000, with a capacity of 114,000 horsepower on completion—enough to avert a shortage of power forcast by Dr. Hogg as likely to occur by the fall of 1951.

Under Dr. Hogg's recommendations, the province would either lease or buy all power plants now operating on the Winnipeg River—those of the municipally-owned city of Winnipeg Hydro-electric system and those of the privately-owned Winnipeg electric company.

Premier D. L. Campbell has emphasized that the government hopes to reach a "wholly voluntary" agreement with the city of Winnipeg and the surrounding municipalities.

Card Contains Drugs

TORONTO, April 22 (CP) — Police Thursday disclosed that guards at Toronto jail had intercepted an Easter card, addressed to a prisoner which contained narcotics. Police said the card was sent to Johnny Hill, recently sentenced to six years in Kingston penitentiary for selling narcotics. Winnifred Brown, 33, has been arrested on a charge of illegal possession of drugs. Police believe she was the sender of the card.

Summer Session Likely For Slow-Moving Congress

By GEORGE RONALD

WASHINGTON, April 22—(CP)—Congress may have to stay on the job all summer if full consideration is given to President Truman's "Fair Deal" program.

The legislative box-score to-date is not impressive. After almost four months, the 81st Congress has made only two major decisions: It authorized extension of the European recovery program and voted to retain controls.

The Truman program also includes civil rights, a few labor law, price controls, increased taxation housing aid to education, a new kind of aid to farmers, an amended reciprocal trade agreements act, more social security a higher minimum wage and national health insurance.

None of these has yet been written into law.

Causes of Delay

Cited as chief reasons for the slow progress are:

1. The time-wasting filibuster in which southern democrats teamed with Republicans in a successful fight to preserve the Senate's right to filibuster.

This battle had civil rights undertones. Southerners look on the filibuster as their one sure weapon against enactment of the President's anti-discrimination, anti-lynching proposals. They claim these are matters for action by individual states, not by the Federal Authority.

2. Republican tactics which smack of political jealousy and which Democratic leaders call a deliberate slowdown.

This was most evident in the Senate's E. R. P. debate. The bill won overwhelming approval, but only after a long, weary series of Republican criticisms and proposed amendments.

New Subjects

Prospects of a long, hot summer session are heightened by at least four highly important matters which have arisen since Truman's appeal to the public last November.

The North Atlantic Treaty must be ratified. The measure to provide arms for the European members of the alliance also is slated for thorough study.

The International Wheat agreement signed here in March will not take effect unless ratified by a majority of the 41 signatory countries by July 1.

And Congress has much to do if the Hoover Commission's long report on re-organization of government departments and agencies is to be more than a scrap of paper.

Liquor Revenue Grows

TORONTO, April 22 (CP) — C. H. Millard, CCF member of the Ontario Legislature from York West, said Thursday the people of Ontario were "going into the liquor business up to the hilt." Mr. Millard told members of the 58th annual convention of the Ontario Temperance Federation that "this year our system of public financing is becoming increasingly dependent for revenue on liquor." He said $37,000,000 was collected last year through liquor taxation.

Enforce Fishing Laws In Spawning Season

With the commencement of the lunge, bass and pickerel spawning season the game wardens are keeping a close watch on fishing waters. District Forester A. B. Wheatley, Lindsay, has announced that the enforcement staff has been increased by 15 seasonal overseers to cover the Trent River and Kawartha Lake chain.

First prosecution at city police court was a fine and costs totalling $12.50 imposed on Jack Burns, 712 Romaine St., who was caught by Game Warden Stanley Windsor fishing for pickerel at the lower locks at 2 a.m. April 9.

Wants Stricter Custody

LONDON, Ont., April 22 (CP) —Mr. Justice G. A. Gale said he "looked forward to the day" when judges may rule more strictly on the custody of children in divorce cases. Young children should not be separated, he said in assize court Thursday when a London woman plaintiff asked only for the custody of one of her two children. The other is with her husband's parents in Stratford. Judgment on custody was reserved.

Canada Making Two Designs Of Jet Engines

Propulsion efficiency of the conventional propeller decreases rapidly at speeds in excess of 400 m.p.h., J. T. Purvis told the Engineering Institute of Canada Branch, in the Public Library Thursday night. He is the engineer in charge of the Turbine Design Section of the Gas Turbine Engineering Division, A. V. Roe, Canada Limited. His topic was "Jet Aircraft Engines."

"When the aircraft is travelling at 400 m.p.h., or more, the propeller blade tips are slicing through the air at speeds approaching the speed of sound. In the jet engine the efficiency of the engine is a function of its forward speed, so that for high speed flight its high fuel consumption can be tolerated. The jet engine does not require the use of expensive high octane fuels."

Mr. Purvis said the high fuel consumption is sometimes a disadvantage of the gas jet turbine engine. But he added that gradually this problem is being overcome. He explained that whenever the fuel consumption is discussed, aircraft sped should be considered with the relative cheapness of the fuel. Most jet engines operate on aviation kerosene and other fuel oils cheaper than kerosene.

Mr. Purvis showed a series of slides, explaining the parts of the jet engines as he went along. Slides of the Junkers Ju. 004 and and American type engine were shown along with the Canadian jet engine, the Avro Chinook.

In telling of the history of the jet engine in Canada Mr. Purvis said the first company was established in 1944, the Turbo Research Limited. From November 1944 to the fall of 1946 employees of the company were sent to work at the Power Jets Limited in England for experience.

In 1946, he continued, the Canadian Government completed negotiations with the A. V. Roe Limited for the continuation of the work started by the Turbo Research during the war. On March 17, 1948, Canada's first jet engine, known as the Avro Canada Chinook completed its first successful run. On February 10 the second design of the engine, the Orenda, completed its first run. He said the development of both these engines is proceeding rapidly.

In describing the Avro Canada Chinook, Mr. Purvis said it is a simple jet engine incorporating a nine-stage axial compressor and a single stage turbine. He explained that it is 32 inches in diameter and 10½ feet long. It has a top speed of 10,100 revolutions per minute. With the use of slides he discussed the parts of the jet engine from the nose bullet to the tail cone.

Mr. Purvis showed a film on the description of the operation of a gas turbine engine. This told of the first attempt at flying by jet propulsion to the present day flying models.

Hog Lost 18 Weeks

NEWVILLE, Ala., April 22 (AP) —A 300-pound hog survived more than 18 weeks in an abandoned well, it was learned yesterday.

Half a dozen other persons vouched for the story as told by farmer J. D. Hatton. Hatton found the emaciated hog, which had long been given up for lost. The only apparent harm to the animal was loss of weight.

Mrs. Wm. Post Institute Head

WESTWOOD, April 22 (ENS) Tht annual meeting of Westwood Women's Institute was held on Tuesday afternoon in the Town Hall with the retiring president Mrs. A. Wood in charge.

The yearly report given by the secretary-treasurer Mrs. Stuart Graham showed a very sucessful year; total receipts $447.23; expenditures $317.90 leaving a balance of $129.33.

Members paid their fees in answer to the roll call. Fees were increased to 50c; 15c to be sent to W. I. Department; 10c to District; 2c to Confederated Women of Canada and balance for local treasury.

New hand books were ordered also four federated pins.

Letters of thanks were read from Mrs. Fred Neilson, Mrs. L. Doherty and Miss Barbara Elmhurst.

It was announced that the District Annual will be held at Havelock with the Belmont Branch in charge on June 14.

A Union Jack Flag will be purchased. This flag will be placed in the Westwood Hall. A buying committee composed of Mrs. L. Hutchinson, Mrs. Pacey and Mrs. F. Neilson was appointed to make necessary purchases; immediate needs being a hot-plate, cups and tea towels. Four boxes of plants will also be purchased for the decoration of the cenotaph.

Five books handed in by Mrs. Birdsall will be sent to a Peterborough Hospital library.

Mrs. T. J. Cardwell was the winner of the penny colection attendance prize which was a lovely Kenwood blanket drawn for by Norma Neilson of Carleton Place, granddaughter of Mrs. H. Neilson. It was decided to repeat this prize for the coming year.

Mrs. F. E. Birdsall took the chair for election of officers as follows; Honorary President, Mrs. A. Wood; President, Mrs. William Post; 1st. vice, Mrs. T. J. Cardwell; 2nd vice, Mrs. H. Pacey; Sec.-Treas., Mrs. Stuart Graham; District Director, Mrs. W. Morris; Board Executive, Mrs. Birdsall, Mrs. E. Sargent; Branch Executive, Mrs. J Thompson, Mrs. W. Renwick; Corresponding Secretary and Sunshine Committee, Mrs. W. Morris; District Delegates, Mrs. Birdsall, Mrs. A. Wood; Resolutions, Mrs. Wood; Auditors, Mrs. Hutchinson and Mrs. Wood; Standing Committes: Agriculture. Mrs. R. Wilson; Home Economic, Mrs. E. Sargent; Citizenship, Mrs. H. Neilson; Historical Research. Mrs. J. Thompson; Publicity, Mrs. L. Hutchinson.

The Executive meeting will be held on April 26 at the home of Mrs. Hutchinson to prepare programmes for the coming year.

Hostesses for the meeting were Mrs. Birdsall, Mrs. Post and Mrs. E. Elmhurst who served dainty refreshments.

More Wheat On Hand

OTTAWA, April 22 (CP) —The Bureau of Statistics Thursday estimated total stocks of Canadian Wheat at March 31 at 262,400,000 bushels, an increase of 55,400,000 over the corresponding date in 1948. Of the total, 129,300,000 bushels were held on farms and 57,500,000 in country, interior private and mill elevators.

Troop Ship Missing

SHANGHAI, April 22 (AP) — Marine sources disclosed Thursday night that the former tank-loading ship Chung 102, with 1,600 government troops aboard, had been missing since April 13. Belief was expressed that the troops had commandeered the ship and joined the Communists.

Local Council Hears Reports

Sixteen local societies, affiliated with the Local Council of Women, were reported by representatives at the meeting Thursday, which is annually given over to this purpose. Mrs. W. Addyman, president, was in the chair.

After some discussion, support was given a resolution presented by the WCTU which would require persons entering beverage rooms to have birth certificates. This would ensure all those under 21 years of age being refused admission.

Resolutions to be taken up at the national convention in Vancouver next month were read and the vote of members recorded. A delegate to this convention has not been named as yet.

St. George's Guild Honors Patron

St. George's Day was marked by the Evening Guild of St. George's Anglican Church with an afternoon tea and bazaar held in the church basement. Delightfully pleasant weather contributed to its success by encouraging a large attendance.

A lovely tea table was arranged with a bowl of spring flowers in the centre of a pretty lace cloth. Tea room arrangements were in charge of Mrs. W. Bannon and Mrs. A. Siddall. Mrs. W. Parks, Mrs. R. Pearson and Mrs. J. W. Carroll served the guests. Plates were replenished by Mrs. R. Wannamaker, Mrs. F. Dummitt and Mrs. C. Wilson.

Delicious home cooking was on display and was sold by Mrs. C. H. Crouter, Mrs. W. Hall and Mrs. E. Atkinson. Mrs. H Siddall attended a table of fancy work.

A large cake was donated to the Guild for a draw and it was won by Len Cooper when small David Moore selected his ticket from the box.

Mrs. W. White, president, received at the door, assisted by Mrs. E. C. Moore.

Neals-Gray Vows Are Pledged Fly To New York

In Blackstock United Church Parsonage on Saturday, Phyllis Patricia, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Ernest V. Gray of Janetville, became the bride of Cecil Arnott Neals, Toronto, son of Mr. and Mrs. Clarence Neals, Bethany. The Rev. H. Harrison officiated at the ceremony.

The bride wore a traditional white satin wedding gown, trimmed with lace, styled with sweetheart neckline on the fitted bodice and lily point sleeves. The gathered skirt extended in a slight train. Her finger-tip veil was of silk embroidered net with matching headdress, and she carried a cascade bouquet of red roses. She was given in marriage by her father.

Miss Helen Gray was her sister's attendant, frocked in blue frosted satin, with halo headdress and carrying pink roses.

Mr. Gordon Jarvis, Bethany, was groomsman.

The reception for about 50 guests was held at the Empress Hotel, Peterborough. Mr. and Mrs. Gray and Mr. and Mrs. Neals received the guests; the bride's mother, wearing a gown of navy crepe with matching accessories and corsage of pink roses. The groom's mother also wore navy and had black accessories and corsage of pink roses.

Immediately following the reception the bride and groom motored to Malton, to go by plane to New York for their wedding trip. The bride travelled in a grey suit with navy accessories, and wore a white gardenia. They will reside in Toronto.

Of Interest to Women

DOROTHY DIX

Suave Technique Gives Away Married Lotharios

DEAR MISS DIX: How are young girls to cope with married men who deceitfully date unsuspecting girls? Within the last two years three of us single girls, who live decent and moral lives in the homes of our parents, have been properly introduced to young men, only to discover, quite by accident later on, that they were married and had children.

Dorothy Dix

Has the situation come to the point that girls should require written affidavits as to the marital status of every man they meet? Not only are our reputations at stake, but also what about the wives of these wolves? Can you tell us how we are to know whether we are stepping out with single or married men?

DISCOURAGED GIRLS

ANSWER: I am afraid that about the only way that a pure young girl can tell whether the man who comes a-courting her is married or single is by his lovemaking. If he looks and acts like a scared rabbit and stumbles and stutters over telling Mary Anne that she is the most beautiful and wonderful girl in the world, and ends up by asking her to be his, it is proof positive that he is a bachelor.

On the other hand, married man's technique as a lovemaker may indicate his marital status. The married man's courtship is smooth and suave and well-oiled with much flattery. So a woman had best get wise when a man tells her the first time he ever sees her that he has spent his life looking for her. Also, one of the earmarks of the married Lothario is that while he makes burning, passionate, romantic love, he stops just before he reaches the proposing point.

Other Points

Of course, there are a few other points by which a married man, who is posing as a single man, is apt to give himself away, as, for instance, his knowing too much about women's little ways. Of course, if there is a baby in the family, there is a tell-tale give-away in the greasy spot of Papa's shoulder that he acquired when he burped the infant.

But, on the whole, girls don't have much chance of finding out whether the handsome stranger has a wife and a houseful of kids, or not. All married men should wear a badge with TAKEN printed on it.

✧ ✧ ✧

DEAR DOROTHY DIX: I am a married man 19 years old, my wife is 22, and we have a baby. My wife is very lazy and wants me to do all the work while she does nothing. I want a divorce but she will not give me one. She won't even let me go uptown to a movie alone, because she thinks that I am going to run away from her. But I wouldn't leave, because she and I both love and want the child.

I can't stand her nagging any more. What shall I do?

A HELPLESS HUSBAND

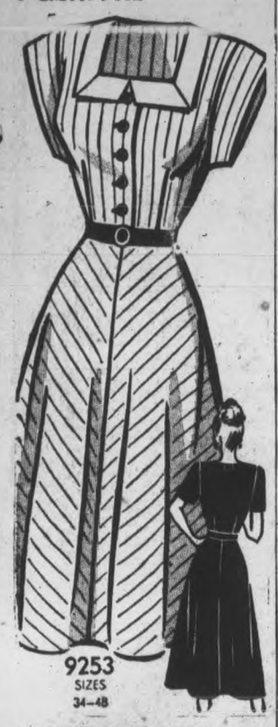
ANSWER: One of the tragedies of life is the too-young marriage. In our children ignorance we take upon ourselves debts and responsibilities that we can never settle, and as long as we live we have to pay, and pay for our folly.

That is your trouble, as it is the heartbreak of millions of other people. You married when you were an undeveloped kid, not knowing what sort of a man you were going to be, or even what you wanted to make of yourself, and now you have to pay the penalty.

But don't let this get you down. You cannot undo your mistakes, but you can keep from repeating them. At 19 the world is all before you. Go out and fight until you make a success of your self.

✧ ✧ ✧



DEAR DOROTHY DIX: Please tell us girls of ways to meet boys. We are lonesome because we don't know where to go or what to do to get acquainted with boys. Can you help us to get dates?

UNHAPPY GANG

✧ ✧ ✧

ANSWER: In these days when boys and girls go to school together and when almost every girl has some sort of job, I don't see how it is possible for girls to keep from meeting boys. Probably the boys are just as much afraid of you as you are of them. Why don't you break the ice between you by organizing a boy AND girl club where you can play games together and get chummy?

Third War or Communism Face European Peoples

In a most informative address about conditions in occupied countries of Europe during the war, Dr. Jadwiga Bennich from Poland showed the Local Council of Women what might happen if communism and dictatorship gain control. Speaking at the luncheon Thursday in the YWCA she said: "Under totalitarian government, a human being matters only as a working unit and only for as long as it fits into the pattern of the ruler."

Incidents and personal experiences of the 1939-45 period which she recounted proved her statement "There is no regard for personal dignity of humans in the systems of either Hitler or Stalin, which were very much alike." She explained that the two dictators learned from each other as they progressed, but Stalin was very careful to learn his lesson "very well." She felt there was little difference in the extent of cruelty and torture to fellow humans with Germans and Russians.

Intends to be Canadian

Dr. Bennich is a small, slight woman with a fine personality and admirable character. She arrived in Canada six weeks ago with her eight-year old daughter Barbara and is presently making her home with a Polish family in Montreal. Her husband is believed dead. As a Polish army officer he was drafted by the Russians and she has not heard of him since. She speaks English perfectly and several other languages and by working as an interpreter and teacher of languages for the occupying forces in Poland she was able to get food baskets the only salary given or asked for. She holds a degree from Vassar College and doctorate from the British University and was on the faculty of Cracow University in Poland.

Want to Stay in Canada

A New York friend has urged Dr. Bennich to enter US as soon as possible but she has refused. "I want to stay in Canda because I hope to contribute something to it in return for the food and clothing that came from Canadians to help keep Poles alive," she says. "Also because it is the first country that opened it's gates to European refugees and offered to share the plenty and freedom of a democratic government."

In due time the Polish born Doctor will apply for a Canadian citizenship, It will be her fourth nationality but the first one she has applied for. During the first world war Russian citizenship was forced upon her family, afterward they were restored as Poles, but in 1939 were forced to become Germans. Her mother being German born was forced to take out citizenship papers to get her son out of concentration camp, and a few weeks later he was claimed for the German army. On final release he returned to his home in Poland only to be arrested and jailed as a German.

London Express Service

"Europeans have learned the danger of hatred, ill will and intolerance and so the Councils of Christians and Jews have been organized". The aim is to re-educate Germans in the spirit of good will and feeling for mankind. The first job is to remove racial hatred." In spite of what she has seen and experienced Dr. Bennich says "I do not hate the Germans because I know how jolly and pleasant they can be."

Answers Questions

Members of the audience asked some questions of the speaker. Parcels from US and Canada helped greatly and they poured into Poland after May 1945. A pound of American coffee was exchanged for 100 lbs. of potatoes which she travelled 18 miles to get. Forty cigarettes were converted into 100 pounds of coal. Of course there was first the matter of discovering a dealer who had coal and the whether he was a smoker or coffee lover. "If you had nothing to barter, you got nothing," she said. So, the currency reform, introduced after the war, was generally a good thing.

Will there be a third world war? Well, Dr. Bennich has just come from Europe where everyone is expecting and talking it "If it does not come, the whole of Europe will soon be under Communist control" she says. The Germans are of two minds right now. They would prefer to be on the democratic side, for there they see some chance of getting something for themselves, but situation of the defence line may leave them open to the Russians in which case they would be better off to become communists.

Dr. Bennich was thanked by Mrs. Gordon K. Fraser who felt the address was a warning "it can happen here." She urged Local Council members to stand together and do all in their power to offset communism.

When the speaker arrived in Peterborough she was met by Mrs. A. A. McIntyre and Mrs. W. Addyman president of the Local Council, accompanied by Miss Stanislawa Fericsha, formerly of Poland, and in Canada about six months, who presented a corsage of carnations.

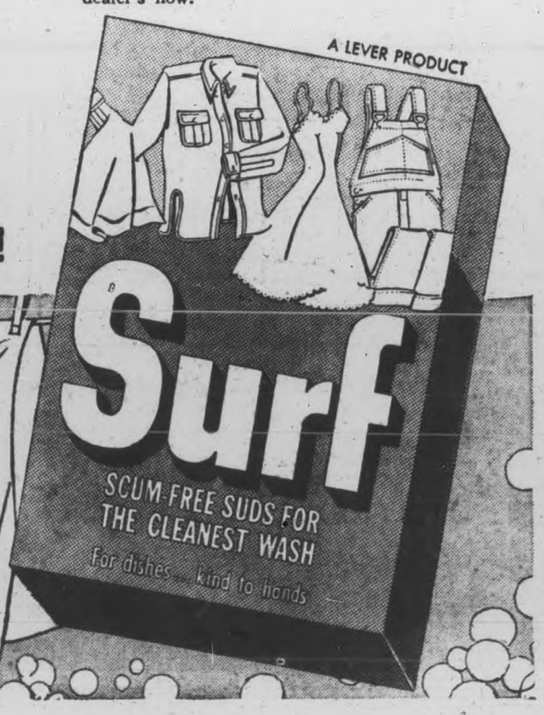
More than "Soap & Water Clean"—

Yes, Indeed— Surf-Clean!

Surf leaves no Dirty Soap Scum. That's why it's best, not only for heavy wash, but for all your nice things and dishes, too!

WHEN you've rubbed and scrubbed in the tub—or when you've washed long and hard in your washing machine—why is your wash so disappointing?



It's because of dirty soap scum. No matter how hard you work—no matter how efficient your washing machine is—dirty soap scum still clings to the clothes. In the hardest water up to 10% of the weight of the clothes themselves can be dirty soap scum that all your labor can't get out.

Surf licks dirty soap scum. There's no scum in the wash water—none in the tub or washing machine—and, hence, none on the clothes themselves. That's why Scum-free Surf suds give you the cleanest wash. Kind to your hands too!

Try Surf yourself, in tub or washing machine. You'll be amazed at your Surf-Clean wash. Get the big, blue box of Surf today. At your dealer's now.

Surf licks Dirty Soap Scum— even in Hardest Water!

Of Interest to Women

Canadian Woman Controller On Traffic in Bermuda

HAMILTON, Bermuda, April—(CP)—A Montreal-born woman, who served six years in the Canadian Women's Army Corps, is in charge of traffic on the island of Bermuda.

Mrs. Bobert B. Watson, who had to be persuaded to stand for Parliament, found that the job of controlling traffic on the island also came under her jurisdiction.

Mrs. Watson's task is not an easy one. Although Bermuda is only 22 miles long and two miles wide, it is criss-crossed with narrow twisting lanes. The population is sharply divided in opinion as to modes of transportation: many still adhere to horse-drawn carriages; the bicycle has many devotees; and, of course, there are cars.

Mrs. Watson took her seat in parliament only last year. There is only one other woman.

Moved To Bermuda

During the First World War, Mrs. Watson served with the St. John Ambulance Brigade of Montreal. After the war, she married Robert B. Watson, a childhood sweetheart, and in 1937, they moved to Bermuda, where they started a poultry farm and built a home.

When her husband died in 1938, Mrs. Watson ran the farm alone for a year then, on the outbreak of war, she decided to volunteer her services to the Canadian Army.

But even getting back to Canada proved eventful for Mrs. Watson. She was a passenger on the flying boat, "Cavalier," which crashed in the Atlantic. With other survivors, she spent several hours in the ocean before being picked up.

After her discharge from the Army, she went back to Bermuda.

So far, the tall, greying, 52-year-old Mrs. Watson has only this to say about her legislative duties:

"Don't let anyone ever tell you women are the most talkative of the species. After a couple of months sitting in Parliament, I'm convinced men can out-talk any woman."

ANNOUNCE ENGAGEMENT

NEW YORK, April 22 (CP)—A. G. L. McNaughton and Mrs. McNaughton of Ottawa Thursday announced the engagement of their daughter Leslie, to Howard K. Sykes of New York.

Gen. McNaughton is head of Canada's permanent delegation to the United Nations.

His daughter was educated at the convent of the Sacred Heart, Montreal, and at Queen's University, Kingston.

Sykes, son of Mr. and Mrs. Harold K. Sykes of Englewood, N. J., and Accord, N. Y., is a graduate of Yale University.

Printed Cottons Revive Charms of Victorian Era

By EPSIE KINARD

NEW YORK — (NEA) — The Victorian hoop and bustle will sway to 1949 jive tunes on this summer's dance floors.

Designed to "wow" the stag line are printed cottons, dresses which might have billowed out of a family album.

The bustle which stamps many such fashions as Vitcorian-inspired is usually a ruffled cascade or bow set at the waistline of a snug-bodiced, full-skirted dress. Printed piques which interpret this style make the most of splashy florals. The poppy makes a colorful motif for one pique print with a background of white. To point up the Victorian flavor of this bustle-back, bare-topped dress, designer Fred Perlberg accents the strapless decolletage with banding and bows of black velvet ribbon.

The hoop helps another Victorian-inspired cotton formal to spread its charms. Enchancing the Victorian charms of this hoop-skirted dress which features a full, knee-ruffled skirt and a waisthugging bodice, is a double-ruffled stole of matching gingham.

Appoint Judges In CWPC Contest

OTTAWA, April 22 —(CP)—Mrs. J. J. Dingman of the University of Western Ontario Journalism Department, and Ross Munro, former Canadian Press War Correspondent, have been named co-judges for the 1949 memorial award contest of the Canadian Women's Press Club, it was announced Thursday.

The award, a gold medal and $100, is for "the best handling of a news event or public magazine or periodical, on the radio or in advertising copy."

The competition is open to all Canadian women or women resident in Canada for 12 months preceding publication of the entry.

Social Situations

SITUATION: Your child misbehaves when you have guests.

WRONG WAY: Punish him at the time, even though you know it will create an unpleasant scene.

RIGHT WAY: Try to get by with a firm correction, and put off punishment until you and the child are alone, both for the sake of the child and of your guests.

WIDOWER GOES TO JAIL

TORONTO, April 22 (CP) — Albert Hall, 46-year-old widower Thursday was sentenced to 20 days in jail for assaulting his two sons, Delwin, nine, and Darryl, eight, last April 9. Hall told the court he and his two sons, a housekeeper and her son all live together in two rooms in Toronto's east end. Magistrate T. S. Elmore said "These cases aren't brought to light, I thank an example should be made when they are."

"I'm sorry, m'lord, but the Ministry say they can't possibly undertake to replace your sort of wig!"

May Condemn Old Hospital

The old Civic Hospital building will be pronounced unfit for use as a hospital if a recommendation by the Ontario Department of Health is accepted by the Federal Government. The Peterborough Board of Governors on Thursday approved the suggestion.

The possibility of using the old building as a hospital for the chronically ill had previously been contemplated.

John R. Marshall explained that the Federal Government was not prepared to pay a full grant of $1,000 a bed in the new hospital if the old one was still functioning. The grant would have been $1,000 every bed over and above the present number of beds. The new hospital will have a grant of $1,000 for every bed from the Federal Government and $1,000 from the Provincial Government.

It was pointed out by Ald. Dick Raine that the building at present being used was being condemned only as a hospital, but would still be suitable for other purposes.

Society Protests Princess Visiting Pope

LONDON, April 22 (Reuters)— J. A. Kensit, leader of the Protestant Truth Society, has written the King asking him not to give permission for Princess Margaret to visit Pope Pius during her forthcoming tour of Italy.

"In view of the terms of our Protestant constitution gained after long historic struggle against papal influences in the reigning house, many are anxious that the proposed visit should not materialize," Kensit wrote.

"While an official visit might justify one course of action, a private visit is in a different relationship."

The question of the visit will be discussed privately by the United Protestant Council to-day.

Discuss Sending

agriculture. "There are plenty of students right in the city who would make good farmers," he said.

Harry Campbell, Reeve of South Monaghan, thought it should be up to the student to choose. He also stated that the ratepayers of South Monaghan, to the best of his knowledge, were in favor of educating their children at the Collegiate.

Dr. Hobbs stated that the best solution would be to build another secondary school outside the city, to be attended by rural students. "If you wish to give your rural pupils the best that there is to offer, you should build a school outside of Peterborough," he said.

Non-Committal

Inspector Carlton agreed that "there comes a point when the collegiate grows too big," but he did not commit himself definitely to saying that that time had arrived at PCVS.

Other delegates and Mr. Kitney of the board felt that a separate rural secondary school could not offer all the educational facilities available at PCVS.

"It would be a big advantage to us to belong to this High School Area Board," said Fred McIndoo of North Cavan.

Robert Armstrong, reeve of North Cavan, also said he liked the idea.

The board in its business session passed a by-law to borrow $45,000 to meet total educational costs up till the end of the year. It will be able to borrow on an overdraft up to $5,000, and after that a note must be signed for the extra amount.

Approve Payment

Fred Stenson and Frank Sullivan moved that $10,000 of the board's bill owing to the Peterborough Board of Education be paid, and a further adjustment be made later.

The Finance Committee was requested to investigate whether the board is covered by insurance if the bus is overloaded.

Will Stand Trial

TORONTO, April 22.—(CP)— Samuel Care, 58-year-old attendant, today was committed for trial for the murder of Mrs. Mamie McLennon, whom he allegedly stabbed when he ran amok last month in suburban Mount Dennis sanitorium. The preliminary hearing had been adjourned since April 14.

1,606 Doctors In BC

VANCOUVER (CP) — British Columbia has one doctor for every 687 persons — highest percentage of any province in Canada, Dr. F. L. Whitehead, executive secretary of the B.C. College of Physicians and Surgeons, announced. Of the province's 1,606 doctors, 425 registered here from foreign countries after the war.

10TH CENTURY ADVANCE

Out of a total of 1,615 contributions in chemistry noted since 1500 A.D., 668 were made in the period from 1875 to 1900.

Want Canada To Buy More British Goods

By STUART UNDERHILL

LONDON, April 22—(CP). — United Kingdom business men say that if Anglo-Canadian trade is to emerge from its present doldrums, Canada will have to put more punch in a "buy British" campaign.

The British viewpoint is that the United Kingdom can't buy Canadian unless Canada returns the compliment.

Sir Stafford Cripps, chancellor of the exchequer, last February told The Canadian Press:

"What you on your side must recognize is that trade requires a willing buyer and a willing seller. The readier that Canada and Canadian importers show themselves to buy our products, the brighter the whole balance of our trade—and yours—will look."

Six weeks later he told the House of Commons: "We are already buying nearly three times as much Canadian goods as they are buying British goods, and that cannot persist. . ."

An executive of an engineering firm, interviewed by The Canadian Press during a survey a survey of Anglo-Canadian trade prspects, put it more bluntly:

"If Canadians co-operated, the British engineering industry alone could bridge the gap in dollar trade," he said.

"Nearly every other country in the world has purchasing missions here clamoring for our engineering products. You sit back and wait for us to come and sell you."

Summoned for 10 a.m. Why Called At 12:30

What authority has the police court magistrate to hear a court case at 12.30 p.m. when the accused is summoned to appear in court at 10 a.m? This was a challenge made by David Hatherly, 515 Bolivar St. at city police court today when he faced two charges of violating the Highway Traffic Act.

City police court is adjourned every day by the magistrate after the day's cases have been disposed of until 10 a.m. the following day. All accused persons are summoned to appear at 10 a.m. but it sometimes takes the entire morning and afternoon to work through the list of court proceedings for the day.

Hatherly pleaded guilty to not obeying an automatic stop sign promptly at Charlotte and Park Sts. on April 7 and failing to stop his car before entering Charlotte St. on April 9. He paid two fines of $4 each and a total of $5 costs.

John S. Nichols, 323 George St., contested a charge for driving a car with inadequate brakes and was fined $10 with $2.50 costs. Constable Harold Mesley said he tested the brakes of Nichols' car shortly after an accident had occurred at the corner of George and Sherbrooke Sts. and found they were totally ineffective. The accused said the brakes had worked before the accident.

A similar charge against David McCarrell was dismissed. Magistrate W. R. Philp K. C. made convictions on 26 written pleas of guilty to Highway Traffic offences, imposing fines totalling $162.

505 Patients Treated At Hospital In March

There were 505 patients treated at Peterborough Civic Hospital during March and 31 at Queen Mary Hospital. John Hornal, hospital superintendent reported to the Board of Governors Thursday, that 72 major and 144 minor operations were performed. Number of patients who were refused admission was 56.

Dr. Stanley Walsh reported 209 recoveries, 130 improved cases, six patients transferred from the hospital, three whose condition had not improved, seven who had been admitted for diagnosis only, 14 deaths and three stillborn babies. There had been 1663 laboratory examinations, 321 X-rays and 24 patients received physiotherapy treatment.

"CANADA UNLIMITED"

Singing as they paddled, les voyageurs braved icy winter winds and turbulent swollen rivers. Their 40-foot canoes were strong and fast, and could carry as much as five tons of furs and supplies.

One of the most romantic trades, shipbuilding has grown with Canada from the day when the first sailboat was built at Port Royal in 1606. To carry furs from Montreal to Quebec, in 1752, Barques were built, weighing from 40 to 100 tons. World-famed clipper ships were made in Nova Scotia in 1797.

Two years after Fulton demonstrated the use of steam for navigation, came the Accommodation, in 1809 . . . and the Royal William, built 24 years later, first steamship to cross the Atlantic! This was progress—and progress continued.

Canada . . . land of great lakes and rivers . . . with mighty oceans on three sides . . . offers many opportunities in this age-old trade. Tenth among leading industries today, shipbuilding proves there's room to grow in Canada Unlimited.

Says Teaching Destroys Love Of Poetry

TORONTO, April 22 (CP) — Plenty of comic books is the solution for getting children past the comic book stage in reading, Dr. Thomas Martin, Toronto school inspector, told the closing meeting of the Ontario Educational Association's 89th annual convention Thursday.

"Give them all the comics they want," he said, "and then find out what sort of thing they concentrate on. That gives a clue to their interests and you can search for books on the same subjects but on a higher level."

Present teaching methods destroy a natural love of poetry in children, he said. "By the time the school is through with them 90 per cent. have lost all interest in it."

The Ontario Trustees' and Ratepayers' Association, whose meetings ended today, passed several resolutions, including motions that the minister of education should hold no other cabinet post, that pupils be taught the relationship between soil conservation and human needs, and that entrance requirements for Normal schools be raised.

Plan To Spend Billion

WASHINGTON, April 22 (AP) —State Secretary Dean Acheson land before the Senate Foreign Relations committee Thursday a program to spend about $1,130,000,000 during the next year to help rearm North Atlantic Pact countries. In addition, arms would be furnished to other countries to bring the total estimated foreign arms outlay to $1,450,000,000 for the year beginning July 1.

New Offer Presented To Germans

Give Broader Powers In Self-Government To Win Leaders

WASHINGTON, April 23 (AP) —The United States, Britain and France today held out an offer of broader self-governing powers to the Western Germans in an urgent effort to get a federal state started in the former enemy country.

With a possible cold-war victory for Russia hanging on the outcome, the United States rushed its top trouble-shooter on German affairs, Ambassador Robert D. Murphy, overseas to sell the compromise proposal to balking leaders of the German Social Democratic Party.

The new concessions are aimed at meeting some of the Socialists' demands, which have blocked approval of the plan by the German parliamentary council working at Bonn on the draft of a constitution for the newstate.

German rejection of the self-government plan would be regarded as a hard blow to the West in its struggle with Russia to keep Germany from Communist control.

Murphy, American political adviser on German affairs, is due in Frankfurt by air in time for a critical meeting Monday between the Western military governors and the German leaders.

The new concessions are contained in a memorandum sent April 8 to the United States, British and French military governors with instructions that it might be passed to the Germans at an "appropriate" time.

Submitted to the Bonn Council yesterday, the memorandum drawn up by the three foreign ministers makes these points:

1. Berlin cannot be included at this time in the new federal government for West Germany, which is to be made up of 11 Laender or individual states.

2. The central government should be given "sufficient" power over matters involving more than one state.

3. "Financial independence" would be granted both the central government and the individual states.

Weep At Service For Navy Victims

SHANGHAI, April 23 (Reuters) —Men and women of many lands wept unashamedly today as 23 British officers and men, killed when Communists shelled British warships on the Yangtze river, were buried in the International Cemetery here.

While the ceremony was still in progress, an RAF Sunderland flying boat, which flew upstream to inspect the trapped sloop Amethyst, was fired on again as she flew low over the crippled warship.

The Sunderland's gasoline tank was pierced, but she returned to Shanghai safely. The Amethyst, which is thought likely to fall into Communist hands.

Those buried here today were 12 men from cruiser London, 10 from the destroyer Consort, and one from the Amethyst.

At the request of relatives of Lt.-Cmdr. B. M. Skinner, Captain of the Amethyst, his body will be buried at sea.

Truman Hopes High Wheat Pact Ratified

WASHINGTON, April 23 (CP) —Administration hopes are high that the Senate will approve the international wheat agreement well before the July 1 deadline.

But the four-year pact, signed by 41 countries, probably will run into stiff opposition from senators who consider its prices far too low. President Truman sent the pact to the Senate this week for ratification as a treaty.

The agreement faces its acid test in the United States Senate. It was that body's decision not to ratify the 36-country agreement of 1948 which contributed most of the failure of that earlier attempt to stabilize world wheat prices and supplies.

Top British Red Goes In Hiding

DARTMOUTH, England, April 23—(AP).—An enraged, stone-throwing crowd besieged Britain's top Communist, Harry Pollitt, in a building for hours here early today. He finally escaped unharmed after the incident, which followed the breaking up of a political meeting where Pollitt had discussed the shelling of four British ships by Chinese Communists.

A shower of stones and other missiles had broken up an outdoor gathering Friday night where Pollitt, general secretary of the British Communist Party, attempted to discuss the right of British warships to be in the Yangtze River when Chinese Reds shelled them. A father whose son was killed on one of the warships figured prominently in the disorders, and invited Pollitt to hang himself.

Stone-throwers broke up the meeting, burned the Communist banner which had flown from the speaking platform, and followed when the police removed Pollitt to a refuge in the home of Ernest A. Holtman, local Communist secretary.

Some voices in the crowd shouted: "We'll fight the Russians."

Pollitt remained in hiding in Holtman's house for nearly 5½ hours then, when the crowd dis-

UN Allows Britain and US To Press Persecution Case

LAKE SUCCESS, NY, April 23—(CP).—The United Nations today stood aside to allow Britain and the United States to press charges that Hungary and Bulgaria violated human rights guarantees in Communist trials of church leaders. The General Assembly's 58-member special political committee Friday night passed a Bolivian resolution approving action taken by Britain and the United States concerning the trials.

The vote was 34 to 6 on the moderately - worded resolution. Eleven countries abstained on the vote.

Meanwhile, Britain and the United States are asked to use the procedures provided in the peace treaties to seek satisfaction regarding the trials. Canada, a supporter of the Bolivian resolution, has associated herself with the British-American protests against the trials lodged with the two Russian-bloc countries.

The United States has revealed the Dominion will be consulted on all future proceedings on the cases. The treaties provide for consultations between Russia, Britain and the United States on treaty problems.

BULLETIN

SHANGHAI, (CP)—The Chinese Communists accused British and Chinese Nationalist naval craft of jointly attacking Red shore positions on the Yangtze. The charge, broadcast by the Peiping radio, came shortly after R. W. Urquhart, British Consul-General at Shanghai, said in a radio address that Britain will exercise every means — "operational or by cease-fire agreement"—to free the sloop Amethyst. The sloop, first of four British warships shelled by the Reds, still is stranded up the river.

Doctors Beating Epidemic Drugs Saving 42 Eskimos

EDMONTON, April 23 (CP)—Armed with sulfa and penicillin a reinforced hospital squad today continued the battle against a killing influenza epidemic that has swept the Eskimo village at Cambridge Inlet, 1,100 miles north of Edmonton.

The disease has taken 15 lives, and left 42 natives ill, but Friday night latest reports received here by Dr. H. Meltzer medical director of the Charles Camsell Hospital here, said all the patients were responding to drug treatment and the situation seemed to be in hand.

First stages of the battle with the disease were led almost single handed by Dr. J. C. Cllaghan of Aklavik who learned of the sickness while conducting an X-ray survey.

He mustered all available men, set up an emergency hospital in a hall at the remote outpost and began administering sulfa and penicillin.

As he scored his first success, an RCAF Dakota supply plane from Edmonton flew to Cambridge Bay carrying Dr. Paul Harvey, veteran north-land doctor, two nurses and a pharmacist.

They brought more drugs together with serum to vaccinate any Eskimos not yet suffering from the disease.

Dr. Meltzer said main purpose of the sulfa-penicillin treatment was to guard against the danger of pneumonia.

Leave City In Flames For Enemy

Looting Mobs Roam In Houses, Shops; Scene Of Destruction

By SEYMOUR TOPPING

NANKING, April 23 (AP) — The Chinese government abandoned Nanking today and departing Nationalist troops blew up the big railway station just outside the undefended walls of the capital.

All along the Yangtze, demoralized government troops gave way before the Red assault that breached the great river barrier. Four Nationalist armies, totaling probably 100,000 men, retreated southward.

Negotiations for turning the city over to the Communists already were reported under way.

How soon the Reds would take over no one would say—if they knew. There was only one reason they had not yet come: they had not yet chosen to do it. There was nothing to stop them.

Flames and smoke billowed up all along Nanking's river port from fires set by government troops as they pulled out. Mobs surged through the area looting everything they could lay hands on.

Work Quickly

I saw Nationalist demolition teams blast the Nanking railway station just outside the city's north wall. They worked quickly and efficiently in an area completely deserted except for a few looters scurrying around the stripped warehouses.

I toured the blazing port area for the second time today. It was a scene of utter destruction and desolation.

There were no regular Communist troops to be seen, although fire was going on steadily all along the south bank of the river. I saw some men in civilian clothes carrying rifles—probably Red guerrillas.

Foreign military quarters reported the Communists had taken the railway stations of three towns near Nanking—Chinkiang, Tan Yang, and Changchow. These three points, ranging from 35 to 75 miles away, make an arc on Nanking's flank from northeast to southeast.

(After reporting that no Reds had entered by about noon, Nanking time, Topping's telephone line to Shanghai went out. It is possible the line was cut. Shortly thereafter an unconfirmed report swept Shanghai that the Reds had entered Nanking.)

Premier Ho Ying-chin took over the defence ministry and presumably flew to the uncertain haven of Shanghai.

LEAVE CITY

HeadlessRooster Dies Suddenly

LOS ANGELES, April 23 (AP) —Lazarus, the headless rooster, died Friday.

The celebrated chicken succumbed unexpectedly in front of city inspectors who were serving Lazarus' owner, Mrs. Martha Green, with an order to kill him within 12 hours.

"All of a sudden he just hung his neck and died," said Mrs. Green. "I got down on my knees and prayed. I prayed for America. I know God put that rooster into the world and let him live for a purpose. I prayed that God might forgive us for what we had done."

Only Thursday, Lazarus won in court a reprieve from an earlier death sentence.

Mrs. Green said she was out in the yard with Lazarus when B. E. Morse, chief animal inspector, and his assistant, P. L. Flynn, arrived to serve her with a notice to kill the fowl under terms of the state penal code which prohibits keeping alive a bird or animal mutilated and in pain.

"He said 'I'm sorry to have to do this but you'll have to put the bird to death.' I carried Lazarus in to his box. While we were talking in the kitchen, I looked at Lazarus and he just hung his neck and died. He was perfectly all right and happy just three or four minutes before."

No Ghost Town Where Are Reds?

STRATFORD, April 23 (CP)—Provincial police, school inspectors and teachers were puzzled today—they couldn't locate a ghost town described as being a few miles from Stratford.

Edward Evans, provincial president of the Canadian Legion, told the Stratford Legion Branch Friday night communism was being taught in a school building in a ghost town near here. He declined to locate the town.

OPP Inspector A. J. Craig, whose district covers six counties—Perth, Huron, Grey, Bruce, Wellington and Waterloo—said, "I hardly believe it."

Mr. Evans told the meeting classes in communism were held for young children, adolescents and adults. He said he entered the building and saw pictures of Marx, Stalin and Lenin on the walls.

Cyclist Dies At 91

NEENAH, Wis., April 23—(AP).—Joe Leppla, who had a lot of pride in his boasts that he was the oldest motorcycle rider in the world, died yesterday of injuries suffered when his cycle skidded into a ditch. He was 91. Leppla, who took up cycling after retiring as a farmer when he reached 60, wore out five motorbikes in covering some 100,000 miles.

1 Dead, 2 Dying In Crash After Tourney

NAPANEE, April 23 (CP) — One Napanee youth is dead and two are critically injured in Kingston hospital following a motor accident at 3 a.m. today on No. 2 Highway, five miles east.

Ian MacKinnon, 21, son of the late Dr. K. L. MacKinnon, former Renfrew physician, was killed instantly when the heavy sedan he was driving crashed into the south rail of Kayler's bridge near Morven White Church corner. The left side of the car was torn completely off.

Donald Smith, 19, son of Dr. H. W. Smith, Napanee veterinary, and Raymond Giles, son of John Giles, Napanee were both unconscious following the accident and little hope is held for their recovery.

The three had attended the Queen's University basketball tournament in Kingston Friday night and were on their way home in the MacKinnon car when the accident happened.

Labrador Areas Near Starvation

ST. JOHN'S, April 23—(CP)—The grocery-run from Goose Bay to food-scarce hamlets in Northern Labrador may start today.

An air-lift remains the only medium for transporting supplies behind the ice-curtain where some 400 persons in the settlement of Black Tickle yesterday were reported living on stale bread and flour alone.

Friday night, a message from Albert Bartlett of Black Tickle arrived at Port de Grave, on nearby Conception Bay, begging a supply firm to rush food.

Bartlett reported the shortage gripping Black Tickle, the Battieu region, spotted islands and other hamlets 100 miles north of Batfle Harbor where Saurel dumped part of her 66-ton cargo last week.

Three Nervous Gunmen Flee From Fergus Bank Don't Wait To Pick Up Loot

Manager Trips Bandit, Saves Accountant As Holdup Man Fires Shot; Sounds Burglar Alarm, Trio Takes To Heels

FERGUS, April 23—(CP).— Three nervous gunmen fled without loot from the Fergus branch of the Imperial Bank Friday after firing a shot through the trouser leg of the bank's accountant. Provincial Police radio cars were patrolling the area for the bandits, who fled to the east in a stolen car. The shot pierced the trouser leg of accountant Aubrey Lloyd as the bandits, apparently excited by the sounding of the bank's burglar alarm, fled. Assistant accountant William Beacon followed them to the street and fired several shots after them.

Wearing khaki overalls, the three masked themselves as they entered the bank just before closing time and said: "This is a stick-up."

In the bank at the time were manager Fred T. Kyle, Mr. Lloyd, Mr. Bacon, several girl clerks and about a dozen customers.

Trips Bandit

Mr. Kyle sounded the burglar alarm with his foot, then tripped the bandit as he fired at the accountant.

Provincial police from detachments at Guelph and Mount Forest converged on the area and set up road-blocks.

"My accountant was very fortunate," Mr. Kyle said. "The shot just missed wounding him, passing through the leg of his trousers at his hip.

"One covered me and another covered the two tellers. . .

"The man who entered my office was pretty nervous. His revolver was shaking around quite a bit."

The men covered their faces with dark-colored handkerchiefs and shoved customers away from the busy tellers' cages.

The bank is on the main street of this town 12 miles north of Guelph.

Call Off Air Search Due To Poor Weather

HALIFAX, April 23 (CP) — RCAF here said poor flying weather cancelled today's continued air search for an RCAF aircraft, missing on a flight from Ottawa's Rockcliffe Airport to Chatham, N. B., since Thursday.

Eight planes, seven from the Greenwood, N. S., base and one from Westover, Mass., were recalled and were standing by for a break in the weather. Fog patches and intermittent rain prevail in the search area.

EMMETT C. CLOCKWORTHY will awaken Sunday morning in a cold sweat—Daylight Saving Time has reared its ugly head. He thinks he set the clocks an hour ahead—or was it back? He has to catch a train at 9.32. Or is it 8.32? Maybe 10.32. All very terrifying to Mister C. You can avoid his trepidation by moving the hands of your clocks one hour AHEAD before retiring tonight.

Posse Of 75 Men Finds Boy Lost In Bush

BANCROFT April 23 (ENS)—Ralph Chamberlain, 9, son of Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Chamberlain of L'Amable, was lost late Friday afternoon for four hours. He went with his father to the bush lot and while his father was cutting logs Ralph wandered off.

After some time the father missing his boy made a brief frantic search without any success and returned home thinking the boy might have come ahead. When he was not there, he immediately informed Cpl. S. W. Palmateer of the Provincial Police detachment at Bancroft. Provincial Constable W. Fitzimmons organized a posse of some 75 men from L'Amable and Bancroft, including personnel from the Department of Lands and Forests.

Cpl. Palmateer gave much credit to Miss Reta Jenkins, operator at the Bancroft telephone exchange for her quick action in notifying the people who responded to the plea for help in less than a half hour.

These men were on the job with flashlights combing the woods over a wide area. They finally located the frightened boy about 8 p.m. on the shores of L'Amable creek some two miles distant from where his father had been working. The boy was travelling in the opposite direction. The fact the stream hindered the boy's advance greatly helped the men in the search.

New Proposal In Quebec Strike

QUEBEC, April 23 (CP) — There is both optimism and pessimism today on a new proposal for settlement of the Asbestos strike that has kept 5,000 men idle in Quebec's eastern townships for 2½ months.

Labor Minister Barrette expressed hope of an early end to the wage dispute Friday night when he announced that an arbitration board will be established during the week-end to study the points at issue.

Mr. Barrette said his department would choose a chairman after the workers and the company have chosen their board representatives.

Under the proposal, the Canadian Catholic Confederation of Labor would order its men back to work as soon as the board chairman is named.

Blames Employment For TB Relapses

MONTREAL, April 23.—(CP). —Dr. A. D. Temple, superintendent of the St. Hyacinthe, Que., Veterans' Hospital, said Friday that Canadians cured of tuberculosis, are relapsing at an "atrocious" rate because many are being forced into occupations for which they are physically unsuited.

Of those released from Canadian sanitoria as healed, he told the Kiwanis Club 50 per cent either die or return to the hospital within three years.

Those who survive or find it unnecessary to return to hospital were persons who were properly rehabilitated. He said employers could reduce likelihood of relapse by providing suitable employment for ex-tuberculosis patients.

Canadian Ship Standing By At Hong Kong

OTTAWA, April 23 (CP) — Naval headquarters said Friday night the Canadian destroyer Crescent was standing by at Hong Kong to evacuate Canadian citizens, if necessary, and not engaged in action on the war-engulfed Yangtze river.

A statement said Crescent was primarily at the disposal of the Canadian Ambassador to China, T. C. Davis, particularly to render assistance in evacuating Canadian citizens should this prove necessary.

The vessel is in instant wireless communication with naval headquarters here.

"For local operational purposes," said the statement, "she works closely with the ships of the countries of the British Commonwealth."

As to the fighting itself, the statement said Crescent was not and had not been engaged in action on the Yangtze river.

It was understood that Crescent would not become involved—even at the request of the Royal Navy without first consulting naval headquarters here. In this event, it would be a matter for government decision.

T. C. Davis, Canadian Ambassador to China, still is in Nanking and there is no indication when he and his embassy staff plan to evacuate the capital.

Mr. Davis who comes from Prince Albert, Sask., has with him a staff of six Canadians.

They include: C. A. Ronning, Valhalla Centre, Alta, first secretary; J. R. Maybee, Oakville, Ont., second secretary; H. L. Starnes, Ottawa, an administrative officer; Miss Janet McLeod, Toronto, stenographer; Col. F. LeP. T. Clifford, military attache, and an unidentified military clerk.

With Red troops in overwhelming force across the Yangtze between Nanking and Shanghai, the latter city was in an untenable position.

(Shanghai said few troops could be seen there. This raised speculation that Gen. Tang En-po, commander in the Nanking-Shanghai area already had sent his main defense forces south.)

Canton seemed likely to become the refugee capital.

(China's foreign ministry in Canton asked foreign embassies to move to that south-coast metropolis from Nanking.)

Acting President Li Tsung-jen also was reported gone from Nanking, scene of his futile manoeuverings for peace. His destination was not known.

(Members of his family in Hong Kong said Li had arrived in Canton.)

Li and "retired" President Chiang Kai-shek met yesterday at Hangchow, 150 miles southeast of Nanking. They issued a declaration that they would fight "to the end." But where? And with what?

The situation was deteriorating rapidly.

Thousands of Communist troops were racing out from a vast bridgehead 60 miles southwest of Nanking. They easily could drive straight east across the line of the Nanking garrison's retreat.

About 250 Canadians, mostly missionaries, live in the Yangtze basin area. Many have already moved to Shanghai.

Still in action but under frontal attack was the 200,000-man army of Gen. Pai Chung-hsi defending Hankow. This Central China base is 375 miles southwest of Nanking on the Yangtze.

May Abandon Hankow

(Associated Press correspondent James Flood said he learned on a trip to Hankow earlier this week that plans were laid to abandon Hankow.)

The situation in Nanking was chaotic for a time before volunteer militia brought about a semblance of order. The city was without water or power.

Mobs looted shops and homes. Among the homes looted were those of many Government officials, including those of Acting President Li and Premier Ho.

A number of foreigners belatedly caught some of the last planes leaving Nanking.

Rob Store Owner

TORONTO, April 23—(CP)—Two youthful fast-working gunmen Friday night trussed a haberdashery store owner up with a pair of neckties in the rear of his West-Toronto shop and fled with more than $70 in cash. Bruce Honsberger said one of the men brandished a revolver "about a foot long" while the other tied him up.

Two Addicts Escape

MONTREAL, April 23 (CP)—Two women, each serving six months on recent convictions of narcotics charges, escaped Friday night from the Fullum Street Jail in Montreal's east end. The women, who were first missed when they did not answer roll call at bedtime, were identified as Lucienne Wong, 26, and Penny Clark, 29.

ABOUT 400 CHILDREN from the city and rural areas submitted entries in the Peterborough Fish and Game Protective Association birdhouse-building contest, held on Friday night. Shown above is Campbell Rowatt, president, presenting the trophy for the best entry to Robert Park, a Grade VI student of King Edward School. In the picture below, Bobby Trude, son of Mr. and Mrs. Donald Trude, 536 Howden Ave., is shown sitting on the roof of Park's 14-room purple martin house.

Donates Heifer To Swell Fund For Arena

The executive of the projected Keene Memorial Community Arena has received from Norman W. McConkey a Holstein heifer calf as a contribution to the construction fund. The Otonabee folks are planning to have the arena in operation next winter, putting the Keene district back on the sports map in skating, hockey and curling, where it was for generations.

There was curling at Keene even before Peterborough—the ice game of skill which the early Scottish settlers of the township brought from the old land. That is another story which may be elaborated one of these days.

In the meantime there is the problem of financing the Community Arena, and as a member of Otonabee council, Mr. McConkey decided to offer his help by donating a pure bred Holstein calf for which tickets will be sold and ownership decided by a draw. The Lifloc Holstein herd is well known through the country, with a reputation that should recommend any of its daughters.

Lifloc Sylvia Polly was born Oct. 1, 1948. Its sire was Montvic Sylvius Supreme and the dam Lifloc Pollyanna out of Alcartca Jenny Posch by Supreme Grand Slam.

Many Friends

The Keene people have a lot of friends in Peterborough, and it is expected that financial support will be forthcoming from this city. And it might be that "Polly" will be won by a ticket held by some urbanite.

The committee reports that Mayor Max Swanston is contributing the printed tickets for the draw.

Parents Observe Boys' Gym Work

One hundred boys participated in the annual "Parents' Night" held in the YMCA on Friday night. Many of the boys' parents and friends watched them carry out an interesting physical training program in the gymnasium. The boys ranged in age from eight to 16 years.

A grand march started the program. The Pioneer group, ages eight to 10 years, gave a display of marching and group games, and played basketball. The Juvenile boys, 10 to 11 years, presented events in broad jumping, wand jumping, relay and dodgeball.

The Juniors, 12 to 14 years, high jumped, tumbled and boxed. Any bashfulness in the boys was lost when they started boxing. They all wanted a chance to display their ability. The high-jumping was attempted by all the boys until the bar was well up and only one boy could clear it. Intermediate boys, 15 and 16, put on a display of basketball.

Leaders Show How

Intermediate leaders gave a display of work on the spring board and horse, doing somersaults and flips. The junior leaders built pyramids and did some tumbling.

The demonstration was conducted by Al Clark, Physical Director of the YMCA. He was helped by Don Duncan, Boys' Work Secretary. Ed. Nichols played the piano.

Ab Blondin and Stan McBride, members of the YMCA Weight Lifting Club, displayed their abilities with the weights.

persed, he drove away in the direction of Totnes, 10 miles northwest of here, where he has a date to speak tonight. Police said they expected he would address that meeting. He also is scheduled to speak tomorrow night at Plymouth which, like this city, is a naval base.

The trouble started when Pollitt halted his speech at a riverfront meeting and asked if anyone had questions. Things started to fly at him when he said he would like to "ask the same question as many of you are asking"—what was the British sloop Amethyst doing in the Yangtze when she was shelled.

A man stepped forward, handed Pollitt a rope and a note which read:

"Judas Iscariot was presented with one of these, and used it. I invite you to do likewise." The man identified himself as C. F. Akhurst, father of Petty Officer John C. Akhurst, who was killed aboard the destroyer Consort by Chinese gunfire.

Members of the crowd shouted Pollitt's name should be "Pollittsky" and fists and stones began to fly.

18,000 Attend Funeral

NEW YORK, April 23.—(AP).—Some 18,000 persons of all faiths jammed Carnegie Hall and the area surrounding it Friday for the funeral of Dr. Stephen S Wise, noted Jewish leader. Three thousand mourners crowded into the hall's main auditorium — the same place where Dr. Wise on many occasions had thundered out against injustice to Jew and Gentile alike.

Spend 68 Million

TORONTO, April 23 (CP) — Deputy Highways Minister J. D Millar Friday told the Ontario Motor League Ontario is spending more than one-third of its annual budget on highways. He said $68,0000,000 was spent by his department last year and this year's estimate was $69,000,000.

Theatre Guild Celebrates 30th Anniversary

By PAT USSHER

NEW YORK, April 23 (CP)—The Theatre Guild, which has become an institution in the annual of Broadway stage history, celebrated its 30th anniversary this week.

But the organization is not forgetting the future while looking back on the past.

Since 1919 it has staged dramas by a number of distinguished playwrights and has brought together at least two celebrated teams in the theatrical field. Its list of writers includes George Bernard Shaw, Eugene O'Neill, Ferenc Molnar, Maxwell Anderson and William Saroyan.

Top Teams

It brought Alfred Lunt and Lynn Fontanne together for the first time in "The Guardsman." Since then this couple has appeared in 19 plays, including the current "I Know My Love."

Teresa Helburn, for the last 10 years a co-director, established Richard Rodgers and Oscar Hammerstein 2nd as a collaborating duo. She acquired a play, "Green Grow The Lilacs," by Oklahoman Lynn Riggs and said to herself: "This was a failure as a play but it will make a musical show."

Miss Helburn took the script to Rodgers and Hammerstein and "Oklahoma!," one of the most successful musicals in history, was born.

Autumn Plans

In addition to "I Know My Love," the organization's plans for next season include a vehicle for Helen Hayes, "Good Housekeeping;" a musical show with book and lyrics by Herbert and Dorothy Fields and music by Dorothy Lane composer for the hit show, "Finian's Rainbow," and a revival of "As You Like It." with Katharine Hepburn.

For the record, seven of the Theatre Guild's 163 plays produced in New York have won pulitzer prize drama awards.

Castings Notes

Judith Evelyn, who began her acting career in Winnipeg, is to take over the lead role of Blanche Dubois in the road company of "A Streetcar Named Desire" on May 26. Uta Hagen, now with that company, will step into the New York version of the Tennessee Williams play June 1, succeeding Jessica Tandy.

Arrested In Kingston For Theft From Home

Mrs. Etta Robertson, 265 Bethune St., discovered that $95 was missing from her home Thursday evening. Today Sergeant Detective J. Stevenson and Detective William Clarke went to Kingston to bring Russell Lamore back to Peterborough where he will face a charge of stealing the money. Lamore visited Mr. and Mrs. Robertson's home Thursday.

FIRE DAMAGES GARAGE

Fire, believed caused by a firecracker, damaged tools and contracting equipment belonging to J. K. Sheehy, 366 Simcoe St., to the extent of about $150 on Friday night. The blaze damaged ropes, extension cords, and tools that had been stored in a garage. The building was divided into two parts—for equipment and for a car. The section housing the car was not touched by the flames. A broken window in the contracting section of the garage is believed to have admitted the firecracker.

Security Markets Pushed Down, No Spring Rally

By the Canadian Press.

Security markets were pushed downwards this week in irregular sessions potted with individual features. The expected spring rally failed to materialize.

Prices were battered downwards Thursday in one of the worst sell-offs this year in New York. Selling orders poured into Wall Street and prices tumbled.

The Wall Street Journal, in an appraisal of the current market situation, asks "where is the expected spring strength on the stock market?"

As a result of Thursday's battering, the New York market showed a loss from last Thursday, although tending to steady yesterday.

The Associated Press 60-stock average closed yesterday at 62.4, a decline of 1.2 from last Thursday's market and close to the low point of the year.

Canadian markets, closed Easter Monday, also moved downwards.

Base metals were the feature in Toronto, dipping slowly for two sessions and then breaking Thursday following price reductions in copper and zinc. The group lost 3.65 on the exchange's index from last Thursday.

Industrials reflected on New York's declining 1.81, although tending to hold Thursday when Wall Street was in retreat. Golds ran away with the intention early in the week but realizing sales wiped out advantages and the index showed a loss of .02. Western oils climbed for three successive session only to lose their advantage yesterday, dipping .54.

Volume for the four days was 3,348,000 shares, as against 2,705,000 shares for four days the previous week.

Motor League Raps Latest Car Models

TORONTO, April 23.—(CP).—That big, new automobile has its drawbacks.

The Ontario Motor League's annual meeting Friday unanimously passed a resolution protesting "the extravagant body styles and designs which add little or nothing but a heavy burden on the owner."

Delegates representing 75,000 Ontario motorists heard T. J. Mahoney of the Ontario Good Roads Association condemn what he called "the unnecessary expense and cost involved in the manufacture of cars in recent years."

T. N. Phelan, counsel for the OML, said new designs had caused increased insurance rates because of fragile construction and increased difficulty of repair work. Other delegates complained of extra width, making the driver's task more hazardous, and of shiny front fittings, confusing near-sighted people.

Truck Hits Tree On Maria Street

A truck driven by Harold Payne, 85 Park St. crashed into a cedar tree on Maria St. between Mark and Burnham streets shortly before 10 p.m. Friday. He escaped uninjured although the front of the truck was crushed.

As The Examiner went to press, Payne was facing two charges at city police court of careless driving and having liquor in a place other than his home. Constables A. Dalton and L. Rodregue found a bottle of beer in the truck.

Vote Of Confidence

CHICAGO, April 23—(AP)—The people who own Montgomery Ward and Company Friday told Sewell Avery to go on running it. Stockholders at their annual meeting brushed aside complaints over Avery's leadership and gave him a whopping vote of confidence.

Veterinaries Honor Premier Tom Kennedy

GUELPH, April 23.—(CP). — Termed the man who had done the most for the veterinary profession, Premier Kennedy of Ontario was honored here Friday night when he was presented with an illuminated address by the Ontario Veterinary Association. In conferring the honor, Dr. D. J. McLellan of Toronto, president of O.V.A., said that the well-built, well-staffed and well-equipped Ontario Veterinary College stood as a tribute to Col. Kennedy, who in his office of Minister of Agriculture had been always a friend of veterinarians.

Prime Minister Completes Western Tour

PORT ARTHUR, April 23. — (CP).—Prime Minister St. Laurent was en route to Ottawa by train today after two weeks of assessing the west—and having the west assess him.

The Prime Minister had finished 6,000 miles of travel which included 20 speeches, numerous private conferences with party workers and a variety of welcomes at many places.

More than 20,000 persons in 10 western cities saw and heard the Prime Minister.

The 12 newspaper reporters who made the western tour with Mr. St. Laurent generally felt his most telling appearances were those that took him off his private car for 10-or 20-minute stops at smaller places like Kamloops, B.C., Edson, Alta., and Watrous, Sask.

At such points, with dozens or hundreds gatherer around, he could speak to them and they could study him.

His major appearances contained no scathing political attacks. His chief references to opposition parties were to argue that they could not possibly hope to win a majority in Parliament, that only the Liberal party had that prospect.

It was of peace through the Atlantic pact that he talked most. He mentioned the pact at least once in each city, sometimes twice, and said again and again that the Atlantic Pact's union of strengths should forestall any aggression and usher in an era of peace for generations to come.

Mr. St. Laurent gave no clue as to what tangible contributions the pact will exact from Canada, but he said the nation would have to set aside some part of its annual production to fufill it.

Gets Accurate Test

CHICAGO, April 23—(AP).—A simple, "virtually 100 per cent. accurate" pregnancy test was reported Friday by a Northwestern University gynecologist. It takes only a few minutes and can be done at the doctor's office, Dr. Garwood C. Richardson, assistant professor of obstetrics and gynecology at the university's medical school, developed the test based on urine reaction to simple chemical reagents.

Air Force Doctor Queries Legends of Combat Fliers

By WILLIAM BOSS
Canadian Press Staff Writer.

LONDON, April 23 — (CP) — An Air Force psychologist challenges two legends about combat fliers: that they are fearless dare-devils and that another flight immediately after a crash is best for a man's nerves.

Dr. David Stafford-Clark, an RAF psychologist, who during four years of wartime lived and flew with RAF fighter and bomber crews, has reported his observations in The Journal of Mental Science.

He says even the most reliable pilots always were afraid. Devil-may-care types who had a good line at the mess bar, he says, usually gave up soonest.

They were less impressive in action than men who had coolly weighed the hazards, the only way to endure the strain and keep going back for more.

Both types, on a tour of 30 flights against the enemy, started at peak morale because of the novelty and excitement. Between five and 15 flights was "crack-up level" for both.

By the 12th or 13th sortie a flier usually had seen at least one bomber downed in flames, perhaps even with friends.

Close To Death

"He had probably never been so consciously close to death in his life before," says the doctor.

Glamor boys usually stopped flying there. The more reliable man who had measured the task and his own ability for it kept going.

Even he, however, never again reached the top morale of his initial sorties. But he recovered from the slump and rose progressively until the 22nd flight when again decline set in. Normally they were grounded after 30 sorties.

It was not uncommon for men to weep, Stafford-Clark said, when they went to confess their fear to the medical officer. Nor was it unusual for men to return to their jobs as soon as they learned that fellow crew-members often were as scared as they were.

'So strong was the spirit in Bomber Command," he wrote, 'that it was not uncommon for a man to volunteer for 10 extra trips so that he and his crew could finish together if he had joined them with more flights to his credit than they had."

As for flying again as soon as possible after crashes, Stafford-Clark says that a short rest "is more likely to help a man regain his nerve."

Blind Approve Of Single Body

A suggestion that the various autonomous associations of blind people in Ontario incorporate into a single body has been approved by the Peterborough Louis Braille Society.

At the regular meeting of the Society on Thursday night, held in Dixon House, discussion ranged around the topic of incorporation. The majority believed it would benefit the blind generally, and Frank Simmons, who will represent the local Society at the annual meeting of the Council for the Blind, was instructed to put forward this view.

The annual camp for the blind at Grimsby Beach has proved so successful that there will be two camps held this year in August. They will run for 10 days and will be 10 days apart.

The camp is free to the blind and there is plenty of supervised entertainment, such as horse-shoe pitching, hiking and swimming.

On Thursday night entertainment was provided at the Society meeting by Mrs. H. Parkington and Mrs. V. Parkington who played the piano and sang. They also led the sing-song. President Tom McQuigge was in the chair.

Refreshments were served by the ladies of George Street United Church.

Millbrook News

Misses Margaret and Esther Armstrong are visiting this week in St. Catharines, at the home of the brother and sister-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. Norman Armstrong. Mrs. Ralph Innis took the librarian's duties at the public library on Wednesday, in Miss Margaret Armstrong's absence.

Miss Bernice Smith of Toronto was home over the holiday season with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. F. J. Smith.

Mrs. D. L. Lunn, Mrs. Delbert Olan, and Mrs. J. R Thompson were delegates from LOBA, Daughters of Cavan, No 1066, at the Grand Lodge sessions in Peterborough last week. Mrs. Lunn was re-elected Senior Lecturer.

FORT ERIE, Ont. (CP)—The general contract for the erection here of a new depot building for the Michigan Central Railroad has been awarded. Last Fall $75,000 was appropriated by the railway company for the new building.

5,000 Families NeedNewHomes

TORONTO, April 23 (CP) — About 5,000 Toronto families have notice to vacate their present living quarters on May 1, and an undetermined number of these so far have not acquired new accommodation.

City Welfare Commissioner H. S. Rupert said he was hopeful that new housing being built on the city outskirts might provide a partial solution, but he conceded that the city has no plans to cope with any mass evictions.

The department estimated that of the total 2,000 families have notice to vacate self-contained housing units, resulting from government decontrol that permitted landlords who owned their houses before Nov. 1, 1947, to give tenants six months' notice.

Meantime a survey showed that rents are soaring on housing accommodation freed from contro Increases were said to be from $35 to $135 for the same accommodation in some cases. The rent on one house in a high-class residential district jumped from $100 a month to $100 a week.

Mother And Daughter Service To Be Held

MARMORA, April 23—(ENS) —The monthly meeting of St. Andrew's Women's Association was held on Tuesday afternoon at the home of Mrs. W. J. Pack. The president, Mrs. H. C. Barlow, was in charge. The worship service was conducted by Mrs. G. Young, with Mrs H. W. Sabine, Mrs. Park and Mrs T Hannah assisting.

Following roll call, twenty-seven sick calls were reported as being made. Ten books and five missionary monthlies were read during the month.

A letter of thanks for a parcel which had been sent for overseas relief was read from the Toronto office, which had forwarded the parcels. Members were asked to remember the Christmas gifts to be brought to the next meeting for mission work in the North.

A mother and daughter service came up for discussion. A committee was named to arrange for it.

Tenth Birthday Coming

The society's tenth birthday will be suitably observed next fall.

Mrs. James Sproul offered her home for the next meeting.

Mrs. Barlow gave a report of the Presbyterial meeting recently held in Trenton. Mrs. Sproul had charge of the study period in which the last chapter of "West of the Gorges" was reviewed. In this she was assisted by Mrs. F. Sweet.

The WHO

It is well to know something about the WHO if only because it is usually well to know what one pays for. The WHO cost Canadians last year $150,000.

* * *

The World Health Organization (to unmask it from its cipher) is one of the few post-war international agencies likely to function effectively and to give good value for the dollars spent on it. It was not established by the Charter of the United Nations, but is one of ten existing specialized agencies which have wide international responsibilities and have been set up by intergovernmental agreement. Other such agencies, brought into relationship with U.N., are RAO, ICAO, ILO, and UNESCO.

* * *

The constitution of the interim WHO was established in July, 1946, as a result of an International Health Conference. In those palmy days 51 UN members signed it, a total of 61 states joined the interim organization, and Russia was a full partner. Russia has lately withdrawn from WHO because of iodeological differences about scientific matters, as well as for other reasons too hackneyed to relate. The Soviet Union's abstention from WHO is regrettable, since WHO is not concerned with cold wars or hot wars, but with humanity in need and pain and the reasonable search for ways and means of attaining health everywhere in the world. The interim organization became a permanent WHO last April when the UN General Assembly adopted its constitution.

* * *

The WHO had already made an effective contribution to world public health through its prompt action in helping to check an outbreak of cholera in Egypt in the autumn of 1947. Six public health programs were adopted last summer in the following fields: malaria, tuberculosis, venereal diseases, maternal and child health, nutrition and what is called "environmental hygiene", about which, it seems, Russian soldiers have much to learn.

* * *

It must be obvious even to the scientifically unlettered that co-ordinated research and united international effort in such work is the only way in which the health of peoples can be safeguarded and disease checked. The virus of V.D., for instance, knows no national boundaries and pays no customs duty. In the matter of health, the bell tolls for a Chinaman that tolls for a Dane. The influenza at the close of the Great War spread from Central Europe to the central American states as fast as an ill-famed rumour. In public health our world is, for better or worse and more so than ever, one World. It is the task of the WHO to make it better.

* * *

The WHO is still mainly a consultative body, but there is no full agreement on the extent to which it should become "operative"—that is, setting up regional agencies and actually organizing, directing and carrying out public health measures through them. The Canadian view is that WHO should provide consultants and experts capable of initiating programs of public health in backward countries but should not undertake to establish and maintain public health programs in individual States.

* * *

The WHO is the least contentious of all specialized international agencies and because of the nature of its work has a good chance of being free to carry it on, even in this sorry partisan international climate. It was in such types of activity that the League of Nations had its greatest justification as well as active longevity. Dr. Brock Chisholm of Canada, for two years Executive Secretary of the interim organization, is Director-General. Dr. George Miller, a Canadian, lately of Bowmanville, and formerly a health officer in India, has been appointed secretary, and left this month for Geneva, where WHO has its headquarters.

The Last Tawdry Rags Of Chivralry

Several newspapers recently printed a picture of a duel which took place a few days ago in Paris, between Pierre Merindol, a writer, and Armand Fevre, an eccentric who dresses himself in the clothes of the early nineteenth century and parades his allegiance to the memory of Napoleon Bonaparte. Duels are uncommon now, even in Paris, but there are two or three every year, fought by men who cling to the notion that a point of honour can be settled by personal combat.

This is, of course, a completely idiotic and unreasonable notion, for skill in swordsmanship has nothing to do with honour, and a scoundrel may be a first-rate duellist. But the tradition from which the duel springs is far from being a contemptible one, for it is the tradition of chivalry — that elaborate code of honourable behaviour which was current everywhere in Christendom during the Middle Ages. There was a lot of nonsense about chivalry, and its greatest fault was that it was binding only upon people of wealth and rank in their dealings with one another; they were free to be as stupid and cruel as they liked in their dealings with inferiors. But it is a pity that chivalry was not extended to include all classes of society, instead of being discredited and destroyed. A workable code of chivalry is what the world needs right now—fewer laws and international associations, and more moral obligations binding upon individuals.

Such rags and tatters of the chivalric tradition as the duel in Paris are of interest, however. But how the code of Charlemagne and Sir Philip Sidney has been debased! The Parisian duellists fought with sabres, but the referee, as we may see by the picture, discharged his office carrying a long wooden pole, rather like a clothes prop! Presumably he was afraid of being hurt, or else he did not trust the swordsmen to know where they should strike. This is chivalry in rags—tawdry and dishonoured rags.

Peterborough Adds Its Mite

It is 333 years today since William Shakespeare died, 385 years today since he was born. Writing of him, his contemporary and friend, Ben Jonson said:

He was not of an age, but for all time.

"All time" is rather a sweeping claim, and we shall not have a chance to judge of Jonson's accufacy. But certainly Shakespeare seems to be in a very flourishing condition today. Has not his Hamlet received the coveted award as the best film of last year? Are not two or three of his plays usually to be found upon the stage in London, and even in New York? Is not a great theatre, equipped with a fine company and all the resources of modern stagecraft, acting his plays for six months of every year in his native town of Stratford? Do not books about him pour from the presses? Certainly Shakespeare, wherever he may be, has no cause to complain that the world has forgotten him.

And on this particular birthday of his our own city of Peterborough may claim to have added something to his fame, for in the Dominion Drama Festival which begins on Monday the Peterborough Little Theatre will present his fine old farce The Taming of The Shrew. This is the first time that a Shakespeare play has been done in the Canadian Festival and thus, in its way, Peterborough is making theatrical history. For let no one imagine that it is a small thing for a Canadian company of actors to bring a Shakespeare play to the attention of a large group of their fellow citizens.

Upon this particular April 23rd, therefore, Peterborough has a special interest in William Shakespeare, and can drink a toast to the Immortal Memory with a special relish.

Rudeness On The Telephone

The Guelph Mercury has some pointed comments on people who bark into telephones. Such rudeness, they say, is the mark of a sense of inferiority; the barker thinks that it makes him sound like a very busy and important man. Really busy and important men, our contemporary maintains, do not need to bolster up their self-esteem by such means, and know the value of courtesy.

We agree. But even more than the barkers we detest the people who, when they find that they have dialled a wrong number, groan, snort, swear or simply say "Aw-w-w-w!" and bang down the receiver. It cannot be repeated too often that wrong numbers are the fault of the diallers, and not of the innocent people who are called to the phone to answer them. A short apology is the proper answer in such a situation.

Nature restores the balance: a hitchhiker has been robbed by a Pennsylvania motorist!

Diary Of An Anarchist

By SAMUEL MARCHBANKS

SUNDAY: The debate which has been agitating Parliament about "O Canada" as a national anthem burst right into the Great Hall at Marchbanks Towers this afternoon and raged for nearly an hour among my guests. I kept out of the fight, for I think in a lukewarm way that it might be a nice thing to have a distinctively Canadian song, but I have no stomach for "O Canada". As a sweet-voiced tot I learned the old version, now in disuse, which contains what I am sure must be the worst line of poetry, and the most difficult to sing, ever written. I mean that which runs —

Defend our rights! Forefend this nation's thrall!

If we are to have a national anthem, let us not have any unsingable fustian like that in it. . . . How about a song in which every other word was French?

✧ ✧ ✧

MONDAY: Was beguiled by the fine weather into doing a little scratting with a rake around the Towers today, and I was cynically amused to find lumps of ice under some of the heaps of leaves which I removed. That is Old Mother Nature for you! A few warm days draw us out into the sunshine, blithesome and foolish as lambs, but the Old Lady still has a bit of Winter up her sleeve. . . . Tonight a man came to ask me what plants and shrubs I wanted for my garden. This is always embarrassing, for I know very little about such matters and have no imagination where gardens are concerned. "Let's have a Wealth of Bloom" I said, and left it to him to make further suggestions. He produced a catalogue printed in brilliant colours, and I very nearly lost my reason and ordered everything in it. But I know something about those catalogues; the pictures in them bear the same relation to the plants as the raving beauty, compounded of Helen of Troy and Linda Darnell, whom the lover sees, does to the rather bandy-legged little girl with mousey hair and a squint, who is seen by the rest of us every day. So I chose a few lilacs and congratulated myself on a narrow escape.

✧ ✧ ✧

TUESDAY: The Easter week-end approaches, and I want to collapse with a book during the whole of it, seeking surcease from the cares of the world. But what book? Ah, there is the question! For when I am in this spiritually depleted condition I lack the strength to tackle a book with any substance to it, but I am too cranky to endure a foolish book. Today in a bookshop I picked up a new novel and, as is my custom, looked for a picture of the author on the back of the jacket. I judge most books by the pictures of the author. If he looks a congenial fellow, I read his book; if not, not. This accounts for the fact that I read few books by women; authoresses are, in the main, an unappetizing crew. Upon the back of this book was a picture of a fellow with large intense eyes and his hair combed forward in a fringe. Obviously, I thought, this fellow has a grievance of some sort, and his novel will fall into the great category of Gripe Novels. So I looked at some others, but found none with pictures of authors who pleased me. They all looked like Gripers, or people with a Social Conscience, or Oh-God-The-Pain-Of-It writers. I like authors to look sassy and bright, like Evelyn Waugh.

✧ ✧ ✧

WEDNESDAY: Turned to the wearisome and depressing task of making out my Income Tax this afternoon. Or, more accurately, I sat and watched in a glumly acquiescent spirit while one who is my superior in such matters did the calculating and filled up the form; my duties were simple enough; when all else was done I signed my name twice—once on the form and once on the cheque. There is a crushing inevitability about Income Tax which depresses me profoundly, and yet it is a symbol, as well as the substance, of all that loving care, foresight and solicitude for the Citizen which marks the modern state. Sometimes, however, the Old Adam rises strongly within me, and I think that I would rather see the poor starve, the enemy within the gate, the public services in ruins, plague abroad in the land, and Cabinet Ministers ravished in the streets by brutal and licentious soldiery, than keep up this incessant, pay, pay, pay, and this nauseating, mealy-mouthed cry of "The State Is All". But there is no escape from it anywhere today. After a brief struggle I push the Old Adam down into his dungeon, and assume once more the bleak, despairing, trapped look of a Good Citizen.

✧ ✧ ✧

THURSDAY: Received a letter from a lady today who reproaches me for my hard words about socialists. She insinuates, most flatteringly, that she is surprised that a person of my towering intellect is not a socialist himself. No madam, I am the very antithesis of a socialist; I am an Individualist-Anarchist, a very dangerous political animal which is only tolerated by society because it never runs in packs, and can therefore generally be dealt with before it does much harm. Most of the time the creature wears the mask of the Good Citizen, and smoulders inwardly.

✧ ✧ ✧

FRIDAY: A child who is interested in music was telling me about her favourite composers today; according to her they were all desperately poor, and never had a square meal. "Where did you pick up that notion?" I enquired; "you are wasting your pity on Chopin, who was really very well off; Beethoven had a pretty bank book, Haydn was well-heeled, Mendelssohn was born in the lap of luxury and made a small fortune on his own account, Handel made and lost a couple of fortunes and even Bach was in easy circumstances, according to the standards of his day. The only poor composer of the first rank that I can think of was Schubert. Dry your tears, my poppet". But she did not want to be comforted and was annoyed by my array of facts. Why people like to think of composers as poor I cannot say, but they do. My observation has been that most musicians were as sharp as a tack in their attitude toward money, long before the days of Petrillo.

✧ ✧ ✧

SATURDAY: Watched a child attracting a bit of steel with a magnet this afternoon, and realized with a sudden shock that the bit of steel was a five-cent piece; I can remember when those coins were made of silver, and were much in vogue for Sunday School collection. As a child I was a regular Sabbath Day scholar, graduating from the Infant School to the Intermediate, but never rising to the Bible Class, which was taught by a lawyer whose scriptural teaching was inextricably mingled with his deeper knowledge of baseball; sometimes he would devote most of a lesson which was supposed to be about the Prodigal Son to an analysis of the Babe's batting form. This led to a widespread belief in his class that the Prodigal passed his years of riotous living as a professional ballplayer. Sunday School teaching is one field into which the modern pedagogical approach has never penetrated. And I still think that children learn more about life and conduct when an interesting man is given freedom to talk freely, and is not chained to a syllabus which dictates everything, including the opening and closing the classroom windows.

Letters To The Editor

MODERNITY AND CATALOGUE ART

Sir: This fellow Gord. Bailey really stuck his neck out about three weeks ago when he criticized the Art exhibit in the Library down to Peterborough. Now, I'm neutral about the whole thing but I want to have a little say so. Now, I've met a lot of these painter chaps in my day and have spent a little time watching them paint views around here. Some good, some bad. But I like to see a birch tree painted like a birch tree, because I know birch trees, and I know what I want.

Seems to me that most artists start out to do just this, but if the paint don't come off the brush just right and they can't get the likeness they want, they leave it and call it "Limbo" or "Soul of a Green Onion", the titles help some when the folks gather around the gallery to 'Oh' and 'Ah'.

Now most of these folks who wrote in, said they didn't like the old painters, because they didn't have 'feelin'', well this same crew, or folks like them, go to see Shakespeare just because they think it's the thing to do. Me and the old woman has set in the audience while Hamlet paced the boards and you couldn't hear what he was sayin' because of the competition of the moderns behind and in front of us.

It seems folks can't be original, they're afraid to say that somethin' they don't understand is real or not, but they swim along with the rest, because it's the right thing to do.

Well a fellow who hadn't a name but had a couple of initials, wrote in, cuttin' the legs from under Gord, then a Mr. Arnott did the same. By and by the news gets to Hamilton and Mabel Burridge gets a friend and leaves Hamilton (I can understand her wanting to do that alright) and comes up here for a look see. Hasn't this show made Hamilton yet? Well anyway Gord has her sympathies, which will ease him a bit anyway, me knowin' Gord.

Even Samuel Marchbanks stuck his cane in Gord's ribs about the pictures; he's a gay old dog, goin' for that modern stuff.

Well—it's like this:

I bought me and the old woman a stove right from a picture in our catalogue, when the stove arrived, I looked at it, then looked at the picture, I sized her up from every angle then I sez out loud. "Maw, that feller's an artist, he's got that stove down pat." Now that's a picture I didn't destroy, when I hung the catalogue up, I tore that picture out, (it was in the glossy section anyway) and nailed it to the wall and as I sit here writin' this note I'm lookin' at it and thinkin', that feller's a real artist if there ever was one.

THE OLD GUIDE AND TRAPPER.

P.S.: Can you imagine that show not makin' Hamilton?

EDITOR'S NOTE: The show made Hamilton; the writer of the letter, however, is now a resident of Lindsay.

WHEN SHOULD SEX INSTRUCTION BEGIN?

Sir: In tonight's Examiner I have been reading an article in which Dr. Church, director of Hamilton's Mental Health Clinic, urged parents to give gradual instruction in sex matters from the "child's tenderest years" instead of waiting until adolescence to give them the information all of a sudden.

I agree with Dr. Church that it is the parents duty to instruct the child. When my own little son, now 3½ years, asked me about six months ago where babies came from I answered simply "They grow inside their mothers. All babies grow inside their mothers." The simple factual answer satisfied him at the time, and it was several months before he came back to ask "How do the babies get out". Again I answered simply giving the facts without enlarging on the subject.

In the same way my husband and I have answered his questions on any subject.

But now I am worried. This is my problem.

A friend of mine, and one whom I greatly admire for her commonsense and logical approach to any problem asked me if I was sure I was being fair to my little son by giving him sex instruction so early in life. She pointed out that few mothers would agree with me, and that if my son shared his knowledge with his playmates, as he would likely do should the subject come up, as it would probably do, especially if his playmates should get a new baby brother or sister, the mothers of his playmates would likely forbid them to play with my boy. In this way he would be made unhappy because of something I had told him. After a while he may develop a feeling of guilt about the whole business, and wonder if I was right or not.

My friend believes that should this happen he may lose faith in his parents, and develop a guilt complex.

I must admit that my friend has a case. She has two children, one a year older than my boy, and one a year younger. I asked her how she answered the same questions, she said she told them she got them in the hospital. The doctor brought them. Her point is, she also sticks to facts, which is true and she leaves her children with nothing which will get them into trouble.

Now I know you are not Dorothy Dix, but can you publish this letter. There must be other mothers and fathers with this same problem. Maybe they will give me their viewpoints, and it's probable that we may help each other. We love our son, we want to guide him right, but how can we if we aren't sure of the way ourselves.

We may end up like the man who wanted to let his friend know he approved of a speech he had made, but when he clapped him on the back, he knocked his friend under a bus.

Yours in bewilderment,

P.C.

Bible Message

(From the Authorized Version)

Now this I say, brethen, that flesh and blood cannot inherit the kingdom of God: neither doth corruption inherit incorruption.

Behold, I shew you a mystery; We shall not all sleep, but we shall all be changed, in a moment, in the twinkling of an eye, at the last trump: for the trumpet shall sound, and the dead shall be raised incorruptible, and we shall be changed. For this corruptible must put on incorruption, and this mortal must put on immortality.

So when this corruptible shall have put on incorruption, and this mortal shall have put on immortality, then shall be brought to pass the saying that is written, Death is swallowed up in victory.

O death, where is thy sting? O grave, where is thy victory? The sting of death is sin; and the strength of sin is the law. But thanks be to God, which giveth us the victory through our Lord Jesus Christ.

Therefore, my beloved brethren, be ye stedfast, unmoveable, always abounding in the work of the Lord, forasmuch as ye know that your labour is not in vain in the Lord. (I Cor. 15: 50-58.)

MR. CHRISTOPHER GLEDHILL AT THE CONSOLE of the four-manual St. Paul's organ. —Examiner Staff Photo

PETERBOROUGH PERSONALITIES

Modest English Musician Was Oxford Organ Scholar; Artillery Captain In War

By A. J. THOMAS.

Christopher Gledhill is a personality—the old word is a "character"—and is rapidly becoming a Peterborough Personality even though he has been in this city and country only six months. He is a musician, an organist, and an ex-captain of artillery. He is, as his accent proclaims, an Englishman born and bred.

I first thought of interviewing Mr. Gledhill in order that he, a picture of his organ—a very fine, four-manual instrument — and Easter lilies and Easter music could adorn this page last Saturday in time for the Easter festival. However, Mr. Gledhill did not talk about Easter music, and our photographer had no Easter lilies with which to surround him at the time he took the photograph, so Mr. Gledhill appears today without benefit of Easter atmosphere. He has his own.

Like many artists, Mr. Gledhill's atmosphere seems to be outside of this world of pavement and shoptalk. To meet him on George Street is an extraordinary experience. Not that he does not appear on George Street. But his appearance there is extraordinarily unlike George Street because George Street seems to be conscious of what it wears, and Christopher Gledhill is not.

EPIGRAM

Sir, I admit your general rule,
That every poet is a fool:
But you yourself may serve to show it,
That every fool is not a poet.
Matthew Prior (1664-1721)

The meeting itself goes something like this. The George-Street type (me) says: "Why, hello there!" Gledhill: "O, Ah, well, how are you?" It is not a question. It is an effulgence of surprised breath, exhaled in incomprehensible monosyllables.

"Don't you remember me?" the George Street person says. It is a needless question, for Gledhill's unpretentious smile assures one that he does. His modest confusion seems to indicate that he has been taken in surprise in the midst of mentally humming an aria, or mental perturbation about whether it was soap or stew he was supposed to buy for his four daughters, the most recent of whom arrived in June 1948.

Mr. Christopher Gledhill came to Peterborough as organist and choir master of St. Paul's church in October last. Before that he had some experiences worthy of record.

One was his birth in Kent. It was not long after that event that he was able to astonish his parents by humming sixteen different tunes before he could talk. So it was that he said when I interviewed him the other day, "In a way music is my native tongue, rather than speech." He speaks, by the way, with what is loosely called an "Oxford" accent, and one can readily believe—after hearing him talk and hearing him at the organ—that he feels more at ease with keys and tones than with verbiage. He was at Oxford from 1931 to 1934, at Oriel College, where he was Organ Scholar.

Before that he had studied at the Royal College of Music under Sir Walter Alcock, sometime organist of Salisbury Cathedral, who had the distinction of having played at three coronations. Sir Walter died two or three years ago in ripe old age. At the Royal College of Music Christopher Gledhill studied composition with Herbert Howells and piano under Edward Mitchell.

When he became Organ Scholar at Oriel College, Oxford, his musical tutors were Sir Hugh Allen, Dr. Ernest Waller and Dr. Harrison, among others. During his time at Oxford he studied for has B.A., and, concurrently, for his Bachelor of Music degree. Most of his musical studies at this time were theoretical, in accord with the requirements for the Mus. Bac. At the end of this course candidates are expected to submit an original composition or "exercise" varying, according to university statute, from a requiem to a comic opera.

During Mr. Gledhill's undergraduate days a majority of the musical students favoured Te Deums and such, and a few arranged settings for modern poems. Walt Whitman was a favorite. Gledhill chose to set to music some verses from T. S. Eliot's "Ash Wednesday."

War came on September 3rd, 1939. On September 6th, Mr. Gledhill joined up. Incidentally a few days later he married a charming girl from Norfolk, who last December, and after his own arrival in Canada, flew over to join him with their four daughters. Most husbands are eager to pay tribute to their wives; there is no doubt that with Mr. Gledhill the tribute is profound and warranted. Mrs. Gledhill has had the experience unusual for Canadian wives of having a husband in the armed forces for six of their nine married years, four daughters and a flight alone with them to a new country and a newly-built house in the north end of a Canadian city called Peterborough, a house which has neither sidewalk nor telephone.

Mr. Gledhill enlisted with the artillery. He had a "quite amusing" time (that is, of course, understatement and overstatement) in France in 1940. He and his group were evacuated from St. Nazaire most precariously.

Later he went to the French island of Madagascar off the east coast of Africa, when the British forces seized that domain. He took part in the landing at Diego Suarez on the tip of the island in 1942, where there was a military base. For a time the situation was "really quite alarming." But in conversation he said little about the alarm and talked about the birds, beasts and native population of Madagascar. At one point in this campaign Gledhill and his men covered 250 miles in 14 days. He was then a Captain in Signals.

Sometime later he returned to garrison duty in England and Ireland, and went with the 59th Division Signals to Normandy in 1944. When the war's end came he was attached to the signals section of 21st Army Group (Montgomery's command), and located in Brussels.

The mention of Brussels in 1945 brought its own special memories, and we had a good chin-wag over them. However, Brussels in 1945 is not a city to be discussed intimately in print even in 1949.

When Mr. Gledhill doffed military uniform for musician's gown, he took a position as music master and organist at the Royal Naval College at Dartmouth (Devonshire). From there he emigrated to Peterborough, by plane, so that St. Paul's could have his services as soon as possible.

He says that the most exciting experience of his whole career was during his flight from Montreal to Toronto. Lightning struck the plane as it neared Toronto. This thunderbolt of the heavens sounded like a wrathful blast from God and jolted the passengers most terrifyingly. However, it was a noisy rather than a calamitous crack. He got safely to Peterborough.

Why is a ship under sail more poetical than a hog in a high wind? The hog is all nature, the ship is all art.
Byron: Letter to John Murray, 1821.

Mr. Gledhill, M.A., Mus. Bac., is now pursuing his duties in Peterborough, at St. Paul's. In addition to his organ and choir and his private pupils, he is acting as music master at The Grove School, Lakefield, where he instructs boys in the art and discipline of singing and plays the chapel organ.

He has accepted an invitation to organize and arrange music for several of the plays which the Michael Saddlier repertory company will present during the summer in this city.

He thinks that music in Peterborough is in a flourishing condition, though he notes the lack of an orchestra and regrets the paucity of string instrumentalists. His heart is gladdened by the "very friendly" attitude of Peterborough folk and the "wonderful welcome" he received on his arrival in October and which his wife (who is not a performer, but "a good listener") with their children were given in December.

Find Century-old Newspaper Worth $1,000 To Fair Board

OLD PORT HOPE PAPER PROVES ANTIQUITY OF MILLBROOK FAIR THROWS LIGHT ON OTHER DAYS

By HARRY THEOBALD.

To the Millbrook and Cavan Agricultural Society, a century old copy of a long extinct Port Hope newspaper is worth $1,000. It was recently obtained from the Wilson family of Hope, pioneers of the Elizabethville section of the township, rewarding a persistent quest of Sam S. Staples of Springville.

Mr. Staples was seeking tangible proof that the fair board which he has helped to maintain and lately revitalize could show a continuous existence and usefulness of one hundred years, thereby qualifying for the special grant of the Ontario government in recognition of the historic and enduring place and service of the centenarian fall fairs of the province. Some weeks ago he found the evidence in a copy of the Port Hope Commercial Advertiser of October 24, 1848, a weekly print, confirming Cavan opinion and tradition and validating the claim of the fair board for the $1,000 grant.

The money is to be used in erecting an attractive pilon in the fair grounds at Millbrook, commemorating the misty past of the agricultural society, and particularly its hundredth anniversary to be celebrated this year. Mr. Staples and his associates are confident that their first fall fair was more than a century ago, possibly 115 years ago, but they are content with the testimony of time which they have now established. The pilon they are about to set up will become a fresh challenge to the directors and members and the Cavan-Millbrook community as a whole, and should give to the society a fresh outlook upon their continuing opportunity along the Durham-Peterborough border combined with a sense of dignity as present day successors of the men who conceived the advantages of a fair in promoting better farming and handcraft so long ago.

Urgency of publication rested lightly upon the staff of the Commercial Advertiser and its reporter or local correspondent. The fair of 1848 took place on September 30, but its account did not appear in print until the issue of Oct. 28. It was a weekly sheet, with clear type and quality of paper that has been remarkably well preserved in their heirlooms of the Wilson family. The fact that it came off a handpress 101 years ago seemed incredible to Premier T. L. Kennedy, Minister of Agriculture, and members of his department to whom it was shown. Mr. Staples intimated that it was destined for the provincial archives.

The news that testified to the longevity of the Cavan-Millbrook fair was, in part, as follows: "The autumn exhibition of this society was held at Cavan on the 30th ultimo, and was extremely well attended by exhibitors and respectable farmers of the township. The show of stock, butter, cheese, vegetables, was very creditable to the society. . . A harrow made by John Kells reflected great credit on the maker. The society is now making good progress, and is worthy of more extensive imitation. It is in contemplation to furnish each member with an agricultural paper. .."

Some of the prize awards were: "Best bull, Richard Thexton; best year old colt, Matthew Gardiner; best boar, George Cain; best sow, Richard Staples; best ram, William Scott; best piece of gray cloth, Wm. Scott; best striped cloth, Sam Ling; piece of woman's woollen apparel, James Fallis; best socks, Patrick McGuire; best grain cradle, John Swaine; best bureau and washstand, James Thompson; best chairs, George Hetherington; best washtub and pail, Robert Irwin; best plowing, Samuel Redmond, Edward Richardson; red and white fall wheat, Richard Staples. The plowing was at the farm of John Hutchinson."

That brief factual report of the Cavan fall fair of 101 years ago holds a mirror to the providing of all the comforts of home when the average man had to depend on his own manual craftsmanship. He had to make his domestic utensils and household furniture. That is the plain inference from the list of awards, and apparently more prizes were given for a fairly wide range of literal manufacture than for the products of the land and the livestock of the farm.

It was the end of the era of making essential articles by hand, before factories generally came into being. Cloth was woven in the home, and probably most of women's wearing apparel, and men's suits were made of full-cloth by tailors in the nearby towns and villages. Communities and their homes had to be more self-sufficient. It is obvious, too, that household furnishings were made by hand, water pails and washtubs, chairs and bureau and washstand, and even the simpler farm implements as indicated by the award to John Swaine for the best grain cradle.

And the domestic equipment and its making in Cavan was duplicated in all the settled townships of the province in 1848. The correspondent's summary invites further musing and speculation about home circumstances of that period of which so few remnant specimens have been salvaged for the information of posterity. The crude handmade house furnishings that were the pride of pioneer husbands have long since disappeared into the dust of the men who made them with the rude tools of their time. A few have survived as museum pieces.

Personal phases of the old newspaper account of that fair day in late September of 1848 retain local interest for today's Cavan families. The Hutchinson farm where the plowing match took place was one concession south of Cavanville. It is now known as the McGinnis farm.

Richard Staples, winner of several first prize awards, was the great, great grandfather of Mr. Gordon Staples, the present president of the Millbrook and Cavan Agricultural Society. Mr. Sam S. Staples of Springville, one of the most active of the Millbrook fair's directors and promotional manager, succeeded recently by Mr. Bruce Sargent, is another great, great grandson of Richard Staples. Incidentally, the sub-committee in charge of the commemorative pilon project, is S. S. Staples, Gordon Staples and Roy Ferren.

Richard Staples contributed to the community the land for the 9th line cemetery and the first church built on that site. His daughter was the wife of John Swaine, mentioned as the winner of the best grain cradle. John Kells, maker of the harrow that attracted the Port Hope paper's correspondent was probably the founder of that family which was later prominent in Millbrook retail and private banking business. One of its later members, John Kells, was proprietor of a dry-goods store on the west side of George St., Peterborough, a few doors north of Simcoe St., 30 or 40 years ago. Samuel Redmond was a farmer a mile south of Millbrook. The family was long known in Cavan, and a branch of it in Otonabee, southeast of this city, on the old Keene Road. George Hetherington was intermarried with the Staples family, and later moved to the Bobcaygeon district.

The Port Hope paper clipped from the Quarterly Review gives an account of the beginning of a day's work in a London printing office a century ago.

The working day was 8 a.m. to 8 p.m. "The employees have scarcely assumed their respective stations when blue mugs each containing a pint and a half of tea or coffee, and attended by smoking hot rolls stuffed with yellow butter, enter the hall. Girls with well combed hair and shining faces carry these refreshments to those who have not had breakfast at home.

The men read the morning papers an hour or two before the great statemen have received the observations, the castigations or the intelligence they contain. . . The employees pay for their newspaper, but often indemnify one of their community for giving up his work in order to sit in the middle of the hall on a high stool and read the news aloud to them while they are laboring at their work. They will, moreover, pay him to read to them any new book which they consider to contain interesting information.

"It of course requires great command of the mind to be able to give attention to what is read from one book while the men are intently employed in the creation of another. The apprentices and inferior workmen cannot attempt to do this, but the greater number, astonishing as it may sound, can listen without injury to their avocation . . . Very shortly after 8 o'clock the whole body are at work, at which they patiently continue with only an hour's interval until 8 p.m."

Archaic style of writing is heard in this business "ad.":—"Canada Life Assurance Co. is prepared to effect assurance upon lives and transact any business dependent upon the value or duration of human life; to grant or purchase annuities or reversions of all kinds, as also, survivorships and endowments."

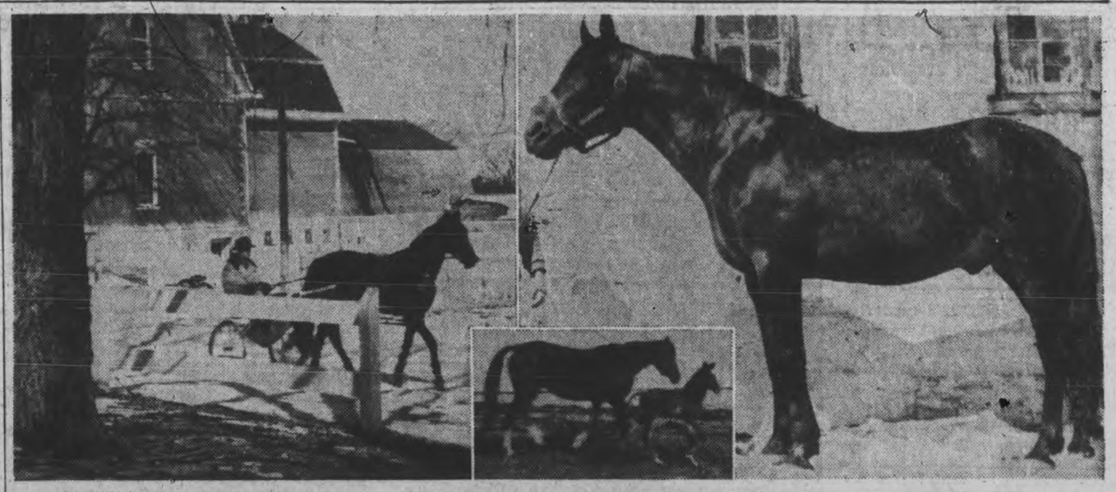
P. P. Robinson, bootmaker, Walton St., was late of Potter St., Hanover Square, London, Eng.; and F. C. Callender, surgeon dentist, had his office in Division St.

Educational facilities in Port Hope are glimpsed in the following advertisement: "Durham Academy, Walton St., conducted by J. Johnston in succession to Rev. J. Shortt. Subjects: English, grammar, first book of Euclid, algebra, geography, equations, chronology, history and astronomy. Terms: £1, 5s. per quarter; Greek, Latin, French, 15s per quarter; higher mathematics, 15s. Private lessons, evening school, English, 15s per quarter."

A hint of the tradesman's place in the community seems to be reflected in the tone of this "ad":—"Christie & Waddell, tailors, beg leave respectfully to intimate to the inhabitants of Port Hope and its vicinity that they have commenced business in the new shop two doors west of Mr. Hastings' Queen's Arms Inn, in Walton St., where all orders will be promptly attended to, and executed in the most fashionable style and on moderate terms; and they hope from their experience in the trade, and unremitting exertions, to merit a share of public patronage."

Miscellaneous advertisements and news items reflect the way of life in Port Hope a century ago. Two columns, clipped from a London paper, reviewed the trial of Smith O'Brien in Dublin for allegedly inciting rebellion. Samuel Hatton, wholesale and retail dealer in groceries, wines, spirits and fancy fruits, "just received 20 doz. bottles of superior wines, Port, Maderia, pale and brown Sherry."

"The quarter sessions are adjourned from the 2nd inst. to Nov. 2; T. Ward, clerk of the peace."



"We have before us the last number of the Peterborough Gazette. The establishment is to be moved to Toronto where the proprietor intends publishing a weekly newspaper under the title of "The Toronto Standard."

The remaining building lots of one acre each on Church St., Gore's Landing, commanding an extensive view of Rice Lake and islands were for sale; also two sites of five acres each extending to the lake shore; also 200 acres on the plank road, half a mile from the wharf. The vendor was Wm. Millard.

"R. G. Williams, druggist, Port Hope begs to return his sincere thanks for the patronage he has received since he commenced business, and hopes with strict attention, quality of goods, low prices, etc., to merit sufficient support to enable him to do business to advantage." He advertises: "leeches as imported" for drawing blood from people; "pink and senna seidlitz and soda powders; ague medicine, warranted; worm powders, itch ointment, hair dye; strychnine (wolf poison); Dutch drops, corn plaster, infallible toothache drops, cherry pectoral; balls for horses (purging); pile ointment; Sovereign balm; antibilious pills; Garvey's botts remedy, sure cure for botts (forerunner of the warble fly, that torments cattle); paints, oils, candies."

Letters unclaimed at Darlington post office, for the quarter ending Oct. 5 included such names as: James Hancock, Chris. Courtice, John Crozier, Sam Ingram, George Lockhart.

Hon. R. L. Hazen was chairman of a meeting of the stockholders of the New Brunswick Telegraph Co., St. John.—Four miles west of Port Hope, 100 lots for sale in the growing village of Port Britain. . . Pitt's superior patent threshing machines and separators. . The municipal council of the district of Newcastle, which once included Peterborough County, will meet at the court house, Port Hope, Nov. 7. . . R. Crawford & Co. announced his saddle and harness manufactory in the brick building next to the post office.

AT HILLTOP STOCK FARM, on the Weller Street hill across from the new Civic Hospital, Mr. Hugh Stewart raises some of the finest horse-flesh in twenty counties. Left, the owner himself is at the reins of Miss Stewart Direct, sire Prince Direct, dam Babe Direct. It is a two-year-old. Inset (centre) is the first colt to arrive in 1949 at Hilltop Farm. He is sired by Prince Direct and his dam is May Bars. Right, is the sire himself, Prince Direct, imposing stallion of the farm. This stud is a full brother of Winnipeg, who was the world's champion racing gelding.

Fine, Fleet, Horse Flesh Raised In Peterborough

By GORD BAILEY

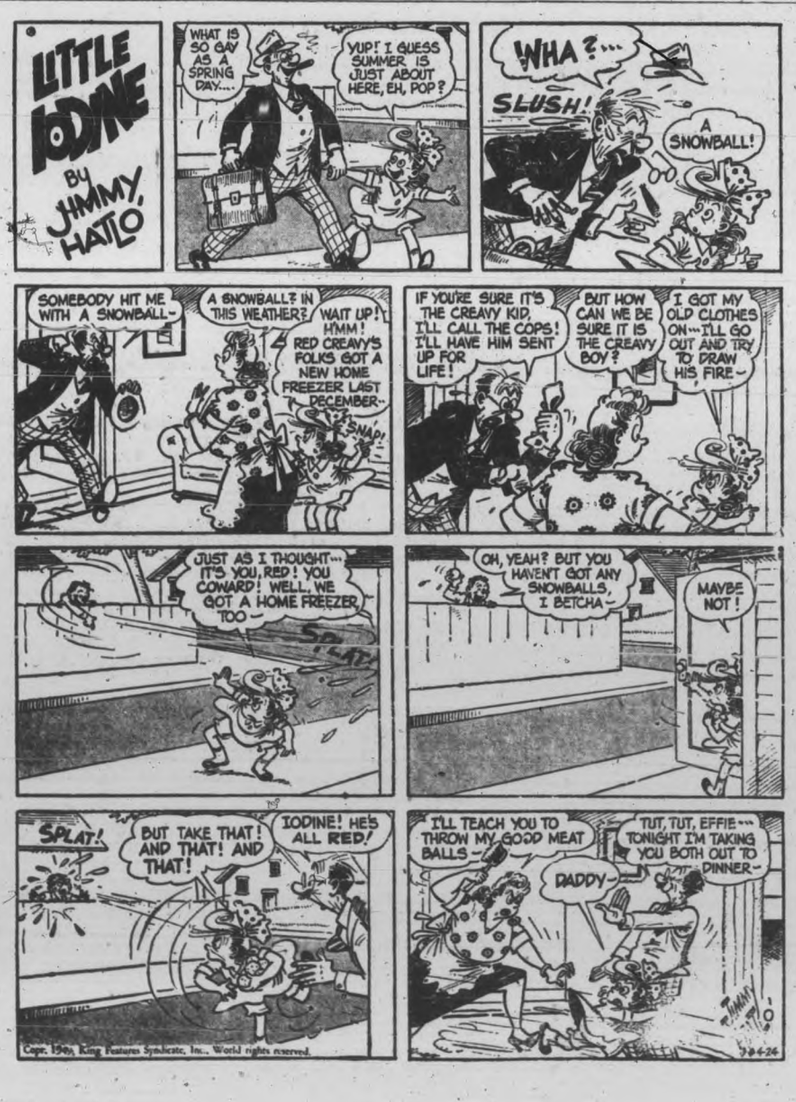
Horse-lovers visiting Peterborough will find their heart's desire at Hilltop Stock Farm, which is situated on the outskirts of the city on the crown of a gentle hill that commands a splendid view of the city and surrounding district. In 1938 Hugh Stewart selected this site for the creation of a horse nursery.

The great barn, built of solid red brick to the eaves, and containing 36 box stalls and 28 standing stalls, has housed many history-making horses. Among these have been 33 mares and their offspring representing most breeds known in the equine world, including such horses at Grattan Bars, Scotland, Bert Abbe, Mc I Win, Battle Axe, Richard 3rd, Graham Axeworthy, Calgary Bars, Mac Guy, Peter Grattan Royal, Jack Grattan, Ormonde B. Bennett Volo, Peter G, Julienne Todd, Guy Riggs and others.

The upper part of this barn has a capacity of 350 tons of hay, plus grains and bedding. The stable is built on a 65-acre tract of land which has a half-mile track where horses are trained and coached in the ABC's of harness racing for the biggest stake races on the continent.

Stewart Direct, an outstanding pacer, is a protege of the Hilltop Stock Farm and winters in Phoenix, Arizona, where he is a consistent winner. In 1948 he was timed at 2:03 3/5 at Santa Anita, California, and in the same season won 10 more races to finish up with total winnings of $12,630. This is an excellent record considering the class of horses he has to compete against.

This horse is entered in the two-mile Nassau Pace this coming season at the Roosevelt Raceway, Westbury, Long Island; the Benjamin W. Dowling Memorial Pace, and two $50,000 races.



Stewart Worthy, another horse from the Hilltop Farm string, is rapidly coming to the fore with an excellent record in 1948 of showing up at the finish line either first, second, or third in 90 per cent of his starts, winning 14 heats and placing second 8 times and third 7 times.

Hugh Stewart has a soft spot in his heart for this little animal and raced him at Belleville, taking a track record of 2:08.

In this race, he was separately clocked by two others as well as driver Mr. Stewart, in 2:07, the last quarter in 29¼ seconds to give his owner the fastest ride he had ever experienced behind a horse. Stewart Worthy is showing great stamina in as much as his owner finds him faster in the third heat than in the first two.

Last Fall Mr. Stewart bought Miss Iowalta at Calgary, Alberta, sired by Mac I Win with a race record at 3 years at 1:58¾, out of Nina Binbo, 2:09, and shipped her to his driver Clint Hodgins at Phoenix, Arizona, to train for the same stakes races that Stewart Direct is booked for. This little mare won 187 heats in the past four years and lowered her record every season until last Fall at Calgary she went 2:07 and a tick, lowering that track record that has stood for 32 years. This Peterborugh-entry in the important American races is creating quite a stir among Canadian racing men and fans.

This summer the early morning rail birds will flock to the track on the uplands of Hilltop Stock Farm to watch the training and the time of these young aristocrats of the horse world do their stuff with Hugh Stewart and his sons who, like their father, are first of all lovers of horses and secondly breeders and trainers of pacers. Visitors are always welcome at Hilltop Stock Farms. There they will find the finest horse flesh as well as two diminutive Shetland ponies that carry Mr. Stewart's young son across the fields of this horse haven on the outskirts of Peterborough.

Calumet Hopes Collapse, Hint Tampering

LEXINGTON, Ky., April 23 — (AP)— Calumet Farm's Kentucky Derby hopes all but collapsed today as trainer Ben Jones pronounced his ace, De Luxe, "flat" and said he suspected "tampering" by stable prowlers.

The trainer of the leading American stable said he based his suspicion on a sluggish race turned in by De Luxe at Keeneland Friday. The horse was "never better" in a workout the day before," he said.

"I don't think we have a Derby horse now," Jones said dejectedly.

He said De Luxe's condition after the race left him little hope of getting the horse ready for the Blue Grass Stakes next Thursday and the Derby May 7.

The nature of treatment that De Luxe might have been subjected to could not be determined immediately, Jones said he might never be able to prove it, but his best guess, he said, is that De Luxe was given some sedative.

WELCOME HOME—Besieged by a throng of autograph seekers and well wishers two native sons who played on this year's champion Red Wings are welcomed home outside the city hall at Kirkland Lake. Ted Lindsay and Nellie Podalski are shown in their car following a civic reception this week.

Legion Protest Upheld By OHA

TORONTO, April 23 (CP) — Protest by Gananoque Legion against Port Colborne Sailors was upheld Friday night by the Ontario Hockey Association's executive committee, which ordered a sudden-death game at Toronto to decide the OHA Intermediate A championship. The game will be played on the first available night at Maple Leaf Gardens, probably next Wednesday.

Gananoque protested that Don Gallinger, former NHL played with Boston Bruins suspended from organized hockey, had assisted Port Colborne in coaching duties in the third game of the best-of-five series at Kingston last Saturday. Port Colborne won that game 5-2 and went on to win the series three games to one.

The OHA executive awarded the game to Gananoque, leaving the series tied at two games each.

Representatives from both clubs presented written and oral argument and J. J McFayden of Galt, OHA president, told the Port Colborne delegation "I might say that you got off very lucky." The Ports had been warned on two previous occasions against Gallinger having any connection with the club. A referee's report said that Gallinger was standing at the player's bench and in the third period he was "at the gate opening it and yelling for player changes."

Pitches Bisons To 5-1 Victory

By the Associated Press.

Ernie Silverman, who acted as a relief pitcher most of last year, is off to a good start in his bid to be a starting pitcher for the Buffalo Bisons.

Silverman made his first start in the infant International League season Friday and pitched the Bisons to a 5-1 seven-hit triumph over Syracuse Chiefs.

Silverman lost his bid for a shutout in the eighth inning when Carden Gillenwater homered.

The Bisons collected eight hits off starter Johnny Bebber and reliefer Mike Schultz. One of the Bisons' blows was a two-run third-inning homer by Chet Laabs.

A scheduled night game between Montreal and Baltimore was postponed because of rain. The other clubs were idle.

SPORTS SHOW WINDOW

CEC. PERDUE, Sports Editor

Not missing a bet on publicity this season, Toronto Maple Leafs of the International Baseball League, have put out an 85-page club digest which makes interesting reading. Leafs are celebrating their 60th anniversary and it's too bad Pete Campbell didn't live to enjoy it. Donald Ross succeeds the former Peterborough man as president, while Joe Ziegler is general manager and Del Bissonnette field manager. Funny thing but in hockey the coach is the big shot where players are concerned, the manager being more or less in obscurity, but in ball the manager runs things with the coaches just helping train the players. It's all in how you name the head guy.

* * * * * * *

Some of the better known managers of the Leafs down the years were: Ed Barrow, Joe Kelly, Mike Kelly, Lena Blackbourne, Nap Lajoie, Dan Howley, Larry Doyle, Hugh Duffy, Steve O'Neill, Lee Fohl, Eddie Onslow, Ike Boone, Tony Lazzeri, Burleigh Grimes and Eddie Sawyer. Leafs won eight pennants and have been the stepping-stone for many stars into the big leagues. The club has been tied up with various major league clubs but thinks this Philadelphia hookup the best yet as officials feel that more high-class material will be farmed to Toronto from Philly than other big leaguers. Anyway, Leafs look for the best season of all this coming summer.

He Loved Every Minute

Had several good chats with Jake Solomon when he was here recently for a visit. His first since 1929 when Old Home Week was held. It was tough to get Jake aside for long as hundreds of old friends and admirers kept popping around for a handshake and a talk. We asked the former Petes' ball manager if it wasn't tiring, several days steady of that sort of thing. He said: "No, sir, I'm enjoying every minute of it. It's great to be remembered like this, and I wouldn't miss it for the world." In fact, he wasn't too worn out before returning to Philadelphia to visit a number of folks, including the widows of former ball friends, folks like Mrs. Art Johnston, Mrs. Nagle Phelan and some more.

* * * * * * *

Jake chuckled over the times he used to run young gaffers like us, Cy Whatley, Pat Calladine, etc., around the score-board as we tried to sneak into senior games. And he laughed over his feuds with Umpire Alex Kay, with Belleville's pitcher Jack Williams, and a bunch of other players and managers. He enjoyed recalling how he brought in Al Heckman from Pennsylvania and had rival clubs for a considerable time believing he dug him off a farm around Pontypool or some such. He was good for a lot of memories of baseball in Peterborough during the "golden 20s", Jake having been right in the middle of it all.

* * * * * * *

Despite the fact that we are behind many cities this size in some sports conveniences—like lack of artificial ice and lights for baseball—Peterborough has a proud record in athletics for the past years. For the past eight months, in fact. Eight important championships for local teams in that time. Last autumn, the lacrossers again took provincial senior "B" honors, the Peterborough-Whitaker Cricket Club won the inter-counties playoffs emblematic of Ontario supremacy, and both the junior and senior PCVS grid squads took COSSA titles. This spring saw the juvefiile cage PCI-ers win the Dominion crown, as junior and senior PCVS boys' hoop teams won COSSA honors, and Legionnaires swept through to the OHA senior "B" championship.

* * * * * * *

That's one Dominion title and three provincial banners for sure. The COSSA champs aren't all-Ontario winners, if you must split hairs, but they're entitled to feel that they are when other associations like WOSSA and EOSSA don't play-off with 'em. The reason is that school authorities feel education comes ahead of prolonged playoff series. But association winners may feel they're the pick of the province when it isn't proven otherwise. All in all, this borough has had a whopping good time of it the past couple of seasons in sports, with several more clubs reaching Ontario semi-finals and finals ere bowing out. Looks like Peterborough is to the fore again as far as athletics are concerned.

Minor Hockey Champions Honor Sponsor

Hugh Campbell president of Outboard Marine Manufacturing Co. is carrying a new wallet that represents to him a lot more than its intrinsic value. It was a gift this week of the youngsters of Outboard Marine bantams hockey team, finalists in the Ontario Minor Hockey Association bantam league in the season just ended.

As sponsor of the team, Mr. Campbell gave the boys a turkey dinner Wednesday night in the LOL Hall, Brock St., presented each of them with a windbreaker, provided smart entertainment and also had the boys' parents along as guests. With them were Mayor Max Swanston and Dit Clapper.

"I don't know when I enjoyed anything as much as being with those youngsters," Mayor Swanston remarked to the Examiner today. "I'm positive I got as much pleasure out of it as they did. They contributed one item of the program, the presentation of the wallet to Mr. Campbell. Those who know him can imagine how much he appreciated it, and especially as a real surprise."

"One reason I like to mention this is because it is grand experience to see men like Hugh Campbell taking an active interest in some of Peterborough's boys. He told them they had played the game and conducted themselves in a fine manner, and he was glad to take an interest in boys of that kind. Only one team could win the championship, but they all could do their best, and do it cleanly and as good sportsmen. I don't need to repeat what he said to the boys for their gift."

"Dit Clapper spoke along the same lines to the bantams. He told them that he had started out in hockey just the way they were doing, first on a boys' team, and in a village league and then the O. H. A., and so on. Dit told them there was no way of knowing what the future had in store. Much depended on themselves and opportunity, of keeping themselves in good physical condition, and learning the game to the best of their ability. He said that they should feel that they were contributing something to hockey as well as getting something out of it."

"Mr. Clapper thanked the boys' host for the invitation to be present, and congratulated him in the interest he was taking in them. He also said very modestly that in his own small way he was going to be interested in the boys of Peterborough now that his connections with the National Hockey League were ended. It was splendid affair, and I was wishing that more boys could have heard the manly advice those Outboard bantams received. I feel confident they are not going to forget that dinner."

Here And There In Sports . . .

By The Canadian Press

The Ontario Secondary School Teachers' Federation has endorsed the stand of Dr. G. E. Hall, president of the University of Western Ontario hockey players "the wholesale exploitation of young high school students in this country."

The semi-annual meeting on Thirsday of the Federation's 80-member council passed a resolution endorsing "the stand taken by Dr. Hall. . . with respect to the undesirable situation existing in organized hockey, as it affects adolescents in Ontario secondary schools."

The council members represented some 14 districts throughout the province.

Annis (Big Stuke) Stukus Friday night came up with the results of a lightening swoop to eastern Canada's football fields. He lined up a solid core of veteran footballers for Edmonton's entry in the Western Canada Senior Football Conference. He plundered his own back yard for players including brother Bill, quarterback for Argos two seasons ago, halfback Frank Hickey from Argos, and outsides Mel Aull, Ralph Bartolini and Dante Difrancisco from Hamilton Tigers.

At Regina, Al Pickard, president of the Canadian Amateur Hockey Association, Friday night announced dates and venue of the Memorial Cup final between Montreal Royals and the winner of Calgary Buffaloes - Brandon Wheat Kings series.

If Brandon wins, the first game will be at Winnipeg April 28, the next two at Brandon April 30 and May 3 and the fourth game at Winnipeg May 5. Remainder of the games will be played as necessary at Brandon May 10th and 12th.

If Calgary wins all games will be played on the same dates in the Alberta city, starting April 28.

Dr. Edward Joseph O'Leary, prominent figure in sports throughout the Ottawa valley 35 years ago, died in hospital in Shawville, Que., Friday. He was 60 years old. A dentist by profession, having practised at Campbell's Bay, Que., and Ottawa, Dr. O'Leary was a National Hockey League referee for a number of years after retiring from active sports.

At Georgetown, Bucko McDonald's Sundridge Beavers Friday night retained the Ontario Hockey Association Intermediate B championship defeating Georgetown 7-5 in the sixth game of their best-of-seven series. Sundridge won the round 4-2 in games.

Clarence (Happy) Day Friday signed his 1949-50 contract as coach of the Toronto Maple Leafs Hockey Club, general manager Conn Smythe announced. Day has coached the club to five Stanley Cups —more than any other coach in the league's hostory.

At New York, a petition to have the daily double declared illegal at New York race tracks was taken under advisement Friday by Supreme Court Justice John E. McGeehan, who heard the State described as the operator of a gambling business contributing to juvenile delinquency. McGeehan reserved decision on the petition brought by former magistrate Joseph Goldstein for Murray Mellman of New York. The State Racing Commission and the various New York racing associations were named as defendants.

MARLIES WIN — Bill "Legs" Fraser, Ottawa goalie watches the puck on Ray Hannigan's stick as Toronto Marlboros try to increase the 7-0 score by which they defeated Ottawa at Maple Leaf Gardens Thursday night. This win tied up the eastern Canada senior finals two games apiece. At extreme left is Jack Irvine of Ottawa. Behind the goalie are Referee Bill Morrison and Bill Johnston of Toronto. Al Buchanan is wearing Marlies (9) and Bobby Copp, Ottawa captain is at extreme right.

PCVS Captures Tourney In Overtime Play

KINGSTON, April 23 (CP)—A foul shot by Don Griffin in a sudden-death overtime gave Peterborough Collegiate its second championship in the four years of the Queen's University invitation tournament Friday night after a fighting Brockville team whipped the champs in the final game of "A" section, 29-27.

In a second 16-minute game, the two teams battled to a 12-12 tie and forced another overtime. Griffin settled the matter after two minutes of play when he sank the overtime's first free toss.

Napanee C.I. captured the "C" section title by sweeping through the tournament without a loss, downing Renfrew C.I. 28-21 in the final game. A tired Renfrew team kept pace with the speedy Napanee quintet until half-time but faded badly in the last quarter.

Albert College of Belleville made a winning jump into "B" section by tying Ottawa Nepean 20-20 in their final contest, and, under tournament rules, captured the crown by carrying over an eight-point advantage from their previous encounter in first round play Thursday.

In the final game of "A" section, Brockville and Peterborough were tied 27-27 with 15 seconds to play, when Bob Paul dropped a one-hand shot from the foul circle, to give the Brockville team the win, and place them in the finals against the same P.C.-V.S. squad.

In the second game both squads played very cautious basketball, and it was not until after three minutes play, when Northcott scored with a foul throw, to put P.C.V.S. up. Next Griffin came up with a one-hander, to be followed by Paul, who score two quick goals to send Brockville ahead. The half-time closed with Brockville leading 6-5. Griffin and Paul each scored early in the second half, and Carberry pulled a long shot to put Brockville further ahead, but smart playing by Dinsdale and Griffin tied the game up. In the overtime, both teams missed many golden opportunities to score, until Griffin scored the deciding point on a foul throw.

Bob Murray of Brockville was voted the most valuable player in section "A" of the tournament.

Yankees Surprise Ball Team Nip Red Sox In 5-3 Win

By JACK HAND
Associated Press Sports Writer

Casey Stengel's New York Yankees, unbeaten in four starts, are the surprise team of the major baseball leagues in the first week of the season.

When the crippled "bombers" polished off Washington in three straight, the critics said: "wait until they start playing the big leaguers." Friday they took Boston Red Sox. Maybe it's time to take them seriously.

Nobody has given the Yanks much of a chance at the pennant, even before Joe DiMaggio's heel started acting up. When Joe was lost for an indefinite period, the club seemed doomed to the second division.

Allie Reynolds required no-hit relief help from Joe Page in the last three innings to top the Red Sox Friday 5-3.

Tex Hughson failed his first real test for Joe McCarthy. Much of the Sox' pennant hopes hinge on Hughson's ability to come back after last year's arm trouble. Hughson walked six Yankees and was rapped for five hits in six innings.

Trim Detroit

Cleveland drew 63,725 for their first home appearance as world champians. Gene Bearden went the distance to trim Detroit, 4-3 in 10 innings. It took a single by Mickey Vernon to score Lary Doby with winning run. Rookie Johnny Groth had one hit in four trips.

Clark Griffith got the night season under way at Washington in the Nats' second home game. A crowd of 9,011 turned out to watch Carl Scheib of Philadelphia A's blank Washington with four hits, 2-0. Four double plays by the A's infield helped.

Chicago White Sox staged a four-run rally in the fourth inning to down St. Louis Browns, 5-2. Rookie Gus Zernial's homer touched off Chicago's uprising against Red Embree and Tom Ferrick.

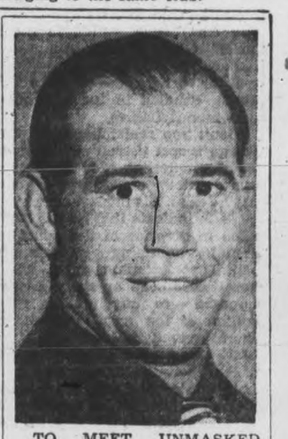
Ralph Kiner started his campaign for the home-run title by blasting one with the bases loaded in Pittsburgh's 5-4 victory over Cincinnati. Kiner's wallop and a triple by Clyde McCullough helped the Pirates come from behind before 32,167 opening-day fans.

Sets Down Cubs

Al Brazie set down Chicago Cubs with four hits as St. Louis Cardinals broke into the win column for the first time. Stan Musial hit his first homer, Marty Marion unloaded a three-run double and Red Schoendienst came through with three hits.

Rain and darkness forced the umpires to call the New York Giants game with Boston Braves at the end of nine innings with the score tied 6-6. The Giants gave the 24,321 customers a thrill by loading the bases with one out in the last of the ninth. Bobby Thomson was nipped at the plate, trying to steal home, and Nels Potter struck out Dave Koslo.

The seven "second openers," with Brooklyn at Philadelphia rained out, drew 182,868, with only the Phils still to open, the 15 others totalled 413,316 for their first home games. In 1948 the 16 openers, including one doubleheader, drew 492,180.



Fail To Finish New Draft Rule

TORONTO, April 23 (CP) — An Ontario Hockey Association committee adjourned during the small hours of the morning today after failing to complete the final form on a new draft rule. No date was set for the next meeting.

The rule, which is designed to eliminate bidding for players' releases and to ensure that teams developing players and then losing them to other teams of a higher series, should be compensated.

As far as they went, members decided that a senior A club or junior A club may draft players from a club of lower classification but no club can be required to surrender more than two players by draft, or each player drafted, the drafting club will pay $150 to the OHA, to be distributed at the Association's discretion.

Officials said a drafted player must be retained for one full season and not released or transferred. However, a junior player may advance to a senior team belonging to the same club.

TO MEET UNMASKED MARVEL—Ray Villmer, pictured above, who will meet the Unmasked Marvel (Lou Rheyneer) in the main bout at the Brock Arena next Wednesday. Villmer is one sweet wrestler and is known as the human buzzsaw on account of his swift actions in the ring. The Marvel's ability as a matman is well known to all fans, so a smart match should result. The remainder of the card is on a par with the main event. In the semi-final Ben Sharpe hooks up with Sky-Hi Lee and in the opener Pat Flanagan meets Irish Tom Collins.

Self-Control Now Regarded As Essence Of Temperance

By WILLIAM R. GILROY, D. D.

This is a temperance lesson. Temperance lessons were formerly built around the principle of total abstinence from alcoholic liquors. That principle has been basic in such organizations as the WCTU and various temperance societies, and in the main it has been the emphasis in temperance activities in most of the Protestant churches. But it requires very little observation to note that in respect to this there has been a great let-down among church people in recent years.

This, I am frank to say, as a life-long total abstainer, I deeply regret. I am convinced that total abstinence is a personally safe and healthful practice.

From the standpoint of health I have never forgotten what a prominent labor leader said to me years ago. He had joined the church of which I was then pastor, after never having been inside a church door in 12 years. He was an habitual, but very moderate, drinker, and I used to poke some fun at him about the habit. He surprised me one day by informing me that he had been on the water-wagon for three months, But he had also surprised himself. "My word," he said, "I feel better. I thought I couldn't be healthy without a couple of glasses of beer a day, but I have never felt so well." I think his experience would be that of many others who would follow his example.

A newspaper writer once described me as "a dry, but not a fanatical dry." I took it as a compliment. There has been too much dry fanaticism, but also a great deal too much wet fanaticism.

Liquor has of late become more strongly entrenched in social custom, and social custom takes on in the respect a somewhat exacting and domineering aspect. The normally social abstainer, who would not hesitate at a party to decline courteously a cup of tea, or a cup of coffee, hesitates to decline a cocktail, lest he be regarded as socially unco-operative or peculiar.

For my own part, when I have been offered liquor, as has happened even on pastoral visits, I have been wont to say that I am as dry as the Sahara, but that I am neither Pharisaic, nor apologetic, about it. I am not Pharisaic, for I know that far better men than I drink habitually. But I am not apologetic, for I resent the social imputation that I should eat or drink what I neither want, nor like, and particularly something with which a great deal of personal and social unhappiness is associated. It is my feeling that it is the drinker, rather than the abstainer, who ought to be on the defensive.

But all this leads up to the plain truth that it is self-control that is the essence of temperance. And the highest form of self-control, which implies a self capable of controlling, is the control of the spirit of God in the inward life. With that well established one cannot far go astray, whatever his reactions to the problems of conduct.

True Christian Becomes Much Like Christ Himself

By REV. E. R. JAMES

The Disciples were called Christians first in Antioch.—Acts 10:26.

These words are written as a kind of after thought. It was a nickname given by the clever Antiochians for the new religion which was attracting so many. Though the name was given in scorn, yet it was true. It meant that the disciples were followers of the Christ. No Jew would have dared to apply such a name. He might have called them Nazarenes, but not Christ.

Now for a simple question. What do you mean by the word Christ? Can you answer off hand; immediately. The world is of Greek origin and means "The Anointed One. It is the Greek translation of the Hebrew word "Messiah". It is the fulfillment of Isaiah's prophecy of the coming one. "The Spirit of the Lord God is upon me because He hath anointed me to preach good tidings". The Lord Jesus adds: "This day is this Scripture fulfilled in your ears". The Master calls a small band to be with Him that they might discover this secret. Two years later He asks them: "Whom say ye that I am?" St. Peter answers: "Thou art the Christ of God; The anointed of God".

Today many Jews are prepared to accept Jesus as teacher living before His day; but they would not confess that Jesus is their Messiah or their Christ.

Master's Human Name

It is helpful to keep in mind that the Antiochians did not call the disciples "Jesus men"—followers of Jesus. They were too clever to fall into such an error. Jesus is the Master's human name. At His baptism in the Jordan He was anointed with the full outpouring of the Holy Spirit and became the Christ.

Many preachers emphasize Jesus and His power. It may startle you to realize that the term "Jesus" is used in the Gospels up to His resurrection and Ascension when the title of Lord or Christ is added. Moreover the title Lord or Christ is generally found in the Epistles. It is rare to find the world Jesus standing by itself in the Epistles. The heathen Antiochians realized that the preachers of this new religion claimed that this Jesus is indeed the Christ. St. Paul would have had no dealing with the modern "Jesus Teacher". He emphasized that Christ was the head of a new race. "To be in Christ" was his key word. St. Paul in his epistle to the Romans called himself "The slave of Christ," not of Jesus. The Christian who is in Christ finds himself in a fellowship with a person—the God man. Something of Christ's love, patience, humility and purity enters into him and he becomes like Christ, but not Christ.

Illegal 300 Years

It is a historical truth that for nearly 300 years Christianity was an illegal religion. To be a Christain was a capital crime. Those who publicly confessed their belief in Jesus Christ were sentenced to death. It may interest you to know that in those ancient days Christianity had its pass words. One has come down to us. The Greek word for fish was used as an anagram, each letter standing for a word. This secret meaning was revealed only to those who were in the fellowship. The word means: "Jesus Christ is the Son of God." Professor Ramsay discovered the word fish on a gravestone in Asia Minor. He ordered that the tomb be not disturbed, as underneath were the ashes of a Christian.

IF ANY MAN BE IN CHRIST HE IS A NEW CREATURE.

400 Birdhouses Entered In Annual Building Contest

Local residents who went to the Market Hall on Friday night saw the latest effort to encourage the preservation of song birds in Peterborough county. It was the second birdhouse building contest sponsored by the Peterborough Fish and Game Protective Association.

Winner of the grand prize for building the best birdhouse of the 400 entries was Robert Park, age 11, of 221 Rink St. Robert, who is a Grade VI pupil at King Edward School, built a three-storey house for purple martins, and in the opinion of the judges it combined practicability, with an attractive design, and took top honors.

The Peterborough Fish and Game Protective Association undertook the contest as an educational campaign to educate the children on the desirability of preserving song birds, and also as a way of fostering a useful hobby.

There were a large number of rural entries but the city entries predominated in the prize-winning group.

The complete list of winners is as follows: Purple Martin, Robert Park, Rink St.; Don Donnelly, RR 7 Peterborough, and R. Nicholls, Queen Alexandra School; House Wren, P. Newman, Central School, J. Black Central School, and K. Kent, King Edward School; Tree Swallow, Melville Barns, King George School; L. Barns, King George School, and R. Andrews, also of King George; Screech Owl, Frank Millard, Cameron St.; Sparrow Hawk, Bob Nicholls, Bridgenorth; Blue Bird, L. Finn, Queen Mary School; Ron Dyns, Queen Mary; H. Stinson, Queen Mary, and Robert Roode, Westcott St.; Crested Fly Catcher, S. Ferguson, King George School; Chickadee, Willie Foster, Central School, and Bob Gillespie, Central School; Robin, C. Carter, Queen Alexandra School, and Harold Ellis, Cordova Mines; Feed Trays, C. Johnston, King George School; R. Wilson, King George School; and a third prize winner from Queen Alexandra School.

Alex Kay, one of the judges, told the large crowd of contestants and onlookers that many of the best-designed bird houses had to be eliminated because they were painted in too bright colors or the hole of entry was not large enough.

He told them that birds do not seek a bright-colored home but one that merges in the general environment without being conspicuous.

The largest entry was in the wren class; of the 400 houses 108 were for wrens.

Youngest entrant in the show was four-year-old Frank Millard Jr., son of Frank Millard of 134 Cameron St. He won first prize in the screech owl class but as he had to be in bed early was not present when prizes were awarded.

Mayor Max Swanston paid tribute to the work of the Association and complimented the children for the effort they had made in submitting entries. He was introduced by Cam Rowatt, president of the Association.

The judges were Mayor Swanston, Larry McKeever and Alex Kay.

Members of the Association who were on the Bird House Contest were co-chairman Fred Goodfellow and Alf Pink, Norman Bradley, Ernest Guppy, Hillard Tighe, Garnet Dunford, William Joiner, George Houghton, and Jim Rogers.

Conduct Survey As To Need For Recreation

Plans for the neighborhood survey by the Confederation Neighborhood Council were completed Thursday night. Canvassers met in the Confederation School. This house-to-house survey will determine the need of recreation in the district and the types of activities desired.

Recreational Director Jack Dane brought with him 1,000 questionnaires which were distributed to seven team captains.

The success of the survey depends upon the canvassers visiting all the homes and selling the community program to the people. Once familiar with the attempts of the Council, Mr. Dane said, the program will sell itself to the people.

The team captains are:

Zone 1, Gordon Thompson, 114 calls; Zone 2, Mrs. Arthur Reynolds, 139 calls; Zone 3, J. A. Willock, 81 calls; Zone 4, not decided yet, 157 calls; Zone 5, Douglas Hayes, 117 calls; Zone 6, Mrs. Keith Pilkington, 132 calls; Zone 7, Mr. James Goldie, 111 calls

The zones are laid out as follows: Zone 1, Morrow Street to Fradette Avenue; Zone 2, McGill Street to Wilson Avenue; Zone 3, King George Street to Graham Avenue; Zone 4, Brioux Avenue to Edison Avenue; Zone 5, Braidwood Avenue to King George Street; Zone 6, Hamilton Street to McKellar Street; Zone 7, Howden Avenue to the river.

Assistants to the team captains were left for the captains to select. It was proposed that at least 30 canvassers take part.

Mr. Goldie said that he learned from the City Clerk that there were 894 homes in the area to be canvassed and 643 of these were owned by the residents themselves. The number of children under seven years old is 426, seven to 18 years 1,060, and adults 2,140, for a total population of 3,646.

Next meeting of the group will be held Thursday, May 5, when the canvassers will report on the survey. There will be speakers from the Dixon and Burnham's Point Neighborhood centres.

Downer's Farm Burnt To Ground

The brick farm house of Mr. and Mrs. Lewis Downer, Lot 22, Concession 6, Otonabee was burned to the ground Friday afternoon and all contents except a few pieces of furniture lost.

Mr. Downer, who has farmed there for 35 years, was sitting in the kitchen after lunch with his brother, Frank Downer, unaware that the roof of the house was on fire. It was Mr. and Mrs. Clive Edwards living opposite the Downers, who discovered the burning roof. Mrs. Downer was away from the house at the time.

The fire is believed to have started by a spark from the pipes of the kitchen fire. After fighting the flames with water for some time, it was decided to abandon the attempt to save the house and more than $100 in cash and some furniture was saved.

Mrs. George Downer, Mr. Lewis Downer's daughter-in-law, who also lives at the farm, was sitting on the verandah and was also unaware of the fire until the Edwards gave the alarm.

Some wood, from a pile stacked near the house was burned but the wind was blowing in the opposite direction to the barn, which escaped the fire.

Charge Dismissed Against Executors

Magistrate W. R. Philp, K.C., Friday dismissed a charge against Frederick Charles Marsnall and Peter Bruce Munro who, as executors of the estate of the late Charles Hayward, were prosecuted for failing to file returns to the income tax authorities.

J. N. C. Currelly, who appeared for the defendants, had explained at a previous hearing, that although the law stated that returns should be filed six months after the death of the testator, it was preemptory action on part of the authorities to prosecute after only eight months. At that time it had still not been possible to determine the exact income, he said. He maintained that it was unusual for charges to be laid so soon after expiry of the six months.

P. D. Scollard, prosecuting, said a registered letter had been sent as early as November last year. If a reply explaining the circumstances had been made, he felt sure no legal action would have been taken. It happened so often, he said, that people ignored the registered letters from the income tax collector and then they complained when prosecutions followed.

Daylight Saving

Householders should remember to advance their clocks one hour tonight as Daylight Saving Time arrives. The long daylight hours of Spring and Summer will soon be here and "summer time" is calculated to take advantage of these extra hours of light.

Baby Girl Found Dying In Crib

Mardi Jane Cameron, the nine-months-old daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Clyde J. Cameron, 1313 Monaghan Rd., died on Friday at her home.

It is believed that death was due to an internal hemorrhage but the exact cause is not yet known. The infant had been in good health.

Mr. Cameron, assistant works manager of the Peterborough Lock Manufacturing Co., attended to the sleeping child before retiring for the night at about 10 p.m. He found her unconscious and phoned Dr. J. A. McNeill.

The Fire Department was also called and an inhalator crew worked over the unconscious infant for more than half an hour before death was pronounced by Dr. McNeill.

Four doctors were called—Dr. McNeill, Dr. J. Wishart, Dr. Donald Atkin, and Dr. R. Matthews.

It is now yet known whether a post mortem will be held.

MAIN ST. TOPICS

SUNDAY CPR TRAIN

Omitted from the CPR passenger train list on daylight saving time beginning at 12:01 a.m. Sunday, April 24 (tonight) was the Sunday train for Toronto leaving Peterborough at 5:50 p.m. (DST) and reaching Toronto at 8:15 p.m.

ATTEND CONFERENCE

The 10th annual Central and Western Hi-Y Conference is being held this weekend in St. Catharines with eight from Peterborough attending. Those in attendance are Howard Hempstead, senior club; Warren Brown, Bob Morris, intermediate A club; Ron Doughty, Don Lister, Bill Prest, intermediate B club; Byron Young, Ted Cranfield, junior club.

MARKET PARKING METERS?

Ald. Hurrell Dodds has put on the file of the board of works for Monday night a suggestion to set up parking meters on the market square. It has been mentioned at various times in council discussions, but there has been a hesitancy about putting it into effect.

KEY CLUB MEET

About 20 members of Peterborough's two Key Clubs, sponsored by the Kiwanis Club, are attending the two-day convention for the Maritimes-Quebec-Ontario District, being held in London. The two Key Clubs are St. Peter's and the Collegiate. The convention began on Friday and will finish today. The youths were driven to London in cars driven by Laurie Mitchell, President Vince McCabe and Walter Howell.

Teachers Honor Fred Dearborn

A well-known, veteran teacher Peterborough, Fred H. Dearborn, 675 Bethune St., now on the staff of the Peterborough Business College, was honored this week by the Ontario Public School Men Teachers' Federation at Hamilton by being presented with an honorary life membership. The honor was bestowed in recognition of Mr. Dearborn's outstanding service to the federation, he having been an active member ever since it was founded 30 years ago. At one time he was President of the Peterborough branch of the federation.

Mr. Dearborn, who also taught in Paris, Ont., at one time, was on the staff of the Peterborough school for over 25 years, 20 years of this time being spent at Queen Alexandra School. He was principal of King Edward school for 4 years and principal of Central and King George schools for one year each.

Other prominent Ontario teachers accorded honorary membership along with Mr. Dearborn were J. G. Staples, who taught in Lindsay for 25 years and in Minden, Orono, and Hastings; and Mr. Kempt of Ottawa. The presentations were made by W. Davies, secretary of the federation, that to Mr. Staples being made in absentia, as he could not be present at the meeting. It was the first time in the history of the federation that such honors were given.

Interior Work At Hospital Contracts Let

Although there is still a good deal of major construction work to be done at the new Civic Hospital building, one further stage in its development was announced at a meeting of the Board of Governors Thursday, when tenders were awarded for interior work such as refrigeration equipment, flooring, lockers and weatherstripping etc.

Of five tenders received for supplying kitchen and mortuary refrigeration equipment Wright Refrigeration Service's tender was chosen at a cost of $4,441.60. Other firms competing for the contract were Wilfong Electric, Robert Elder, H. Deyell's Refrigeration Service and Hully Refrigeration.

Imperial Metal Weatherstrip Company was awarded the contract in the east wing of the hospital for the sum of $840.10. Cresswell Pomeroy Ltd. had submitted a price of $597 for the job. Some windows had already been prepared for Imperial Weatherstripping in the north wing which were to be transferred to the east wing and it was felt that it would not be satisfactory to have two kinds of weatherstripping on the same building.

The Board of Governors approved the sub-letting of a contract for Gibraltar flooring in the laundry to the Armoured Floor Company which undertook to supply half inch flooring at 35 cents a square foot and a cover base at 60 cents an inch. It was stated that there was only one other company capable of giving reliable comparable prices and this company was unable to quote at present.

Westeel Products Ltd. will supply lockers for the east wing at the same unit price as for the west wing.

The only firm which had been able to supply a clothes chute according to specifications for the isolation maternity and isolation wards had been H. A. J. Aldington. The tender at $1,563.08 was accepted.

A contract for hardawre for the east wing was offered to Shaw and Wright Ltd. for $7,307. Canada Hardware had declined to quote because it would be impossible for them to correlate their keying system with the locks in the other parts of the hospital as they could not supply Peterborough Lock Manufacturing Company Hardware. Aitkenheads had submitted a tender at a higher price than the Shaw and Wright figure.

An order for sterilizer equipment for the east wing is to be placed with J. Stevens and Sons, who had supplied the equipment in the rest of the hospital.

Mass Chest X-Ray Survey Starts In Industry Monday

Conducted by the Peterborough Tuberculosis Society and the Junior Chamber of Commerce, the mass chest X-ray survey will commence Monday in the industries. The city has been divided into three groups, the school children, industries and the general public.

Monday morning the bus unit will start at the Examiner, then move to the CGE. There they expect that 4,500 employees will be X-rayed. The factory survey should be completed in two weeks.

At the same time Monday the canvassers for the first zone, Ashburnham, will commence work. For those who wish to be X-rayed the canvasser will fill out a card. Another card will be returned to the clinic secretary.

The city has been divided into the following zones: Zone 1, Ashburnham; Zone 2 (a), between Charlotte St. and Dublin St.; Zone 2 (b), all north of Dublin St.; Zone 3, between Charlotte St. and Lansdowne Ave.; Zone 4, all south of Lansdowne Ave.

X-ray equipment will be set up in Zone 1, Mark Street Church basement, from May 9 to 13; Zone 2 (a), George Street Church Hall, from May 16 to 18; Zone 2 (b), Normal School, May 19 and 20; Zone 3, Knox United Church, from May 23 to 27; Zone 4, Confederation School, from May 30 to June 3.

Survey of the industrial schedule is: April 25, Examiner and the CGE; April 26, CGE; April 27, Colonial Weaving with employees of the Canadian Canoe Co. going there; April 27, Raybestos with employees of the Canadian Sealright going to the Raybestos; April 28, Brinton Carpet Co., then the Nashua Paper Co., with the employees of the southend plant of the Peterborough Canoe Co. going there; April 29, Canada Packers Co., with the employees of the Beaver Lumber Company and B. F. Ackerman's at the Canada Packers Co., also at the Dominion Woollens employees of the Tilco and G. Walter Green will be done; May 2, Quaker Oats Co.; May 3, Western Clock Co., with the employees of the Ontario Marble Co., at the Western Clock Co.; May 4, Peterborough Canoe Co., with employees of J. J. Turner and Sons Co., Card and Paper Works, Dewart Milling Co., also on May 4 at the Silverwood's Dairy with the YWCA, Bell Telephone Co. and the G. Whittaker Ltd.; May 5, A. Wander Ltd., with the employees of the Martin Hewitt at the Wander Ltd.; May 5, Peterborough Lumber Co.; May 10, Ventilating Shades at St. Peter's High School.

2 Rover Scouts To Attend Moot In Norway

Two Rovers from the 5th Rover Crew, All Saints' Anglican Church, Jack White and James Webb, have been chosen by the boys in their crew to attend the Rover Moot this summer in Norway. These boys will represent Peterborough Boy Scout Association. The 5th Rover Crew has been formed a little over a year.

This Moot is the 4th World Rover Moot will run from August 1 to 12. Approximately 40,000 Rover Scouts from all parts of the world will be in attendance. There are 28 Rovers from Canadian Crews attending.

Both the boys have been scouting together ever since they joined the Cub pack at All Saints' Church 12 years ago. They each have spent four years in the cubs and then in the scout troop. They moved up to the Rover Crew last year.

Early in July the boys will leave Peterborough for Quebec City. There they will undergo along with the other Canadian delegates a week of intensive training. On July 16 they will sail for England where they will stay in London for two days. Then they go to Norway for the Moot.

One of the most interesting parts of the Moot is the three-day hike into the mountains. For this they will be divided into patrols.

After the Moot the boys have the choice of staying in Norway or going to England for the last 15 days of their trip.

For the last three or four months the financial problem has been the largest headache to the Crew. They applied for small jobs in their spare time to earn money to send the boys to Norway. In no time at all the Crew had plenty of job from raking lawns to baby sitting.

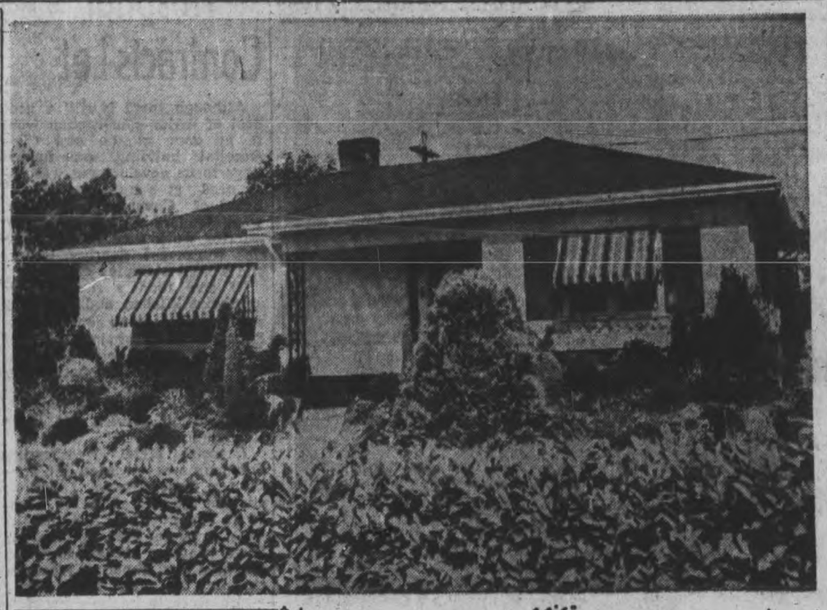
PRACTICAL PLANS FOR THE HOME YOU WANT AND HOW TO PLAN IT

Build Houses For Less Money

Sometimes home builders find that the bids offered for the building of their hoped for new homes run too high. By investigating these cases we learn that there are two principal causes. The first is the difficulty of picking out the right contractor. The second is the difficulty of making suitable changes in the plans and specifications to reduce costs.



The answer to both these questions is the same. Study your problem. It takes time, but this time is worth money to you, and you are justified in putting a lot of it in your home—the only home that you will probably ever build.

Stock plans and specifications are often prepared to suit the largest number of people under average circumstances. Study them carefully to see that they contain everything that you want to have. See that they do not call for what you do not desire. If there is an excess of millwork, too elaborate heating or plumbing systems, omit or substitute for these features. You reduce the cost of almost any five or six room house at least 15 percent by eliminating extra items. Study them with your millman, with your plumber, with your heating contractor.

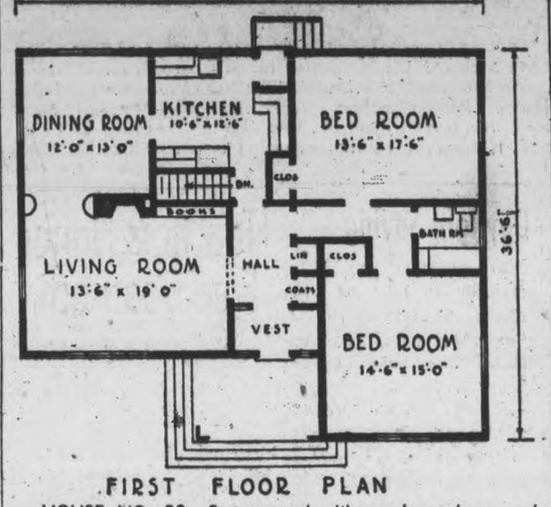
Sit down with your general contractor, or far better with your architect, and see what he can offer in the way of sound substitutions that will not change the architecture or substantial quality of the building.

There is no justification for the millman to figure your plans for "special millwork" just because he does not happen to stock what is commonly carried and called for by the plans. Through agreement with you he should make substitutions of stock he does carry. Here is a way for you to keep costs down. But in order to do so you must be entirely familiar with the plans.

And finally, but among the very first of all things in its importance in keeping down costs is the sort of arrangement you make with your contractor. Be businesslike about it, see that the plans and specifications list all that you require and that changes will not have to be made in them as the building proceeds.

Wage Dispute Goes To Arbitration Board

An arbitration case involving a dispute between CGE and the UE-CIO over two employees' earnings started today in Toronto.



The union claims that two armature winders—Jack Morton and A. Mason, of the Peterborough works were paid day rates rather than the average of piece-work earnings for repair work done by them. The union charges that this is in violation of the contract with the company.

Chairman of the Arbitration Board is His Honor Judge H. E. Fuller of Welland. Drummond Wren is the union nominee, and H. Payette, Dunlop Tire and Rubber Co., Toronto, is the company representative.

On Monday Judge Fuller will preside at the second day of a hearing in a dispute, also on wage rates, between the CGE plant at Cobourg and the union. The UE claims that when the Plastics Division was moved from Peterborough to Cobourg there was a reduction in pay for producing "filler blocks" (a small plastic part on meters).

Drummond Wren is the union nominee on the Board for the Cobourg case and E. N. Davis is the company nominee.

The cheetah is regarded as the fastest of all runners for any distance up to 400 yards.

FIRST FLOOR PLAN

HOUSE NO. 33—Some people like a bungalow—and some don't, but about everyone will admit that this one has enticing qualities. Walls are sparkling white stucco, while roof and shutters are dark red. The concrete floor and steps of the porch are red too. Wrought iron work is painted black. It is obvious the owner of this property is a rock garde nenthusiast! Most of the front garden is devoted to this hobby, and the great variety of colours which meet the eye when looking over this picturesque hedge seen in the foreground will long be remembered. Using the plan shown, there would be five large rooms in the house. Two bedrooms, living room, dining room and kitchen. This room arrangement gives unusual privacy to the sleeping area of the house. The tiny but adequate bathroom is handy to each of the big bedrooms. Plenty of fresh air is assured with cross ventilation available in every room but the kitchen. Further information may be obtained by writing Home Building in Canada, 372 Bay St., Toronto.

Ford Workers Approve Strike

DETROIT, April 23 (AP) — Workers at the Ford Motor Company's Big Rouge plant gave solid approval to a strike proposal, an official of United Automobile Workers (CIO) Local 600 reported Friday night.

Local President Thomas Thompson said a final count of ballots in the five-day strike vote showed 30,290 workers in favor of a walkout and 4,400 against.

An issue is a Union claim of a speed-up on production lines at the Ford River Rouge plant.

Only International Board approval would be needed to call a strike if local members vote approval, Thompson said.

More than half the 60,000 members of the Lord local voted in the election. It was called originally for run-off voting on two local trustee positions.

Meantime, local officials went ahead with plans for 1949 contract demands at Ford. The National Ford Council of the UAW is scheduled to meet next Wednesday to consider proposals.

Big Recovery Shown By District Cheese Plants

By HARRY THEOBALD.

G. A. Gillespie is quietly "I told you so-ing" these days about the continuing usefulness of the cheese factory in the dairy industry.

At the close of the last season and on into the winter, a spirit of gloom appeared to be settling on factories throughout eastern Ontario. A few of them were announcing that they were locking up for keeps, and a funereal air seemed to be gathering above this branch of dairying.

Within the last two or three weeks, however, the cheese factory has taken on new vitality, and even in the Peterborough district same factories have opened three weeks to a month earlier than usual.

Fixed Price For Cheese

A main factor in this change of sentiment is the fixed price of 30c a pound for cheese with a four year British contract to work on, and also with assurance that Britain will take all the cheese Canada is ready to export.

"Dairy farmers went into the winter with big supplies of feed, and they still had a lot on hand as winter ended," Mr. Gillespie said. "That was a sign farmers would have a heavy run of milk, and the fact is that within the last two or three weeks there has been a big change in the flow. Silverwoods have opened their factory at Indian River, although it was intended last fall that it would not be operating this season.

The reason that it has opened again is for the purpose of converting into cheese quite a lot of the excess milk that has been coming of late from the dairy farms of this district. Deliveries that were being taken from the Campbellford district have been cut off. Ice cream production will make a big change as soon as the weather boosts demand, and that is already being felt, but the fact is that there is a lot of milk in the country.

The price of butter fat is down about 20 cents a pound, largely an effect of margarine. Condensed milk has become a problem in the dairy industry, but in the background is the cheese factory with a set price for its export product. This price is not quite as good as last year, but it is something the farmers can depend on."

Safety Value of Industry

George A. Elliott of Norwood, confirmed today reports of the opening of East Peterborough factories to absorb a lot of the fodder milk that is flowing. Mr. Elliott and Mr. Gillespie are both of the old cheese school of experience, regarding it as a solid standby when other branches of the industry need help.

"The cheese factory," said Mr. Elliott, "is the safety valve of the dairy business, and we have always felt that it paid off more mortgages than most other farm products. Trent Bridge factory has been operating a month; Woodland on the Trent Bridge-Campbellford Road, has also been a month in production; Daisy D factory three weeks, and I am expecting that Warsaw may get started next week.

Killarney appears to be doubtful because they haven't yet negaged a cheesemaker."

The British contract is for 50 million pounds, the same as last year, but the Canadian factories fell short of supplying that market in the still booming domestic conditions extending in the dairy industry from the first postwar years.

"The main thing our factory patrons should remember this season," Mr. Elliott said, "is to try to do a better job than ever in the quality of milk delivered for cheese."

Chief interest in the present situation is that the winter prospects for the cheese factories have taken on a new glow throughout eastern Ontario. Many of them are not even waiting for the first flow of mik from the new grass, but have begun operations partly for the purpose of relieving the embarrassed dairy industry, primarily, of course, to make cheese. The fact that production is under way nearly a month earlier than usual is a development that was not expected in the gloomy days of last fall and winter when crepe-hangers were predicting a serious decline in this year's operations.

It might be said that the cheese industry in the eastern counties from Peterborough to Renfrew is opening with a surprising bang.

W. H. Moore of Campbellford, cheese instructor in the Peterborough-Northumberland area, said half the factories in his district were already in operation, and the entire group should be active before the first of May.

"On the whole I don't know that the season is much earlier than usual. A lot of our factories generally get started fairly early without waiting for the grass milk."

The cheese factory has always been a standby in the dairy industry, and present indications point to the likelihood of a heavier flow this season toward the factories. Campared with several of the other branches, the outlooks for cheese production this year appeared to be decidedly improved.

WELCOMED IN NEWFOUNDLAND — Officials of the Progressive Conservative party in Newfoundland were on hand to welcome George Drew, the federal party leader, as he arrived for his tour of Canada's 10th province. A. B. Butt, left, provincial organizer, and Harry G. R. Mews, centre, provincial leader, greet Mr. Drew at the airport. During his two-day visit, Mr. Drew toured several outports, addressed numerous public gatherings and spoke over an island-wide radio network.

DOROTHY DIX

Secret Marriage Carries Certain Smear of Disgrace

DEAR DOROTHY DIX: I am very much in love with a young dental student who has two more years of college ahead of him. He begs me to marry him secretly, but I have refused to do so as I don't approve of it and I know it would just about kill my parents if I did.

Dorothy Dix

But I love him so much and I fear that I will lose him unless I relent. Please tell me what to do.

HEARTSICK GIRL.

ANSWER: A secret marriage may be strictly legal, but it always carries with it a smear of disgrace, and people look askance at a belated marriage certificate. There are certain conventions that civilized people have agreed upon for the protection of society, and one of these is the public marriage. It is the formal announcement that a man and woman have decided to found a family and spend the balance of their lives together, and it puts the seal of the church and the state upon an honorable union and stops all discussion of the matter.

Not so the secret wedding. That sets all the tongues in the community wagging, for, no matter how careful you are, you are sure to be discovered. Some prying eye will spy you out. Don't degrade your love by dragging it into a sordid intrigue that is slimed over with deceptions and lies.

You say that you are afraid that you will lose this young man's love if you do not agree to marry him secretly. Believe me, you are much more likely to lose it if you do. For if his affection cannot stand the strain of waiting with the reward of getting you in the end, when he is financially able to marry you, still less will it endure the strain of a half-and-half marriage, which will have all of the disadvantages and none of the advantages of matrimony.

Get A Job

There is less reason now than ever before for a girl to be guilty of the folly of a secret marriage, because if the man is not financially able to support her, she can support herself. So if you and your sweetheart are so much in love that you cannot wait, get married openly and honorably, and go out and get a job until he can make a living for two.

But if this young man refuses to take you openly as his wife, stick to your guns and refuse to marry him.

✧ ✧ ✧

DEAR DOROTHY DIX: I have been going with a girl for four years and I respect and admire her, but I do not love her. Now this is my problem: She loves me, and I feel that as I have taken up so much of her time I should do the right thing by her and marry her, but frankly I would like to get out of this jam if I could.

Do you think I should lay the facts before her and tell her how I really feel towards her? Or should I just go on and marry her? JOHN H.

ANSWER: I think that the honorable thing for you to do is to tell your sweetheart exactly how you feel about her, and that if she is as honest as you are she will refuse to marry you. I think that no woman who has a spark of decency in her wants to marry a man who has grown tired of her and who is an unwilling bridegroom.

The man who marries a woman from a sense of duty always makes a futile sacrifice, because it does no good. It wrecks her life just as much as it does him. In giving up his happiness he does not secure hers, because no wife is happy knowing that her husband has married her upon compulsion; that his heart holds no affection for her; that her caresses bore him; and that she is even physically distasteful to him.

So my advice to you is to put your cards on the table and tell your girl friend exactly how you feel towards her. I am very sure that she would scorn to be made an "honest woman of," as the old phrase goes, at the expense of being made an unloved wife.

✧ ✧ ✧

DEAR DOROTHY DIX: What do you think of girls and women who make up their faces and comb their hair when having a meal in a restaurant? Don't you think this practice is revolting?

A DISGUSTED MAN.

ANSWER: I certainly do, Mr. Man. It is all right for women to use cosmetics and to make themselves as beautiful as they can, but surely there is a time and place for all things, and the rites of the toilet should be performed in secret, instead of being flaunted in the face of the public.

Men In Blue Uniforms Know Their Parliament Buildings

By GEORGE KITCHEN

OTTAWA, April 23—(CP).—Did you know that the ceiling of the Senate Chamber is gilded with 14-karat gold, that the ceiling of the Commons is hand-painted linen or that the Parliamentary Library contains 500,000 volumes? Just follow the man in the blue uniform and he'll tell you about it.

The man in blue is one of the half-dozen members of the Parliamentary protective staff who daily, year in and year out, escort little knots of tourists about the big-grey-stone building on Parliament Hill and give them neat, thumb-nail lectures on the Commons and the Senate.

He'll tell you, for example, that the wood and stonework on the walls of the two chambers al were laboriously hand-carved and that the two chambers all weighty, gleaming chandeliers in the Senate tip the scales at more than two tons each.

He'll point to the fossil-bearing Manitoba limestone that forms the walls of the Parliamentary corridors and halls and show you there, now a centuries-old part of the rock, the easily-discernible outline of fish, crabs, pheasants and other small game. The pride of the guides is a fossil in one corridor which shows the perfect formation of a squirrel atop a log.

Tourists

The protective staff handles tourists by the hundreds every day and as many as 2,000 or more on Sunday and holidays. The all-time record was set last year when 35,000 visited the buildings in a single day. They came mostly from the throngs which gathered in the capital for the Roman Catholic Marian Congress.

The tourists come from many places, from all of the provinces and many of the states across the border, and they ask many questions. Perhaps one of the strangest was the young woman who entered the building and asked a constable: What is this building used for?"

The constable explained patiently that is was the seat of Government and of Parliament, that the law-makers of Canada met there to discuss and to pass upon legislation.

And then he asked from what far-away place did she come.

"Oh," she replied blandly, "I live right here in Ottawa."

CGIT Doings

KNOX

The girls of Knox CGIT had a busy session at their meeting this week when they worked on articles for their bazaar which they are planning to hold on May 4 when the group has its annual mother and daughter banquet. Miss Inez Barrer read them a portion from the study book, "Tales From China."

MARK STREET

Mark Street girls proved to be industrious workers this week too when they were directed into the mysteries of making fancy sandwiches by Mrs. W. S. Gracie. Other girls made candy, both projects being in preparation for their tea which was held on Wednesday. The girls were quite delighted to learn that "rolled sandwiches" and "pinwheel" sandwiches are not impossible to make and as a result of this guidance are quite anxious to help their mothers entertain.

TRINITY

The Living Link Mission Circle was hostess to the Trinity group this week when a delcious supper was served. Miss Mignon Mayneord, president of the Circle, welcomed the girls and led in a sing-song. Joan Krogh conducted the group on a spirited "Lion Hunt"; fortunately all were able to get home safely after sighting a lion. Miss Doris Hendry showed an interesting colored film depicting the Easter Story. Joan White expressed the appreciation of the CGIT for an enjoyable evening.

Members of the senior group met at the church in the morning and worked industriously packing their bale of used clothing in response to the appeal of the Canadian Church Relief Abroad.

FASHION'S GYPSY is non-crushable nylon tricot. Because befrilled or fan-pleated lingerie is made of nylon tricot, glamor garments which are usually left behind by the traveller will take to suitcases this summer. Such lingerie can shed its wrinkles a few minutes after it's pulled out of a crammed bag. That goes for accordion-pleated frills such as you see unfurling from the white Empire-styled negligee (right) with a skirt and sleeve ruffles which are made entirely of pleats. A dramatic example of how travel-worthy these nylon fibres are is shown (left). The model who is dressed in a nylon tricot nightgown which she has unpacked is pulling its traveling companion from a luggage crush. The gown modeled, which is trimmed with nylon embroidery and has a pleated bodice, sleeves and skirt flounce, is styled along the same lines as the negligee.

Basketball Players, Coaches Enjoy Banquet, Given Cups

Players, coaches and assistants in the Peterborough Ladies' Basketball League had their final get-together of the 1948-49 season Friday evening at a banquet in the YWCA recreation room. Five teams represented were Nurses, Neills, Normals, CGE and Collis. The sixth team is Lockeys.

Special guest of the evening was Dit Clapper, recently retired from the Boston hockey team after 22 years of play. Mr. Clapper remarked that far more people play basketball than any other game. He said crowds of 14,000 often watched a game in New York but in Boston they were rarely larger than 6,000. As he had not prepared an address, the audience was invited to ask questions—and here the coaches, mostly boys, availed themselves of first-hand, authoritative opintons on various incidents in big league hockey.

The handsome Neill Trophy, first offered for competition a year ago, was won by the same team, Nurses. Their captain, Miss Beverley Pringle accepted it from Mrs. W. G. Ovens, honorary president, and each girl receive a senior champion crest. The Intermediate cup and crests were won by Collis and Captain Marian McKee took the trophy. Miss Ruth Dougherty accepted the YWCA silver cup for Normals who won Junior championship, and each player received a crest.

Special Award

A special award was made to the most valuable player in the league, in the opinion of the referees. The cup and a gift were presented to Mrs. Jean Vass by Mr. Hymie Smith, who gave honorable mention to the runners-up, Misses Wilma Floyd, Irene Stewart and Anita Davis.

Scorekeeper Ronald Cooper, referees Joe Cooper and Hymie Smith, and Miss C. Littlefield, YWCA physical instructor, were presented with gifts from the league by Mrs. Walter Perry.

Each coach was rewarded for his efforts with a gift from his team, presented by the captain with Miss Littlefield presiding. Miss Jean Castle presented gifts to Isadore Black and Hymie Smith from members of the Towne Togs teams, all of whom are members of this league. A telegram was read from Mr. Harry Yudin who was unavoidably absent. He will also receive a gift from the players, as will Miss Sybil Ecobichon, who was timer at the games.

The evening was made lively with several sing songs, Mrs. Perry leading and Quirt McKinney at the piano.

Guests included Mrs. T. J. Carley, president of the YWCA; Mr. and Mrs. W. G. Ovens, Mr. and Mrs. Q. McKinney, Mr. and Mrs. Roy Johnson, Mr. C. E Blewett, Mrs R. Charlton, Miss C. Wilson, Miss M. Pickens.

Robert W. Rogers, Havelock Married To Toronto Girl

HAVELOCK, April 23.—(ENS).—White snapdragons decorated All Saints' Anglican Church, Kingsway, Toronto, on Saturday, for the marriage of Elizabeth Grace Colbourne, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. T. T. Colbourne, Toronto, to Robert Wilfrid Rogers, son of Mr. and Mrs. Fred A. Rogers of Havelock. Rev. T. A. Wilkinson officiated. The wedding music was played by W. E. Bouchier and during the signing of the register Miss L. Scarlett sang "O Perfect Love."

Given in marriage by her father, the bride wore a gown of blush satin with a shirred yoke and shirred inset in the skirt which was fashioned with a train. Her fingertip veil was caught to a matching halo trimmed with seed pearls. She carried a bouquet of pink roses and white hyacinths.

The bridesmaids were Misses Jessie Mutch and Marion Shortt, who wore pink shot taffeta dresses with shirred necklines and circular skirts. They wore bands of flowers in their hair and carried matching nosegays of roses. The best man was Kenneth C. Reeves and the ushers were G. Mann and G. Colbourne.

After the ceremony a reception was held at 136 The Kingsway, where the bride's mother received, wearing a gown of navy sheer crepe and hat trimmed with mauve lilacs. She was assisted by the groom's mother, wearing a gown of elephant grey silk with navy accessories.

For the wedding trip to Quebec the bride travelled in a two-piece pink wool dress, navy coat, shoes and bag, pink and navy hat and pink gloves. They will reside in Port Credit.

The out-of-town guests were: Mr. and Mrs. Fred A Rogers, Dr. and Mrs. D. J. Holdcroft, Havelock; Miss Ruby Rogers, New York, N.Y.; Mr. and Mrs. D. B. Carr and daughter, Cleveland, Ohio; J. T. Sinclair, Churchill; Miss L. Stickney, R. Robertson, Fergus; Mr. and Mrs. S. McFadyn, Miss H. Stronach, the Misses Mortimer, Guelph; Mrs. E. R. Pearson, Gananoque; Mr. and rs. C. E. Burrows, Agincourt.

Four Attend Dorothy Mahood Bride of James Richmond

A pretty spring wedding took place this afternoon in Knox United Church when Dorothy Phylis Mahood became the bride of James William Richmond. The bride is a daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Stanley S. Mahood and the groom a son of Mrs. and Mrs. James W. Richmond, all of Peterborough.

The ceremony was preformed by the Rev. H. G. Douglas. Multi-colored snapdragon and fern decorated the altar. Mrs. E. A. Rowe of Toronto was soloist and sang "O perfect love" before the entered and "Because" during the signing of the register. Mr. W. R. Potter was at the organ.

The bride was given in marriage by her father. She was attended by two sisters, Mrs. Fred Watson as matron of honor and Mrs. Albert Burkholder as bridesmaid with Miss Isabel Carveth, and her niece Louise Mahood was flower girl.

The groom's attendant was his brother Mr. Hugh Richmond. Ushers were Leonard Mahood, the bride's brother, and Wm. Logan, cousin of the groom.

The bridal gown of white brocaded satin was fashioned with skirt fullness held out at the side by hoops and extending into a train at the back. A yoke of sheer net was inset in the back and front of the bodice, giving an off-shoulder effect, and this was trimmed with appliqued design of satin. She wore a cascade of deep red roses with sprig of heather.

Rainbow colors in crisp taffeta were chosen for the attendant's frocks, styled similarly with slightly off-shoulder neckline with scalloped edge, puff sleeves and full skirts. The matron of honor was in pink, the bridesmaids in yellow and blue and each wore gloves to match and a bandeau of flowers in her hair. They carried cascade bouquets of pink snapdragon with sweet peas. The flower girl was in pale green taffeta and she carried a small cascade of sweet peas.

The bride's mother was gowned in navy blue and wore matching accessories, and the groom's mother was in grey with navy accessories. Each wore a catalina orchid at her shoulder.

The wedding reception was held at the home of the bride's parents. Later the couple left on a wedding trip on which they will visit New York and Atlantic city. For travelling the bride wore a suit of powder blue gabardine with black accessories and she had a corsage of red roses.

Mr. and Mrs. Richmond will live in Peterborough.

Mae Garvey, Adrian Hurley Exchange Marriage Vows

At the Immaculate Conception Church this morning Miss Mae Catherine Garvey and Mr. Adrian Hurley pledged their marriage vows. The bride is a daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Garvey, 454 Driscoll Terrace, and the groom a son of Mrs. William Hurley of Norwood and the late Mr. Hurley.

The Rev. Raymond Garvey, brother of the bride, said the nuptial mass. Mrs. D. Campanaro sang during the ceremony, choosing "Ave Maria", "Panis Angelicus" and other hymns. Mrs. C. O'Donnell played the accompaniment and wedding music. Easter lilies and a bouquet of spring flowers were at the altar.

The bride chose a gown of white lace over satin with graceful train and neckline yoke embroidered with seed pearls. Her headdress was of matching lace, holding in place her train-length veil, and she carried a cascade of calla lilies. Mr. Garvey gave his daughter in marriage.

Miss Teresa Crough as bridesmaid was in a frock of daffodil yellow taffeta made with sweetheart neckline, short sleeves and full skirt. She wore a Dutch cap and gloves of matching taffeta and carried a cascade of Talisman roses.

The groom was attended by his brother Mr. Basil Hurley. Ushers were Fred Garvey, brother of the bride, and Kevin Hurley, cousin of the groom.

The reception took place in the Empress Hotel. Receiving with the bridal party, Mrs. Garvey was in a gown of grey with navy accessories and wore pink roses at her shoulder. Mr. Hurley was attired in black and wore white carnations.

Later the bride and groom left on a wedding trip to Toronto, Niagara Falls and Buffalo. On return they will live in Peterborough.

For travelling the bride wore a navy suit with accessories in navy and white, and topcoat of powder blue wool. Her going-away corsage was of pink roses.

6—In Memoriams

CHAPMAN — In loving memory of Mrs. J. Chapman who passed away April 24, 1947:
Mother, the truest, sweetest name,
All of us give her that fame.
She it was that gave us birth,
From her life we took our worth,
Mind and body both she gave
That her children she might save.
—Ever remembered by her daughters, Mrs. George Foster and Ann Doig.

McKINLEY — In loving memory of a dear daughter and sister, Vera Isabell, who was killed in a car crash, April 24th, 1948.
No one knows how much we miss you,
No one knows the bitter pain,
We have suffered since we lost you,
Life has never been the same.

In our heart your memory lingers,
Sweetly tender, fond and true,
There is not a day dear Vera
That we do not think of you.
—Sadly missed by mother, dad, sisters and brothers.

BY-LAW NO. 4783

A BY-LAW TO FIX THE BUILDING LINE ON GEORGE STREET, IN THE CITY OF PETERBOROUGH.

PASSED THE 18TH DAY OF APRIL, 1949.

THE CORPORATION OF THE CITY OF PETERBOROUGH BY THE COUNCIL THEREOF ENACTS AS FOLLOWS:

1. No Building shall hereafter be erected on either side of George Street from King Street to Lansdowne Street within the distance of Three (3) feet from the Street Line of George Street.

2. (1) Every person who contravenes any of the provisions of this By-law shall upon conviction thereof forfeit and pay at the discretion of the convicting Magistrate a penalty not exceeding (exclusive of costs) the sum of $50.00 for each offence, and the provisions of Sub-Section 2 of Section 520 of the Municipal Act shall apply to the said penalty.

(2) The imposition of a penalty under Sub-Section 2 shall not operate as a bar to any other remedy or proceeding under this By-law.

3. In addition to any other remedy provided and any penalty imposed under the next preceding Section any contravention of this By-law may be restrained and any requirement of it may be enforced by action at the instance of the Corporation.

4. This By-law shall come into force when it has been approved by an Order of the Ontario Municipal Board.

C. W. Bermingham Dies

KINGSTON, April 23 (CP) — One of Canada's best-known construction engineers, Christopher William Bermingham, died Friday night after a long illness. He was 71. He took part in the famous construction of Crow's Nest Pass in the Rocky Mountains at the turn of the century and in 1904 he helped found a company which constructed breakwaters and piers at Sault Ste. Marie, Goderich, Kincardine, Rondeau, Port Burwell, Fort Frances, Little Current and Collingwood. He also worked on the Sault Ste. Marie Canal.

Lengthen Payment Time

WASHINGTON, April 23.—(AP).—The Federal Reserve Board Friday lengthened to 24 months the time limit for completing instalment purchase payments in the United States and simultaneously cut the down payment to 10 per cent for everything but automobiles. In addition, the Board exempted from control requirements furniture, radios and refrigerators and other now-controlled items costing less than $100. Previously, the only exemption was for articles costing $50.

QUALITY AND UNIFORMITY

A tea tasters job is to keep his blends uniform from month to month and to maintain established standards of quality.

Youths In Red Shoes Beat Up Motorman

TORONTO, April 23 (CP) — Four youths—some wearing red shoes—were arrested following a disturbance on a streetcar late Friday night in which the motorman, Alexander Mitchell, was beaten.

Police arrested Robert Perry, 17, Ray Dick, 18, Richard Dick, 19, and Bruce Turley, 19, alleged to be the group which struck the motorman on the head and twisted the arm of a woman passenger. The four were said to have been among a party of seven who boarded the Coxwell streetcar at the Danforth-Coxwell intersection and who were drinking beer on the car.

Police cruiser cars picked up the four on another streetcar after a search followed the motorman's report.

LPP Leader Jailed

MONTREAL, April 23 (CP)—Gui L. Caron, provincial leader of the Labor-Progressive Party, Friday was sentenced to three months in jail on a charge of disturbing the peace. He was also ordered to pay a fine of $200 or an additional three months and was bound over to keep the peace as a result of the charge which arose from a March 22 peace rally.

Phoney $100 Bills

OTTAWA, April 23 (CP) — A number of phoney $100 bills in U.S. currency may be circulating in Canada, the post office warned Friday. Postmasters have been notified of the dates and numbers of the bogus bills. Printed on one sheet of paper on which the red and blue lines simulate the colored fibres, they might easily be mistaken for the real thing.

County Farm Notes

By HARRY THEOBALD

International Federation of Agriculture Assembly In Guelph First Week In June Outstanding Achievement of Canadian Federation . . . Saturday Evening Post Adds Strong Voice To Ruminant Farming . . . Ontario County Farmers Plan Soil Day In Fall.

Some of Peterborough farmers may be able to take time from their work to see the third annual meeting of the International Federation of Agricultural Producers at the Ontario Agricultural College, Guelph beginning May 31. Delegates are expected to attend from twenty nations. The conference last year was held in Paris, France.

It is altogether likely that accommodation in Guelph will be so limited that spectator farmers from Ontario may not be encouraged to make the trip, but even one day's visit to OAC should be a memorable experience in observing the extent of organization on a world basis that has been achieved since the end of the war.

H. H. Hannam, Ottawa, president of the Canadian Federation of Agriculture, left for Washington Tuesday night for a conference with Albert Goss, master of the National Grange, for the purpose of demanding action by world governments to bring about better distribution of farm surpluses, directing them to areas of greatest need. Their resolution, to be submitted at Guelph, is likely to urge that governments use of the World Bank and the International Monetary Fund "in seeing that currency difficulties do not stand between the producers in Canada and other countries on the one hand, and people hungry for food on the other."

This is regarded as a first stage of an international campaign to develop effective means of distribution which, for example on a small and almost local scale, would facilitate sale of concentrated milk that has become an embarrassment to Canadian dairy farmers while millions of people in Europe need it. Other Canadian products such as fish, beans, apples, linseed have become surplus commodities by the loss of lack of dollars for purchases in British and other markets from this country.

The fact that this international convention of agriculturists is coming to Ontario this year is one of the greatest accomplishments of the Canadian Federation and its rural membership.

BROOKLIN SOIL DAY

September 8 has been tentatively set as the date of what is described as Canada's "first farm improvement and soil conservation day," planned by Ontario County Crop Improvement Association, to be held at the farm of Heber Down, Brooklin.

Ontario county council has already made a grant of $1,000, and an equal amount will be forthcoming from the Ontario Department of Agriculture.

Municipal and Department officials, including some from OAC recently visited the Down farm. The following quotation from the Oshawa Times-Gazette report may sound familiar to the Peterborough group who showed some interest in the demonstration project which F. C. Paterson secured for the Harry Blewett farm several years ago.

"A study of the (Down) farm showed that it would lend itself admirably to diversion terracing, strip cropping, contour tillage, with cleaning out of fence rows, tile drainage and the improvement of the barnyard and surroundings as other features which could with advantage be included in the program."

Howard Harper of Goodwood, chairman of Ontario County Crop Improvement Association, was appointed chairman of the Farm Improvement and Soil Conservation Day Committee. Mr. Down said he would co-operate in every way, especially with the suggestions of OAC experts as to cropping in order to have the farm ready for the field day in September.

An Ontario county committee visited the farm of John Steer at Bradford. Eighteen months ago he sought the assistance of the soils branch of OAC in laying out his farm along soil conservation lines. The party saw strip cropping, contour cultivation, splendid permanent pasture and scientific farm drainage as laid out by the OAC soil man.

Peterborough is now engaged in organizing a Grassland Day with spirited interest being displayed by the undertaking committees which have been formed. At the same time, a question presents itself as to whether farmers of the Peterborough district have utilized the Blewett farm project as much as they should have done.

In such enterprises, planned for community benefit and example, it appears that continuing interest and development by the Department is in direct ratio to local response from the district.

THE REEK CLASSIFICATION

The classification of farmers by President W. R. Reek of Ontario Agricultural College in his talk to the Ontario Educational Association convention in Toronto Wednesday can be applied universally to mankind.

He said that less than 30 per cent of Ontario farmers can be classed as "very good, about 50 per cent are only average, and it is best to forget all about the other 20 per cent."

Isn't the Reek screening of farmers just about equally applicable to men of other professions and occupations? It begins with natural distribution of talents, abilities and dispositions or attitudes. Those are generic factors. Intelligence and an enquiring mind, plus industry, multiplied by some of the practical virtues such as thrift and planning, honesty and sympathy, as in community co-operation, are potent attributes affecting the general classifications sketched by President Reek.

If there are top ranking farmers there are also top flight machinists, doctors, carpenters and so on. And of the "very good" farmers, it is significant that a large percentage of them are found in all the producer organizations, men who take time from their own affairs to devote to the improving and bolstering of their branches of agriculture.

RURAL HYDRO IN SCOTLAND

Hydro-electric power has come to the Highlands of Scotland, according to the Glasgow Record. Here is a glimpse of its effect in the countryside. "The crofter (renting farmer) who used to shave by the light of a paraffin lamp now uses an electric razor. His parlor and his byre (cow stable) are lit by electricity. His cows are milked by an electric machine. He has electric chicken brooders, electric irons, cookers and washing machines."

Alastair Borthwick said over BBC that with the turn of a wheel the crofters in December stepped out of the 19th century into the 20th when he first Hydro-Electric board's new generating stations at Lachalsh and Loch Morar were brought to life.

"It is an actual fact," said Mr. Borthwick, "that there is already a greater percentage of the population in Kyle ("There was a man was born in Kyle") using washing machines than there is in Glasgow."

That estimate suggests a long advance in the social and economic circumstances in the Ayr country since the penurious times of Robert Burns.

BRANT MEDICAL SERVICE

Brant farmers have approved a county medical service organizations, and are meeting today to apply for a charter. They have appointed a committee of ten to assume the preliminary establishment of the scheme.

DAIRY HERD TESTING

In the Thunder Bay district promise of action was mentioned this week for the organizing of a dairy herd testing group. The whole details were outlined in The Examiner several weeks ago, following the announcement of this low cost service at the local Maple breeders' group meeting in the YMCA about two months ago. Publication of the plan has not been followed here by any intimations of action.

This government plan provides test of the milking cows in a herd, one day a month for a year, at a cost to the herd owner of $10 a year. The basic requirement calls for not fewer than 24 and not more than 26 dairy farmer members to a group.

One of the leading dairymen of the county remarked recently that this offer of herd production recording was so attractive that there should be several groups set up in the district. Frank C. Paterson, agricultural representative, told The Examiner several farmers had expressed interest in the government's offer, but that no signs of practical movement have appeared locally.

BIG HATCHERY LOSS

Norman S. Schultz, president of Spruceleigh Farms, near Brantford, whose big hatchery plant was extensively destroyed by fire Monday, is known to local men of the poultry industry. He spoke here at several meetings in recent years, one of them in the Collegiate Institute auditorium.

Spruceleigh was reputed to be the largest poultry farm of its type in the British Empire. Damage estimated at $150,000 to $200,000 was covered by insurance. The big L-shaped building that was reduced to ashes housed the office, hatchery and two-story section of laying pens. Some 24,000 laying hens were suffocated and 100,000 hatching eggs vanished in the fire.

Schultz brothers had protected their property with a 100,000 gallon underground tank, and a smaller well. This water supply enabled the Brantford firemen to save the other buildings. Fire Chief Huff said that without it, every building on the farm would have been lost.

A workman said the fire started on top of an incubator. Spruceleigh Farm hatches 500,000 chicks in a season. One phase of the business will not be interrupted. The farm will continue deliveries of eggs to C.N.R. and C.P.R. restaurant and dining car service.

Norman Schultz was awarded the M.B.E. for his efforts during the war in increasing Canadian egg production.

"THE RISE OF GRASS"

"The greatest agricultural advancement during the next generation will be known as 'The Rise of Grass', with a decided trend toward more and better grasses and legumes, and fewer row crops."

That prediction is quoted from an editorial by D. T. Painter, supervisor of the agricultural extension service in Virginia, in a recent issue of the Saturday Evening Post. The interesting significance of the article is the medium of its presentation. A recent comment about the expanding attention that is being given to grass land pastures hardly anticipated that presently this subject would be discussed in the limited editorial space of SEP.

So, if references in this column to new practices in pasture planning appear to be repetitious, they assume fresh warrant from the high, even detached, position of some of their sources.

Mr. Painter recalls that George Washington said 106 years ago: "My countrymen have too little knowledege of the profits of grasslands". And Mr. Painter counsels: "By making two blades of grass grow where only one grew before, we may help prevent an overproduction of certain cash crops during this post-war period, while fostering the increase in dairy and livestock products which are needed to supply both rural and urban people with a balanced diet. . .This will bring about better land use on grass now devoted to soil-depleting crops. Grasses and forests are the logical crops to conserve soil, improve fertility and alleviate floods and droughts.

We are beginning to realize the possibilities of an efficient grassland system of agriculture. It makes possible the change of an extensive type of farming into an intensive one with the minimum of plowing, thus protecting and building the soil at the same time. Furthermore, no people has ever risen high in the scale of civilization permanently without domestic animals. The highest type of citizenship, the best people and homes are found where the most livestock is produced and improved. Grass is our greatest renewable resource and blessing."

That approval of extension of grass and forage policy in the U.S.A. happened to coincide with an implementing aspect in the farm program of Congress outlined last week by Charles F. Brannan, Secretary of Agriculture.

One of the news reports gave this summary: "It would seek to divert millions of surplus acres from cotton, wheat, peanuts and some other cash crops to grass, pastures and hay. Such land would enable farmers to produce many additional head of beef and dairy cows, and hence a larger supply of meat and milk." Associated with this effort to encourage a vast switch to pasture is a government plan of payments to farmers. Mentioned in an anticipation of the Brannan program were: price supports for some farm products, incentive payments for others, consumers subsidy proyision, and government production controls for such crops as cotton, tobacco, wheat, rice and peanuts.

Both these quotations can be turned to the account of Central Ontario Grassland Day to be held June 29 on the Cathcart farm at Springville the place recommended by a subcommittee in charge of the planning of this event. They are also in line with the agricultural trends in recent years on both sides of the border. Here in Peterborough county, hay and permanent pastures have been the preoccupation of Frank C. Paterson, agricultural representative, for quite a long time.

Many farmers of this area have put the Paterson advice into effect, and there is a knowledge of pasture mixtures, their adaptability to particular soil conditions, and also their care and use that puts these farmers in the company of those elsewhere employing the advanced practice.

If the Grassland Day committee needs any encouragement and further incentive in their project plans, they may find it in the general recommendation from SEP and the thinking of the agricultural department of U.S. Congress.

TWO WORLD RECORDS

J. W. Greenwood and his son John of Maple, Ontario, were honored at the annual banquet of the York County Holstein Breeders' Club held March 31st in North Toronto when they received a silver tray from the club recognizing the two world records for butterfat recently completed in their herd. Roeland Rag Apple Lilly completed a Junior two-year-old 365 day record of 827 lbs. fat from 18,593 lbs. milk, average test 4.45 per cent butterfat. This is the largest butterfat record ever completed by either a junior or a senior two-year-old heifer on twice-a-day milking anywhere in the world. Roeland Cherry Re-Echo Rag Apple established a new world record for butterfat production in the senior four-year-old class of the 305 day division on twice-a-day milking with her production of 821 lbs. fat from 17,465 lbs. milk, average test 4.70 percent butterfat.

BRITAIN SENDING WARSHIPS TO CHINA

SO LONG, SO FIRM, SO FULLY PACKED with dynamite, and in some case spawn, are the crib nets full of muskies these days in the spawning nets on Chemong and Katchewanooka Lakes. On Saturday morning game wardens, 15 men and three boys, went in six boats to see the nets lifted. On account of cold water there was no spawn that day. Top Left photo shows Gratton Nichols, Left, and Harry Edwards feeling a female muskie for spawn. Lower Left shows the thrashing netful they had to choose from. Upper Right, the crowd of workers and onlookers approach one of the five crib nets. Lower Right, Wilford Nichols holds two large specimens of pickerel and large-mouth bass he took from the net. Besides these and the 'lunge were suckers, perch, mudcats, two turtles but no carp.

Two Carriers, Submarines Head For East

Ships At Hong Kong Have No Air Cover; Churchill Asks Answer

LONDON, April 25 (AP) — Britain is reinforcing her fleet in China waters, where a cruiser, a destroyer and a sloop have been pounded by Communist shore guns along the Yangtze.

Two aircraft carriers and a group of submarines, it was learned reliably today, will join the Far Eastern fleet.

The Admiralty confirmed that reinforcements had been ordered, but a spokesman refused to disclose their nature, where they would come from or when they would arrive. Based at Hong Kong now are two cruisers, eight destroyers and four sloops. They have no air cover.

The Communists first shelled the sloop Amethyst while it was attempting to sail up the Yangtze from Shanghai to Nanking with food and other supplies for the British Legation there.

Then on Thursday the sloop Black Swan and the cruiser London were shelled and hit.

On Friday the destroyer Consort was damaged.

Demands Explanation

Winston Churchill, angered by the Communist shelling of four British warships in the Yangtze river last week with the loss of 44 lives, notified Prime Minister Attlee he will demand a full explanation when the House of Commons reconvenes tomorrow after its Easter recess.

The Conservative leader will get his explanation, a cabinet spokesman said today, but the cabinet hasn't decided yet exactly what it will do. Attlee will say tomorrow.

Attlee cancelled a full cabinet session to consider what a government called "the grave events," but he instructed Defence Minister A. V. Alexander and Viscount Hall, First Lord of the Admiralty, to write a statement of the shelling.

An Admiralty spokesman said he was unable to confirm a report published in the Star that British naval authorities in Shanghai have advised that either reinforcements should be sent to Shanghai immediately or Britain quit the city.

IT WAS REPORTED by The Canadian Press Saturday that Miss Greta Clark, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. W. J. Clark of Omeme, is still in Shanghai. The Red Army is only 19 miles from the great port city today.

Communists Aiming At City Of Hangchow Hoping To Trap 300,000 Men; Nanking Taken Over Quietly By Reds

By FRED HAMPSON

SHANGHAI, April 25—(AP). — Communist armies today aimed a lightning blow toward the sea at Hangchow hoping to trap 300,000 Nationalist troops below Shanghai. Other Communist forces which took Nanking on Sunday without effort were reported just 19 miles from Shanghai. The feeling grew among Shanghai's 5,000,000 inhabitants that the great Asiatic commercial centre would go over to the Communists without a fight, just as Nanking did on Sunday morning.

Seymour Topping, Associated Press correspondent in Nanking, reported the former Nationalist capital received the Communists quietly at 3:20 a.m. Sunday, Nanking time.

The Communists took their stations before some foreign embassies and all government buildings and utilities in Nanking.

Taiyuan Wiped Out

At the time Nanking fell, the Communist radio at Peiping announced the capture of Taiyuan, Shansi Province capital and industrial centre 600 miles northwest of Nanking. Taiyuan had been under siege for months The radio said all of the city's 150,000 defenders were wiped out. Pilots who flew over Taiyuan later reported the city in flaming ruins.

The speed of the Red drive southward from the Yangtze apparently had thrown a noose around the government defenders. How close the Communists were to Hangchow, big port 100 miles south-west of Shanghai, were obscured by conflicting reports and lack of accurate military information.

Living in Shanghai

At least 17 missionaries, educationists and government officials from Ontario are still in war areas in China awaiting evacuation, government officials estimated Saturday.

Among them is Father John McGoey of Toronto, executive secretary of a group ministers, in Shanghai, administering a Chinese recovery plan set up by the US government. Father McGoey has been a missionary in China since 1939.

Also in Shanghai are Miss Greta Clark of Omemee, Rev. and Mrs. William Simpson and their two children, all sent to China by the United Church in Canada; and Dean A. C. Trivett, in charge of the English Cathedral in the former British concession there.

Canadians in Shanghai today were warned that transportation out of the area may soon be cut off by advancing Chinese Red troops.

50 Spies Enter Canada As DP's Sailor Declares

TORONTO, April 25 —(CP)— Sidney Troster, a former Communist sympathizer in the Canadian Seamen's Union (T.L.C.), said in an article in a Toronto paper today 50 Communists—"all potential spies"—have been admitted to Canada because of poor immigration screening.

He said they came to Canada on the Beaverbrae, a Canadian ship, among a cargo of 700 Displaced Persons from Germany last year.

Mr. Troster said he left the C.S.U. because he "found it ruled by a Communist minority."

He said the majority of the immigrants were anti-Communists but "among the passengers there were the Communists .... they were not difficult to find."

He said he was working in the purser's department of the vessel and could speak German and overheard their conversations.

Admits Spying

WINNIPEG, April 25 (CP) — Deportation seemed the probable fate today for an admitted Russian spy who tripped in an effort to establish himself in this country as a Latvian displaced person. Dimitry Leshchenko, 36-year-old former Russian army officer, has been under close guard at a detention home here pending disposition of his case. Leshchenko, arrested at Calgary last Tuesday, is charged with entering Canada by "misrepresentation."

OTTAWA—(CP).—The board of enquiry set up to study the case of Dimintry Leshchenko has issued a deportation order against him.

RCMP and Canadian army intelligence officers teamed in catching Leshchenko. But only one clue was given as to what slip the Russian had made that betrayed his spurious role. A police officer said one of the things that betrayed Leschenko was that his papers were false.

Leshchenko worked first as a railway hand and then in a Calgary bag factory since coming to Canada 11 months ago.

Justice Minister Stuart Garson said in a statement that the short, fair-haired man who had admitted "to being an active agent for

Perth Family Wiped Out In Train Smash

PERTH, April 25 —(CP)—A truck-train level-crossing crash which killed three persons in this town 40 miles southwest of Ottawa is puzzling Perth today.

The crash, between a light panel truck and an eastbound C.P.R. freight train, occurred at the Wilson Street crossing early Sunday night.

It took the lives of:

Gordon Chaplin, 27-year-old driver of the truck and popular district sportsman and dairy-owner, his wife, Mrs. Lorna Chaplin, 25, and their 15-months-old son, Brent.

They were driving home to Glen Tay about four miles west of Perth when the crash occurred.

The puzzling point about the crash, police found, was that the wig-wag warning signal and bell at the crossing was in perfect working order.

It appeared that Chaplin had adequate warning of the train's approach yet tire marks presumably made by his truck was found on both tracks. Witnesses believe the rays of a late but strong sun may had temporarily distracted Chaplin's attention as he reached the crossing.

The force of the impact drove the truck 40 feet off the track, demolishing it completely.

Body of the infant was found on the locomotive's cowcatcher. It was noticed by the engineer when he had halted 400 feet from the accident. The body was removed and the train backed up to the scene of the crash.

Chaplin himself died instantly but his wife was still alive when Perth residents reached the wreckage. She was removed to hospital but died a few minutes later.

Pearson Declares Talks Encouraging

LONDON, April 25 (CP) — L. B. Pearson, Canadian External Affairs Minister, today told reporters he is "more hopeful" of the outcome of the Commonwealth conference than he was when he arrived last week.

Pearson said the opening talks at 10 Downing Street Friday demonstrated that the will to agreement exists.

"That is the important thing," he said.

"If this meeting were conducted outside the Commonwealth of Nations I would be less hopeful," he added. "But all our discussions here have been on a frank and friendly basis and I am hoping an agreement can be reached."

Lunge Plentiful, Fish Wardens Find Full Traps

If some crepe-hanging fisherman starts telling you that fishing is all washed up in the Kawarthas, you can tell him he is all wet, for spawning nets in Chemong and Katchewanooka Lakes are filled to bursting these days with game fish of all kinds. From fighting muskies that have made Peterborough the best-known 'lunge fishing centre in Canada, nets contain hundreds of specimens of the other game fish groups.

On Saturday morning, Provincial Game Warden C. S. Windsor with some deputies and 20 onlookers in six boats pushed off from the Lakefield docks in the cold rain to examine five fish traps on the marshy west shore of Lake Katchewanooka. These traps are set out to net female 'lunge, in order to secure spawn. The weather was so miserable that skimming swallows had come to roost in hundreds on the edge of the leader nets.. Osgoode Offers Compromise

TORONTO, April 25—(CP).—The Law Society of Upper Canada announced today students entering its Osgoode Hall Law School next year would have a four-year course with more emphasis on academic training. The move was an apparent concession to criticism of the Osgoode Hall course which resulted in the resignation of Dean C. A. Wright and three lecturers at the school last January.

The change was announced in a statement by G. W. Mason, treasurer of the Law Society. He said the new scheme is designed "to preserve the best in the existing system and at the same time meet the views of those who feel that more time should be devoted to academic training."

The Law Society said it had asked for comment on its curriculum from county and district law associations after the criticism of the school that followed Dean Wright's resignation.

Resigning with the dean were John Willis, Bora Laskin and Stanley Edwards, lecturers at the school. Mr. Wright later was appointed dean of law at the University of Toronto Law School and Mrs. Laskin and Mr. Willis were appointed lecturers there.

Mr. Mason said the new four-year course will apply to university graduates entering the school next fall. High school graduates will need a one or two-year apprenticeship before entering the course.

The first two years of the course will mean full-time attendance at law school with the third year spent full-time in apprentecement in a law office, Mr. Mason said. The final year will combine specialized lectures and apprenticeship.

Great Industrial Expansion In Canada Soon—Steinhardt

MONTREAL, April 25 — (CP). — The difference between living under a Democracy and under a Communist regime "staggers the imagination," Ambassador Laurence A. Steinhardt of the United States said today. "Make no mistake about it," he told the Montreal Canadian Club in a speech prepared for delivery, "only one who, like myself, has lived for years within a Communist state, is qualified to tell you" of this difference.

Mr. Steinhardt, who held diplomatic appointments in Moscow and Prague before coming to Ottawa, spoke of Communism as a "creed, foreign and repugnant to the peoples of both our nations" which "stalks the world."

The seed of Communism if planted in North America would "first undermine, then shatter, and finally obliterate every vestige of the way of life we hold so dear."

Prosperity and full employment in a democracy such as we have here assures continued faith in its solvency as a political philosophy, he said.

"In this connection," said Mr. Steinhardt, "may I suggest that Canada is on the eve of economic developments comparable only to those which took place in the United States between 1890 and the outbreak of the First World War.

"I foresee in the near future an expansion of mining and industry in Canada on a scale as yet undreamed of."

"I have little doubt that the next 10 years will mark the beginning of a new era of industrial expansion in Canada far trascending anything you have heretofore witnessed or even anticipated."

Hails Car For Gas Tweed Man Killed

TWEED, April 25—(CP)—Believed to have been hailing an automobile on Highway 27 after his own car ran out of gasoline, Clayton Fisher, 48, was struck and killed by a car coming from the opposite direction Sunday.

Police said the car which struck him was driven by Carl Cronin of Belleville.

Fire Razes Block

BACK DIAMOND, Alta., April 25 (CP)—A raging fire, driven by strong winds, Sunday razed almost an entire block in this southwestern Alberta town. 24 miles southwest of Calgary Six buildings were destroyed in the fire which caused an estimated $200,000 damage.

Beat Rain Hazard For Plane Pilots

OTTAWA, April 25 (CP) — A wax-like rain-repellent substance, destined to play a big role in the prevention of air crashes, has been invented by a National Research Council scientist, NRC announced Sunday.

The rain-repellent, perfected after seven years of research by Dr. D. F. Stedman, of the NRC chemistry division has proved successful under aircraft tests both in Canada and the United Kingdom.

NRC said the substance when applied to the aircraft's windscreen, actually breaks down rain drops into droplets which in turn are passed off into the airstream.

The action is so quick that to the pilot flying his aircraft through a rainstorm, the windscreen appears dry. His vision is free from distortion.

Car Hits Trolley 3 Killed, 2 Hurt

TORONTO, April 25 —(CP)— Three men were killed and two injured today when a careening automobile collided with a street car on Yonge Street in North Toronto.

Police identified the dead as: Phillip J. Casimiri, Liguori Doucet and Kenneth Planet all of Toronto.

The injured are George Wallis, 31, of Toronto, lacerations, and Kenneth Miller of Kitchener, a fractured skull and possible broken neck.

The five were occupants of the southbound car which police said swerved in front of a taxi, passed it on the wrong side of the road, swung to the left curb and started back to the right again. Midway, it was hit by the trolley.

The impact tore the left side off the auto and hurled it against a light standard at the west curb. Casimiri and Doucet were killed in the crash. Planet died en route to hospital. Police said Doucet was the driver of the car going 60 miles an hour.

Pedestrians told police they had to dodge the car as it careened down the street at a high rate of speed just before the crash.

Request Suspension

WINDSOR, April 25—(CP)— Suspension of Horace E. Atkin, business superintendent of Metropolitan General Hospital, while affairs of hospital are being investigated, was asked at the opening session of the probe today. The request was made by Bruce J. S. Macdonald, counsel for several civic groups. Judge Eric W. Cross made no ruling on the plea which was vigorously opposed by James Clark, representing Mr. Atkin.

First Peach Blossoms Appear At Niagara

NIAGARA FALLS, Ont. April 25 — First peach blossoms of the spring season have commenced to open in the yard of Mr. and Mrs A. E. Huggins, at Queenston.

This is an indication that this year's blossom display will be close to the schedule of past years. Blossom Sunday in the Niagara Peninsula usually falls between the end of April and middle of May.

PC Convention Gets Under Way

TORONTO, April 25 —(CP)— Four candidates today waged vigorous campaigns for the leadership of the Progressive Conservative Party. Delegates arriving for the three-day convention ran into appeals for support in the voting Wednesday to pick a man who will become premier of Ontario Thursday.

Booths set up on the convention floor of the downtown Royal York Hotel distributed buttons and literature on behalf of the four known contestants — Hon. Leslie Blackwell, Attorney-General; Hon. Leslie Frost, Provincial Treasurer and Minister of Mines; Hon. Dana Porter, Minister of Education; Kelso Roberts, mining lawyer and a former member of the Ontario legislature.

This afternoon's opening ceremonies include addresses by Chairman A. D. Mackenzie, Premier Kennedy, former Premier Drew and Mayor McCallum Progressive Conservative women and Young Progressive Conservatives will hold general meetings tomorrow and in the evening candidates will be allowed to make 15-minute speeches.

Lewis Meets With Aides To Frame New Demands

WASHINGTON, April 25 (AP) —John L Lewis today met with top aides to frame new soft coal contract demands that may set a 1949 bargaining pattern for other labor unions.

The union's bituminous agreement is due to expire June 30.

Lewis is expected to put more accent on requests for shorter hours and higher miner security benefits than any boost in wages.

This is a trend many United States labor relations experts have anticipated CIO President Philip Murray plans to call his Steelworkers' Union Policy committee into session next week at Pittsburgh to set a bargaining policy, too. And it is reported Murray will put pension improvements ahead of other demands.

Lewis has permitted a fairly clear advance indication of what his demands will be among them some "improvement" in the present 20-cents-a-ton royalty on coal production for the union's welfare fund.

There have been indications that the $100,000,000-a-year fund is being spent on pensions, sickness, death and other benefits faster than it is taking in revenues.

Hong Kong Worried About Red Advance

Trying To Organize Volunteer Force, But Called a Gesture

By MARTIN CHEN

HONG KONG, April 25 (AP) — Communist capture of Nanking and the immediate threat to Shanghai caused concern here today over the future of this British colony.

The question on every tongue was:

"What will happen to Hong Kong when the Reds gain control of the China mainland?"

Not even the Hong Kong Government knows the answer, judging by the looks of things. For the past few weeks British security authorities have been trying to organize units of Chinese and foreign volunteers to strengthen local defences.

Hong Kong residents consider it nothing but a gesture, however. They think it is the British way of telling the Communists they plan to hold on to Hong Kong no matter what happens.

Will the Communists oppose British rule of Hong Kong in the event they complete their conquest of China?

Studied opinion is divided on this question. Some believe Red leader Mao Tze-tung will not do anything to invite trouble with a foreign power, especially at a time when recognition of his government by foreign powers would be most welcome.

The Communists, who have been calling the Nationalist Government to task for signing what they call traitorous treaties with Western powers, cannot be expected to regard with nonchalance the existence of such a place as Hong Kong independent of China's sovereign territory.

But Hong Kong's nearly 2,000,000 population does not fear Red attack so much as Communist blockade. A blockade would have a dangerous effect on the people. All the Reds would have to do would be to seal up the few communication channels between Hong Kong and the Chinese mainland.

Freight Hits Truck, Find 10 Killed

Worshippers Returning From Church Slam Into Fast Train

CARTHAGE, Tenn., April 25—(AP)—A fast freight train rammed a truck crowded with Sunday worshippers at a crossing near here, Sunday night, killing 10 persons—nine in the one family—and severely injuring another.

The truck caught fire and was dragged some 100 yards down the track before the speeding Tennessee Central Diesel could come to a halt.

Some of the dead were scattered along the tracks, while the rest were pinned in the cab of the truck.

All 11 were returning from church services to their homes when the accident occurred at a crossing about eight miles south of here.

Death List

Kiled were:

Jess Bennett, 50, driver; his wife, Mattie Bell Bennett, 45, and their sons, Douglas, 12, U.L. 10, and Melvin Earl, eight; Mrs. Paulie Bennett Dickens, 24, daughter of the Bennett's; her husband, Paulie Dickens, 27, and their one-year-old daughter, Catherine; W. E. (Coonie) Bennett, 49, Jess Bennett's brother; Miss Linnie Gibbs, 17, died in hospital.

Ruth Robinson, the sole survivor, was in hospital. Doctors said she suffered a broken pelvic bone.

State Safety Commissioner Sam Neal, who hurried to the scene, said the train riped the 1½-ton farm truck in two. He said it appeared five persons were seated in the cab and six on the chairs set up in the back.

A son-in-law of the Bennett's, John Overstreet, told Commissioner Neal he had stopped his car at crossing to let some passengers out when the truck came up behind him.

"I knew the train was coming," he told Neal. "I tried to wave the truck down, but my father-in-law pulled around me and went on in front of the train."

Deaf Student's Body Discovered In Bay

BELLEVILLE, April 25—(CP).—The body of Howard V. House, 15, a student at the Ontario School for the Deaf, who was drowned in the Bay of Quinte on March 13 last, was recovered about 50 yards south of where he is supposed to have slipped through the ice. His body was found by four young boys out in a rowboat. The parents, Mr. and Mrs. Nelson House, Preston, have been notified and an inquest will be held.

Shanghai Editors Are Questioned

SHANGHAI, April 25 (AP) — George Vine, International News Service correspondent and Editor of the North China Daily News, was picked up for questioning by the government garrison headquarters today along with several other Shanghai newspaper figures.

Also questioned were K. S. Chang, China Press Editor, and N. F. Allman, United States lawyer lately listed as publisher of the China Press. P th of them were reported about to be released.

C. Y. Chang, Editor of the China Tribune, was questioned and released.

It was reported that the questionings were due to publication of a Reuters story about Communist advances whcih the garrison denied.

The garrison instructed newspapers and press associations that henceforth all war news must be confined to garrison announcements released through the official central news agency.

Bulletins were promised at 10 a.m. and 5 and 9 p.m. daily.

The 9 p.m. bulletin asserted only 29,000 Red troops had crossed to the south bank of the Yangtze from Kiangsu (the province just north of Shanghai) and that the main Communist group still was on the north bank "under surveillance" of the Nationalist air force.

(The Communists have said they have more than 1,000,000 men on the south bank of the Yangtze but have not given figures for the rather narrow area covered by the government garrison bulletin.)

Lift Differential Rail Rate

OTTAWA, April 25—(CP).—The Board of Transport Commissioners' order Saturday, removing the above-normal "mountain differential" rate on freight charges, got a mixed reception in Canada's western provinces but in most quarters it obtained a warm and happy welcome. In Vancouver, business leaders said removal of the "mountain differential" which was 1¼ times prairie scale, will permit invasion of secondary industries in eastern markets.

In Alberta, Premier E. C. Manning said he was "extremely gratified" that the mountain differential had been removed, but it was only one of the "difficulties" to be ironed out.

Premier T. C. Douglas of Saskatchewan said removal of the mountain differential was "the first step" in abolishing freight-rate inequalities.

But Alex. Aitken, secretary of the Regina Chamber of Commerce, said removal of the differential would give British Columbia cities a larger trading area to the disadvantage of industry on the prairies.

Declines Comment

Premier D. L. Campbell of Manitoba declined immediate comment. His province had opposed British Columbia's fight for removal of the differential, contending it would result against Manitoba freight-shippers since they would have to share the burden of railway costs in the mountain area.

The verdict wiped out a differential that had been in effect in varying degrees ever since the railways started operations in the Rockies late in the last century. It had been on its present basis since 1922, when it was revised downward from 1½ times the prairie level.

The Board ruled that, since 1922, freight traffic in the Pacific area had swelled to such an extent, with consequent higher revenues to the carriers, that the special rate no longer was justified.

It turned down two other railway proposals. These were that, in the event the Board should order removal of the differential they be allowed to:

1. Put into effect a general freight-rate increase or two per cent to cover the $3,5000,000 a year which the mountain differential yielded.

2. Hoist the prairie scale to that of B. C., instead of lowering the mountain rate.

The majority decision was written by Chief Commissioner M. B. Archibald and concurred in by Commissioner F. M. MacPherson. Deputy Chief Commissioner Armand Sylvestre filed a dissenting opinion declaring that while the differential no longer was justified, it should not be removed until the Royal Commission on transportation had completed its inquiry, which is expected to lead to general revisions of the rate structure.

Reds Close

From beleaguered Nanking, meanwhile, word came to Ottawa today that the Canadian Embassy staff is "alive and well."

Should they need quick air transportation from Nanking, however, a Canadian Pacific Air Lines plane is standing by at Hong Kong.

Kashing, the vital rail junction 53 miles southwest of Shanghai, apparently had not been touched by the Reds.

The refugee situation in Shanghai is growing serious. Late today roads leading into the city from the west contained lines of rain-sodden peasants. Most of them had only enough food for a few meals.

Army Vanishes

There was no indication of where Gen. Tang En-po had his 300,000 government troops—or if he still had them under his control.

Shanghai garrison headquarters kept repeating that this city would be defended to the last man. How, when and with what was not apparent.

Tang, Nationalist defence commander of the gigantic Shanghai-Nanking-Hangchow triangle, reportedly had fled Shanghai for the south. So had Premier Ho Ying-chin and other top government officials.

Acting President Li Tsung-jen was reported to have gone to Kweilin and retired President Chiang Kai-shek to Amoy.

Obviously the time was getting short for an evacuation by sea from Shanghai.

But as yet there was no large movement of government forces falling back on Shanghai.

John Cabot, United States Consul-General, warned Americans in Shanghai that any wishing haven aboard United States naval ships here should report to the Consulate immediately.

Refugee Problem

Airline pilots arriving from Nanking on the last flights late Saturday, gave this picture of the capital:

Cedric Ma of Prince Rupert, BC, pilot for the Central Air Transport Company circled the city three times at 500 feet. He said the streets were jammed with people lugging household goods. Some he identified as looters.

Outside food shops the streets were splashed white with flour. In the harbor one Nationalist gunboat was circling in the river while a number of other craft were burning and appeared scuttled. Ma neither heard nor saw artillery fire.

He attributed much damage to Nationalist demolition squads. He said all Air Force planes had left the capital. He counted 20 Nationalist gunboats in the river 25 miles east of Nanking. Three of them were afire.

The road leading south from Nanking was jammed with refugees for 70 miles.

James Shaddy of Los Angeles reported he had brought out Nationalist troops guarding the field where his plane took off.

Arrest 2 Men In Quebec Strike

ASBESTOS, Que., April 25. — (CP).—Provincial police said today that two men were arrested Sunday night in connection with the asbestos strike which has virtually halted all mining operations in this eastern township community for two months.

Police said charges of interfering with police were made against the men whose names were not revealed pending arraignment in court here later today.

The Canadian Johns-Manville Company, in a statement naming Ivan Saturin as their representative on the arbitration board proposed by Labor Minister Barrette, restated their hope that this latest move would be "followed by a prompt return to work so that the whole matter could be settled by the legal processes of arbitration in accordance with the laws of Quebec."

At the same time G. K. Foster, mine manager, reported that operations of the company have never been completely closed down by the strike. As of today, he said, employment is about 400. Normal employment is about 2,200.

tails in the swamp but the crib nets were full of frightened fighting fish.

When the floor rope was pulled up and each net gathered into a sturdy punt there was a mighty commotion as the nets boiled with fish. All species except 'lunge were dipped out. There were pickerel, large-mouth bass, suckers, mudcats, two turtles but, fortunately, no carp.

MANY BIG LUNGE

Smaller muskies were also set free but larger ones that looked heavy with spawn were examined one by one. Big ones going over 20 pounds took the efforts of two men to hold and those which the workmen felt would produce eggs within a short time were left in the crib. After visiting five cribs on Saturday it was found that the water and air were too cold to make the milking process advisable. Nets are visited daily. In some places they have been installed ten days ago. At Chemong where water is more sluggish and shallow, several quarts of spawn were drawn off.

Eggs are allowed to stand in metal pans to harden for four hours and are then packed on cheesecloth trays in damp moss-lined boxes for transport to Deer Lake Hatchery.

One warden said that mink or other marauders were seldom found in the nets but that a loon which swims into the trap would sabre a netful of fish with his sharp beak.

Conservation Succeeding

It was estimated that a total of 75 'lunge were seen in the nets on Saturday morning which is sufficient proof of the success of the Department of Lands and Forests' muskie conservation program. At this time of year when water levels are sometimes dropped over night to maintain water tables, millions of musky eggs could be left high and dry and wasted in the shallows. Victims of a poacher's spear, too, often contain spawn that is ruthlessly destroyed.

Although old timers complain that there are no big ones left in the Kawarthas, there are thousands of hatchery-reared fish taking their place. Fish seen on Saturday were estimated to average about twelve pounds, a size that epicures well tell you make the finest sport and eating. Let no one tell you in future that 'lunge are depleted in the Trent waterways for it is certain that game wardens found the nets refilled again today.

No More Dosing For Constipation

Famous cereal frees woman from harsh laxatives

Searching desperately for constipation relief? Then read this unsolicited letter:

"For 10 years even strong medicines couldn't help me. At last my doctor in England advised KELLOGG'S ALL-BRAN. I began to eat this breakfast cereal and soon realized I was better. I eat ALL-BRAN regularly now and can definitely say I am free from constipation!" (Name given on request).

You, too, may never have to take another harsh laxative for constipation due to lack of bulk in the diet. Just eat an ounce of KELLOGG'S ALL-BRAN daily—and drink plenty of water. ALL-BRAN is not a purgative, but a wholesome regulating cereal. Eat as a cereal, or in muffins for constipation relief. If after using one package you are not entirely satisfied, get double your money back as guaranteed on the package. Buy delicious ALL-BRAN from your grocer. Made by Kellogg's of London, Ontario.

Besieged 4 Hours By Mob Police Rescue Red Leader

PLYMOUTH, England, April 25 — (AP). — Police spirited Communist leader Harry Pollitt out of an auditorium on Sunday night after he was besieged almost four hours by an angry crowd af nearly 3,000 anti-Communists.

The howling, chair-throwing anti-Communists had chased Pollitt from a speaking platform and laid siege to the building. He sought refuge in an upstairs room.

Joined by sailors in uniform, the crowd had attempted to batter down a human barrier of policemen in front of the auditorium. They had succeeded in breaking up a Communist political meeting inside.

In a repetition of violence that Pollitt encountered Friday night and early Saturday in Dartmouth, the crowd hurled chairs, stones, tomatoes and eggs. Police Inspector John Lindsay was knocked unconscious.

Detectives took Pollitt, secretary of the British Communist Party, to the station house where he caught a train for London. Previously Pollitt said he was going to Cornwall for a rest.

About 100 sailors broke down the massive doors of the ancient Corn Exchange Building where the meeting was scheduled.

They forced their way up a flight of stairs and stormed into the meeting which Pollitt was addressing. Pollitt tried in vain to continue above the din.

Sailors and about 150 others rushed the platform when Pollitt tried to speak on the subject of the Yangtze River shelling of the British warships. Many of the crew members are from Plymouth.

Police arrested about a dozen persons for resisting attempts of officers to clear the streets.

Cries of "Rubbish" interrupted Pollitt when he said there was not enough evidence to enable people to give balanced judgment on the "tragic happenings of the last few days," on the Yangtze River. He added:

"I say quite sincerely that no person, whatever their politics, could be any other in their heart but sympathetic with relatives of British boys who met their death on that river."

Packard Strike Settled Today

DETROIT, April 25—(AP).—Eleventh-hour peace talks that continued even after picket lines were set up prevented a shutdown of the big Packard Motor Car Company plant early today.

Settlement of assorted differences between the company and union was achieved by a group of representatives of both sides who got together at 11 p.m.—an hour after pickets had been called for the Packard plant.

When they broke up three hours later there was written agreement on 16 disputed points.

Doctors Flying To Examine Polio Victims

WINNIPEG, April 25—(CP)—Four doctors, a nurse and a physiotherapist left here Sunday aboard an RCAF Dakota on a 1,000-mile flight to chilly Chesterfield inlet to re-examine Eskimos stricken with poliomyelitis earlier this year.

Also aboard the aircraft were two young Eskimo boys, who are returning to their homes after 1½ months in hospital here.

The two were among the 13 Eskimos evacuated to Winnipeg March 6 following the initial flight by a medical crew to the inlet, 200 miles south of the Arctic Circle. The plague, which claimed 13 lives, affected approximately 60 Eskimos, both children and adults, in varying degrees.

Dr. W. J. Wood, regional superintendent of Indian health services, who headed the party that left Sunday, said 13 Eskimos still were in the Grey Nuns hospital at Chesterfield inlet in addition to those remaining in Winnipeg's isolation institution.

After two or three days at the inlet, the present medical group will return to Winnipeg with the exception of Connie Beattie of Brockville, a 24-year-old physiotherapist. She will remain at the inlet for approximately four months.

A few of the more seriously ill Eskimos at the inlet may be brought back to Winnipeg when the doctors return here, but Dr. Wood said decision on this point would depend on the investigation.

Russell Manning New Rotary President

COBOURG, April 25—(ENS)—Russell Manning was elected president of the Rotary Club of Cobourg at the weekly meeting of the club, succeeding Douglas Tait. Mel Earl is vice president; Harold Gummer, secretary and W. N. Bradley, treasurer. Three new directors were appointed, Hubert Cooey, Eldon McFadyen and W. Rawcliffe.

Mink Walks Abroad

COBOURG, April 25. — (ENS). — A wandering mink was found on Saturday night by Constable Homer Seale on George Street. Apparently one which had been more or less domesticated on a mink farm, the animal was unafraid of humans, and Homer took it to the police office. Later he and Constable H. Pearse took the mink to the factory creek where they released it in surroundings more like its natural habitat.

HOMEWARD BOUND—Little four-year-old Doris Eleanor Fitzgerald of Classville, N.B., is tucked aboard a Trans-Canada Air Lines craft by Stewardess Barney Wilkins of Montreal as the plane took off for Port-of-Spain, Trinidad. 56-Mill Rate In Campbellford

CAMPBELLFORD, April 25 — (ENS)—Bylaws authorizing the following tax rates were passed at a special meeting of the council:

County—8.7 mills.
Public Library—1.6 mills.
High School debentures — 5.3 mills.
Memorial Hospital debenture—1.7 mills.
Relief and Hospitaliaztion—3.2 mills.
Town—24 mills.

Rates for educational purposes were set at:
St. Mary's Separate School—9.5 mills.
Public School—10.5 mills.
Public school debentures—1.0 mill.

The total tax rate for Separate School supporters is 54 mills and for Public School supporters, 56 mills.

Permission was granted the Bell Telephone Co. to erect a public telephone booth west of the river.

Truck Mounts Curb

COBOURG, April 25—(ENS)—A car driven by Melville Linton of Camborne met in collision Saturday with a truck driven by Harry Harrison of Cobourg, with unusual results. The truck was going south and the car was proceeding west at the intersection of College and Chapel streets. After the impact the truck continued south, went out of control and mounted the east curb, from where it ran along the sidewalk, grazing two trees and coming to stop between a stone fence and a large elm tree with only a few inches to spare on each side. Constables E. Butler and C. Cunningham investigated.

Propose Buying Davidson Arena

CAMPBELLFORD, April 25—(ENS). — Delegations from Seymour Council, Seymour Young Farmers, Fair Board, Legion and local service clubs sat in with the Town Council on Saturday night to discuss the proposed community centre. Fred. Rutherford outlined the advantages of taking over Davidson's Arena at an approximate cost of $15,000.

He said that the Government grant of 25 per cent. would take care of the first payment, and with good management the yearly payments of $1,000 could be easily met. The board of directors, he stated, would consist of a representative from each of the five organizations and one from each of the two Councils. The board would have the authority to appoint a treasurer, he remarked.

Price Too High

Mayor H. M. Donald thought that $15,000 was too much for the rink. He said that considerable sums would have to be expended for repairs and alterations.

"The ratepayers of Campbellford are overburdened with taxes," Councillor MacMillan commented. "However, I am in favor of the project, providing the town is not involved in any way."

Reeve Billen of Seymour reported that he was in favor of the project, but could not state the views of the other councillors. Delegations from the other organizations voiced their approval.

"If Mr. Davidson is willing to deal directly with the board of directors without involving the Council, I am in favor of it," Reeve J. C. Anderson stated.

Mr. Rutherford assured the Council that the five organizations sponsoring the project would be responsible for making the yearly payments to Mr. Davidson and with good management the community centre should pay its way. A rumor was in circulation, he said, that Marmora rink was losing money, but I am informed that Marmora closed the hockey season with a substantial bank balance.

"We have practically nothing in Campbellford" Mr. Rutherford said, "for our young people. If we are to develop youth both morally and physically we must provide them with wholesome recreation. We are fortunate in having an arena that we can purchase for a few thousand dollars, and with five organizations behind it, the problem of meeting the payments should be an easy one."

The project is to be discussed further after Seymour and Campbellford Councils review the question.

Six-Year-Old Girl Knocked Down By Car

COBOURG, April 25 (ENS)—Ann Richardson, six-year-old daughter of Mrs. Ivey Richardson, 280 Division Street, sustained a broken right thigh when hit by a car on Saturday afternoon. Police said the driver was Jack Mitchell of Cobourg. The little girl is said to have darted out from behind a parked car and that the driver had no time to avoid striking her. In addition to the broken thigh she had bruises about the head and left arm. She was taken to Cobourg Hospital.

A Garden Channel Through The City

It has frequently been suggested in these columns, by correspondents in Letters To The Editor, and by word of mouth throughout the city, that something be done about the Jackson Park creek. This creek is potentially our most lovely city waterway; actually it is now among the most unsightly, and the farthest removed from being a thing of beauty and pleasurable use. We do not believe that people who say that this condition can be changed are romantic, impractical visionaries. Improvement need not be made all along the course of the creek overnight. It could be done in easy and inexpensive stages, over a period of five or twenty-five years.

* * *

The first requisite, before anything can be done by way of permanent improvement, is that the creek bed and verges be cleaned up, and kept clean. Crews of volunteer workers and crews of men from the Works and Parks departments could clean up the whole creek in one week of summer when the water level is low. Once the creek is clean, it must be kept that way, by example and by regulation. Throwing rubbish into it, dumping trash along the banks, or emptying swill into it from factory, shop or home, should be made offences punishable by stiff, exemplary fines. These things done, the creek would be clean, and ready for improvement. We see no reason why all this should not be accomplished early this summer.

* * *

The first stage of rehabilitation could then be to improve one or two stretches by clearing out brush, planting flowers and grass seed, and even one or two small trees. This job could also be done this summer. It would cost very little, and season by season other segments of the creek and banks could similarly be attended. Thus, in the course of twenty-five years—even in a shorter time, if the citizens and council really were in earnest about it—the whole creek from Jackson Park to its mouth at Little Lake would be a delight to look upon, a fresh waterway banked with verdure, and, let it be hoped, with walks and benches.

* * *

These latter would mean, of course, that the city would gradually have to acquire narrow strips of property along the banks, sufficient for grass and flower plots, a gravel walk and tree-space—say forty feet in width on one side or both. This could be accomplished in time, but not immediately. But how wonderful it would be if the stretch of the creek from Charlotte street to King, on the west side, could soon be transformed into a narrow, water-side little parkway, right in the centre of the city. There are difficulties, but not great ones. There is already a public entrance from Charlotte street. On the King street side, the city should buy back from the bus company a part of the property it recently sold it, enough to guarantee a public entrance from that street and a right-of-way through, beside the creek. This should be acquired soon, before the bus company or any other puts up a building at the edge of the creek.

* * *

These suggestions are not high-falutin or costly. To transform the whole length of the creek into a parkway with footpath only (no road for vehicles) would be the work of years, but a start could be made now, and inexpensively.

Advice To Teachers

Ontario teachers who pour out their words and knowledge and ideas ten months of the year have been on the receiving line last week. In halls and seats and corridors of Toronto where the Ontario Educational Association was meeting they have endured or enjoyed a spate of speakers. What the speakers have expounded may be terribly important; certainly it is confusingly varied to us who have not had the privilege of attending but who read the news reports.

Dr. Dillworth of the C.B.C. tells teachers that all teachers "should be carefully screened not so much to detect political and social isms as to determine their outlook on life". He would exclude from the profession people who use half words and double talk, and explained that people who are not sure of the meaning of life are unsuited to teach others. If this is so, then we have either a great many unsuitable teachers, or teachers are really remarkable people to know with certainty the meaning of life. We must have private audience of one of these teachers and get him or her to explain life to us in a dozen easy lessons.

It is wonderful to read that Dr. Dilworth, a former teacher, affirms that life—even in the schoolroom—was essentially beautiful and that some one should keep it that way. We shall not volunteer for the job. It seems a bit beyond our scope.

Another speaker warns that the mechanical age is fostering misfits. An expert psychologist predicts that our grandchildren will be attending school at the age of two. Another speaker, whose words are reported on the same page, advises teachers to use plain words in the school rooms. We presume that they should do so particularly when our grandchildren, aged two, are the pupils. A doctor tells the teachers that it is the parents' duty to teach the facts of life. An American geologist declares that methods of teaching geography are in a rut. A doctor from New York University affirms that little boys can be healthy with dirty necks. He says that trying to make children "health conscious" is a poor sort of thing because it puts fears into their minds. That sounds rather sensible—rather a dirty neck than a fearful mind. We wish the good doctor had been preaching such doctrines at O.E.A. meetings when we were children; but now we are not sure that we approve, unless the dirty childish necks are far removed from our eyes and nose. For us, the issue is aesthetic rather than a matter of health.

What a great many words have been poured into the teachers' ears this week. Mentally stimulating they are, no doubt, and pedagogically refreshing, but if words alone are the pleasures of O.E.A., we gladly stick to our desk and do not envy a teacher his Easter holiday spent at the O.E.A. We are not used to such a strenuous respite from daily chores.

Lindbergh In The News Again

Col. Charles A. Lindbergh has appeared in the public spotlight many times in the past twenty-odd years, in varied roles. Little had been heard about him for about five years, however, until recent reports from the United States that he had just returned from a world tour of current and former U.S. bomber bases. It was then intimated that he is engaged in government work so secret that only his immediate superiors know what he is doing. Guesswork among friends makes his work related to the atomic bomb, but it is only guesswork. About the only fact to be culled from the reports was that his world tour was undertaken at the personal request of General Hoyt Vandenberg, chief of the U.S. Air Force.

It is an interesting progression in a remarkable career in aviation. The dramatic flight of young "Slim" Lindbergh across the Atlantic to France lifted him from the ranks of mail pilots into more important posts in the technical section of aviation. Years later, after the heart-breaking tragedy in which the Lindberghs lost their young son, Col. Lindbergh became an interested observer in the field of military aviation around the world. It was at this time that his expressed admiration of the German Luftwaffe was deeply resented, both in his own country and elsewhere. This feeling persisted in many quarters, despite the overwhelming proof of Lindbergh's opinion provided by the Luftwaffe; the late President Roosevelt, for instance, never attempted to disguise his hostility toward the flier.

There were too many men in the U.S. Air Force and in the aviation industry, however, who were familiar with Lindbergh's ability, and he was not allowed to remain on the sidelines. He became a figure of great importance in the tremendous aerial development of the war years; apparently he is no less important today. His life is now almost completely devoted to the service of his country, in a position of great trust. This most recent development in his career provides a warning similar to that given by Winston Churchill when people rushed to condemn the King of the Belgians for his surrender, for there were many who considered Lindbergh almost a traitor because he once said the German air force was the best in the world.

Atomic scientists say that New York and Chicago are "cities of the past" because their skyscrapers are susceptible to atomic radiation. Obviously the City Council was wise to squelch any suggestion that Peterborough's new City Hall should have a third storey.

Of Cabbages And Kings

By PETER ELIOT

WHEN Matthew Arnold was an Inspector of English Schools, it fell to him one day to examine a country school in English literature. But the children knew very little of the subject, and could answer none of the great author's questions. At last Arnold, irritated at their lack of knowledge, rapped out this question:

"Now, who wrote 'Hamlet'—can you tell me that?"

Dead silence ensued, and the examiner repeated the question in still sharper tones. A little boy, being in the line of fire of Arnold's eye at the moment, hesitatingly put up his hand and stammered:

"Please, sir, it wasn't me."

That night Arnold was the guest of the squire of the parish, and told the incident at the dinner-table. At the close of the story the good squire, perceiving that laugh was expected of him, laughed dutifully, and then added:

"And I suppose the little rascal had done it, all the time."

✧ ✧ ✧

LAST week I repeated the often-told story of Lord Balfour's contempt for the Empire State Building, which immediately brings to mind the anecdote about John Burns in Chicago. When that Labour Leader was visiting Chicago, a group of reporters travelling on the same train had gleaned his "impressions."

Later, when addressing a meeting he was interrupted by a man who declared:

"I am the Chief of Police of this city. You are reported as saying that Chicago is a pocket edition of Hell. If you made that remark you must withdraw it, or you cannot continue your speech."

"I have not been correctly quoted," thundered Mr. Burns. "What I said was that Hell is a pocket edition of Chicago."

✧ ✧ ✧

HUMOUR AMONG LAWYERS is a small volume, rich in anecdote, from the pen of John Aye.

There is a humorous tale about a judge making a sly joke at the expense of counsel during a murder trial. So great was the feeling against the defendant, an Irishman, that his only hope lay in postponement of the trial. Accordingly, his counsel moved for an adjournment, and in support of it said, "With your Lordship's permission I will read the doctor's certificate." He then proceeded to read as follows:

"I beg to certify that in my opinion if John Nolan is placed on trial today his life will be endangered."

"Well," said the judge, "I do not wish to do anything to prejudice the defence, but judging by the depositions in the case, I should imagine the doctor's belief well founded."

✧ ✧ ✧

"SOMETIMES," writes Aye, "it happens that the judge is able to get in a crushing broadside on some advocate whose attitude to the court is not quite what it should be." When Sir Fletcher Norton, he recalls, whose discourteous manners were proverbial, was pleading before Lord Mansfield on some question of manorial rights, Norton, to make clear his point, said:

"My Lord, I can illustrate the point in an instance in my own person. I myself have two little manors...."

"We have all too good reason to know that, Sir Fletcher," interposed the Chancellor, thus wiping off a long score of discourtesies.

✧ ✧ ✧

IN the same connection is a good story told of Lord Darling, who had asked a question of a leading counsel, notorious for his self-satisfaction:

"God knows, I don't my Lord," was the somewhat rude reply.

"Is it really possible, Mr. Brief," quietly observed Darling, "that anything can be known at all that is not known to you?"

"The Bear" was the nickname given to Mr. Justice Taunton, because of his brusqueness. Losing his temper, he once barked out at a rising junior:

"It's no good your pursuing that line of argument, for what you say goes in one ear and out of the other."

"Quite right, my Lord," was the quiet reply, "what is there to prevent it?"

✧ ✧ ✧

A WELL-KNOWN Scottish King's Counsel was once being heckled at a political meeting. A lady questioner demanded to know if the candidate was in favour of equal rights for men and women.

"Madam, I can assure you I am," came the response, "the greatest desire of my life has been to become a mother."

A young friend from Aberdeen University has some good stories to tell of his native city. A young student fresh off the irons visited his native parish and met the beadle, who had a high opinion of his minister. The student said that he heard the minister's sermon, but the simile of the wind upon the barley was borrowed from the Odyssey of Homer.

"Dinna tell me that," replied the beadle. "I believe it's mair likely Homer borrowed it frae oor man."

✧ ✧ ✧

THE second of his stories took place at the Aberdeen Rotary Club which was having a competition for story-telling. Chief competitors were the Earl of Aberdeen and the late Sir James Taggart.

Sir James said two young farm servants were having a day in Aberdeen, and thought they would buy a 6d. cigar and have a joint smoke. One of them got it lighted in the shop and was fairly enjoying his smoke, when his companion said, "Whaun am I gettin' a draw?"

To which his friend replied, "Get awa', man. I'm Chairman o' th' Company. Ye're only a shareholder. Ye can spit!"

Lord Aberdeen countered that with this one. A man and his wife were travelling in a train when the wife said, "I'm no feelin' well, John. I'm like to be sick."

"Na, na, woman," said the frugal husband, pointing to a penalty plate in the carriage, "Ye canna be sick in here; they chairge ye two pounds for a spit!"

Kings, Queens and Human Frailty

(WINNIPEG FREE PRESS)

WRITING in the Manchester Guardian on a new book about Queen Victoria, Barbara Hammond has this to say about the Queen, Albert the Prince Consort, and King Edward VII:

"The early Albert who had a tussle for precedence at a royal wedding with the disagreeable uncle the King of Hanover (formerly Duke of Cumberland) and dodged round the table in order to seize the register and sign it first, and then wrote "we let him go and happily he fell over some stones in Kew and damaged some ribs," was a more attractive Albert than the later Prince Albert.

"The later Albert was an unhappy man, physically worn out and mentally overwhelmed by his sense of personal responsibility for setting things right. He was obsessed, too, by his vexation with his unsatisfactory eldest son, who steadily refused to be shaped by his father's intensive and inhuman system of training. The son is amusingly shown in his book, on an improving tour in the East, preferring to read "East Lynne" rather than visit the Pyramids. However, as Dean Stanley his mentor, put it, he treated ancient monuments that bored him with the most well-bred courtesy as if he were paying a visit to a high personage.

"Prince Albert could never have understood that genial manners might be more important in a royal person than a cultivated taste in writing memoranda. One cannot read the second part of this book without wishing that he had written one more, a memorandum instructing Victoria on how to behave as a widow. It might have saved much trouble to many people."

Laber Partz Guse Kukd

(Montreal Gazette)

JUST how close to the edge of something or other the world is careening was indicated about a month ago when the British House of Commons, by a margin of only three votes, decided not to scrap the present English language. It was Dr. Mont Follick's bill to eliminate present-day English and adopt phonetic spelling which brought about this shocking near miss.

In introducing his bill Dr. Follick said no one who used the language could spell it anyway. His plan would make English a "world" language and save millions the "horrible drudgery" of learning spelling as it is today. Dr. Follick and a near majority of the House appeared to have arrived simultaneously at a state of complete frustration on a subject which has bedevilled better men in the past. In truth it is so bad that in some circles one might almost be forgiven for thinking there was something wrong with a person who can spell.

The debate in the House was more serious than might be expected on such a measure with the Government strenuously opposing the bill. This naturally will have cooked the goose of the Labour Party as soon as the nippers now studying spelling in school come of voting age. The day was saved when it was pointed out that if the bill went through all English classical literature would have to be rewritten, and that it would cut England off from the rest of the English-speaking world.

If the parliamentarians were grave about it all, the British press had fun. "What about accent," asked the Economist. "Would all classes of Britons be content to spell reform 'r-e-f-a-w-m'?" Editorially the Daily Express said: "Dr. Follic.... wants Parliament to alter the Inglish langwij so it will luk thing lyk this. He thincs that foriners wil lurn fonetic Inglish much cwicer than they do now so Inglish mite becum a wurld tung Foriners ar welcum to Docter Folic's nu Inglish; we prefer it as it is."

And so, despite the fact that George Bernard Shaw gave it as his opinion that defeat of the bill would be an "international calamity," there the matter stands. Who can tell what will happen next time Dr. "Folic" brings it up?

Bible Message

(From the Authorized Version)

Say ye to the righteous, that it shall be well with him: for they shall eat the fruit of their doings. Woe unto the wicked! It shall be ill with him: for the reward of his hands shall be given him. (Isa. 3: 10, 11.)

✧ ✧ ✧

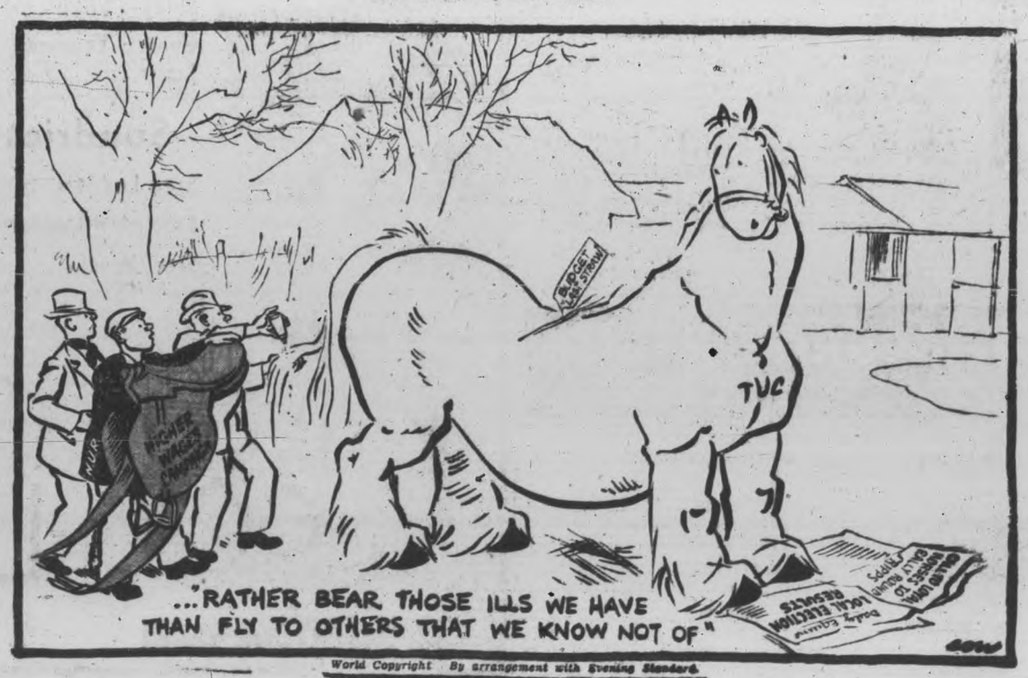
Think not that I am come to destroy the law, or the prophets: I am not come to destroy, but to fulfil. For verily I say unto you, Till heaven and earth pass, one jot or one tittle shall in no wise pass from the law, till all be fulfilled.

Whosoever therefore shall break one of these least commandments, and shall teach men so, he shall be called the least in the kingdom of heaven: but whosoever shall do and teach them, the same shall be called great in the kingdom of heaven. (Matt. 5: 17-19.)

✧ ✧ ✧

And it came to pass, when Jesus had ended these sayings, the people were astonished at his doctrine: for he taught them as one having authority, and not as the scribes. (Matt. 7: 28, 29.)

"Poblacht Na H Eireann"



Easter Monday in 1916 fell a week later than it did this year. On April 24, 1916, Padraic Pearse, standing on the steps of the Dublin Post Office, proclaimed "The Provinsional Government of the Irish Republic," or as the last three words are rendered in Gaelic, "Poblacht na h-Eireann." Ten days later Pearse died before a firing squad. Today, on another Easter Monday, the Irish Republic is again proclaimed, with no gunfire except the booming of twenty-one-gun salutes. Among the congratulatory messages was one from King George, who spoke of "the neighbourly links which hold the people of the Republic of Ireland in close association with my subjects of the United Kingdom" and praised the "gallant assistance to our cause" rendered by Irish volunteers in the Second World War.

The twenty-six counties of Southern Ireland have been free in fact since 1922, free in all but a few tenous links since 1937. These links are severed now. All that remains is a mutual understanding that the Irish will not be considered aliens in Britain or the Commonwealth. The dream of a republic for the whole of Ireland was rejected last February by a two-to-one vote of the people of Ulster, who prefer their present connection with the British Crown. But the old hatreds are, one may hope, dying; the old wrongs and reprisals sinking into history.

Commonwealth Ministers meeting in London this week will consider future relationships with Dominions, India among them, which may become republics. It is not in nature that they should be completely foreign countries. Nor, in this divided world, can they be neutral or defend themselves individually against aggression.

Sinatra Eager To Star In Carousel

By BOB THOMAS

HOLLYWOOD, April 25 (AP) —This may classify in the dream department, but Frank Sinatra is eager to star in "Carousel" on the screen.

The crooner says he has been urging producer Arthur Freed to get M.G.M. to buy the Roger-Hammerstein musical. Sinatra proposes that the lead "could be played by a little guy" like himself. The hero in the play was a strapping gent.

Sinatara, Jules Munshin and director Gene Kelly leave May 7 for New York, where they'll shoot exteriors for "On The Town."

Buiness Notes

Orson Wells appears to be all set for his version of "Othello." He is reported to be in Morocco scouting locations. He has messaged Betsy Blair (Gene Kelly's wife) to report for shooting in mid-May. She'll play Desdemona. . .

Andy Devine sold out his north Hollywood flying school to his partner. "I'm going to devote my full time to the entertainment business," says the gravel-throated comic. . .

Louis Calhern gets his first musical workout in 30 years when he does "Nancy Goes to Rio." He has numbers with Jane Powell, Ann Sothern and Carmen Miranda. . .

Discount Starvation

ST. JOHN'S, April 25 (CP) — Premier Smallwood Sunday night discounted a report that some 400 persons were suffering from hunger in the vicinity of Black Tickle, far in the north of Labrador. Mr. Smallwood said a supply firm has informed him there was adequate food in the area. He was commenting on a report from Port De Grave, on nearby Conception Bay, Friday that near-starvation conditions existed in the isolated district.

India Is Planning A Survey Of The Film Industry

NEW DELHI, April 25 (Reuters)—India, second largest consumer of raw motion-picture film in the world, is planning a survey of its film industry.

The survey will attempt to effect a substantial saving in the dominion's annual consumption of more than 100,000,000 feet of film.

In the 20 years since the government last surveyed the movie industry, film used has increased 800 per cent—and the cost has increased even more than that.

The number of films produced in India has not, however, shown a corresponding increase indicating that films have developed a tendency to become longer.

During the war, the government of India restricted the length of film to a maximum of 11,000 feet.

The restriction was relaxed after the war but now the government proposed to reimpose it in order to conserve valuable exchange resources at present being consumed by large raw film imports.

Imported feature films are also to be limited to 11,000 feet and film "shorts" to 400 feet.

The production of short films in India is also being encouraged under government patronage and documentaries and news films are being produced by government studios.

While the shortcoming of private film production in India and the realization of the importance of the motion picture film as a medium of progress and publicity has brought the government back into the fields as a film producer, the government is determined that the film industry as such shall make its own contribution to the advancement of the country.

Have Babies Same Day

TORONTO, April 25 (CP) — Two sisters, married the same day six years ago and living in the same house, each had a baby Sunday in the same hospital. They were Mrs. Robert Snooden, 25, and Mrs. Harold Pallister, 23. The same doctor attended the sisters, and the births occurred within 20 minutes of each other.

Ontario Bears The Brunt Of Weekend Death Toll

By The Canadian Press

Three persons killed in a level crossing at Perth, three more in an auto-street-car collision in Toronto and three others drowned in the Detroit River off Windsor topped a weekend fatality of 17 in eastern Canada.

A Canadian Press survey showed 11 of the deaths were caused by traffic mishaps; the other seven resulted from drowning. Ontario bore the brunt of the deaths with 13; three dead in Quebec and one in New Brunswick.

The three passengers in a light panel truck which was wrecked near Perth by a Canadian Pacific Railways freight train, were Gordon Chaplin, 27, his wife, Lorna, 25, and their 15-months-old son, Brent, al of Glentay, Ont.

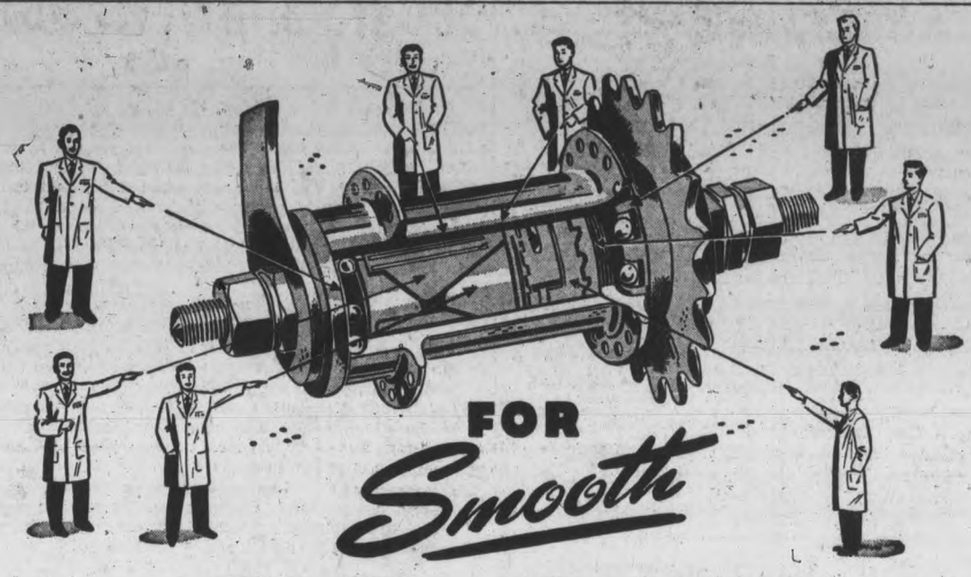
In the Toronto street-car crash, Philip Casimiri and Liguori Doucet, both of Toronto, and Kenneth Planet, whose address was unavailable, were killed. The trolley ripped open the side of the car in which they were riding.

Three Drowned

Three Detroit residents drowned near Windsor in two separate fishing accidents. They were Barry F. Means, 33; Garfield Harris, and Kenneth Rosselt, 37.

In another fishing accident near Montreal, Roch Dore, 35, and Edward Robidoux, both of Montreal, drowned when their boat overturned. Another man, unidentified, fell from a pier on the city waterfront and was drowned.

At Sussex, N.B., Douglas Tidd, 26, of Saint John, was killed when his truck overturned. And near Napanee, Ian MacKinnon, 21, died when an automobile crashed into the railing of a highway bridge.



Eleven-year-old Albert Forsyth was fatally injured near his home at Holyrood, near Walkerton when he was hit by a bus. Albert Challis, 56, of London, Ont., was killed Sunday night in a collision at Woodstock, and James Greaves, 55, died at a Toronto street intersection Saturday when he was hit by a street-car.

COASTER BRAKE

IF YOU will study the above full-sized illustration of a cut-away C.C.M. Coaster brake you can see why it stops and starts the C.C.M. bicycle so quickly and smoothly.

The many parts of this brake are accurately machined, heat-treated and assembled to give long and trouble-free service.

This wonderful brake enables you to ride your C.C.M. bicycle at whatever speed you like — up and down hills and on the level — with perfect control.

When you pedal forward the smooth-acting clutch takes hold instantly — no slipping — no grabbing — just smooth, sure forward power.

Slight back pressure instantly and smoothly reduces your speed and brings you to a quick smooth stop according to the pressure you exert.

The main crank hanger unit and the front hub of a C.C.M. are built with equal precision.

Then, too, the C.C.M. Bicycle has chromium plating over C.C.M. 20-year nickel on all the bright parts with baked-on lustrous enamel on the frame assembly.

These features of the C.C.M. bicycle, backed by over 3000 loyal C.C.M. dealers from coast to coast to give you check-up service, make the C.C.M. the best buy of all — it's the most bicycle for your money. Choose a C.C.M. and join the army of over a million satisfied users.

YOU CAN'T BUY A BETTER MOTOR OIL

Two short words explain the power of Peerless — "It's alloyed." "It's alloyed" to lubricate efficiently in the high compression engines of to-day. "It's alloyed" to improve oil mileage and reduce operating costs. It's a fact that Peerless represents the last word in the scientific production of lubricating oil. These are the reasons why it's easy to understand that—you can't buy a better motor oil.

"It's Alloyed"

"It's been my experience that you'll always find less engine wear when PEERLESS is used regularly," reports A. H. Beavis, B-A dealer at 5th Ave. and 4th St. West, Calgary, Alberta.

"My regular PEERLESS customers seldom complain about engine performance. It certainly makes a difference," states Norman Bradford, B-A dealer at Warncliffe and Essex, London, Ontario.

"You know, you hear a lot about 'lower operating costs' . . . 'improved performance' . . . or 'more power'. Well, when you're talking about the effect of using PEERLESS the words are exactly right," says Andy Levinson, B-A dealer at Burnside and Mansfield, Montreal, Que.

Senators Leading In Finals Wallop Toronto Marlboros

By LORNE BRUCE.

TORONTO, April 25 (CP) — Hockey fans will be surprised if Ottawa Senators fail to retain the Eastern Senior Title with a victory on their own ice tonight.

Senators lead three games to two in the best-of-seven eastern finals after trouncing Toronto Marlboros 7-0 here Saturday night, with two cripples on the ice and another pair of players out of uniform because of injuries.

On their own ice surface, the Quebec champions should win again over Marlboros but anything is possible in the Quebec series.

First Toronto won 5-0. Then Senators won two easily at home 5-2 and 8-2. When the teams returned to Toronto ice, the surprising Marlboros walloped the favored Senators 7-0.

But the fifth game here Saturday was the "clutch" contest and Ottawa came close to humiliating the Ontario champions.

A win tonight for Senators will give them the right to meet Regina Capitals, western champions in the Allan Cup finals opening Thursday on the home ice of the eastern champions.

Saturday coach George Boucher's Senators failed to count in the first 29 minutes against the close-checking Marlboros, making a total of 149 minutes without a goal on Toronto ice.

Then with Toronto a man short, Lude Check finally beat Howie Harvey in the Marlboro nets.

Once Harvey was beaten, the Ottawa team appeared to regain confidence.

Nils Tremblay, centre for Ottawa's pony line, fired three goals, his second hat trick of the series. Check added another, Alex Smart and Emile Dagenais also counted for Ottawa.

CEC. PERDUE, Sports Editor

As the hockey season finished, Jim Buchan came out with a 40-page booklet on the Peterborough Minor Hockey Association. It took a lot of work the last half of the season and couldn't be produced earlier. As it is, it make no money for anyone but is a handsome booklet and possibiy a guide for next season if they start on it early in the utumn. It has 16 group pix of juvenile, midget, bantam and peewee teams, as well as various items of information on the PMHA, lists of officers and a history of the association since its inception in 1944. There were minor teams here before but no organized setup like this.

* * * * * *

The juvenile and midget puck loops in '44 amalgamated with Jack Stuart president, Bev Goulding secretary and Jim Buchan treasurer. Other early workers for the union which affiliated with the OMHA were Dave Leether, Gratton Harris, Sid Craig, Bob Dorrell, Cam Wasson, Joe Blewett, Dave Charlton, Art Pagett and a few more. Various service clubs, Lakefield, PCVS, St. Peter's, Trojans and others practised and played on open air rinks and in Lakefield till they could get a foothold on home terrain this past winter, Dick Ouimet making it a point to see they had two nights a week in Civic Arena. The PMHA future should be bright next season and henceforth after a wobbly start.

PCI-ers Win Again

Pre-tourney favorites to pick up the marbles down Kingston way in the annual Queen's challenge cage tournament, the PCVS seniors didn't disappoint. They came through in finals to win out over Brockville, but it was a tight fit. The Brockville bunch beat the PCI-ers 29-27 to force an extra game. It was a 16-minute melee, and the well-matched squads battled to a 12-all draw to go into overtime ere Don Griffin hooped one of his nifties—they rarely brush the sides of the circle—on a foul shot two minutes later. Second tourney win in four starts for PCVS and they can now take a well-earned rest from basketball till next winter.

Finals for the Badminton Club championship were hard-fought on Saturday e'en in the Market Hall. Ralph Charlton won men's singles from Bud LaBranche, Bob Baker and Vince O'Donoghue took men's doubles over LaBranche and Willard Elmsley, Mr. and Mrs. R. Baker captured mixed doubles from Mr. and Mrs. V. O'Donoghue, Audrey O'Donoghue won ladies' singles against Marg Baker, and this pair teamed up to defeat Helen Mathias and Ruth McKee in ladies' doubles. The consolations saw Jean Vass win ladies' singles, A. Koster and R. Brindle take ladies' doubles, H. Mathias and H. Collingwod win mixed doubles, H. Collingwood capture men's singles, and R. Johnston and D. McNaught win men's doubles. Thus endeth a good year for the badmintoneers.

Marvel Minus Mask

The unmasked Marvel—Lew Reynheer — has been matched in the main pro mat bout at the Brock this Wednesday night against Ray Villmer, the Missouri buzz-saw, who made such a hit here in his two tilts with Sliding Billy Hanson. He will be spotting the unhooded husky some poundage but is faster, tricky and ringwise, so it should be quite a scrap all the way. Ben Sharpe, his broken arm mended, goes in the semi-final against towering Hi Lee, and that'll be a battle of giants. No doubt, the bobby-soxers will be out in force as they go for the handsome Sharpe brothers. Pat Flanagan tackles one Bill Greathead, who has a great body, too, in the prelim. Sounds like a right lively grapple card.

Ken Kingston of Peterborough was elected to the OLA executive at the annual meeting Saturday in Toronto. Mel Whyte of Oshawa also made it. The new prexy is Jim McLeod of Owen Sound, while Charles Rowan of Mimico succeeds Gene Dopp, who retires as secretary-treasurer after [illegible] prominent lacrosse official all those years, through feast and famine in the gutted-stick game. The association has cash assets on hand of $7,845.51. After quite an argument, the convention turned down the amendment to make senior "A" players free agents between seasons, so those suspensions—hitting St. Kitts and Hamilton—still stand.

Holdout Joe DiMaggio surrendered unconditionally to the late Col. Jacob Ruppert, New York Yankees owner, 11 years ago today, signing a $25,000 contract when Ruppert told him to go ahead and sign it." The Yankees will pay DiMaggio $90,000 for his services this season—healed heel or not.

Ken Kingston On OLA Executive

TORONTO, April 25 (CP) — A move to make Ontario senior lacrosse players free agents at the end of each season, was quashed after a stormy debate at the annul meeting of the Ontario Lacrosse Association here Saturday.

The move, in the form of an amendment to the OLA constitution was proposed by Dan Millar, secretary of the St. Catharines Athletics, and caused considerable discussion before being defeated by a close vote.

It stemmed from the one-season suspensions of Stu Scott, Bill Nelson, Jim McMahon and Roy Morton of the St. Catharines Athletics, Bill Evans and Jack Hogan of Hamilton Tigers, and George Cleverly, former coach of the St. Catharines club. They were suspended for playing several games in Rochester, N. Y., during the winter without OLA sanction.

James McLeod of Owen Sound was chosen to head the OLA for the coming season, succeeding Fred Sanford of Mimico.

Other officers elected: first vice-president, Geoffrey Hipkin Brampton, second vice-president, A. E. Brown, St. Catharines; third Vice-president, Jack Worthy, Brampton; secretary-treasurer, Charles Rowan, Mimico; assistant secretary, E. C. McDermott, Toronto; executive, Frank Bayne, Weston, Ken Kingston, Peterborough, Mel Whyte, Oshawa, W. Catell, Dundas, M. J. Chilton, Sarnia.

Church Loop Victors Honored By Mark St.

Players of the midget and bantam Mark St. champion hockey teams—and the players' fathers—of the Church Hockey League were guests at a banquet in the Sunday School hall on Friday, the ladies of the church making the arrangements.

Carlysle Ferguson acted as chairman, with the Rev. Morton saying Grace. President Ted Naish of the Church Association presented the cups and crests to the team captains, Clare Ferguson of the bantams, and Bob Gandy of the midgets, Al Beavis being coach. Ed Bentley led in a singsong accompanied by Mrs. DeNure at the piano.

E. DeNure, chairman of the Board of Deacons, and Coach Alf Townsend, presented sweaters to the bantams, donated by the church. They also keep the Kiwanis Club Cup. The Rev. Rowland, pastor the first year the bantams won the title, was the speaker. They captured the trophy three years.

WITHOUT MASK — The Masked Marvel will wrestle here Wednesday night at the Brock Arena for the first time without his mask and many fans will be eager to get a real look at his long-covered face, pictured above with the Mask. He will meet Rapid-Ray Villmer who fought to a thrilling one-hour draw with Sliding Billy Hanson here last week and won over Fred Atkins in Toronto Friday night. Villmer is a terrific wrestler and his bout with the Marvel should result in one of those wide-open affrays the fans like so well.

Ben Sharpe who has been out of action for two months with a broken arm has been rematched with the man who did the damage Sky-Hi Lee. Pat Flanagan will meet Bill Greathead, a 260-pounder in the third bout.

Regina Enters Cup Finals, WesternChamps

By ERWIN FRICKE.

REGINA, April 25— (CP). — Regina Capitals, sporting new blue blazers and grey flannels, left by train early to-day for Eastern Canada and the Allan Cup final. They will meet the winner of the Ottawa Senators-Toronto Marlboros best-of-seven series which Ottawa leads 3-2.

The senior hockey final gets under way April 28. Caps won the Western Canada title Saturday night from Fort Francis Canadians with a 5-0 victory in the deciding game of the best-of-five Allan Cup semi-final.

Caps allowed no repetition of the free-scoring in the deciding tilt. Caps went into a 1-0 lead in the first period, added two more in the second, and salted away two more markers in the final period.

Ab McDougall, Caps' fleetest skater and their highest scorer during the season, fashioned two goals. Defenceman Vic Myles, Mel Hill and Chuck McCullough got the others.

Dave (Sweeney) Schriner, one of the four National Hockey League players with Caps, said: "If we keep on skating like we did we will be tough for the East to beat."

Gardner Signs For Leafs

TORONTO, April 25 —(CP)— Cal Gardner of Winnipeg, centre of the world champion Toronto Maple Leafs, signed his 1949-50 National Hockey League contract Saturday shortly before leaving for New York for a holiday with his parents. He was the seventh Leaf to sign for next season, others being Max Bentley, Garth Boesch, Vic Lynn, Ted Kennedy, Howie Meeker and Joe Klukay.

Golds Win Crown

TORONTO, April 25 (CP) — Cornwall Golds won the Canadian girls' intermediate basketball championship Saturday night although they dropped a 29-24 decision to Toronto Montgomery Debs in the second game of a total-point two-game series. Cornwall held a six-point lead after their 22-16 victory here Friday night and won the round 46-45.

Indian Cricketer Dies

BOMBAY, India (CP). — The well-known Indian cricketer, D. D. Hindlekar, died here recently. He toured England with the Indian team both in 1936 and 1946. His highest score of 135 was in 1936.

A. O'Donoghue, R. Charlton Take Badminton Club Titles

Audrey O'Donoghue captured the ladies' singles title of the Peterborough Badminton Club for the first time on Saturday as club finals were staged in keenly contested matches. She defeated Marg Baker in three games, and she and Marg teamed up to take the ladies doubles in two straight. Mr. and Mrs. Bob Baker won the mixed doubles, while Ralph Charlton won the men's singles championship, and Bob Baker and Vince O'Donoghue defended their men's doubles crown successfully.

Following play, the annual meeting was held under Jack Watts, who reported on the year's activities. L. H. Collingwood presented the treasurer's report, and these officers were elected to the executive. Ed Johnson, Ralph Charlton, H. Collingwood, Bob Baker, Vince O'Donoghue, Helen Mathias and Ruth Aiken, Maurice Charlton and Audrey O'Donoghue were thanked for their fine work as social conveners. Grant Henry refereed the matches, aided by R. Charlton, R. McDonald and V. O'Donoghue.

R. Charlton took the men's singles finals from the defending champion, Bud LaBranche, in three, 15-13, 9-15 and 15-11. A. O'Donoghue won the ladies singles from M. Baker 11-6, 2-11 and 11-5 R. Baker and V. O'Donoghue defeated B. LaBranche and W. Elmsley in men's doubles, 17-16, 6-15, 15-10. M. Baker and A. O'Donoghue won ladies doubles over H. Mathias and R. McKee, 15-6, 15-3. In the mixed Mr. and Mrs. R. Baker were successful over Mr. and Mrs. V. O'Donoghue, 15-5, 7-15 and 18-13.

In the consolation events, J. Vass won ladies singles from E. McDonald 11-3, 11-2. H. Collingwood took men's singles from R. Johnson 15-4, 18-13. A. Koster and R. Brindle defeated N. Elson and H. Watson in ladies doubles, 15-10, 15-17 and 18-11. In men's doubles, R. Johnson and D. McNaught turned back A. Conlin and J. Downie, 15-8 and 18-16. Mixed doubles went to H. Mathias and H. Collingwood over J. Vass and R. Beals, 15-10, 15-9. Following the games, lunch was served by Mrs. R. Charlton and Mrs. V. O'Donoghue.

Chicago Captures Twin Bill Athletics Nip Senators 8-3

By JOE REICHLER
Associate Press Sports Writer

"Dear Mr. Undertaker: Kindly hold off on those flowers. It seems that a grave error has been made. The patient is far from dead."

The patient could be Chicago White Sox, the club that was doomed by the experts to die of loneliness in the dreary confines of the American League basement.

Apparently the White Sox have different ideas on the subject. Judging from to-day's standings the Sox are very much alive.

The end of the first week of play finds the White Sox tied with Philadelphia Athletics for second place, only a half game behind the fast-moving New York Yankees. They have won five and lost two, all their victories coming in a row.

Splendid pitching by Bill Wight and Randy Gumpert Sunday enabled the White Sox to whip St. Louis Browns twice, 2-1 and 4-0. Wight needed the help of some fine relief pitching by Matt Surkont and a two-run ninth inning rally. Gumpert's performance was more gilt-edged —he permitted only three singles.

Nip Senators 8-3

Philadelphia's Athletics continued to fatten up at the expense of Washington pitchers, combing Sid Hudson and two relievers for 12 hits to whip the Senators 8-3. It marked the sixth straight loss for Senators. Lou Brissie went the distance for the second time in a row. Ferris Fain's double with two on, and Sam Chapman's two-run triple, highlighted a four-run seventh inning for the winners.

Boston Red Sox continued to flounder around, dropping their fourth game in six starts, when the Yankees came from behind to defeat them 9-4. Trailing 4-0, the Yankees scored six runs in the eighth, and added three more in the ninth to salt away their fifth triumph against only one loss. Joe Dobson was the victim. The big blow of the six-run inning was Gene Woodling's home run with two on.

Brooklyn's scrappy Dodgers retained their first-place half-game margin in the National League race, splitting a double-header with the Phillies in Philadelphia. The Phils won the opener 7-4, and the Dodgers took the second 6-5. Home runs by Richie Ashburn, Stan Lopata, and Eddie Miller highlighted the Phils' victory. In the nightcap Jack Banta relieved Ralph Branca in the seventh, and halted a Philly uprising.

Cincinnati Reds fell into a second place tie with New York Giants when they divided a twin bill with the Pirates in Pittsburg. The Reds won the first game 3-2 in 10 innings with Charley Kress singling home Johnny Wyrostek with the winning run. Eddie Bockman drove in all Pittsburg's runs with a pair of home runs in the Pirates' 3-1 second-game victory.

Sheldon Jones went all the way, scattering seven hits, as the Giants defeated Boston Braves 6-2. Bobby Thomson provided the winning margin in the first inning with a three-run homer off Vern Bickford.

Joe Garagiola singled home Enos Slaughter with the run that gave St. Louis Cardinals a 5-4 ninth-inning triumph over Chicago Cubs.

The scheduled game between Cleveland and Detroit was postponed by rain.

Brandon Whips Calgary 4-1

By AL VICKERY

BRANDON, Man., April 25 — (CP)—For the first time in this wheat city's history, it has a team in the Canadian Junior hockey finals.

Brandon Wheat Kings ended the dearth Saturday night with a 4-1 victory here over Calgary Buffaloes which gave them the best-of-seven Western final four games to one.

The Wheaties now will meet Montreal Royals, Eastern champions, for the Memorial Cup in a best-of-seven series opening in Winnipeg Thursday.

In winning Saturday's game to take the western crown, Brandon took a 2-0 lead in the first period, added two more goals without a reply in the middle session, then held Calgary to one goal in the final frame.

The Wheat Kings goals were divided evenly among Walt Pawlyshyn, Reg Abbott, Zob Chrystal and Mac Beaton. Calgary's lone counter went to Sid Finney, the slim centreman who sparked the Buffs throughout the series.

Down four goals, Calgary in the last session threw every man up in an effort to break through the tight Brandon defence. Their only goal came less than two minutes of the start of the period when Finney slapped Bob McDonald's passout from behind the Brandon net into the top corner.

Montreal Drops Doubleheader To Newark Bears

By the Associated Press

Montreal Royals thrived on doubleheaders in winning the International League pennant last year but they're off to a bad start if they plan to follow that method this season.

Sunday the Royals played their first doubleheader of the season and dropped both games to Newark Bears, 3-1 and 6-5.

Billy Woop bested Omar Lown in a mound duel in the opener, yielding four hits, the same number given up by Lown. The Bears won the game in the seventh inning, scoring twice on a walk, Fenton Mole's triple and a wild pitch. The Bears staged a three-run last-inning rally to win the nightcap.

Jersey City Giants also won two games from Buffalo Bisons 5-4 and 5-3. The Giants won the first game in 10 innings when Pete Pavlick's pop fly fell safely for a hit which enabled Monte Irvin to score from second: Irvin and teammate Felix Mackliewicz homered as did Coaker Triplett for Buffalo.

Some smart relief pitching by Roger Bowman held the hard-hitting Bisons at bay in the second game.

Split Games

Rochester Red Wings and Syracuse Chiefs split a pair of 10-inning games. The Wings took the opener 7-4 and the Chiefs the final 4-3. Five straight singles off Mike Schultz turned the tide for the Red Wings in the first game. Carden Gillenwater, former Red Wing, broke up the second extra-inning game with a bases-loaded single.

Baltimore and Toronto Maple Leafs also divided a pair of games, the Leafs taking the opener 8-5 and the Orioles the night cap 9-5.

Al Widmar, tagged with the defeat in the first game, came back and pitched four innings of relief ball in the second and was credited with the victory.

Parish Visited By Archbishop

MARMORA, April 25.—(ENS).—Most Rev. John Lyons, D.D., Archbishop og Ontario, paid his official visit to the Anglican parish of Marmora on Sunday. He read the lessons and was the preacher at morning prayer in St. Paul's church, the rector, Rural Dean Rev. J. M. Brownlie conducting the service.

Archbishop Lyons took for his text, "Lo I am with you always, even unto the end of the world." He pointed out that we are living in a changed age. Two world wars within the past fifty years changed the world's outlook on life. Economically and otherwise the world has been undergoing a distinct change.

There has also been a marked change in the outlook upon the inner life, saaid His Grace. Those who minimize the essential value of faith have been outspoken. It is pure humanism which fails to relate Christianity and light. Some would thing of social service alone as the essence and epitome of Christianity, whereas psychology and theology alike point to us the value of the inner life. It has been said "as a man thinketh in his heart so is he" and it might be added, "so does he." The changes of today, however great they appear to be, are not to be compared with the change which took place in the world with the resurrection of Christ. That was the corner stone of the apostles' with and of our faith today. The salvation of the world is not through technology or by education, as some have asserted, but by the only Saviour of the world."

In the afternoon the Archbishop held a confirmation at St. aMrk's church, Bonarlaw, at which candidate from both churches were presented, numbering fifteen in all. Sr. Mark's choir was augmented by members of St. Paul's choir.

The Archbishop at both services expressed his appreciation of the messages of congratulation sent to him on his elevation to the post of Metropolitan of the Ecclesiastical Province of Ontario.

It's been a busy year! . . .

This week many thousands of Canadians will be reading the story told in Imperial Oil's annual report. It is a story of how, to meet your needs, Imperial last year found more crude oil, produced more crude, transported, refined, distributed and marketed more oil and products than ever before.

To do this we had to spend a lot of money. We sent men ranging over thousands of square miles in the search for new oil fields—and we found new oil. We built new ships . . . new pipe lines . . . new refining units . . . new marketing facilities . . . and a host of other things. Again last year we spent more money than we earned, but it was an investment in Canada's future as well as our own.

We raised most of the money we needed by borrowing and by selling some of our major investments; the rest was earnings put back into the business after paying dividends.

On the year's business we made a profit of less than a cent a gallon on products sold. This amounted to 4 and 9/10ths cents out of each sales dollar we received.

It was a busy, successful, interesting year. When it began we were sometimes hard pressed to meet all your needs; when it ended supplies were assured. It saw new oil discovered, making Canada less dependent on foreign supplies; new equipment added, helping to serve Canadians better with the products they need.

Bringing you oil is a big job—and a costly one.

If you're interested in facts . . .

1948 set new records in all phases of Imperial Oil's operations.

If the wells drilled by the company to find and produce oil in Canada during 1948 were placed end to end they would total 163 miles.

Five large tankers were added to the company's fleets; the Leduc pipe line was extended to Edmonton, and plans progressed for a pipe line from Edmonton to Regina; 4,711 tank cars moved more than 150,000 car loads of crude oil and products.

Imperial's eight refineries processed an average of 135,027 barrels per day, a new record.

Sales totalled 1,819,000,000 gallons. On its operations the company earned $16,873,163—a profit of 93/100 of a cent per gallon for each of the 1,819,000,000 gallons sold. From its investments the company earned $5,958,907.

Toronto Goes Drama-Mad For Festival

By KAY REX.

TORONTO, April 25 (CP) — From coast-to-coast, by plane bus and automobile, actors and actresses are piling into this Ontario capital for what is expected to be one of the largest competitions in the 16-year history of the Dominion Drama Festival.

The programs to be presented to theatre-goers at the Royal Alexandra Theatre for the opening of this week-long stage show, list 12 plays for the three matinees and six night performances.

But that is only half the "program" story.

From now until Saturday, the person really serious about this drama business could keep up a steady pace from early morning until Adjudicator Philip Hope-Wallace, delivers his final remarks at the end of each evening's performance.

Costume Exhibition

An exhibition of "theatre costume through the ages," was opened today in a downtown department store by Mr. Hope-Wallace and Mayor H. E. McCallum of Toronto.

Another exhibition "theatre design in Quebec" was opened at the Toronto Art Gallery by the Rt. Hon Vincent Massey, President of the Festival.

The latter contains the stage setting for "La Belle Au Bois" (Beauty and the Beast), produced by Le Caveau of Ottawa, at the Eastern Ontario French-language Regional Festival. The play did not make the final Festival, but the design won for its artist, George Ayotte of Ottawa, a prize for the best visual presentation at the regional.

Tomorrow, the first Canadian Theatre Conference opens under the chairmanship of Charles Rittenhouse of Montreal.

Co-Op Manager, 75 Stricken In Toronto

TORONTO, April 25—General Manager of the United Farmers' Co-operative Co. Ltd., for 25 years, Howard B. Clemes died Sunday at his home, 80 Crescent Rd., after a brief illness. He was in his 76th year.

Mr. Clemes retired from active management of the company in 1945, but continued in an advisory capacity. He was born at Port Hope, where he received his education. For a time Mr. Clemes was with Flavelle's Ltd. in Lindsay, and came to Toronto in 1912 as manager of Gunn's Ltd. He resigned this position to take over the management of the United Farmers' Co-operative Co.

Mr. Clemes was a member of the Toronto Board of Trade, on which he had served as an executive. He was also a member of Fidelity Lodge, AF & AM, the Scottish Rite and Rameses Shrine, and Rosedale Presbyterian Church. He was formerly associated with the Granite Club and was a past president of the Canadian Lacrosse Association. He was organizer of the Tecumseh lacrosse team. Mr. Clemes was an ardent fisherman and maintained a summer home at Williams Point, Lake Scugog.

He leaves his wife, Louise Carnegie Clemes, and two sons, Jack C. and Howard L. Clemes both of Toronto.

New Committee On Radio Job For Parliament Soon

OTTAWA, April 25—(CP).—One of the tasks facing the Commons as it reconvenes after the Easter recess is the establishment of a parliamentary committee on radio. A resolution providing for the committee has been on the order paper for some weeks, but members did not find time to deal with it prior to the recess.

The resolution will open the way for a lengthy debate on radio and television in the Commons.

Under the policy, announced March 28, the publicly-owned CBC was given the nod to develop television, starting in Montreal and Toronto. Private stations were told that, for the time being, they would not be given more than one channel in any city or area. Conservatives are expected to criticize policy.

Donald Fleming (CP—Toronto Eglinton) asked that the Commons committee be re-establish so members could study the CBC's activities. He frequently has urged that an independent body other than the CBC be established to control all radio matters in Canada.

Mr. Fleming has supported those who argue that the CBC competes with the private stations and at the same time has the power to tell private stations what they may and may not do.

The operation of radio and television also will be studied by the Royal Commision on Arts, culture and sciences under the chairmanship of Rt. Hon. Vincent Massey. The commision is expected to start to work in the not too distant future.

Budget

The Commons is expected to resume the budget debate when it returns to its legislative tasks following the two-weeks Easter recess.

This is the debate in which members may speak on any subject they wish and, with a general election in the offing, many are likely to direct their speeches making towards the winning of votes and public support for their party.

As it resumes the debate, which was opend briefly before the recess was taken, the chamber will have before it two motions of non-confidence in the government. They were moved by the Progressive Conservative and C.C.F. parties.

Philip's Antics Keeping London Guessing

LONDON, April 25 (CP) — More stories are being told about the Duke of Edinburgh just now than about any two other members of the Royal family put together.

He has in effect succeeded to the place held in earlier years by the Duke of Windsor when he was Prince of Wales.

A popular anecdote about Prince Philip is that soon after Prince Charles was born a friend said "he's the image of his father."

"I know," Philip answered, "but don't worry, he may grow out of it."

Staid butlers and footmen at Buckingham Palace are used to Philip now, but they had a few shocks when he first went to live there. Philip was in the habit of running around corridors and mounting stairs two at a time.

The Duke has few inhibitions about his royal rank. If the phone rings in an office and he is there, he will invariably answer it himself. He did this once when a newspaperman called for further details of a car crash in which the Duke was involved. Philip gave him all the details without revealing his identity and was subsequently quoted as a "Buckingham Palace official."

One thing Philip enjoys is to stroll about London streets unrecognized.

Baffles Police

Sometimes he baffles police by driving himself to Clarence House —his future home—in a small green auto belonging to his equerry. At the Royal Automobile Club, where he has been a member for years, he often walks in unheralded for a swim or a game of squash.

The first time Philip accepted an invitation involving a public speech he was horrified to learn that palace officials expected it to be based on his own notes but actually written by somebody else.

This began an argument—but Philip had his own way. Nowadays he speaks directly from his own notes, but is grateful for basic facts supplied by the Buckingham Palace staff.

One exception will be the speech Philip will make at the University of Wales at Bangor next Thursday when he is installed as Chancellor. His speech on this occasion will be written in advance.

Woman Fought Japanese, Now Red Leader

By GEORGE LU

TAIPEI, Formosa, April 25. — (AP)—A 49-year-old woman who fought the Japanese rulers of Formosa as an underground worker is recognized as the Communist leader of this big island province of China.

She is Hisies-Hung, a native of southern Formosa.

Here is her background, as well as it can be pieced together:

She was born in poverty, was hired out by her father at 12 to serve as a maid. At 19 she was sold into concubinage by her stepmother.

At 21, Miss Hsieh joined the leftist Taiwan Culture Association. In 1925 she went to Shanghai and there joined the Chinese Communist party. She went to Russia and attended Moscow Labor University.

In 1927 she slipped back into Formosa, and joined the Japanese Communist party as an underground worker against the overlords from Japan.

Arrested Three Times

She was arrested three times. She was given a 13-year prison sentence in 1931. In 1939 she was released because of bad health.

At the end of the war in 1945 she organized the People's Association and the Farmers' Union.

Authorities say these two organizations took part in the bloody uprising in Formosa against Chinese government rule in February 1947.

Communist infiltration is considered a major problem by Chinese authorities. However, long-time residents of Formosa doubt if there is any formidable number of Reds here now.

If there are, their activities are limited to the distribution of secret literature.

Old residents say there are two reasons why Communism isn't making much headway in this island, which the government intends to convert into a fortress against the Communist tide on China's mainland.

1. Formosans were taught hatred of Communism under Japanese rule.

2. Formosa, as compared to the mainland of China, is more stable economically. The standard of living is higher and farmers more prosperous.

Therefore, the people are less susceptible to the Communist line.

Welcome Expert In Drama Work

TORONTO, April 25 (CP) — The British journalist who will play the role of adjudicator at the Dominion Drama Festival, met the press Sunday.

"I'm very glad to be here," said Philip Hope-Wallace, at a reception the DDF chairman, D. Park Jamieson of Sarnia gave in his honor.

He added: "but then I know I shall be saying that many times during the coming week."

This is the first trip to Canada for Mr. Hope-Wallace, drama critic for the Manchester Guardian. And he has an open mind as far as Canadian theatre is concerned.

"I always think you shouldn't take anyone else's word, but rather that you should find out for yourself," he said when asked at an earlier interview whether he had formed any opinions of this country's theatre movement from the observations of others.

The three French-language groups taking part in the week of plays also may look to an adjudicator who is an equally adept in French as he is in English. Mr. Hope-Wallace said he would give his criticism of the French plays in that language.

ENGINEER RISKS LIFE TO HALT RUNAWAY TRAIN

1. The Toronto-Vancouver train was speeding through a desolate part of Northern Ontario. Everything was normal until a pipe uncoupled in the cab.

2. Suddenly the cab was filled with live, scalding steam. Their hands badly burned, both engineer and fireman were forced to crawl out the windows.

3. Finally bringing the runaway express to a halt, Ryan fell exhausted in the snow. None of the passengers realized how close to disaster they had come.

Americans Find Way To Beat 15% Travel Tax

By JACK R. RYAN.

NEW YORK, April 25 (AP)—Americans have discovered they can beat the 15-per-cent travel tax by buying their airlines tickets mail-order fashion from Canada. And the mailed-ticket business is booming.

The bargain "gimmick" was created March 23 when Canada lifted its 15 per cent tax on travel. That tax still is in effect in the United States.

But tickets between any two places in the world served by regular airlines can be purchased in Canada, without restrictions as to the departure point.

Thus, a New Yorker wishing to fly to Los Angeles, for example, can write a ticket agent in Canada and pay $299.92 for a round-trip ticket which in the United States would cost about $44.94 more because of the tax, airlines spokesmen said.

The situation on train tickets is somewhat different, because the railroads have agreed to sell tax-free tickets only on trips originating in Canada, a spokesman for the New York Central Railroad said.

However, since the railroads do issue tickets for the entire trip from the Canadian point to any place in the United States, via connecting lines, persons living near the border can effect savings by crossing to Canada for their tickets.

Detroiters by the hundreds are reported to have crossed the Detroit river to Windsor, on a 10-cent bus fare to save 15 per cent on plane, train or bus line tickets to places all over the United States.

FRIENDLY VISIT—Prime Minister St. Laurent and his wife took time out during their brief visit to Brandon, Man., on their Western Canadian tour to visit Mr. and Mrs. Charles Durant, 93-year-old couple who recently celebrated their 72nd wedding anniversary.

Accept Safeguards

NEW YORK, April 25 (AP) — President Chaim Weizmann of Israel said Saturday his country stood ready to accept the "fullest international safeguards" for immunity and protection of Jerusalem's holy places. He declared that the Jewish state is conscious of the international interest in the safety of the holy places and the right of free access to them.

Tourist Queries In Abundance Resorts Compete

Requests for information on the vacation area around Peterborough are increasing with every mail, James Fraser, manager of the Chamber of Commerce reports. Most of the inquiries are from the state of Ohio. The rest are chiefly from New York state, Pennsylvania and Michigan.

Judging by the kind of information desired by the probable tourists, Mr. Fraser said the trend this year seems to be for cottages. These tourists want cottages usually for two weeks whereee they can do their own housekeeping.

One letter received from a man in Buffalo, New York. He was told to write the Chamber of Commerce by a tourist last summer. The writer says:

"I am getting married this June 25 and my fiancee and I would like to have a cottage on some lake for our honeymoon. We would like to have one where we could do our own cooking."

"Would you please send me information on something in the Peterborough area. We would like to be there Sunday, June 26, to July 5."

A letter of another type is from the tourist of last summer. They usually wish for other names of people who have cottages. Being here once they are able to describe better the type of lake, cottage and beach they wish.

Lists of Enquiries

Each day long enquiry lists from people desiring knowledge of special vacation areas in Ontario arrive from the Ontario Department of Travel and Publicity. Since January 1 there has been a list nearly every day. On each list there are about 100 to 150 inquiries.

Not all the inquiries are about the Kawartha area. But on each list there are inquiries for this area. They vary from eight to 12 per list.

Lists from the Canadian Government Travel Bureau now number 115. Sometimes two lists a day reach the Chamber of Commerce. These lists have inquiries pertaining to the whole of Canada.

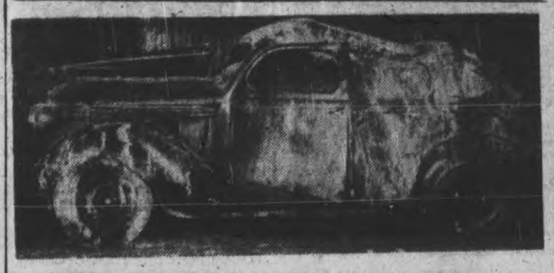
All inquiries whether on the lists sent from the government departments or coming direct to the Chamber of Commerce are answered by the Chamber of Commerce. Along with the desired information, a copy of the Peterborough Vacation Issue is sent.

Inquiries are also passed on to the resort operators who are members of the Chamber of Commerce. They, in turn, send a letter and pamphlet to intending visitors whom they would like to have come to their resort.

Competition for Tourist Dollars

"Never before has there been so much competition for the tourist dollar," said Mr. Fraser. He illustrated his statement by taking names of countries advertising in the New York Times International Travel Section. Here all the countries of Europe, other states like Israel, Haiti, all the states of the United States, Mexico and other Latin countries had advertisements urging tourists to visit their countries. Besides these countries, he said, all the provinces are competing against each other.

"Only through the united effort of resort owners and retailers in advertising the Kawartha area, can we hope to keep the tourists coming here," Mr. Fraser said.



FIGHT ON STREET

Saturday night's entertainment on George St. featured two fights. In one fight just north of Hunter St. on George St. one of the participants received a deep cut under his right eyebrow. A city policeman stopped the fight in short order. The second fight was at the corner of Charlotte and George streets. Friends broke this fight up.

NEAR FATAL CRASH—Pictured above is the badly battered car from which Marshall Dunston of Trenton and Miss Leona Partridge of Frankford emerged only slightly injured after it left No. 7 Highway at Indian River Saturday afternoon and landed right side up in over 3 feet of water. The car occupants had a miraculous escape from drowning or serious injuries.

Car Turns Over Twice, Lands On Wheels In Indian River

their lives and suffered only slight injuries when the car in which they were riding left No. 7 Highway at Indian River shortly after five o'clock on Saturday afternoon, turned over twice and landed on its wheels in the river. The lucky motorists are Marshall Dunston, civilian employee of the Trenton airport, and Miss Leona Partridge, of Frankford. Dunston suffered only bruises and shock, while Miss Partridge received a fractured wrist.

The victims were rushed to the Peterborough Civic Hospital, but, after receiving treatment, were released a few hours after their admission.

Occupants Able to Get Out

For some as yet unknown reason, the car with Dunston at the wheel, ran off the road, jumped the ditch and landed right side up in 3½ feet of water. George Nurse, who was in a store near the scene of the accident, rushed out after hearing the scream of car brakes. By the time he reached the car, however, the occupants had managed to climb out of the car themselves, although in a somewhat dazed condition.

The victims' escape from death or serious injury is considerable in view of the terrific damage sustained by the car, which was badly batte[illegible] on the front end, top, and one side. It is also a miracle that they were not drowned, as might easily have been the case if the car had landed in the river upside down.

Provincial Police, Peterborough were notified of the accident by Mrs. A. Fife, who also phoned for Nisbeth's ambulance, which was on the scene quickly. The accident was investigated by Provincial Constables E. J. Crough and H. E. Bonisteel. The car was travelling west at the time of the accident, which occurred at a point about nine miles from Peterborough, on a curve in the road. Damage to the car was estimated at in the vicinity of $700.

Visitors to the scene of the accident noted that the left rear tire was blown out, but whether or not this was the cause of the accident has not yet been definitely established.

Chamber Plans Resort Section

With the purpose of forming a strong group who could make demands on the Ontario Department of Lands and Forests the local Chamber of Commerce is building up a Resort Operators' Section. The group could speak for the good of the American and Canadian tourist trade in the Kawartha area.

Early in May the Chamber of Commerce is holding a meeting of resort owners, whether members or not of the Chamber of Commerce. Speakers and films will be shown on the operation of resorts. Subjects to be discussed are kitchen and dining room management and sanitation in the resorts.

In the Peterborough area there are 64 hotel resorts and 133 cabin resorts. In the whole of the county there are 125 hotel resorts, holding 4,500 tourists per night, and 220 cabin resorts holding 5,500 guests per night.

Spring Garden Above Ground

Mrs. Joseph Hamilton of Stony Lake, the occasional correspondent to the Examiner who is plainly convinced that the county and Dummer councils should give more attention and work in the improvement of her township's roads, is an ardent and early home gardener.

At the weekend the Hamilton garden, planted March 22, was displaying lettuce, spinach, with four leaves above the ground, radish, cabbage, cauliflower, broccoli, brussels sprout and carrots. Garlic and onions have been worked with the hoe twice, and 24 rows of peas have already been hoed.

Mrs. Hamilton said she set out celery plants three years ago in a trench, "and every year we use it for salad, soups, etc., and leave the plants in the ground. For three years we have enjoyed seeing those old plants rise above the ground before any other plants, and this spring it is showing again, soon ready to use. I have also used rhubarb out of the garden, and it is ready to cut again."

"Gardening is one of my many hobbies, and I hope my results may induce others to realize that snow or cold weather has never harmed my early garden. They could get their gardens planted in time to get the effects of early spring rains. This is not intended for boasting but for boosting. Why not grow your own leafy vegetables? And get the benefit of planting a garden and growing your own vegetables."

Chest X-Ray Survey Starts

City and County survey by the division of Tuberculosis Prevention, Ontario Department of Health, commenced here today with the large white truck being set up on Hunter St. opposite The Examiner. At noon the truck moved off to the Canadian General Electric Company where two units will operate until the 4,000-odd employees are X-rayed.

During the morning the employees of the Examiner and CH EX were X-rayed in rapid order along with students of the Business College and many other employees in business area. On being X-rayed each person is given a card with a number on it and is also advised that if a report is not received within several weeks of the completion of the survey it can be taken for granted that the chest X-ray film is normal. Reports are only made on abnormal condition.

Ronald E. Stinson Buried In Lindsay

Funeral service for the late Ronald E. Stinson, 32, of 352 Gordon St., was held last Wednesday at the Anderson Funeral Home, Lindsay. The Rev. H. G. Douglas of Knox United Church officiated and pallbearers were Nelson Harrison, Harold Barton, Orville Lunn, Horace Heaslip, Norman Shea, and Newton Armstrong. Burial was at Riverside Cemetery, Lindsay.

Mr. Stinson died at his home last Monday following an illness of several months' duration. He was born in Manvers township, son of Mr. and Mrs. Everett Stinson, and had worked in the CGE from 1943 until 1948. Previous to that he was in the RCAF and was discharged due to ill health. He went to Toronto General Hospital in July 1948.

Besides his parents he leaves his wife, the former Myrtle Staples and two children, Ralph, 4, and Janice, aged 3 years. There are two sisters, Mrs. Murray Finnie (Marion) of Omemee and Bernice and four brothers, Howard, Gerald, Douglas and Ray, all of Peterborough. A sister, Mrs. John Jacket (Muriel) and a brother, Kenneth, predeceased him.

Youth Sentenced To 8 Months, Solve Break-ins

Mystery surrounding a wave of break-ins at summer cottages on Pigeon Lake earlier this month has been solved by Peterborough headquarters of the Provincial Police. Saturday, Burwell Taylor of Curve Lake Indian Reserve was sent to Ontario Reformatory for eight months definite and four months indefinite after pleading guilty at city police court to six charges of breaking into cottages and stealing a number of articles.

Constable Archie Grayling and Constable Bob Hanson have been making investigations since the beginning of the month.

Constable Hanson told Magistrate W. R. Philp K.C., that Sidney Black notified police headquarters on April 2 that his cottage had been entered and a number of items were missing. It was found that several other cottages owned by people living in distant parts of Canada and the United States had been broken into and many articles of clothing and household effects were missing.

Police spent many hours at the lake and eventually found the stolen articles at Taylor's home.

Returns Articles

The constable produced in court a long statement made by Taylor in which were listed a variety of articles he admitted having stolen. In favour of the accused Constable Hanson said Taylor returned a lawn mower, two electric motors, rubber boots, a wheelbarrow and tools and machinery to Mr. Black's cottage the evening after he had been visited by the police.

Other articles which Taylor pleaded guilty to stealing were a lady's play suit, wool suit, raincoat, two pairs of shorts and a beige coat from S. E. Tuff; a brown coat sweater, two shirts, two windbreakers, a brown suit and a clock from W. E. Ferver.

Other charges were of breaking and entering and commtting theft in cottages owned by E. W. Watson, Horace Shearer and Jas. Heffernan.

Taylor appealed for leniency saying that he had worked for a florist near Toronto until he returned home at the beginning of the year for his wife's confinement. He had been unemployed for three months but had intended returning to the florist in March. Constable Hanson said he had been co-operative with the police. It was his first conviction.

Legion Chooses Zone Head

Cyril Hopkins of Lakefield, Branch 77 of the Canadian Legion, on Sunday was elected Zone Commander at the bi-annual zone rally. He succeeds Arthur Wagstaff of Peterborough.

The zone includes two Legion branches from Peterborough, and others from Havelock, Norwood, Hastings, Bancroft, Lakefield, Millbrook and Apsley. He will take office after the Provincial Convention in August at Ottawa.

Six delegates were nominated for the post, but four declined thus forcing an election, a two-way contest between Zone Commander Wagstaff and Mr. Hopkins.

Obituaries

MRS. W. W. W. DEAN

Mrs. W. W. W. Dean, Queen St., Lakefield, died in hospital Sunday. She was the former Jean Nicol Hope, daughter of the late Mr. and Mrs. Peter Hope, and has been a resident of Lakefield for only eight months. She resided previously for 20 years in Alexandria.

Surviving her are her husband, one son, W. W. H. Dean, Point Claire, Quebec, two sisters, Mrs. R. H. Hamer and Elsie Hope, Ottawa; two brothers, the Hon. Mr. Justice J. A. Hope, Toronto, and Fred Hope, Sudbury.

Mrs. Dean is resting at her residence until the funeral service which is to be held from St. John's Anglican Church, Lakefield, Tuesday at 2:30 p.m. The Rev. L. T. Delaney will officiate. Interment will be at Little Lake Cemetery.

MARGARET ETTA GRAHAM

After a long illness, Mrs. Margaret Etta Graham, 73, of 8162 Jefferson Ave., Detroit, died on Sunday in Detroit. She was a former resident of Peterborough.

Mrs. Graham was born in Peterborough, daughter of the late Mr. and Mrs. William Kindred. She was educated here and left the city for Detroit five years ago. For some time she also resided in Toronto.

Surviving are a daughter, Mrs. George F. Rogers, Detroit; a son, Max Graham of Houston, Texas; four sisters, Mrs. Fred Whatley of Peterborough, Mrs. Frank McMurtry of Peterborough, Mrs. M. Wilson of Oshawa, and Mrs. J. McKay of Edmonton, Alta. She was predeceased by her husband, Noble Graham.

Mrs. Graham was a member of Trinity United Church during her residence in Peterborough.

The body was scheduled to arrive by train at noon today from Detroit and will be taken to the Nisbett Funeral Home. The funeral will be at the Funeral Home on Tuesday at 2 p.m., the Rev. Dr. D. B. Gordon of Trinity United Church officiating.

Burial will be in Little Lake Cemetery.

SYNODICAL SOCIETY SPEAKERS—Rev. and Mrs. Tene K. Chiu, shown above, will be the chief speakers at the annual meeting of the Toronto-Kingston Synodical Society of the Women's Missionary Society, Presbyterian Church in Canada, which meets in St. Paul's Church, Peterborough, Tuesday, Wednesday and Thursday of this week. Rev. Mr. Chiu is a native Chinese Presbyterian Church minister and is now in Canada studying the work of the church.

Synodical Society of WMS Annual Meeting In St. Paul's

Members of the Women's Missionary Society of St. Paul's Presbyterian Church will be hostesses to the annual meeting of the Toronto and Kingston Synodical Society of the W.M.S. of the Presbyterian Church in Canada, which convenes in St. Paul's Church tomorrow, April 26. Sessions will continue on Wednesday and Thursday.

Outstanding among the speakers will be Rev. and Mrs. Tene K. Chiu, native Chinese Presbyterian Church workers. Rev. Mr. Chiu is now in Canada on a year's sabbatical leave, during which he is studying the doctrine of the Presbyterian Church in Canada.

Theme of this year's convention will be "God's Design." The first session of the convention will be a meeting of the synodical executive, comprised of synodical officers and Presbyterial presidents or their elected substitutes, Tuesday afternoon at 3.00. Coinciding with this will be a separate opening meeting for the delegates at the same hour, led by Miss Frieda Matthews, executive secretary, national missions.

The delegates will be formally welcomed to St. Paul's by the minister, Rev. C. G. Boyd, at 7.45 p.m., Tuesday.

Other speakers who will address the convention include Miss Laura Pelton, executive secretary, overseas missions; and Angus Mackay of Jhansi, India.

A feature of the sessions will be the submission of a large number of reports by secretaries of various departments. There will also be a number of "conferences" led by department leaders.

At 1.45 p.m. on Wednesday there will be a memorial service in honor of Mrs. John Williams, late corresponding secretary.

Greetings will be brought from the synod by the moderator, Rev. C. K. Nicoll, at the Wednesday afternoon session.

Election and installation of new officers will be carried out at the final session on Thursday afternoon.

Present officers of the Synodical Society are: President, Mrs. A. Glenn Thompson; recording secretary, Mrs. W. J. Marks; acting corresponding secretary, Miss Lundia MacBeth; and treasurer, Mrs. Percy Ranson.

The following Peterborough ladies are in charge of arrangements for the convention; General convener, Mrs. E. H. Howson; billetting secretary, Mrs. Donald Flett; Post Office and registration, Miss Margaret Reid; information, Mrs. W. A. Hinds; literature, Miss Verna Johnston; check room, Mrs. John McDonald; music, Mrs. L. R. Mitchell; press, Mrs. H. G. McKenzie; and reception committee, Mrs. J. J. Craig, Mrs. R. N. McCullock, Mrs. C. G. Boyd, Mrs. D. T. Diplock and Mrs. F. H. Rowan.

Main Street Topics

ICE THIS MORNING

Ice on the water buckets this morning could hardly be cracked by finger pressure, and this was the last Monday of April. Spring so far has been at odds with itself.

TROUT DAY APRIL 30

This is the day the trout fishermen anticipate with preparations for the opening Saturday, April 30. For many of them it is a blank day in factories, affording plenty of time to get away to familiar streams, and take as long as they wish before thinking of home.

PRESENT BADGES

Recently in Oshawa Albert Ingham, 296 Margaret Ave., presented two King Scout Badges to scouts of the Fourth Scout Troop in Oshawa. The occasion was the 25th anniversary of the scout troop. Mr. Ingham was the first scoutmaster of the troop.

COMMISSIONER DIES

Wilfred Laurier Clairmont, Dominion fire commissioner, died in Ottawa hospital Sunday night from colitis. He was 54. Native of Tweed, Mr. Clairmont was appointed fire commissioner in 1939 and was noted throughout Canada and the United States for his keen interest in fire prevention.

BE SURE CAR LOCKED

If you drive into Peterborough to do some Saturday shopping and decide to stay for a show, make sure the car is locked before leaving it on a parking lot. Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Serra of Bridgenorth left their car Saturday to go to the theatre and when they returned they found some clothes they had bought only a few hours previously, had been stolen. Groceries which were also in the car, had not been touched.

BURY MRS. EDITH CAMPBELL

Pallbearers at the funeral of Mrs. Edith Campbell, 70, of 107 McDonnel St., were Gordon Shier, Stanley Payne, Donald Campbell, Ernest Fowler, and Herbert and Robert Herbison. Mrs. Campbell died on Wednesday and was buried in Lakefield Cemetery on Friday after a funeral from the family residence.

HIT AND RUN

A spaniel dog was hit by a car on Water St. just north of Park Hill Sunday evening. Instead of stopping the driver stepped on the gas, leaving the scene hurriedly. The dog stayed on the road for a minute then got up and limped away between the houses.

FIRE IN BED

When Thomas Bass of 304 Louis St. decided to have a cigarette while lying in bed on Saturday morning, it proved an expensive luxury. The cigarette set fire to the bedding and mattress and the fire department was called to extinguish the outbreak. Damage was limited to the bed clothing.

BROKE TWO REGULATIONS

Over the crest of a hill south of Fraserville on Highway No. 2 Sunday occupants of a stopped car were shooting at groundhgs in the field beside the road. In doing so they were breaking two regulations, shooting on Sunday, and shooting from a car. Besides this they were taking the chance of causing a traffic accident.

FIND HOME ENTERED

When Mr. and Mrs. Stewart Daniel, 1169 Clonsilla Ave., arrived home Sunday after spending Friday and Saturday out of town, they found their house had been entered and drawers were ransacked. A pane of glass in the kitchen door had been broken to enable the intruder to gain admittance. A wrist watch and lady's gold ring with a single pearl setting were missing.

EXHIBITS IN MONTREAL

Jack Hamer, Peterborough painter, is exhibiting in this year's Spring Exhibition of the Montreal Art Association in the Montreal Art Gallery. This show is an important annual exhibition in which selected canvases of professional and better amateur painters from coast to coast are displayed. Mr. Hamer is showing a water-colour called "Spring Water".

CELEBRATED EASTER

Members of five Greek families of Peterborough attended the Greek Orthodox Church celebration of Easter early Sunday. The service beginning at Saturday midnight was dramatically featured by the extinguishing of all the lights symbolic of the entombment of Jesus Christ, and was followed by the relighting of the candles held by the congregation of about 1,500. Peterborough was represented by the Coros, Zakos, Mousmoulies, Yeotes and Patrakos families. They arrived home from Toronto around 5 a.m.

Anglican Chapel Dedicated By Archdeacon Robertson

St. Alban's Chapel, a chapel-of-ease in St. George's parish, was dedicated on Sunday at a special ceremony with the Ven. Archdeacon W. P. Robertson of St. John's officiating. The new chapel will accommodate those parishioners in the south end who reside remote from St. George's Church. It will hold 200 worshippers and is situated on Cameron St. west of Monaghan Rd.

It is believed to be the first Quonset hut completed along modern lines and used as a chapel in Canada. It has a brick and cement-block front; the interior is finished in wallboard; there is a curtained altar and choir stalls.

The Rev. E. C. Moore, rector of St. George's, is the officiating clergyman at St. Alban's. His son, Edgar Moore, a theological student at Trinity College, Toronto, has been in charge of the chapel. On Tuesday he leaves for a year's study in England.

A brief sketch of the history of the Anglican church in Peterborough was given to the 200 parishioners and others who formed the Sunday congregation by Archdeacon Robertson.

He informed them that St. John's was the first Anglican church built in Peterborough proper. The next step in Church of England growth was when All Saints' chapel was dedicated; later it became a parish. St. George's started in the same way, he said: first a chapel then a church.

The latest branch of the church was St. Albans, a chapel-at-ease, which he said would help Anglicans in St. George's parish worship in their own communion without having to travel the greater distance to the parish church. There is a total of 9,000 people living south of Lansdowne St. now, the Archbishop stated.

Parishioners and others made contributions toward the completing of the chapel. A. Comstock and Sons donated an electric organ. Sidney Watson, a Toronto artist and designer, designed the altar and ornaments, and the actual work was done by Cyril Barnes of St. George's. Both men gave their time.

St. Alban's Evening Guild, Mrs. Harvey Sutton, president, presented the chapel with a new Bible and Prayer Book. A candelabra was donated by Mrs. Joseph Bell of St. John's in memory of her late husband. Curtains and altar linen was supplied by the Afternoon Guild headed by Mrs. Cyril Barnes, president. An alms basin was the gift of William Potter of St. George's.

St. George's Junior Choir attired in red vestments, and under the direction of Mrs. Marjorie Garland, were present for the dedication.

High praise for the work done by Edgar Moore who divided his time between theological studies and being in charge at the new chapel, was expressed by a number of the parishioners.

Firemen Answered Two False Alarms

Firemen had a slack weekend until just before 10 p.m. on Sunday, and then they answered four calls in a three-hour period. Two of them turned out to be false alarms.

A local resident at 9:50 p.m. reported that smoke was coming from the roof of the apartment building at 321 George St. (George and Charlotte Sts.) Firemen raised the aerial ladder but found no trace of fire; cause of the alarm was believed to be some wisps of smoke from a nearby chimney.

A roast of meat that was left too long in the oven at the residence of J. Basciano, 172½ Hunter St., began to smoulder and firemen were called to extinguish the blaze.

Carelessly discarded matches and cigarette butts are beginning to start fires now that dry weather is here. This was the cause of a blaze in a rubbish can at 126 Park St., shortly after midnight.

Another false alarm was reported from the residence of A. Minicola, Stewart St. A passerby thought he saw flames in the cellar but firemen found nothing amiss when they investigated.

Legion Reports Decrease In Membership

A slight decrease in membership was reported by the majority of branches at the bi-annual Zone Rally of the Canadian Legion. The Rally was held on Sunday afternoon in the Legion Hall with about 80 delegates attending.

Represented were the two Peterborough branches, 52 and 452; Havelock 389; Norwood 300; Bancroft 181; Lakefield 77; Millbrook 402; and Apsley 381. There were no delegates from Branch 106 at Hastings.

It was not realized that the decrease in membership was a trend until several of the branch presidents gave their reports. About 60 per cent of the branches announced there was a falling off.

Recruiting Drive

Legion officials said their chief concern is that they do not know the reason for the loss of membership and are consequently at a loss to know how to remedy it. A recruiting drive is already underway in Peterborough and other branches indicated that they would follow suit.

That was the one sour note in the various reports. All of the branches were financially stable and had impressive lists of achievements listed under "work and welfare."

Most of the resolutions dealt with Legion constitutional matters, and will be forwarded to the District Meeting (comprising five or six zones).

Arthur Wagstaff of Peterborough, zone commander, officiated during the business session. During the election for a new Zone Commander, District Commander Frank Threadgold occupied the chair.

Delegates were informed that a letter had been sent to City Council asking support of the Legion resolution on housing. The resolution emanated from the Provincial Command and requested that a state of national emergency on housing be declared. It also asked for co-operation among the three levels of government to resolve the housing problem.

200 Houses To Cost Kitchener $200,000

Kitchener would have to invest this year $200,000 if its request for 200 Central Mortgage houses is granted. That is the estimate of Ald. H. Ainlay who said the city has provided around $300,000 for three housing projects already undertaken.

"The government still expects us to supply land and services which include sewers, water, street lighting, roads and sidewalks.

Erase Marks On Stamps To Avoid Paying Postage

By JOHN HUGHES

Better look twice at those postage stamps before you stick them on the letters you plan to mail tomorrow. If any have been used before you may end up behind bars! It has happened before. Mrs. Curt Schmidt thought she had a means of saving herself money and avoiding contributions to the Canadian Government. Her scheme landed her in jail.

Mrs. Schmidt is a naturalized Canadian. She sends parcels to relatives in Germany frequently and corresponds regularly with an inmate of a penal institution in Canada. Until recently she accomplished both without paying for postage.

Patiently she would work to erase cancellation marks from used postage stamps until, under casual inspection they looked as good as new. Then she would put on new mucilage and attach the stamps to her parcels and letters. Her supply of stamps seems to have been limited—although it's hard to imagine— because she had her relatives in Germany return them so she could use them again.

Stamp Dealer Frauds

John Jones, a Montreal professional stamp dealer, had a large turnover in used Canadian stamps which he sold to collectors for about 15 cents a hundred. But he had an eye to bigger profits and whenever he came across a stamp with a particularly faint cancellation mark he would set it aside. When he had enough to make the operation worthwhile, he would wash them carefully to remove the marks and use them on his mail.

Peter Brown, a western businessman, spent many hours "stripping" stamps to use on his mail. Stripping is the term applied to the practice of cutting off a portion of a stamp which has escaped cancellation and using it in combination with a matching portion of another on which the marks do not run all the way through.

Henry Smith, a jobber, had 40 parcels in the mail at one time with previously used postage stamps on them.

Although the names of these four offenders are fictitious, the incidents actually occurred and are typical of the practices against which the Post Office is constantly on the alert.

Women Worst Offenders

The re-use of postage stamps is a headache to the Post Office Department. And the big trouble is that you just cannot tell who will do it. People who would not dream of stealing cash will engage in this practice without batting and eye. In this matter at least, they consider the Federal Government to be fair game. Officials report that women outnumber men at the rate of three to two.

While it can almost amount to big business, as in the case of the man who was caught with 40 parcels with illegal postage, most offenders are out to save only small amounts.

But the Department does strike back. Last year 29 stamp-reusing Canadians had reason to regret the error of their ways. They were fined and 262 others were lucky enough to get off with stern warnings.

Keep Wakeful Eye

Walter J. Turnbull, Deputy Postmaster-General, has a wide awake staff in Ottawa working under the direction of Chief Inspector of Postal Service Norman H. MacDonald. With up-to-date crime detection equipment they spend long hours safeguarding the taxpayers' dollar.

Mrs. Schmidt was getting away with her little racket until an alert postal clerk in her hometown noticed the stamps were looking a little anaemic. There were no visible marks on them but they just did not look right. Perhaps they had made too many ocean voyages, he though.

One of Mrs. Schmidt's parcels was sent to Ottawa were William T. Taylor, in charge of the had the stamps examined with the aid of infra-red photography. When the photographic prints were examined, there were the wavy lines running through the stamps to prove they had been used before.

Science Aids Detection

The post office has means of detecting cancellation marks on stamps which appear to the naked eye to be new and unused. Red stamps are photographed with infra-red film under infra-red light and for blue and green stamps other methods, including ultra-violet photography, are equally effective.

It does not pay to be careless about postage stamps. Section 100 of the Post Office Act provides for fines ranging from 10 to 40 dollars against anyone who uses, or attempts to use, a postage stamp that has already been through the mails.

Many factors are taken into consideration during Post Office investigations. The Postmaster in whose office the investigation originates endeavors to supply information about the sender.

Make Allowances

Age is an important factor. If the sender is either very young or very old, certain allowances are likely to be made.

Condition of eyesight: If a person can prove poor eyesight and the answers to other question are the right ones, he will probably get off with a warning. . . the first time.

Reputation: Another important question, and one that probably means work for the Postmaster unless the sender is known to him personally. Extra mucilage also attracts suspicion.

How was the stamp obtained: is another question put to the sender. If he insists that he bought the stamp from the corner fruit-store because the Post Office was closed, the Department will probably want to look into that matter too. There are two reasons for this, and the one second in importance is that the corner fruit-store is not licensed to sell stamps. But the big question is, where is the fruit dealer buying his stamps? It is not unheard of for a person to make a business of washing used stamps and selling them cut rate.

No Racket In Canada

No wholesale racket in washed used stamps has ever been uncovered in Canada There is a case on record in the United States of a person exporting tons of used stamps to an agency in Europe where they were washed by a highly developed chemica process and returned for resale.

Besides the obvious mistake of using cancelled stamps, the Post Office Department , emphasises other important don'ts that help to avoid embarrasment.

Tells Do's And Don'ts

Don't fasten stamps to parcels with cellophane tape or other transparent material. If you do the stamp cannot be cancelled and the person to whom you send the parcel will have to pay double postage when it reaches him. Then you, as sender, will be visited by a Postal Inspector who will want to know just why you did it. Were you trying to slip the stamps through without having them cancelled?

Don't send letters to contests, quiz shows or similiar enterprises without postage. Nothing is saved because the companies involved never accept the mail. The letters end up in the dead letter office. The additional handling involved annually in hundreds of thousands of pieces of mail without postage, or without sufficient postage, contributes to the reasons for Canada's four cent letter rate.

Don't seal envelopes or parcels intended for second class mail. To be eligible for second class rates packages and envelopes must be so closed that they may be easily opened for postal inspection.

Don't detach stamps carelessly from strips. Nothing less than a whole stamp is legal postage. The Department is reasonable in this matter, but does sometimes charge the consignee double postage if too much of a stamp is missing.

Stamps Change Color

One case baffled the Special Investigations Division for some time when several stamps, obviously off colour, arrived in a Montreal Post Office. The sender's name and address were on the envelope one man had mailed them all. The first though was that the bank note companies, which print the stamps for the Post Office Department, had a competitor. The stamps had been stored in a cedar chest and had been discolored.

Going on that lead, the Special Investigations Division conducted experiments with stamps and cedar samples and found that, sure enough, cedar oil, or even the vapour had a bleaching action on the red pigment used in Canadian stamps. So perhaps a fifth don't should be. . .don't store stamps in cedar chests!

TUNNELLING RECORD

With the use of explosives a tunnelling crew recently punched their way through 80 feet of solid rock in 24 hours to establish a new tunnelling record in the US.

Murray St. Baptist Church Marks 103rd Anniversary

In 1846 the Rev. John Gilmour founded the first Baptist church in Peterborough with 14 members who met for worship in a small building on Aylmer St. on the site where Gillespie's Garage now stands. On Sunday, Murray Street Baptist Church, which traces its history back to the small group of Baptists organized by Mr. Gilmour, celebrated the 103rd anniversary of its foundation.

Among the present members of the church are seven who attended the first church on Aylmer St. They are Miss Emma Allridge, Mr. Vincent Eastwood Mrs. John Hardwicke, Miss Margaret Matthews, Mrs. Lillian Eastwood, Mrs. Joseph Johnson and Mrs. Joseph Lelland.

Known in the early days as the Gilmour Baptist Church, the founder members continued to use the small Aylmer St. building until 1884, when they moved to Murray St. to the building which is now the Legion Hall. It was not until 1911 that the Rev. John Clifford, D.D., of London, England, laid the corner stone of the present building and the first sermon was preached in the new building in May, 1912, by the Rev. J. L. Gilmour D.D. a grandson of the first minister of the church.

From modest beginnings the church has grown to a membership of 525 and 400 Peterborough families look to this as their church.

Needed Perseverence

Although Murray St. Baptist Church is now a thriving organization which plays a conspicuous part in the life of the community, the present beautiful building, designed on simple lines and the warmth of the friendly congregation is the result of perseverence in less settled times.

The church overcame a difficult period a comparatively few years after its foundation when controversy over the question of "open" or "closed" communion caused a rift which lasted for three years, from 1862 to 1865. From the time of the union of the two factions in 1865 the church has pressed forward, attracting new Baptist settlers in the city and enrolling a number of converts.

Today there are approximately twelve organizations within the church which is the centre of a thriving Christian community.

Murray street started as a mission of the Baptist Church in Smith Township. The unpretensious building on Aylmer street was built at a cost $1,400 and served for 20 years until it became evident that necessary repair work would be too costly. The first Murray St. building was acquired at a cost of $7,000, the property also including a parsonage and a house for the caretaker The present involved in expenditure of $65,000.

Murray St. Baptist Church has produced eight ministers; I. J. Metcalf, O. G. Langford, W. Stevens, Wallace Huff, J. E. Pengelly, J. L. Gilmour, John and Fred Ward. Mission workers from the church have included the Rev. and Mrs. A. Haddow, and Miss Abigail Garbutt.

Three members at present attending preparatory course at McMaster University are Verne Whatley, Kenneth Gillespie and Miss Mary Haddow Kenneth Gillespie is to be ordained in Murray St. Church May 23.

There have been 19 pastors in charge of Murray St. Baptist

True beauty comes from within. Clear, bright eyes and sparkling glamour come from radiant inner health. So there's nothing quite like the aperient—mildly laxative KRUSCHEN—to help correct that sallow, pepless, draggy look caused by sluggishness and common constipation.

Kruschen's formula is a unique blend of saline minerals, similar to those found in natural waters of famous medicinal springs. Kruschen offers you these advantages:

EASY TO TAKE—Dissolves quickly in water, or your morning coffee, tea or fruit juice. Most folks find the small morning dose is best.

WORKS FAST—Usually within the hour. Does not spoil your day.

GENTLE ACTION—Its formula is balanced to act gently, without discomfort.

TIME-TESTED—Over 300,000,000 packages sold throughout the world.

Start with Kruschen today and discover for yourself what it means to have "that Kruschen feeling". 25c and 75c at all drug stores.

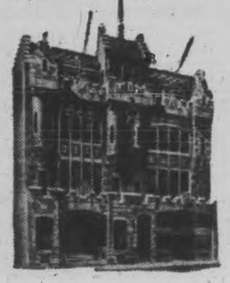
CANADA PRODUCES GOLD FOR ALL THE WORLD

Canada, world's second largest producer of gold, exports more than ninety-five percent of her product—an important contribution to the world supply of this universal medium of international exchange.



Why Seagram's sells Canada first

This is an adaptation of one of a series of advertisements which, for the past two years, The House of Seagram has published in magazines and newspapers printed in many languages and countries throughout the world. These advertisements feature various Canadian products—lumber, salmon, furs, nickel, apples, plywood and many others.

Nature has endowed our country with an almost limitless supply of valuable resources. Properly used and converted to manufactured goods, these resources can carry our nation to unprecedented greatness. But first, the peoples of other lands must learn of the prestige and quality of Canadian products.

◆ ◆ ◆

One out of every three dollars we Canadians earn comes to us as a result of foreign trade. This campaign is designed to help all Canadian industries and, consequently, to help put money in the pockets of every Canadian citizen.

The House of Seagram believes that it is in the interest of every Canadian manufacturer to help the sale of all Canadian products in foreign markets. It is in this spirit that these advertisements are being produced and published throughout the world.

British Official In Moscow Raps Embassy

By THOMAS P. WHITNEY

MOSCOW, April 25 — (AP)—The Communist Party newspaper Pravda said Sunday a British Embassy official has accused the British Government of warmongering and of selling out Britain to the United States.

The official idenified as Archibald R. Jonnston, was quoted as saying he had decided to remain in the Soviet Union in order to devote all of his "energy and talents to the question of peace."

Johnston, a Scot, is editor-in-chief of the Russian language newspaper Britanski Soyuznik (British Ally), published by the British Foreign Ofice for distribution in Russia.

Pravda devoted almost a third of a page to a letter it said was signed by Johnston. The letter asserted that the British Embassy here is not interested in improving British-Soviet relations "but in fact does everything to worsen these relations."

Apparently the letter took the British Embassy completely by surprise. No statement was issued by the Embassy immediately.

Johnston said he determined "to break once and for all with the British Government" and to remain in Russia because "the Soviet Union is the leading force in the struggle for peace."

Johnston, a journalist all his adult life, worked formerly for the London News Chronicle. He has been in Moscow since February, 1947.

Britanski Soyuznik comes out in Moscow once a week in an edition of 40,000 to 50,000 copies. It was started during the war. The paper carries articles on Britain, British-Russian relations, and official speeches of British leaders.

Fined On Two Counts Following Crash

Harold Payne, 85 Mark St., who drove his truck into a cedar tree on Maria St. Friday evening, was fined $15 with $2.50 costs Saturday, for having a bottle of beer in the truck and $10 with $2.50 costs for careless driving. He appeared before Magistrate W. R. Philp K.C., at city police court.

Mary Beach, Peterborough, and Oscar Duggan, Bridgenorth, were each fined $10 with $2.50 costs for drunkenness.

Lawrence McCracken, Lakefield and Lynn Ferrill, Peterborough, were each fined $15 with $2.50 costs for having liquor in a place other their homes.

Henry McCallum, 618 Bethune St., who pleaded not guilty to a charge of leaving the scene of an accident on March 28, was convicted and fined $25 with $2.50 costs.

Take Liquor Vote In Havelock June 15

HAVELOCK, April 25—(ENS)—After being under the Ontario Temperance Act for over 40 years the residents of Havelock will go to the polls on Wednesday, June 15, to decide whether or not they want a government liquor store and brewer's warehouse in the village.

The ballot will have two questions, as follows:

1. Are you in favor of the establishment of a government liquor store for the sale of liquor?

2. Are you in favor of the establishment of government stores for the sale of beer only for residence consumption?

The polls will be open from 8 a.m. until 7 p.m.

Novelist Dies

ST. LEONARDS-ON-SEA, England, April 25—(AP)—Mrs. Margaret Baillie-Saunders, 76, author of more than 40 novels, died Sunday at this fashionable seaside resort. Her first novel, "Saints in Society", was published in 1905. Her latest, published two months ago, was "Quality Fair," describing the establishment of St. Leonards and how Princess Victoria, later to be crowned Queen, visited there in childhood.

Kinettes' Blossom Tea Features Novel Decorations

Decors of pale pink apple blossoms and clear blue delphiniums at the Kinettes' "Blossom Tea" Saturday afternoon was delightfully charming. So realistic did the branches and stocks appear that there were many among the 250 guests in the YWCA Green Room who did not discover the flarets were of crepe paper, skillfully twisted and tied on the branches by Kinette Mrs. S. Gilmore

But fresh roses were used on the tea table, though in a different and novel way. A miniature garden that was breath-takingly lovely even in small size, formed the centrepiece and the flowers entwined a tiny white trellis forming a rose arbor. White picket fencing, about two inches high, enclosed the grassy plot with a little garden pool where beautiful Dresden China ladies in full skirted frocks of pink and blue and their colorfully dressed escort appeared to be enjoying the scene.

Another charming note was tiny vines of ivy climbing on the pink candles at each end of the table. A white cloth with embroidery and lace border was used with handsome silver pieces for serving. The decorating was done by Mrs. Wm. Godson, assisted by Mrs. G. Bouck. Tea was poured by Mrs. J. Elliott, Mrs. N. Elliott, Mrs. E. Henwood and Mrs. R. Phillips.

Mrs. Thos. Williams, president of the Club, and Mrs. C. E. Graham, vice president, greeted everyone as they entered and Mrs. J. G. Wharry was hostess in the tea room. An atmosphere for pleasant conversatonal exchange was set with a background of piano music. Mrs. Adam Sands, Mrs. W. J. Gordon and Mrs. M. E. Holt were the players.

Most everyone attending left the tea with visions of a delicious Sunday evening supper provided without effort and very small expense. All were disappointed except Mrs. Russel Holwell from Brampton who was visiting friends in the city for the week-end. She was winner of the complete supper for six which was the draw prize at this event. Mrs. Jas. Innes was in charge of the ticket sales, assisted by Mrs. J. King.

Two long tables were laden with delicious home cooking, and were made decorative as well with skirting of pink crepe paper and blue rosettes. Mrs. S. Gilmore was in charge with Mrs. V. Selkirk, Miss Audrey Oliver, Mrs. H. Weir and Mrs. W. Jones as salesladies.

Mrs. Fred Ash convened the refreshments and the servers were Mrs. M. Grough, Mrs. D. Wilson, Mrs. J. Perry, Mrs. H. Ball, Mrs. S. Munro, Mrs. C. Boorman, Mrs. W. Godson, Mrs. W. Langan, Mrs. G. Bouck, Mrs. S. Hayman and Mrs. H. Tewsley.

Mrs. H. Huff was in charge of the treasurer's table, assisted by Mrs. A. Black.

Lillie E. Dixon Marries Frank J. Hayes

Against a background of spring flowers, on Thursday, April 21, the Rev. C. L. McCormick officiated at the marriage in St. Gregory's Church, Oshawa, when Lillie Eleanor Dixon, daughter of Mr. J. E. Dixon, Otonabee, and the late Mrs. Dixon, became the bride of Francis Joseph Hayes, son of Mrs. D. Hayes, Peterborough, and the late Mr. Hayes.

The bride wore robin-egg blue suit with matching hat and wine accessories. Her corsage was of Talisman roses. She was attended by Miss Catherine Hurtubise, Oshawa, who wore claret wine suit, navy accessories and a corsage of Johannahill roses. Both the bride and attendant carried white prayer books.

The groomsman was Mr. Norman Hayes of Peterborough, brother of the groom.

After a wedding trip to Ottawa and Quebec the bride and groom will reside in Peterborough.

35 Ladies Win Gifts From Travellers

Associated Canadian Travellers in the city and district entertained their wives and friends Friday evening at a most enjoyable dance in the Empress Hotel ballroom—so enjoyable, in fact, that the guests wouldn't leave, and they were made to bribe the bandsmen to play for an extra hour. Colored balloons festooned the hall for this gay occasion.

The dance was one of several similar affairs which the association has planned in order that the wives of travellers may get better acquainted, and it provides an excellent means for newcomers to meet congenial friends.

It was also "Product Night," and each traveller was asked to donate a gift from his line for the ladies. There were 35 such prizes and the winners were: Mrs. Ossie McCullough, Mrs. Bill Smoothy, Miss R. Fanning, Mrs. Jake Primeau, Mrs. Mort Knox, Mrs. Don Sidey, Mrs. F. Don, Mrs. W. F. Jones, Mrs. Alex. Watson, Mrs. Les Reid, Mrs. Clark Mouncey, Mrs. Tom Sheridan, Mrs. C. Wasson, Mrs. B. McCracken, Rose Marshall, Mrs. J. McCulloch, Mrs. George Brown, Mrs. H. Rennie, Mrs. C. Galvin, Mrs. G. Crawford, Miss F. Allen, Mrs. B. Brown, Mrs. F. Morton, Mrs. M. Spears, Mrs. S. Craig, Mrs. M. Beatty, Mrs. J. Nameth, Mrs. Butcher, Mrs. J. R. Stuart, Miss Joan Hickey, Mrs. R. Keith, Mrs. R. Latimer, Mrs. Johnnie Godfrey, Mrs. Joe Jones, Hastings, and Mrs. B. J. Delaney.

GOING WEST, Prime Minister Louis St. Laurent paused at Port Arthur for an official welcome from Mayor Fred O. Robinson. In the picture are the Prime Minister and Mrs. St. Laurent, Mayor and Mrs. Robinson, and Mrs. Mathieu Samson.

Unusual Ways of Preparing Those Old Root Vegetables

By MARY MOORE

The choice of vegetables we budget-conscious people can serve this month is growing increasingly monotonous, and it is a smart cook who can keep her family interested—week after week—in the same old round of carrots, parsnips, onions, turnips and squash.

The sweet relief of being able to buy spinach and sweet potatoes and new cabbage saves us from tearing our hair. I do not think I know the answers for I avoid the issue most of the time by serving big and varied salads instead of cooked vegetables.

But I do have a few unusual ways to suggest of preparing these old root vegetables.

You may have noticed I am mentioning deep-fried foods oftener now than I have for some time, because cooking fats are cheaper and because most of us have an excess of drippings left-over from baking roasts and frying bacon, etc.

Parsnip fritters are delicious fried in bacon drippings.

Parsnip Fritters

If parsnips are medium-sized and firm they may be cooked after washing, with skins on; this rubs off when they are tender, by holding under running water and rubbing it. If parsnips are large or shrivelled at all they must be pared and sliced before boiling. Cook until tender, drain and mash very well. To each cup of mashed parsnips add ½ teaspoon salt, shake of white pepper and ¼ cup fine breadcrumbs; (I find the 14-cent box of packaged breadcrumbs a great time-saver.) Mix well, then pick up on a teaspoon and roll in flour, then dip in well beaten egg diluted with 2 tablespoons water. Dip in crumbs again, and fry in deep (or shallow) fat at 375 deg. Fahr. until golden brown on all sides. Drain on paper towel in warming oven until all are done, before serving.

Shredded Carrot Casserole

Shred 8 pared carrots on large shredder chop 1 onion finely; mix together and place in buttered casserole. Pour over ¼ cup boiling water, dot with 2 tablespoons butter, sprinkle with 1teaspoon salt and sprinkle with white pepper. Cover tightly and bake at 350 deg. Fahr. about 1 hour, or until tender.

Mashed Hubbard Squash

Bake or boil squash cut into pieces, leaving skin on, until tender. Scrape from skin and mash. To 4 cups mashed squash add 2 tablespoon butter, ½ clove garlic which has been mashed to a pulp, salt and pepper to taste, and, if possible, one-quarter cup unsweetened whipped cream or 2 beaten egg whites. Pile in buttered casserole, sprinkle with buttered crumbs; bake until heated through and golden.

Spanish Onions with Cheese Sauce

Spanish onions, boiled and served with cheese sauce, are on of my dependable winter vegetables. But the odour of onions left through the house makes me vow to avoid them in the future. But I bought a new package of cooking parchment paper and wrapped the onions, cut in halves, in a sheet of it and boiled them, covered with water, in a big pot and, honestly there was not a trace of onion smell in the house. Make a rich cheese sauce by heating ½ cup evaporated milk with ½ cup water, or 1 cup whole milk, in top of double boiler with at least ¼ lb. processed cheese, until cheese melts. Stir in 1½ tablespoons flour mixed with 2 tablespoons cold water, and stir until thick. Add salt and pepper and paprika to taste. Serve a spoonful over each boiled onion half.

I have mentioned before that strong winter turnips can be made more delicate by adding half the amount of peeled potatoes to them with plenty of salt, when you boil them. When tender drain well, mash, add butter or heavy cream, and salt and pepper, and mash well again. If turnip is tender enough this is better if put through the potato ricer.

Remember: Right Breakfasts Are Important
HERE'S something many overlook. Here are the facts. Read them. Then, today take these first steps to feeling better — acting better. Your folks will benefit. You'll benefit.
Smart People DON'T Skimp Breakfast
Breakfast is specially important to you because it should start you off RIGHT for the day. If your business demands that you be keen . . . bright . . . pay extra attention to the day's first meal. Here's why. To eat no breakfast or a poor one simply results in fatigue, irritability and lessened efficiency.
Smart People PREFER Grape-Nuts
Grape-Nuts is a special breakfast cereal. That's why you make breakfast more nutritious, more enjoyable by including just two tablespoons of Grape-Nuts — appetizing, golden, crunchy kernels of whole wheat and malted barley. That's why you benefit from useful amounts of carbohydrates, minerals and proteins: fine food values. So flavorful with milk or cream. Different recipes are on the package. Grape-Nuts is the most economical part of a good breakfast. Order from your grocer today.

Of Interest to Women

DOROTHY DIX

Wife Must Do Equal Share To Make Marriage Work

DEAR DOROTHY DIX: Love is love, but marriage is a business also, and you will be doing a lot of good in the world if you can only make these young wives see what their duty is towards their good, working husbands. Certainly if a man is willing to earn the meal ticket, the least a wife can do is to get up in the morning and make him a good breakfast, put up his lunch, if necessary, and see that he has a decent dinner.

Dorothy Dix

I am telling my sons to expect just that much service, complete with necessary darns and buttons, from their wives, and that if they don't get it, to leave such poor sticks of women. A bargain is a bargain in marriage just as much as it is in business, and husbands should stand on their rights and demand their just due. There wouldn't be so many divorces if there were not so many trifling wives.

INDIGNANT MOTHER

ANSWER: Probably the greatest surprise that any man ever gets is when he discovers that he has married a deadbeat instead of a helpmeet, and that he not only has to bring home the bacon, but he has to cook it, no matter how tired he is after his hard day's work. That isn't what he expected, for practically all men have the delusion that women are domestic by nature and that there is nothing they enjoy so much as whipping up dainty meals for their husbands, and polishing up the knob of the big front door.

Of course, the great majority of wives do regard making a comfortable home for their husbands as a duty, not as a favor. But you would be surprised at how many women there are who marry for a meal ticket and who make slaves of their unfortunate husbands. To this column there comes a never-ending stream of pathetic letters from men who write that they are married to women who are so lazy and inert that they refuse to do a hand's turn towards making a decent home for their families.

Shirk Responsibilities

They turn over and take another snooze in the morning instead of getting up and preparing breakfast. They won't see about getting their children off to school. They won't even change the baby's diaper. And the poor frantic man who has to wrestle with all the problems of domesticity, in addition to being the breadwinner, is one of the most piteous figures in the world.

What should be done with these lazy, conscienceless, selfish women who wreck the lives of so many good men, and who are responsible for so many delinquent children, is one of the bitter problems of our day. But woe to them when they come up before the Judgment Bar.

✧ ✧ ✧

DEAR DOROTHY DIX: I am a young man, 23 years old and this is my problem: Everything I do I have to tell my mother and father, even when I kiss a girl. If I don't tell them, I feel guilty. But it doesn't seem to do me any good to be frank and honest, because when I tell my mother and father the way girls and boys act when they go out, it starts a big fight in our home. If I could only keep my mouth shut, I would be all right.

What should I do?

BEWILDERED BOY.

✧ ✧ ✧

ANSWER: There is an old axiom that says that a gentleman never tells when he kisses. That is considered a strictly private matter between the man and the girl, and it certainly can't make for your popularity for you to run and tell Mama and Papa all about it.

Of course, parents are always curious about everything their children do, and say, and hear, and fathers and mothers, as a rule, pump all the gossip that their youngsters have accumulated out of them. This, Pop and Mom account unto themselves for righteousness, for they think it shows how their children love them and depend on them, but, in reality, it is a cruel and dishonorable thing to do, because boys and girls hear things they do not understand and they often innocently tell tales that start scandals that ruin lives.

But tattling is a vice common to us all, and a lot of us would be, like you, all right if we could only keep our mouths shut.

✧ ✧ ✧

DEAR DOROTHY DIX: I am a woman of 35 years and have been in love with a married man for the past two years. I recently met his oldest son, who is 20 years old, and now I am in love with the son.

Should I marry the son and hurt his father, or marry the father and break up his family?

WORRIED LOVER.

✧ ✧ ✧

ANSWER: You must have a crush on the entire family if you are in love with both the son and his father, but as the father-son relationship clutters up things so badly, I think you will be wise to clean your slate and take a fresh start in husband-hunting.

You see, the cards are all against you. Fifteen years difference in age between you and your boy friend make an awful break, and there are not many lads of 20 who can stand the strain. Some pretty girl in their own age class comes along and Sonny Boy just fades out of the picture. Nor are older men likely to make marriages if they involve the tragedy of a father and son being rivals, and breaking-up of a family.

ENQUIRY COLUMN

By MARY MOORE

QUESTION: I would like two recipes from you. One is plain rolled out sugar cookies, like old-fashioned cookies, and a recipe for Danish pastry. I think the latter is made with yeast dough. I hope this is not too much trouble but I have wanted them for a long time.—D. Shaw.

Rolled Sugar Cookie

Two-thirds cups shortening—preferably half butter and half good quality shortening (or all butter), 2/3 cup sugar, 2 well-beaten eggs, 1 teaspoon vanilla, 2 cups sifted flour, ½ teaspoon salt, 1½ teaspoons baking powder. Cream the shortening very well, then cream in the sugar very well. Add the beaten egg and vanilla and mix. Sift the flour, salt and baking powder together and add and mix. Chill 2 hours or overnight. Roll out on very lightly floured board (if too much flour is incorporated in dough while rolling it tends to make tough cookies) to ⅛-inch thickness. Cut into desired shapes sprinkle with sugar or nuts or dot with raisins or fruit. If desired to give cookies a glaze and to make various toppings cling, cookies may be brushed with beaten egg white. Bake at 375 deg. Fahr. about 8 or 10 minutes but watch closely for these cookies should just be biscuit-colored when done.

Danish Pastry (Yeast Dough)

Put in mixing bowl ¼ cup sugar, 4 tablespoons shortening, 1 teaspoon salt and ½ cup scalding hot milk. Stir to melt shortening and when lukewarm add 1 cake yeast crumbled and dissolved in 3 tablespoons lukewarm water (about 108 deg. Fahr.). Add 2 beaten egg yolks, ¼ teaspoon vanilla, ¼ teaspoon lemon extract, ¼ teaspoon mace, and 1 cup bread flour. Beat very well, then add 1 more cup flour, and stir with knife until blended, then enough more flour (not more than 1½ cups—that is 3½ cups altogether) to knead to dough texture, kneading until dough squeaks and is elastic. Put in greased bowl, brush with soft butter, cover and let rise to double in bulk. Roll out on sheet to ¼-inch thickness. (Danish pastry is like puff paste—you use a yeast dough in place of plain pastry, and spread the rolled out dough with butter).

Wash 6 ounces butter, cut in halves, and cut 1 half in small bits and place in a broad column down centre of dough. Fold uncovered sides of dough over butter, and fold this again in two more folds. Roll out. Do same with remaining half piece of butter and press edges together firmly. Turn quarter way round, press with rolling pin and roll out as thinly as possible, lifting it frequently to prevent sticking to board. Fold again, just as you did before and roll. Do this 3 times, chilling between rollings. Roll thn, cut in ¼-inch or ½-inch strips; shape these like figure-eights or tie in knots or bows or roll into coils. Let rise to double in bulk and bake at 350 deg. Fahr. for about 20 to 25 minutes. While hot brush with simple frosting, and dot the little crevices with raspberry jam or other jelly or conserve which you prefer.

Directions:

For the Beef Stew I had precooked some shin beef that I had on hand,—to reduce the cooking time when dinner time came round. As I had cooked it in the well-cooker it had simmered tender after the heat was turned off, and did not need more cooking with the vegetables, so I had the happy idea of adding 2 tins of condensed vegetable soup to it. Besides being a nice change it was a lovely rich flavour. I may have been slow at discovering this quick trick and may be telling you something you have been doing for years — however, I've caught up to you now and some of my young readers may be glad of the idea.

Apple Dumplings

Make a tea-biscuit mixture by sifting together 3 cups sifted flour, 6 tablespoons baking powder, ¾ teaspoon salt, 2 tablespoons sugar. Cut in ½ cup shortening quite finely. Make a well in centre, add 1⅛ cups milk, and stir quickly to moisten all of the flour mixture. Turn out on floured board, press into a ball, then roll out quickly into ¼-inch sheet, with square corners. Cut into 6 6-inch squares. Place a pared and cored medium sized apple on each. Mix together ½ cup white or brown sugar and ½ teaspoon cinnamon or nutmeg and fill centres of apples with this—using all of it. Place dot of butter on top of sugar, and bring dough up around top of apples and seal them in by wetting edges of dough and pinching together. Place on buttered baking dish and bake at 450 deg. Fahr. for 15 minutes, then reduce heat to 350 deg. Fahr. and bake another half hour. These are good served with hard sauce or a tart lemon syrup.

To heat the soup and vegetables for the one-burner meal, put the soup in top of double boiler and heat it to boiling point over direct heat. Then put canned vegetables in bottom of double boiler, stand the top with the soup in over them, and heat the vegetables through

The cherry syrup on the sponge cake is merely canned cherries and juice which have been thickened with a cold cornstarch paste and cooked 15 minutes in top of double boiler. Remove from heat, add lemon juice to taste, chill, and serve cold over fresh or stale sponge or white cake. This is a little more swish if you have ice cream between cake and syrup.

Social Situations

SITUATION: A couple, friends of yours when they lived in your city, sometimes visit the city without informing you that they are to be in own.

WRONG WAY: When you hear of their presence through someone else call them up and insist on their coming out to your house.

RIGHT WAY: Realize that if they want to see you they will make an effort to do so.

Macklin-Spencer Nuptial Vows Taken At Hastings

A pretty wedding was solmnized in St. George's Anglican church, Hastings, last week, when Elizabeth Phyllis Esther (Betty) Spencer, youngest daughter of Canon C. R. Spencer and Mrs. Spencer, Hastings, was united in marriage to Ross Gerald Macklin, eldest son of Mrs. Perek Macklin, Fenella, and the late Mr. Macklin.

The ceremony was performed by the bride's father, Canon C. R. Spencer.

The bride, who was unattended, wore a powder blue suit with grey accessories and corsage of red moss roses and crocus.

The reception was held at the rectory. The bride's mother receiving the guests, wore a gown of grey crepe with accessories to match. She was assisted by the groom's mother, wearing black dress and accessories.

Mr. and Mrs. Macklin left by motor for the Thousand Islands and eastern points. They will reside on the Macklin homestead near Fenella.

6—In Memoriams

CAMERON—In loving memory of Grace Violet Cameron who died April 25,1946.
We do not need a special day
To bring you to our mind
For the days we do not think of you
Are very hard to find.
—Remembered by John and Jimmy.

MILLS—In loving memory of Albert Mills, who died April 23, 1948.
One year has passed since that sad day
When one we loved was called away,
God took him home, it was His will,
Within our hearts he liveth still.
—Ever remembered by his wife and daughters.

HILL—In loving memory of Mrs. Robert Hill.
When days are dark and friends are few
Dear mother how we think of you
Friends are friends if they are true,
We lost our best friend when we lost you.
—Ever remembered by son Harry, daughter-in-law Myrtle.

ROGOW— In loving memory of Sgt. Samuel Rogow who was killed, April 25th, 1942, at age of twenty.
This world may change from year to year.
And friends from day to day;
But never shall the one we loved,
From memory pass away.
—Remembered by Mother, Dad, Sisters and Brothers.

ROGOW—In loving memory of Sgt.—Pilot Sam Rogow.
Remembrance is a golden chain
Death tries to break but all in vain;
To have, to love, and then to part,
Is the greatest sorrow of one's heart,
The years may wipe out many things,
But this they wipe out never—
The memory of those happy days
When we were all together.
—Always remembered by Mother, Dad, brothers and sisters.

SIMMONS— In loving memory of a dear husband and father, James Henry Simmons who died one year ago today.
Time speeds on, one year has passed
Since death its gloom its shadows cast,
Within our home, where all seemed bright,
And took from us a shining light.
We miss that light, and ever will.
His vacant chair there's none to fill.
Down here we mourn but not in vain
For up in Heaven we will meet again.
—Ever remembered by his wife and family.

SIMMONS— In loving memory of a dear grandfather, James Henry Simmons who died one year ago today.
Sweet memories linger forever,
Time cannot change them, it's true,
Years that may come cannot sever
Our loving remembrance of you.
—Ever remembered by Don, Sharon and Wayne Ferguson.

7—Cards of Thanks

Mrs. E. Bedding wishes to thank doctors, nurses, Rev. Gilling, all kind friends, neighbors for flowers, cards and gifts sent to her during her stay in Civic Hospital.

Mr. Robert T. Saffrey and Miss Jean Dey 549 Chamberlain St. wish to express their sincere thanks and appreciation, to their many friends and neighbours, also the Peterborough Lock Social and Athletic Club, Major and Mrs. Charles Watt, for their kind expressions of sympathy and floral tributes extended to them, in their recent sad bereavement, in the loss of a dear wife and Sister.

The family of the late Mr. Ronald Stinson wish to extend their heartfelt thanks and appreciation for the messages of sympathy and the many floral tributes received during their recent bereavement. Also attending doctors and nurses, the Red Cross and to Rev. H. G. Douglas and Major Watt for their help. Mrs. Ronald Stinson and Family.

Obituary

GEORGE MACKLIN

ROSENEATH, April 25—(ENS)—The death occurred in Cobourg General Hospital on Saturday of George Macklin of Fenella, after an illness of two months, at the age of 88 years.

Mr. Macklin, a son of the late Edward Macklin and Dorcas Staples was born and spent his entire life in the same community and was highly respected by all who knew him.

His wife, the former Laura Rosevear of Cobourg, predeceased him some years ago. Surviving are two sons, Wilbert, residing on the Macklin homestead and Herbert of Wallaceburg. Another son Percy predeceased him in January 1948.

The funeral will be held on Tuesday with service in Macklin's Church beginning at 2 p.m. Interment in Macklin's cemetery.

Praises Art School

MELBOURNE, Australia (CP)—With the exception of Mexico, the Australian school of modern art was the best he had seen outside Europe, Sir Kenneth Clark, professor of art at Oxford University, said during a recent visit here.

Band Boys Play In Hamilton

Three band lads of the Peterborough Salvation Army Young People's Band attended the Niagara Peninsula Salvation Army Music Festival in Hamilton on Saturday. They were Murray Mander, Terry Huffman and Albert Wilfong. The boys played at the festival Saturday evening, which 1,000 people attended. Bands were from Hamilton, Peterborough, Kitchener, Galt and Brantford.

Their first selection was a drum trio called "The Star Lake March." On the chimes and bells the boys played "Onward Christian Soldiers" and "Anything for Jesus." "Behold, the Saviour" and "A Robe of White" were the selections for a marimbaphone duet.

The boys attended the lectures and instructional sessions in the morning, afternoon and evening. The principal speaker was Charles Braugh, Toronto, territorial commander of the Salvation Army of Canada. Lt.-Col. Joseph Acton, Hamilton division commander, also addressed the gathering.

Kitchener Veterans Win Volleyball Title

Kitchener Veterans' Volleyball team won the Ontario Veterans' Volleyball Championship Saturday night in the YMCA gym. They defeated the Peterborough Veterans two games out of three. In a closely fought game the Peterborough volleyballers made the chances of another championship for the city seem bright by winning the first 17-15.

But in the second the superior spiking of the Kitchener team sunk the YMCA squad quickly to tie the series one game each. They won 15-6. In the third and deciding game the Peterborough team started out strong but again the spiking of the Kitchener players pulled the team on top to win 15-10.

Two weeks ago the Kitchener team won the Senior Volleyball Championship in Toronto Central YMCA in the Ontario Open Tournament. They now hold two Ontario championships.

Line-ups:

Peterborough—Cliff Cadd, Albert Dryland, Ken Kingston, Howard David, Stan Payne and Don Crawford.

Kitchener—Jim McLeod, Al Webber, Henry Emms, Lloyd Caird, Harold Dunke, Arthur Youngman.

Six volleyball teams battled Saturday afternoon in the YMCA gym in the first round of the playoffs for the Lillico Trophy. The teams played in series of two games out of three. Stan Payne's team defeated Bill Young's squad two straight, 15-5 and 15-10; Don Crawford's team eliminated championship hopes of Cliff Cadd's team in two straight 15-7 and 15-9, and Steve Csumrik's squad who finished sixth in the league play defeated Ken Kingston's team 15-9 and 15-10.

On Wednesday evening the winners will play in a round-robin series. The Lillico Trophy has been in competition since 1934.

Industrials Decline In Very Dull Session

TORONTO, April 25 (CP) — Industrials declined steadily in a very dull session here today. Fractional losses were widely scattered as the industrial groupings continued under selling pressure. Golds and base metals were also easier while western oils were the only group to show any strength.

Volume for the first three hours was 297,000 shares, about 22,000 shares more than Friday's similar period.

Papers, utilities and steels backed quietly downwards in the industrial groupings.

Junior producers dipped slightly in a quiet gold list.

Consolidated Smelters lost ⅜ at 96⅞ in base metals and Noranda was down ¼ at 55.

Trio Escapes Burwash

SUDBURY, April 25—(CP)—Three inmates of the nearby Burwash Industrial Farm escaped from the institution early today. It was the second break in four days. The three escapees are: Bennett Yorke, 22-year-old member of the Shawanaga Reserve Indian Band, north of Parry Sound; William E. Brooker, 29, of Hamilton; and Neil Ernest Hicks, 31, of Vancouver.

They'll Do It Every Time

Church and the present minister is the Rev. Ivan Morgan, who came to Peterborough in 1946.

Anniversary services were held morning and evening on Sunday when Dr. F. W. Waters of McMaster University preached.

At the morning service Dr. Waters discussed the moral problems facing the world today. Material advances had been made, but without the will to unite there was no hope for a satisfactory answer to present day difficulties.

In his second sermon, Dr. Waters spoke of the present day tendency to doubt the validity of the Christian faith. People were asking whether faith in God was reasonable. Science was enabling man to do so much for himself that the realism of the Christian religion was being challenged.

The text "I am come that they might have life—that they may have it more abundanty" was Dr. Waters' answer to those questioning Christ's validity. Man had life before Jesus came—intellectual, social and artistic. But Christ ify, inspire and to give direction to every phase of life.

came to enlarge, to enrich, to pu-

Religion was not something living outside other things. It was not a creed, nor an institution, a doctrine or program of behaviour. The Christian religion was the whole of life.

Some had advocated religious totalitarianism whereby the State is under the subjection of the church. Others considered it was the duty of the Church to preach the Gospel and look after the individual needs of the congregation without making any reference to general matters pertaining to the betterment of the life of the community or the world. Quoting Dr. Leslie Weatherhead, Dr. Waters said the Church should be able to tell the Government what is wrong, to suggest ways of righting the problem without being expected to say how its proposal should be carried out.

At the morning service the choir sang the anthems Holy, Holy, Holy, and Now Thank We All Our God and Morton Knox sang Calvary. The evening anthem was Non Nobis Domine and Melville Curtis sang The Dream of Paradise.

Find Inventor Dead

LONDON, April 25 (RFeuters)—Guy Bazeley Petter, 76, inventor of a novel oil engine who has been missing for seven months, has been found dead on a lonely Berkshire heath. Police launched an intensive hunt far the inventor when he disappeared after watching a rugby football match last October. His son, Dr. Lane Petter, said yesterday he was satisfied the death was due to natural causes.

Big Housing Problem

STOCKHOLM (CP)—Sweden's 1949 housing program provided for construction of 33,000 new units. Some 60 per cent of the municipalities will receive increased building quotas. Centres where industries are located will receive 3,000 apartments.

Rule Bribery In City Buying

HALIFAX, April 25 (CP) — Mayor J. E. (Gee) Ahern said today City Council would consider Thursday a Halifax County court decision which said bribery was evident in this city's snowblower purchases last year.

In a 15,000-word decision disclosed yesterday, Judge V. J. Pottier said the transactions were "inconsistent with the good government of the city or the proper conduct of. . . public business."

Judge Pottier named Deputy Mayor J. E. Lloyd as the intended recipient of a $3,000 bribe for which Lloyd would have arranged city purchase of six snowblowers from manufacturer's agent, John A. West of neighboring Dartmouth. Lloyd said today he had been informed of the decision but would continue his campaign in Halifax's mayoralty contest. Civic elections are Wednesday. Lloyd resigned his council seat to contest the office now held by Mayor J. E. (Gee) Ahern.

Policy Identify Body Found In St. Lawrence

QUEBEC, April 25.—(CP). — Provincial police said today a man whose body was recovered from the St. Lawrence river April 9 about 50 miles below Quebec has been identified as James Norman Darling of Brockville, Ont.

Police said his identity was established by means of his wrist watch and finger-print records of the Royal Canadian Regiment with which Darling served.

Darling disappeared from Brockville last November. Drowning was the cause of his death and his body evidently floated about 400 miles down the St. Lawrence river to Petite Riviere St. Francois where it was discovered by a railway repair gang.

Arrested In Cobourg

COBOURG, April 25 (ENS)—Dalton Vancoughnutt, Hilliard Vancoughnutt and Thomas Murray, all of Kingston, were arrested here Saturday night on car theft charges and were returned to Kingston. Police said a stolen car was found near Castleton and at Colborne, Provincial Constable George Coling spotted three men walking along the highway who answered the description of the three seen leaving the stolen car at Castleton. He arrested them and brought them back to Cobourg.

Visit Gold Mines

KIRKLAND LAKE, April 25.—(CP). — Nine students from Ontario schools, winners of an essay contest sponsored by the Ontario Mining Association, spent part of their Easter holidays visiting gold mines in this area. Among the contest winners were Morris Jakowec, Brantford Collegiate and Vocational School, and Donald F. Sherwin, St. Catharines Collegiate.

Fails In Effort To Build Cabins On Land In Park

LAKEFIELD, April 25 (ENS) —After much discussion, the village council recently granted Erskine Douglas a new lease on land he now holds in the local park, but refused to lease him further land in the park, on which to build tourist cabins.

The new lease—a 25 year lease, will replace the original 10 year lease commencing from the original term, and otherwise containing the same terms.

Councillor Roy Brown quoted the original lease as forbidding business to be carried on in the park.

Helping the Town

Mr. Douglas maintained he would not be selling anything, but would be helping the Town by keeping the tourists in the village.

Councillor Albert Buchanan stated he personally thought the park lands should be sold, but since the vote on this question when presented to the taxpayers had been in the negative, he felt the council should abide by the present term of lease. An entention of lease would amount almost to a sale.

Councillor Ken Morris said he thought Mr. Douglas should be leased additional property for the erection of 10 or 12 modern cabins as he requested, as there is only one place in the village for tourists to stay.

Always a Headacke

Reeve W. C. Grant stated the park property has always been a headache and will be unt it is sold. If Douglas were granted permission to build cabins the council would have to allow other to do the same.

When he was refused permission to lease more lots, Mr. Douglas asked if he might erect four or five cabins on the three lots he now owns.

After much debate the council held this question over and asked Mr. Douglas to present a written statement from his neighbours stating they had no objection to tourist cabins being built in the park.

Permission to finish his workshop and garage was granted Mr. Douglas.

Addition Approved

Mrs. Marjorie Wilford was also granted permission to build a living room on to her cottage in the park, subject to building by-law and under supervision of the building inspector.

Beecher Blake was granted permission to lay a pipe line from his cottage to the lake.

Dates For Clinic

In view of the fact that the chest clinic was in the village two years ago it is not being brought into the village again this year but will be at the following places if anyone from Lakefield wishes to attend. Selwyn—June 6, 7 p.m. to 10 p.m.; Young's Point, June 8. 1.30 p.m. to 5 p.m.; Douro. June 8, 7 p.m. to 10 p.m. South Dummer, June 9, 7 p.m. to 10 p.m.

Named Vice-President

LONDON, April 25—(Reuters) —President Boleslaw Bierut has appointed Industry Minister Hilary Ming to be vice-president of the council of ministers and chairman of the state commission for economic planning, the Warsaw radio reported Saturday night.

Abandon Overthrow

WASHINGTON, April 25 (AP) —A spokesman for the council of Free Czechoslovakia said Saturday underground forces in Czechoslovakia called off an attempt to overthrow the Communist government some time ago.

NEW ENTRANT—Latest entrant in the contest for leadership of the Ontario Progressive Conservative party is Mayor Hiram E. McCallum of Toronto. Mayor McCallum announced Friday he would allow his name to stand if nominated at the provincial convention scheduled for Toronto next week.

Removing Trees On Lansdowne

The row of beheaded elms along the Exhibition Park front on Lansdowne St. has been felled. The stumps will probably be uprooted and the boulevard levelled for lawn and shubbery improvement.

Armar Butcher Park Superintendent is completing the boulevard beautification from Park St. to Lock St. Flower beds have been dug and filled with rich soil and compost. The fence background will be an array of climbing roses and shrubs, and the flower beds here and there along the roadside will be of perennial flowers with some annuals in the present planting.

The parks foreman has the notion that the citizens will agree with him that the mutilated elms were bound to go eventually, and it might as well be first as last, especially when the parks department wished to co-operate with the Exhibition Board in beautifying the park front.

Warsaw Ladies Hold Successful Bazaar

WARSAW, April 25 —(ENS)— A successful bazaar was held in the Warsaw United Church hall on Thursday afternoon. Each counter had a good display and buying was brisk. A beautiful autographed quilt, which was made by the Women's Association was sold. Proceeds of the day amounted to over seventy-three dollars.

Counters were in charge of the following:—Fancy work, Mrs. Edwards. Mrs. J. Crowe; Apron, Mrs. Roland Payne, Mrs. Cooper; Delicatessen, Mrs. Clysdale, Mrs. Wm. Darling; Sweet Shoppe, Doris Clysdale, Zelda Bolton; White Elephant, Mrs. Unstead, Mrs. Quirk; Country Store Mrs. Harold Ray; Fish Pond, Mrs. Gordon Payne, Mrs. Bell; Greeting Cards, Mrs. Harold Payne; Afternoon tea, Mrs. Digweed. Mrs. Selkirk and Clara McCracken.

To Dock Aquitania

MONTREAL, April 25 (CP) — Halifax tugboat crews, who joined the Canadian Seamen's Union (TLC) strike, will return to work long enough today to dock the liner Aquitania but will not touch any "hot vessels," the union announced Sunday. Harry Davis, CSU president, said in a statement he had instructed the Halifax branch to dock the Aquitania at the request of the Federal Deputy Minister of Labor to assure the safety of the 1,800 passengers.

German Annexation

PARIS, April 25—(AP)—About 9,600 Germans and 38 square miles of West Germany's frontier territory were taken over by four adjoining Allied countries Saturday. The Netherlands, Belgium, France and Luxembourg occupied various small sectors. Most of the Germans in the affected areas accepted their new status with reluctance, but resignation. Britain and the United States concurred in the agreement for annexation, announced March 26.

To Discuss Shelling

LONDON, April 25 — (AP) — Questions raised by Opposition Leader Winston Churchill and other members of parliament concerning the shelling of British warships in the Yangtze River will be answered by Prime Minister Attlee in the House of Commons Tuesday. The questions have been so penetrating and raise so many issues of policy that the cabinet will deliberate today on the answers to be given.

Business Still Good

OTTAWA, April 25 (CP) — Canadians, with money in their pockets, continued to keep business in retail and wholesale stores at a top pace in February, the Bureau of Statistics reported Sunday. Into retail stores alone they poured some $466,900,000 during the month, an increase of five per cent over the same month a year ago and set total sales for the first two months of 1949 at $960,270,000, compared with $935,530,000 for the same time a year ago.

New School Burned

NELSON, BC, April 25 (CP) — Provincial police are investigating the burning of a new four-room school Sunday at the Doukhobor community of Tarrys, 20 miles west of here, while reports from Grand Forks near the international border said three other Doukhobor-owned building were burned. Witnesses said the $85,000 school—to have opened tomorrow—was wrapped in sheets of flame after an explosion.

Jury Rules Suicide Murder Case

Two Sons Report Parents Unhappy For Many Years

EMBRO, Ont., April 26 (CP)—The mysterious death of Mrs. Louisa Kent, 61, found hanged in her West Zorra township home last March 2, may be investigated further by the attorney-general.

A five-man coroner's jury early today returned a verdict that the case was not one of suicidal hanging. Crown Attorney Craig McKay said he would order a transcript of the evidence for forward to Attorney-General Leslie Blackwell.

Mr. McKay left Woodstock, seven miles east of here, today to consult with W. B. Common, director of public prosecutions for Ontario, on the inquest.

Clarence Kent, the woman's husband, denied in testimony he had anything to do with the death.

Dr. John H. Fisher, provincial pathologist, described injuries on the body which included a fractured vertebrae, five fractured ribs and mutiple bruises.

He said it was highly unusual for vertebrae to be fractured in suicidal hanging. The fractures frequently resulted from manual strangulation or judicial hanging.

Two sons, Ralph and Wallace Kent, both testified they had felt police should be notified immediately after they examined the scene of their mother's death. They said they told police against the advice of the family physician.

They also told of years of unhappy domestic relations between their parents.

Wallace Kent testified he had "plenty" of evidence for divorce if his mother wanted one. He said she would not consent because divorce was against her principles.

Send Carriers Demand By Churchill

Feels Naval Officials Did Right Thing Labor Leader Says

LONDON, April 26 (CP) — Winston Churchill angrily told the government today it ought to have aircraft carriers in China waters for "effective power of retaliation" against Chinese Communists who attacked British warships.

"This is not a matter of warfare," Prime Minister Attlee replied in the House of Commons. "There is no suggestion of making an attack anywhere at all."

Churchill called the shelling of British warships an "atrocious outrage" and accused the government of "throwing the whole burden" of responsibility on naval commanders in China.

Attlee declared the decision to send the Amethyst up to Nanking, made by the naval commanders on the spot, was "correct."

Hubbub broke out when he said the Admiralty should not attempt to guide the man on the spot by detailed orders.

Labor members drowned out some questions with repeated cries of "the Tories want war."

Attlee said Britain's attitude to the Chinese Civil War was governed by Moscow's declaration of December, 1945.

At that time Britain, Russia and the United States announced a policy of non-intervention in China's internal affairs.

Makes Statement

The Prime Minister was making a statement to a crowded House on the shelling of British warships in the Yangtze last week just before the Communist armies crossed the river.

He added that in view of considerable British interests in China and the presence of large British communities, the British government decided some months ago the the British Ambassador and Consular officers in China should remain at their posts.

"We were not alone in the decision to remain at Nanking. Other powers represented there with the exception of the Soviet Union reached the same decision and there has been full consultation between members of the diplomatic corps at Nanking.

"When the Chinese government decided to move to Canton, it is true a warning was issued about warships in the Yangtze. Nevertheless since that time the movements of our warships in the Yangtze had taken place with full knowledge and consent of the National Government of China.

Attlee said warships were at Shanghai and Nanking so as to be ready to evacuate British nationals

On Trail Of Theft Ring

TORONTO, April 26 — (CP).—Police said today they believed they were on the trail of one of the biggest organized automobile accessories theft rings in Toronto's history. Within the last four days some 25 car radios have been recovered and five men are under arrest. Police said they think the accessories, mostly car radios, were stolen while "fences" posing as respectable businessmen got orders for them.

Believe Frost, Blackwell To Lead Race

TORONTO, April 26 —(CP)—Four lawyers, three of them Ontario cabinet ministers, today plunged into the next-to-last lap of the Ontario Progressive Conservative leadership race.

The program of the three-day party convention gives them ample time today for personal appeals for support among the 1,682 delegates and 1,260 alternates. Women and young people meet in the afternoon but the only general convention session is tonight when the four aspirants make their official campaign speeches.

Corridor speculation before and after nominations closed yesterday gives the inside track to Hon. Leslie Frost, Provincial Treasurer, and Hon. Leslie Blackwell, Attorney-General, in Wednesday's balloting. But still very much in the race are Hon. Dana Porter, Minister of Education, and Kelso Roberts, former member of the Legislature.

Mr. Drew, who was elected leader in 1938 when the party was in opposition in Ontario and won the three provincial elections since, reported on his stewardship yesterday. However, he will not be present for the voting tomorrow, returning to Ottawa for the resumed session of the House of Commons.

Don't Stand

Hon. George Doucett, provincial minister of highways who ranked high as a leadership prospect in pre-convention speculation, was not nominated. Mayor Hiram McCallum took the opportunity in a speech of welcome to deny reports he would stand if nominated.

Mr. Blackwell, 50-year-old native of Lindsay and first of the four to announce his candidature, was nominated by Douglas Cunningham of Kingston and D. Park Jamieson of Sarnia. Sam Hughes of Welland and Mrs. R. D. Cumming of Haileybury nominated Mr. Frost, who practises law at Lindsay and was born 54 years ago at Orillia.

Mr. Porter, at 47 the youngest of the four candidates, was nominated by two men from his native Toronto—T. Blair Lang and Harry Barry. E. V. O'Mara of Ottawa and Mrs. J. H. Patton of Kirkland Lake nominated Mr. Roberts, 50-year-old native of Belleville.

Recalls Victories

In his speech, Mr. Drew recalled the provincial election victories the party won in 1943, 1945 and 1948. Although it lost some urban seats in the 1948 election, it won some others it had seldom held before. Generally party representation in the provincial legislature is "more soundly based geographically and otherwise than it has been for a great many years."

Prime Minister St. Laurent Calls June 27 Election; Will Dissolve Parliament

Says Opposition Non-Confidence Votes Have Speeded Election Campaign; Will Appeal To People On 5 Main Issues

By D'ARCY O'DONNELL

OTTAWA, April 26—(CP). — Prime Minister St. Laurent told a cheering Commons last night that Canada's 20th Parliament will be dissolved at the end of this week. He indicated that a general election will be held June 27. He told members it would be improper for him to announce a date until the Governor-General had taken his advice on dissolution. But, he added with a smile, if members would consult the Election Act, they would learn for themselves that it would be possible to have the election on June 27.

Later in an interview with The Canadian Press, he said forcefully:

"Here is the situation, we want an election as early as possible and June 27 is the earliest possible date."

The announcement came at 10.25 p.m. EDT, only a few hours after members had returned from a two-week Easter recess. There were many vacant seats as Mr. St Laurent, who returned Sunday from a tour of Western Canada, rose to make the announcement.

Among the missing was George Drew, Progressive Conservative leader, in Toronto attending a provincial party convention called to select a new leader in Ontario.

Mr. St. Laurent said that since he took over the Prime Ministership last November from Rt. Hon. W. L. Mackenzie King he has felt that the people "should have the earliest practicable opportunity to pronounce upon that change."

Give Opposition Chance

Furthermore, he said, "all opposition parties have, during the present session, moved votes of want of confidence in the administration, and presumably have indicated thereby that they do not wish the present government to carry on any longer than is absolutely necessary, without a renewal of its mandate."

The government handily survived four confidence votes on

Plan To Raise Old Age Pension By $10 Monthly

OTTAWA, April 26 (CP)—A $10-a-month increase in the basic for old-age pensions will be provided in legislation to be launched in parliament today by Health Minister Paul Martin.

The present basis is $30 a month, with the Federal Government bearing 75 per cent of the cost of that amount. Under the new legislation, this will be boosted to $40 a month.

No change will be made at present, it was understood, in the eligibility—pensions start at the age of 70—and the "means test" that generally limits single pensioners to a total income of $600 a year, including pension, and married persons to $1,080.

The proposed amendment will make it possible for some pensioners to receive up to $50 a month, with the aid of supplementary grants given by some of the provinces above the basic payment.

Supplementary Payments

British Columbia and Alberta have supplementary payments of $10 a month. In Saskatchewan, Manitoba and Nova Scotia, they run up to $5 a month, depending on income of the recipients.

In Ontario, there is a flat $2.50-a-month supplementary, plus further amounts up to a total of $10 if the pensioners can qualify under a means test. The other provinces do not have supplementary payments.

Health Minister Martin told the House yesterday that he would be proposing pensions legislation, but he did not disclose its nature.

Later, it was learned the $10-a-month increase will be the chief change in the minister's bill.

US-Britain Order Warships Out Of Shanghai

SHANGHAI, April 26.—(AP)—The United States navy today pulled its heavy ships out of Shanghai to avoid involvement in China's civil war.

British authorities followed the American lead and withdrew warships of their Shanghai force. Movement of the ships into the Yangtze estuary will put them out of artillery range when the Communists arrive in the world's fourth-largest city. Most of the city's 5,000,000 inhabitants expect them to walk in and take over as they did the Nationalist capital at Nanking.

As the situation grew tense, Britain ordered the cruiser Jamaica from her base in the British West Indies to Far Eastern waters.

The Central Newss Agency, issuing a garrison communique, said operations in the Nanking-Hangchow-Shanghai triangle had slackened during the last 48 hours. Military men do not think the Communists have enough troops across the Yangtze yet to start rolling in strength toward the big targets of Shanghai and Hangchow. But they may start any time, and when they do they probably will come fast.

Meanwhile, Shanghai, which had taken the situation with relative calm, was beginning to show evidence of panic. Shanghai's commerce seemed grinding to a halt. The money market was so chaotic as to be meaningless.

Sealer Destroyed By Ice Believe Crew of 26 Safe

ST. JOHN'S, April 26—(CP).—The sealer Wimoda was destroyed by grinding ice off Labrador today but there is "every hope" her 26-man crew is safe. Harold Dawe, owner of the Wimoda, told The Canadian Press in a telephone conversation from Cupids that another sealer, the Linda May, was in sight of the stranded men and may already have rescued them.

The sealing vessel Linda May radioed that Wimoda's crew was on the ice floes two miles north of Lark Island near the entrance to the Strait of Belle Isle.

Linda May said she and another sealer, Terra Nova out of St. John's, were punching through the ice to the scene to attempt a rescue.

Lark Island is just of Belle Isle, which is 20 miles east of the southeastern tip of Labrador.

The Linda May's messages were relayed to Halifax marine radio by Belle Isle radio.

The 170-ton Wimoda is owned by Wimoda Shipping Company of St. John's.

U.S. Navy Secretary Resigns Over Carrier

WASHINGTON, April 26 (AP)—Navy Secretary John L. Sullivan today resigned in protest against scrapping the 65,000-ton super aircraft carrier.

His action, which had been expected, is based on his belief that the navy is not being given proper consideration in defence policy.

Defence Secretary Louis Johnson's order Saturday to stop work on the $189,000,000 carrier was just one of a series of incidents against which Sullivan is protesting, associates said.

Say Way Clear To End Blockade

WASHINGTON, April 26 (AP)—The United States said today "the way appears clear" for lifting the Berlin blockade provided the Russian terms actually are those published by Moscow.

It was understood the United States, Britain and France had discussed the published Soviet terms and found them acceptable.

The only reservation appears to be whether the Russians intend to propose any further conditions.

The formal state department pronouncement came after a round of top-level government conferences. One of these was a report to President Truman from Dr. Philip Jessup, the American delegate to the United Nations Security Council. Jessup had discussed the Soviet proposal at Lake Success, N.Y., with Jakob A. Malik, the Russian U.N. delegate.

France To Be Given Biggest Share Of ERP

WASHINGTON, April 26 (AP).—France was reported in line today for the biggest share of the proposed United States military aid program for western Europe.

Diplomatic officials who reported this said France would get top priority because of its strategic location and because its 10 divisions of troops are in sore need of equipment.

The administration plans to ask Congress for $1,130,000,000 to rearm 11 Atlantic-pact allies during the next year. An additional $320,000,000 will be requested to bolster the defences of other "friendly countries."

Britain stands second and Italy third, officials indicated, among the countries tentatively due to get American arms, equipment and raw materials under the program.

Resigns As Counsel

WINDSOR, April 26.—(CP).—Bruce J. S. Macdonald announced today that he has resigned as counsel for the one-man Ontario Royal Commission conducting a probe into operation of the Metropolitan General Hospital. The announcement followed a telegram today from Commissioner Judge Eric Ross at his home in Woodstock, informing Mr. Macdonald that he was "considering the appointment of outside counusel."

4 RCAF Planes Resume Search

OTTAWA, April 26 (CP) — Four RCAF aircraft left nearby Rockcliffe Station today to photograph the general area where an aircraft has been missing since last Thursday, but bad weather was reported to be holding up their operations.

Armed with the latest photo survey equipment, the planes had hoped to complete "operation Chatham" by nightfall. The operation, new in peacetime air force history, involves photographing more than 7,000 square miles of wood, hilly country in the area between Presque Isle, Me., and Chatham, N. B.

In charge of the operation is Flt.-Lt. E. E. Hurlbut of Edmonton, who will pilot one of the Dakotas. The other Dakota will be piloted by FO. E. C. Mayo, of Toronto, while FO J. E. A. Hermanson and FO. T. A. Shore, both of Ottawa, flying the Lancasters.

It will be the first time in the peacetime history of the RCAF that air Photography has been employed in search and rescue operations.

The four aircraft—two Lancasters and two Dakotas—will cover an area 60 miles wide and 120 miles long. To complete the operations, they will make 33 runs across the length of the area, travelling a total distance of about 4,000 miles.

Steel Union Seeking Extra $5,000,000

TORONTO, April 26 —(CP)—Canadian Steel Workers are going after an extra $5,000,000 in wages this year from the three big Canadian primary steel plants, C. H. Millard, national director of the United Steelworkers of America (C.I.O.-C.C.L.) said Monday.

He released the terms of a proposed agreement with the Steel Company of Canada, providing for a wage increase of 10 cents an hour and a 44-hour week—four hours less than the Hamilton plant's 5,000 employees now work.

He said the union will "insist" on the same terms with the rest of the "Big Three" — Dominion Steel and Coal at Sydney, N.S., and Algoma Steel of Sault Ste. Marie.

The proposed increase and shorter working hours are retroactive to April 1.

Pleads Guilty To 40 Charges

PORT HOPE, April 26—(CP). — John S. Milloy, Port Hope stockbroker, today pleaded guilty to 40 charges of theft of about $18,000 in securities and was remanded to May 4.

Milloy's stock activities were suspended last August by order of the Ontario Securities Commission, and after an investigation he was charged with theft of $200 in securities and remanded on $5,000 bail. As investigations continued, further charges were laid.

Edmund Whetmore, auditor for the Ontario Securities Commission, testified an audit of Milloy's affairs showed liabilities exceeded assets by $15,000.

Defence counsel said a business opportunity was open for Milloy which would mean he might be able to repay the funds.

Chinese Reds Invade U.S. Envoy's Home

WASHINGTON, April 26 (AP).—Senator Tom Connally (Dem., Tex.) said today a protest by the United States State Department should be "rammed down the throats" of Chinese Communists who invaded the American Ambassador's home in Nanking.

"It's a serious affront," the chairman of the Senate Foreign Relations Committee told a reporter. "They've got to learn to respect United States rights and property."

The State Department ordered the United States Embassy to lodge a vigorous protest with Communist leaders yesterday, soon after it was reported that armed Communist troops had forced their way into the building and routed Ambassador J. Leighton Stuart out of bed.

News dispatches and a report from the Embassy said the troops, after pushing into the building, inspected the second floor and questioned members of the staff. While they did not harm anyone or molest the property, they were reported to have told a servant that Stuart was not to leave the compounds in which he lives.

King And Queen Wed 26 Years

LONDON, April 26 (AP)—The King and his Queen celebrated their 26th wedding anniversary today.

The royal couple had a quiet family luncheon at Buckingham Palace. Otherwise there were no great festivities.

The monarch still suffers from a circulatory ailment in his legs, but he walks a little every day. He stayed at the palace Monday night while the Queen went to the ballet.

The Queen, who was Lady Elizabeth Bowes-Lyon, seems to like her job well enough, but it was the possibility that she might some day become Queen that made her think thrice, according to intimates, when the then Duke of York was asking for her hand.

Russia Ready To Call Off Blockade Before Meeting

LONDON, April 26 (AP) — Russia said today she has offered a deal to end the Berlin blockade, main point of friction in the cold war.

The proposal, announced by the official Soviet news agency, Tass, would call off the blockade in advance of a meeting of the foreign ministers of the Big Four if the western powers will set a date for the meeting acceptable to the Soviet Union.

If the offer is what Tass reported, it would mark a major concession by the Russians. The western powers have insisted that the blockade be lifted before any Big-Four session.

Moscow's press published the terms under which Russia offers to lift the blockade.

1. The Russians will lift their communications ban, provided the west ends its counter-blockade of Eastern Germany;

2. The Berlin currency question, which hampered the four-power talks in Moscow last summer, can be discussed by the four powers after the communications restrictions are lifted.

3. The entire German question should come up for review by the four foreign ministers.

Some foreign diplomats here said this offer was the first sign in months that some agreement might be possible between the east and the west, but they warned against either hasty optimism or undue pessimism. One diplomat said the Soviet statement "holds a promise" which was worthy of consideration by the United States Britain and France.

It would appear here, from the terms of the offer, that a unified Berlin currency is no longer a prime condition for the lifting of communications restrictions in Germany's first city.

Calgary DP Tips Off Police About Leschenko's Spying

CALGARY, April 26 (CP) — Russian-born Nick Karaban of Calgary disclosed that he tipped off the RCMP that Dimitry Leschenko was a former Russian army officer. He said he did it "because I like Canada."

Karaban returned to Calgary Sunday night from Winnipeg, where he appeared as a corroborating witness for the RCMP against Leschenko, now facing deportation from Canada for entering the Dominion "by misrepresentation."

However, Karaban said that when he gave his information to police, he found that they already had the Russian spy under surveillance.

A short, heavy man who hauls heavy bins about the egg drying plant where he is employed here, Karaban said he was born in Russia and moved to the Ukraine as a youngster. When the Germans over-ran his country in 1940, he was taken prisoner and sent to a labor camp.

Karaban said he met Leshchenko while they were coming to this country as displaced persons from Germany. They worked together on a railway section gang near Banff, Alta., and later roomed together for a time.

"He (Leshchenko) talked a lot about Russia when we were together," Karaban said. "I did not like this because he liked Russia too much. I like Canada. It is a free country, while Russia and Germany are not. So I went to the police."

Deep-Sea Strike Costs Halifax $500,000

HALIFAX, April 26 (CP(Canadian deep-sea shipping strike, today in its 26th day, has cost the port of Halifax at least $500,000. This is the "conservative" estimate of shipping and port officials.

The $500,000 figure takes in dozens of cost items: seamen's, stevedores' and freight handlers' wages, revenue lost by ships' handlers, tug companies, railroads and, of course, the shipping firms themselves. These are most directly affected.

Reduce Waste On Farm Juniors Told

GUELPH, April 26 — Necessity for reducing waste on the farm was stressed Monday at the annual meeting of the Junior Farmers' Association of Ontario, when more than 420 young agriculturists gathered at the Ontario Agricultural College here.

Close study of methods of cutting unnecessary costs is needed particularly this year, Prof. W. R. Reek, principal of the college, said when he spoke to delegates and guests. He urged farmers to get rid of "boarder" cows, unthrifty meat animals and poultry with low laying records.

Such steps, he said, would bring about maximum production at minimum costs. Above all, quality must be maintained if the farmer is to keep his farm on a business basis.

Prof. W. M. Drummond, head of the department of agricultural economics, listed the difficulties that may lie ahead for farmers, and advised delegates on methods of protecting their business and preventing loss.

Growth of co-operatives was outlined by Leonard Harman, general secretary of the United Co-operatives of Ontario. He said young farmers should acquaint themselves with the principles and practices of business to assure themselves of success in agriculture. Adoption of such methods had been responsible for growth of the co-operative movement.

Describe UNESCO

Work of UNESCO was described at the meeting by Don F. Sullivan, representative of the United States rural youth movement on UNESCO at Washington, who said peace could be promoted by seeking understanding, social welfare and security.

At Monday night's meeting, founders of the junior farmer movement were honored. The group included Mrs. J. K. Kelly, of Almonte; Miss Ethel Chapman, Farmers' Magazine, of Toronto; R. S. Duncan, assistant deputy minister of agriculture; J. C. Steckley, director of the Western Ontario Experimental Farm at Ridgetown; W. H. J. Tisdale, assistant manager of the Canadian Co-Operative Wool Growers, and I. B. Whale, associate editor of the Farmer's Advocate.

Ralph Kent testified that an assault charge once had been laid against his father. Mr. McKay said he recalled that Mrs. Kent had withdrawn it.

Ralph said that when he was married "father wouldn't ride to the wedding with my mother.

The sons testified they went to their father last February and suggested a settlement of differences.

Ralph said his father "got mad" at Wallace. When they were leaving, Ralph testified, his father shouted: "I'll finish it and finish it proper." Later in the hearing, Clarence Kent vehemently denied making the remark.

Denies Touching Wife

Crown Attorney Mackay snapped question at Clarence Kent when he testified: "Do you deny having broken her ribs? Did you burn aything in the stove that had to do with your wife's death? Did you throttle your wife on March 2?"

Kent flatly denied all suggestions he had anything to do with his wife's death.

"I never thought she would do what she did do," he said. "It was as big a surprise to me as anybody else."

Dr. J. D. Jackson, family physician, said Mrs. Kent had suffered from arthritis, a stomach condition and, near the time of her death, from intestinal influenza.

Police testified that sections of the bannister from which Mrs. Kent was found hanging had been examined by National Research Council experts.

Inspector Harold Graham of the Provincial Police said the experts could find no rope marks on the bannister nor any trace of paint or varnish from the bannister on the rope.

the address in reply to the speech from the Throne, read at the opening of the session Jan. 26. Two more non-confidence motions were moved by the Progressive Conservatives and the CCF during the budget debate and will be voted on before the debate is concluded.

Mr. St. Laurent practically challenged the opposition parties to bring about a vote on the motions before the government goes to the country. He asked members to conclude the debate tomorrow. That would involve a vote on the motions and would open the way for passage of the budget resolutions providing for the tax reductions announced by Finance Minister Abbott in his budget speech March 22.

There was immediate reaction from opposition benches when the cheering that marked the conclusion of Mr. St. Laurent's announcement died down.

Gordon, Graydon, acting Progressive Conservative leader, declared members of his party were "gleeful" and said the government facing a want-of-confidence vote in the House, had been "chased to the people."

Hope Choose Wisely

M. J. Coldwell, C.C.F. leader, said the people of all Canada—including Newfoundland — have the right to elect representatives. He hoped they would "choose wisely, progressively and well."

Solon Low, Social Credit leader, said he hoped Parliament would complete its sessional business before calling of an election, but he nevertheless welcomed the reference to the pople.

Standing in the 245-seat chamber now is:

Liberals, 124; Progressive Conservatives, 69; C.C.F., 32; Social Credit, 12; others, 7; vacant, one.

Under the 1947 Redistribution Act which becomes effective with the general election, Commons membership will be raised to 262, including seven members from Newfoundland.

Mr. St. Laurent indicated that he will appeal to the electorate on five main issues:

1. The Government's action in bringing Newfoundland into Confederation as a 10th province.
2. The Government's support of the Atlantic Security Pact.
3. The Government's extension of domestic rent and certain other controls.
4. The Government's 1949-50 tax-reducing budget.
5. The cabinet personnel, greatly changed since the last general election in June, 1945.

Don't Wish To Wait

He recalled that the life of parliament does not expire before August, 1950, but said there are a "good many reasons" why an election should be held before next year.

"It was felt by the government that the people of Canada would expect to have the budget presented at an early date, and it was the desire of the government, before authorizing the signature of Canada to the North Atlantic Treaty, to secure the approval of parliament to the principles underlying that treaty," he said.

"My colleagues and I have reached the conclusion that no important public interest would suffer if the rest of the business forecast for the present session of parliament should be postponed until later this year.

"It is pretty evident also that until a general election is held it will be difficult for honorable members on both sides of the House not to give a good deal of attention to the forthcoming election, and it would probably not be an exaggeration to say that some of the debates in the House have already become tinged by the approach of an election campaign."

Last Minute Work

He said members will be asked to pass the Budget, a bill amending Old-Age Pensions Legislation, a bill providing for the construction of oil-pipe lines in Western Canada, and to vote enough money to carry the administration through until a new parliament can be convened.

The House will be asked to forego its half-holiday Wednesday and hold three sittings a day from Thursday until dissolution. He did not indicate whether the dissolution would come Friday or Saturday.

Under the Elections Act there must be a lapse of 49 days between the issuance of an election writ and voting day. However, additional time is usually allowed to get all the complicated election machinery into operation. An announcement Saturday would leave 59 days to June 27.

Officials in the chief electoral office said that the dissolution announcement would be the signal for all returning officers to get to work. They could be ready for a June 27 election.

Blossom Day May 15

QUEENSTON, Ont., April 26—(CP). — District fruit growers agree that May 15 will be blossom Sunday this year. That's the day when acre after acre of fruit trees in this Niagara Peninsula fruit-growing district are blossoming at the peak of their beauty.

should it become necessary.

"When the incident took place to which I am about to refer, the Amethyst was proceeding on her lawful occasions and there was no other properly constituted authority to whom the British government were under an obligation to notify her movements even had they been in a position to do so."

In conformity with the decision to remain at Nanking, the British ships had been relieving one another at that port at regular intervals for some months past. On this occasion the object of the passage of the Amethyst was to relieve the Consort at Nanking.

The Consort was due for relief but relief was postponed in view of a Communist ultimatum due to expire April 12 and which might have been followed by a crossing of the Yangtze.

"Only on April 18 was it learned that final expiry of the ultimatum might lead to the crossing of the Yangtze by Communist forces on April 21.

Timed Passage

"The flag officer decided with the agreement of the British Ambassador that passage should be timed to allow the Amethyst to reach Nanking a clear 24 hours before the expiry of the latest Communist ultimatum. Had there been no incident, the Amethyst should have reached Nanking on April 20.

"In the light of these facts the decision was made for the Amethyst to sail and this decision in my opinion was correct," Attlee said.

The Prime Minister then gave details of the shelling. Up to the time of the incident, he said, conditions on the Yangtze were "entirely peaceful and no fighting was going on."

Summarizes Casualties

Attlee summarized the casualties as follows: the London, 13 killed and 15 wounded; Consort, 10 killed and four seriously wounded; Amethyst 19 killed and 27 wounded; Black Swan, seven wounded.

In addition 12 ratings still were missing.

The London suffered most severely, having been holed repeatedly in her hull and upper works.

Damage to the Consort and Black Swan was less serious. The London and Black Swan had already completed emergency repairs, he said.

Attlee said the Communists stated their forces suffered 252 casualties and claimed that the British government had directly participated in the Chinese civil war by firing on Communist positions.

"These claims as far as they relate to the British government or Royal Navy are as fantastic as they are unfounded," Attlee said.

"The Progressive Conservative party represents every part of Ontario and all occupational groups. It is clearly the party of the people, representing all parts of the province and all the broad activities of the people."

He made a brief reference to the leadership contest, saying that the successful candidate "will have heavy responsibilities and great opportunities." He appealed for the united support of the party for the new leader.

Fraser Chairman

He urged the delegates to concentrate on organizing for the forthcoming federal election. In it the issue was between the Progressive Conservative Party and socialism. The Federal Liberal government had departed from the fundamentals of Liberal political thought and now believed in state control "over all our affairs."

If he won the election, he would introduce an amendment to the criminal code under which action would be taken against Communists, whom he described as "treacherous rats" and traitors to Canada.

Fred Jasperson of Kingsville was appointed returning officer for the voting Wednesday. Beverly Matthews of Toronto heads the nominations committee and Gordon Fraser of Peterborough is credentials committee chairman.

Mr. Matthews announced voting arrangements. The winning candidate needs a clear majority. If the first ballot is indecisive, the low man is dropped for the second. Figures would not be announced.

Note Firmer Tendency On Toronto Exchange

TORONTO, April 26 (CP) — Slight firming tendencies were evident in quiet trading here today. A few industrials rose fractions in more active trading and base metals held tight. Golds and western oils showed a slightly easier trend.

Volume for the first three hours was 371,000 shares, about 74,000 shares more than yesterday's similar period.

Key issues were stronger in the industrials continuing the late recovery trend of yesterday's weak market.

Sherrit-Gordon was in demand and Normetal, Falconbridge and Pend Oreille rose in base metals.

Kerr Addison and Dome Mines slipped in senior golds while juniors mixed gains and losses.

Germans Accept Republic Terms

FRANKFURT, April 26 (CP)— German anti-Communist leaders reached agreement Monday with the three military governors to rush formation of the Federal Republic of Western Germany. The accord ignores Russia.

Gen. Lucius D. Clay, United States military governor, predicted the new European state—with a population of more than 45,000,000 Germans west of the Elbe—would come into existence by July 15. That would be four months after the target date fixed last year by the Western Allies.

Gen. Sir Brian Robertson, British military governor, termed the agreement "an historic stage between the occupiers and the German people."

The republic will be made up of the individual German states in the American, British and French occupation zones.

At the end of a six-hour conference between German constitution writers and the Western governors, Clay announced:

"We have reconciled all differences between the occupation powers and the Germans, and the Germans have reconciled all differences between themselves."

Arthur S. Ovens Dies In Toronto

Arthur Stewart Ovens of Cobourg, brother of Wm. G. Ovens of this city, former mayor and present general chairman of the Peterborough Trade Fair opening this evening at the armouries, died Monday evening in Toronto General Hospital. He was 34.

Mr. Ovens was born in Cobourg, had lived there continuously, and had been ill for the last five weeks, recently in critical condition.

The funeral will be Thursday at 2 p.m. from the McFadyen Funeral Chapel, Cobourg.

St. Andrew's Church To Mark Anniversary

St. Andrew's United church will celebrate its 116th anniversary on Sunday next, May 1st, when Very Rev. Dr. George C. Pidgeon, first moderator of the United Church of Canada will be the special preacher. The choir will be assisted by Miss Jean Marie Scott, an outstanding soprano soloist, and a day of real celebration is looked for. Rev. M. J. Aiken is the present pastor of St. Andrew's.

Delivery Of Trees Begins Wednesday

County of Peterborough will deliver trees from Orono to applicants in the district of Young's Point, Burleigh and the area to the north on Wednesday, April 27; and possibly on the following day to the western part of Smith, Ennismore, Harvey, Bobcaygeon and Galway. This announcement by W. A. Anderson assumes favorable weather. Deliveries in the southern section of the county will be announced later.

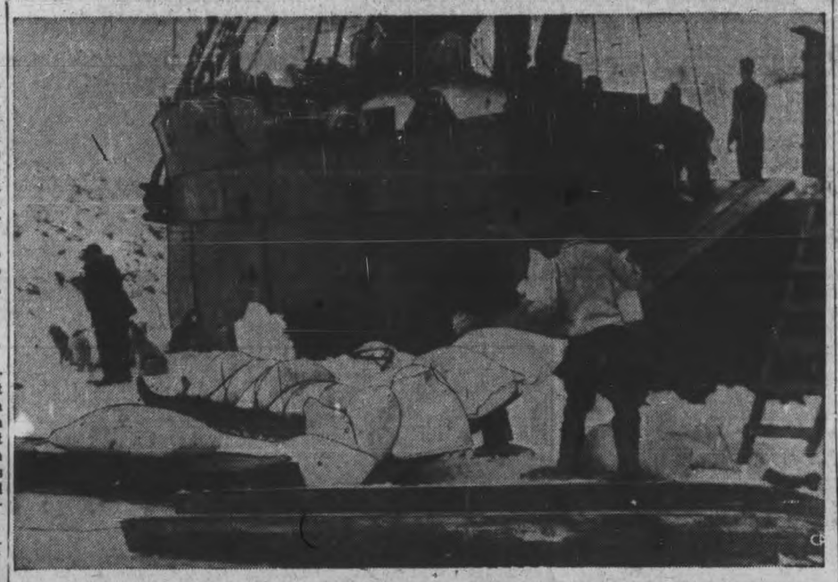
Charles Calver Heads Rotarians

CAMPBELLFORD, April 26—(ENS) — Charles Calver was elected president of the Rotary Club at the weekly luncheon on Monday. A. K. Loucks was elected vice-president; F. S. Linton, secretary; Carl Maier, tredsurer; Frank De Carrol and Rev. W. J. Lennox, directors. Ralph Locke was appointed voting delegate to the Rotary International annual meeting to be held in New York City.



L. B. Glover reported that his committee had received $450 for the Ontario Society for Crippled Children, Toronto, from the Easter seal campaign.

C. J. Maier, general chairman of the Industries Committee reported that under the 26-week payroll deduction plan the Bank of Montreal employees have pledged to contribute to the Memorial Hospital, $108; Public Utilities Commission employees, $250; Meyers Transport employees, $312; and Campbellford Concrete Products employees, $104. One hundred per cent of the employees of Meyers Transport and Campbellford Concrete Products have complied with the plan. The management of Meyers Transport have pledged to donate a sum equal to the total amount of their employees.

F. S. Linton has been invited to address the District Conference to be held in the Royal York Hotel, Toronto, early in May.

Rule Homicide Case

ROCHESTER, NY, April 26 — (AP). — Police Monday night identified the body of a woman found in the Genesee River with two bullet wounds in the chest as Jean Gareis, formerly from Oakland, Calif. The body was discovered Saturday. Police said the case was "definitely a homicide."

FOOD FOR VILLAGERS—Bags of flour for the starving Labrador outpost of St. Charles Harbor are unloaded from the ice-breaker Saurel. Dog teams stand ready to carry the supplies back to shore. The Saurel bucked through 40 miles of heavy ice to deliver a 66-ton cargo to hunger-stricken villages along the Labrador coast. The mercy mission was made in answer to a plea for aid from Premier Joseph Smallwood of Newfoundland. The photo was taken by the Saurel's veteran skipper, Capt. C. A. Chouinard.

No One Injured In Two Car-Truck Collisions

A truck turned on its side Monday at the intersection of London and Downie Sts., but the driver, Robert Earl Robson, 426 London St., escaped injury. The truck and a car driven by Heiman Cadeau, 53 Victoria Ave., collided at the intersection.

Constable H. Mesley says the truck continued 30 feet along the road after the impact, before coming to rest on its side, and the car stopped ten feet beyond the point of impact.

Mrs. Cadeau was a passenger in her husband's car.

Another Collision

There was a collision Monday between a car and a truck at the intersection of Reid and Stewart Sts. The car, driven by Alex. Hamilton, Boulter, was damaged to the extent of approximately $100, Constable Gordon Trennum estimated. A clearance light was knocked off the truck. Thomas Busby, RR 1, Peterborough, was riding in the truck as a passenger.

BORDERLINE ANEMIA*
can rob you of energy and ambition!

WE ALL KNOW people whose stamina and spirits seem always under par — who lack ambition and drive — who look like pale, tired failures. Often, such effects come from a blood condition. They may indicate a Borderline Anemia, a mild anemia due to a nutritional deficiency of iron. They may mean that your red blood cells may be too faded and puny to transmit full energy to your body. Many women, men and children go dragging through life with this Borderline Anemia.

How Ironized Yeast Tablets Build Up Your Blood and Vigor

Take Ironized Yeast Tablets if you're too pale, too tired because of this blood deficiency. They are formulated to help build up faded red blood cells—thus restore vigor.

Of course, continuing tiredness and pallor may come from other conditions—so consult your doctor regularly. But in this Borderline Anemia, take Ironized Yeast Tablets to help build up your blood. Take them to start your energy shifting back into "high"—help restore your color! Take them so you can enjoy life again!

Young People Present Truck To Missionary

More than four hundred enthusiastic people crowded the Full Gospel Pentecostal Church, Water street, Monday evening for a sectional Rally of the Christ's Ambassadors, the young people's organization of the Pentecostal Assemblies of Canada. At least 20 churches, foom Belleville to Toronto, and from Lake Ontario to Bancroft, were represented in the gathering. Bus loads came from Lindsay, Oshawa, Trenton and Frankford.

Speaker for the evening was Rev. Laurie Price, the CA president for Eastern Ontario and Quebec, who spoke of the challenge of Christian Youth, and exhorted the many young people present to enthusiastic devotion to the opportunities presented every day to Christian witness by word and action.

Evangelist Hope Smith of Verona sang, and also a trio from Oshawa, the Eastern Ontario Pentecostal Bible College Quartette, and the octette of girls from the Peterborough church. Rev. G. R. Upton, the Missionary secretary-treasurer of the Pentecostal Assemblies of Canada spoke briefly of the most unusual feature of the meeting, that is the new half-ton truck parked in front of the church, which is an exact unit of the model to be sent by the Christ's Ambassadors of Ontario to Rev. John Lynn, now a missionary in Kenya Colony, British East Africa. Two thousand dollars has been raised or pledged for this purpose by the various groups. The Peterborough group pledged and raised $150, and the rest of the pledges from other assemblies will soon be in and within a few weeks the new truck will be on its way to carry a courageous young missionary family on protracted and exhausting "safaris" over the bumpy roads of east Africa.

The leader announced that Rev. John Shannon, pastor at Norwood, was erecting a parsonage, a new residence in connection with a new work there, and that they were urgently needing funds to put the roof on and put windows in. One hundred dollars was raised by the offering to assist him.

Rev. M. W. Holmes of Cobourg, who is the CA vice-president, acted as chairman of the meeting. Rev. W. B. Greenwood, pastor of the host church, extended a hearty welcome to the many visitors, and spoke of his appreciation of the pleasure afforded in having the rally in the Full Gospel Pentecostal Church. Mr. Roy Howard, the Christ's ambassador leader in Peterborough, expressed his appreciation as to the spiritual benefit of such a meeting.

Campbellford School Teachers Ask For Adjustment In Salary

CAMPBELLFORD, April 26. — (ENS).—Miss M. Stephen, representing the High School staff, addressed the Board of Education Monday night regarding the present salary schedule. She asked that the schedule be made to conform with the one outlined by the Teachers' Federation.

After a lengthy discussion, the board instructed the secretary to inform the High School staff by letter that the adjustment of the present schedule was under consideration.

Mrs. Clark asked the board to provide transportation to Colborne for students who were taking part in the music festival. Her request was granted.

The resignation of Mr. Peterson, assistant principal of the Public School, was accepted.

A joint letter from Miss Paisley and Miss Redner, Public School teachers, asking for a salary adjustment to compensate for their expenses in attending special summer courses, was discussed at length. To equalize salaries it was decided that the pay of Public School teachers having less than $1,600 a year be raised to $1,650, plus the annual increment.

Staff Praised

Principal Chas. Haig of the Public School, gave a written report, at the Board's request, on the members of his staff. He said that the present staff were cooperative and efficient. Every teacher was doing excellent work. It would be unfair, he stated, to attempt to rank teachers in order of their efficiency.

Principal H. R. Hendershot reported that Miss N. O'Shaughnessy had intimated to him that she intended to discontinue teaching home economics at the close of the present school term. He suggested to the Board that Miss L. Jarvis, who had signified her willingness to qualify for the position, be given a grant of $100 or a yearly increase in salary of the same amount. He also reported that the gymnasium needed redecorating and that new lights should be installed.

Payment Sought

A communication was received from the Tatham Co., Ltd., engineers and contractors, asking for $1,328.88 which was the balance of the fee for supervising the contracts at the public school. The total fee was $4,381.68.

The Board decided not to make a settlement at this time because the contracts had not been completed prior to Nov. 1, 1948. The board further decided to make every effort to complete the work and when this is accomplished the payment of the fee will be reconsidered.

"The Best Year of Our Lives"

CONTINENTAL'S BETTER PROTECTION
COVERED MORE CANADIANS IN 1948!

1948 saw another increase in the ranks of Canadians protected by Continental Casualty Company against financial loss due to accident or sickness. The Company is proud of its continuing record of service . . . of providing security for families whose welfare would be jeopardized by sudden loss of the bread-winner's income. The expense of hospitalization can often mean the end of hard earned savings. Loss of the weekly pay cheque due to disability can spell financial disaster. A reputation for prompt payment of claims . . . conscientious service to every policyholder . . . has made Continental the logical choice of thousands of Canadians who have sought accident and sickness protection in the past year. 1948 also saw a healthy growth of the resources which stand behind every Continental policy. It has been, truly . . . THE BEST YEAR OF OUR LIVES!

Peterborough Trade Fair

Trade Fairs are in the fashion. Holland has had one recently—the Royal Netherlands Trade Fair at Utrecht. Toronto is having one, similar to the successful and large show a year ago. Peterborough is having one. It opens this evening in the Armouries.

* * *

The Peterborough Fair is different in purpose from the Dutch and Toronto shows. The intention is primarily to give the people of this city and district an opportunity to see under one roof what Peterborough factories produce. If the show is as representative as we expect it to be the citizens should be moved to pride as well as astonishment that Peterborough industries are so productive and varied. There is an amazing diversity in the products and services—as many as fifty classifications of items, from aeroplane skis to malt extracts, from brake linings to polished marble for store fixtures. The Fair will not be entirely local; for instance, the Ontario Department of Lands and Forests, presided over by the Honourable Harold Scott, our M.P.P., has set up the exhibit which appeared in the recent Toronto Sportsmen's Show; and there will be entertainers who come from outside Peterborough purlieus.

* * *

Peterborough is an industrial city and it is good for the industries as well as citizens (some ten thousand of whom are wage earners in our factories, shops and service establishments) to have a Trade Fair. We congratulate the Kiwanis Club, sponsoring the Fair, on its intention and look forward this week to seeing a successful, interesting fulfilment of the intention.

"Semi-Literacy" Among Matriculants

We should like to return once more to a subject upon which we said something last week. Dr. J. M. Paton, associate professor of English at Macdonald College, Montreal — which is in part the equivalent of an Ontario Normal School — spoke to the O.E.A. about what he called "the mass-production of semi-literates". Without attempting to discuss this large subject or his address in full, we would like to call attention to his statement that too many pupils are leaving secondary school "deficient in ability to master the thought of a passage and to express their ideas in writing or orally with precision and clarity". This is a grave condemnation, and judging from senior school-pupils whom we meet, and recent matriculants from schools in Ontario and Quebec with whom we have had dealings, his assessment is just.

The fault is not primarily due to the schools or the system of instruction. In these times there are so many passive forms of amusement, many of them distractions which make no mental demands, and so much time is spent listening to radios, seeing movies, looking at picture magazines and funny books, that pupils have little practice outside school in speaking in sentences, in reading, or in writing. If the schools cannot counteract the environment, there is danger that the western human being will become truly illiterate—wordless—through the disuse of words, particularly of written words, no matter whether the person has a High School diploma or a B.A. This is an important practical as well as cultural concern, since, as scientists tell us, people can think only in words.

The clock cannot be turned back to the days of Scott and Dickens when folk who had some schooling spent their evenings reading, and others in telling stories and folk tales. It would be impracticable to decree that all radios, movie cameras and funny books be destroyed. Parents can of course exercise more oversight over their children's spare-time occupations and encourage conversation and reading. But the main burden falls on the schools.

Dr. Paton believes that the semi-literacy is partly the fault of the "traditional" type of examinations in literature and composition. He recommends standardized tests in reading and word-usage. We hesitate to disagree with a practising teacher in this matter, but do suggest that, valuable as factual, short-answer tests may be (which we presume is the nature of his standardized tests), these tests are gauges of mental agility, memory and the ability to spot relationships which have already been established. Pupils fill in blank spaces in propositions already set down. Such tests do not prove that a pupil can write the sentences and formulate the ideas themselves. It may be trite to say so but seems still to be true that the way to learn to read is by reading, to write by writing, and the proof of attainment is how well the pupil can express himself in his own words, written or oral.

What Are Parents To Do?

We feel some sympathy with Albert Hall, of Toronto, who was sent to jail for twenty days on Thursday because he beat his sons. Of course, he beat them severely; a child who has bruises on his face and arms has been beaten savagely and not discriminatingly; no parent should beat a child in that brutal manner. But in his defence Hall said: "It doesn't matter what parents do these days—they're on the receiving end". And he then said that if he did not beat his children he would be charged with negligence, and when he did beat them he was charged with cruelty.

Albert Hall's predicament is, in some degree, the predicament of all parents today. They are overwhelmed with advice on how to raise their children. Psychologists frown upon physical punishment, urging that children be given as much freedom as possible to find out about life for themselves. Yet whenever there are gang outbreaks, or examples of bad behaviour among adolescents, the newspapers are filled with letters urging that children be beaten, and that juvenile delinquents be lashed. And home environment is blamed for everything, from low standards in school work to murder.

Parents are not perfect; what is more, they have other duties beside raising children. They are adults, bearing adult responsibilities, including their duties to provide for themselves and their children, and to pay the state the heavy taxes which it demands. And, as adults, they have a right to adult lives and adult pleasures; they do not resign all their interest in life as soon as they have children. They have only a limited amount of time each day to give to training their children, and they have no better guide than their own common sense. Is it not time that busybodies stopped giving advice to parents and left them alone to do the job which Nature has imposed upon them? Albert Hall appears to be a too-severe father, but his complaint is a just one.

To Frustrate Car Thieves

The Legislature of Manitoba attempted to get permanent license plates to be issued to automobile owners this year, but could not do so; we understand that Manitoba will adopt this system in 1950. When will Ontario make this sensible move?

The advantages of the permanent license system are many. The plate bearing the license number is welded to the car, and a small metal insert is changed each year to show that the fee is paid up to date. In this way cars are easily identified by the police and the boon to car thieves which is provided by the present system of annually changing numbers is done away with. The motorist, too, has only one number to remember so long as he keeps his car, and he avoids the nuisance of changing his plates every year. Steel is saved, the cost of manufacturing plates is cut down and unless the government reduced its license fee (which is not very likely) the profit to the province would be greatly increased. And, so far as we can see, the agencies which now exist for issuing licenses would continue as before, so that no political jobholders would be thrown upon the cruel world.

The present system is needlessly wasteful of material, and makes the work of the police more complicated than it need be. What reason, apart from governmental apathy and distaste for change, is there for postponing it any longer?

NOTE AND COMMENT

Complaints are being made, we notice, that children in Scottish schools speak English badly. What about moving them to the new Irish Republic, thereby going from bad to Erse.

A news note says that Brian Doherty, the Canadian impresario, is looking for Canadian talent for his play The Drunkard. The Canadian Temperance Federation might be able to suggest some likely prospects.

Producing Shakespeare

By PETER BROOK

(Director of Productions, Royal Opera House, Covent Garden, London)

IT would be a platitude to say that the greatness of Shakespeare lies in the many diverse aspects of his genius. This is one of the reasons why his plays continue to fascinate, after so many centuries: to the scholar they seem to exist solely to be studied; to the lover of poetry, for the pleasure that he can take in the words; to the actor, to provide him with roles, and to the producer, faced with their dazzling, baffling, and endlessly luring problems and possibilities it seems that Shakespeare's purpose was to provide him with opportunities for interesting staging.

I think that the bias must weigh heavily in favour of the producer's argument. Shakespeare lived in the theatre and by the theatre; it was his full-time occupation; his all absorbing passion; even when he was writing his greatest masterpieces he had the practical purpose of supplying a script for his company of players, knowing that their bread-and-butter depended on its success.

✧ ✧ ✧

THE Elizabethan theatre bears no resemblance to the playhouse that we know today. It had grown from the wheeled platforms in public places, which served as stage for the medieval moralities. It had no roof, no curtain and no scenery. Like the Japanese theatre and some of the experimental stages that have been constructed in modern times by Meyerhold and Copeau, it was a quite simple arrangement at different levels — a front platform, a stage and several balconies. This architecture was never changed or decorated, and no attempt was made to give the audience any illusion that the background to the actors was connected with the story.

In the Elizabethan theatre the one stock in trade was the verse. It was the verse that took the place of wings and cloths, of lifts, bridges, cycloramas and spot lights. It established the mood, painted the picture, and effected the transformations. Powerful poetry was a basic necessity in this form of playhouse: an author coming to it with something to express and looking out on the narrow circle with its overcrowded, squabbling, noisy crowd must have realized that to convey his innermost feelings to this audience he had to conjure up words that were on fire and which would give fire to the actor who spoke them.

It was to this necessity that Shakespeare's work was conditioned; fortunately he had at his command an inexhaustible treasure of words. His theatre is essentially a spoken one and, in its purest and most direct form, it should be performed under the same conditions as on the Elizabethan stage.

✧ ✧ ✧

BUT one should not be retrogressive, one cannot now present Shakespeare's plays in the way he saw them, because his playhouse no longer exists. The theatre today bears little resemblance to it—it is different in shape, in atmosphere and radically different in the relationship of player and spectator.

The great problem for the producer today is to find a way to put Shakespeare's plays on to a modern stage without diminishing their passion and intensity. Almost all the traditions of Shakespearean production over the last few centuries conspire to do this. The over-elaborated scenery, whose changes break the continuity of the play, the heavy reconstructions, the fussy historical details, the gauzes, the ballets and processions, the posturing and the parading, all these accumulate to form a tinsel barrier between author and spectator.

The modern producer must start from the beginning. He must penetrate through the barriers of period and changing values to the heart of the play and recreate this in terms of modern theatre. He must not be afraid to use all the modern resources of lighting, machinery and music if they can help him in projecting the core of the play in the most intense way.

TO quote from personal experience, in my production of Love's Labour's Lost I broke away radically from Shakespeare's period. I set the play 150 years later, in the style of Watteau, not simply for decorative reasons, but because I felt that this particular pictorial convention reflected to perfection the underlying mood of the play. I chose Watteau and the eighteenth century because I found there a visual equivalent to Shakespeare's poetic intention; I introduced a character from ballet—a silent pathetic zany, always following the Princess — because I felt that his presence contributed to bring out the essential mood of certain scenes; in the costume of Dull the policeman I suggested, quite deliberately, the Victorian policeman of Harlequinade; I modernized some of the archaic language; I introduced modern touches in the set; used sometimes a period style of acting and at other times something resembling music-hall, yet, as all this was directed towards bringing out the essence of the play, the whole ensemble acquired its own unity and succeeded in bringing the play to life for the audience.

Similarly in Romeo and Juliet, a study of the play led me to scrap all the traditional notions of prettiness and sentimentality. I set out to recapture with all the means of the modern theatre the violence and the speed that the play had in Elizabethan eyes. Scenery was reduced to the minimum—a few levels for the action, a token indication of place, otherwise the drama was played out under a never-changing heaven of hard blue on a vast dry burnt-out desert, that was the visual equivalent for the atmosphere created in the play by its key lines spoken by Mercutio:

"Tiese hot days is the mad blood stirring".

✧ ✧ ✧

EVERYTHING we did was typically 1947 in manner—we shunned the essentially Victorian conventions which clutter this particular work and have no foundation in the play itself. In the process, we shocked a number of people who have become accustomed since childhood to the Victorian reading. But for the unprejudiced audiences, who came to see the play, I think we succeeded in making it the vital experience that Shakespeare wanted it to be.

In 50 years time, my production will look very dated. So it should.

The modern producer must realize that as times change so productions change. His attitude must be continually fluid and his only criterion, an instantaneous one. A good Shakespearean production is only good at the moment of its goodness. The task of producing Shakespeare's plays is the task of taking plays written for one type of theatre and re-creating them in terms of a totally different one. For the Elizabethan these plays were immensely exciting. We have failed in our task if we cannot make them equally exciting today.

Letters To The Editor

KEEP WEDDINGS OFF, TOO

Sir: The City Council seems to have started quite an argument when they suggested that funerals keep away from George St.

Why don't the City Fathers go a little bit further and keep the wedding parties from driving up and down our main streets like a bunch of lunatics. I would much rather see a funeral go down George St. than a wedding. Funerals are quiet anyway.

QUIET PLEASE.

TELLS FACTS AT TENDER AGE

Sir: I read the letter in tonight's paper which was written by a parent who wondered if sex education should begin at a tender age. As this parent asked for other viewpoints I volunteer mine:

Maybe it would ease the mind of this parent to learn that I too have instructed my four-year-old son in the facts of life.

I agree with Dr. Church who stated that youngsters can be told 'without embarrassment'. My parents never told me the facts of life. My questions were never answered. It was regarded as a shameful subject in our home. Now my opinion is quite reversed. I believe it to be the most natural thing in the world and that it's only fair that children should know.

About him telling his playmates—The way I look at it is this—There's bound to be some children who know the answers and it's only natural that they would discuss the subject with other children. I'd rather tell my own child than have him get a mixed up account from someone else. I intend to tell all my children at a very tender age.

AN INTERESTED PARTY.

BACK STREET FUNERALS

Sir: In reply to Air Lift funerals and reasons for George Street funerals.

Ambulances try their best to stay off George Street as there are too many jaywalkers and kids in the middle of the road asking to be victims and not of course forgetting the busy housewife. I know because I have picked them up right on George Street. The big traffic problem of the street is double parking waiting for the busy housewife to buy something to cook.

Also, people in funerals feel that their loved ones spend their life and money in this town making it a better place for the living to enjoy. Therefore I say let the deceased have their last trip go right down town.

This city is not that large that no one can afford the moments hesitation to pay final tribute to a fallen brother or sister.

So fellow readers when trouble of this nature strikes home, see how you like the back streets. Ask your funeral director to go the back way and he will be only too glad to please you.

"A FUNERAL DIRECTOR".

Bible Message

(From the Authorized Version)

Thus saith the Lord of hosts, the God of Israel, Amend your ways and your doings, and I will cause you to dwell in this place... For if ye throughly amend your ways and your doings; if ye throughly execute judgement between a man and his neighbour... Then will I cause you to dwell in this place, in the land that I gave to your fathers, for ever and ever. (Jer. 7: 3, 5, 7.)

✧ ✧ ✧

Wherefore lift up the hands which hang down, and the feeble knees; and make straight paths for your feet, lest that which is lame be turned out of the way; but let it rather be healed.

Follow peace with all men, and holiness, without which no man shall see the Lord. (Heb. 12: 12-14.)

✧ ✧ ✧

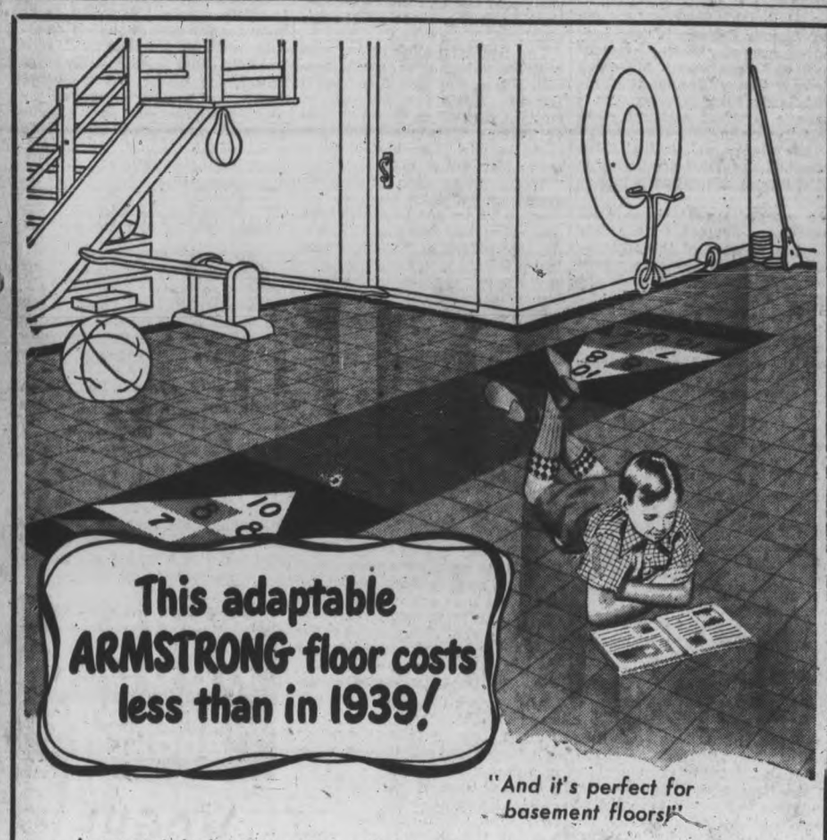
Beloved, follow not that which is evil, but that which is good. He that doeth good is of God: but he that doeth evil hath not seen God. (III John 1: 11.)

Weeding Them Out

Perhaps the chief criticism of compulsory insurance of the types in force in Massachusetts and in Saskatchewan is that they do nothing to increase the safety of those using the highways. In fact, it might almost be said that the schemes favour the negligent driver. Manitoba's safety-responsibility legislation on the other hand has a double purpose. It is designed to increase the number of insured and financially responsible motorists, and at the same time to weed out unsafe drivers.

The legislation is accomplishing both these purposes. Few Manitoba motorists are uninsured. As far as safety is concerned the following figures reported by J. B. Baillie, commissioner of taxation, are significant: On March 31 of this year 2,248 persons in Manitoba had had their driving licences suspended, while 858 others were conditionally permitted to drive. That means that nearly two per cent. of the province's 170,000 drivers were either banned from the road entirely or were driving under close surveillance.—Winnipeg Tribune.

A WATTEAUESQUE SETTING



PETER BROOK set his production of "Love's Labour's Lost" (Stratford Shakespeare Memorial Theatre) in the style of Watteau, a style which he felt reflected the underlying mood of this play. The designer was Reginald Leeke. (See Third Column).

Smith Paper Mills Control Donnacona

MONTREAL, April 26 (CP) — A controlling interest in Donnaconna Paper Company, Ltd., with head office in Quebec City, has been acquired by Howard Smith Paper Mills, Ltd., President Howard Smith announced at his company's annual meeting Monday.

Mr. Smith said that during 1948 his company had purchased 150,250 common shares of Donnaconna at an indicated cost of $3,437,949, including 37,750 shares purchased from the Dominion Tar and Chemicals, Ltd., for $993,088 payable before Jan. 5, 1950.

Since the turn of the year this investment was increased by the purchase of additional shares, now giving the company "practically a controlling interest" in Donnaconna, President Smith said.

This adaptable ARMSTRONG floor costs less than in 1939!

"And it's perfect for basement floors!"

Armstrong's Asphalt Tile can be installed anywhere—in basement game rooms, in homes without basements, over subfloors of concrete, wood or metal.

This modern flooring is not harmed by the moisture and alkalis that come up through concrete floors laid in direct contact with the ground.

The cost of Armstrong's Asphalt Tile is surprisingly low—even lower today than it was in 1939. And, because it is installed tile by tile, you can have your own custom-designed floor.

There's a wide range of plain and marbleized colours and special insets to choose from in, creating your own attractive, distinctive floor pattern.

Flooring contractors everywhere in Canada are installing modern, durable floors of Armstrong's Asphalt Tile. Ask any Armstrong contractor or dealer in your locality, to show you colours and sample floor designs, or to give you an accurate, free estimate.

DEPORTATION ORDERED—A deportation order has been issued for Dimitry Leshchenko, former Red Army officer arrested last week on spy charges. The order was announced by Justice Minister Garson following a hearing by a federal board of inquiry. Leshchenko, shown left, being escorted to a Winnipeg jail by an RCMP constable, was found to have entered Canada by misrepresenting himself as a displaced person. Leshchenko came to Canada 11 months ago from a Baltic state and was arrested in Calgary where he has been living.

Family Allowance Bill Touches Off Free-For-All

By GEORGE KITCHEN

OTTAWA, April 26.—(CP). — The Commons discussed judges, family allowances and the budget yesterdays, but found it deliberations overshadowed by Prime Minister St. Lauren's closing-hour announcement of dissolution this week-end.

The family allowance bill eliminates the decreasing scale in the amount of allowance paid where there are more than four children in a family and reduces from three years to one year the period which an immigrant child must spend in Canada before its parents are entitled to the payment.

The judges' bill provides for the appointment of up to six additional judges to the Quebec Superior Court, where a backlog of some 4,500 to 5,000 cases have accumulated.

They went quickly through the stages of first, second and third reading after Mr. St. Laurent, presumably with his dissolution announcement in mind, asked the chamber to speed legislative work and give them sanction.

Plan Grain Announcement

Trade Minister Howe said the government hopes to make an "early" announcement as to whether or not the marketing of coarse grains should come under the Canadian Wheat Boardd.

Alistair Stewart (CCF-Winnipeg North) obtained first reading of a private bill which would bring meat-packing firms operating in two or more provinces within the jurisdiction of the Federal labor code.

The Senate whipped through first reading of six measures incorporating companies which will construct and operate oil, and gas pipe-lines and agreed to meet this morning to give them second reading.

The family allowance debate developed into a political free-for-all between the Progressive Conservative, C.C.F. and Liberal parties, with accusations being made that some members and groups were opposed to the payments.

Health Minister Martin said the Progressive Conservatives had opposed Family Allowances in 1944, a charge which Gordon Graydon (PC-Peel) denied. Mr. Graydon said that as far as he was concerned a Progressive Conservative Government would not repeal the Act.

But Mr. Graydon alleged that the CCF group had opposed the legislation and the CCF members, in turn, argued that the Progressive Conservatives not they, had been the ones who were against the allowances.

Mr. Martin reported that Family Allowance payments will total more than $1,000,000,000 by the end of next month. School attendance figures had reached record totals since the payments went into effect.

Budget Repetition

The resumed budget debate was largely a repetition of its early stages.

James Sinclair (L-Vancouver North), parliamentary assistant to Finance Minister Abbott, said the budget was "so good" that the Opposition could find nothing wrong with it.

H. O. White (PC-Middlesex East urged the government to organize Canada's agricultural economy to make the best use of land and manpower and said that if the government "put the skids under agriculture, agriculture will put the skids under the government."

To Let Wives Leave UN Requests Soviet

NEW YORK, April 26—(CP)—The United Nations Monday formally called on Russia to lift the restrictions barring Soviet wives from joining their husbands outside Russia.

The Soviet measure, introduced two years ago, was denounced by the General Assembly as "likely to impair friendly relations among nations," and contrary to the principles of the United Nations charter and diplomatic usage.

Russia gave no indication she would heed the appeal. Soviet-bloc delegates said the United Nations action was unlawful interference in Russia's internal matters. They said the ban was made to protect Russian women from "humiliating" experiences abroad.

May Appeal Rate

WINNIPEG, April 26 (CP) — The Manitoba Government may appeal the removal of the Mountain freight-rate differential by the Board of Transport Commissioners, sources close to the government said Monday. Manitoba has fought against removal of the differential at board meetings earlier this year.

There's one thing . . .
You shouldn't ask your best friend

YOU may have been thinking about asking him to be your Executor, but you certainly should not ask him!

Look at it from his standpoint. Is it fair to ask him to assume all the worries and responsibilities of managing an estate? Are you sure he will have the necessary ability and experience?

Then consider your family. Will they have to depend upon a part-time Executor to look after their interests? Will they run the risk of losses through unwise investments.

There are no uncertainties when you appoint National Trust your Executor. You can be sure that your Estate will always be managed wisely and economically, in the best interests of your family. Your inquiries are invited.

Sewell Pitches Pirates To 8-2 Victory Over Cubs

By JOE REICHLER,
Associated Press Sports Writer.

Truett (Rip) Sewell, the old Cub-killer from way back, is showing signs of slipping at last.

The 40-year-old "blooper" expert of the Pittsburgh Pirates actually allowed the Cubs two runs last night in pitching the Bucs to an 8-2 victory over their "cousins" from the Windy City.

Sewell was tapped for 10 hits but was effective in the clutches to register his second straight triumph over the Cubs this year, and his ninth against only one loss over a two-season stretch. He shut out the Cubs 1-0 in the season's opener last week.

Sewell's lifetime record against the Bruins is phenomenal. He has whipped them 35 times in 54 decisions, or better than 25 per cent of his over-all 139 triumphs. No other big-league pitcher can boast such mastery over a rival club.

Yesterday's victory put the Pirates into a three-way tie for second place with Brooklyn and Boston in the National League, half a game behind the pace-setting New York Giants. The Cubs dropped into seventh place.

Edge Phillies

The Giants continued their winning ways, defeating the Phillies in Philadelphia 6-3, for their fourth consecutive victory. Clint Hartung allowed nine hits in registering his second straight triumph. Errors by Gran Hamner, Ed Waitkus and Del Ennis helped the Giants to four runs in the eighth and enabled them to overcome a 3-2 deficit. Hank Borowy was the loser.

Bill Voiselle, tall Braves' right-hander, knocked the Dodgers out of first place and into a triple tie for second by shutting out the Brooks 3-0. Jim Russell drove in Boston's first two runs with a third-inning single, and Earl Torgeson homered in the fifth.

Morris Martin, rookie southpaw up from St. Paul, was touched for four hits and all Boston runs in the seven innings he worked before he sprained a tendon in his left arm and withdrew.

It was a big day for New York and Boston, for the Yankees and Red Sox in the American League also won. The Bronx Bombers, aided by a pair of costly miscues by Philadelphia shortstop Eddie Joost, nipped the Athletics 3-2 at Yankee Stadium to increase their league lead to a full game over Chicago White Sox. Vic Raschi, who shut out Washington last week, yielded six hits, the same number the Yankees got off loser Joe Coleman.

Joost first messed up Billy Johnson's grounder in the fourth and then threw wildly to third base after recovering the ball. The two runs that scored in the inning were enough to win.

Second Shutout

Mel Parnell, young Red Sox southpaw, hung up his second successive shutout with a 2-0 tors.

He allowed only seven hits to triumph over Washington Sena-the Nats, who now have lost seven in a row since winning the season's opener. Bobby Doerr, with a triple, and Johnny Pesky, with a double, led the way.

St. Louis Cardinals routed their old jinx, Ken Raffensberger, with a four-run blast in the second inning and went on to whip Cincinnati Reds 9-3 in a night game in St. Louis. Harry Brecheen, Raffensberger's victim last week, posted his first victory, although touched for 11 hits. Stan Musial helped him with his third home run and Red Schoendienst chipped in with four hits.

Rain washed out the scheduled game between the White Sox and Detroit Tigers. Cleveland and St. Louis Browns were not scheduled.

Ray Villmer To Meet Marvel Minus His Mask In Main Go

The long-hidden face of the former Masked Marvel (Lew Reynheer) will be seen in the main bout in the Brock Arena tomorrow night when the mysterious gent finally climbs into the ring without his facial covering. The ex-mask meets Rapid-Ray Villmer in the feature attraction and the bout is expected to result in plenty of action and excitement. The Marvel has lost only two matches in more than two years, one to Whipper Watson and the second to Fred Atkins here a couple of weeks ago. However Villmer achieved a win over Atkins in Maple Leaf Gardens last Friday night and expects to repeat even over the big-muscled Reynheer. There should be some tremendous activity before that happens as Villmer is a human dynamo who keeps going at top speed all the time. The Marvel is no slouch in this department either and combines plenty of speed and power. Atkins had a lot of assistance from Referee Strangler Lewis in his win over Reynheer, the Strangler disqualifying the Marvel.

Hi Lee

Hi Lee and Ben Sharpe renew hostilities in the semi-final. Lee broke Ben's arm in a match about two months ago and this is their first meeting since. Ben will be trying hard to square accounts. In the third bout Pat Flanagan gives away plenty of weight against 260-pound Bill Greathead.

...yes the finest of all fine cuts for greater Roll your Own smoking satisfaction!

Get 3 Homers As Bisons Wallop Giants

By The Associated Press.

A little slow to get started, Buffalo's highly heralded power hitters are finally beginning to find the range, as nearly everybody predicted they would.

Before yesterday's International Baseball League game, the Bisons had only two home runs in four games—by Coaker Triplett and Chet Laabs. Yesterday they went to town, walloping three over the fence to defeat Jersey City Giants 8-7 for their second victory.

Denny Warren, Anse Moore and Ray Coleman were the homer hitters, with Coleman's coming in the eighth inning to snap a 7-7 deadlock. The Little Giants collected only one round-tripper, by Felix Mackiewicz.

Ernie Silverman, third Buffalo hurler, stopped the Giants without a hit over the last 2 2-3 innings and was credited with the victory. George Bamberger was the loser.

Scoring six runs in each of the seventh and eighth innings, Syracuse Chiefs came from behind to defeat Rochester 12-3 for their second straight victory over the Birds. John Hetki went all the way to notch his second decision in as many starts.

George Elder's single scored Ellis Clary in the ninth inning with the run that gave Baltimore Orioles a 4-3 victory over Toronto Maple Leafs. The Leafs had tied the score with two runs in the top of the ninth. Bryan Stephens allowed seven hits to register the victory. Emory Church was the loser.

Newark and Montreal were not scheduled.

SPORTS SHOW WINDOW

CEC. PERDUE, Sports Editor

Softball is slipping onto the sports scene here already. As usual, the Public School Softball Leagues open the spring season. In fact, the senior school boys start it off tomorrow aft, weather permitting, with these games: Confederation at King George, Queen Alex at Central, and King Edward at Prince of Wales. Juniors go the next day with Central at Queen Elizabeth in the north section and Queen Mary playing Queen Alex. The south section sees King Edward at Prince of Wales, and May's at Confederation. Schedules and umps are listed tonight. The boys play till around the end of May and then go into playoffs.

* * * * * *

Howie Dalton, playing manager of the new Cosmopolitan Club in the men's City Softball League, advises that there'll be open workouts tonight, tomorrow and Thursday at six bells in the Ex. Everyone welcome. Too early yet to guess at how strong this squad will be but any club which gets Dalton off to a pretty fair start. He was voted the most valuable player in the loop last year, being runner-up the previous season, and he led the COBL last summer in hitting. A fine all-around ballster and, if he can build some good material around himself, the Cosmos might be plenty tough this coming campaign.

Promoting The Game

OASA isn't fooling at all but intends to keep softball one of the main summer sports. The association has appointed a promotional committee to devise ways and means to promote the game, especially among minor age groups. They've sent out questionnaires and would like answers sent as soon as possible to Verne McIlwraith, 41 Grove St., Guelph. If all info isn't available now, they ask loops and interested parties to send some now and the rest later. All suggestions will be welcome, and they hope to have a number to deal with at a May 8 meeting.

* * * * * *

Various questions are asked. Such as what difficulties have you in forming a minor loop in your town — lack of players, coaches or sponsors? Are rule books available? What about securing equipment—do service clubs help out? How many minor teams have you—are public, separate and high schools operating teams. And do teachers coach or are clubs handled by softball officials or older players? Does the Recreation Commission embrace softball — who are the secretary and physical director of your "Y"? Also, how do you feel toward OASA training for coaches, batters, fielders, pitchers, umps and administrative officers? Anyone at all with constructive suggestions should write the answers.

* * * * * *

Minor Diamond Plans

President Phonse Brioux of the City Baseball League will be calling the annual re-organization meeting soon to get things going for the season. Oshawa juniors are practising already, and another week should see some activity locally among the minor diamondeers. The loop lost a couple of good workers since last season in the death of Art Pagett Sr., and the transfer of Jack Turner to the north country. Chief trouble encountered by the City League each season is the scarcity of capable coaches. Too bad more of the former players don't come out and lend the boys a hand.

* * * * * *

Of interest to Peterborough ORFU gridders is this Motor City item: "Oshawa Red Raiders football club are not going to let much grass grow under their feet this summer. They are holding an organization meeting tonight. With a lot of ground-work now accomplished, plans for the coming season will be announced at this meeting. We have it on good authority that Rev. Don Jones, well-known Oshawa homebrew who performed with distinction in senior football ranks as a member of Balmy Beach and other top-ranking clubs, will take some time away from his flock at Albert St. United to coach this year's Red Raiders. They will likely start workouts during the summer months and with new blood expected in both executive list and player roster, the Raiders and local football fans are looking forward to a bigger and better season next fall."

Winnipeg Falcons sifted through to a 12-0 win over the Swedish hockey team to capture the Olympic championship at Antwerp 26 years ago today. In preliminary games, Canada's standard - bearers walloped Czechoslovakia 15-0 and shut out United States representatives 2-0.

Smythe Answers Charges Over C Form

TORONTO, April 26.—(CP). — The National Hockey League's now-famous C Form is "our protection against bootleg amateur clubs and operators," Managing Director Conny Smythe of Maple Leaf Gardens said Monday. "It is the one contract amateur clubs must live up to."

"The biggest yell is that those clubs and operators are trying to chisel in and this option is to stop it."

He opened a 1½-hour press conference—devoted mainly to a vigorous defence of the option—with a crack at newspaper men who write articles relative to the subject with the observation:

"They are trying to sell their columns or themselves (to the public) or to get notoriety."

At the end of the conference, each reporter walked out with a copy of the form and a printed list of Leaf players who won the Stanley Cup in 1931-32 showing their occupations and income. The list showed most with a yearly income in the five-figure bracket and drew the remark from Smythe: "That's what happens to hockey players. They either die or make lots of money."

As an example that the C form was not "unfair," he cited the case of Ray Timgren, Leaf winger and a star in the Stanley Cup playoffs who signed the form three years ago when he was 16, put his signature to a full professional contract with the Leafs last Dec. 28 and this season earned $9,033 in salary.

Lewicki Case

Smythe dealt at length with the case of 17-year-old Danny Lewicki from :Fort William who signed the form with Leafs last October and who said recently he was not interested in playing pro until he completed his five-year apprenticeship as a machinist in Stratford, Ont., railway shop. It was the Lewicki case which brought the C form into recent publicity.

Smythe declared Lewicki "had plenty of knowledge of what was going on" when he signed the form and reiterated a statement made earlier this month that Lewicki, now with Stratford Junior A club would line up with the Leaf organization next season "or he won't play at all."

ORFU Schedule Opens Sept. 3

TORONTO, April 26 (CP). — Play starts September 3 in the 1949 schedule of the Ontario Rugby Football Union.

Apsley Hockey Club Honored At Banquet

APSLEY, April 26 (ENS)—A banquet was given Friday night to the Hockey Club in St. George Parish Hall. Following the supper addresses were given by President Rol Tucker, Secretary Delbert Dunford, Captain P. P. C. Bert Howden, Rex Caverly, Referee; N. H. Wilson, Reeve of Burleigh and Anstruther, and Glen Nichols, Reeve of Chandos. They reviewed last winter's work and told of plans for improvement of the rink and expansion of activities in the coming winter.

The tables were decorated with hockey sticks tied with silk ribbon in "Apsley Aces" colors, wine and white with pucks placed at sides.

Following the banquet dancing was enjoyed in the Legion Hall, music being supplied by Sid McCauley's Orchestra.

Senators Down Marlies 4-0 Meet Regina In Cup Finals

By MEL SUFRIN

OTTAWA, April 26.— (CP).— Two puck-wise hockey teams — Regina Capitals and Ottawa Senators—both chock full of experience, will clash in the Allan Cup final starting here Thursday night.

The Senators, slightly battered but brimming with confidence, rolled into the Canadian senior hockey finals for the second straight year when they outclassed Toronto Marlboros 4-0 last night to win their best-of-seven series four games to two.

With little Nils Tremblay, speedy centre from Quebec city, leading the parade on a neat two-goal effort, Senators played scrappy, close-checking hockey to give lanky Bill (Legs) Fraser his second straight shutout. Left-winger Stu Smith and right-winger Buddy Hellyer were the other Ottawa scorers.

A crowd of about 7,600 went wild at conclusion of what has been an off-again-on-again series.

Toronto won the opener 5-0. Ottawa came back to take the next two 5-2 and 8-2 before the Dukes blanked them 7-0. Senators reversed the count with another 7-0 shutout and then clinched it with the fourth shutout of the series last night.

Play In Ottawa

The victory helped Regina Capitals make up their minds about where to head in Eastern Canada. The Caps now are en route east and would have waited in Toronto for the outcome of the series if Marlboros had kept their chances alive by winning last night. As it is, all games of the best-of-seven Canadian final will be in Ottawa.

Coach George (Buck) Boucher of Ottawa summed up the series as a case of experience defeating a younger team. He said he hadn't received any first-hand reports on Regina, which eliminated Fort Frances Canadians in the western final, but expressed certainty that the Caps will be in for a real tussle.

Boucher said the Senators would play the Allan Cup series with only three defencemen. The fourth regular rearguard, Frank (Butch) Stahan, appeared briefly last night but his injured knee was too much for him and he had to retire. He isn't expected to be back for the rest of the series.

In addition, Boucher said, it is unlikely that Eddie Emberg, centre, and utility man, Connie Tudin, will be recovered from injuries sufficiently to get into the big series. Thus the Senators, with a host of other minor injuries, will meet Regina with 13 men.

Fine Vacation IN FRONTENAC COUNTY

Midway between Toronto and Montreal, where Lake Ontario and the St. Lawrence River merge, Frontenac County takes in some fine vacation land. If you're historically inclined, you'll enjoy visiting old Fort Henry at Kingston—said to be the greatest colonial restoration on the continent. Then, too, you may like to visit Queen's University and see the Royal Military College—one of Canada's two great service colleges. You can—and should—take the 1,000 Islands cruise from Gananoque; you may fish for muskies, trout and walleyes in the nearby lakes—play golf, swim or just enjoy the scenery. There's pleasant accomodation in Kingston, Gananoque and all points between. Write the Chamber of Commerce in either of these two cities for details.

In Ontario we have a holiday paradise . . . let's do all we can to encourage visitors from across the border. Published in support of the tourist business by John Labatt Limited.

McFater Avenges Loss TKO's Norm Thompson

TORONTO, April 26—(CP).—Allan McFater, hard-hitting Toronto scrapper, last night avenged his February loss to Norm Thompson, the Brockville belter.

A hard left to the body toward the end of the first round by the Toronto lightweight, sent the Brockville welterweight down to the canvas and out of the scheduled five-round main event of a nine-bout amateur card here.

Referee Charlie Murphy reached the count of three when the bell rang ending the first round. Thompson was carried to his corner but his seconds worked in vain to prepare him for the second round.

He couldn't come out and McFater was awarded a technical knockout. It took Thompson's seconds about three minutes to revive him.

St. Francis Xavier University won the Canadian Intermediate Basketball Title at Antigonish, N. S., Monday by whipping Sault Ste. Marie Algos, defending champions, 50-45.

Xaverians won the opener of the two-game, total-point series 48-46 Saturday night and took the round 98-91. Rated as the strongest squad produced by the University, the Blue and White were competing in their first Dominion final.

Toronto Central YMCA gained a commanding 23-point lead by trouncing St. Setephen Legionnaires 63-40 in the first of two games for the Eastern Canadian Junior Basketball Championship at Calais, Me. The second and deciding game, with total points counting, is scheduled for the same floor tonight.

Quebec's hopes of a first Memorial Cup victory headed west Monday, pinned on the broad shoulders of Montreal Royals in the Dominion Junior Hockey Final starting Thursday in Winnipeg against the highly-regarded Wheat Kings from Brandon, Man.

Well rested after polishing off Barrie Flyers, Ontario titlists, in four straight games, coach Tag Millar's rugged stylists were hopeful of pulling off an upset. The Royals have been taking things easy since the Barrie series wind-up a week ago Saturday.

At Regina, Al Pickard, president of the Canadian Amateur Hockey Association, announced officials for the Allan Cup final starting in the east Thursday will be Vic Lindquist and Lorne (Windy) Lyndon, both of Winnipeg.

Top-notch United States professionals have sent in their applications for the 40th Canadian Open Golf Championship, scheduled for St. George's Golf and Country Club at Toronto June 22-25.

Entries include Dick Metz, of Virginia Beach, Va., twice runner-up; Bill Nary, Culver City, Nev.; Herman Keiser, Chicago; George Schneiter, Chicago, and Ellsworth Vines, Iowa City, Iowa.

Present holder of the Canadian open title is Chuck Congden, a U. S. golfer, who won it last year in Vancouver.

Viscount Alexander of Tunis, Governor-General of Canada, has agreed to become grand patron of the Montreal Olympic Committee now in formation, it was announced at Montreal by Claude Robillard, secretary of the committee. The committee hopes Montreal will get the 1956 games.

Cleveland Barons Hockey Club and the $1,500,000 arena where they play their American Hockey League games were sold Monday to a group of Minneapolis business men.

Albert C. Sutphin, builder and founder of the arena and sole owner of the Barons, announced the sale.

The buyers, he said, were George Drake and George Heller partners in a Minneapolis construction contracting business, and Lyle Z. Wright, owner of the Minneapolis Hockey Club of the United States Hockey League.

No purchase price was disclosed, but about $2,000,000 was reported involved.

Urges More Imports

MONTEREAL, April 26 (CP) — Canada should take as large a proportion of imports as she can from Great Britain and other nations which are short of currency to enable these countries to pay for Canada's exports to them, Rt. Hon. J. L. Ilsley said Monday night. Speaking to the Life Insurance Managers Association of Montreal, the former cabinet minister also stressed the importance of Canada's increasing her exports to the United States in every possible way.

International Visit

TORONTO, April 26 (CP) — International goodwill took a teen-age angle yesterday when 10 boys and girls from Nashua, N. H., arrived here for a four-day visit with members of the Junior Red Cross. After a welcoming dinner the visitors attended a special Red Cross meeting. Today they will be taken on a tour of the city.

Elected Moderator

RIDGETOWN, Ont., April 26—(CP)—Rev. T. Owen Hughes, minister of Mount Zion Church here, Monday was elected Moderator of the Hamilton and London Synod of the Presbyterian Church in Canada. He succeeds Rev. J. R. Waldie, of St. George's Church, London.

Judge Finds Crew Guilty

CAPETOWN, April 26—(CP).—A magistrate found 23 crew members of the Canadian freighter Cambray guilty of neglect of duty Monday and gave four of them suspended sentences of seven days in jail on condition they are not convicted of a similar offence during the next three months. The 19 others found guilty, of the 28 who went on trial on charges brought under the British Merchant Shipping Act, were cautioned and dismissed by Magistrate A. V. Bird.

The five men acquitted were members of the stewards and galley staff who were found to have continued to carry out their duties after the rest of the crew joined the strike called by the Canadian Seamen's Union (TLC).

After reading his verdicts Magistrate Bird told the seamen: "Your striking makes it very awkward for port authorities and police who have had to bring you to court. I suggest in all sincerity that you reconsider your position and take your ship back to Canada.

Meanwhile, the crew of the Cumberland County, another Canadian ship, was allowed to dock the ship here today after the crew signed an agreement that in the event they decided to strike while in port, they would help move their ship out of the way of other ships.

Third Offender Given Three Months

John King, Peterborough, was sent to jail for three months Monday when he pleaded guilty to a third offence of drunkenness.

Pleading guilty to drunkenness for the second time within 12 months, James E. Weese, Peterborough, was fined $50 with $2.50 costs.

Joseph Feeley, also of Peterborough, was fined $10 with $2.50 costs for a first offence of drunkenness.

Ernest Coones, an interdicted person, was fined $10 with $2.50 costs for drinking.

Brewers End Strike

BUFFALO, April 26 (AP). — A 25-day-old strike of brewers against 5 of Buffalo's six breweries ended here Monday night when members of the United Brewery Workers Union (CIO) accepted wage increases of $7 to $11 a week offered by the Buffalo Brewery Association, an employer group.

Chinese People Want Peace, Says Missionary

HAVELOCK, April 26 (ENS)—"We are still at war, for there is a world struggle on, not for colonies and riches but for the souls of men and the question is who will win," said Rev. Fred Reed of Woodville, guest speaker at Havelock United Church at both services on Sunday.

It was "Missionary" Sunday and the Women's Missionary Society held their annual Easter thankoffering service in the morning.

Rev. Mr. Reed is a returned missionary from Western China where he has served since 1920. He has had a long experience of Communism and war. The missionary ranks, he said, need to be continually marshalled.

The Chinese, he said, are in a confused state, the result of lack of faith and the throwing away of their moral background. They had lost faith in Chiang Kai-shek through propaganda, Mr. Reed said he believed the Generalissimo was still a Christian and a wise leader. No one could have done more for the Christian religion than he and his wife had done.

His government was not as rotten as it had been made to appear. The great masses in China, he said, do not care about parties, but the opportunity to live in peace.

Mr. Reed said he had noted since coming home that one thing lost in this country was our belief in a spiritual church and the attempt to try and pin our hopes on an economic religion. We have, he said, complacently given over our true liberty and inherited the right to do the things we know we ought to do and turned over to governments the right to tell us what to do.

Mr. Reed asked for special prayers for the Chinese people, particularly those who are striving to hold aloft the banner of Jesus in their war-torn country and who may face persecution in the days to come.

Great Grandmama was a shrewd shopper but she never knew quite what she'd get for her money. In a twinkling today you can get that wonderful ready-to-eat, easy-to-digest cereal, Post's Grape-Nuts Flakes . . . distinctively different because made from TWO grains—sun-ripened wheat and malted barley.

Your family will adore the famous Grape-Nuts flavor in the form of crisp, golden flakes. And Post's Grape-Nuts Flakes provide nourishment they all need . . . useful quantities of carbohydrates, proteins, phosphorus, iron and other food essentials. Your grocer has Post's Grape-Nuts Flakes waiting for you.

Youth Remanded For Stealing $95

Ross L. Lamoire, who pleaded guilty Monday to stealing the sum of approximately $95 from Mrs. T. H. Robertson, 265 Bethune St., was remanded on bail until Thursday by Magistrate W. R. Philp, KC, at city police court. Lamoire asked for bail to give him time to make restitution.

Mrs. Robertson missed the money after Lamoire had visited the house Thursday.

Exiled Scientist Dies

JACKSONVILLE, Fla., April 267 — (AP). — Vladimir Azaroff 60, self-exiled Russian scientist, died on Monday night of a heart attack in his laboratory. Azaroff, who wrote the agricultural section of the first five-year plan in Russia, was on a mission to Latvia in 1928 when a number of his colleagues were seized and tried by Soviet authorities. He never returned to Russia.

PETERBOROUGH FIRST ANNUAL TRADE FAIR OPENS IN ARMOURIES

William Ovens Trade Fair Committee Head

The first of what is to be an annual Trade Fair will be held in the Peterborough Armouries from April 26th. to April 30th. inclusive, sponsored by the Kiwanis Club (Peterborough.)

The committee under the chairmanship of William G. Ovens, is James Fraser, Manager Peterborough Chamber of Commerce, Secretary, Wilson Gemmell, Alderman Richard Raine, Charles Hurst, Harold Rehill, Walter Howell, Jack Allen, Jim Collins, Rod MacDonald, Al. Plaskett, Chas. Huffman, and Gordon Hancock.

The armouries have been cleared of military equipment for the occasion and hammers and saws have been busy for the past week while a crew of carpenters threw up partitions and display booths for nearly fifthy exhibitors.

In the Gunnery Room at the west end of the building a little theatre complete with stage, curtains and lighting equipment has been built. Here a cooking school will be held each afternoon and evening, sponsored by the Canadian General Electric Co. Ltd., and featuring Miss Joyce Foreman, B. A., Home Economist for the company. A model kitchen will be in place and Miss Foreman will let the ladies of Peterborough in on all the new tricks of the culinary business. This reporter has been to a few cooking schools and often wondered if a house wife, particularly one who has been cooking for a family for a few years, can learn anything, but apparently they can for this is a very popular event and one that always attracts the ladies.

In the evening, the Examiner will present two outstanding variety acts at 8.30, following the evening school.

Such top stars of stage and radio as Mildred Morey, Ted Rust, Joe Murphey, The Marguettes, Eric Christmas, Albert Marson, and Ross Bertram will bring you real entertainment.

Only 32 per cent of the state's doctors serve Minnesota's rural counties.

Peterborough-Made Goods Largely Sold In Canada

Of the 35 industries in the City of Peterborough employing ten or more persons, 22 of them market all of their products within the Dominion of Canada, according to figures just compiled by the Peterborough Chamber of Commerce. This fact will come as an eyeopener to many who probably didn't realize the extent to which the prosperity of Peterborough is bound up with that of Canada as a whole. Of the remaining 13 fa ories which do export some of their products to other countries, mainly the United States, the DeLaval Co., Ltd., manufacturers of dairying equipment, heads the list with 40% of their goods exported.

Next comes the Western Clock Co., Ltd., with 30%, and the Fisher Guage Works, 25%. The following industries export 10% of their products: Quaker Oats Co., Ltd., Outboard Marine and Manufacturing Co., Ltd., and the Peterborough Canoe Co., Ltd.

The other industries which engage in the export market are:—Peterborough Lumber Co., Ltd. A. Wander, Ltd., manufacturers of Ovaltine, Canadian General Electric Co., Ltd., Canadian Sealright Co., Ltd., J. J. Turner, Ltd., and Canadian Nashua Paper Co., Ltd.

As of April 1, Canadian General Electric Co., is still away out in front as respects the number of employees now having 4,500 persons on its payroll. Thirteen other factories employ 100 or more employees. manufacturing a very diversified array of products, which makes for greater stability of employment than is the case in certain other Ontario cities which depend largely on one or two major industries for sustenance.

Here is a breakdown of employment figures of the 14 major industries in this area:—Canadian General Electric Co., Ltd., 4,500; Quaker Oats Co., Ltd., 800; Western Clock Co., Ltd.,780; Outboard Marine and Manufacturing Co., Ltd., 745; DeLaval Co., Ltd., 500; Brinton Peterborough Carpet Co., Ltd., 310; Dominion Woollens and Worsteds. Ltd., 280; Peterborough Lock Mfg. Co., Ltd., 265; Canada Packers, Ltd., 260; Canadian Raybestos Co., Ltd., 160; Peterborough Canoe Co., Ltd., 150; Canadian Nashua Paper Co., Ltd., 130; Peterborough Lumber Co., Ltd., 100; Silverwood Dairies Ltd., 100.

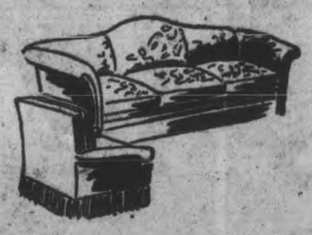
In addition to these companies, Bell Telephone Co., Ltd., employs 160 persons in Peterborough. A total of 10,114 are on the payrolls of 37 concerns in the city employing more than ten persons.

According to figures supplied by the National Employment Service office in Peterborough the total number of insurable employees for all Peterborough county and parts of Northumberland, Durham, and Victoria counties is 21,000.

CHAIRMAN OR FAIR—Ex-Mayor William Ovens, above, is general chairman of the special committee of the Peterborough Kiwanis Club which is in charge of arrangements for the first Peterborough Trade Fair being held in the Armouries from April 26 to 30 inclusive.

TO INTRODUCE ACT

"El" Jones genial Master of Ceremonies will introduce the variety acts for the Peterborough Examiner show every evening, at the Kiwanis Trade Fair in the Little Theatre.

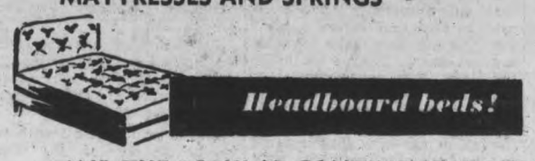


Melons Don't Help

CALGARY, April 26 — (CP)—Doreen Howe, 15, died in hospital on Sunday despite a diet of watermelon flown from Florida and Eastern Canada. Two weeks ago, frozen watermelon was rushed from Kitchener, when her parents hoped that the easily-digested food might help her. She suffered since childhood from nephritis, a rare kidney ailment, had been in hospital since February 28.

Fire At Factory

MONTREAL, April 26 (CP).—A two-alarm fire at the Dominion Wire Rope and Cable Company in suburban Lachine caused damage estimated at $125,000 on Monday. No one was injured. The fire is believed to have started in a room where huge stocks of brush wire and rope were stored.



The araucaria, curious tree of South America, looks like a pine, but isn't, and wears its crown like an umbrella.

EXAMINER PRESENTS VARIETY SHOW EVERY EVENING AT THE FAIR

Exhibits At Trade Fair Feature Many Interests

By GORDON BAILEY

The exhibits at the Trade Fair in Armouries this week are interesting and well put together. 'Dit' Clapper has a display of sport goods featuring golfing and fishing supplies. Millard's another Sporting Goods store, are in there too with summer sports goods and fishing tackle that would delight the heart of any 'Ike' Walton.

The dairy industry is well represented by Central Smith Creamery, dispensing a malted ice cream confection, and Silverwood's will help you keep your pep with fresh cold milk and buttermilk. The Milk Foundation has an interesting display that will interest those 'Teen-Agers' who are planning to get in on that essay contest.

Wonder Bakeries have a display of food products that will start the irrigation system behind your tongue into operation and the familiar Quaker Oats products with the jolly old Quaker and Aunt Jemima holding forth with more food. Even livestock is remembered because Quaker Oats is showing their line of feeds for poultry, hogs and cattle.

Ovaltine, that familiar beverage from A. Wander Limited has an exciting exhibit.

Protecting Foodstuffs

Now here's an exhibit that is unusual, Canadian Sealright Co. Ltd., show how many different ways they can make a seal to keep foodstuffs free from contamination and leakage. The Canadian Nashua Paper Co. is exhibiting 'itstix' spelled just like that) this apparently is the gummed surface that makes a bond for the tapes they make for sealing packages. They even make the little wax paper container that you find wrapped around your razor blade. TEM Ticket Agency can sell you a ticket for just about anything that is going on; they are here too with a very intriguing exhibit on travel. Those pictures they have make you yearn for 'Far-away-places'.

Even the office manager and clerk will find an exhibit that caters to their needs. S. J. Black has a display of typewriters, adding machines, office supplies and equipment.

Cavanagh's have a large display of home appliances, half of their exhibit is devoted to radio while the other half is made up of washers, refrigerators and ranges. The Peterborough Lock Co., exhibit is very unusual, door hardware and of course locks are featured in this display. Peterborough Canoe Co. have a display that will appeal to anyone who is fond of the water. Their Watercraft equipment is world famous and is rumoured that they are giving away miniature souvenir paddles to their friends and customers. Who wouldn't be their friend?.

That's Wright's Refrigerator Service over there with that mystifying glass globe with the moth balls chasing themselves around with apparently no means of locomotion. . .or reason.

They have a refrigerator display of course and an air conditioning system that is quite neat.

Comstock's furniture show makes you feel that you'd like to rest your weary bones in that inviting deep chesterfield.

There furniture exhibit leaves nothing to be desired.

Shell Oil have their display of products set in their usual red and gold and you can always depend on them for a smart show. What is it they say? "You can always depend on Shell"?

Roofer's Supply Company can show you a number of different roof treatments as well as some very interesting sidings.

Home Appliances

Another electrical appliance store, Gibbon's and Knox, are showing home appliances and featuring washers, ranges and refrigerators. J. J. Turner and Sons Limited are showing paints as well as their tents and awnings, it's a large display with many other items you will be interested in. Kingan Hardware have an elaborate showing of C. I. L. paints. Their whole exhibit is devoted to this famous line.

Dominion Woollens is the next stop, if you're making an Afghan, Knitting socks or sweaters this display will stop you cold, but it won't leave you that way, because you will find so many shades and interesting things about wool that you'll linger awhile.

This exhibit that gives one a feeling that they are looking into a general store is no other then that of Peterborough Co-Op They have just about everything on display that your heart desires.

Here's something that will make you think a bit. The exhibit for the T. B. X-ray Survey: there's a lot of material right here for the students writing that essay.

This exhibit makes one think of the good old summer time with it's fresh, crisp awnings and tents It's White and Hardy, and it's their business to spend all winter preparing these things for you so that you can break right out come the first nice spell of summer.

Let's flop here, mattresses by the score and Air-Foam seats, that you can sink into right up to your elbows! and what a display of upholstering. Come to think of it they make just about everything in Peterborough. This is the Peterborough Mattress Company exhibit.

Ah, shades of Omar, rug and carpets galore! The Brinton-Peterborough Carpet Co. Ltd. have gone all out on a floor covering project that will amaze you. There is everything for the home at the Trade Fair. Why they even have ventilating shades made of thin slates of aluminum and in colors too! They call them the Flexalum shades, made by the exhibitor, Canadian Ventilating Shades Ltd.

Irwin-Godson are introducing the Prefect an English car of the smaller car type, it's a smart little number and should be well received here.

Cancer and public health seem to be concern of the Health League of Canada and they make a very interesting display of the greatest scourge of mankind.

Have you ever looked at the labels on new towels, your suit or dress and wondered how anyone would have the patience to weave such an intricate and tiny design? Well Colonial Weaving of Peterboorugh explains it all very simply for you at the Fair From the artist's drawing to the finished product they explain how it's done. Here's a silver palace on wheels, a trailer deluxe that makes a real home on the road for you. How easy it is to travel about and have your own bed to sleep in, your own kitchen to prepare your food in, and at night a comfy room to sit in and listen to your favourite program on the radio. H. B. McGinness, builds them right here in town and they are on exhibit for you to browse through at the Fair.

Woods' Truck and Equipment Co. are showing the body beautiful for trucks. They have a lot of other truck equipment here that will interest shippers of materials and merchandise.

There is just about everything to be seen at the Trade Fair and although the armouries is not a large building, they have packed a lot of interesting things within it's walls and have dressed them up in a very entertaining way. It will amaze you what this city is doing. The Boy Scouts are there too, they have a nice little show that will explain a great deal about scouting and why the lads enjoy doing their good deed every day.

We have tried to take you on a preview of the Fair and now we'll take a look into the Little Theatre and find a nice hardwood chair to sit down on for a while and rest our weary feet, and look over all the folders and pamphlets we have gathered in our round of the armouries.

Begin Damage Suit

TORONTO, April 26 (CP) — Hearings started Monday in a $94,000 damage suit brought by Gordon Richard, industrial engineer, against Gray Coach Lines. Richard claims his throat was injured in an accident in which a bus is said to have crashed into the rear of an automobile. Richard was a passenger in the car.

Left Scene Of Accident

For failing to remain at the scene of an accident at Apsley on Highway 28 Saturday, Francis Pigeau, Oshawa, was fined $25 with $2.50 costs at city police court Monday by Magistrate W. R. Philp, KC. Provincial Constable B. Howden said that a car was damaged to the extent of $150-$175 in the accident.

TRADE FAIR PROVES PETERBOROUGH ACTIVE INDUSTRIAL CENTRE

SECRETARY — James M. Fraser, above, manager of the Peterborough Chamber of Commerce, is secretary of the Kiwanis Club's special committee which arranged details of the first Peterborough Trade Fair now being held in the Armouries.

First Fair Held 21 Years Ago

Twenty-one years after they sponsored their first 'Trade Show', then called a 'Produced-in-Canada' Fair, the Kiwanis club of Peterborough is staging what they hope will be the first of an annual affair.

It too was held at the armouries, in the autumn of 1928 and it featured a harmonica band, an Italian opera singer, a cat show and a parade, the attendance was then 18,787, and it is hoped that this year it will hit the 65,000 mark.

A great many underprivileged children will benefit from the Fair as the club intends to carry on their work for these children whose parents are unable to finance major surgical and orthopeadic treatment.

The club has looked after several 'blue babies' and made arrangements to hospitalize them in the Hospital for Sick Children Toronto.

Hon. Arthur Welsh To Open Peterborough's Trade Fair

Hon. Arthur Welsh, Minister of Planning and Development for the Province of Ontario will be guest speaker when the City of Peterborough entertains local manufacturers and the exhibitors in the Peterborough Trade Fair on Thursday at a dinner in the Empress Hotel.

Alderman Richard Raine of the Manufacturers' Committee, assisted by Alderman Adam Sands, chairman of the Reception Committee, are in charge of the arrangements for the dinner.

Alderman Raine said "The Kiwanis Club of Peterborough has made it possible by staging this Trade Fair in the Armouries, for us to get together with our manufacturers once a year and thus become better acquainted. It is a grand thing and we hope that it will be the first of an annual fair."

The alderman further said that the city had sent out invitations to representatives of the local firms and all exhibitors to be present.

Following the dinner, the guests will go to the Armouries, arriving about 8.30, where the Hon. G. A. Welsh will officially declare the fair opened for that evening.

Plan "Liars Night"

LONDON, Ont., April 26 (CP) Sportsmen from many parts of Western Ontario will gather here on May 5. The occasion will be the annual "Liars night" program of the Western Ontario Fish and Game Protective Association.

PROTECT YOUR INVESTMENT....

When you build, build well. A durable roof of bright aluminum that requires no paint and is rust proof, is the answer to your roofing problem. The siding, whether it be your house, barn, garage or small buildings is important too. Multi-colored siding gives you protection because of its asphalt-felt base. It requires no painting and the color lasts for years. Asphalt roofing to blend with the siding is your alternative to aluminum. Another dependable and long lasting siding is White Cedar Grain Siding. This siding with a roof of Durabestos shingles gives you a substantial home at a lower cost . . . it is a siding and roof that will last for years.

THEATRE TALK—D. Park Jamieson, of Sarnia, chairman of the Dominion Drama Festival, standing, talks over theatre in general with Philip Hope-Wallace, British drama critic, who is getting his first look at the program for the festival which opens in Toronto Monday, April 25. Mr. Hope-Wallace arrived in Ottawa Thursday on his way to Toronto to adjudicate the festival.

Dismiss Action Against Burford

TORONTO, April 26—(CP). — An action against W. T. Burford of Ottawa, former secretary-treasurer of the Canadian Federation of Labor and publisher of the Labor Review, was dismissed with costs at Osgoode Hall on Monday. The decision disposed of a case which had been before the courts since March 11, 1948.

The plaintiffs were Ernest Smith of Toronto, CFL general representative, and Thomas Cane of Kirkland Lake, Ont., member of the CFL executive and of the Canadian Mine Workers' Union.

They sought, among other things, damages of $100,000 and an accounting of monies received by Mr. Burford as secretary-treasurer of the CFL and as publisher of the Labor Review.

Mr. Justice J. C. Genest said in his judgment:

"I find the plaintiffs have completely failed to prove the serious allegations which they have made in their statement of claim against Burford.

"The defendant was not in any lawful way expelled from his functions and particularly the alleged national convention of the Canadian Federation of Labor, Nov. 14, 1947, was not regularly convened or held in accordance with the constitution of the Federation."

Envoy's Wife Leaves

REGINA, April 26 — (CP). — Mrs. T. C. Davis, wife of Canada's Ambassador to China, left Shanghai by plane Sunday bound for Canada via San Francisco, it was learned here. Miss Marie Curtin of Regina, Embassy secretary, is with Mrs. Davis and also bound for home. Mr. Davis and male members of his staff were reported remaining at their posts in Nanking.

Suggest It's Cheaper To Build New White House, Than Repair It

WASHINGTON, April 26—(CP).—Latest estimate of the cost of the White House repair job is $8,000,000 and it has a few folks asking an almost unheard-of question: How about building a new White House instead?

Representative Clarence Cannon (Dem., Mo.) is pushing the idea. Even when renovated, he says, the 150-year-old home of the Presidents "might crack like an egg" at any time."

Lorenzo Winslow, White House architect, says things aren't nearly that bad. The sandstone outer walls, four feet thick at the base and about 30 inches at the top, will stand for centuries once he rebuilds the inside of the structure, Winslow insists.

There is some newspaper backing for the Cannon proposal.

"The only arguments we've heard against the Cannon proposal," The Washington Times-Herald said in an editorial, "are the usual sentimental screams about destroying the 'Old Homestead.'

"'Don't wipe out this historical monument,' they cry . . . Well, the truth of the matter is that the present White House looks no more like it did when it was first built than Washington today looks like the muddy little town Congress moved into when this city first became the Capitol of the nation."

Working Four Months

The repair job, backed by sentimental public support despite the enormous cost, has been under way for four months.

The repair job includes complete fireproofing, new floors of concrete and steel, deepening of the foundation and rebuilding of interior walls. In contrast to the expected $8,000,000 cost is the unofficial estimate that a brand new White House could be built for only $2,000,000.

Cannon says, though, that cost is not the "main consideration." He does not suggest that the issue be decided hurriedly but wants Congress to spend $150,000 to hire architects and engineers to go into the problem thoroughly.

Send Guns To China

OTTAWA, April 26 — (CP).—Canada shipped $339,000 worth of guns to China in January, Frank Lennard (PC-Wentworth) was told by the government on Monday in a Commons return. In all, $1,305,870 worth of goods went to that war-torn country in that month, including $97,000 in bank notes, $414,000 worth of wheat flour, and $50,000 worth of machinery.

Veteran Family Of 6 Divided Under 4 Roofs

James Webb, a 40-year-old employee of the Quaker Oats Co., has had more than his share of trouble in trying to make a home for his wife and children.

A veteran with more than five years active service with the 1st Battalion, Royal Canadian Engineers, Mr. Webb now finds that the housing shortage has struck a damaging blow to his family life. Despite three applications during the last three years—one to the Central Mortgage and Housing Corporation in Toronto, and the other two to the Peterborough Branch—he is still without a home.

In fact he seems no nearer to realizing that ambition than when he started the quest three years ago; and he is certainly much worse off financially.

At the moment the family consisting of Mr. and Mrs. Webb, three young girls and a 'teen-aged boy are broken up into four separate groups, living with friends or rooming.

Mrs. Webb is expecting a fifth child in September

Eating up Savings

To keep his family going financially in this uneconomic grouping Mr. Webb is forced to spend an estimated $55 a week. As he earns only $40, this means digging into savings at the rate of $15 a week.

I've used all my savings and I'll have to cash my bond next week," he told the Examiner.

The family furniture is in storage which adds an extra $9 to the monthly bill. Altogether he estimates that his monthly expenditure is now $229 while his income is $160.

To augment the family income, Ross, age 16, has had to leave High School and is living in a rooming house while he looks for a job: anything that will bring in an extra dollar or two.

To Peterborough in March

The Webbs moved to Omemee nearly three years ago after experiencing one misfortune that was enough for a lifetime. Their home in Kinmount burned to the ground and after the insurance was deducted their loss was estimated at $1,500.

Last winter they were warned that the property they were living on might be sold; promptly Mr. Webb applied to the Central Mortgage and Housing Corporation. (Before moving to Kinmount from Toronto where he was discharged in 1945 he applied there to Central Mortgage but without success.)

In March he was given 30 days to vacate the land and the family came to Peterborough. The furniture was stored and they took makeshift accommodation.

All Houses Allocated

He applied to the Canadian Legion and Ald. Hurrell Dodds to see if they could help him But at all times he came up against the hard fact that there are 700 applications for the 228 houses being built by Central Mortgage and Housing; the 48 already built are occupied.

"At Central Mortgage they told me the houses were all allocated and there was nothing they could do," he said.

"Many of the families now occupying houses have only two children while I have four and my wife is expecting a fifth in September."

The two youngest Webb girls—Donna, age 11, and Diane, age 9 are with friends at Omemee. Ross is boarding on Wolsley St., having temporarily abandoned his education to get a job; and Mr. Webb is rooming on Aylmer St.

"And here's a laugh," said Mr Webb "After nearly three years I get a letter from Central Mortgage and Housing in Toronto. They asked me if I wanted to make re-application. . . re-application mind, after three years."

"The housing situation seems hopeless," said the ex-engineer, "I'm going to see a man about getting the use of a trailer and a couple of tents. That should see us through the summer, anyway."

MASS TB X-RAY SURVEY, sponsored by the Peterborough Junior Chamber of Commerce, started on Monday. A portable unit installed in the CGE handled an average of 200 employees per hour in 12-hour periods. In a Department of Health trailer unit a number of citizens availed themselves of the free service on Hunter St. on Monday morning. Rural Teaching Week For Normal Students

Normal School students are teaching this week in 86 rural schools in the area bounded by Kingston on the east, Woodville on the north and Lake Ontario on the south. It is their second experience at teaching at a rural school for a whole week. During the winter they had their first week of practice teaching. In that way they learn what teaching is like in the rural schools at the worst and best times of the year.

May will be a busy month for the Normal students. On May 6 the students will hold their Arbour Day. That day they will plant trees on the Normal School grounds. During the coming week, examinations to decided what subjects the students must write at the end of May and the first of June will be held.

In addition to their rural teaching the students have completed two weeks teaching in the urban schools.

Aldermen Discuss Proposed Widening of Louis Street

Board of Works turned back its pages of unfinished business to the proposed widening of Louis St. Monday night. The executors of the estate of Walter Ferguson, the late head of Ferguson Coach Lines, are being asked to consider a verbal agreement by which, it was said, he undertook to give a strip of property on the east side of Louis St. for its widening.

This arrangement was recalled to the council in a letter from City Clerk Outram, part of which was: "Two years ago, the Public Works Department agreed that the Dominion Government would deed certain of their property to the city to permit the widening of Louis St., providing that Walter Ferguson, who owned the remaining property fronting on the east side would do likewise.

A conference was held with Mr. R. Winter, representing the Dominion Government and Mr. Ferguson, and it was agreed by Mr. Ferguson that he also would deed certain of his property for the proposed widening.

Growing out of the conference with Mr. Winter and Mr. Ferguson, Mr. Ferguson made an exchange of property with the Dominion Government. This exchange was based on Mr. Ferguson carrying through the arrangement for the widening of Louis St. Immediately after the exchange was completed, Mr. Ferguson's lawyer informed me that Mr. Ferguson was not willing to deed any property for the widening without payment. I did not deem it advisable at that time to urge the point since Mr. Ferguson was in poor health."

Only Verbal

Ald. Doug. Miller enquired whether the agreement mentioned by City Clark Outram was verbal or in writing. Mayor Swanston replied that it was only verbal.

"There were several meetings," His Worship said, "and some of those who attended them could give evidence regarding the agreement that was discussed at that time. The Dominion Government went through with their part, but it appears now that they went a little too fast. I understand that Mr. Ferguson got certain land from the government for $1,250. We all know that he was sick, and that was one reason why this matter was not followed up at that time. It has become timely now because we understand that the executors are considering sale of the Ferguson interests."

A motion by Ald. Doug. Miller, seconded by Ald. Herbert Young, recommended that the council approach the executors of the Ferguson estate and point out to them the verbal agreement pertaining to the widening of Louis St.

NIGHT HAWK SESSION

A meeting of the parks committee of the council with Ald. Herbert Young chairman, began at the city hall last night at 10.30 p.m at the conclusion of the 3-hour session of the board of works.

V. O. N. TALK OVER CHEX

Miss Hazel Miller of Ottawa, national supervisor of the Victorian Order of Nurses, will speak on volunteer help organizations and the work of VON, in a radio talk over CHEX Thursday at 5.35 to 5.50 p.m. Miss Miller is in Peterborough for most of this week.

PUT OUT MINOR FIRES

An overheated chimney and pipes at the residence of W. Martin, 475 Park St. N., caused firemen to make a call shortly before 10 a.m. on Monday. About an hour later some burning rubbish was reported at the rear of the residence of G. D. Angelantonia, 540 Donegal St.

RECOMMEND ENGAGEMENT

Engagement of Murray Thomas in the assessment department, replacing Ralph Rowland, was recommended to the council by the board of works Monday night. He was a flight lieutenant with the RCAF in the war and has been working at the CGE. He was partly influenced in his application by a wish to obtain an outdoor job with some future to it. Starting salary May 16 is $1,800. Mr. Rowland leaves the department at the end of this week for Toronto.

SHOW FILMS

Films on the carelessness of people in their homes in starting fires ond on the bombing of London were shown to the Junior Fire Department of the Dixon House Neighborhood Council on Monday. Capt. George Gimblett conducted the class. Next week the boys will visit the Fire Hall.

HONORS LATE MR. GORDON

Before the first case was heard at the current non-jury sitting of the Supreme Court of Ontario on Monday afternoon, the Hon. Mr. Justice Wilson paid tribute to the late Hon. G. N. Gordon, KC. Mr. Gordon was a familiar figure in the Peterborough court as well as throughout the province, said the Justice. He recalled that Mr. Gordon was a former member of the House of Commons, a Privy Councillor, a man interested in public affairs, and a senior member of the Provincial Bar. "His appearance in court always enlivened proceedings," said Mr. Justice Wilson.

Postpone Hearing

MONTREAL, April 26 (CP)—Preliminary hearing of Freda Linton, charged with conspiring against the official secrets act, today was postponed at the request of the crown to May 3. Miss Linton, first of those sought in connection with the Soviet espionage case in Canada, made a brief appearance in court and her bail of $2,500 was continued.

City Overloading Incinerator Board Advised

"The incinerator is burning more refuse than it was planned for," Ald. J. E. Gillespie told the board of works Monday night, quoting the explanation of Chief George Smith about several fires in the building this month.

"And especially on Tuesdays and Fridays, when piles of paper boxes come from the down town area," said the sub-chairman of the board, supervising the sanitation branch.

The board approved the placing of an inch and one-half standpipe with a hose line as equipment with which the incinerator staff can fight its own fires without calling out the fire department.

Authority to buy a new dump truck and also a pick-up truck, combined cost about $4,600, was given the chairman. These items were included in the board's estimated expenditure for the year.

Improve Collection

"We want the new dump truck to give a two-days-a-week service to the people in the south-end of the city," Ald. Gillespie said. "There is only one garbage collection a week in that section at present, and it is by private contract."

The present pick-up truck is used by the sanitary department foreman who has a general assignment to follow up the collectors and pick up any garbage that is overlooked, attend to complaints and do other tidying. The superintendent's job, Ald. Gillespie said, was a general one of trying to improve the service, including keeping the three dumps in order One of them is in Ashburnham, one in North Monaghan, and the third is at the foot of Lock St., where the old street car circle is being filled in and prepared for final development as a neighborhood park.

Purchase of the trucks as moved by Ald. Young and Burrows. Purchase of sixteen lockers for the garbage collection men was also decided in a Burrows-Anglesey motion.

"The men like to come to work in decent clothes, and that's the way we want them," said Ald Gillespie, "but they can't wear them on the wagons. With the lockers they can hang up their street clothes, and put them on again when they are going home."

The department also has washing facilities, and with lockers and keys that provision for cleanliness is about complete.

Ald. Gillespie was also authorized to buy rubber rain coats for the collection crew. The cost is slightly under $200, also provided in the budget. The oil skin coats froze and cracked and generally were not satisfactory, hence the switch to rubberized material.

Recommend Purchase Burnham St. Lot

Purchase of a square of property adjoining Riverside Park, on the east side, from Campbell Dairy Co for $1200 was recommended by the board of works to the council Monday night

"It was bought with the Merrett milk business," Mayor Swanston said, "but it is now no use to Campbell Dairy. I asked ex-mayor Ovens about it, and he said the city could have it at just what the company paid for it."

The lot is 128 ft by 102 ft. In the swimming pool discussion this site was proposed for its location, but another site was finally chosen. The block is immediately east of the park, and the board felt that it might as well be bought as additional park ground. The motion by Ald. Hugh Waddell was seconded by Ald. Doug. Miller.

Skunk Goes Visiting

When you next put out a trap to catch that visitor which you thing is a rat, it would be just as well to make sure you are not dealing with something more ominous. For the past week Marcus Miller, 509 Gilmour St. and David White, 341 St. Joseph St. have been trying to trap what they thought was a rat causing a disturbance underneath the kitchen extension at the rear of Mr. White's house. When Mr. Miller went to examine the rat trap this morning, there was a fully grown skunk, with its paw trapped. Constable Vern O'Donoghue shot the animal.

IT WASN'T REALISTIC

Home gardeners are having trouble these spring days, especially those who are trying to grow a new lawn. If it isn't the kids next door, or the dogs along the street looking for a nice soft spot, to gambol, it's birds. W. Terpstra, 370 London Street thought he would fool them all and built a fierce looking scarecrow over the weekend. It was supposed to look like a veritable Frankenstein and with an old raincoat flapping in the wind, his trouble was over, so he thought. This morning Mr. Terpstra gave up. Someone had stolen the raincoat overnight and birds were perched on the ugly limbs of the scarecrow.—N.N.

Suggest Putting Meters Around Market

City Council estimates at $48 a day parking meter receipts from the market square, Ald. H. Dodds told his board of works meeting Monday night. "And the market has not been paying us for a considerable time".

"We have lost one parking space at George and Sherbrooke Streets," said the chairman, "and in the next year or two we may also lose the one on Charlotte St. So, the question before the council is whether we should put parking meters on the market? We could have three-hour parking at a charge of 10 cents".

Mayor Swanston said town planning committee had been suggesting purchase of property for parking purposes. "It may be that the city will have to buy property for parking accommodation. If we meter the market, it will give us an idea whether it would be worth while to buy parking property and meter. The experience at the market would be an indication of possibilities."

Ald. Hugh Waddell moved that City Engineer Chalmers be asked to make a survey of the market, determine the number of meters needed, and what they would cost. Ald. A. B. Burrows seconded this motion. Supervision of market parking is proposed.

Only a casual mention was made of the present market service, and what substitute, if any, would be provided.

Accountants Hear James H. Turner

James H. Turner, CA. addressed the Peterborough Chapter of the Society of Industrial and Cost Accountants at their regular monthly meeting on Monday.

Besides discussing the legal requirements and the purpose of shareholders' audit as distinguished from a variety of other audits, Mr. Turner dealt briefly with such subjects as inventory valuation, depreciation and bad debt reserves. Gordon Langhorne introduced the speaker and Blake Bell expressed the Chapter's thanks.

The following Chapter members were nominated as candidates to the Board of Directors to be elected at the annual meeting May 16: A. Pitchford, A. H. Cocks, C. R. Payne. A. Purdon, D. Harwood, E. H. Jones, R. Aman, G. Langhorne, S. R. Adamson, G. Cheatle, L. Bearne.

Mrs. W. Dean Funeral

Pallbearers at the funeral Tuesday of Mrs. W. W. W. Dean who died Sunday were Frederic Hamer, J. L. Browne, G. Winder Smith, W. R. Rashleigh, H. F Ketchum and J. E. Staples. The funeral service was conducted by the Rev. L. T. Delaney, St. John's Anglican Church, Lakefield Interment was a Little Lake Cemetery.

Surviving are her husband; one son, W. W. H. Dean, Point Claire, Quebec; two sisters, Mrs. R. H. Hamer and Elsie Hope, Ottawa; two brothers, the Hon. Mr Justice J. A. Hope, Toronto, and Fred Hope, Sudbury.

City Council Had Budgeted For Grant of $10,000, Hope To Complete Plans

Peterborough is not going to get the $10,000 it expected from the Ontario Government for the completion of the Civic Arena. A note from Hon. H. R. Scott, it was reported at the meeting of the Board of Works Monday night, brought the information that $5,000 is the grant limit because there is only one building. This assistance for communities in setting up places of public recreation is from the Department of Agriculture.

"We felt sure of $10,000 according to the Act, when we were discussing the artificial ice plant," Mayor Swanston said, "but it appears now that all we can get is $5,000. I understood they meant to give $10,000."

"If we can't get the other $5,000, we can go ahead ourselves," said Ald. D. Miller. "We can't make a nickel as it is, and $5,000 is not enough to upset our plans."

Attitude of the board was: "Let's get the job completed as soon as possible." The job comprised a terraza floor and ice-making plant.

Ald. H. Dodds, chairman, said a complete report of the Arena operations would show a surplus of $3,400 for the first season, hampered by unusually mild weather. The present committee of management is through at the end of this month.

The surplus will be turned into the city treasury, and the committee for the coming year will have to draw on the treasury for any funds it needs in beginning its season.

Board of Works believes that roller-skating will make as much or even more money for the rink than the winter income. "That's what they told us in Guelph," said Ald. Doug Miller.

Clonsilla Ave. HomeRansacked

Latest discovery in a wave of break-ins at houses in the west of the city was made by Mr. and Mrs. Kenneth McCannan, 1304 Clonsilla Ave. when they returned home from Toronto Monday night.

The house looked as though it had been struck by a whirlwind. Doors had been pried open, cupboard and drawers were open and it was obvious that the house had been ransacked.

All that is missing is a radio, which was taken from a bedroom, an electric fan and gladstone bag, which had been in a clothes closet and a watch.

It appears that the burglars were in search of money. A glass cupboard containing silverware and a quantity of silver on the sideboard were untouched. Mrs. McCannan had a number of handbags in a chest of drawers which had been examined, but she had left no money there. A small sum in another purse was not taken. Two fur coats, one in a bedroom and the other downstairs were not taken.

The intruders had opened three doors to gain admittance. A hook was removed from the sun porch, the glass in a door leading from there to the kitchen was broken and the kitchen door, which is of solid wood, had been jimmied. One side of the lock had been removed and part of the wood was missing.

Have New Plan For Financing Park St. Drain

Financing the Park St. drain as recommended to the council Monday night is a 75-25 division of the cost as provided by the Local Improvement Act.

The 25 per cent would be charged to the fronting Park St. property, 15 per cent to be paid by the owners on the west side and 10 per cent by the east side. According to the board comment: "If the Park St. people don't want to accept that, the drain might be left open another year."

The 75 per cent of the cost would be paid by the rest of the city, that is out of the general revenues.

This subject was introduced to the meeting by Ald. Doug Miller with the question: "What are we going to do about the Park St. drain?" This job has been regarded by the council as one of the major works to be done this year. The first distribution of cost, as suggested by City Engineer Chalmers, was 70-30, with 20 per cent to the west side property and 10 to the east side.

May Take New Offer

Reaction from the south end residents indicated opposition, but it was believed the 75-25 might be acceptable.

"That drain is not the responsibility of the Park St. people," said Ald. Doug Miller. "It comes from several miles to the west and north, crossing at the rear of Outboard Marine and Manfuacturing Co."

What the council proposes is to build a capacious concrete duct, then fill in the west side ditch to the river and level it with the street.

Inquiries Invited On City Zoning

After considerable study by the City Planning Board, the City has been fully zoned as to permissible land uses. Zoning is one of the first principles of City Planning and is established to protect property values and to provide for the orderly and best development of the City in all its aspects.

Prospective purchasers of property, particularly for commercial use, are advised that before buying properties they should learn at the City Hall the uses permitted for the property in which they are interested. This information is readily available to all inquiries made at the City Hall.

PETERBOROUGH RANKS HIGH IN CANADA'S INDUSTRIAL CENTRES

Peterborough's Industrial Era Marks Greatest Stage In Progress Of The Community

Determined by three economic eras which have existed since the first settler arrived in 1819, the history of Peterborough has roughly fallen into three corresponding stages. They are the period of early settlement, 1825-1840; the lumber era, 1841-1900; and the manufacturing period, 1901 to the present day.

The last named is of greatest interest because it still obtains, but the other two are also important as they chart the inital physical growth of the city.

In early 19th century Canada the waterways were the lines of communication and transportation, and the townsite of the present city was located on the Otonabee River, as far up as it was navigable.

Only by using the navigable section of the Otonabee could the undeveloped interior of Peterborough County with its forest wealth and fertile soil be penetrated.

Site For a Town

North Monaghan Townhip was surveyed in 1818 and a space was set aside for a townsite in the north-east corner of the township. The boundaries were Smith Township on the north, Park St. on the west, Townsend St. on the south, and the river on the east. In contrast to what was to become Ashburnham on the east side of the Otonabee River, the townsite was held as a government reserve.

Before 1818 only Indians and fur traders inhabited the area and the total population north of Rice Lake was less than 500. Adam Scott after an initial visit established a primitive saw and grist mill on the creek at King St. Scott's Plains was the name given to the townsite.

An eminent city planner on the townsite has commented: "By such a location, the development of Peterborough was implied in broad outline. The power and the transportation facilities afforded by the river, the vast tracts of valuable timber, and the fertility of the land to the south and west of the townsite were all assets of importance in the development of the city."

But all was not favorable in the location, according to the planner: "The liabilities inherent in the site stemmed from its removal from the front, a factor operative today, as earlier."

From 1815 to 1840 the growth of Canada was largely due to immigration. It was the period immediately following the Napoleonic wars—when the industrial revolution was in full swing in England and agrarian troubles in Ireland and Scotland. And as a result thousand of people from the British Isles sought a new life by coming to Canada.

In 1824-25 Peter Robinson brought out more than 2,000 Irish most of whom settled in Peterborough County, adjacent to the townsite. As each adult male was given 100 acres of land, to be held conditionally, most of them started farming, although a few preferred to ply a trade in the townsite.

Nearly 2,000 British immigrants came in 1831, most of them settling in Dummer; and a year later a large number of Scotch arrived. More Irish, brought by Peter Robinson, came to the district in 1839.

As a compliment to Peter Robinson a gathering of the inhabitants in 1827 decided to call the townsite Peterborough.

Soon it was able to boast stores, smiths, bakers, shoemakers, masons and carpenters. A saw and grist mill was erected by the government in 1827. Later the mill became Dickson sawmills and the site is now the Quaker Oats' dam at London St.

In the same year the first bridge was built across the Otonabee.

By 1836 the industries included two grist mills, two saw mills, two distilleries, a brewery and a tannery.

Work on the court house and jail began the same year and was completed in 1841. St. John's Anglican Church built in 1835 is the oldest church in the city. St. Peter's Roman Catholic Church was built in 1838, and St. Andrew's Presbyterian was established on a Crown Reserve in 1836.

Build Along the Creek

At that time the creek was much larger than at present and small industries tended to build along the power sites afforded by the creek.

One of the difficulties of communication was eased in 1827 when a road was completed between Rice Lake and Peterborough; and in 1832 two steamers were placed on Rice Lake to form the first regular water transportation up the Otonabee.

When other supplies began to fail in Upper and Lower Canada, logging operations moved into the interior of the country following the waterways. It has been stated by one authority that "for 60 years the main source of development of the towns of Peterborough was the denuding of the surrounding forest lands."

The hunt for timber reached the level of Peterborough as it proceeded north about 1838, and from then on operations continued on the water ways north of the city. Between 1840 to 1850 the population, depending mainly on this industry, rose from 900 to 3,180.

First Railroad

A stimulant to the lumber business was received when in 1854 the Cobourg-Peterborough railway was completed; this new means of transportation was of particular value in shipping out sawn lumber. And by 1866 it is estimated that eight times as much sawn as square lumber was being exported.

The establishment of the sawn lumber business helped urban development by encouraging a stable population. Peterborough became the servicing and distributing centre on the Otonabee water system, and maintained its own large milling industries as well.

A woollen mill, a rake factory and three iron foundries were in operation by 1848 as well as the industries which had grown up in the early settlement. Sixteen years later there were three flour mills, three woollen mills—including the Auburn mill—four foundries, three breweries, three tanneries, five carriage and sleight factories, a flax mill, two pump manufacturing plants and a large woodworking trade.

Next to lumber the most important industries were the flour and woollen mills.

First hint of the Kawartha region becoming a valuable tourist resort area was in 1883 when the American Canoe Association met at Stony Lake. Since then it has expanded to a major industry.

An Ontario-Quebec railway line, putting Peterborough on the main line of inland transportation between the two provinces, was put through in 1884.

Work first began on the Trent Canal system in 1833; it was interrupted by the Rebellion of 1887 and was not resumed again until 1882 after much political bickering. Peterborough's famed hydraulic lift-lock, the largest of its kind in the world, was completed in 1904.

The advent of extensive railway systems, replacing water transportation, served to minimize the benefits which the city derived from the completed Trent Canal waterway. Chief benefits have been the attraction to tourists and the regulating of the Otonabee's flow.

Lumbering Decreases

By 1900 the importance of the lumbering industry to Peterborough had steadily decreased The export of lumber dropped from a record figure of 50,000,000 feet a year to less than 10,000,000. Manufacturing was coming into its own.

Manufacturing had begun in Peterborough during the period of the early settlement, and it continued to grow. Geographical factors had much to do with the pattern of industry. Because of the abundance of waterpower, and because Peterborough was relatively remote from the larger urban centres, a wide diversity of manufacture articles was encouraged.

One student of Peterborough's history has made the following observation: "This diversification of manufacture continued according to the needs of the agricultural and industrial activities of the area. Although many of these old manufactures disappeared, such productive activities as flour and wool milling, woodworking, and machine manufacturing continued, and their products participated in the national market, and in the international markets which Canada began to enter as a manufacturing country." "Peterborough," he said, "finds its place today in the Canadian economy as a producer of diverse quality products."

Today Peterborough has about 70 different manufactures but the vast mapority of the working population of the city is employed in 10 plants—Canadian General Electric, Quaker Oats, Brinton-Peterborough Carpet, Outboard Marine Manufacturing, DeLaval, Raybestos Western Clock, Canada Packers, Peterborough Lock, and Dominion Woollens and Worsteds.

At one time the town was the centre of the sugar beet industry. Efforts were made to develop steel rolling mills, shovel plants, cordage works and other types of industry.

The large influx of British and American capital began in the 1880's. Previous to that, however, in 1860 the Dickson Lumber Co., now the Peterborough Lumber Co. began operations.

In 1882 George Matthews began his first pork packing plant; since then it has been absorbed by Canada Packers. J. Z. Rodgers began the Ontario Canoe Co. a year later; it was the forerunner of the Peterborough Canoe Co.

The Edison Factory located here in 1890, its first building being located in a former swamp on the west side of Park St. It has since been taken over by the CGE which now has a group of buildings on that site with a total area of more than 1,500,000 square feet.

CGE is the most important industry in the city and it is estimated that it employs a third of all the gainfully occupied people in Peterborough.

MISSING FLIER?—Claiming to be Flt. Sgt. Wilfred Kasner Sutherland of Vancouver, missing since a bomber raid over Germany in 1943, a young man walked into the office of a Toronto newspaper Monday. He claimed he had been a victim of amnesia and only recently recovered his memory while under treatment at Sunnybrook Military Hospital in Toronto. A picture taken in London, Eng., of a sandwichman carrying a placard offering £100 reward for his discovery helped him to remember who he was, he said, then disappeared. Miss Mary Barret of Vancouver is currently in England seeking the missing airman.

C.I.L. is synonymous with good paint. The vast laboratories of Canadian Industries Limited are devoted to seeking the answer for the best product obtainable.

Gone are the days when paint was used merely as a decorative scheme, a little white lead mixed with turps and linseed oil with a haphazard dash of color tint. Today it is economical to use a paint, varnish or enamel that will beautify and endure, a paint that will protect!

In C.I.L. products you will find the answer for your problem. When visiting the Fair, talk to our color expert, he will advise you on the proper paint, varnish or enamel to use.

He will supply you with a booklet too, a guide to color.

PERSONAL CHAT—It was simply a personal chat when Liberal Premier Angus Macdonald of Nova Scotia and George Drew, national Progressive Conservative leader, met in Sydney, NS. Mr. Drew was in the city to address a mass political meeting following a two-day tour of Newfoundland while Premier Macdonald addressed the Board of Trade the same evening. The meetings were spaced so citizens could attend both.

Industrial Era

Some observers regard it as paradoxical that despite outstanding advantages, such as adequate rail transportation and power as cheap as Hamilton and cheaper than Toronto, no other large industry has established itself in the city. Because of this, they say, the growth of the city in the manufacturing period has been quite slow.

A harness-making plant was started by B. F. Ackerman who came from Port Perry in 1872. And in 1901 the American Cereal Co., now the Quaker Oats Co., became established in Peterborough.

The first creamery was started in 1905 on the Aylmer St. site now occupied by Silverwoods Ltd. Many British weavers settled in the city in 1906 when a subsidiary of the Brinton-Peterborough Carpet Co. was opened here. A year later the Colonial Weaving Co. was founded.

Other firms that settled here during the 1900-1930 influx of capital were the Outboard Marine Manufacturing Co., 1929 De Laval, 1912; Bonner Worth, 1910; and Ontario Marble Co., 1913.

Canadian Raybestos and Western Clock Co. were established in 1920, and the J. J. Turner Co. is another firm with a long history of manufacture in Peterborough.

The major industrial development in Peterborough since 1913 has been caused by the impetus of war. C.G.E. increased greatly in size when it purchased the government war-operated plant, Genelco.

Peterborough's manufacturing legacy is the location of firms on waterfront and long the creek; nearly all the waterfront is now taken up for industrial use and manufacture has continued to situate itself along the creek, mainly north of Bethune, where the creek and the railway are adjacent.

According to Mayor Max Swanston in 1939 the city's assessment for general purposes was $24,500,000, and it is now more than $35,000,000. Both the assessment and the population have increased 43 per cent in the past 10 years the Mayor stated recently; the population figures for 1939 and 1949 being 24,146 and 35,065, respecively.

"Within the next few years there is every indication that Peterborough will continue to enjoy its fair share of canadian prosperity," said the Mayor.

Acquit Youth 19

SAINT JOHN, N. B., April 26—George McLeod, 19, charged with murdering Joseph Morrisey, was acquitted late Monday. The young seaman from Wood Island, PEI, had been a prisoner since Jan. 23, the day that Morrisey, 26, a native of Bordin near Newcastle, N. B. was found dead in a bedroom of his Pond Street flat here. The victim had suffered numerous knife wounds.

Fish and Wild Life Exhibit Big Attraction

In a rustic setting of birch and pine, the Ontario Department of Lands and Forests have an exhibit of interest to residents of this district. In six large tanks, speckled trout, pickerel, pike small and large mouth black bass, maskinonge sun fish, cat fish and perch will cavort for the entertainment of spectators at the Trade Fair. Fish and Wild Life Conservation Officers (new name for the game wardens) of the Trent District will man the exhibit and give information on fishing and fish and game laws. A large illuminated cartoon, depicting fishing activities in Ontario waters forms the centre f the background and the arrangement of trees and shrubs makes a very restful retreat and realistic setting. The exhibit has a very effective lighting arrangement that is well worth seeing. Colored lighting on the thick Scotch pine lends an air of enchantment to the whole picture.

The fish tanks are illuminated in such a way that it enables one to study the coloring of the fish to better advantage than in past shows.

The bright fluorescent columns with the large 'target' signs bearing various messages are very effective and Alan R. Fenwick, of the Department of Lands and Forests who is in charge of the display, tells that this his department was the first to use this brilliant paint. It can't be missed and it would be well for the department looking after the inland waterways system.

The exhibit takes up 360 square feet of space and it is all used to good advantage for the departments theme of Fish and Wild Life Conservation with the odd reminder on fire prevention in the woods. It is an excellent display and is well worth seeing, although we did miss the wild animal exhibit that the department has staged at other shows throughout the province.

Fine Cabin Owner

PORT CREDIT, April 26 (CP) —Allowing eight tourist cabins to be occupied as permanent habitations contrary to the town's building by-law brought Nicholas Sullivan, tourist camp owner a fine of $50 or 30 days, in police court Monday.

Duck Lays Big Egg

COLLINGWOOD, April 26 (CP)—A duck, owned by Mrs. George White of Collingwood, Ont., laid a king-size egg here Saturday. The giant egg is three times the normal size of duck eggs, measures eight inches around and weighs 10 ounces.

PERFECT STENOGRAPHER—Tall, brunette Joyce Hart of Hamilton, will reign in that city's industrial fair this week as the "Perfect Stenographer." One of 36 contestants, Miss Hart wears size 14, weighs 134 pounds, and is five feet seven inches tall. She was rated as most efficient in her job and was given high marks for looks, grooming, personality, choice of clothes and makeup.

Mayor Will Open Trade Fair Tuesday

Fine $60 Levied For Failing To Declare Currency

Stanley C. Elliott, managing director of Elliott's Stationery store, George St., was found guilty Monday of failing to declare United States dollars in his possession to an authorized dealer. Magistrate W. R. Philp, KC, who heard the case at city police court, fined him $60 with $5 costs.

The first court case of its kind to be heard in Peterborough for many years—court officials do not recall a similar case—it was contested for two hours and three RCMP officers and an income tax inspector were prosecution witnesses. The Magistrate said he did not suggest that the offence had been committed intentionally.

Cpl. W. R. Christie, RCMP, said that when he visited Mr. Elliott at his home, 570 Bethune St. on December 8, the accused showed him two bundles of dollar bills. One bundle contained $119 and the other $109. They had been kept in a muff in Mrs. Elliott's cedar chest and Mrs. Elliott had said that the $119 belonged to her and the $109 was her husband's money.

The corporal said that Mr. Elliott had told him approximately $70 was money left over from a trip to Detroit only 10 days previously, a journey for which he had obtained $150 from the bank. Three Form H permits were presented in court, two in Mr. Elliott's name and one for Mrs. Elliott.

W. J. A. Fair, KC, defence counsel, pointed out that the permit dated Nov. 23, on which Mr. Elliott purchased 150 U.S. dollars, did not expire until Dec. 7. At 10 a.m. the following day, before the banks were open, the police were at Mr. Elliott's house, he declared.

Although the regulations stipulate the U.S. dollars must be declared to an authorized dealer forthwith the magistrate said that the word "forthwith" had to be interpreted according to the circumstances and ruled that after his return from the States on Nov. 28, Mr. Elliott had the right to make another visit, using the money, if he so desired, providing he went before Dec. 7, the expiry date of the permit.

Cpl. Christie said that when he first spoke to Mr. Elliott about the currency, the accused had said that $70 was left over from the recent visit and that some of the money had been accumulated by his wife at her place of business. He had been giving her Canadian currency for U.S. dollars.

The prosecution charged that Mr. Elliott failed to declare 228 U.S. dollars, but the magistrate ruled that the $119 which Mrs. Elliott had claimed as her own, did not belong to Mr. Elliott.

Mr. Elliott was found guilty of failing to declare $99 in U.S. currency. The maximum fine for this offence is double the sum involved.

W. F. Huycke, KC, conducted the prosecution.

$34,000,000 Costs

OTTAWA, April 26 (CP) — Administration costs of Wartime Housing Ltd., and Central Mortgage and Housing Corporation have totalled about $34,000,000 since their inception. A return tabled in Commons for R. H. McGregor (PC-York East) said the costs for Wartime Housing were $20,640,000 and those for Central Mortgage were $13,453,000. Wartime Housing operated during 1941-46 and later was taken over by Central Mortgage.

Adjudicator Praises Work Of Calgary Players

By KAY REX.

TORONTO, April 26 (CP). — A performance of Henrik Ibsen's "Hedda Gabler" last night drew several compliments from adjudicator Philip Hope-Wallace, and so gripped the attention of a Dominion drama festival audience that it failed to notice a small fire on stage toward the end of the play.

The fire broke out on a top hat used by one of the actors in the psychological drama, performed by Workshop 14 of Calgary. It was extinguished before many persons realized what had happened.

Mr. Hope-Wallace praised the Western players for their "courage" in choosing the classic, the first entry in the six-day festival. He described it as "one of the most difficult plays in the world to perform," and said the group had given a "very exciting performance."

Fight Against Fate

The play was neither tragedy nor comedy, but a study of the woman, Hedda Gabler, obsessed with the idea that she must get the better of fate.

Doreen Richardson, as Hedda, was credited with having understood well the part she played, where achievement depended more on action than on long soliloquies.

The play revolves around Hedda Gabler and the success of the production depends on the way the six other members of the cast build up to the star. Mr. Hope-Wallace said the Calgary players, through their "unselfishness," had done an excellent job.

In concluding his remarks, the adjudicator described the lighting in the play as "excellent." The production was a "very gallant effort," and "extraordinarily well done."

Gloria Swanson Thinks Age To Be Enjoyed

By BOB THOMAS

HOLLYWOOD, April 26 (AP) —Being old, remarked Gloria Swanson, with perfect logic, merely means that you have lived longer.

"I think it's a crime," the ageless movie queen continued, "that in America age is treated as something distasteful — a burden which people carry on their backs like a bag of rocks. No other country considers age that way; in China, for instance, old people are revered."

Miss Swanson looks a good 10 or 15 years younger than the 50 she admits to. She advertises her age freely. One reason is that most people guess her to be older.

Started Young

She explained why she's considered older than she really is: She started her film career at 14½; she never was an ingenue, but began as a siren.

"Age means nothing," she emphasized. "Why, I can name you four top actresses in the movies—and they're not playing Grandma roles, either—who come within a year or two of my age. And maybe one is a couple of years older, too." Unfortunately, she didn't name names.

The natural question is: How does she stay so young?

Some of it is mental, she said. A lot of it is hereditary. Her mother is still a good-looking woman at 70 and she recalls her grand-grandmother as being apple-cheeked at 84.

Eat Properly

Most important of all, she said, is how to eat.

"Too many people kill themselves by over-eating," she explained. "Americans are largely trash-eaters. If you would pile up on a plate what people often eat in an hour at a dinner—including cocktails, onions, olives, Scotch, wine, Roquefort dressing, chocolate sauce and so forth — even a pig wouldn't eat it. Or if he did, he'd get a tummyache."

Union Will Meet Gibson Over Wages

OTTAWA, April 26 (CP) — Union representatives will meet State Secretary Gibson Thursday or Friday to discuss the request that wages at government printing offices be raised to the level of other printing shops.

The meeting was arranged following a conference in Oshawa, during the week-end of the Federation of Printing Pressmen and Assists (AFL) at which Ottawa delegates protested against what they described as unfair wages and working conditions in government printing shops.

Objection was taken to the $1.40-an-hour wage for government printers, while the rate was $1.50 an hour in Toronto and Windsor, and would be $1.45 an hour in Montreal after June 1. Government printers are asking that rates be the same as in Montreal.

Plan To Enlarge Artillery School

PICTON, April 26. — An option has been taken on 900 acres of farm property on Macaulay's Mountain, adjoining the Royal Canadian School of Artillery (AA) on the outskirts of Picton, a Dominion government spokesman has announced. The option relates to a proposed government undertaking for enlargement of facilities for the anti-aircraft school here.

Properties under formal option are farms of Kenneth Black and Donald Bongard, a portion of the E. M. Herrington farm and J. Clark and N. Miller properties.

According to the announcement, plans for development of these lands includes the erection of at least 450 houses to provide accommodation for personnel of the artillery school.

At the present time there is an acute housing shortage in Picton and district, and large numbers of married personnel of the RCSA are unable to secure suitable accommodation for their families.

Tea Follows Meeting

Mrs. A. Black's group was in charge of the regular meeting of George St. Church Baby Band Mothers' Auxiliary held Monday evening in the church parlors. Special arrangements for this post-Easter meeting were made. A delicious lunch was served at the close from a charming tea table set with lace cloth and silver and centred with apple blossoms, flanked with pink candles. Mrs. Black based the worship service on Jesus' appearances after the resurrection. Scripture was read by Mrs. W. Buckley, prayer offered by Mrs. R. Parnall and a reading given by Mrs. Geo. Gatfield. Miss Ruth Telford was guest soloist and contributed two numbers, accompanied by Mrs. Ross Moore. Miss Cora Bailey, teacher of the junior opportunity class at Prince of Wales School, gave a moving talk on her very interesting and necessary work. She described her pupils as a "happy class." Plans were made for a rummage sale on Friday, May 6. The auxiliary will have a table of children's clothing and bazaar articles at the WMS tea being held in the church on Wednesday, May 18.

Has Third Birthday

Gregory Bernard, son of Mr. and Mrs. Roy B. Pitchford, 189 Hunter St. East celebrated his third birthday on Sunday, April 24.

A wee tots party was held in his honor Saturday afternoon at which a number of his little friends gathered to eat ice cream, cookies and candies, blow up balloons, play games and help consume a large birthday cake on which three tiny candles were burning.

Most of the little guests were accompanied by their mothers who helped the little ones enjoy several happy hours.

Pretty birthday cards and gifts were received from those attending, among who were:

Randy Bradshaw, Nancy MacPherson, John Butler, Sandra Northey, Kenneth Lewis, Tommy Lewis, Bobbie Duder, John Merrett, David Wells, Allen Hoard, Jane Pitchford.

Included in the adults assisting were: Mrs. H. Lewis, Mrs. W. Williams, Mrs. B. Duder, Miss P. Gardiner, Mrs. H. Merrett, Mrs. K. Hoard, Mrs. D. MacPherson, Mrs. M. Northey.

MR. AND MRS. JOHN F. GRAVELY, the bride formerly Jean Johnston, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. F. E. Johnston of Chatham, and formerly of Peterborough, who were married in Deer Park United Church chapel, Toronto, last Wednesday evening. They will reside in Mayfair Mansion Apartments, Toronto.

Audrey Metheral is Bride Of C. Davis, Larchmont, NY

A lovely wedding of wide interest was solemnized on Saturday afternoon in George St. United church, when Audrey Olive, only daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Arthur G. Metheral, 84 London St., was united to Charles Edward Davis, elder son of Colonel Chas. S. Davis and Mrs. Davis, Pelham, N..

The Rev. Dr. James Semple performed the ceremony. The church was decorated with baskets of white snapdragon and lighted with tall white tapers, against a background of palms and ferns.

Given in marriage by her father, the bride wore a classic gown of white frosted taffeta, with peplum ending in a long train. Her pearl trimmed halo was bonnet shaped and her veil of French illusion. She carried a sheaf of Madonna lilies and white sweet peas.

Her two charming attendants were Mrs. Harry Tasker and Miss Sonia Bissett, wearing identical frocks of lime green taffeta ankle length, with matching gloves and bonnets tied with gold veiling, and had gold sandals. Their flowers were cascades of golden daffodils.

The groom was attended by Mr. Donald Metheral, brother of the bride. Ushers were Wm. Piercey and Harry Tasker.

Before the ceremony Mr. Donald Landry sang "The Lord's Prayer" and "Because" during the signing of the register. Mr. Charles Allen presided at the organ.

The bride's mother was gowned in dove grey crepe with mushroom pink flowered hat and accessories to match. The groom's mother more beige lace with toast accessories. Each chose pink sweet peas for their corsages.

The wedding reception was held in the Empress Hotel. Later the bridal couple left by motor for Atlantic City. The bride travelled in a smoke grey suit, with top coat and accessories to match.

Mr. and Mrs. Davis will reside in Larchmont, N. Y. The groom is a graduate of Harvard University.

Nurses' Assistants Course Opportunity for Local Girls

Girls who would love to be nurses but have not the required educational standing can now take a course which will qualify them as Nurses' Assistants. On graduation they will be entitled to wear a becoming green and white uniform, approved by the Ontario Departments of Health and Education, joint sponsors of the course. During the nine months of training the student is provided with uniforms and also receives the liberal allowance of $60 per month. Cost of transportation to the centre is paid as well.

Mrs. Leona J. Stubbs, Reg. N. is in the city this week to give full particulars and take the names of girls desiring to enrol for the next course which will commence in Toronto on September 13. She can be located in room 89 at the Empress Hotel. After Friday, Miss A. L. Thomson, nursing superintendent of Peterborough Civic Hospital will take applications.

Graduates of the course are in a preferred position in a career which affords full employment as well as a recognized status in the community. Their work is to supplement and assist the registered nurse.

The course is open to all women between 18 and 35 years of age who have the necessary aptitude. A minimum education of eighth grade is required. Three months practical training is given at the centre and six months' practical training in hospitals. The graduates are given a certificate to show clearly their distinct difference from practical nurses. The Nurses' Assistants are required to give their services to the hospital in their home city if it is needed there. Since the course was started in 1946 there has been great demand for them in general hospitals, sanatoriums, Red Cross outposts, hospital for sick children and others.

Instructors are experienced registered nurses. The course of study for the first period included structure and function of the human body, personal hygiene, hospital housekeeping, nursing procedures, simple cookery, care of the baby and mother and simple treatments. Lectures are given by qualified dietitians in home-cooking, invalid trays and ordinary housekeeping.

Delegates Named To Oshawa Meet

Elizabeth Smellie branch, No. 452, of the Canadian Legion regular meeting was held in the Armouries Monday evening. President Mrs. Rosa Humphries opened with one minute silence and conducted a short business session.

Mrs. Alice Morin, convener of ways and means, thanked all girls who had assisted in making the Easter sale the great success it was. Mrs. Pat Vaisey, first vice-president, is in charge of a contest for naming the monthly bulletin. Two delegates were elected to attend the Oshawa district convention on May 22.

The girls enjoyed wrapping gifts for a sunshine box to be sent to a member's mother. Contributions for the monthly parcel to Britain were handed in.

Miss Irene Vivash, entertainment convener, assisted by Miss Molly Curtis, served delicious refreshments.

It was announced that the meeting of May 30 will be a special meeting at which initiation of the padre, the Rev. W. J. Gilling, and of new members will take place. All members are asked to attend this function.

Voegtle-Martin Marriage Rites

A double ring wedding ceremony in the Church of St. John the Evangelist, Kitchener, on Saturday, united Marjorie Lillian Martin, Kitchener, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Richard Martin, 650 Bolivar St., Peterborough, and formerly of Kitchener, and Melvin Edward Voegtle, son of Mr. and Mrs. M. S. Voegtle. The Rev. C. C. W. Mixer officiated in a setting of white carnations, snapdragon and fern with tall white candles.

During the ceremony, "I'll Walk Beside You" and "O Perfect Love" were sung by the soloist, Mr. Albert Martin, cousin of the bride. Mr. Kenneth Clark was organist.

The bride wore a gown of ivory satin made with picture neckline, net yoke and a fitted bodice that fell in points over a bouffant skirt, and was given in marriage by her father. Her long illusion veil was caught by a pearl coronet headdress and she carried a bouquet of Bettertime roses.

Similarly styled gowns were worn by the maid of honor, Miss Kay Voegtle, sister of the groom, and Miss Elaine Martin, Peterborough, sister of the bride. The dresses were of yellow and orchid moire taffeta and each wore a nile green headdress and mittens and carried a cascade of Talisman roses and sweet peas.

Mr. George Martin, brother of the bride, was groomsman. Richard Martin, Jr., Peterborough, and Robert Voegtle ushered.

Ninety guests attended the evening reception at Hillcrest Inn, Bridgeport. Mothers of the couple received, Mrs. Martin wearing powder blue crepe with black accessories and corsage of red roses, and Mrs. Voegtle in black crepe with pink and black accessories.

The bride changed to a grey gabardine suit and pink accessories for a wedding trip to Rochester and Elmira, NY, and on return they will live in Kitchener.

Of Interest to Women

DOROTHY DIX

When Bachelor-Husband Prefers His Bar Companions

DEAR DOROTHY DIX—I have been married for 15 years to a man who still retains his bachelor traits. He enjoys spending his nights out with the boys far more than he does being with his family at home, or going out with me. I have tried desperately to keep up appearances of a happy family but to no avail. His interests seem harmless enough, but it forces me into either a life of seclusion, or into a new world of my own.

Do you think I would be better off if I would let him go his own way unhampered? It is a case of a peaceful household without him, or a turbulent one with him.

MRS. B. A.

✧ ✧ ✧

Dorothy Dix

ANSWER — The problem that wives grow gray trying to solve is why the men who camped on their doorsteps before marriage, after marriage can't be induced to spend an evening at home. It isn't that their wives fail to come up to expectations. On the contrary their Mary Janes have retained all of their youthful charms, and there is nothing that these Wandering Willies enjoy more than bragging about what good cooks and housekeepers their wives are and quoting the smart things their children said.

Such being the case, it is not surprising that the bewildered wives ask, if their homes are such pleasant places, why their husbands object so much to staying in them. And why, if their wives are so attractive, do husbands prefer the society of barflies to theirs? The answer is simple enough. It is because there are men who are atavistic by nature, who always revert to type and can never be housebroken.

Still Loves Wife

The wise woman, who has gotten one of these men's men for a husband, should realize that the fact that he puts on his hat and goes downtown as soon as he has gulped his dinner, is no sign that he is a woman-chaser, or that he has lost his affection for his wife. It is just because he craves the society of his own kind.

So Friend Wife should accept the inevitable and, instead of getting a divorce, should build her own separate life, keep her home intact, and give her children the advantages and the place in society they could not have without a husband and a father to provide for them.

✧ ✧ ✧

DEAR DOROTHY DIX—Seven years ago my sister's husband died, leaving her a childless widow, and being sorry for her, my husband and I asked her to come and stay with us. We did not expect this to be a permanent arrangement, but my sister does, and my husband has gotten so fed up with having her always under foot that he is threatening to leave me.

What am I to do? My sister doesn't dream she is in our way and I cannot bear to hurt her.

K. L. S.

✧ ✧ ✧

ANSWER—Your problem is a very common one, for there are few families in which there is not an in-law or a grandma or an aunt or an uncle who comes for a visit and settles down for the balance of his or her life. They are comfortable and they know that nobody has the courage to kick 'em out. Furthermore, such is human vanity, they probably never even suspect that everyone isn't just crazy to have them around.

Certainly you are doing a very wrong and foolish thing to let your sister break up your home. Your duty is to screw up your courage to the sticking point and just write Sister a nice, affectionate, honest letter telling her that you love her, but that you and your husband want to have your home alone.

Perhaps she will cry a little over not being wanted, but it won't take her long to realize that she will be a lot happier by herself than having to cater to another's whims. For we all have our eccentricities.

✧ ✧ ✧

DEAR DOROTHY DIX — My friend's husband died four months ago and she would like to know if it is old-fashioned for a widow to wear black. Also, if it is proper for a widow to wear costume jewelry and attend shows and dances.

MRS. H. M. K.

✧ ✧ ✧

ANSWER—Wearing mourning used to be obligatory and no widow would have been thought respectable who did not go about swathed in black. Now, however, customs have changed and it is a matter of individual preference whether a woman puts on black or not when she is widowed.

However, it would be considered extremely bad-taste for a woman who had recently lost some member of her family to wear gay and conspicuous clothes, or to deck herself out in flamboyant costume jewelry, or to go to public dances. It is wrong to make a fetish of mourning, but we owe a certain respect to the dead.

Baptist YPU Rally Held in Norwood

Peterborough Association Baptist Young People's Union annual Spring Rally was held in Norwood Baptist Church Friday evening.

Following a delicious supper, served by the Norwood women, members assembled in the church auditorium with president, Miss Olive Tedford presiding. The Rev. Robert Dick, pastor of the entertaining church, extended a message of welcome to visiting delegates, to which Roy Rodgers of Park Street Union replied.

A most enjoyable song service was conducted by the Rev. John Galloway of Port Hope with Sonya Petterson assisting at the piano. Members of the Lakefield Union led the group in worship service. Mr. Harry Pyle of Peterborough was soloist of the evening and sang the Crusader's hymn "Fairest Lord Jesus".

Roll call was taken by Dave Graham, secretary treasurer of the Association, who found 86 young people were present, hailing from Cobourg, Gilmour Memrial, Lakefield, Murray Street, Norwood, Port Hope and Park Street Baptist churches.

The Rev. Ivan Morgan of Murray Street Church conducted a discussion on problems in BYPU work. This was received with splendid response and many participated in the discussion.

The Rev. Mr. Galloway summarized the theme of the evening under the heading "Pointing Advance for Youth". Benediction was pronounced by the Rev. Mr. Dick.

Pleasing Program At St. Paul's With Guest Artists

A pleasant atmosphere prevailed in St. Paul's Guild Room for the regular meeting of Friendly Group of the Ladies' Aid Friday evening, when Mrs. Roy Powell was guest speaker She chose for her subject "Thoughts on how we can influence others."

Mrs. A. A. McIntyre, past leader was in the chair. Miss Grace Hudson sang the "Lord's Prayer" accompanied at the piano by Miss Marion Jones. Devotional period was led by Mrs. Don S. Clarke. Mrs. L. M. McNeill charmed her audience with two piano numbers. Reports were given by Mrs. J. E. Hill, secretary and Mrs. Wm. McBride, treasurer. The former also reported for Contribution Basket convener, Mrs. Harry Ball, who is ill. Mrs. T. J. Tully and Mrs. Wm. Moorehead thanked the women for cards and gifts sent during their recent illnesses. Cards of thanks were also received from Mrs. R. Ross and Mrs. C. G. Boyd. Two solos were contributed by Mrs. M. Slaughter, accompanied at the piano by Mrs. A. Shadgett. Miss A. Ingram was pianist for the meeting.

Program and refreshments were in charge of women having birthdays in April and these included Mrs. A. Jones, Mrs. Don S. Clarke, Miss A. Ingram, Mrs. L. M. McNeill and Mrs. A. E. Watkins.

Mrs. Clarke moved a vote of thanks to Mrs. Powell, and Mrs. McIntyre thanked other visiting artists.

Refreshments were served from a tea table with lace cloth, yellow tapers and centred with a bowl of white hyacinths and yellow daffodils. Mrs. A. Jones poured tea.

Ladies who were making plans for the meeting of the Synodical Society came in for a cup of tea and a vote of thanks on behalf of these women was voiced by Mrs. E. H. Howson.

Sorority Studies Modern Paintings

Members of Alpha Theta Chapter of Beta Sigma Phi visited the Public Library Monday evening to view the work of a Canadian group of painters on display there. Miss Earla MacVannel, who was introduced by sororist Miss Mary Bolton, spoke on the paintings and the artists. She explained that the conception of art has been undergoing a gradual change and that the points to look for in modern art are line, color, and texture. She criticized each painting constructively.

The meeting re-adjourned at the YWCA following her address, where plans were made for the bridge party being held tonight in the Empress Hotel with Mrs. G. McWilliams as convener.

Mrs. M. E. Holt gave a short talk on cancer preceding the showing of two films provided by the Canadian Cancer Society. She explained that funds realized in the present campaign are in aid of cancer research, extention of diagnostic and treatment facilities, education of cancer, and a service to cancer patients.

A gift was presented to Miss Margaret Wyllie, who is leaving the city shortly to live in Niagara Falls.

Refreshments were served by the social committee.

St. James' WA Church Service

St. James' United Church WA members held their annual church service Sunday morning. Their speaker was Mrs. W. F. Inglehart, Dominion association member of the Women's Council, from Toronto. She spoke on "Calling of Mary" and stressed the need for all women to be in readiness for a call. She said all women are required to fill a definite place and should have faith in their ability to give Christian leadership.

She urged them to do better in their job as homemakers of the world.

Mrs. G. Harris, president of the WA, and Mrs. F. W. Craik assisted in the service. Guest soloist was Mrs. Jessie Spencely. Mrs. H. Doig took the solo part in the anthem.

Flowers placed on the altar were in memory of a deceased member.

Following the service the WA executive members entertained the guest speaker and soloist at luncheon, served in the church parlors.

6—In Memoriams

BAGNALL—In loving memory of dear mother, who passed away 5 years ago today.
We do not forget her, we love her too dearly,
For her memory to fade from our lives like a dream,
Our lips need not speak, when our hearts mourn sincerely,
For grief often dwells where it seldom is seen.
—Ever remembered by daughter Dolly and son-in-law Alvin.

HUGHEY.—In loving memory of Marjorie Hughey, who passed away April 26, 1948.
Her life is a beautiful memory
Her death is our silent grief,
She sleeps in God's beautiful garden
In the sunshine of perfect peace.
Her presence is ever near us
Her love remains with us yet,
For she was the kind of a mother
Her loved one will never forget.
So we leave her in God's keeping,
The rough road safely o'er,
And our dear mother we loved so dearly
Has only gone before.
—Ever remembered by husband and family.

HUGHEY—In loving memory of our dear mother, Margery Hughey, who passed away April 26th, 1948.
Her thoughts were all so full of us,
She never could forget
And so we think that where she is
She must be watching yet.
As angels keep their watch up there
Please, God, just let her know
That we down here do not forget
We love and miss her so.
—Ever remembered by daughter Ethel and son-in-law Jim.

Several Spies Said Operating

WINNIPEG, April 26 (CP) — Deportation to Russian territory of Dimitry Leshchenko, self-confessed Soviet spy, it was reported here Monday would remove but one of a number of espionage agents operating in Canada under orders from the USSR.

Leschenko's deportation order was announced in Ottawa by Justice Minister Garson. The 36-year-old Calgary bag factory worker was arrested last Tuesday by RCMP and army intelligence officers on charges of having entered Canada by misrepresentation.

The Winnipeg Free Press published a front page story saying that a displaced person in the service of the Russian secret police had been operating in Winnipeg until a few weeks ago.

The man was reported to have been disguised as a Greek Orthodox priest, and, the former D. P. said, had connections with the German Communist Party at Buchotz.

The Free Press' informant was reported to have said: "This priest agent of the Russian secret police left Winnipeg as soon as he had been discovered by the D. P. police official I have told you about."

Celebrate Freedom

ROME, April 26 (Reuters) — Italy yesterday celebrated the fourth anniversary of her liberation from Fascism with Republican declarations of progress, while the Communists charged that Fascism still survives. Banks and public officer were closed for the day, a national holiday in the Republic's calendar.

Smallest Woman Dies

WAYCROSS, Ga., April 26 — (AP)—Martina De La Cruz, 74-year-old midget billed as the "world's smallest woman," died here Sunday. She was 21 inches tall.

Stop Plane Flight

AMSTERDAM, April 26 (AP) —Royal Dutch Airlines decided yesterday to stop flights on the Batavia-Shanghai run because of the Communist advances in China. The weekly connection between Batavia, Singapore and Bangkok will be maintained.

Charges Boards Taking Over Court Duties

OTTAWA, April 26 — (CP)— A brief, heated exchange between Prime Minister St. Laurent and John Diefenbaker (PC-Lake Centre) marked the passage in the Commons Monday of a Bill providing for the appointment of six additional judges to the Quebec Superior Court.

Mr. Diefenbaker charged that bureaucrats have taken over many of the powers of the courts. Mr. St. Laurent said that to charge there was a large number of bureaucratic courts was to "make an imputation on our democracy" that is not warranted."

Mr. Diefenbaker supported the Bill which will become effective as soon as an Enabling Act, passed at the last session of the Quebec Legislature, is proclaimed. A strong judiciary was needed to protect the rights of individuals against the invasion of bureaucracy.

Ministers Decide

Too often, said Mr. Diefenbaker, decisions were made by Cabinet ministers instead of by the courts. Unless there was appeal to the courts, the individual felt he had not received justice.

He asked for assurances from the government that courts of bureaucracy would be reduced if not entirely eliminated. Too often decisions were made by boards where prejudice, rumor and hearsay evidence played their part.

Mr. St. Laurent interjected that he did not plan to have the "broad allegations go unchallenged."

The government, said the Prime Minister, had established the income-tax appeal board to hear appeals against income tax assets.

"When he talks about bureaucratic courts, I don't know what he is talking about," he said.

Add New Trophy For Festival

TORONTO, April 26 — (CP)— A new trophy, in memory of Col. H. C. Osborne of Ottawa, has been added to the list of prizes to be awarded at this year's Dominion Drama Festival. Col. Osborne a vice-president of the D. D. F., died a week ago.

At the festival opening Monday night Rt. Hon. Vincent Massey, D. D. F. president, announced that the award, donated by "a group of Col. Osborne's friends," would take the form of a cup to be presented annually to the best actor of the festival.

The trophy swells to more than 10 the number of prizes up for competition at this year's contest.

Topping the list is the Bessborough Challenge Trophy, the gift of the Earl of Bessborough, founder of the festival, for the best presentation of either a short or long play.

Best English and French performances will also win awards. The Sir Barry Jackson trophy go to the group giving the best performance of a Canadian-written play.

In addition, at the conclusion of the festival, the winner will be announced of the $100 cash prize to go to the author of the best play judged as a dramatic composition and presented in any of the regional festivals.

Late Church Official Buried At Pt. Hope

Funeral service for the late Peter Preingam MacQueen, 71, of Lakefield, was held on Monday at the Kaye funeral home. The Rev. C. G. Boyd, St. Paul's Presbyterian Church, and the Rev. H. Kaye officiated. Pallbearers were W, Moorhead, A. Chaplin, H. Fry, S. Black, J. Scott and J. Anderson. Burial was at Union Cemetery, Port Hope.

Mr. MacQueen died on Saturday at his residence. He was born in Allway, Scotland, son of the late Mr. and Mrs. Alec MacQueen. He lived in Paris, Ont., for 56 years and for three years in Peterborough, and for the past 12 months in Lakefield.

He was a member of St. Paul's Presbyterian Church and of its board of managers. He was also member of the IOOF, Chatham, Ont.

Eisenhower Aide Asks Counter-Offensive

TORONTO, April 26 (CP) — A world counter-offensive against the spreading tentacles of Soviet influence was urged here yesterday by one of the top-ranking strategists of the United States Air Force.

Maj.-Gen. Orville A. Anderson, former aide to Gen. Eisenhower and adviser to President Truman, told two service club gatherings that the democratic countries had already lost three vital preliminaries to a future conflict; warfare on the political, economic and psychological fronts.

A continuation of these reverses would prejudice the outcome of a shooting war, he said.

Local Youths Attend Key Club Conference

Eighteen members of the two Key Clubs in the city, St. Peter's High School and PCVS attended the Key Club conference in London over the weekend. The conference was held in the Hotel London and the Catholic Culture Centre. It was the 2nd Ontario, Quebec and Maritimes Key Club conference, James Leith, East York Key Club, District Governor and Bill Duignan, St. Peter's High School, District Secretary-treasurer, presided over the conference until new officers were elected.

In the Oratory contest won last year won by Bill Duignan, Jack Kennaley, represented the St. Peter's Key club. He placede 2nd, Bill Lawton, Sir Adam Beck Collegiate Club being first. Their assigned topic was "It's Great to a Canadian."

Saturday morning St. Peter's Key Club won the Achievement Report Trophy with Belleville second. St. Peter's Club won the Travel Contest with the PCVS club placing second.

Next year the conference of these Junior-Kiwanis sponsored clubs will be held in Belleville.

Cadet Training Starts At PCVS

PCVS citizenship training commenced Monday afternoon. Each day for the next two and a half weeks the boys of the Collegiate will be out on the parade grounds in preparation for the inspection May 11. The cadets are affiliated with the 50th Heavy AA Regiment, RCA.

The Department of Education requires that three periods a week be given to physical education and citizenship training. Due to the crowded conditions at PCVS the gym is not large enough for all classes to have three periods a week. Throughout the year only two periods a week are used, and this leaves a backlog of 30 periods. By the one hour each day for two weeks in the spring for cadet training some of these are made up.

At present there are 530 boys in the regiment, making four batteries of 12 troops.

The cadets will do demonstrations of mass PT, anti-aircraft gun drill with supporting aircraft coming from Trenton, and field craft, featuring first aid and radio signalling.

The Sunday School has arranged a program for Mother's Day, May 8. There will also be a special service at the United Church when several children will be baptised.

Want Quarantine Cut For Scarlet Fever

TORONTO, April 26 (CP) — Reduction of the scarlet fever quarantine period may be sought by the Ontario Health Officers Association. Present regulations call for three weeks' quarantine.

Dr. J. B. Cook of Sudbury raisewd the question during the Association's 33rd annual convention yesterday.

Dr. G. P. Jackson asked the meeting to prepare a resolution on the quarantine question.

SettlementMade In Otonabee Telephone Claim

A settlement has been reached in the action by the Bell Telephone Co. against the Township of Otonabee. As soon as the pleadings were heard on Monday by the Hon. Mr. Justice Wilson at the current non-jury sittings of the Supreme Court, the Justice strongly recommended a settlement.

Under the terms of settlement the Township will pay Bell Telephone $1,000 for revenue the latter claims was owing to it as a result of the Otonabee Municipal Telephone System using a Bell-owned telephone circuit. Both plaintiff and defendant will pay own costs.

In its action against the Otonabee System, the Bell Telephone Co. had asked for a total of $1,369.04; this figure included a sum of $108.78 accrued after the statement of claim was delivered.

In dispute was the allocation of revenue from telephone traffic between Peterborough and Keene over two lines—one owned jointly and the other owned by Bell. Bell made claim for the period between September 1947 and December 1948.

Calls on the joint line were settled on a pro-rate basis involving the number of miles of circuit used in completing the call. When the traffic became heavy on the joint line the Bell System would transfer the call to the wholly-owned Bell line.

The Bell Telephone Co. was not satisfied with its share of the revenue from these "short haul" calls and this gave rise to the litigation. The Otonabee Municipal Telephone Commission could not be sued as it is not a separate body.

By December 1948 the Otonabee system had completed a second line to the eastern junction with the Bell system, and the situation was relieved.

Mr. Justice Wilson said, "This seems to be a non-recurring situation; it's too bad you can't settle it." He stated that the expense of further litigation and the time involved were hardly justified in view of the size of the claim.

The parties met in the judge's chambers on Monday afternoon and reached partial agreement; and a full agreement was signed on Monday night.

Today Mr. Justice Wilson congratulated the litigants for having reached an amicable arrangement.

T. J. Carley, K. C., appeared for the township, and F. A. Burgess of Montreal, represented the Bell Telephone Co.

Optimists To Aid In City-Wide Canvass

First meeting of the Peterborough Optimist Club with newly-appointed President Leo Edwards in the chair was held Monday evening. Members heard Charles Boulter, Junior Chamber of Commerce, tell of the mass TB survey which is being held in the city at the present time. The club agreed to assist in canvassing to ensure that the greatest possible number of citizens were X-rayed.

They welcomed back Optimist Sheldon Huffman, who has returned from wintering in the South. Haydn Soutter was appointed supervisor of Boys' Town and will live on the premises of Trafalgar House. In a nomination held to determine a candidate for lieutenant - governor of Optimist district 15, Sheldon Huffman let his name stand.

John E. Maloney Laid To Rest In Marmora

MARMORA, April 26.—(ENS.) —The funeral of John E. Maloney took place on Monday morning, leaving the residence of his son, Richard, in Marmora township, for Sacred Heart church, where requiem mass was celebrated by his nephew, Rev. John Ruth of St. Michael's College, Toronto, assisted by Rev. H. J. Farrell, parish priest. Burial took place in the Sacred Heart cemetery with eight grandsons of the deceased acting as pallbearers, namely, Michael Maloney, Bernard Maloney, Leo Maloney, Paul Maloney, Joseph Maloney, Paul Fehrenbach, Mark Fehrenbach and Stafford Shannon.

Mr. Maloney, who was a well known and highly esteemed resident of Marmora township, died on Friday at the home of his daughter, Mrs. Charles Fehrenbach, in Oshawa, one day after reaching hih eighty-fourth birthday.

Farmed in Bruce County

He was the son of the late Mr. and Mrs. Edward Maloney and with the exception of ten years of farming in Bruce county, spent his life in his native township.

His wife, formerly Frances Wolfe, and one son Patrick predeceased him a few years ago. He had been in failing health for the past two years and had resided for the past year with his daughter in Oshawa. He was a devout member of Sacred Heart church.

He is survived by two sons, Edward and Richard, Marmora township, and two daughters, Mrs. Michael Shannon, Marmora township, and Mrs. Chas. Fehrenbach, Oshawa.

Among those attending the funeral were R. J. Maloney, Mr. and Mrs. William Doyle, Miss Jean Shannon, Peterborough, and Mrs. Sears, Oshawa.

Timothy H. Crough Buried In Ennismore

Funeral for the late Timothy H. Crough, 86, for 60 years a farmer in Ennismore Township, was held from the home of his daughter, Mrs. Loyala Maloney, RR 9, Peterborough, on Monday morning. Requiem mass was said at St. Martin's Church, Ennismore, by the Rev. J. V. Gilloghly and pallbearers were six grandsons, Timothy, Urban and Jack Crough, Robert and Timothy Maloney and William Kearns. The Rev. J. C. Maloney and Father Gilloghly officiated at the graveside service and burial was at St. Martin's Cemetery.

Mr. Crough died on Friday in hospital. He was born in Ireland, son of the late William Crough and Sarah Hamersly, and came to Canada as a young man. His wife, the former Catherine Gorman, and three daughters predeceased him.

Israel In Baby Statehood Faces First Big Problem

By JAMES M. LONG

TEL AVIV, April 26 (AP). — Tough little Israel, still in the swaddling clothes of infant statehood, is facing her first full-grown world problem — and doesn't like it.

That problem is how to stay neutral in the cold war between East and West, or which side to pick.

Israel would not like to have to choose. She would rather steer a neutral middle course, at least for the immediately future years in which she must absorb immigrants quickly.

The issue is expected here to come to its first hard moment of choice when, now that the North Atlantic Pact is signed, attention turns to firm proposals for a Mediterranean Pact.

Italy probably would be in such an alliance, as bridging member between the North Atlantic and Mediterranean countries. Greece likely would be in; Turkey almost certainly; Egypt possible.

And Israel, the little state with the big army at the doorway to the oil wealth, the battlefields and the air bases of the Middle East, could hardly escape invitation to make her choice.

Think Choice Certain

Most people here think they know what that choice would be. They point out that the Communist vote in Israel's first election was less than five per cent.

But there will be hidden factors in the ultimate decision of more far-reaching importance than the division of voters between Communist and non-Communist parties.

Two such factors are the United States dollar — and the Eastern European Jewish immigrant.

Israel must have dollar credits for her essential imports.

Russia is not offering financial assistance. But she has cut off the stream of Jewish immigrants from almost all Easte Europe. (None ever was allowed to come from Russia itself.) When or whether this immigration is allowed to resume probably will depend on what Moscow thinks of Israel's future international position.

Today we Live in a Greater Canada

They Drained a Lake

to give Canada a Great New Industry

IT HAPPENED in Ontario's Rainy River District. Steep Rock Lake — fifteen miles long and ranging in depth from 40 to 265 feet — was emptied by batteries of giant pumps. Finlayson Lake was lowered by draining from the bottom. The course of the Seine River was completely changed. And one of the richest bodies of iron ore on the continent was uncovered. Providing millions of tons of ore a year — with enough uncovered for years to come — Steep Rock's development has been spectacular, but it is only ONE of many examples of Canada's tremendous modern advance. Today we truly live in a Greater Canada—one with productive capacity vastly increased and diversified, offering to young Canadians greater opportunities than ever before in every field of endeavour.

The iron and steel manufacturing industry presents another spectacular example of development: productive capacity and number of employees have been doubled since before the war, striking indication of Canada's new position as one of the world's great industrial nations.

SO MANY OPPORTUNITIES

"A sound idea and the determination to carry it through—those are sure passports to success in Canada today where there are so many interesting opportunities in so many different kinds of activity" —says MR. LESLIE BUTCHER, of Windsor, Ont.

Mr. Butcher—member of Canada's 1936 Olympic basketball team—after returning from college in the U.S. and being manager of a local insurance office, started his own Butcher Enterprises. Their development provides many examples of this young Canadian's energy and enterprise. They include: a unique and successful service in the wrapping of products for shipping; and the modernization of the Windsor Arena to present outstanding sports and entertainment events with great success.

Man 33, Freed From Tomb After 10 Years, Mother Sealed Him In

Shut Off From World By Wall Of Plaster To Escape 1939 Draft; Fed Through Little Hole In Top Of Prison

NEW YORK, April 27—(AP).—A shaggy-bearded man of 33, dug out after 10 years of fantastic solitude in a dank cubbyhole, yearned today to return to the tomb-like cubicle in which his mother sealed him when war broke out in 1939. Shoeless, filthy, his clothes in rags, Paul Manushak, one-time college student, stood on wobbly legs and blinked into the unaccustomed glare of electric lights.

"I liked it in there," he said. "I'd like to go back. I don't care about the outside world." Police took him to a hospital.

The man told a strange story of voluntary exile since 1939—when his mother sealed him off from the world with a wall of wood and plaster at the outbreak of the Second World War.

Makushak spent the 10 years in a tiny walled-in cubicle built in the corner of a littered third-floor bedroom in a brownstone house in the Greenpoint section of Brooklyn.

Ignorant of Imprisonment

His father, who runs a tailor shop in the same building, said he never knew his son was imprisoned in the house.

The cubicle, about three feet wide and five feet long—scarcely big enough to hold Makushak when he stretched on the floor to sleep—had been devised, police said, because his mother presumably wanted him to escape being drafted.

Makushak, however, was vague about the war.

"The draft?" he replied to questioning. "I don't know about the draft. That was in 1917, wasn't it?"

The story of Makushak's imprisonment came to the attention of police Wednesday night after the mother, 58-year-old Mrs. Anna Makushak, entered a hospital.

She asked a neighborhood woman to go and care for her son—whose only contact with the world was a hole in the top of his tomb through which he was fed.

The neighbor, unidentified, told police about him.

Acheson Pleads With Congress Approve Treaty

WASHINGTON, April 27.—(AP).— State Secretary Dean Acheson pleaded with Congress today to approve both the North Atlantic Treaty and the proposed $1,450,000,000 arms aid program to bolster "world-wide security."

Acheson appeared before the State Foreign Relations committee at the opening of hearings on the pact which was signed here April 4. It requires approval by a two-thirds vote of the senate before it can be ratified.

The cabinet officer termed the 12-country security treaty and the foreign military assistance program parallel ways of building world security and said he believes both are necessary.

But he met head-on one of the biggest questions raised by some congressonal critics by saying that the treaty does not formally bind Congress to approve the projected military program.

Both the treaty and the arms assistance program are aimed frankly at building up western strength against fears of Russian aggression.

Acheson himself told the senators that the two measures stem from Soviet foreign policies, declaring:

"The sense of insecurity prevalent in western Europe is not a figment of the imagiantion—it has come about through the conduct of the Soviet Union."

Picton Blaze Destroys Mess

PICTON, April 27—Fire early Tuesday night burned out the officer's mess of the Hastings and Prince Edward Regiment in the armory here.

All furnishings and military trophies were destroyed in the blaze which burned out a 30 square foot section of the roof.

Firemen from the Picton Brigade and the Royal Canadian School of Artillery got the blaze under control in an hour. Damage was confined to the southern end of the two storey brick armory which was erected in 1914.

Regimental colors, stored in the orderly room below the officers' mess, were rescued by Sgt. Arthur Miller who climbed a ladder and smashed a window of the orderly room to gain entrance.

The cause of the fire was unknown although it was first detected in the ceiling of the officers' mess. Damage, authorities said, would amount to "several thousands of dollars."

Police Relay Team Gets Plasma Through

LONDON, Ont., April 27 — (CP).—Three Provincial policemen formed a relay team early today to rush blood plasma over fog-shrouded highways from London for an emergency case in Woodstock hospital.

The plasma was for Mrs. Annie Higgs, of St. George St., London, who has been in serious condition since she was injured Sunday night near Woodstock in the traffic accident that killed Albert Challis, 56, of London.

The plasma was delivered within one hour and doctors said it reached them in time to save the woman from a relapse.

Call for the plasma was received at police headquarters here by radio at 3.30 a.m. Constables Hugh MacDonald and Fred Fowler went to Victoria Hospital, obtained the plasma and drove to Ingersoll on No. 2 Highway. They were met there by Constable Joe Kendall, of Woodstock, who completed the journey to Woodstock hospital.

Can't Force Press Freedom

UN Motion Useless Without Totalitarian Methods

LAKE SUCCESS, N. Y., April 27 (CP)—The United Nations Social Committee Tuesday adopted a proposed international measure on freedom of the press which some delegates said would require totalitarian methods to enforce.

Those delegates to the 58-member committee of the General Assembly said the drafting of a convention of freedom of information and the press reached a crisis when this clause was adopted:

"It is the duty of information agencies and foreign correspondents to report the facts without discrimination to promote respect for human rights and fundamental freedoms, to further international understanding and to contribute to the maintenanee of international peace and security."

The vote adopting the clause was 27 to 17 with seven absentions. Canada, the United States, Britain, France and Sweden were among those opposing it.

Canada is represented on the committee by Leon Mayrand, head of the American and far eastern division of the external affairs department. His adviser is George Hambilton, an information officer of the department.

The Dominion in general has opposed any provisions which would lead to peacetime censorship.

Superintendent Shot

QUEBEC, April 27—(CP). — Provincial Police said here today that Edward L. Rainboth, general superintendent of Asbestos Corporation, was found shot to death early today in his home at Thetford Mines, Que. The report to Quebec Provincial Police said the death was due to gunfire but was not clear as to whether there had been one or more shots.

Roberts Drops Gift Bill Bomb At Convention

TORONTO, April 27 — (CP)— Ontario's controversial Charitable Gift Act ranks as a surprise issue in to-day's voting on a new leader of the Progressive Conservative Party in Ontario.

Kelso Roberts., the only one of the four candidates not a member of the Provincial Government, startled the three-day leadership convention Wednesday night by urging in his formal nomination speech that a caucus of Progressive Conservative members of the Legislature be called to review the Bill passed at the last session.

Apparently the "secret weapon" the 50-year-old mining lawyer previously promised to unveil at the convention, the announcement was greeted with mingled applause and boos. But it was the theme of corridor and hotel room gossip far into the night.

The other three leadership candidates all had a hand in the measure which prohibits charitable foundations from owning more than a 10 per cent interest in any private business.

It affects the Atkinson Foundation, which owns the Toronto Star and Star Weekly. Hon. Leslie Frost, Provincial Treasurer, introduced the Bill. Hon. Leslie Blackwell, Attorney-General, and Hon. Dana Porter, Minister of Education, supported it in the bitter House debate which preceded its passing.

Frost Favorite

Supporters of Mr. Roberts were openly confident on Wednesday night that this new issue would help him win the voting test. Other delegates felt that the situation was unchanged and that Mr. Frost still ruled as favorite, with Mr. Blackwell a close se-

India Stays But Known As Republic

Will Not Recognize Allegiance To British Crown

LONDON, April 27 (CP) — With major difficulties surmounted, delegates to the Commonwealth Conference today planned to meet again to put final touches on a statement outlining their historic reconciliation of Crown and Republic within one family of nations.

The statement was to be released later today simultaneously in the capitals of each of the eight participating countries. It was considered likely that the document would be made public about 7 p.m. EDT.

The statement is understood to contain provisions to allow India to remain an integral part of the Commonwealth after she assumes Republican status in the near future.

The talks, which started Friday and were expected to end today, were conducted in a most friendly spirit of co-operation, delegates said.

To Advise King

Delegates were expected to go to Buckingham Palace and advise the King of their decisions before publication of the document.

Present bonds of association, set down by the statute af Westminster in 1931, will not be impaired. All but India will still recognize a common allegiance to the Crown.

The conference's announcement was expected only to provide a supplement to the present bonds to allow Republican States—who would hold no allegiance to the Crown—to maintain Commonwealth status.

Many former bonds will still remain between India and other Commonwealth countries. Common heritage, custom and community of interest have always been considered as important understood links—although not set down by law.

The changes were expected to be—as Prime Minister Nehru of India predicted before the conference—a change in "form only."

When India becomes a Republic, its prime minister will act as head of the State in place of the King or his representative.

Sentenced 5 Years For Slaying Husband

Judge Tells 25-Year-Old Woman She Had Extreme Provocation

TORONTO, April 27 (CP)— Mrs. Grace MacDonald 25-year-old mother convicted of manslaughter in the paring-knife slaying of her husband, today was sentenced to five years in prison.

As sentence was passed, the young Toronto woman told Mr. Justice A. M. LeBel "I won't go to jail for five years. I'd rather be dead."

Mr. Justice Bell recommended that Mrs. MacDonald be placed "in a provincial institution where you can receive medical attention."

"We must consider your age, that you are of frail physique and afflicted with a physical ailment, as well as the fact that the psychiatrist feels you should be in an institution."

Before passing sentence, the Supreme Court Justice told Mrs. MacDonald "the crime is a serious one for which the maximum sentence may be imposed."

"I cannot overlook that you have been found guilty of a serious charge but there are factors in your favor. One is that it was a crime of passion committed during a quarrel and when you were acting under extreme provocation."

The quarrel which led to the death of the 27-year-old MacDonald last January was said to have arisen from his unwillingness to have his wife visit her sister in hospital. Evidence was given that the husband had beaten his wife several times before she picked up a knife to protect herself.

26-Man Crew On Ice Cakes Reach Safety

ST. JOHN'S, April 27.—(CP).— The 26-man crew of the ice destroyed sealer Wimoda took four hours today to walk over a treacherous icepack off Labrador to reach safety on the deck of the sealing vessel Newfoundlander. All hunters are safe and well.

The rescue ship worked its way to within three miles of the hunters, marooned for 30 hours after the 170-ton Wimoda was crushed in grinding ice off Belle Isle. The tiny island is 20 miles off the southeastern tip of Labrador at the entrance to the Strait of Belle Isle separating Newfoundland and Labrador.

The Newfoundlander could get no farther through the heaving ice and the stranded hunters began the dangerous three-mile trek over the shifting cakes.

The men reached the rescue ship just before rising winds were due to strike the area. Such winds might have carried the floes the men were riding out into the open sea.

Tuesday night the men crouched in darkness and talked over a radio telephone with Belle Isle ship-to-shore station. A lookout on one of the sealers said they made it on to the floe without a mishap.

Terra Nova and Linda May reported they were stymied in rescue attempts during the night. The ships backtracked cautiously to avoid Wimoda's fate in the heaving mass.

Capt. Wilfred Barbour of Terra Nova reported his own vessel was jammed and attacks on ice west of Belle Isle were useless without a wind-shift.

Report Chiang In Shanghai Predicts China 3rd World War Tinderbox

SHANGHAI, April 27—(AP).—Chiang Kai-shek today predicted China may become the tinderbox of a terrifying third world war if the Communists are not defeated. Breaking a three-month silence since his retirement from the presidency Jan. 21, Chiang called for support of the Government of acting President Li Tsung-jen. He spoke as director-general of the Kuomintang (Government) party. As Chiang's statement was released by the Central News Agency, a battle for Soochow (Wuhsien), about 50 miles west of Shanghai, was reported under way. Some sources said the Communists had taken Soochow but the Shanghai garrison insisted the Nationalists still held the important rail junction.

Chiang's statement bore a Chikow dateline, but both Chinese and foreign newspapers insisted the Generalissimo was in Shanghai.

Calls For Battle

Chiang called on his people to fight as hard against Communism as they did against the Japanese in eight years of war.

The Generalissimo said the Reds, by crossing the Yangtze, had blundered into the same military errors that mired the Japanese in their conquest of China.

The river crossing represented the "peak of Communist military development." It will bring the Reds "face to face with the tangling mass of military, political and economic problems which will eventually result in their downfall."

"I am certain," he said, "that so long as we carry on the struggle the Communists can neither enslaves nor destroy our country. Within three years the final victory will be ours."

Chiang said his government realized that Communism was a problem of international implications that China alone could not settle. If that problem in China could have been settled through peaceful and political means, he felt that it would help establish a basis for world peace.

Critical Battle Around Soochow

SHANGHAI, April 27 (AP) — A critical battle for Soochow (Wuhsien) raged 50 miles west of Shanghai today.

One unconfirmed report said the Reds had taken the important junction from which they may pivot toward Shanghai or wheel to Hangchow, 85 miles west of Shanghai.

Nationalist sources insisted Soochow was still in their hands. Another report said advance Red units had passed Soochow and were marching eastward on Kunshan.

At least two shiploads of Nationalist soldiers and equipment sailed out of Shanghai today. Likely they were headed for Formosa where Generalissimo Chiang Kai-shek's followers have established a bastion.

Possible use of Hangchow for a sea escape route for the government's 300,000 men reported in that area depends on shipping. Hangchow's port is not suitable for heavy shipping and only light craft would be able to use the port

Princess Leaves For Italy Trip

LONDON, April 27 (Reuters)— Princess Margaret left London airport this morning in a twin-engined Viking plane of the King's flight on the first stage of her four-week tour of Italy. She was due to land at Naples airport this afternoon

A party of three travelled to Naples with the princess—Lady Mary Harvey, her lady-in-waiting; Miss Robin MacDonald, her personal maid; and a Scotland Yard detective.

Princess Margaret's plans include a stay in Naples tonight, a visit to the Isle of Capri, and visits to Sorrento, Rome, Florence, Venice and Stresa.

Nimbus Wins Stake In Newmarket Race

NEWMARKET, England, April 27 (CP)—Mrs. M. Glenister's Nimbus, ridden by Charles Elliott, today won the two thousand guineas stakes, first classic of the British flat-racing season.

Nimbus, a 10-to-1 outsider, won in a photo finish.

Abernant, the 5-to-4 favorite, was second by a short head.

Barnes Park, a 100-to-1 ongshot, finished third in the field of 13, four lengths behind.

Goods Taken Over Period Of Two Years

Tip-Off Provided By Provincials In Peterborough Area

TORONTO, April 27 (CP)—A joint raid by R.C.M.P. officers and provincial and Toronto police Tuesday night uncovered a $25,000 cache of stolen goods in a large cottage at Wasaga Beach in the Georgian Bay area.

Gordon Barret, owner of the cottage, was arrested in Bradford, Ont., early today and was charged with theft and receiving stolen goods.

Police said the cache represented loot stolen during the last two years by a gang of housebreakers who operated within a 150-mile radius of Wasaga Beach.

The cottage was described by officers as "jammed" with stoves, refrigerators, furniture, tools, plumbing fixtures, building materials and "odds and ends of everything."

A large quantity of the loot has already been identified, police said, adding that the gang had already disposed fo some $15,000 worth of stolen articles.

Corporal A. Ayres of the Provincial Police said most of the loot had been stolen from summer hotels, cottages and garages. A 24-hour police guard is being maintained in the Wasaga Beach area, he said.

Provincials Solve

Apprehension of Barrett is due in large measure to investigations conducted by Provincial Constable B. Nicol, Cobourg; and Provincial Constable J. R. Pollard of Orono, who are responsible to the Peterborough District Headquarters of the Provincial Police, the Examiner learned today. Following two burglaries which occurred at Gore's Landing on or about April 18, these two officers collected information which directed their steps to Wasaga Beach, in the Georgian Bay district, where a large quantity of stolen household goods was found in "Sunrise Lodge." The officers had seen a truck in the Gore's Landing district two weeks before the breaks there which they knew to be from Wasaga Beach, which development started them upon the trail of their successful investigation.

The possibility exists that the large quantity of loot taken in the Gore's Landing breaks may be among the stolen property found at Wasaga Beach. The breaks were into the summer residence of C. J. Kidd and the electrical supplies shop of Albert Adams. An inquiry is still being made by police in an effort to establish the different places from which the large haul now at Wasaga was taken.

Molotov Plan, Answer to Atlantic Pact

Russian Leaders Are Forging Military Bloc From Poland to China

By LEON DENNEN
NEA Special Correspondent

PARIS, April 27—(NEA)—Russia's answer to the Atlantic Pact a "Molotov Plan" for a military and economic bloc that will extend from the Baltic city of Stettin in Poland to the Chinese city of Canton—is being forged in the Kremlin.

The renewed Communist offensive in China may be the first step in activating the plan.

While the Russians spread rumors of new peace gestures in the Cold War in Germany, the master plan is being put together by some of the top Politbureau members involved in the Soviet cabinet shakeup early in March which puzzled the Western world.

These sources say the military alliance, which will include eastern Germany, Finland and China as well as the Russian satellite nations, is "the most significant international event since the rise of the Soviet state."

The job of planning the bloc was given to Vyacheslav Molotov, the thin-lipped, antagonistic veteran of 21 years in the Politbureau who turned in his portfolio as Foreign Minister in the March 5 cabinet shift, presumably to work on the new "Molotov Plan."

Working with him, according to Cominform sources, have been Marshal Nikolai A. Bulganin, who was Minister of Armed Forces in the cabinet until the shakeup; A. I. Mikoyan, who dropped his cabinet post as Minister of Foreign Trade; Laurenti Bera, head of the MVD (Soviet secret police), and Georgi Dimitrov, who was recalled to Moscow from his job as Premier of Bulgaria.

Dimitrov is in bad health, but reliable informants inside the Iron Curtain say he is neither desperately ill nor in disgrace, as was rumored when he was recalled shortly after the cabinet changes. A former Soviet citizen and a great favorite with Stalin, these informants believe he has been recalled to take charge of an intensified campaign against Tito and to resume his old job as general secretary of a revived and expanded Communist International.

Bulganin: Intercontinent army. Mikoyan: Intercontinent ruble.

Beria: Intercontinent MVD. Dimitrov: Intercontinent sec'y

Foundation of the "Molotov Plan" is reported to be military and economic planning on a two continent scale. Specifically it calls for:

1. Unification under a central Moscow agency of all military, economic, idustrial and financial resources of the countries in Russia's sphere of influence.

2. A Five-Year-Plan for all satellite countries, which will ultimately result in a single system of communications and currencies strictly pegged to the ruble if not identical with it.

3. An expanded Communist International which will replace the present limited Cominform.

4. The creation of an intercontinental Eurasian army, which will be under the direct control of the Soviet General Staff and staffed by Russian officers and political Commissars.

Molotov himself, it is said, has been designated as supreme coordinator of the foreign policies of all the satellite countries, while Marshal Bulganin is charged with forming the inter-continental Eurasian army.

Although designed primarily to counteract the Atlantic Pact, it will further tighten Moscow's grip on the satellite countries where the "Titoist" nationalist heresy has of late been assuming alarming proportions.

It is not expected, however, that Russia would court additional trouble with the Western powers by the outright annexation of the satellite countries—a pattern followed in the case of Latvia, Estonia and Lithuania. Such an act of annexation would be an open violation of the Teheran and Yalta agreements.

Thus, while the "Molotov Plan" does not necessarily imply the formal disappearance of such satellite states as Bulgaria, Romania, Albania, Hungary, Poland and Czechoslovakia, their "governments" will henceforth function on a purely local basis, directly subordinated to a central agency in Moscow presided over by Mikoyan and Beria.

Molotov: The supreme coordinator tightens Moscow's grip

May Lose Union Charter

Warn Saint John Local To Stop Aiding CSU

NEW YORK, April 27 (CP) — The Saint John, N. B., local of the International Longshoremen's Association (AFL) may lose its union charter unless it stops aiding Canadian Seamen's Union (TLC) strikers, Joseph Ryan, ILA president, said today.

Ryan also confirmed that he would order his longshoremen on the United States shore of the Great Lakes to stop working CSU-manner ships if the Canadian district of Seafarers' International Union (AFL) so requested.

Ryan said no action has yet been taken against W. L. Carlin, president of the Saint John local.

He said Carlin, apparently backed by the majority of the Saint John local's membership, has been supporting the CSU strike. The ILA program, however has been to aid the anti-Communist SIU.

The Communist - dominated CSU called a world-wide strike because ship owners signed contracts with the rival SIU. The ILA has refused to unload deep-sea ships manned by the CSU. Ryan said the Montreal Halifax and west-coast ILA locals have co-operated in this stand.

Referring to the Great Lakes order, Ryan said he had assured David Joyce, SIU Canadian secretary, the action would be taken. Joyce had said the request to the United States longshoremen will be made soon unless the CSU joins the SIU on the lakes.

Russian Offer Studied For Hitches

Plan Secret Meeting In New York To Iron Out Plans

LAKE SUCCESS, N.Y., April 27 (CP)—The United States was expected to learn today whether there are any hitches in the Russian proposals for lifting the Berlin blockade.

A meeting was tentatively scheduled to be held in New York between Jakob Malik, Russian deputy foreign minister, and Philip C. Jessup, United States ambassador-at-large.

Informed sources said the talks definitely were scheduled for today. Later United States state department officials said—apparently in an effort to maintain the strict secrecy of the location and time of the conferences—that the next meeting would take place "soon."

A crucial issue in the talks was expected to be Russia's views on the Western powers' insistence that the formation of the West German state be continued uninterrupted.

Want Clarification

The immediate question the United States wanted to clarify was whether Russia meant exactly what a Tass dispatch from Moscow said yesterday — that Russia would lift the blockade if the Western powers would fix a date for a meeting of the foreign ministers of the Big Four to consider the whole German question.

The West warned that it would brook no delay in the constitutional work going on at Bonn, Germany, as a condition for Russia's lifting the blockade.

British and United States officials also emphasized that a work sheet would have to be drawn up before the foreign ministers sat down at a conference table.

A British spokesman indicated that it would be possible to schedule the meeting within a month if the Berlin dispute could be solved.

Police bashed down the thin plaster wall that sealed Makushak off, and lifted him back into the world.

He was dressed in heavy woollen clothing.

His beard flared out around his face in four-inch curls, and he wore glasses that were held together with wire.

Several books on shorthand lay on a makeshift shelf. Makushak said he liked to practise shorthand to while away the time.

A Bible lay at arm's reach.

An old and battered radio was on the floor, with a pair of earphones beside it.

Makushak's father, Peter, 60, lives in the same building. He said he last saw his son as a youth of 23. The wife, he said, told him Paul was in Canada.

ONE MINUTE NEWS ABOUT JOHNS-MANVILLE

Control Guides Girders Glide

Your J-M reporter did a little "sidewalk superintending" on a construction job the other day and was amazed at the smooth operation of a huge hoist as it picked up the long steel girders, swung them around and gently guided them into position.

A J-M engineer explained that this smooth control depends on such materials as Johns-Manville Asbestos Brake Linings and Clutch Facings. These J-M friction materials help control the tremendous power of hoists, bulldozers, steam shovels, cranes and winches. Made of asbestos they withstand the intense heat of friction and the man at the controls can operate his machine almost as smoothly as you drive your car. For over 60 years, the J-M label has identified the finest in Friction Materials. For complete details, write Johns-Manville, 199 Bay St., Toronto, or see your nearest J-M distributor.

Say Ice Cream Prices May Increase

OTTAWA, April 27 (AP) — A government order-in-council increasing the butter-fat content of ice cream has been passed, it was learned authoritatively Wednesday night. The result may mean a boost in the price of the dairy product.

Ice cream producers believe adding more butter-fat to their product will mean a total increase in costs of about $2,500,000 a year. This estimation is based on the total 1948 production of 25,000,000 gallons.

The costs likely will be passed along to the consumer and it appeared possible that the increase may amount to about two cents on every ice-cream brick.

Announcement of the order-in-council likely will be made this week-end.

It will mean that under the National Dairy Act, ice cream will have to contain a minimum of 13 per cent butter-fat. This was the same content that existed before the Second World War.

During the war, butter-fat became scarce and the content was reduced to 9.5 per cent But with current supplies of butter-fat now adequate, the government has decided it was about time the content was increased.

The only way ice-cream producers believe they can avoid passing along the costs to the consumer would be for the government to remove the eight-per-cent sales tax on the product.

Offers Solution In Sea Strike

By The Canadian Press

Termination of the east-coast seamen's strike, which in less than four weeks tied up two-thirds of the Canadian eastern fleet in world ports, was placed in the hands of the Federal government and shipping operators Wednesday night by Harry Davis, president of the striking Canadian Seamen's Union (TLC).

Solitary basis of ending the strike, he said, was the renewal of contracts between the CSU and deep-sea shipping operators.

Meanwhile, violence flared briefly. In Saint John, N.B., two RCMP officers were slightly injured in a scuffle with pickets; Halifax police said two members of the CSU had reported they were attacked; and in Montreal, Gerard Dube, 23, told police he was beaten up and knifed by four men near the waterfront.

Addressing some 150 representatives of 47 individual trade unions in Toronto, Davis said that "the CSU is prepared to end its east coast strike tomorrow if the federal government would arrange a meeting with deep-sea operators.

Roberts Drops

cond, Mr. Roberts third, and Mr. Porter fourth.

All day the candidates kept up their intensive drives for votes, with some added frills. Three pipers and a drummer marched about convention headquarters at night on behalf of Mr. Frost. In their parade was a sandwich man and another whose suit was plastered with "Frost for Leader" buttons. After the meeting, blue balloons urging Roberts for the leadership floated down on delegates leaving the hall.

To-day delegates picked up their ballots, starting at 8 a.m. This distribution was to close at noon. Voting is to start a 2:30 p.m. To win, a candidate must have a majority over all opponents. If the first ballot is indecisive, the low man drops for the second; and so on. Three ballots is the maximum in the four-man race.

Can't Make Reply

Mr. Blackwell, Mr. Frost, and Mr. Porter had no opportunity for a public reply to Mr. Roberts' surprise package. The order of speaking was alphabetical and he was the last to take the platform. He also was the only one who did not issue a prepared text of his speech to newspaper men in advance. Copies of his 10-point program reached the press during his speech.

The Charitable Gifts Act was mentioned in Point No. 7 and this he read in full. It said he planned:

"To recognize and adhere to the long established and Conservative principles governing the presentation of legislation and in particular the avoidance of legislation of a retroactive restrictive nature.

"In this connection, I am bound to make reference to the most contentious legislation passed by the government since the last election. I refer to what is known as Bill 189, the Charitable Gifts Act and particularly the contentious and much debated retroactive features of the bill. This act in principle may be sound and necessary. Control can be placed by legislation without resorting to the objectionable and contentious retroactive features. It is my avowed purpose if elected leader to call a special caucus of all members of the government with a view to reviewing and reconsidering these particular provisions of the bill under circumstances where every private member will be invited to express his views so that whatever conclusion is reached will be based on the opinion of the whole membership of the government expressed freely and directly.

Would Encourage Business

Mr. Blackwell—nominated by Brigadier D. G. Cunningham of Kingston and W. G. Thompson, former Ontario minister of lands and forests—said he believed legitimate business enterprises must be encouraged.

"Let us boldly say that business must make profits," he said. "If business fails to make profits, it will also fail to flow and expand with the needs of the people."

Farmers should have the same bargaining power as other groups in the community. Forest and mineral production should receive every encouragement. As far as possible natural products should be processed at home to create jobs.

"Unless serious depression is to be avoided in some of our northern areas, an adjustment must be made in the price of gold."

Sam Hughes of Welland and Mrs. R. D. Cumming of Haileybury spoke on Mr. Frost's behalf. The provincial treasurer, who also holds the portfolio of mines, said Ontario should retains its "fiscal freedom." The solution would come easy "with the new Drew government at Ottawa."

A growing Ontario population meant more children to educate and the need for more and better schools and more teachers. Ontario was attracting about 65 per cent of new industries coming to Canada. These developments brought increased demand for municipal and welfare services.

If chosen leader he would "pledge all my energy and my talents to translating the principles, the ideals and the objectives of our great party into action."

Greater Co-operation

Mr. Porter was nominated by Blair Laing of Toronto and Elizabeth Janzen of Waterloo. The education minister caled for "full and free consultation" among all three levels of government in Canada and a spirit of co-operation.

Industry was advancing and the population was growing by natural growth and immigration. The air immigration which he operated when minister of planning and development had brought 10,000 British subjects to Ontario. The province had entered "the threshold of the greatest expansion this country has ever known."

"Let us adjust our policies and frame our laws so that the people will derive their fullest share of advantage from the progress that is upon us...We msut create the environment for opportunity."

Stab Widow With Scissors

CHICAGO, April 27 (AP) — A well-to-do widow was found dead in her blood-spattered bathroom Tuesday night. She had six stab wounds in the neck.

Police said the woman, Mrs. Hazel Grinde, 56, had been stabbed with a pair of scissors found nearby. They said her death was "positively a murder."

Mrs. Grinde lived with her daughter, Alice, 27, who found the body when she returned from an evening visit with a friend. Alice called a neighbor who summoned a mortician to take the body away.

The stab wounds were discovered by the mortician after the body was taken from the home.

Playing With Gun Boy 9 Kills Sister

PORT ARTHUR, April 27 — Seven-year-old Irene Albertson, daughter of a McIntyre district farmer, was fatally wounded by her nine-year-old brother, John, in the kitchen of their home about 9 o'clock Tuesday night. Both parents were away at the time.

Only eye-witnesses to the tragedy were two other Albertson children, Alice, 10, and Betty, 5. Their mother, Mrs. Henry Albertson, was at work at a district tourist camp and the father was in the city.

One of the children called provincial police from the home of a neighbor. On arrival at the Albertson's farm, Provincial Constable T. J. McNyffe found Irene slumped in a kitchen chair on which she had been sitting when the rifle accidentally discharged. The bullet entered the pit of the stomach and travelled upwards and back, coming out between the little girl's shoulder blades.

Her brother John said he took the .22 calibre rifle off the wall to see how it worked. He got shells from a cupboard and put one into the breach. "I placed it on the floor and it went off," he said.

Blames Milk

RIDGETOWN, Ont., April 27—(CP)—Dr. S. Banks Nelson of Hamilton, a Presbyterian minister for 55 years, said Tuesday that where there was no milk there was no cancer and that the ratio of cancer deaths was in proportion to the ratio of milk consumption. Dr. Nelson said the cancer-milk percentages had been gathered by a Hamilton city health doctor now deceased, who admitted the relationship but wouldn't publicize it because, "he said it was as much as his job was worth."

3 Brothers Drowned

SALMON ARM, B. C., April 27 —(CP)—Three brothers are missing and believed drowned while crossing Shuswap Lake in a canoe Monday night. The youths are Bernard, 17; William, 19, and Harold 20, sons of Otto Shwandt. Salmon Arm is 50 miles northwest of Vancouver. A search of the area has failed to produce signs of the youths or their canoe.

Plan To Make Curling Stones

STURGEON FALLS, April 27 (CP)—A new industry that may challenge an exclusive export market of Scotland, is expected to be launched here soon with a small plant being acquired for the manufacture of curling stones.

The Sturgeon Falls product won't be the conventional granite rock so familiar to stanemen the world over. They will be made of granite and plastic, allowing for stones of various weights, and versatility, according to the proponent of the idea, Dr. S. W. Kemp of Sturgeon.

One of the new plastic-granite stones will be on display tonight at the annual presentation banquet of the Sturgeon Falls Curling Club and it is expected to attract considerable attention.

According to Dr. Kemp it is not necessary for a curling stone to be made entirely of granite. "The most important part of a curling stone is the small part which comes in contact with the ice," he explained. "The only other part that needs to be granite is the centre, which comes in contact with other stones. In my stones, all the rest of the curling rock is made of plastic."

Dr. Kemp plans to manufacture curling stones mounted on wheels that can be used for summer curling on either greens or board floors.

WINNIPEG GRAIN

WINNIPEG, April 27 (CP) — Coarse grains showed a good tone on early trade today on the Winnipeg Grain Exchange.

General buying from shippers, exporters and other interests appeared at the opening but the demand slackened off as the session proceeded. The demand was prompted by the continued lack of rain across the prairies.

Rye followed the same pattern as coarse grains, but buying was not as aggressive. Flax was not open.

Prices:

Oats—May ⅝ higher at 78⅛; July ¾ higher at 73¾; October not open.

Barley-May ¼ higher at $1.13⅜; July ⅝ higher at $1.04½; October ½ higher at 99⅝a.

Rye—May ⅝ higher at $1.22⅝; July ⅝ higher at $1.24a; October ¾ higher at $1.24½.

Flax—May—July—not open.

Inspections: wheat this year 241; last year 305; cars of contract 214; oats 47/61; barley 49/82; Flax 20/16; Rye 26/9; other grains 1/3; total 384/776.

General Election Campaign Starts On House Floor

OTTAWA, April 27 (CP) —The general election campaign began yesterday—right on the floor of the House of Commons.

Members of all parties used the free-wheeling budget debate as a convenient vehicle for speeches aimed at winning the support of the Canadian voter.

Election was the dominant theme of the debate and one of the opposition's big guns, John Diefenbaker (PC-Lake Centre), produced a charge that the government was calling an election to screen the fact that a major trade crisis is developing for Canada.

Citing figures to show that exports have fallen sharply, he said the government was afraid of the trade crisis and wanted an election before it developed.

"And while our markets tumble," he said tartly, "the Prime Minister travels."

Campaign Started

Clarie Gillis (CCF-Cape Breton South), came right out and said it was obvious that the campaign already had started while T. J Bentley (CCF-Swift Current) said the CCF group felt the time had come for a vote and was pleased that the government had called an election.

Other speakers included Walter Kuhl (SC-Jasper-Edson), John Blackmore (SC-Lethbridge), W. A. Boucher (L-Rosthern) and Garfield Case (PC-Grey North).

In the opening stages, Transport Minister Chevrier said provision has been made to extend educational benefits to merchant seamen of the Second World War up to the age of 30.

The Senate gave second reading to six bills for the incorporation of oil and gas pipe-line companies and heard Senator W. A. Buchanan (L-Alberta) urge the government to seek new uses for coal, which now will meet competition from oil.

Back in the Commons, Mr. Diefenbaker belted the government with the charge that it was "running away" from the impending trade crisis. He held that every piece of legislation outlined in the throne speech could have been considered

Cobourg Artist Has Paintings On Display

COBOURG, April 27 (ENS) — The work of Bob MacLaren of Cobourg, an exhibition of oil paintings, is on display in McFadyen's store and is attracting considerable attention. Bob is an ardent fisherman and during his travels on fishing trips he finds much scenery for transfer to canvass. One of the paintings is of Perce Rock at Gaspe and was done while he was fishing there last year.

A pastoral scene at Grafton, north of Barnum House; a snow scene at St. Jean, Quebec the Schoolhouse Road, north of Bethel Church; Dublin, New Hampshire, and a lumbering scene in Quebec comprise the bulk of the paintings.

Raise Freight Rate

OTTAWA, April 27 (CP) — A 50-per-cent increase in freight rates on purebred livestock transported for stud pudposes will go into effect in June under a new tariff filed by the Railways Tuesday with the Board of Transport Commissioners. The new rates restore decreases put into effect by the railways several years ago.

Many Attend Funeral Of George Macklin

ROSENEATH, April 27 (ENS)—The funeral of George Macklin of Fenella was held in Macklin's (Bethany) Church on Tuesday afternoon with a large attendance of relatives and friends showing the high esteem in which he was held Service was conducted by Rev. R. C. White of Roseneath, assisted by Canon C. R. Spencer, rector of St. George's Anglican Church, Hastings, and Rev. M. Moffat, pastor of the Free Methodist Church.

The pallbearers were: F. J Slade, Stanley Macklin, of Cobourg, Wm. Montgomery, Fenella, Howard Macklin, Roseneath, Frank Macklin, Port Hope, and Irving Macklin of Grand Prairie, Alberta.

Act as Flower Bearers

The flower bearers were four grandsons, Ross, Clifford, Elwood and Harold Macklin, and two nephews, Gordon Macklin of Port Hope and Melville Macklin, Fenella.

Interment was in Macklin cemetery.

Among those attending the funeral were: Mr. and Mrs. Frank Macklin, Port Hope; Mr. and Mrs. Edgar Rosevear, Bethesda South; Mr. and Mrs. Cephis Brisbin, and Mrs. Stanley Macklin of Cobourg; Mr. and Mrs. Herbert Macklin, Wallaceburg; Mr. and Mrs. Irving Macklin, Grand Prairie, Alberta; Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Hardinge, Cobourg; Mrs. A. Mortenson, Toronto; Mr. and Mrs. Stuart Atkinson and Warren Atkinson, Dartford; Mr. and Mrs F. J. Slade, Cobourg; Canon and Mrs. C. R Spencer, Hastings.

Seek More Funds For Hospital

CAMPBELLFORD, April 27—(ENS).—The campaign for funds to complete the Memorial Hospital is being pushed with renewed vigor, Rotarian F. S. Linton told the Kinsmen Club at their supper meeting this week. He asked for help to assist in the canvass of the employees of Campbellford Cloth Co. Kinsmen Harry Ayrhart, Joe Smith, Jim Price, Paul O'Sullivan and Dr. Bruce Brintnell volunteered their services.

Mr. Linton pointed out that the boxing show, sponsored by the Rotary Club, and the dance under the auspices of the Kinsmen Club were billed for the same night, May 13. As the dance had been advertised Kinsmen decided to go ahead with their plans.

Back Community Centre

The club authorized the secretary to inform the town and Seymour councils that they were prepared to associate themselves with other organizations in the support of the Community Centre.

Don Fedoric reported that more money was needed to purchase equipment for Warkworth school playground. He said that with the necessary funds the project could be completed by May 24. The club voted the required funds.

Three Youths Get Jail Terms For Robberies

COBOURG, April 27—(ENS).—Previously remanded for sentence until Tuesday, Ronald Deadman, 19, of Hamilton, Donald Wainright, 18, of the same city, and Gerald McCauley, 18, of Aylmer, were given concurrent terms for the robbery of Linton's store in Port Hope and Margles' store in Cobourg.

Deadman was sentenced to three months in the county jail; Wainright, 18 months definite and six indefinite; McCauley, two years less one day, definite, and 12 months indefinite. The robberies occurred on March 18 and 19, with about $1,000 worth of merchandise being stolen from each store. About $200 of the Port Hope loot was recovered and around $600 of the Cobourg merchandise.

"You were the leader in these thefts," Magistrate R. B. Baxter told McCauley. "You are criminally-minded and unless you change radically you will be in Kingston Penitentiary in another ten years. You may think you are smarter than the police, but time will tell. You, Wainright, are not so bad, but you are not much better. There is more good in Deadman than the other two and he will receive a lighter sentence. In fact there is going to be quite a spread between his sentence and the terms the other two will receive," commented the magistrate before passing sentence."

Cobourg Centre Drive

COBOURG, April 27 (ENS) — The objective of the recreational centre drive has been set at $150,000, the committee in charge has launch the campaign the moment the town council approves plans of the building. The opinion is held that the building construction should start with the commencement of the campaign. Special committees are being formed to handle various plans for raising money for the project.

IS BACKACHE JUST A SIGN OF AGE?

Many people suffer an aching back needlessly—believing you must expect a few aches and pains when you're 'getting on" in years!

But backache is often caused by the faulty action of kidneys and liver. See how much better you feel after taking Dr. Chase's Kidney-Liver Pills, and your kidneys and liver both filter out impurities from your bloodstream. That's because this time-proven Dr. Chase remedy treats two conditions at once—contains special remedial ingredients for both the kidney and liver disorders which often cause backache.

If you're feeling worn-out, tired, headachy—with painful joints and aching back—look to your kidneys and liver. Try Dr. Chase's Kidney-Liver Pills tonight. At all drug counters. 16

Elections Ahoy!

The guessing is over. Monday night Prime Minister St. Laurent told the Commons that it would be dissolved this week, and said as plainly as protocol permits that a General Election would take place on Monday, June 27th.

* * *

The timing of the announcement was as politically precise as ever a wily campaigner like Mr. Mackenzie King could have made it, and judging from this sample of political skill, the Liberals will not be allowing Mr. Drew and party all the thunder in the mounting campaign. The announcement came when the Conservative potentates were off in Toronto, fulminating at the Royal York Hotel and not in Ottawa at their parliamentary desks. It came when the Ontario Conservative Party Convention could have hoped to make the headlines — but Mr. St. Laurent stole them. It came, too, at the last possible moment for a June election.

* * *

There are exactly two campaigning months. There is little doubt that they will be interesting months, for the Opposition is girded for the fray, Mr. Drew's political sword is as sharp as his tongue is blunt, and the Liberals with seasoned politicians like Mr. Gardiner and Mr. Howe, the brains, prestige and executive ability of Mr. St. Laurent, and a host of brilliant younger men in the Cabinet or near the front ranks—men like Lester Pearson, Stuart Garson, Robert Winters—are formidable champions whom the challengers cannot better and could get the better of only by the most forceful, skilful tactics. The liveliness, even turbulence, in the House during the present session, for much of which we have to thank the vigorous Mr. Drew, is an indication that the election campaign will be two-fisted, hard-fought and violently partisan.

* * *

While the two older parties battle, the tactics of the third party, the C.C.F., and the treatment the older parties mete out of it, will be interesting to observe, and not unimportant. Should the main fray end in a draw, the C.C.F. would become pivotal in government.

End Of Mountain Differential

People in these parts of southern Ontario are not directly concerned about the "Mountain Differential", but others in the West, particularly in B.C. have been shredding their hearts and shedding their tears over it since the late 1880's. When the railway lines were laid through the Rockies the cost was as mountainous as the mountains. Further, operating costs through the years on the up and down hill grades have been heavier than in most parts of Canada. So a "Mountain Differential", a higher freight rate through the Rockies, was authorized, fifty per cent. higher until 1922, 25 per cent. higher since than applied in other parts of the country.

This has understandably been a handicap to the development of industry in B.C., since, for instance, a chest of drawers manufactured there would have to be shipped to Winnipeg at 125 per cent. of the shipping charges on a chest of drawers made in Ontario for sale in Winnipeg.

The Transport Commission decided at the week-end that the Mountain Differential should be abolished, and so it has been abolished. This is a boon to British Columbia, and the prairie provinces should have no objections. The high cost of laying the railway through the mountains has long since been amortized. The extra cost of haulage will now be met by the railway systems as entire units and by the country at large. The ending of the differential may mean that the railways will have to seek additional revenue through general rate increases, but the time has come when no populous part of Canada should be penalized for being remote from other parts and when this nations can afford to accept its common financial responsibilities in common.

The coincidence of the removal of the Mountain Differential and the approach of a General Election has not gone unremarked by political observers.

Red Surge Across The Yangtze

Chinese Communist forces, estimated at a million strong, have crossed the Yangtze river, at this season two miles wide, almost unopposed by Nationalist troops half their number and already defeated. Nanking has been occupied quietly, Shanghai is tottering, and if this great new offensive sustains its momentum, and other punches are made, the Nationalist forces are dished. This is a climax in the civil war that has been a twenty-two years old war between the Kuomintang (Nationalists) led by Chiang Kai-shek and the Communists, led by Mao Tze-Tung. If all goes badly, as badly as in the last six months, with the Nationalists, all of South China may be in Chinese Communist hands before the years is out.

Last Wednesday, at this juncture in China's civil war, small British warships in the Yangtze were shelled. The Amethyst, now reported to have been going to the aid of British nationals in Nanking, was severely damaged and ran aground. The destroyer Consort, moving downstream from Nanking, was beaten off by Communist guns. Two other British vessels from Shanghai moved upstream, were heavily shelled and turned back. In all the British suffered 44 killed and 80 injured.

It may be asked why these British naval vessels should have been in the Yangtze at all during these critical times when the Americans are hesitating to risk either money or supplies, let alone men's lives. As neutrals in the civil war, British nationalist (not all Britons) ran less risk of being molested by the Communists than the vessels did. As a matter of fact, the Communists invested Nanking very quietly. Mr. Churchill has properly demanded of the Government an explanation of the situation. The presence of the naval vessels, as well as the firing of them, should be explained. The Yangtze, at this stage of the civil war, is not worth risking a British life.

Marble Marge

We are promised "pale margarine" in a few days, the margarine which had been foisted on the people of this Province by what was parliamentary but essentially undemocratic legislation. This pale stuff will be virtually colourless, that is, in comparison with coloured butter for whose dear sake the present Ontario Government legislated the colour ban.

All the way through this controversy on margarine it has been a case of the people versus the dairy interests. Even at the last we note Premier Kennedy has a final conference about margarine. Who attends the conference? According to report, dairymen and farmers. Consumers' representatives were apparently not invited. Why not? Can it be that the dairymen do not want anybody interfering with their lobbying, their plans and their profits, least of all the consumers? The consumers must take what the dairymen and farmers have convinced the Government the consumers should have—marble-coloured marge—and of course butter (coloured yellow).

Judging from recent legislation in this and other matters, the only people who have no influence on the Ontario Government are the majority of the people. The Government bows meekly before one pressure group and then another, and ignores the will of the people in the hope that their memories will be short, that they will forgive and forget by the time the next provincial elections come round, and if they do not, that the groups to which it has abjectly kowtowed will, in a pinch, save them from the wrath of the voters.

Marble marge is the memorial to the present Government. It could be, judging from the indignation of the people, its tombstone.

NOTE AND COMMENT

Watches to be worn by women just below the knee are now being shown. Replacing the clock on the stocking, we presume.

A psychologist says that a man's laugh reveals his character. We've seen a few—not all male, either—which gave a quick glimpse of the pit of the stomach.

Geographical Note: The great river south of China's Yellow River is not yet the Red river, despite the recent flow of British blood and the new Communist offensive across it. It is the Yangtze.

The Law Society of Upper Canada has compromised on the Osgoode Hall curriculum and plans, after the criticism and staff resignations last winter. A compromise solution is not surprising, for if lawyers cannot find a roundabout way out of a ticklish situation, who could?

CANADIAN CAUSERIE

Fine Memorial

By GEOFFREY VIVIEN

SOONER or later it must be recognized that present-day styles in men's clothing do not lend themselves to imposing statuary. The earlier generations of statesmen just got by with their magistral coats and their cnrysanthemum hair styles. But what could a sculptor do with the chamois smoothness of a George Drew or the old kitchen-glove effects of an Ernie Bevin? Some other form of memorial will have to be thought up. There is one possible alternative that suggests itself from the book world. It is the most enduring memorial that a moderately successful publisher, Grant Richards, who died last year, raised to keep his memory green.

✧ ✧ ✧

GRANT RICHARDS was to publishing in England what M. Tasse is to barbering in Canada—the collector of colourful personalities through the medium of a potentially commonplace calling. "Red" Tasse scalps all sorts of celebrities. Grant Richards only went for authors. He made his debut in the Edwardian period and his name chimes with those of George Meredith, George Moore, Max Beerbohm, Oscar Wilde, and the maturing George Bernard Shaw. As a publisher he met them all and published some; as a bon viveur with a nose for good books and good wines he entertained them and was entertained by them; as a man of lively spirit and a love for literature he made their advancement his adventure.

✧ ✧ ✧

ADVENTURE was the essence of Grant Richard's publishing career. Already in 1896 he was urging Bernard Shaw to let him publish his plays. Shaw, always clear-sighted in business matters, observed that it was crazy to print plays, that there was insufficient public for them yet, that such a venture would invite ruin. But he agreed to let Richards try. Then there was the question of price. How much would people give for plays? How much should a playwright expect? G.B.S. had precise ideas. "I should get £25 apiece for the plays. It takes six months to write a play. Therefore the dramatic author would get less than £1 a week—say 5 shillings less than a dock labourer—4½d an hour for writing masterpieces. It's sweating. Sell 10,000 at 7/—and I shall get 1/3¾d an hour. Do you grudge me that modest reward?"

✧ ✧ ✧

GRANT RICHARDS' contacts with this side of the Atlantic did not stretch as far North as Canada, but he interested himself in American writing, and was among the first to sponsor Frank Norris. Norris then put him on to the track of Theodore Dreiser, explaining excitedly (and with a magnanimity all too rare among authors) "You think I'm the man to go after—and you've got me. Well and good. But listen—I can tell you of an author worth two of me. His name's Dreiser. I read his novel in manuscript. Magnificent stuff. I'd give everything I have to be able to observe and write like that."

✧ ✧ ✧

RICHARDS recorded his adventures with books and their writers in a book of his own: "Author-hunting, by an old Literary Sportsman". Of this production Shaw wrote to him: "You should call your book The Tragedy of a Publisher who Allowed Himself to Fall in Love with Literature. The publisher who does that, like the picture dealer who likes pictures or the schoolmistress who gets fond of her pupils, is foredoomed. A certain connoisseurship in the public taste is indispensable; but the slightest uncommercial bias in choosing between say, Bridges' 'Testament of Beauty' and a telephone directory, is fatal." Books brought him joys and sorrows and of the missing of future masterpieces he had his share. At one time he was offered the translation rights of all Anatole France's novels for a thousand francs apiece (about $150). "Acting upon infernally stupid advice" he turned it down. Again, G. K. Chesterton, whom he was the first to publish, slipped out of his hands later—if one can use the phrase of anything so grandly proportioned as G.K.C.

✧ ✧ ✧

AND his memorial, with which we started this piece? It was he who originally founded the "World's Classics", carrying into practice the ideal which many had dreamed of—to bring the great literature of the world within the reach of all. Firmly established now—though in other hands—they are as fine a memorial as a man could wish to have.

Subs Are Dispensable

With a comparatively small defence budget at its disposal, Canada cannot afford to build a military establishment that will include all types of weapons. At sea, it is doubtful whether Canada would ever be called upon to play more than a defensive role, and it is reasonable that the authorities should consider too many offensive weapons an unnecessary naval luxury. That is why the government's decision not to build a submarine fleet should commend itself to the public.

It is quite likely that any war in the foreseeable future would find the Royal Canadian Navy largely committed—as it was in the last war—to convoy duty. True, the navy would no doubt be called upon to perform other functions. It might be required to supply troop ships, aircraft carriers, and heavy vessels of the cruiser class. But essentially it would, in all likelihood, be a convoy navy. If this concept is correct, it would be logical for Canada to concentrate on anti-submarine vessels and warfare.

Since North America would likely be the main supply base in any future war, with Canada playing a leading part in sending food, raw materials and manufactured goods abroad, the Dominion must have a navy that can ensure the safe delivery of these supplies. To spend a great deal of money at present on submarines, as some critics of the government's defence policy have suggested, would be irresponsible. The only use to which the RCN could presently put submarines is to study them for the purpose of learning how best to put them out of action.

"'ALF AND 'ALF, PLEASE!"

Letters To The Editor

GOOD FRIDAY WORK

Sir: I was very surprised to see the men of the city's sanitation department out working on Good Friday. I expect it was because the men had to be paid whether they worked or not, so they worked. Even the City of Toronto who some would call Hog Town, didn't make the men of their sanitation department work on Good Friday. It was nothing less than a disgrace to the good name of the City of Peterborough.

PROUD CITIZEN.

PLUMBS PLUMBING REGULATIONS

Sir: We are informed by the Peterborough Examiner that "No person shall do any plumbing job or work until a permit has been obtained".

Does this mean that I may not extend the water pipes to the garden for an additional hose outlet? If I may not do so, then can I change a tap washer without a permit? I think many readers would like to have this settled.

Yours truly,
PETER.

PROTESTS FELLING OF TREES

Sir: In tonight's Examiner I read with regret that the row of trees along the Fair Ground frontage had been felled and uprooted.

They call that City Planning. Any child could have solved the problem the way that was done.

For several years I have fumed over the way that your fair city permitted these fine specimens of shade tree to be mutilated, and had hoped that when a City Planning Commission was formed that they would eventually get around to placing the wires and cables that was the cause of this topping, under ground, and the trees would be shaped up so that they might attain the full glory of their natural growth.

I never stopped to examine these trees closely, but from casual observation they appeared to be of a special type of elm. The type and character of those trees would have made one of the finest displays in the city if it had been handled right.

Perhaps the City Planning Commission considers an unhampered display of wires as a basis of civic beauty.

Disgustedly yours,
RALPH G. KILBON.

Bailieboro.

RESPECT FOR FUNERALS

Sir: A letter appeared in your Friday edition signed R.I.P., in answer to one written by Mr. Tuggey, published a few days before. The only advertisement, any good to an undertaker, is the kind of work he does, and his manner of conducting his funerals, at the home, or his parlor and at the graveside.

As to the mourners being the central figures in "The Pageant" (as R.I.P. describes a funeral) four of my neighbours passed away this last year and not one of the friends were interested in the pageant, as R.I.P. says, or cared one iota for it as they all are of the best people in Peterborough.

I was an undertaker for 35 years and never once saw a family who tried to make a show of their sorrow or personal loss.

He says Peterborough is going to be a big city does he understand that it requires great people, noble persons, men who love justice and truth, both rich and poor, to make a city big or great, not persons who talk of dragging the dead down George Street.

I am not concerned as to which way I travel when dead, but I believe truth should be told at all times. The memory of the dead respected.

Yours,
GEORGE E. BEALS, SR.

Bible Message

(From the Authorized Version)

Have I any pleasure at all that the wicked should die? saith the Lord God: and not that he should return from his ways, and live?... Therefore I will judge you, O house of Israel, every one according to his wayes, saith the Lord God. Repent, and turn yourselves from all your transgressions; so iniquity shall not be your ruin. (Ezek. 18: 23, 30.)

✧ ✧ ✧

And it came to pass, as Jesus sat at meat in the house, behold, many publicans and sinners came and sat down with him and his disciples. And when the Pharisees saw it, they said unto his disciples, Why eateth your Master with publicans and sinners?

But when Jesus heard that, he said unto them, They that be whole need not a physician, but they that are sick. But no ye and learn what that meaneth, I will have mercy, and not sacrifice: for I am not come to call the righteous, but sinners to repentance. (Matt. 9: 10-13.)

✧ ✧ ✧

Humble yourselves in the sight of the Lord, and he shall lift you up. (James 4: 10.)

✧ ✧ ✧

Be not deceived; God is not mocked: for whatsoever a man soweth, that shall he also reap. For he that soweth to his flesh shall of the flesh reap corruption; but he that soweth to the Spirit shall of the Spirit reap life everlasting. (Gal. 6: 7, 8.)

Slow Express

Some months ago the C.N.R. management announced a proposed improvement in the so-called "express" service between Sydney and Halifax, which would reduce the time of travel from 14 to 12 hours for the 280-mile distance. This would have been no notable improvement if it had been achieved, for it would have meant an "express" rate of only 24 miles an hour, but the fact is that the average time made by the Sydney-Halifax trains has been no better during the past winter than it had been before the announced change. That is, between 18 and 20 miles an hour.

This is not an express service, or even a fast freight, or good accommodation service. On modern standards no train that averages less than 50 miles per hour on a 300-mile run can reasonably be described as an express. Sydney is yet to see the first arrival or departure of an express train—has never known what a modern freight service means.

Mr. Drew As Airplane Expert

North Star airplanes made by some 6,000 Canadians at Montreal were described by George Drew at a recent press conference as a "travesty" on the laws of aero-dynamics and aero design. He is quoted as saying further that the plane has proved completely unsatisfactory. Mr. Drew's charges will certainly be used against TCA which has been strenuously competing for international business and they certainly won't help CPA which will soon be doing so over the Pacific. These charges certainly won't help Canada sell more of these planes to other countries, and they could have a serious effect on the jobs of thousands of Canadians.

Mr. Drew cannot stop here. He is now morally obliged to come forward with expert and objective opinion to back up his very serious allegations.—Financial Post.

Printing Bill Strikes Snag

OTTAWA, April 27 — (CP)— A bill authorizing the Globe Printing Company of Toronto to increase the annual rental value of its real estate holdings from $30,000 to $100,000 ran into a snag in the Commons Tuesday night and failed to pass before the hour for private measures had expired.

Part of the time was spent disposing of two amendments sponsored by CCF members, who expressed belief that the company publisher of the Globe and Mail, would use the measure to take over the Toronto Daily Star.

Gordon Graydon (PC-Peel) denied that the bill would be used to take over any new business. He said the title to the building now occupied by the Globe Printing Company is in the name of the Mail Printing Company. He said the bill was to put the building and the business under one name.

By a standing vote of 34 to 27, members defeated a CCF amendment which would have allowed the company to increase the value of annual rentals only from $30,000 to $45,000. The amendment sponsored by R. R. Knight (CCF-Saskatoon City), drew support from CCF members and a scattering of Liberals.

Highest Court In Commonwealth Has Jurisdiction Over 450,000,000

By NORMAN CRIBBENS

LONDON, April 27 (CP)—In a remote district of India two native religious sects went to law over the recovery of some land which they claimed should be devoted to the worship of their gods. Their appeal was rejected.

The natives held a council-of-war and a witch doctor told them: "There is still a great power to whom we can appeal. His name is Judish-al- Komiti. If we appeal to him we will obtain divine justice."

Three months later their claim came before the Judicial Committee of the Privy Council, highest court of appeal in the commonwealth, and the committee reversed the decision to the Supreme Court of Calcutta.

This tribunal has jurisdiction over 450,000,000 people and all otherse — not excluding the Supreme Court of the United States—might seem almost petty by comparison.

Now and for some weeks to come Baron Porter, famed for a dry brand of legal humor, and six other lawlords will be hearing the Australian Government's appeal against a decision of Australia's High Court that nationalization of banks is unconstitutional.

Brief 20 Lawyers

Importance of the issue is indicated by the briefing of 20 lawyers at an estimated total cost of £220,000 ($880,000).

The highest court in the commonwealth sits in less state than a small-town police court. Facing the lawlords—all of them master jurists—the lawyer who is pleading stands at a small, plain reading desk and talks in conversational tones.

Their lordships, grave and impassive, sit around a horseshoe table piled high with heavy lawbooks. There is no jury and no impassioned law court oratory; the atmosphere is coldly and impartially intellectual.

The committee is kept busy most of the year listening to appeals ranging from big business and government to quarrels between high and mighty native potentates—and even cases where gods are represented as appellants or respondents.

Dodgers Blast Braves 5-2 Fightin' Phils Nip Giants

By JOE REICHLER,
Associated Press Sport Writer.

Boston Braves' Johnny Sain and Larry Jansen of New York Giants are being tabbed as the two biggest early-season pitching flops of 1949.

Counted on to carry their teams this year following superlative '48 seasons, both have been terrific disappointments to their respective managers. Each has started three times with nary a victory to show for their efforts.

Sain, a 24-game winner last year, currently owns an inglorious 0-2 won-and-lost record.

Jansen has been charged with only one defeat, but the Giants haven't won any of the games Jansen has started.

Both had extremely rough sledding Tuesday. Sain managed to go the distance, but he and the Braves were handed a 5-2 shellacking by Brooklyn Dodgers at Ebbets Field. The big right-hander was jagged for nine hits including home runs by Gene Hermanski and Pee Wee Reese.

Regain Lead

Preacher Roe spaced seven hits for his first victory for the Dodgers, who regained the league lead, half a game in front of idle Pittsburgh and the Giants. Hermanski got two hits and also made the fielding gem of the game. He started the first triple play of the season, coming in fast to make a running catch of Alvin Dark's short fly. A Hermanski-Jackie Robinson-Gil Hodges relay engineered the triple killing.

Jansen still hasn't pitched a complete game. He lasted only six innings Tuesday as the fightin' Phils came from behind five times to nip the Giants 12-11 in 11 innings. After the Giants had taken an 11-9 lead in the top of the 11th, the Phils came roaring back with three runs climaxed by Del Ennis' home run with a man on base.

Rookie Gerry Coleman slammed his first major league home run in the eighth inning to give New York Yankees a 5-4 victory over Philadelphia Athletics.

Coleman's round-tripper, one of his four hits, came off Alex Kellner who had replaced starter Phil Marchildon in the first inning. The Canadian right-hander had complained of pain in his right shoulder while serving up to the first batter.

The victory was the American League-leading Yankees' seventh in eight starts.

In Second Place

Detroit Tigers moved into second place, a game and a half from the top, by taking both ends of a doubleheader from the White Sox in Chicago, 62 and 7-5. The Tigers had to go 10 innings to win the second game.

Johnny Groth, Detroit's sensational rookie, doubled home the runs in the extra frame that gave relief pitcher Dizzy Trout the triumph. Vic Wertz clinched the opener with a three-run homer.

Manager Lou Boudreau hit his first home run of the season and right-hander Bob Lemon scattered six hits to register his first shutout as Cleveland Indians nipped St. Louis Browns 1-0.

New Lacrossers For Petes In OLA Senior

A number of newcomers will appear in uniform of the Peterborough Lacrosse Club this season as they step up to OLA senior "A" competietion. The 1948 senior "B" champions are working out nightly and Saturday afternoon at Miller Bowl with many of last year's players and some of the newcomers on hand, and others coming here shortly.

Jack Foote will arrive after the middle of May, and some Orillia players like the Gordon brothers and Bun Hill will be in action. Port Hope is sending up some material, too, for tryouts. Jack Howse, 21-year-old ace who played for Detroit last season, is another addition, besides two of St. Kitts juniors, who were Eastern Canada champions last year and Dominion winners the year before, Jim McNulty and Leo Teatero. Wilfred Harris, of Toronto and Lloyd Burne of North Peel, a former senior of Montreal, are two more.

Besides those mentioned, several more want to play for the Petes this season. Jerry Creighton expects to return to action along with many of last year's Petes. Coach Red Creighton is keeping the prospects hustling in early workouts now, and the club executive has big plans for improving the seating at Miller Bowl, changing players' boxes around, building a press and radio gondola, putting out program bulletins each home game, and other points. The Petes, split in two teams, may stage early practise exhibitions around the district and will organize a district intermediate circuit, too.

SPORTS SHOW WINDOW

CEC. PERDUE, Sports Editor

Beefs by the bundle, especially out of Toronto, followed publication of the first and second NHL all-star squads last week. On account of the Maple Leafs won the Stanley Cup for the third straight year—and did it in four straight this spring—yet placed not a player on either mythical team. If you'll recall, the first team had Durnan of Canadiens in goal, Quackenbush and Stewart of Detroit on defence, Abel of the Wings at centre, with Richard of Canadiens and R. Conacher of Chicago as wingmen. Second team had Rayner of Rangers in goal, Reardon and Harmon of Canadiens on defence, D. Bentley of Chicago at centre, with Howe and Lindsay of Detroit on the wings.

* * * * * *

Dit Clapper, coach of Boston Bruins the past season, points out that these all-star selections are made by the NHL coaches, and no coach may vote for a player of his own team. Furthermore, the selections are made on the scheduled games, and are turned in before playoffs commence. Hence, it is what a player does through the regular season and not in playoffs that counts. "If playoffs were considered," Dit says, "Sid Smith couldn't miss." He states that Boston finished the schedule in second place behind Detroit and just ahead of Canadiens, whereas Toronto barely made fourth and a playoff spot. Boston didn't place a player on either team, yet no kicks have come from the Bruins' camp.

* * * * * *

No Kicks Coming

Schmidt of Bruins and Loth of Canadiens ordinarily would probably make a spot, but injuries held them off. "For quite a time it looked doubtful if Toronto would make the playoffs," Dit says; "the whole team played indifferent hockey through the schedule and just managed to finish fourth, ahead of Chicago and Rangers. And these last two teams made it a fight almost to the end, a few stars on each team keeping them in the race. Leafs weren't playing the hockey they were capable of until playoffs started, so they certainly have no kick coming at not placing players on either all-star team. We finished second and didn't place any, but we aren't kicking. Even if the Almighty picked the teams, a lot of people would still kick!" Dit is a former NHL all-star himself both on defence and the wing.

A meeting is called for Friday night at eight in Legion Hall of all the Legionnaires' puckists, OHA senior "B" champs the past season. They are asked to turn in equipment at this time, vote on the club's most valuable player, and clean up seasonal business. Coach Ned Vitarelli won the OHA club trophy last year as most valuable player to his team, and there are several likely candidates for the honor this spring. By the way, the big OHA senior "B" championship trophy is now on display in Clapper's window, along with a number of pictures of Legionnaires.

Some Changes Made

With workouts continuing nightly at Miller Bowl, lacrosse senior "A" picture here is beginning to clear up. A number of classy newcomers, as listed elsewhere, will make the local stars step to catch places with the Petes this semester, players coming from Detroit, St. Catharines, North Peel, Toronto and Orillia. And several more interested in performing up this way. Besides that, Coach Red Creighton has has most of last year's locals to pick from and Jerry Creighton is coming out again. Also, some Port Hopers trying for spots. Big plans afoot to improve Miller Bowl, and also to stage practice exhibitions shortly around the district. It is likely a district intermediate grouping will be formed, too. But more again.

Other entry is the Cosmopolitans, who drill tonight and Thursday at six in the Ex. Outlaws workout at 6.15 tonight at Quaker, while Uniteds go at seven tomorrow eve in the Bowl. All open practices. Certificates were passed out at last night's session, so the scramble for players is really on. Harold Dormer reported on the OASA annual, outlining changes in rules, and so forth. Soccer Loop Invited To Join OFA

The Peterborough Football Commission has received official notification from the Ontario Football Association, in membership with the Canada Football Association, that they are willing to accept affiliation of the local body when they provide necessary finances to put them in good standing.

The letter states emphatically that no Toronto team will be permitted to play the local clubs unless they are affiliated with the OFAC. The Commission intends to promote the game in all parts of the province by means of literature, rule books, showing of coaching films, sending teams for exhibition games and in whatever manner the local authorities think the game can be best served.

Must Pay $2.00

Affiliation fee is $2.00 for each club with the cost of registration forms at 50 cents each. Each player is registered with the Dominion secretary.

Only two clubs, Canadian General and O'Halloran Garage have given written entry for the season and the Commission is awaiting official notification from the rest of the local clubs before drawing up the schedule for the season. They must have their entry before the first of May.

Here and There In Sport

By The Canadian Press

The Canadian Education Association said Tuesday night at Toronto that professional hockey officials had been co-operative into their investigation of students participating in professional sports.

In a statement of the National Council of Physical Fitness, the Association expressed regret over publicity on the effect of professional athletics on high school students.

"It appears that the hockey situation, with regard to secondary school students, is fairly serious in Ontario, and to some extent in Montreal," the report said.

Dr. G. E. Hall, president of the University of Western Ontario urged that high schools and hockey organizations throughout the Dominion agree that no student shall play outside of his school without permission of the principal and athletic directorate.

Addressing members of the Kiwanis Club of Kitchener, he reviewed cases of 79 young hockey players whose high school careers had been changed because of hockey affiliations. "I am not criticizing professional sport or hockey as a game in its technique. But I am vitally concerned about a system that is definitely injuring our secondary school system."

Conny Smythe, Managing Director of Toronto Maple Leafs, is sure the National Hockey League will play a 70-game schedule next year. He's so confident, he said Tuesday at Toronto, that one of his players already has signed a 70-game contract for next season and he has made arrangements to compensate the other seven who've signed already if extra games are approved by the NHL governors, who voted down the 10-game increase earlier this year.

With Freddie Thomas and Frank Marchand showing the way, Assumption College Purple Raiders Tuesday night hung on to an early lead to defeat Montreal YMHA 63-53, in the opening game of the Eastern Canadian Senior A Basketball finals at Windsor. Second contest of the best-of-three series will be played also at Windsor tonight.

Centre Freddie Thomas paced the combination with 20 points, while teammate Frank Marchand hooped 15.

Toronto Central YMCA became Eastern Canadian Junior Basketball Champions Tuesday night with a 72-61 win over St. Stephen, N. B., Legionnaires. The series score was 135-101, Toronto having won the opener 63-40 Monday night. Both games were played in the new Memorial Gymnasium in Calais, Maine, border town near St. Stephen.

Hard-hitting Bucko McDonald, who led his Sundridge Beavers this season to their second straight Ontario Hockey Association intermediate B title, Tuesday at North Bay was voted the most valuable player to his team. The Liberal Member of Parliament for Parry Sound was chosen by the North Bay and district hockey association's executive.

Belfast Celtic soccer team left Belfast Tuesday on the first stage of their trip to Canada and the United States, leaving behind them a disappointed man in 21-year-old Jimmy Jones, $40,000 centre forward. Still nursing a leg broken in a riot which followed a match last Dec. 26, he was advised by doctors not to travel.

AT THE BROCK TONIGHT —Ben Sharpe, pictured above, who meets Hi Lee in the semi-final bout at the Brock Arena tonight. It is Sharpe's first appearance since he broke his arm a couple of months ago. The main bout will give mat fans a chance to see the Masked Marvel without his hood. Lou Reynheer's face covering was removed two weeks ago by Fred Atkins and tonight fans will have a good look at him as he battles Ray Villmer, the human dynamo in the main go. Pat Flanagan opens proceedings taking on big 260-pound Bill Greathead.

Planning To Expand 1952 Olympic Games

ROME, April 27 (AP) — The program for the 1952 Olympic games will be expanded, rather than trimmed down.

That was settled Tuesday by the International Olympic Committee. Next important item on the agenda is the selection of the site for the 1956 games. Finland is host for the next summer games in 1952.

The committee is hopeful that a decision will be reached by Friday among those making spirited bids for that award are Detroit, Melbourne, Buenos Aires and Mexico City.

UNANIMOUS DECISION

Joe Cardinal, 153¼, of Oshawa, scored a unanimous decision over Rolly Johns, 147½, of Albany, N. Y., in a six-round bout on a boxing card at Buffalo, New York, Tuesday night.

Zale Retires From Ring Work

CHICAGO, April 27 (AP) — Tony Zale, with enough gumption to admit that he is over the hill, has retired from the ring after a long, brilliant, rough career.

In making his decision the "man of steel," whose age has made him a bit rusty, surrendered a $60,000 guarantee for a return bout with Marcel Cerdan. The Frenchman won Zale's middleweight boxing crown on a 12th-round technical knockout in Jersey City last Sept. 21.

The two battlers had been rematched at New York's Polo Grounds June 21.

The Tournament of Champions promoting firm now plans to give veteran Steve Belloise or possibly battle-scarred Jake La Motta a chance at Cerdan in either June or September. A bout between Ray Robinson and Kid Gavilan for the welterweight title may be on the same card.

Zale will be 36 next month and is father of two young daughters.

Zale held the middleweight crown from 1940 to 1948 except for a brief time in 1947 when he lost to Graziano in the second of their three fierce encounters.

Canadian Oscars

OTTAWA, April 27 (CP) — Presentation of the first Canadian "Oscars" for films produced in Canada will be made at a local theatre here tonight by Prime Minister St. Laurent. The awards, inaugurated by the Canadian Association for Adult Education, are given for distinguished film and radio programs.

WORKING is actually fun when you're feeling fit! So keep clean inside. Try the ANDREWS way to "inner cleanliness". You'll find a new spring in your step . . . a brighter twinkle in your eye. Here's how sparkling, bubbling ANDREWS LIVER SALT does its healthful work:

FIRST . . . ANDREWS cleans and refreshes the mouth and tongue.

NEXT . . . ANDREWS sweetens sour stomach and corrects excess stomach acidity.

THEN . . . ANDREWS works on the liver to check biliousness.

FINALLY . . . To complete your Inner Cleanliness, ANDREWS gently cleans the bowels. It sweeps away trouble-making poisons, corrects temporary constipation.

Try ANDREWS LIVER SALT tomorrow morning. Get a package now. And insist on getting real ANDREWS . . . not a substitute.

Three-Mile Race Held On Saturday

The second annual three-mile road race of the Peterborough Harriers Club will be held this Saturday afternoon from the YMCA at two o'clock. It is open to all runners of the district with prizes up for first, second and third.

Thistlewaite of Norwood is one of the favorites, being runner-up last year, with the winner, Ray Donnally, having returned to Scotland. McNeil and Martin are other favorites, but there may be several "dark horse" entries. The club will take entries right up until race time.

The Harriers Club has workouts each week on Tuesday and Thursday night at 7.30 in the Oval, open to anyone, under Coach Bill Marwood. The club will compete in a dual track meet in Oshawa in the near future and will take in other provincial meets through the summer. More club events are planned, also, in the coming months.

Refuse $5,000 Grant

TORONTO, April 27 (CP) — A request for a $5,000 city grant to be used in a Community Centre for one-time members of Toronto's Beanery Gang was refused Tuesday by the Board of Control. The request was made by the City Parks Department and the money was to be used in the West-Central Church where the Beanery Club members now meet. The question was referred to the Public Welfare Commission.

Omemee Team Wins

OMEMEE, April 27 (ENS) — Members of the Downeyville Badminton Club were the guests of Omemee Club on Thursday evening in Coronation Hall. Nineteen competing teams played and the score was 12 to 7 by games for Omemee. Refreshments were served during the evening.

Plan made for a round robin to be held in Downeyville commencing Friday, April 29.

James Bay Boys Need Equipment

Boxing equipment is sadly needed by the boys at the Bishop Houden Memorial School at Moose Factory, Harris Glen, formerly of Peterborough, told Jack Dane in a letter recently. He added that if Mr. Dane knew of any equipment such as boxing gloves and a punching bag they would be much appreciated.

"I have been training the boys in the fundamentals of boxing but it is difficult to teach them without the proper facilities," he wrote.

At present Mr. Glen is using a sea-bag full of old coats and hay as a punching bag. But he finds this unsuitable as the boys are constantly being hurt. He has 60 boys under his care.

About a month ago Mr. Glen left Peterborough to go as supervisor in this school on the shore of James Bay. He had always been interested in boy's work, organizing a boys' club in St. George's Anglican Church. He was a cook with the RCNVR during the war. On leaving the navy he became an employee of the Quaker Oats Company.

J. G. Barry-Thomas drove his 400 - horsepower car "Babs" over the sands at Pendine, Wales, 23 years ago today to shatter all world's records. His average speed over the mile in each direction was 169 miles per hour. John Cobb set the existing record in 1939 when he drove 368.9 miles an hour.

Discuss 5-Day Week For City Employees

A five-day week for employees of the city's departments was suggested as a practical arrangement for the period of daylight saving in a passing reference at the board of works meeting Monday. Heads of departments are being asked to study the idea as it would affect their work. An early report is expected.

Some of the outdoor employees, it was suggested, could begin work at 7 a.m. four days a week, thereby gaining the time for Saturday morning. It was thought there might be some difficulty in the sanitation department's collection of and disposal of garbage, but generally it is believed that the outdoor groups, particularly board of works, should be off the streets on Saturdays. Increased traffic becomes an interference and hindrance. The parks department could readily adjust its schedule to the five-day plan.

City Engineer Chalmers said his department had more callers on Saturday than on any other day of the week. Staggering of employment periods, it was said, might be satisfactorily adopted to give the city hall staff at least turns in Saturday holidays.

Watch Tower Lodge To Mark Anniversary

The Watch Tower Loyal True Blue Lodge 515 will celebrate in the Ashburnham Hall Saturday night its 5th Anniversary. Lodges from Apsley, Lindsay, Campbellford, Port Hope and Toronto will attend the celebration.

Special for the occasion will be exemplification of the Blue Degree upon several new members of the lodge. The degree team from the Unity Lodge of Toronto will exemplify the degree.

After the general anniversary meeting refreshments will be served. A musical program and an euchre party are planned as extra entertainment for the occasion.

When the lodge had its charter night in 1944 there were 27 members. Now there are approximately 100. The first Worshipful Master of the Lodge was Maurice E. Ketcheson, who is at present the District Deputy Grand Master.

Worshipful Master this year is Russel Williams.

Newcombe Pitches Montreal To A 4-0 Victory

By The Associated Press

Brooklyn President Branch Rickey once hung a $500,000 price tag on pitcher Don Newcombe and then slashed it to $300,000. Today it's probably back to $500,000.

The husky negro right-hander, working on the Dodgers' Montreal plantation in the International league, pitched his second straight three-hit shutout Tuesday.

Newcombe, who at first balked at joining the Royals again for whom he won 17 games including a no-hitter last year, blanked Newark Bears, 4-0. He fanned 13 and walked three.

Jersey City Giants edged Buffalo Bisons 5-4 in a home-run duel. A three-run homer by Wes Westrum in the seventh and one by Hank Thompson with the bases empty in the eighth turned the tide in favor of the Giants.

Cy Block, losing pitcher Jake Wade and Coaker Triplett homered to account for all of Buffalo's runs.

Wes Bailey went the distance for Jersey City to hang up his third straight triumph.

Baltimore Orioles nipped Toronto Maple Leafs 8-7 in 10 innings with Al Chiocki breaking up the game with a home run.

Ed Sanicki clubbed two homers for Toronto. The Leafs blew a 7-2 lead in the ninth, the Orioles scoring five times to send the game into overtime.

Johnson Starts With Bang As Boss of Armed Forces

By GEORGE RONALD

WASHINGTON, April 27—(CP).—Louis Johnson has started out with a bang in his long-cherished job as boss of the United States armed forces. As Secretary of Defence, the 58-year-old West Virginian has two main tough tasks: to squelch inter-service squabbling and to keep the country strong without wrecking its economy.

Since his swearing in last March 28 as successor to James Forrestal, big pipe-smoking Louis Johnson has left no doubt that he means business. Already he has announced he wouldn't hesitate to fire anybody who wasn't "doing his job."

That was a good start—and typical of the honest, straightforward approach Johnson takes to everything.

He has been called "a party man but no hack." His appointment, some critics contend, was due largely to the fact that he raised $1,500,000 for the Democratic party's campaign fund last fall, when most of its wealthy supporters were skeptical of President Truman's election chances. But so far he has acted like a man who knows his authority and intends to use it wisely.

Has Experience

Johnson did not take over the defence job "cold." He was Assistant Secretary of War from 1937 to 1940 and knows intimately the basic complexities of the military set-up.

During his tenure as assistant secretary, friends say, he fully expected eventually to be promoted to Secretary. But the post went to Henry Stinson, a Republican chosen by the late President Roosevelt.

Johnson was mentioned as vice-president running-mate for Roosevelt in 1940 but, when passed by, returned to his law practice. Then came service as special ambassador to India and, last year, the Democratic money-raising job.

Friends say he considers the defence secretaryship more than a mere reward. To him it is an opportunity to make a success of what many look on as the toughest government job of them all.

Theology Graduates

KINGSTON, April 27 (CP) — Seven students all but one from Ontario, will graduate from Queen's Theological College at a public convocation at Queen's University here tonight. Graduates are: Andrew Tomas Denholm of Parry Sound, Harold Wesley Griffin of Sharbot Lake, Benjamin Lewis Hodder of Creston, Nfld., Wilson Laird Morden of Picton, Johnny McAvany of Brockville, George Franklin Teskey of Wellington and Charles Trill of Midland.

Home Of Rest

SUDBURY, Derbyshire, England (CP).—Gilbert Hair, governor of the "barless" prison here said: "There is no easier life in England than prison. You don't have to use your brain once; it is easier than the army."

Raps Over Eating

TORONTO, April 27 (CP) — Dr. E. W. McHenry said Tuesday in an address to the Ontario Health Officers' Association that overeating is the only reason for overweight and that one-sixth of all Ontario adults are too fat. The largest group getting improper food are pregnant women, he said. A survey in Toronto showed that 60 per cent of pregnant women were getting insufficient amounts of milk, vitamin D and fruit.

Fire Destroys Seeds

MESSINES, Que., April (CP)—Tons of early spring seeds, cattle feed, potato plants and seedlings Tuesday were destroyed when a flash fire gutted a farmers' co-operative building in this Quebec village 60 miles north of Ottawa. Damage was expected to run about $60,000.

HOT SPOTS: "Can you tell me how to remove white spots made by hot dishes? My dining table is ruined."
Warm sweet oil or warm linseed oil rubbed on the spot with a rotary motion will often remove the spots. Try it, anyway.
SWEET PEAS: "How late can I plant sweet peas? What is the correct way to plant them? I've never gardened, but my mother grew wonderful sweet peas."
Say William Rennie Seeds Limited: Sweet peas may be planted as late as the end of May. However, the sooner they're put in the better. It helps to soak them overnight before planting. Plant in a trench four inches deep; gradually fill in as plants grow through. Manure in small quantities should be worked into the ground before planting, about four inches below the seeds.
ANNIVERSARY GIFTS: "My husband and I will be married one year next week. Is it customary for a wife to give her husband a small gift on an occasion like this?"
Whether it is customary or not, I'm sure your husband would be delighted to think that after living with him a year, you want to give him a gift. We all feel he is a lucky man.
ANGLICAN CLERGY: "When being introduced to a bishop, an archbishop or an archdeacon, how should one address them?"
The Bishop is My Lord or Bishop Beverley. The Archbishop is Your Grace or Archbishop Smith. The Archdeacon is Mr. Archdeacon or Archdeacon Jones.
VASELINE STAIN: "What will remove vaseline stains from sheets?"
Rub lard into the stain; wash in hot soapy water; rinse in hot water to which Epsom Salts has been added.
CHILD BEATING: "What are your ideas about step-parents beating step-children?"
Get in touch with your local Children's Aid or phone the local police.

Stoski who discovered the tragedy. Stoski is a neighbor of Theodor Adamovic, one of the victims and owner of the farm. Also slain were Mrs. Katherina Balatsky, 29, and her six-year-old son, Bohdan. Andrew Balatsky, the husband and lone survivor, is in critical condition in Prince Albert Hospital suffering from throat wounds as well as a fractured skull. The Balatskys came to Canada last November as displaced persons.

78,084 Lives Said Lost In Childbirth

TORONTO, April 27 (CP) — Reduction in the number of deaths of infants would bring "thousands of useful lives" to Canada and would mean "an enormous national asset," Prof. E. M. Robertson of Queen's University Tuesday told the Ontario Health Officers Association.

Dr. Robertson, Queen's professor of obstetrics and gynaecology, said that 78,084 lives were reported lost through childbirth in Canada in 1947. Of these, 7,560 were stillbirths, 54,300 resulted from abortions and 16,324 were infant deaths. In addition, 9,491 babies died before birth and 55 mothers died.

"The emphasis the national health program gives to disease should swing toward education on major maternal problems," said Dr. Robertson.

He said a paper published two years ago in the United States encouraged use of contraceptives in what he described as the erroneous belief that a short interval between babies was detrimental to future babies.

"It is possible that the delays between babies, achieved by contraception, may be squandering the greatest single favorable factor in any woman about to add to her family, namely her youth. Child spacing means maternal aging and that must be appreciated to avoid its inherent dangers."

Legion Members Hear Address On Cancer

APSLEY, April 27 —(ENS)— The regular monthly meeting of Canadian Legion Branch No. 38 held recently was an open meeting to which the public had been invited. Dr. J. C. M. Fetterly gave a talk on cancer discussing ways of preventing it and procedure for medical attention.

On behalf of the members the president, Percy Thompson, thanked Dr. Fetterly for his instructive address.

Following this meeting the Women's Auxiliary held a meeting to make plans to attend the rally to be held in Oshawa May 10. Also planned is a card party for April 27 in the Legion Hal.

Musician Acts As Ambassador

By JOHN TRACY

MONTREAL, April 27 (CP)— Alexander Brott, the Montreal composer who considers himself "a sort of musical ambassador," will be off in a few days for his second season of introducing Canadian music to European audiences.

The 34-year-old artist, whose first tour last summer brought a flood of requests from European musicians for Canadian symphonic scores, will conduct orchestras in Holland, Norway and Sweden. For the first time the programs will be entirely of Canadian music.

This trip he will carry with him 400 pounds of manuscript, the work of nine Canadian composers including some of his own.

The compositions he is presenting include those of Sir Ernest MacMillan, conductor of the Toronto Symphony Orchestra, Dr. Claude Champagne of Quebec Province's Conservatory of Music and the dramatic arts, John Weinzweig of Toronto Conservatory of Music, Jean Coulthard of the music faculty of University of British Columbia and Dean Douglas Clarke of McGill University, founder of the Monteral Symphony Orchestra.

VOL. XCVIII, No. 98 — WEDNESDAY, APRIL 27, 1949

Burnham Street Approved Site For Centre

The Memorial Community Centre committee is prepared to affirm its approval of the proposed Burnham St. site of the Centre when a written statement is received from the city council explaining why the Children's Aid Society property, George St. south is not available.

That was the unanimous decision of the committee Tuesday night influenced by a wish to have on record information relative to obstacles removing the south end lot from consideration. The motion of C. B. Neal and R. M. Glover was based on a factor of priority.

In January 1948, the committee listed its site preferences, the C.A.S. lot, Burnham St. and Nicholls Oval, in that order. The attitude of the Centre committee Tuesday night was simply a request to the council for reasons why the No. 1 location was no longer considered. They wish to have a record on their files that the C.A.S. lot had to be eliminated, against the possibility that some day this question might be asked: Why was the south end property discarded.

"We are not expressing any disapproval of the Burnham St. site," said Mr. Neal. "We merely wish to have a complete written report from the council as to why the Children's Aid property is not being considered, and information as to what money would have been involved in securing it."

At the opening of the meeting to discuss a letter from Ald. Herbert Young reporting the council's action in obtained options on the Burnham St. lots required for the Centre, and asking whether that site met with the Centre committee approval, Mr. Neal remarked: "We already have approved that site in our correspondence with the council a year ago." That was the committee letter rating the three proposed sites in an order of preference.

Recollection of the members was to the effect that the council "couldn't get anywhere with the Children's Aid Society", mentioning a reported valuation of their property at $75,000.

It was this vagueness and lack of guiding information from the council which plainly actuated the Neal-Glover motion. Previously, H. F. Dormer and W. P. Eastwood had moved that the committee pronounce its approval of the Burnham St. property, opposite Riverside Bowl. That motion was narrowly defeated, and members who voted against it explained that they were not opposing the Ashburnham site. They wished to have a statement about the C.A.S. lot on their file before proceeding to accept the Burnham St. place.

The members present were: J. A. Jebson, chairman, Wm. Eastwood, Harold Dormer, Dit Clapper, Herbert Bradburn, C. B. Neal, Ian F. McRae, Sam Whitehouse, R. M. Glover, C. S. Cummer, Paige Rowell, Ed. Riley, James Hamilton, J. J. Dorris, secretary, and J. S. Craig.

Financial Statement

Mr. Summer presented a financial statement of the Centre as of April 20 showing bond investment of $188,000, expenditures $11,228.97 and cash balance of $25,162.88; total $224,391.85.

Total contributions to the Centre fund were $199,853.26, interest on bond investment and bank deposit $24,538.59, amounting to $224,391.85. Mr. Cummer referred to the bond appreciation if the securities now in the custody of City Treasurer S. A. Couper were sold. However, it was understood that the present financial set up would be continued as it is. It was also recalled that the ratepayers of Peterborough had voted a gift of $75,000 to the Centre. This money is not to be raised by sale of debentures until it is needed.

Products of Local Industry Attractively Displayed At Peterboro's Trade Fair

Peterborough's first annual Trade Fair, which is being held all this week in the Armouries, got off to a good start Tuesday night with a large number of "first nighters" in attendance. Many favorable comments were heard upon the attractiveness of the many booths operated by the city's industries and retail establishments. The purpose of the sponsors of the fair, the Kiwanis Club, to make the citizens of Peterborough better aware of the multiplicity and diversity of products made in their midst, was achieved in large measure by means of the various exhibits.

The fair was officially opened at 8.45 by His Worship Mayor Max J. Swanston, who referred to Peterborough as Canada's "model industrial city" and declared that its rapid growth in recent years was due primarily to the large number of "excellent industries" which had decided to locate here.

In addition to the Mayor's speech, other big features of opening night were the Canadian General Electric Company's cooking school, with Miss Joyce Forman, BA, the company's home economist, as instructress, and the "Examiner Varieties," a program of entertainment which was much enjoyed by the large audience which filled the Gunnery Room at the western end of the building.

Products of the various industries which had booked space were most attractively displayed, in a way to quickly catch the eye of fair patrons. Outstanding examples were the booths of Peterborough Canoe Co., Ltd.; Peterborough Brinton Carpet Co., Ltd.; Dominik Appliances, Ltd.; Tem Travel and Ticket Agency, Dit Clapper's Sport Shop, Peterborough Mattress and Spring Co., Ltd., and Quaker Oats Co., Ltd.

Employ 11,000

Mayor Swanston, who was introduced by E. G. Pridham, past president of the Kiwanis Club, as Peterborough's "hard working mayor", pointed out that the more than 85 industries the city can now boast of employ 11,000 men and women and produce goods to the value of 80 millions of dollars every year. He expressed the gratitude of the City Council to the Kiwanis Club for making possible "this opportunity to enable the citizens to see for themselves just what the factories of Peterborough produce."

Mr. Pridham declared that one of the chief reasons why Peterborough had "grown so tremendously" in recent years, both in number of industries and in population, was because of the fine leadership given by the City Council.

Among other booths which attracted much interest was that occupied jointly by the Chamber of Commerce, Junior Chamber of Commerce, and the Kawartha Conservation Association, the latter group having a display of large photographs showing the location of its proposed new public playground at Cedar Lake. Also very popular was the live fish display of the Department of Lands and Forests, which consisted of the following varieties of game fish which abound in resort lakes near Peterborough: smallmouth black bass, largemouth black bass, pike, maskinonge, speckled trout, and pickerel.

Master of Ceremonies for the "Examiner Varieties" was El Jones and piano accompanists for the various artists was Jimmie "Mose" Yokom. Mr. Jones led the audience in a brief sing song before opening the show.

The first number was two snappy tap dances by Peterborough dance team of Joan Fletcher and Lionel Brown, who made a big hit with the crowd. Next followed a display of magic by Ross Bertram, of Toronto, who provoked much laughter with the witty sallies which accompanied the performance of his mystifying tricks.

The last artist to appear was Albert Marson, negro tenor of Toronto, whose fine voice was heard to advantage in: "There's Going to be a Great Day", "That's Why Darkies Were Born", "One Alone" from "The Desert Song", a medley of tunes from "Oklahoma", and "Old Man River".

Refuse Permit To Alter House

Adverse reports from the Fire Chief George Smith, Sanitary Inspector MacPherson and City Engineer Chalmers apparently doomed the house at 539 Waterford St., confirming to the board of works Monday the petitioned complaints of the neighborhood. The owner is Robert Dutton.

"There is no foundation under it," Mr. Chalmers said. "It is on posts and sills; the walls and floors are decayed; chimneys and roof are in poor condition; it is assessed at $400; cost of repairs would exceed half the assessment; no permit would be given because it is at the rear of another house."

There are no sanitary conveniences in the house which Chief Smith described as so dilapidated "it should be removed." The reports were unanimous. Mr. Dutton recently informed the council he was planning general repairs to the building. Decision not to issue a permit was moved by Mayor Swanston and Ald. J. E. Gillespie.

Speech Demonstration At Film Board

A demonstration of effective speaking will be given by Marshall Close at the monthly meeting of the Film Board Friday night. He is being brought here by the Peterborough Film Council, Peterborough Recreation Commission, and the Community Programs Department of the Province of Ontario. He will show how the course in effective speaking is operated. A course was conducted recently in Hamilton by Mr. Close.

The course is intended to increase the number of people who participate in discussions at club meetings. Mr. Close attempts to show how any fears in a club member to rise to his feet and voice his opinion on the subject in question may be discarded.

At the February meeting of the Film Council, Dr. R. J. Kidd, assistant director of the Canadian Association for Adult Education, talked to the members on audio-visual education and the use of films.

Six County Constables Sworn By Magistrate

Six men were sworn in as special constables for the county of Peterborough Wednesday by Magistrate W. R. Philp, K.C. at city police court. During the summer they will police places of entertainment.

The special constables are Stewart Meiklejohn, Water St. N.; William Guppy, 160½ Sherbrooke St.; Everett Ross, 402 Dublin St.; Garnet H. Dunford, 48 Sophia St., and Stanley R. Scott, 80 Victoria St.

After the oath had been taken, the magistrate reminded the men that the public has a right to expect politeness. He explained that they would be acting in the capacity of public servants.

Two Men Pay $25 Break Fish, Game Law

Two men were each fined $12.50 today at city police court for offences against the Game and Fisheries Act. Written pleas of guilty were accepted by Magistrate W. R. Philp, K.C.

Walter Pilling, 411½ London St., was charged by Game Warden Charles S. Windsor, who found him fishing for pickerel at the Lower Locks, Peterborough, at 2 a.m. April 9. The charge against S. Williamson, 146 Hunter St., of firing a rifle after sunset in a locality where game usually inhabit, was laid by Game Warden Robert H. Trotter, Apsley.

Jailed For 20 Days

Sequel to a court action the result of which Gordon Thompson was sent to jail April 5 by Magistrate W. R. Philp K. C. for two months for theft on machine parts from Walter Hargreaves at Patterson's gravel pit, North Monaghan, was heard in city police court Tuesday. James McGrath, 986 St. Marys St., was sent to jail for 20 days for stealing machine parts from Mr. Hargreaves and Manley Clarke was placed on suspended sentence for the same offence. McGrath was already on suspended sentence for a previous theft.

After the magistrate ruled that the parts stolen by Thompson were of a value less than $25 the charges against McGrath and Manley were reduced. McGrath maintained that he had taken the parts from a dump. Both men who appeared in court Tuesday were defended by W. C. Grant.

WOMEN'S MISSIONARY SOCIETY of the Presbyterian Church in Canada is holding a three-day annual meeting in St. Paul's Church. Pressing Need of the Church Missionary Workers Presbyterian Synodical Told

The Presbyterian church's pressing need for missionary workers was the main theme of the opening session Tuesday at St. Paul's Church of the Toronto and Kingston Synodical of the Women's Missionary Society annual meeting which concludes Thursday afternoon. Mrs. Tene K. Chiu, who organized a Christian school in Kunming for Chinese boys and girls seven years ago, described the shortage of Christian teachers as a great handicap and Miss Frieda Matthews, National executive secretary, National Missions, spoke of the limitations of Presbyterian missionary work in Canada caused by a lack of young candidates for missionary training.

490 Children at School

Mrs. Chiu, who is in Canada with her husband, the Rev Tene Chiu, a Presbyterian minister studying in this country for a year, said that during the Second World War a demand for a school in Kunming, which is situated 1000 miles from the coast, arose as a result of evacuation. In 1942 there were 120 children, and when she left last year the number had increased to 490.

Many of the youngsters' schooling in the Christian way of life was resulting in the parents also becoming Christians.

Since the end of the world war, there had been considerable movement back to the coast and the problem of finding enough Christian teachers had become more acute. Only 14 of a staff of 20 teachers were Christians and for the kindergarten section in which there were 130 children, there was only one trained kindergarten teacher.

Applicants Limited

Only four of every 10 applicants for admission to the school could be accepted owing to limited facilities.

As most of the members of the church were new adherents coming from heathen homes, there was a young, enthusiastic Christian group growing up. Parents had provided the land and school building and had subscribed $1,000,000 for a new auditorium. Mrs. Chiu was hoping a training school for teachers would be built in the near future as she considered this was the only way of recruiting staff. But at present, most of the parents were in favor of the auditorium.

Miss Matthews gave a brief survey of the Christian responsibilities which the Presbyterian church had undertaken in Canada. Many were asking why more was not being done to meet the needs in many parts of the country. Shortage of workers was the only reason.

During the gold rush some 50 years ago, two nurses had been sent to the Yukon and it was there that the first Presbyterian hospital was founded. During the late 20s and early 30s when the Peace River country was opened up by people moving from the southern prairies because of the ruinous climatic conditions, the Presbyterians did missionary work in the north. Today there was a great need for missionary workers in the eastern part of the province WMS members were meeting newcomers to Canada from the liners at Quebec and Montreal, she said.

There had been a great deal of work among the Chinese who came to Canada as laborers on the trans-Canada railroad. There was still a vast field to be covered among Ukranians and Hungarians. There were only two Presbyterian deaconesses working among these people at the present time.

In Vancouver and Prince Rupert there was scope for a great deal of missionary work, but the church had no one to send.

St. Paul's church had been beautifully decorated with flowers for the three-day meeting and a word of welcome to the delegates was extended by the minister, the Rev. C. G. Boyd.

Gives Church History.

Mr. Boyd said that the Presbyterian church was founded in Peterborough in 1833. St. Paul's auxiliary of the WMS was started in 1883 and there were now four auxiliaries attached to the church with a membership of 150.

Under the procedure known as the Three Rs, led by Mrs. C. W. McDonald, resources and reports were presented by delegates and Mrs. Matthews spoke of responsibilities.

Mrs. H. Mainprize, Acton, said the Synodical had 11 Mission Bands and 14 groups of Explorers; a total membership under the children's section of 2,500. Mrs. J. O. Raiston reported 92 Girls' groups with a total membership of 1,009. The Young Women's Department, which started only two years ago, had 42 groups and 867 members. Mrs. R. M. Hastings, Galt, reported.

Miss Lundia MacBeth, Toronto, said there were 236 Senior Auxiliaries and 19 Associate Societies with a total membership of 7,696.

The Evening Auxiliaries numbered 43 with 1,245 members, Mrs. A. T. Barr, Penetang, reported and Mrs. N. W. G. Baker, Toronto, said there was a total membership of 2,488 Home Helpers who provided supplies, did knitting, quilting and sewing and visited homes.

The meeting was opened by the president, Mrs. A. Glenn Thompson.

Injured By Tractor

NORWOOD, April 27.—(ENS).—When a tractor which was being loaded on to a truck at Paterson's Garage, Hastings Rd.—Monday—tipped over, Flater Long, Belmont Rd., Norwood, was injured and expects to be in Civic Hospital for approximately eigth weeks. He has a fractured pelvic bone.

Failed To Obtain Petition For Sewer

Claude H. Rogers writing from Arizona and J. A. Gibbs of Peterborough appealed to the board of works this week for sewer connection into the old Wm. Irwin neighborhood on McFarlane Ave., Ashburnham, near the canal.

Mr. Rogers said he had been promised a sewer by the late Roland Denne, when he was mayor; had assurance from James Hamilton and his successors, but that was the end of it. Mr. Gibbs enclosed a letter from a Victoria county man who wished to build low cost houses at $500 in that part of Ashburnham.

The board believed there was probably some error in the estimating that would turn out a suitable house at $500.

City Engineer Chalmers quietly said: "We have never had a petition for a sewer into that area. I understand that they couldn't get sufficient signatures."

The comment of Mr Chalmers appeared to be a mild surprise to the board. It was said that the customary and required course was the presentation to the council of a petition manifesting majority of affected ratepayers approving. Comment was to the effect that Mr. Rogers and others, including Mr. Gibbs, no doubt had made applications for sewers, but their applications had presumably not been endorsed by other ratepayers of the district in the minimum number required by statute.

Graham Funeral

Funeral service for the late Mrs. Margaret Etta Graham, 73, of 8162 Jefferson Ave., Detroit, was held at the Nisbett Funeral Home on Tuesday. The Rev. Dr. Bruce Gordon of Trinity United Church officiated. Pall-bearers were N Akins, D. Flemming, R. E. Clarke, N. and Charles McIntyre and R. A. Wilson. Burial was at Little Lake Cemetery.

Mrs. Graham died on Sunday in Detroit following a lengthy illness. She was born in Peterborough, daughter of the late Mr. and Mrs. William Kindred. She was educated here and left the city for Detroit five years ago and at one time also resided in Toronto. Her husband, Noble Graham, predeceased her.

MAIN ST. TOPICS

NEW LINDSAY FACTORY

Lindsay's building permits for April amount to $590,000, of which $500,000 is for the new Visking factory. Permits for 10 new houses include six at $10,000 each on Sylvan Crescent.

WATCHES STOLEN

Three watches were stolen in a smash and grab raid today at Bowen's Gift Shop, Charlotte St. Some time between 3 a.m. and 5.30 a.m. a plate glass window nearly half an inch thick was smashed, apparently by stones.

VACATION IN BRITAIN

Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Tinker are leaving May 5 for a summer vacation in Great Britain. They are planning to return Sept. 20. Mr. Tinker will spend considerable time in Manchester where he was born. His mother and seven brothers and sisters are living in that city.

ASKS FOR 10 DAYS

John Cahill, who appeared before Magistrate W. R. Philp, K.C., today at city police court on a charge of vagrancy, asked for 10 days in jail to give him time to settle matters concerning his unemployment. The magistrate imposed the sentence after Cahill had said he had no home.

ART DISPLAY UP

An art display of the work of the Peterborough Collegiate and Vocational School Art Classes is on display in the auditorium of the Public Library. William Graff reports there is a great number of the paintings and designs. Mothers, fathers and friends have until May 4 to see the work of the pupils.

DRIVE FOR FUNDS

Possible means of raising funds to keep the Health League branch operating for the next two years were discussed at the monthly meeting of that organization Tuesday afternoon. The Branch wishes to raise enough money this year so that they will not have to go to the public again next year for more money. George Barns, chairman of the branch, presided over the meeting.

JOINS REGULAR ARMY

Philip Brooks, 18, of 493 Hamilton St., has left the Examiner, where he was employed as an apprentice compositor to join the Canadian Army Active Force. He went to Kingston on Monday and will be sent to a basic training centre from there. Eventually he hopes to join the Paratroopers. His mother is Mrs. Margaret Brooks of Hamilton St., and his brother is Al Brooks of CHEX. The family is formerly of Toronto. Before joining the Active Force he was in the Reserve Army.

REFERRED TO BOARD

A petition to give the name Otonabee Road to that section of No. 7 Highway east of Lansdowne St. was referred by the board of works Monday to town planning committee. Opinion of the Board was that the name Lansdowne St. should be extended to the eastern boundary of the city, but Lansdowne St. actually crosses Haggart St. and ends at the river. Haggart St. begins at the end of Crescent St., and skirts Little Lake Cemetery, crossing Lansdowne St. and No. 7 Highway to the river might be called Lansdowne Place.

Showers, Stage Planned For AshburnhamHall

Renovations to the Ashburnham Hall to the extent of $400 will be undertaken by the Recreation Commission it was decided at a meeting of the Commission Tuesday night. The Commission has previously asked the Property Committee of the City Council to do the work. But in his report to the Commission Tuesday night Gordon Armstrong said the request had been turned down for the present.

Robert J. Bolton, chairman of the Commission reported that there was $800 surplus from 1948. Part of this money, he said, could be used for the alterations.

A motion was made that $400 of the surplus be used for the alterations, the type of alterations to be supervised by the Recreation Director.

Purpose of the alterations is to make the Hall suitable for a boxing club sponsored by the Peterborough Administrative Boxing Council. The P.A.B.C. is affiliated with the Commission. The stage is to be enlarged to make room for a ring and showers are to be built.

Recreation Conference Inivted

Jack Dane, Recreation Director, reported on the first meeting of the new Study and Research Committee. He said that the committee recommended to the Commission that an invitation be sent to the Ontario Recreation Association to hold their 1950 conference in Peterborough. He hastened to mention that the invitation has already been made at this year's conference.

Cost of the conference would be about $1,000 to the city for dinners and other entertainment, Mr. Dane said. He quoted figures of the Kitchener-Waterloo conference this year saying $400 had been spent by each city in welcoming the 400 delegates.

James Gillespie, the City Council's representative on the Commission warned the Commission that he thought the Council would be reluctant to pay that amount next year.

The Commission will suggest that a formal invitation be sent the Ontario Recreation Association explaining that the Commission is under no financial obligations.

Uniforms For Girl Supervisors

Girl supervisors on the playgrounds this year will have that "new look". Mrs. W. Whalon in reporting on the Boys' and Girls' committee, said that new uniforms for the girls have been decided upon. The uniforms this year will have to be bought by the supervisors, each girl requiring two uniforms. The new outfits cost $5 each.

Other reports were given on ladies' sports, William Bennett; finance, R. E. MacDonald; adult education, A. E. Borland; neighborhood Councils, Jack Dane.

In the correspondence two requests for financial aid were received from the Peterborough Ornamental Swimming Club and the Peterborough Harriers' Club.

Mr. Dane said the Kawartha Conservation Association wished approval of the Commission on the proposed recreational park at Little and Big Cedar Lakes. All were in favor of it.

PCVS

Dr. F. P. Ray, head of the history department at PCVS, spoke to members of the PCVS Home and School Association at the regular meeting Monday evening. He was introduced by Mrs. T. J. Carley. His topic was "Tools and Techniques of Education."

"Tools of education" Dr. Ray explained," are the course of study outlined by the Department of Education. The time element given teachers in which to instruct, the text books authorized, the reference books which help to fill the void left by text books. Ilustrative materials and moving pictures which are known as visual aids and the personality of the teacher are also important tools, as well as the teacher's scholarship and educational background."

"Techniques are as different as teachers and classrooms. However certain fundamentals are found in all classrooms. For successful teaching, an intimate contact between teacher and pupil must be established. Homework is also a very great necessity and must be stressed as there is no royal road to learning" the teacher advised.

Dr. Ray believes there are three important aims to education: 1, training the student how to think; 2, training him to be a better citizen in a democratic country; 3, training him to earn a living. "Peterborough acquits itself creditably in the first instance" he said. "There is room for much improvement in the second place." He said that though difficult, it would be a good thing to take students to a session of court in order to learn the working of law, to meetings of City Council, to have prominent men in the community address them, arrange tours to places of historic interest, and to sessions of parliament, provincial and federal, so they can see legislation being made and be able to exercise their franchise when it comes. He suggested the Home and School Association might help in instituting this program.

"Parents can be of great assistance in curtailing their children's social activities and giving extra time for rest and study" he said. With support of the home and techniques of good teaching, Dr. Ray is certain children can be trained not only to earn a living but to be good citizens.

The speaker was thanked by Mrs. G. MacMillan.

Two solos were sung by Mr. Mr. Bob King, a former pupil, with accompaniment by Mrs. A. E. DeNure.

Mrs. W. T. Fanjoy, president, and Mrs. L. Cunningham, treasurer, reported on the convention of the Ontario Federation.

It was decided to entertain the girls' and boys' basketball teams. Members were reminded of the band concert being given on Friday, April 29 by the school band.

Attention of all members was called in the matter of cards and literature being sent to all women's organizations which stem from a communist organization. These cards ask women to sign and join a great peace movement which naturally secures their sympathies and a good many signatures. Mrs. Fanjoy warned all against signing anything that they do not have complete information on.

Refreshments were served by Mrs. G. Frise, social convener.

PRINCE OF WALES SCHOOL

Prince of Wales Home and School Association met in the kindergarten room Tuesday evening, with Mrs. F. Gray, president, in the chair.

Mrs. H. J. Parnell opened with reading the 23rd Psalm, in which the audience participated.

A concise and interesting report on the convention of the Ontario Federation of Home and School Associations, was read by Mrs. H Kearns.

Piano solos by Terry Northrop and Barbara Woodcock were thoroughly enjoyed, while the recitation of "Vitae Lampada" by Paul Sparrow, brought back memories to many present. These three pupils competed successfully in the Music Festival.

Highlight of the evening was a talk on "Schools and Education in Holland" by Miss Nell Schel, herself a High School teacher of some years standing. She stressed the fact that while she had no intention of making a comparison between our schools and Dutch schools, it was good for all of us "to step outside of our own circle and see what others had to contend with." Her remarks on the psychology of the child as compared to that of the adult were most informative. She explained that it was necessary to develop understanding from the earliest years; first understanding of things as a whole, understanding of things in detail later. In this respect the Dutch school teachers are very much in accord with Canadian.

Miss Schel regretted that there was no contact between parents and teachers in her country, and expressed a hope that when she returns to Holland she may be one of the pioneers in that field. She deplored the fact that class distinction was still prevalent in most of the lands of the old world, and that the children of wealthy parents must study to obtain their High School diplomas, no matter what their ability or lack of ability. Instead of developing natural abilities to make them useful members of society, such children are sometimes forced through years of training in subjects which they cannot cope with, merely to satisfy the whim of a wealthy parent.

Most schools in Holland are Government owned, and teachers are also appointed by Government. Writing, reading and arithmetic take priority in Public School, while drawing, physical training and singing are only taught once a week. The fact that the use of the strap is forbidden in the schools is probably due to the very strict home training received by most Dutch children; a training which tends to make them obey without question.

Miss Schel concluded her talk with a brief outline of the war years in Holland when most schools were used for barracks and books and supplies of all kinds almost disappeared from the market.

A vote of thanks for the eloquent talk was given by Mrs. E. J. Thompson; also to the three pupils who contributed to the enjoyment of the evening.

Attendance prize was won by Miss M. Falkner's morning class.

Mrs J. Donaldson, recording secretary, acted as pianist for the evening.

A social half-hour followed the meeting, with refreshments being served by Mrs. H. Kearns, Mrs. J. James, Mrs. A. Smith and assistants.

Festival Winners Heard In Local Recital

The Peterborough Branch of the Ontario Registered Music Teachers' Association met Monday evening in the Public Library auditorium, Mrs. Ross Williamson, president, in the chair.

A delightful program of music was much enjoyed, presented pupils of several members who had been successful in the recent Music Festival. Representing piano, vocal and violin were the following: Bobbie Ritchie, vocal solo, Bobby Wills, piano solo, Bobby and Billie Whitton, piano duet, Lorna Miles, piano solo, Lois Holman, piano solo, Beverly Goodman and June Bullied, piano duet, Beverley Lillico, piano solo, June Hutchinson, winner of the Gliddon memorial scholarship, two piano solos, Bill Anderson, ciolin solo, Mrs. D. McKenzie, piano solo, Faye Schwartz, piano solo.

Interesting reports were given by two delegates to the annual meeting of the Association held in Toronto last week. Mrs. Elsie Flett stressed the opportunities afforded in meeting of such a group in Convention. Excellent lectures were given by John Weatherseed, on psychology of music, Sir Ernest MacMillan who demonstrated the well-tempered clavicord, using Bach as a basis Dr. Stanley Russell, minister of Deer Park United Church, Toronto, said "Music is intensely important to all and brings all races and nationalities together. Radio is not a substitute for a personal performance."

Mrs. Ross Williamson told of her enjoyment at a musicale in St. Paul's Anglican Church, Toronto, where Dr. Charles Peaker was at the organ and Sir Ernest MacMillan conducted the orchestra with the choir and soloist of the church assisting. This was arranged especially for convention delegates, but was open to the public. Members of the Association and guests were entertained afterward at a reception in the Morris Cody Hall.

Five finalists for the vocal scholarship offered by the Music Teachers were also heard, with Frances James adjudicating. A session called "information please" was conducted by a panel of experts including George Lambert, singing, Margaret Miller Brown, Piano, Dr. F. J. Horwood, theory, Hyman Goodman, string instruments, Dr. Leslie Bell, choral, and Dr. Chas. Peaker, organ.

Mrs. Williamson reported on a violin forum by Frank Blatchford in which he advocated class teaching in violin for four or five months. In a vocal forum Dorothy Allan Park stressed the importance of natural vocal endowment and said teachers should have courage to say "no" to pupils who do not possess it. Also, a good competent, imaginative accompanist is necessary.

A much enjoyed address at the convention was by Dr. Theodore Vausburgh of Midland, Michigan, on "Music in industry". As director of music in a chemical plant he obtains most amazing results with various choirs and an orchestra and they present a number of concerts and operettas each year.

Mrs. Williamson was one of three elected to the Provincial Council for a three year term. Mrs. Elizabeth Wilson Black of Port Colborne was elected president.

MarkStWMSHears Rev. Kibblewhite

Members of Mark Street WMS met Tuesday afternoon for the regular meeting in the church parlors. Mrs. A. M. Partridge, president, opened with prayer. She introduced the guest speaker, the Rev. W. E. Kibblewhite, who spoke on the importance of the Easter message, showing how steady faith of women is needed in all Christian work. "It was a woman who discovered the resurrection and brought the message to the disciples," he reminded.

An invitation from Keene WMS to attend their June meeting and provide the program was accepted. Mrs. G. Eason and Mrs. J. Arnold were appointed to arrange transportation, Mrs. E. DeNure and Mrs. E. Stephenson to arrange the program. Correspondence was read by Mrs. E. Lillico, who reported nine cards sent in April and a parcel to Miss Bamforth in India. Mrs. A. Scriver gave a good financial report for the first quarter.

Mrs. A. J. Macklin advised that four boxes of used clothing were sent to Toronto for European relief. She also led in prayer for the missionaries. Mrs. J. Hunter, reporting for the Friendship secretary, said 67 calls were made during the month. Report of CGIT was given by Mrs. G. Eason and the Mission Circle by Mrs. A. Scriver.

Temperance study was taken by Mrs. E. Stephenson, on "Menace of Alcoholism". She was assisted by a number of ladies, Mrs. F. Edworthy leading in prayer. Devotions were led by Mrs. M. Stockdale, who read an Easter poem. Mrs. E. DeNure played quiet music at the opening, Bible readings were given by Mrs. E. Lillico and Mrs. G. Eason. Mrs. DeNure contributed a pleasing solo and was accompanied by Mrs. J. Arnold. Mrs. Stockdale spoke of the Pentecost and the period closed with prayer by Mrs. S. Matchett.

Mrs. H. Hunter moved a vote of thanks to the speaker and those taking part in the meeting.

St. John's WA Afternoon Tea Sends More Food Parcels

A pleasant social hour among friends was the reward to about 100 Peterborough ladies Tuesday afternoon when they attended the afternoon tea in St. John's Parish Hall. Their hostesses were members of the Afternoon Branch of the WA.

Proceeds of this event, which is held each spring, are used for postage on parcels of food which the Auxiliary sends to Britain each month. A pleasant sum was realized, bolstered considerably by the sale of home cooking in charge of Mrs. R. Lawless and Mrs. William Dyer.

Additional revenue came from a draw on a large cake, donated by Mr. Archie Henderson. Mrs. Fred Stewart sold th tickets. Mrs. G. T. Melton, a life members of the WA, was asked to select the winner and she drew Mrs. H. C. Scotheran's ticket. An inscription in icing on the cake read "Congratulations to the winner."

Beautiful yellow roses in full bloom were the first floral tribute to catch the eye. On the tea table there was a spreading bouquet of sunny daffodils and narcissus in a silver bowl. Triple silver candle holders provided flanking rows of light from the white tapers.

Tea pourers were Mrs. B. Waldie, Miss Margaret English, Mrs. H. G. Kelsey and Mrs. T. H. Floyd.

Mrs. D. J. Eldred was general convener of the tea and her tea room assistants were Miss R. Quartermaine, Mrs. G. Groombridge, Mrs. R. Crocker, Mrs. H. Lemmings, Mrs. H. Wilson, Mrs. P. Martyn, Mrs. J. Pickering Mrs. C. Barton, Mrs. H. Gamble, Mrs. E. Graham and Mrs J. D. Cochrane.

The guests were greeted at the door by Mrs. H. C. Scotheran, president, and Mrs. G. Moore, vice president.

Articles of clothing and other necessities for comfort which the WA is sending to an Indian boy at St. Alban's School, through the Diocesan convener, were on display. At conclusion of the tea Mrs. H. G. Kelsey proceeded to pack the bale for shipment.

Social Situations

SITUATION: Your small (and at the moment, grubby) child starts to climb up on the lap of a woman caller who is "dressed up" for the occasion.

WRONG WAY: Let the child climb over the guest an assure her that he seldom makes friends with anyone so quickly.

RIGHT WAY: Keep the child from climbing over the guest or crawling up on her lap.

Of Interest to Women

DOROTHY DIX

Are Children Worthwhile? Wife Fears Responsibility

DEAR DOROTHY DIX—I have been married for several years and my husband is very anxious that we have a family, but I do not want any children. In the first place, they cost too much to rear and, in the second place, they are very likely to turn out badly and bring nothing but misery to their parents

Would you say that children are worth while?

MRS. X. Y. Z.

✧ ✧ ✧

Dorothy Dix

ANSWER—The woman who refuses to have children robs herself. She robs her husband and she robs her country. She cheats on Nature. If she did not mean to give her husband children, then she had no right to marry.

Children are worth while for many reasons. First, they are one's greatest pleasure. Seeing a little child's mind develop is the most fascinating sport that you will ever engage in, and if you miss that, you will have cut yourself out of a world of entertainment and happiness.

Then, children are worth while because they give you an interest in life. When you get along towards middle-age and have come to the point where you are not so keen about having or doing the things you used to, then you begin living your life over again in your children. You will get lots more kick out of giving your youngsters the good things of life than you ever did from buying things for yourself. Listen to mothers brag about their daughters' beaux. Listen to fathers boast of the successes their sons are making. They still have an interest in life, something vital that childless people do not have.

Tie That Binds

Children are forth while because they are the real tie that binds a husband and a wife together. Many a woman's hold on her husband is through her children. And if a husband and wife really love each other, then the children make them truly one, because they are bound together by a million hopes and fears and ambitions they have shared.

And children pay even in a financial sense. How many old parents there are who but for their children would be on charity. And look about you and see the old parents whose children are making their last days sweet with their care and devotion. Oh, yes, there is no doubt that children are definitely worth while.

✧ ✧ ✧

DEAR MISS DIX — I am a young chap who has been trying to save a little money just in case Old Man Opportunity should knock on my door, but I am having a tough time doing it as the girls are always hounding me to take them to parties, shows and dinners, all of which call for cash. I have an automobile and it is in constant use as the girls love to take long rides, and gasoline costs money.

Now I don't want to spend all of my money, but neither do I want to hurt the girls' feelings. What should I do?

UNEASY.

✧ ✧ ✧

ANSWER—Well, I don't see why you should be uneasy about what to do. Just brace up and use a little backbone and refuse to be such an easy mark. Don't kid yourself into thinking that it is your personal attraction that makes girls call you up on the phone and ask you to take them to the movies and parties and dinners and for rides in your car. Any youth who has a car is always in demand and while your money lasts you will always be a riot with the fair sex.

But you will never save any money as long as you let girls exploit you, for they are cheerful workers who never weary of separating a man from his roll.

✧ ✧ ✧

DEAR DOROTHY DIX—I have two children who are half-grown. When they were little they seemed to love me, and obeyed me, but for the last three years I have been unable to handle them at all. Their father encourages them and does not want me to correct them.

What shall I do?

A DISCOURAGED MOTHER.

ANSWER — There are many, many mothers who are facing the same problem as you are. Everywhere there are half-grown youngsters who have revolted against parental authority and thrown off all restraints. They are sure they are wiser than their fathers and mothers, so there is no arguing with them.

All that you can do is to handle the situation as tactfully as you can, and, without their knowing it, try to steer them into the right path. They are too big to spank, even if spanking did any good. Of course, if you could afford to send them off to a boarding school, that would solve your problem. But if you can't do this, just try not to antagonize them by continual fault-finding and nagging. Just be as patient as you can with them and wait for them to get over this crisis in their lives.

Mrs. Drew Urges Women Take More Active Role

TORONTO, Apri 27 (CP) — Mrs. George Drew Tuesday told a cheering audience of more than 1,000 women delegates to the Ontario Progressve Conservative party's leadership convention that "the destiny of Canada lies in the hands of the women."

The wife of the party's national leader said in her address that Communists are being "constantly infiltrated into Canada" to influence youth.

The Provincial Women's Advisory Committee, meeting in connection with the leadership convention, heard speeches from 12 delegates. They all emphasized the role of women in the coming federal election.

Mrs. Ryland H. New, of Oakville, Ont., past national president of the Imperial Order Daughters of the Empire, advised the party to nominate a few efficient women to run for office. But, she said "except in rare cases" women are not ready to become political leaders.

Gradual Development

"It would not be fair, no matter how fine the woman might be to take from her the comparative shelter of her surroundings and thrust her before the searchlight of public life without any previous qualification," said Mrs. New.

Senator Iva Fallis of Peterborough said the Liberal party had been in power so long "they seem to rule now by divine right." She criticized Prime Minister St. Laurent for being the only Commonwealth Prime Minister who was not attending the London conference.

"He apparently considers it more important to look after the interests of the present Liberal government at Ottawa than attend this important conference."

CHILD'S SULKY SPELLS WORRIED HER UNTIL...

If your child has moody, cross, irritable spells for what seems to be no reason, watch for "hidden" constipation. Oftentimes, youngsters' bowels, altho moving regularly, do not move completely. As a result, harmful wastes remain in the intestines, making the child listless, peevish and not feeling like eating. What may be needed is Children's Own Tablets. They help give the thorough evacuation that quickly helps make most children feel like their usual happy selves. Pleasant tasting, small, easy to swallow, Children's Own Tablets are especially prepared for kids from 3 to 15. Only 25¢ at your druggist. Get a box today.

6—In Memoriams

HANCOCK—In loving memory of Mrs. C. J. Hancock, who passed away April 27, 1942.
Two dear bright eyes, a tender smile,
A loving heart that knew no guile,
Deep trust in God that all was right,
Her joy to make some other bright.
If sick or suffering one she knew,
Some gentle act of love she'd do;
No thought of self, but of "the other",
I know he said, "well done' dear mother."
—Ever remembered by husband and family.

YARDLEY—In loving memory of a dear wife and mother, Anne Selina Yardley, who passed away April 27, 1943.
Her thoughts were all so full of us,
She never could forget,
And so we think that where she is
She must be watching yet.
As angels keep their watch up there,
Please, God, just let her know
That we down here do not forget,
We love and miss her so.
—Ever remembered by her Husband, Daughter and Family.

7—Cards of Thanks

Mrs Ephriam Bronson wishes to take this opportunity to thank attending doctors and nurses, relatives, friends and neighbors, for their many kindnesses; cards, flowers and fruit sent to her during her recent confinement in Peterborough Civic Hospital.

On behalf of Rev. Father McCarney and the C.W.L. of the Lady of Assumption Parish, Otonabee, I wish to thank everyone who contributed, and to each and everyone who helped in any way toward the wonderful success of the bazaar. Your kindness and generosity is most gratefully appreciated.—Mrs. F. Crowley, President

Hamilton Group Praised By Adjudicator

By KAY REX

TORONTO, April 27, (CP) — The Players Guild of Hamilton, last night served up a gay little three-act comedy at the Dominion Drama Festival.

The play, "John Loves Mary," by Norman Krasna, drew enthusiastic applause from the large audience, and compliments from adjudicator Philip Hope-Wallace in the festivals second night performance.

The play was the first comedy of the week-long festival which until now has been devoted to serious drama.

Mr. Hope-Wallace said the Hamilton group had given a performance "extremely well-timed," and with a "highly professional polish"

He predicted that Elizabeth Murley as Mary, the boisterous Senator's daughter, could have a bright career as a professional actress if she were so inclined.

Other members of the 10-man cast played their parts well. John Miller as red, a wartime buddy of Mary's sweetheart, was "one of those people created to be a natural comic," said the adjudicator.

Varied Menu

A varied bill-of-fare greeted theatre-lovers at the Tuesday matinee which opened with a London Little Theatre production of "Over the Boiler Room," a one-act domestic tragedy by William Digby of London, Ont.

This is the Canadian-written play of the festival, and Mr. Hope-Wallace described the performance as a "good bit of theatre."

Margaret Skinner was complimented for her "naturalistic acting."

Second production in the lengthy afternoon show was Racine's "Phedre," performed by Le Conservatoire Lassalle, a French-language drama school of Montreal.

Mr. Hope-Wallace said the director of the company had respected all the best traditions of the French theatre. Racine was one of the most demanding of all French dramatists and the group had successfully brought forth a beautiful interpretation of the famous tragedy.

Hits Policeman Takes Revolver

TORONTO, April 27.—(CP).—A 19-year-old Toronto youth today was charged with assaulting a police officer and stealing his revolver following a wild chase in which a score of police officers and a number of police cruisers took part.

Alfred Moldewicz, 19, appeared in police court and was remanded to May 4 on $2,000 bail pending a mental examination.

Constable Albert Smallbone said he was standing at midtown Toronto intersection when the youth jumped on his back and pulled him to the ground. The assailant then grabbed the constable's revolver and fled.

When the officer notified headquarters, the entire district was surrounded and the youth was arrested about 10 minutes later. The gun was recovered.

No Report On File On CAS Property

"There is no definite information or report on file from the Children's Aid Society as to valuation of their property and Shelter on George St.," City Clerk E. A. Outram told the Examiner today in regard to the resolution of the Memorial Community Centre committee Tuesday night.

"I know there was some discussion with the C.A.S. probably a year and a half ago when the Centre committee was enquiring about that property as a Centre site, but we have nothing on record from the society showing what they would take for their property."

TORONTO PRODUCE

Support Lacking Plan For Herd Improvement

"If farmers don't want this service, we are not going to try to push it onto them," Clifford Morrow, of livestock branch of the Ontario Department of Agriculture, said today, in regard to the dairy herd improvement plan.

"If farmers do not feel that it is in their interest to organize dairy herd testing groups, there is nothing we can do about it, but when they do organize we'll do the best we can for them."

Dairy herd test groups should consist of not fewer than 24 members and not more than 26. Mr. Morrow said there were already two each in Halton, Simcoe, Ontario and Hastings counties; and one each in Welland, Leeds, Stormont, Grenville and Glengarry. Others are beginning May 1 and June 1, but that will be the last new undertakings until the fall.

Mr. Morrow explained that the men who are engaged to do the club testing have to take special instructions at OAC. The holidays will suspend courses until the fall. So the final group of supervisers will be trained in May.

Membership in the dairy herd improvement policy clubs is restricted to owners of grade or mixed herds. If a herd includes any grade dairy animals it is classed mixed Peterborough farmers appear to be passing up this chance to get exact information about both their milkers and sires. Details have been published. R. H. Graham advocated it here, but enquiries have been few. It is a form of ROP with the supervisor doing practically all the work. That explains the limited membership, permitting one day to each herd.

WHY ENDURE THE MISERY OF— "Cold-hangover"

IS "Cold Hangover" an aftermath of your colds? Its symptoms are a hacking cough, poor appetite, lack of energy. "Cold Hangover" often invites another cold, too, since resistance is lowered. Waterbury's Compound* helps relieve "Cold Hangover", restores that glad-to-be-alive feeling and builds resistance to future colds. Waterbury's Compound is easy to take without oily aftertaste. Good for all the family, Waterbury's Compound is also available as a Plain tonic. Ask your druggist.

To Offer $2,000 For Moore Lot

Board of works is offering Edward Moore $2,000 for his lot at the southwest corner of Monaghan Road and Romaine St. He bought the property several years ago for a garage site, received permission to build, but delayed going ahead with his project.

Town planning and the council both hesitated in approving the erection of a building at that corner primarily because it would tend to increase traffic danger at the C.P.R. crossing by reducing visibility of trains approaching from the west. Residents of the neighborhood objected to the service station, and it was also felt that with service stations at the Monaghan Road and Alber... St. corners of Monaghan Road, the district was ufficiently supplied with that type of service. Eventually permit was withdrawn.

Mr. Moore acquired the service station at Monaghan Road and Chamberlain Street, and this year applied for permission to operate a used car sale lot at Romaine St. Through his solicitor, W. B. Gordon, he told the council he had been offered $3,500 for this property. It was understood that this price assumed the securing of a service station permit.

The $2,000 offer in a motion by Ald. D. Miller and Ald. H. Young included the condition of acceptance in 30 days.

Back After Round-Trip

CHURCHILL, Man., April 27 (CP)—An RCAF Dakota returned here Tuesday night after a round-trip to Chesterfield Inlet, 400 miles north, where it left a medical group who will re-examine Eskimos stricken with poliomyelitis early this year. The medical party is expected to remain at the Inlet, centre of a 40,000-equare-mile area under federal health department quarantine, for three or four years.

Re-Elected President

NEW YORK, April 27 (AP) — Robert McLean, president of the Philadelphia Evening Bulletin, was re-elected president of the Associated Press Tuesday.

PrisonSpankings Absurd-Officials

KINGSTON, April 27—Reports in Toronto describing 'spankings" and radio cutoffs among punishment meted out to 300 inmates of Collins Bay Penitentiary over an Easter fuss in the jail were labelled "absolutely untrue" by a top official of the penitentiary Tuesday night.

There were no more than 40 men involved in the Easter ruckus and a Toronto report concerning the disturbance was described as the "only true metropolitan press interpretation" of the occasion.

"There was no paddling and the radios have never been cut off in the penitentiary at any time. Only a few men were kept for a short time in the cells. And there aren't even 300 men in the institution at the present time."

Called To Ottawa

TORONTO, April 27 (CP) — An urgent call to Progressive Conservative members of the House of Commons to be in Ottawa today was sounded Tuesday night at the party's Provincial Leadership Convention. A. D. McKenzie, Provincial President, announced that A. C. Casselman, party whip, had phoned to say it is important that all the party's MPs be in their seats at the 3 p.m. opening of the House today. Mr. McKenzie did not give the reason for the summons.

Temporary Freedom

MONTREAL, April 27 (CP) — Gui Caron, Quebec provincial leader of the Labor Progressive party, Tuesday obtained his temporary freedom from jail after an appeal was filed by his counsel. Caron was sentenced to three months in jail recently for his part in the riotous "peace rally" here March 29, was released on $100 bail.

Boy Falls Off Bridge

TORONTO, April 27 (CP) — The body of 10-year-old Stewart Oathwaite was recovered from Toronto Bay Tuesday, 10 minutes after he fell off a bridge at Algonquin Island. The boy had been walking across the bridge when he disappeared over the side, witnesses said.

Wants Voters To Know Facts

TORONTO, April 27 (CP) — E. F. Conover of Brampton, president of the Young Progressive Conservatives of Ontario, said Tuesday in an address that youths casting their first ballots tend to favor Socialism because they "do not know what they are voting for."

The 26-year-old speaker told the YPC meeting at Tuesday's session of the Ontario Progressive leadership convention that since the last Federal election in 1945 there are some 1,200,000 new voters, 900,000 of whom recently reached voting age.

"It is up to you and me to make the young people realize what they are doing by voting Socialist," he said.

"Don't let them get away with whitewashing their platform with a program of social security," he said. "More social security measures have been instituted by a Conservative government in Canada than any other government since Confederation.

"Don't let the Socialists masquerade as a party of Labor while at the same time painting the Conservative party as a group of anti-labor capitalists."

"The vote that stays at home is the Conservative vote. You may be sure that every Communist and every Socialist gets out to vote. See that the Conservatives get out to vote"
